

Chapter 1071: Another Matter

As Liao Qing had changed the reports of the two children and there were no obvious physiological characteristics on the two children, even Gu Xifeng was deceived.

Unexpectedly, not long after she left with Gun Gun, she got into a car accident. The child and she were sent to another hospital. The hospital helped her inform the Liao family to come over and gave Gun Gun temporary treatment.

Liao Qing was seriously injured and did not survive. Hence, the matter of the child became a mystery.

Later on, the Liao family came over and brought Gun Gun back. They had the same thoughts as Liao Qing. They wanted to use Gun Gun's identity to achieve their goal of living a rich life.

As expected, the few elders of the Lu family accepted the baby with the Lu family's bloodline without any resistance.

Even a child with a stain was treated as a treasure by the elders.

Lu Heting could not hate the soft and innocent baby. He spent a lot of effort to get Wang Juntang to treat Gun Gun.

Fortunately, Gun Gun's condition eventually stabilized. Under Wang Juntang's meticulous treatment, he returned to normal and grew up steadily in the Lu family until now.

After saying this, Lu Weijian said, "Brother, this is what happened. Although there might be some discrepancies, this is the truth according to all the information and evidence.

"As for Liao Qing's thoughts and actions, a large portion of them were deduced from her diary and her style of doing things. A small portion of them was verified from the surveillance footage."

Lu Heting looked at the report in silence.

Indeed, this explanation was complete. As Liao Qing was already dead, the details could not be investigated anymore.

However, the truth was finally out.

The question of how Gun Gun landed in the Lu family's hands from Su Bei was also answered.

Lu Heting thought of Gun Gun's soft and cute face, then he thought of his relationship with Su Bei from the beginning. His heart swelled with something, making him purse his lips tightly.

Lu Weijian continued, "Brother, there's another matter. Do you want to hear it?"

"Go ahead."

"Gu Xifeng treated the child Liao Qing gave birth to Sister-in-law's child and kept him in the hospital, right? Gu Xifeng then buried the child's body in the cemetery near the hospital and would pay his respects every year. This time, we arranged for people to retrieve the body and check it."

Lu Heting frowned. Even if it was an accident and a scheme, he hated that a random woman had gotten pregnant with his child.

This almost became a sore point in his heart.

“However, according to the results of the DNA comparison, the child Liao Qing gave birth to isn’t yours. It belongs to one of the men whose sperm she stole in the past. When the results were out, I didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. I didn’t expect Liao Qing to spend so much effort to get pregnant with the Lu family’s child, but somehow, the child she got pregnant with wasn’t even yours.”

After Lu Weijian said this, the heavy feeling in Lu Heting’s heart finally disappeared.

He heaved a sigh of relief... This outcome was clearly what he had expected.

Chapter 1072: Will She Be Angry?

Lu Weijian said, “I wonder if Liao Qing would be angered to death if she finds out about this! She tried everything but to no avail. If she hadn’t stolen Gun Gun, she probably wouldn’t have gotten into a car accident. People really shouldn’t have ulterior motives. Otherwise, no one knows how trouble will hit them.”

After Lu Weijian finished speaking, Lu Heting flipped through all the documents.

All the information was accurate. The surveillance footage of the witness’ testimonies could also be seen.

Only then did Gun Gun’s past come to light.

As for Liao Qing’s schemes, they would also become a speck of dust in history and have nothing to do with Lu Heting anymore.

A smile appeared on Lu Heting’s lips. He pressed the tip of his tongue against his cheek and smiled in peace. He did not know if Su Bei would like this gift.

When Su Bei arrived at the parking lot of Lu Group, she called Lu Heting.

“I won’t be coming up. Come down.”

“Alright.”

Su Bei felt that Lu Heting’s voice seemed to be filled with happiness.

That was true. She had filmed two movies, but this was the first screening. It was only right for Lu Heting to be happy for her.

Lu Heting quickly went downstairs. His tall figure appeared at the elevator, illuminating the entire dark underground parking lot.

Su Bei drove over and smiled. “Handsome, where are you going?”

Lu Heting walked around the front of the car and went to the driver’s seat. Su Bei rolled down the car window. The man held her head and pressed her forehead against his.

His well-defined fingers ran through her long hair as he leaned against her quietly.

There would be no more estrangement between him and Su Bei.

His guilt and heartache for her would also be compensated in another way.

Su Bei, his woman. He would give her the most complete and perfect life in the world.

Su Bei was melted by his loving actions. Her voice was soft as she said, "The movie is about to start."

"Let me drive," Lu Heting said.

"Let me do it. You've been busy the entire day. I haven't done anything today, so I'm especially energetic." He was her husband. She was willing to take care of him.

Lu Heting's laughter echoed in her ears. He kissed her eyebrows and the tip of her nose before getting into the front passenger seat.

Su Bei said apologetically, "In order to watch the first show, the time slot for our tickets isn't great. We'll have to have dinner in the cinema. Is it okay if I order the family bucket?"

"Okay." Lu Heting had no objections. After sitting down, he reached out and placed his hand on the back of Su Bei's hand.

Su Bei tilted her head to look at him and smiled. "Mr. Lu, safety first."

Lu Heting could not help but laugh as he retracted his hand and said, "Madam Lu, please."

Su Bei and Lu Heting got out of the car, bought a family bucket, and went straight to the cinema.

It was Friday, so there were a lot of couples and students. According to Su Bei's estimation, there were a lot of people who bought tickets to Basketball Baby.

Everyone was discussing in low voices. "I heard that the romance in this movie is very touching. I've wanted to watch it for a long time."

"Yes, and it's quite an easy watch."

"I'm here to relax. After a week of work, my brain can't function anymore."

Chapter 1073: I'm Convinced

"I'm here to relax too."

The ticket sales for Boxer were not as outstanding. After all, there was not much publicity. Director He's last movie was released a few years ago, while Su Bei's acting skills had yet to be proven to the public.

Su Bei's expression was very relaxed. It was as if she could see gold coins falling into Lu Heting's pocket, making clunking sounds.

Lu Heting tilted his head to look at the woman. Her bare face was fair and dazzling under the lights. He held her hand and entered the cinema hall.

There were not many people here.

Someone said in a low voice, "Director He is very talented. I believe his work this time will move me like the previous times."

"But with Su Bei acting in this movie, it'll be a little difficult."

"But Director He is also very good at training actors."

"But who knows if Su Bei can be taught..."

Lu Heting's face darkened a little. Su Bei stuffed a drumstick into his hand. "It's okay. They're telling the truth. It's good enough that they came for Director He."

The movie officially started, and everyone fell silent.

Fortunately, there were few people around, so Su Bei's eating would not affect others. However, soon after she started eating, she stopped.

This was the first time she saw her face on the big screen. It was really refreshing and surprising.

On the big screen, her face was magnified to the point that every single pore on her face could be seen. Her micro-expressions were also seen by everyone.

She thought of the plot. A tenacious boxer who went from having nothing to being admired by everyone for her dream. The hard work she put in for this dream appeared in front of her again.

At first, there were still some discussions in the cinema. Later on, everyone was immersed in the movie and the sound of people eating popcorn was gone.

Lu Heting held Su Bei's hand tightly.

When the movie ended and the lights came on, the person in the front row suddenly let out a soft sob. "I'm so touched. I'm already in tears!"

"My faith in Director He has been restored! He truly is a famous director!"

"Did you guys see Su Bei?"

"Su Bei? Oh, that female boxer was played by Su Bei! Oh my God, when I saw her, I didn't associate her with Su Bei at all. What kind of goddess is she? Is Su Bei so good-looking that she can even stand the test of the cameras?"

"Yet you didn't believe me when I said that Director He has sharp eyes. Since he chose her, what is there to worry about?"

"I'm convinced!"

"I'm convinced too!"

Hearing these comments, Su Bei held her face. Such clear and undisguised praise was completely different from reading the words on Weibo. It was pleasant to hear people say such nice things?

Lu Heting also chuckled.

As Su Bei walked out, she heard people praising her.

She knew that her reputation would definitely not be bad this time. At the very least, she would not let down her hard work and Director He's harsh training.

Moviegoers were no longer the same as a few years ago. They had their own aesthetics. They had requirements for the plot of the movie, the filming methods, and the actors' acting skills.

This was a good thing. If the entire industry could develop in an orderly and healthy manner, those who worked hard would receive the rewards they deserved. Those who were shoddy would have fewer and fewer chances of remaining in the industry.

Chapter 1074: The Best In The World

Lu Heting tilted his head and glanced at Su Bei. He was proud of his woman.

Su Bei was very excited. After filming for so long, this was the first time she had seen herself on the big screen. After coming out of the cinema, she couldn't help but scroll through the comments on Weibo.

Seeing that there were quite a lot of good reviews, she scrolled through the comments and showed them to Lu Heting. "Look, this person really knows how to phrase his words."

Lu Heting's eyes were gentle, and the smile on his lips widened. He looked at Su Bei calmly and dotingly.

Su Bei deserved all of this.

Although the publicity for Boxer was very ordinary, He Xuyan's loyal fans were indeed quite supportive. After watching the movie, they spontaneously promoted it.

Then, on a platform that was known to have the fairest ratings in the industry, Boxer was given a high score with many recommendations.

The chain reaction started. A lot of people were intrigued. Bit by bit, the box office sales for the weekend release of Boxer began to rise.

When Su Bei was done, she followed Lu Heting into the car.

After getting into the car, she tilted her head and smiled. When she saw the man's burning gaze, she couldn't help but ask with a smile, "Why are you happier than me?"

Lu Heting reached out and pulled her into his arms. He gave her a passionate kiss and said lovingly, "I have a gift for you. It's to celebrate the release of your new movie."

"Sure!" Su Bei tilted her head, her smile widening.

Lu Heting said softly, "Su Bei, I've found the other twin for you."

Su Bei's body trembled. The pain from back then stabbed into her heart, but she didn't stay sad for long. For the sake of Da Bao, she had quickly forced herself to move on from the incident. She didn't even tell Lu Heting about it. How did he know?

"You!" Her smile froze, and her voice was caught in her throat.

The child was gone. She knew that better than anyone, but... The man's eyes were red-rimmed and intense. She couldn't bear to question him.

Lu Heting's voice was filled with a deeper love for her. "It's Gun Gun. Gun Gun is Xiao Bao."

"..." Su Bei stared at Lu Heting, speechless.

Her mind went blank, and her thoughts were in a million fragments. For a moment, she couldn't grasp what that meant.

She could see her reflection in his deep, cold eyes, but she couldn't sort out her thoughts.

"It's Gun Gun," Lu Heting said. He picked up the important information and told her the whole truth.

As his mellow and gentle voice slowly echoed in her ears, Su Bei finally began to digest the information. Those words transformed into meaningful sentences in her mind that she could understand and digest.

Her senses seemed to be frozen. However, her eyes were suddenly filled with tears. They kept falling from her chin onto her clothes.

Lu Heting reached out and pulled her into his arms. He rested his chin on the top of her head and patted her shoulder to ease her throbbing emotions.

Lying on his shoulder, she bit the tip of her tongue and let out a soft sob.

She had never thought that it would be like this, nor did she dare to imagine that she had actually received the best treatment in the world.

She thought of her broken heart back then and how she had longed for Gun Gun to be her child when they first met. He had held up the milk to her.

Chapter 1075: The Best Gift

She truly did treat Gun Gun as her child later on.

She had been treating him as her child, and he really was her child. There were no words to describe Su Bei's current mood.

There was no other gift like this piece of news. She shed a lot of tears, and her smile slowly returned to her face.

Lu Heting lifted her chin and kissed her eyes.

Su Bei burst out laughing. She couldn't stop the tears or the smile.

"Lu Heting, thank you. This is the best gift I've ever received!"

...

Knowing that Gun Gun was Su Bei's son, everything was explained.

His softness, his cuteness, and his smile were all inherited from Su Bei.

If Da Bao was a replica of Lu Heting, Gun Gun was a replica of Su Bei. He was like a small sun that emitted a warm light.

Su Bei couldn't wait to go home to see Gun Gun. Lu Heting drove her home.

When they reached home, Gun Gun heard the door open and ran over. He greeted them with a smile. "Daddy, Bei Bei!"

He ran over, hugged Su Bei's leg, and raised his head. When he saw Su Bei's red eyes, he immediately became nervous. "Who bullied my Bei Bei?"

His little face became serious as he raised his eyebrows unhappily. It was only at times like this when one could see Lu Heting in him.

Su Bei bent down and picked him up. "No one bullied me. I got sand in my eyes."

She held the warm child in her arms, her heart filled with gentleness. Even her voice was exceptionally gentle.

She didn't expect to be able to hold onto the son she had missed so much and hadn't seen since birth.

She hugged Gun Gun and held on tight with her head resting on Gun Gun's shoulder. The joy of having found him after losing him trumped everything else.

Da Bao could also sense Su Bei's abnormal emotions. He looked up at Lu Heting coldly, as if saying, 'If you dare to bully Su Bei, you're dead!'

Lu Heting touched the tip of his nose, satisfied with his two sons' protective attitude toward Su Bei.

Su Bei also noticed her two sons' emotions. Her smile was passionate and gentle. "I'm crying because I'm too happy. My new movie was released tonight. It has good reviews."

Gun Gun's matter was still complicated. She didn't intend to tell Gun Gun directly, so she avoided the topic for the time being.

"Really? Then I'm going to watch it too." As expected, Gun Gun's attention was diverted. "So when can Da Bao and I go watch it?"

"I'll bring you tomorrow!" she said with a smile.

"Yay!" Gun Gun clapped excitedly.

Su Bei looked at Gun Gun seriously. The more she looked at him, the more she felt that he looked like her. Lu Heting had already made everything clear tonight. She had no doubts about this matter.

Besides, considering her affinity with Gun Gun, she had long believed that she and Gun Gun were mother and son.

At night, Su Bei was so excited that she couldn't sleep. Her excitement for the movie's screening was replaced by the feelings brought by the truth about Gun Gun's background. Like a child who always had to listen to the same story, she pestered Lu Heting to tell her Gun Gun's background again.

"Say it again. Just say it again."

Lu Heting repeated it patiently. It was almost the fifth time

Chapter 1076: You Can Sleep If You're Tired

However, Su Bei could not get enough of it.

“So, Wang Juntang cured Gun Gun? How can we thank him properly?”

“You’ve forgotten. I’ve already thanked him.”

Su Bei shook her head. “That’s your gratitude, not mine. Now that I know Gun Gun is my son, I have to thank him again.”

Lu Heting stroked her hair. “Then we’ll talk about it later.”

“I wonder what Dr. Wang likes?”

“As far as I know, he’s only interested in medical research and nothing else,” Lu Heting said.

“Didn’t he go to Di Xing Media Company last time to wait for his friend? Since his friend is working at Di Xing Media Company, we can help take care of his friend.”

Lu Heting said, “Okay, I’ll ask Li Qisheng to arrange it.”

He didn’t know that it was Jia Shiyun of Di Xing Media Company and thought that Wang Juntang’s friend was someone else. Since Su Bei wanted to thank others, he naturally had no objections.

Su Bei nodded. “Gun Gun’s condition is really fine, right?”

She felt that she had been talking too much as well. However, she had no choice. Su Bei was still full of concern for her son. She had a lot of things to confirm with Lu Heting. She needed to know if Gun Gun was doing well or not.

“Yes, there’s really no problem with him.” Lu Heting was still patient with her. He knew how much she had suffered all these years because of this child.

However, when Su Bei asked for the nth time, Lu Heting reached out and pulled her into his arms. He asked in a hoarse voice, “Are you not sleeping tonight?”

“I’m so excited. I can’t sleep.” Su Bei held her face in her hands. Her face was still hot. She felt as though she was floating in midair and couldn’t get down.

She didn’t even feel this excited about her first job, her first time on stage, or the first time her movie was released. This was the only thing that hovered in her mind, making her thoughts so active that she couldn’t sleep.

“You’ll be able to fall asleep if you’re tired.” Lu Heting’s Adam’s apple moved as he kissed Su Bei’s lips.

The night was long, and the moon hid in the clouds. The night was quiet and restless.

...

After Basketball Baby was released, the box office went all the way up.

As it was a youth romance film with a good plot, it attracted a large number of students and young people to watch it. The popularity was maintained quite well.

It occupied first place at the box office for three days.

Jia Shiyun and Jia Jia were already preparing for the celebration banquet. This movie should be able to recoup its investment quickly and make a huge profit.

After this incident, Jia Jia's career would probably go up to another level.

The two of them were currently in the company. When they walked, their heads were high and their chests were puffed out. They were completely imposing. This momentum seemed to suppress Su Bei.

Su Bei was in a good mood. Basketball Baby had made a lot of money. Lu Weijian and Di Xing would make a lot of money as well. After all, the money was pocketed by Lu Heting.

She wasn't worried at all. In fact, she was beaming.

Seeing that Su Bei had been coming to the company frequently these past two days, Jia Shiyun couldn't help but say, "In terms of forcing a smile, I'm afraid no one can compare to Su Bei."

Jia Jia smiled and said, "That's right. Her movie has been suppressed by us. I'm afraid Di Xing won't give Su Bei much resources in the future."

"Seize this opportunity. I believe you can replace Su Bei soon," Jia Shiyun said confidently.

Chapter 1077: Held Up The Soul Of This Movie

At that moment, she received several phone calls.

She picked up the calls with a smooth smile. "Thank you, Producer Zhang. It's all thanks to you. Let's earn big bucks together."

"Thank you for your guidance, Director Li. I'll definitely treat you to a meal with Jia Jia another day. Alright, thank you."

After she was done, she smiled. 'You want to fight me? You're not even close, Su Bei!'

As for Boxer, because of the lack of promotions in the beginning, there were not many screenings in the theater. Although the box office was good, there were few screenings. Overall, the results of Boxer did not catch up to the results of Basketball Baby.

However, three days after its release, Boxer attracted the attention of many people in the industry. Many film critics also wrote reviews recommending the movie.

They called He Xuyan 'the leader of the new generation of directors, who move easily between the pace of the story and the characterization'.

[Su Bei's performance is also commendable. I didn't expect her to have such acting skills.]

[You can say that He Xuyan and Su Bei held up the soul of this movie. It's worth watching over and over again.]

Because of these comments, the theaters appropriately increased the number of screenings.

With the increase in screenings, Boxer's box office numbers went up significantly. It rose strongly on the fourth day and tied with Basketball Baby.

As for the theaters, they were not fools. Naturally, they would prioritize whatever movies made money. Seeing the trend of Boxer, they naturally adjusted the lineup again.

On the fifth day, Boxer shot up the box office, overtaking Basketball Baby. That was with the number of screenings for the movie itself, which was lower than the number of screenings for Basketball Baby. It was a testament to how popular it was.

From that day on, Boxer steadily maintained its position as number one on the daily box office chart, pushing Basketball Baby to second place. Its daily box office also reached an astonishing 100 million.

Those who had watched the movie were shocked by He Xuyan's talent and by Su Bei's acting skills.

Every move Su Bei made seemed to make her look like she was not a model at all. If one didn't know about her previous career, they wouldn't even think that she was a model who used to don high-end clothes and walk on the runway. Many people would even think that Su Bei was a boxer herself.

At the beginning of the movie, her eyes were cowardly and evasive. In the later part, they became confident, determined, and ruthless.

When these scenes were filmed, they were not done in the order in which they happened in the movie. Instead, they were shot according to the crew's timeline. Therefore, it was possible that they were still filming the scenes of her being cowardly in the morning, then in the afternoon, Su Bei would have to film the scene of her standing on stage and receiving the championship trophy. It was obvious how difficult it was to switch between these scenes seamlessly.

Su Bei's loyal fans were almost in an uproar on Weibo, reposting and supporting her.

[Su Bei is really good. I didn't misjudge you! All the best. I'll always support you.]

[I'm satisfied. Where are those who said that Su Bei's acting skills are bad?]

[What's strength? This is strength! Su Bei is the definition of strength!]

Su Bei's loyal fans were also the type with stronger spending power. Most of them were young people who had just graduated and were all people with certain spending power. Naturally, they had to go to the movie theater to support Su Bei.

Chapter 1078: Not Satisfied At All

With their support, the movie's box office numbers would naturally rise again.

In addition, there were no romantic scenes in this movie. What stood out were family and friendship, as well as the female lead's hard work in her career. It gave these young people a boost.

Casual fans loved the movie too. [Exactly. Who says the younger generation lives only in depravity and pleasure? Do we only think about love? We're serious too, okay? This movie is a good representation of us.]

[It's never too late so long as you work hard.]

[Just try. Even if you fail, you'll have a clear conscience. Move, don't just remain idle.]

Boxer firmly occupied the first place at the box office.

Basketball Baby was second.

And all of this happened after the allocation and announcement of funds and resources.

Jia Shiyun and Jia Jia could not believe that a movie that was so dull and did not even have a romantic plot could suppress Basketball Baby.

Something must have gone wrong in the middle.

Jia Shiyun found Li Qisheng and asked for more funds.

Li Qisheng said awkwardly, "Shiyun, as you can see, the publicity for this movie is already higher than any other movie under our company. If we increase it, there won't be such a precedent."

"But Manager Li, this movie is very profitable. If we add more funds, we can definitely earn much more."

"Shiyun, we really can't do it this time," Li Qisheng shook his head and said. He had been keeping track of things. Basketball Baby was indeed profitable, but the cost was also very high. Even if they continued to increase the funds, the movie might not be able to beat Boxer. Even if it was not for the sake of their investment, it was better to stabilize the current situation and make a profit.

Besides, the number of screenings for Basketball Baby was already very high. Previously, the number had reached 40 percent. That was a very high number for any movie. It showed that its potential had been exploited.

A movie with all its potential already tapped was still a spent force no matter how much money was invested.

On the other hand, Boxer was still advancing steadily. Anyone who watched the movie would promote it to their friends and recommend them to watch it. Such recommendations and reputation could not be bought with money.

Jia Shiyun was very disappointed. She never expected Su Bei to seize the initiative so easily.

Jia Jia was actually in a good mood. She comforted her and said, "Sister Shiyun, it's okay. I'm already doing quite well now. This is already the peak of my career. It's good enough that I can be second. Anyway, I don't have as many fans as Su Bei. I'm very satisfied with this result."

Jia Shiyun looked at her unhappily. Jia Jia was satisfied, but she was not satisfied at all!

It would have been fine if it were someone else ranked first, but it was Su Bei!

This was an opponent she hated and feared. Jia Shiyun did not want to deal with Su Bei herself. She thought could use Jia Jia to suppress Su Bei. Now, it seemed impossible.

Jia Jia was not an opponent for Su Bei at all. She was even feeling smug because of such a small achievement.

The box office numbers for Basketball Baby could not surpass Boxer. To Jia Shiyun, this was a tragic failure. Not only would she be compared to others, but Jia Jia's inexperienced acting skills would also be highlighted because of Su Bei.

Chapter 1079: Help Win The Award

As the saying went, comparisons were odious.

Just like that, Su Bei defeated Jia Jia.

Although Basketball Baby had always done well at the box office, just as everyone would only remember the highest peak in the world, everyone would only remember the most impressive movie in the same time period.

Although many people had watched Basketball Baby, everyone was talking about Su Bei's acting skills.

Although Basketball Baby had also made Di Xing a lot of money, everyone forgot about this piece of news after reading it. Something relaxed and happy could only please the hearts of people for a moment. It could fill their stomachs like fast food, but it would not make them unable to forget it.

Therefore, although Di Xing Media Company had made money, not many people mentioned the name Jia Jia. They did not talk about her or her achievement at the box office.

At this time, only He Xuyan's and Su Bei's names were remembered by everyone.

The affiliation with Su Bei's name was no longer just supermodel but actress.

While she was in the office, Lu Heting called. "Congratulations, Mrs. Lu."

"Congratulations too, Mr. Lu. You're the one who earned the most this time." Su Bei smiled.

Lu Heting smiled. "May I have the honor of treating you to dinner?"

"I'd like that!"

S Country's Venus Film Awards were different from other film awards that were held at the end of the year. They were held in the middle of the year and were held once a year. They chose works from the second half of the previous year and the first half of this year to participate.

A significant film award was being held in the middle of the year. Venus Film Awards invited Su Bei as a guest.

With Boxer, Su Bei had become one of the popular candidates for Venus Film Awards' Best Newcomer and Best Actress.

At the same time, Jia Shiyun was competing with her for the Best Actress Award.

Jia Shiyun received a good reputation for a movie she starred in the second half of last year, Happiness. It was the work of a super big director, and the cast was very good. She even won many awards at the end of last year.

This time, she was originally a candidate for the Gold Star Film Award for Best Actress.

However, Su Bei's appearance directly minimized her attention.

Di Xing Media Company was also fighting to win awards for their own artists.

The Venus Film Awards placed great importance on acting skills. However, it also placed great importance on the popularity of the artists themselves. It could be considered an award that kept up with the times. It was very good at keeping up with the thoughts of young people.

Therefore, generally speaking, popular celebrities had an easier time winning the awards.

For the sake of boosting her popularity, Jia Shiyun had already started hyping herself up from the beginning. She bought a lot of fake reviewers with money out of her own pocket and increased the number of votes.

Of course, she had to suppress Su Bei and show off her popularity so that the organizers of the awards could see her popularity.

Apart from that, Jia Shiyun also looked for Li Qisheng.

Li Qisheng had always been patient with her and would grant her requests.

She believed this time would be no different.

"Manager Li, you know that I'm fighting to win the Best Actress Award at Venus Film Awards, right?"

This time, Jia Shiyun didn't want to be suppressed by Su Bei again.

Li Qisheng understood what she meant. Jia Shiyun said such things because she wanted the company to help her win this award.

Chapter 1080: Stubborn

He was slightly troubled. "The Venus Film Awards aren't run by—"

"Manager Li, I know that. If it's an award show that can be bribed, there's no point in winning an award from there. But the publicity given to me by the company can't be lacking, alright?"

The awards could not be completely dependent on bribes, but they were not totally untouchable either. Whether a celebrity's popularity and persona could touch the audience's hearts still depended on the company's efforts. The company needed to observe the market and make corresponding moves.

This required a professional team and money.

Li Qisheng understood what Jia Shiyun meant and smiled. "Of course. Shiyun, you're a popular artist in the company, so I naturally won't treat you badly. Don't worry, I'll make the arrangements."

"But Su Bei is almost catching up to me. Manager Li, to be honest, although Su Bei's box office results this time are very high, she didn't film a movie invested by Di Xing Media Company, after all. The profits she brings to the company are also very limited. Besides, she's a newcomer and has many opportunities ahead of her. There's no need for her to compete with me this year, right?"

In the past, Li Qisheng did not think that Jia Shiyun was greedy. Perhaps it was because Di Xing Media Company had given her everything she wanted.

But now, with Su Bei around, it seemed that Jia Shiyun wanted everything. Not only did she want everything, but she couldn't let anyone else have a share.

Li Qisheng frowned slightly. No one from the higher-ups had said anything about the award this time. If they didn't, it meant that the higher-ups wouldn't interfere.

He could help Jia Shiyun out a little. As for Su Bei's matter, he wasn't sure if the higher-ups wanted to interfere, so he could only say, "Shiyun, you're both from the same company. I can't say for sure who will win the grand prize. I can only say that I'll do my best to help you fight for the award."

That was the assurance Jia Shiyun wanted. With this, she was content.

"Then I'll look forward to it, Manager Li."

Li Qisheng smiled and said, "I wish you all the best."

.....

When Jia Shiyun went out, Wang Juntang was waiting for her outside.

She narrowed her eyes almost imperceptibly and cursed her luck.

Previously, she had sent a WeChat message to Wang Juntang and directly proposed to cancel the engagement. She thought that this matter had already passed, but who knew that Wang Juntang would still not give up?

She didn't expect him to be so stubborn.

She fell in love with him before because he had a bright future ahead of him. He went from being a straight-A student on campus to being the most elite and capable attending doctor in the hospital. He was respected and paid well.

What was even rarer was that Wang Juntang did not like to spend money and did not have any bad habits. He was also obedient to her. His only hobby was fiddling with his medical records as well as the bottles and jars in the hospital.

However, Jia Shiyun, who had already become an A-list actress, had long felt that he could not keep up with her. She originally thought that with his personality, he would definitely agree to break up with her if she mentioned it. Who knew that there would be so much trouble even after that?

Jia Shiyun could only walk toward him.

When Wang Juntang saw her coming, he immediately stood up and smiled. "Shiyun, I'm here to pick you up."

"Let's talk in the conference room." Jia Shiyun led him there. There were few people here, so they wouldn't be seen.

Wang Juntang immediately followed her into the conference room. They successfully avoided the people coming and going.
