

Chapter 1031: Shallow Family

When Madam Lu went out, she bumped into Lu Heting, who had just returned.

She stopped in her tracks and said, "Heting..."

She wanted to tell Lu Heting to leave Su Bei. Although she could hear the teasing tone in Feng Ze's voice, she would rather believe that it was all because of Su Bei.

"How's the company going?" Madam Lu asked when she saw Lu Heting stop in his tracks.

"I'll take care of it. It should be done soon," said Lu Heting. Things had happened too suddenly, and he needed time to deal with it.

Feng Ze's foundation in S Country was still shallow, and he might not be a match for Lu Group.

Madam Lu was worried. "He took back the Feng family's company and knows everything about us."

Lu Heting said calmly, "Don't worry, I'll take care of it."

He was still busy with something, so he didn't say much to Madam Lu.

Madam Lu made up her mind and went to look for Su Bei.

It was already the eighth day since Su Bei came here to film her scenes. The scenes for that day had ended. If there was nothing else, she could go home the next day.

When she heard Xiao Bai say that an outsider's car had arrived, she pursed her lips and smiled. She guessed that it was probably Lu Heting.

He said that he would come once every three days. Liar, it was already the eighth day.

But this was also good. If he came too often, Su Bei would not have the stamina and energy to deal with him.

Su Bei still had scenes to shoot, so she could only suppress her emotions and wait.

The evening air in the suburbs was especially fresh, and it was mixed with the smell of grass. It made people feel happy.

The filming of her last scene of the day was finally done. Su Bei tidied up her hair and came out. She did not see Lu Heting but Madam Lu instead.

She carried an exquisite small bag, and her hair was combed neatly. There was a kind smile on her elegant face.

"Su Bei." Madam Lu walked over and greeted Su Bei.

Madam Lu rarely showed her face, so everyone just thought that she was a rich lady without knowing she was Madam Lu.

When she came to see Su Bei, everyone wasn't really pleased about it.

The light in Su Bei's eyes faded a little, but she still welcomed her into her lounge.

"You won't blame me for being abrupt, will you?" Madam Lu asked with a smile.

"No." Su Bei poured her a cup of tea. "It's just that this place is remote and the roads are not very convenient. It must have been tough for you to come here, right, Mom?"

Madam Lu smiled. "It's nothing. I'm just here to take a look. Are you done filming?"

"Yes, I can go back tomorrow," Su Bei replied.

Of course, she knew that Madam Lu was not here just to show her concern.

After interacting with her, she had long realized that Madam Lu treated her well on account of Da Bao.

Su Bei, who had always had shallow family relations, did not have any extravagant hopes. It was already good enough that they could both treat each other with respect. Did she expect the other party to treat her as her own daughter?

She had not even found a mother-daughter relationship with Lin Shulian.

After Madam Lu drank her tea, she finally got to the main topic. "Su Bei, Lu Group is currently facing a huge problem. Feng Ze was the one who caused it. Right now, Heting is having a hard time dealing with it."

Su Bei's eyes widened slightly. She still did not know about these things. Time was too tight every day. How would she dare to play with her phone in front of He Xuyan?

"Feng Ze?" Su Bei did not doubt Feng Ze's ability.

Chapter 1032: The Best Choice

However, Su Bei doubted that Feng Ze would do such a thing.

Madam Lu saw that she did not believe her and said, "Su Bei, Lu Group's problems are not just related to the Lu family. The entire economy of S Country might be affected. The effects might even spread to the entire world."

"So why are you looking for me?"

"Feng Ze probably did this because of you," Madam Lu said bluntly.

Su Bei had a flash of worry for Lu Heting in his heart, but she said, "Mom, you might be mistaken. How can a man's affairs be over a woman? I don't think it's worth it for someone to do this for me. So, there might be something else going on with Feng Ze."

Besides, she knew Feng Ze pretty well. He had never gone overboard before. Was it possible for him to do it now?

Madam Lu looked at her calmly. "I've asked. Feng Ze does have that intention toward you."

"So?" Su Bei asked.

"So, it might be best if you leave Heting," Madam Lu finally revealed her intentions.

The smile on Su Bei's face suddenly turned cold with a touch of indifference.

She looked at Madam Lu. "Are you sure this will work?"

"I'm not sure, but as long as there's a chance, I want to give it a try. You have to know that Heting didn't have a father since he was young. It's not easy for him to be able to hold up the Lu family's business with one hand. If there's really a crisis, he won't be the only one suffering defeat. There are countless people who rely on Lu Group for a living."

"Su Bei, I know you won't bear to.

"This method might not be the best method, but as long as it could slightly stop Feng Ze, I want to try it.

"This is my responsibility to my son and Feng Ze."

As Su Bei listened to these words, Madam Lu's words softened. She even mentioned how Lu Heting had lost his father when he was young and tried to use emotions to make Su Bei soft-hearted.

However, Su Bei hit the nail on the head and pointed out, "Actually, it's also because you don't like me that this matter is just an opportunity for you to speak out. That's why you came to look for me and want me to leave, right?"

Madam Lu's thoughts were exposed. Indeed, not only did she want to resolve this matter, but she also wanted Su Bei to leave.

The two intentions intertwined together, causing her to have such thoughts. Madam Lu didn't hide it anymore and said, "You're very smart. You've already guessed that it's like this, right? So, since it's like this, do you understand what I mean?"

She was still smiling amiably as though she was chatting with Su Bei about some warm and intimate matters.

She smiled and took another sip of tea before standing up. "You don't want Heting to be in a difficult position, right?"

Facing Su Bei, Madam Lu did not offer to give her a check. After looking at Su Bei again, she turned around and left.

Su Bei sighed softly. She really did not expect that the Lu family would think of sacrificing themselves first when there was a fight between Feng Ze and Lu Heting.

She really wanted to ask Feng Ze what he was up to.

After Madam Lu finished speaking to Su Bei, she turned around and left. She believed that Su Bei would make a choice. She also believed that her appearance represented Lu Heting's intentions.

If Su Bei was sensible, she should quietly leave.

She did the same thing five years ago, didn't she?

Chapter 1033: I Won't Hitch A Ride For Free

Su Bei did not fall for her tricks.

She would not believe anything until she met Lu Heting.

However, when she took out her phone and read the news, she realized that the matter had indeed blown up. There were even people who wanted to see what consequences Lu Group would have to face.

There were also people in the industry who were secretly spreading rumors about Su Bei's bad luck. She had only signed with Di Xing Media Company for a few days, yet such a big thing had happened to Lu Group. She was indeed a woman who brought bad luck to wherever she went!

Su Bei immediately said to Xiao Bai, "Pack your things. I have to rush back tonight."

"But Director He said that the production team's car will only return tomorrow. We still have to pack up. And we're supposed to have dinner together tonight," Xiao Bai reminded Su Bei.

"Then help me stay here and see if there's anything to do. I'll go back tonight."

"What's the matter? Why are you in such a hurry?" Xiao Bai was still out of the loop.

Su Bei could not explain either and could only say, "It's my own matter. My scenes here are over. I'll go talk to Director He myself. Stay here and help me."

Su Bei found Director He and asked to leave first.

"The production team doesn't have time to get a car for you now." He Xuyan glanced at her with his dark eyes. "Besides, our plan is to leave tomorrow morning."

"My scenes are over. I have my own car," Su Bei said. "I can drive back by myself. I just need your approval."

He Xuyan glanced at her arm. In yesterday's scene, her arm was injured and had not fully recovered. But she wanted to drive? From where they were in the suburbs?

He Xuyan sized her up again. Although she did not seem very anxious, her eyes were not as calm as usual. He Xuyan had worked with her for some time and already knew that she was a calm person. There were very few things that could make her feel this way.

She was driving under such circumstances?

He Xuyan said calmly, "Alright, then. I also want to go back earlier to plan the next scene. Can you give me a ride?"

"Okay." Su Bei immediately agreed and left with her luggage.

After getting into the car, He Xuyan said, "I won't hitch a ride in your car for free. We'll take turns. You rest first, I'll drive."

What he said made a lot of sense. They had never taken advantage of each other before, and Su Bei felt that it was fair, so she let him drive first. Coincidentally, she also knew that she would not be able to drive calmly to the city.

During the journey, Su Bei wanted to call Lu Heting several times but hesitated.

She didn't want to talk about Madam Lu over the phone. She hadn't cared enough about Lu Heting recently and felt guilty for not fulfilling her duty.

As for Madam Lu, Su Bei did not have many expectations, so she was naturally not disappointed. She had always known in her heart that Lu Heting's attitude toward her determined her position in the Lu family. Therefore, she was not very concerned about Madam Lu's attitude.

However, this was enough to affect her mood.

A marriage without the blessings of her family, even if she already had a child, might not be able to work out. Furthermore, it was a family like the Lu family. Once again, she deeply experienced the terror of such a family.

Sometimes, it was scary. It was simply because there was too much wealth involved... She looked out of the car window. The evening wind outside blew the trees on the mountain road, stirring up shadows.

Chapter 1034: Hit Me Again

He Xuyan held the steering wheel steadily and drove forward.

As Su Bei had been thinking about her problems, she had completely forgotten about the time and did not know that they were already at the halfway point. He Xuyan had been driving for a long time. She should have swapped places with him by now.

He Xuyan did not remind her. He just kept driving.

The mountain road was difficult to traverse, so he did not drive fast.

Su Bei was lost in her thoughts when she suddenly snapped to her senses after hearing a sound in the surroundings. There was a car parked at the intersection in front. It was parked horizontally on the road and seemed to have broken down. When they saw Su Bei's car coming over, the driver started honking.

He Xuyan hurriedly stopped the car and became wary of the situation ahead.

The person in front ran over hurriedly, his hands stained with blood. He Xuyan pressed the car lock and locked the doors.

No one knew what would happen on such a mountainous road. There were also news reports of highway robberies.

The person outside banged on the car window and shouted something.

Su Bei and He Xuyan listened attentively and realized that the person seemed to be saying that his wife was about to give birth. However, the car had broken down. As it was a long journey and they were on a mountain road, the ambulance would not be able to arrive anytime soon. He was asking to get a ride in Su Bei and He Xuyan's car.

He Xuyan said to Su Bei, "You stay in the car first. I'll go take a look. If the situation isn't right, drive away. Remember to call the police."

This person usually looked very strict, but at crucial moments, he was very responsible.

However, Su Bei was not in the mood to admire his ability to handle matters. She could only watch as he got out of the car. The red handprint left on the car window made her tense up for no reason. Her back felt numb.

Su Bei looked closely as He Xuyan ran toward the car. A moment later, He Xuyan returned and said, "It's a pregnant woman giving birth. The situation is a little dangerous. Do you mind if I bring her to your car?"

"I don't mind. Let her come in." Su Bei immediately got out of the car and helped the pregnant woman get in.

They looked like a married couple. The woman was giving birth, and the man was probably doing his best. His hands were covered in blood, but he didn't know what to do. He could only hold the woman's hand and cheer her on.

He Xuyan stepped on the accelerator and sped up this time. He asked Su Bei to use the GPS to choose the nearest hospital route.

After Su Bei chose, she said to the man, "Have you called the ambulance?"

"Yes, but it's a long way from here. What should I do? What should I do? Will my wife be alright?" As the person spoke, his voice sounded like he was about to cry. He was probably trying his best to control his emotions so that his wife would not worry.

Actually, Su Bei did not know what to do either. She was also a little flustered. The heartbreaking cries of a woman stirred one's heart and made it hard for one's heart to calm down. It also made people sympathize with her.

Su Bei said to him, "Call again and ask what we can do."

"Oh, okay." The man was panicking. Su Bei was an outsider, so she was more rational and could give suggestions.

The emergency call went through. The other party knew that they wouldn't be able to arrange an effective rescue for the time being, so they started to talk about some important points. They wanted the people at the scene to try and see if they could deliver the baby.

This was extremely difficult. The husband was already panicking, and the lighting in the car was dim. To carry out such a big operation was too difficult.

Chapter 1035: Experiencing Despair

The man was flustered and could not do it well.

Su Bei could not stand it anymore and said, "Turn on the flashlight on your phone. I'll do it!"

Even though she had no idea what to do, she had given birth to a child before. Hence, she had a good understanding of women's physiology. She could somewhat understand some of the professional jargon spoken by the personnel just now.

The car sped toward the nearest hospital.

Su Bei was also following the other party's instructions and encouraging the pregnant woman to relax and maintain her strength.

He Xuyan calmed himself down and finally drove past the winding mountain road. They had entered the city. He headed straight for the hospital.

On Su Bei's side, the child finally came out, but there were no cries. The pregnant woman had also fainted.

Finally, the car arrived at the hospital. The doctors and nurses, who were already prepared, came forward and took the pregnant woman and baby away from the car.

"The baby is suffocating. Resuscitate immediately!"

"The pregnant woman has fainted. Check the situation immediately!"

After Su Bei delivered the baby, she was relieved. However, when she heard the words 'baby is suffocating, resuscitate immediately', she felt a heavy pressure in her heart that caused her heart to be a mess.

When she had given birth to twins, these few words had made her experience great despair.

She struggled with the pain but refused to fall asleep. She wanted to see her two children.

However, the emergency alarm kept ringing. The piercing sound pierced through the sky. Other than the fact that she knew that they were being resuscitated, she had no idea what was happening to the two children.

The pain of waiting was even more unbearable than the pain of giving birth. When the resuscitation was over and the doctor brought in only one child, she was still hopeful.

But the final result made her fall into despair.

In the end, she could only have one child—Da Bao.

The other child had already disappeared from her life before she even saw them with her own eyes.

At that moment, the love and other feelings she had invested into her pregnancy were all cut out from her heart.

Da Bao's existence had cured her, but the current situation made her fall over unsteadily.

It turned out that what had been cured was only her external injuries. As for the internal injuries, they were still untouchable.

"Su Bei!" He Xuyan reached out to catch her. "Su Bei? Doctor, where's the doctor?"

Fortunately, there were available doctors in the hospital, so Su Bei was quickly sent for a check-up. The results came out very quickly. It turned out that it was only due to over-exhaustion. Her dizziness was caused by an uneven state of mind. She would be able to recover after recuperating.

Su Bei slowly woke up on the bed. When she opened her eyes, she saw He Xuyan and a doctor in a white coat standing in front of her.

She thought about how she had fainted, but all she wanted to know was how the child was.

“Doctor, how’s the child’s condition?” She had experienced loss before, so she did not want to see others experience the same.

Besides, this child had passed through her hands.

The doctor was a young man, and he spoke elegantly. “You don’t have to blame yourself too much. For non-professionals, you’ve already done very well. The child has congenital heart problems, so they suffocated when they were born. It has nothing to do with you.”

He probably thought that Su Bei was worried that the child’s condition had something to do with her, so he comforted her.

Su Bei did not point it out. She had not even told Lu Heting about the child she lost, so there was no need to tell other people about it.

Chapter 1036: His Rank Rose

Perhaps because he admired Su Bei’s actions, the doctor chatted with her a little more. “I’ve done a lot of research on infants with congenital heart disease. I’ve already taken over the child’s case, so rest assured.”

“Thank you,” Su Bei said softly.

As the doctor turned to leave, Su Bei called out to him, “Doctor.”

“Yes?” The doctor stopped in his tracks.

“Do children suffocate only when they’re born because of congenital heart disease?” Su Bei knew that there was no point in asking this question. If she wanted to know, she could ask Gu Xifeng the same thing.

But now, she could not help but ask.

“That’s not the case. There are many scenarios that can lead to this,” the doctor explained patiently.

Su Bei did not ask anymore. When she lay down, she felt extremely tired.

Actually, she had good stamina. When she was on the production team, she had no problems handling the filming and training.

Perhaps it was because she had been too tense just now, so the string in her body snapped. She felt especially tired.

He Xuyan said in a low voice, “You should rest. I’ll allow you to take leave after you come back.”

His tone was still harsh, but there was less mockery and more concern in his eyes.

Su Bei did not mind. She was indeed tired, so she closed her eyes and quickly fell asleep.

After He Xuyan went out, he called Qiao Mei and told her about Su Bei and her current situation.

“Is Su Bei’s injury serious?”

“She isn’t hurt. The doctor said she’s under too much pressure after the rescue and needs some relief.”

After knowing about Su Bei’s matter, Qiao Mei naturally came to visit on behalf of the company. If possible, she would publicize it. It would only benefit Su Bei’s career and popularity.

She was already planning it out in her head. She drove to the company after work and planned to visit Su Bei in the hospital once she was done coming up with her plan.

When she arrived at the company, she bumped into Li Qisheng, who had just gotten off work after being busy serving clients.

“Qiao Mei, are you working overtime at the office?” Li Qisheng greeted her.

“Manager Li, something happened to Su Bei. I plan to publicize the news to help promote her.”

When Li Qisheng heard that something had happened to Su Bei, he tensed up. “What happened?”

Qiao Mei saw that he wanted to meddle in such a small matter. However, since he wanted to ask, there was no harm in telling him.

Unexpectedly, after Li Qisheng heard it, his expression changed as he said, “Don’t try to advertise the case. Set this aside for now and listen to my follow-up instructions. Go to the hospital to visit Su Bei now and tell me the hospital’s address.”

Qiao Mei saw that he was quite humane and put the health of the company’s employees first. It made sense, so she said, “Okay, I’ll go see Su Bei first. I’ll listen to you on what to do next!”

As Qiao Mei drove off, Li Qisheng hurriedly dialed Lu Heting’s number. In the past, with his status, there was almost no possibility of him directly contacting Lu Heting unless Lu Heting took the initiative to look for him.

When Su Bei arrived at the company, his rank rose. If there was any problem, he could take the initiative to call Lu Heting.

Lu Heting had been very busy these past few days, trying to find a way out of Feng Ze’s encirclement. Due to the urgency of the situation, he even went back on his promise to meet Su Bei.

Chapter 1037: Do Whatever You Want

Knowing that Su Bei was busy, Lu Heting did not reveal Lu Group’s predicament to her. He only checked Su Bei’s schedule. She would be returning from the studio in the suburbs tomorrow, so he had already arranged for someone to pick her up early in the morning and bring her directly to the company.

When he heard the phone ring, Lu Heting didn’t want to answer it. He was about to press the reject button when he saw Li Qisheng’s name.

Hearing Li Qisheng’s words over the phone, Lu Heting’s originally stern expression was once again replaced by a dark look.

“Address,” Lu Heting asked.

Luckily, before Qiao Mei left, Li Qisheng had asked for the hospital address and name. He immediately reported it to Lu Heting.

After putting down the phone, Li Qisheng felt a lingering fear in his heart. Luckily, he had met up with clients tonight. Luckily, he had to work overtime tonight. Otherwise, if something had happened to Su Bei and he was still out of the loop, he could forget about being the manager.

In the hospital.

Su Bei was actually fine and had only fallen asleep.

Hence, when Qiao Mei came over, He Xuyan told her, "She's tired. The doctor also told her to rest more."

Qiao Mei said, "Then I'll accompany her here. Director He, you can go back first."

"I have something to do here, so I'll wait for her." He Xuyan glanced at the time. "It won't affect anything."

Qiao Mei looked at the time. It was getting late. She probably wouldn't be able to talk to Su Bei tonight. Since He Xuyan was willing to stay here, she didn't insist and said, "Please pass me the flowers and fruits. Also, pass the message on that the company and I are very concerned about her condition. She should rest well. We'll come back after she wakes up."

He Xuyan accepted the things and watched Qiao Mei leave.

Qiao Mei had only left for a short while when a luxury car sped in from outside the hospital. Lu Heting arrived in a hurry and went upstairs in the blink of an eye.

He strode toward Su Bei's ward. When he saw He Xuyan, he remembered that Su Bei had sent him a photo of He Xuyan. He recognized him and said, "Director He, you can go back first. I'm here now."

He Xuyan's dark eyes swept over Lu Heting, "You're here to see Su Bei?"

"I'm here to take care of her," Lu Heting corrected him.

He Xuyan understood what he meant, but he didn't know who Lu Heting was. He could only tell that he was a rich man.

Was it the man pursuing Su Bei?

He Xuyan said, "Is it convenient for you to do so? Su Bei is asleep. The paparazzi will be here soon."

He reminded this man that even if he wanted to pursue Su Bei, he had to choose the right time.

As for He Xuyan staying here, he was the director and had a cooperative relationship with Su Bei. The chances of him getting into trouble were not as high as the man in front of him.

"Is it convenient for me, her husband?" Lu Heting took out his wallet and waved it in front of his eyes. The photo of Lu Heting and Su Bei on it dazzled He Xuyan's eyes.

He Xuyan took a serious look and confirmed that it was not a photoshopped picture. His eyes flickered slightly as he said, "Do as you wish, then."

Seeing Lu Heting enter, He Xuyan picked up his bag and turned around to leave. He was also stained with the smell of blood. It was time to go back and wash up.

When Lu Heting entered the ward, he saw Su Bei sleeping soundly with bloodstains on her clothes. He knew that the blood came from someone else, but it still made his breathing pause.

He extended his long fingers and gently caressed Su Bei's face. The heartache in his eyes could not be concealed.

Chapter 1038: What's Going On?

Su Bei slept deeply. She was probably too tired.

However, in her dreams, the words 'the baby is suffocating, resuscitate immediately' kept echoing.

Resuscitate immediately.

Alarms sounded everywhere, making it difficult for her to calm down.

They were clearly two children who had accompanied her through so many days and nights.

The older one was called Da Bao, while the younger one was called Xiao Bao. She could hold one of the children's hands, but under the alarm and the flashing red lights in the operating room, she still lost Xiao Bao.

Seeing that she was not sleeping well, Lu Heting gently kissed Su Bei's eyes. After experiencing such a big thing, she must have been shocked. She was not a professional medical staff, so how could she be calm after seeing so much blood?

However, he was very proud of his woman. She did things that normal people could not do. She was always so good, so good that he could not help but want to hide her and have her only belong to him.

In Su Bei's dream, she was filled with fear. Suddenly, a gentle kiss calmed her emotions. In her arms, Da Bao was looking at her with his big eyes. As she hugged this small and soft body, the frightening sounds of emergency treatment slowly dissipated.

Lu Heting's phone rang, and he immediately pressed it. The sound did not disturb Su Bei.

He walked out quickly and softly before asking, "What's the situation?"

Lu Weijian called and said, "It was Mom who went to meet Su Bei."

Su Bei suddenly came back tonight, and even Lu Heting did not know about it. Apart from wanting to give him a surprise, Lu Heting thought about what else would make her come back early.

He quickly ruled out the idea that Su Bei wanted to give him a surprise. After she finished filming, she should've seen the news about Lu Group. The news had already taken up all corners of media outlets.

Therefore, there must be another reason for her sudden return.

Lu Weijian went to investigate this matter.

“I’m sorry, Brother. You asked me to keep an eye on Mom. I didn’t know that she would meet Sister-in-law when she was going to a spa.” Lu Weijian was really upset. Why was his mother like this?

Lu Heting didn’t need him to say anything more to understand what Madam Lu had probably said to Su Bei.

Madam Lu had never really liked Su Bei, much less her profession. Lu Heting was very clear about it, but Madam Lu had never acted rashly, so Lu Heting did not bother about her.

But this time...

Lu Heting frowned and hung up.

As soon as he hung up, Madam Lu called. She heard that Su Bei was in the hospital. How could she not ask?

However, she was obviously angry in her heart. She thought that Su Bei would take the big picture into consideration and leave properly, just like what she did six years ago. Who knew that she would come back to find Lu Heting?

She did not know if this hospitalization was a trick of Su Bei’s.

But no matter what, Madam Lu had to do her best on the surface.

“Son, Su Bei is in the hospital? How’s the situation?”

“You talked to Su Bei today?” Lu Heting’s voice was calm.

However, Madam Lu hoped that he would reveal his emotions. That way, even if he was angry, at least she could guess what he was thinking. Instead, she found it hard to guess his mood and thoughts now.

Chapter 1039: How Did He Find Out So Quickly?

Madam Lu had never wanted to ruin her relationship with her son.

She just thought that she understood her son well enough. He had always been rational enough to make logical decisions when it came to relationships and careers.

It wasn’t appropriate for him to make an appearance, so she was merely representing him when she went to look for Su Bei.

Madam Lu deliberated over her words and said, “Yes, I looked for her and told her some things. I also told her about the current situation of Lu Group. Son, she could leave you for the first time, so it’s not difficult for her to leave for the second time—”

“Mom!”

Lu Heting stopped her.

This was clearly the most intimate word in the world, but it made Madam Lu tremble with fear.

Some silence.

Madam Lu was the first to break the silence. "Are you very disappointed in me?"

"Yes, but you're my mother, after all. Disappointment won't change anything. I don't want to hurt our mother-son relationship. I hope you won't give me another opportunity to deliberate over this." Lu Heting hung up after saying that.

Madam Lu held her phone and let out a long breath. She didn't think that she had done anything wrong. Although there was some selfishness in her as she didn't like Su Bei, ultimately, she still did it for her the sake of her son and her family.

After hanging up the phone, Lu Heting loosened his tie to relieve some of his frustration. It wasn't that there was no solution to the current problem. Feng Ze wanted to suppress him with the company that Madam Lu had spent the past few years running. It was possible to catch him off guard in the short-term, but to trap Lu Heting in the long term?

Dream on!

However, his mother's attitude was even more annoying than Feng Ze's suppression.

Lu Heting pushed open the door of the ward again. Su Bei had just begun to sleep peacefully, but she was probably feeling uneasy again. Her forehead was covered in sweat, and her delicate brows were tightly knitted.

Lu Heting quickly went over and held her finger. Su Bei suddenly woke up from her dream and sat up.

A warm embrace hugged her. When she fell into this embrace, Su Bei's nervous and uneasy emotions dissipated. She felt slightly at ease.

Needless to say, she knew that it was Lu Heting. The embrace was so familiar to her, and his scent was so pleasant.

She clung to this embrace for a while before placing her hands on her waist. Finally, she managed to calm down from the nightmare of her baby being resuscitated.

"Did you have a nightmare?" Lu Heting caressed her hair and asked.

"Mhm." Su Bei gently nodded.

Lu Heting thought that all this was because of the pressure that Madam Lu was giving her. He said in a low and mellow voice, "I know that my mother came to look for you. We don't have the same opinion on this matter."

Su Bei was slightly stunned and thought to herself, 'How did he find out so quickly? It was indeed hard for her to say. Since he already knew, Su Bei did not need to say it herself.'

His attitude was clear. He was not on the same side as Madam Lu.

"You came back so late at night. Did you forget your promise to me to take good care of yourself?" Lu Heting's words were filled with reproach and love.

Su Bei knew that Madam Lu's opinion would not affect Lu Heting at all.

Even though she knew this clearly, she still felt uneasy on the way back. Now that Lu Heting had confirmed it again, the doubts in her heart dissipated. She had already predicted this outcome.

Lu Heting cupped her face in his hands, wanting to reprimand her again. However, his heart softened when he saw her pitiful face.

Chapter 1040: It's Nothing

Lowering his head, Lu Heting kissed Su Bei's soft lips.

He wanted to hold her in his hands and could not bear to reprimand her.

When Lu Heting released her, Su Bei asked, "Any news about that child?"

"I didn't ask. How can someone else's child be more important than my own wife?" Lu Heting raised an eyebrow.

Su Bei looked out of the window. The sky was already dark, and it was not convenient to ask about the child's condition now. She would find out tomorrow morning.

She continued, "Then about Lu Group..."

"I'm handling it. There won't be too much of a problem. Feng Ze only managed to suppress me for a while because my mother returned the company to him."

Seeing that Su Bei did not know the details, he told her what had happened.

"That's the Feng family's property?" Su Bei understood." So there must be some misunderstanding. I didn't expect him to know his own identity."

They had known each other in the orphanage since they were young, and the others knew very little about their background. For Feng Ze to be able to find Madam Lu accurately, it seemed like he knew a lot.

Lu Heting lowered his eyes and said in a deep, powerful voice, "I'll take care of this. Don't worry."

He thought that Su Bei's previous emotions were due to the words of his mother and the rescue. He had no idea that her emotions were due to a deeper reason.

After Su Bei woke up, she did not mention Xiao Bao again. She would just bear the burden alone. There was no need to let Lu Heting know about it out of thin air and add to his troubles.

After Lu Heting came over, Su Bei slept peacefully in the second half of the night and was no longer disturbed by nightmares.

The next morning, she felt much better.

All visitors from Di Xing Media Company were stopped by Lu Heting. What she needed was rest.

He had already seen the scars on her body last night. They were from the filming and training.

Her skin was exceptionally fair to begin with, so those injuries were especially glaring.

Lu Heting knew that giving her time to rest was better than anything else.

She had a nutritious breakfast, and the doctor from yesterday came again.

“Su Bei, are you feeling better?” The doctor came over and asked directly.

“Much better. Sorry to have troubled you.” Su Bei saw that he was not a doctor in charge of this department, yet he kept coming over to see her. She felt a little sorry.

The doctor took out an umbrella and passed it to her. “Thank you for the last time.”

“Huh? So you were the one in the rain outside the company that day...” Su Bei remembered that she had asked Xiao Bai to give someone an umbrella when she saw a man in the rain.

Initially, she thought that he was an employee of the same company, so it was only right for her to do so. She did not expect him to be a doctor.

However, Su Bei was a little surprised. “How did you know that I was the one who gave you the umbrella?”

“I read the entertainment news too. I recognized your assistant, Xiao Bai.” The doctor smiled. “I was going to Di Xing to meet up with a friend, but I didn’t expect to meet you.”

“Your friend works in Di Xing?” Su Bei casually asked.

The doctor smiled sadly.

Lu Heting recognized the doctor. It was Dr. Wang, who had operated on Gun Gun before. Because of that incident, Lu Heting had agreed to let his girlfriend join Lu Group.

However, after his girlfriend joined Lu Group, Lu Heting did not care about what she did or what position she held.
