

Chapter 1101: Ten Million To Buy Her?

His undisguised gaze wandered over her face.

Su Bei frowned slightly. She had seen too many old men like him. While she felt disgusted, she was also disappointed in human nature.

She was indescribably disgusted by this behavior.

President Du didn't seem to notice at all. He was even more fascinated, especially when Su Bei frowned. It made her look even more charming and flirtatious. He couldn't take his eyes off her.

Su Bei gently played with her fingers and quietly let him watch. Perhaps he had seen enough now, but the price he would have to pay would not be so simple.

Her eyebrows relaxed as she smiled. President Du was even more stunned, but he didn't know that in her heart, he had been sentenced to death.

Qiao Mei saw through President Du's thoughts and couldn't help but say, "President Du, the contract for your brand's previous spokesperson has expired. I believe that if we do a good job, both of us will benefit greatly. Why don't—"

Seeing that Qiao Mei did not know what was appropriate, President Du's tone was a little unpleasant. He knew that although the entire Di Xing Media Company relied on the development of Lu Group, it was not valued by Lu Group, let alone these artists under it.

He threw out a room card and said, "In that case, Su Bei can come to my room for a drink. I don't mind having a good talk with Su Bei."

Qiao Mei's expression changed. As a manager and agent, she had some experience. It had been a long time since she had been thrown a room card.

She regained her smile and said, "President Du, our Su Bei can do anything, but she's not very good at drinking. As for the cooperation, naturally, only I can negotiate it with you. Since you want to drink and talk, I can come, right?"

Qiao Mei was actually quite good-looking. Of course, she wouldn't sacrifice herself. She knew that with a beauty like Su Bei here, President Du wouldn't take a fancy to her. She was just making a calculated move.

Sure enough, President Du smiled. "I don't wish to drink with you, Miss Qiao. It seems that the endorsement fee of ten million yuan..."

He looked wistful.

Ten million yuan was indeed not a low price. He deliberately said that to arouse Su Bei and Qiao Mei.

However, Qiao Mei and Su Bei were not shallow people. They wanted to buy Su Bei for 10 million yuan?

Qiao Mei smiled and said, "Since you don't wish to drink with me, we can only forget about it for now. President Du, we'll meet again if fate allows it."

With just a few words, Qiao Mei resolved the conflict without offending anyone on the surface. She pulled Su Bei up and left.

When President Du saw them leave, there was nothing he could do.

However, it was indeed a pity that he could not obtain a beauty like Su Bei.

He snorted at their backs. "What is this? Do you really think 10 million dollars is easy to earn?"

At that moment, someone knocked on the door.

The secretary went to open the door to the private room. The people who entered were Tian Jinnuo and Jia Jia.

They had been waiting for this opportunity, but Su Bei intervened first. Seeing that they left after chatting for a short while, Tian Jinnuo naturally seized the time and brought Jia Jia in.

Jia Jia shouted, "President Du, I'm Jia Jia. I've always heard of your name and have long admired you. It's my honor to meet you today."

Chapter 1102: She Has Her Own Way

President Du was unhappy with Su Bei and Qiao Mei's attitude. Now that someone who knew how to act according to the situation was sent in, he was naturally in a good mood.

Jia Jia wasn't willing to do this either.

However, now that she had no one to rely on and Tian Jinnuo was no longer in an important position, she had no choice but to try her best to please President Du. She placed her hand on President Du's hand and said, "President Du, you must be using your brand's skincare products, right? You look so young! Don't be stingy with such skincare products. You should recommend some to me."

President Du was overjoyed by the compliment. He held Jia Jia's hand and hugged her in front of everyone. The room card that he had wanted to give to Su Bei was placed in Jia Jia's hand.

Jia Jia pouted and accepted the card.

After Su Bei and Qiao Mei left, they still looked relaxed and smug.

Qiao Mei said reassuringly, "Forget it. There'll be better deals next time."

"It's fine. You've worked hard tonight, Sister Qiao Mei." Su Bei smiled.

Qiao Mei glanced at the phone, her expression suddenly one of anger.

"What's wrong, Sister Qiao Mei?"

Qiao Mei said, "This Du fellow didn't succeed in making a move on you, so he slandered you in a group chat. This group is filled with old men with status. I didn't expect these people to be so disgusting in private. I joined this group previously. He clearly knows that I'm in the group chat, but he's still saying such things. It's obvious that he's saying it to me to make me feel disgusted."

Su Bei didn't know what President Du had said, but she knew that those words must have been especially outrageous.

Otherwise, Qiao Mei wouldn't be so angry.

In that case, Su Bei would not be polite to President Du.

"Sister Qiao Mei, forget it. It's just a few words. They won't hurt me. It's not like they'll make me bleed, right?" Su Bei persuaded Qiao Mei instead.

Although Qiao Mei thought the same, she still felt uncomfortable.

She didn't want to convey her emotions to Su Bei, so she just said, "Go back and rest well. Next time, let's find a better endorsement deal and forget about today's unpleasantness."

Su Bei nodded and took a taxi. After getting into the car, she sent a message to Zhuo Liping and asked: [Is the contract with President Du's brand expiring in our mall?]

Zhuo Liping replied: [Yes, it's about to be renewed for next year.]

Currently, after Su Bei's successful mall in the suburbs, she expanded to several more shopping malls in a short period of time.

That first mall was originally going to be built as a satellite city in Jingdu City. However, Lin Hancheng interfered in it and it became a dead city. However, because of Su Bei's success, the place was rebuilt and become a very popular city.

Jingbei Square was also in full bloom, occupying all the favorable positions in this city.

"Don't renew it," Su Bei said calmly, playing with her hair with her fingers.

She didn't take the incident with him to heart at all because she had her own way of protecting herself.

Zhuo Liping was someone Su Bei had personally promoted. He listened to all of Su Bei's opinions and did not ask for any reason.

As a result, President Du's brand was about to bid farewell to the entire city.

If a mall could not sell a certain brand, it would not bring many negative effects to it.

However, if a brand lost its contract with several shopping malls at the same time, the impact might be a little big.

This was enough to make President Du suffer.

Chapter 1103: Don't Let Him Know How He Died

Zhuo Liping immediately noted it down. "Alright, Miss Su. It just so happens that a better brand is negotiating with us. Without this brand, we can make room for others."

“Mhm. Just go ahead with this arrangement,” said Su Bei.

What she did not expect was that while she only planned to let President Du suffer a loss, someone was helping her take drastic measures to hurt President Du so badly that the pain would penetrate him deeply.

At the same time, Lu Heting also received news that President Du was slandering Su Bei.

Lu Weijian had heard about it.

Lu Weijian liked to join any group chat and had a lot of friends.

He was not in the group, but his best friend was. When he saw those words, he knew that Lu Weijian had always been a fan of Su Bei, so he quickly sent him a screenshot. [Mr. Weijian, who’s this President Du? He actually said that your Sister Bei Bei is most likely kept by an old man? He said that she’s not even worth 10 million yuan!]

Lu Weijian looked at the screenshot.

He immediately replied: [Forget it. Ignore him. Don’t let him know how he died.]

His best friend trembled in fear. Was President Du really going to die? If he died without knowing how, it would be too tragic!

When Lu Weijian received the news, he immediately reported it to Lu Heting.

Lu Heting didn’t even look at the screenshot and said directly, “Remove all the brand’s products from all the shopping malls of Lu Group.”

Lu Weijian immediately replied, “Yes, I’ll do it now!”

He snorted inwardly. Just because Sister Bei Bei rejected his offer, he was going to slander her? President Du, get ready to die!

Lu Weijian checked. President Du’s contract with Lu Group had just expired. He was about to renegotiate but Lu Group had made this decision. This way, they did not have to spend a sum on the penalty fee. This was good timing.

While President Du was still having sex with Jia Jia, he did not know that he already facing the greatest crisis in his life.

The malls in the city’s secondary center and main city center had silently cut off their cooperation with him overnight. They did not inform him and only lost contact with him. Therefore, everyone on President Du’s side still did not know about this outcome.

Although there were still many malls left that could continue to sell their goods, the remaining malls occupied less than 20% of the market.

How could President Du afford to use 20 percent of his share to guarantee a 90 percent profit?

And he still knew nothing.

The next day, Tian Jinnuo had won President Du's contract and happily went to tell Li Qisheng the good news.

A 10 million yuan endorsement contract was a sky-high price for Jia Jia!

Besides, Jia Jia could get a lot of publicity from this.

Su Bei was talking in Li Qisheng's office. When she saw Tian Jinnuo and Jia Jia walk in, she knew that they had something to say. Hence, she smiled and said, "Manager Li, I'll leave first."

Li Qisheng was really touched. Even though she had such a status, she never relied on it. She was always neither servile nor overbearing.

Tian Jinnuo and Jia Jia were just about to show off. How could they bear to let Su Bei leave?

Tian Jinnuo quickly said, "Su Bei, you seem to have been talking about President Du's endorsement, right? I'm sorry, but President Du met us last night and gave the endorsement deal to Jia Jia. We didn't want to accept it, but instead of letting him give the deal to the artists of other companies, it's better for our own people to accept it, right?"

Chapter 1104: Su Bei Is Jealous

"You guys won President Du's endorsement deal?" Su Bei was indeed quite surprised. It was obvious that President Du was a playboy. It could be seen that Jia Jia had put in a lot of effort this time.

Su Bei did not want to criticize Jia Jia by taking the moral high ground. She just felt that this attitude of exchanging her body for money was indeed quite despicable.

Jia Jia heard the contempt in Su Bei's words and retorted sarcastically, "Su Bei, I know you're quite powerful and can get all kinds of resources. But this time, President Du did choose me. He thinks that I'm more suitable for his brand. Although we're very sorry, we didn't do anything wrong to you. We're just relying on our own abilities to make a living."

Su Bei knew that she was being misunderstood, but she had no qualms about it. However, this was a company under Lu Group, and she, Su Bei, was also involved. She smiled and said, "Then I suggest that you don't take on this endorsement, lest you get into trouble."

When President Du's brand was dropped by the major shopping malls, it would definitely cause doubts about the quality of the brand. The spokesperson would also be deeply affected. Su Bei persuaded her kindly because she was from Di Xing.

Tian Jinnuo immediately smiled and said, "Su Bei, even if you didn't accept the advertisement deal, you shouldn't stop us from doing so, right? Besides, we're doing this openly. If we can earn money, why not? Don't you think so? It's better than letting other companies earn that bit of money, right?"

"In that case, I won't say anything more. I wish you luck." Su Bei turned to leave. Anyway, one or two good-for-nothing employees and artists wouldn't shake the foundation of Di Xing. That was all she said. They could think about whatever they wanted.

Tian Jinnuo and Jia Jia thought about it very clearly and felt that Su Bei was just targeting them.

Li Qisheng agreed with Su Bei's advice and said, "Tian Jinnuo, Jia Jia, why don't you reconsider this endorsement?"

"Manager Li, this brand has always been good. Why can't we take it?" Tian Jinnuo asked.

Li Qisheng really couldn't come up with a valid reason. He just instinctively trusted Su Bei.

For no good reason, he couldn't go and stop his employees from working.

Li Qisheng said, "Since you insist, go ahead. However, if anything really happens, don't blame the company for not protecting you."

Tian Jinnuo immediately said, "Manager Li, we got the deal ourselves. Of course, we have to take responsibility."

She and Jia Jia walked out. Jia Jia criticized Su Bei, "Su Bei is indeed scheming. She even wants to suppress us in such matters. This brand has been developing in Country S for more than ten years. I've never heard of any problems."

"I think Su Bei is just angry from embarrassment. She didn't get the endorsement deal, and she certainly doesn't want you to. Naturally, she has to find a way to interfere. However, the more she does this, the more it means that we're doing the right thing. Su Bei is jealous."

Jia Jia found the words to be reasonable.

Afraid that things would change, Tian Jinnuo quickly signed the endorsement contract and quickly had Jia Jia film the advertisement for the endorsement. She urged the brand to quickly release Jia Jia's advertisement.

It was not until she saw the advertisement for Jia Jia's endorsement on the TV and on Weibo that Tian Jinnuo heaved a sigh of relief. This time, Su Bei wouldn't be able to cause trouble anymore, right?

Chapter 1105: Dominating The Entire Market

However, not long after Jia Jia's advertisement, the brand encountered the greatest crisis in history.

First, all the malls in Jingbei Square had dropped the brand. The products were no longer displayed on any shelves. Besides, many malls in the city center also took down the brand's products.

As the largest representative in the country, President Du was instantly in a terrible fix. The contracts that were originally in the bag were about to be renewed, but the malls announced that they would not renew them.

All of a sudden, President Du suffered heavy financial losses.

As the brand encountered large-scale delisting, the news spread out uncontrollably. The competitors took this opportunity to take advantage of the situation. Rumor had it that this brand was dropped and removed from shelves because there were quality problems.

The news became more and more intense. President Du could not stop this decline even if he begged.

When the remaining small shopping malls heard about this situation, some people took President Du's brand off the shelves, while others took the opportunity to ask President Du for an additional share of the profits. This caused President Du to be completely unable to withstand it in a short period of time. He fell into a complete breakdown.

Jia Jia was naturally implicated. Her current popularity was not stable, and she did not have many loyal fans to begin with. Due to this endorsement, she was scolded badly by netizens.

Some fans also asked for an explanation on her Weibo. [Jia Jia, I got an allergic reaction because of this skincare product. As the spokesperson, you have to compensate me!]

[And to think that we liked you. Look at all the bullsh*t endorsements you're taking on. Are you crazy about money?]

[Artists like you who come into money so quickly and have no conscience are the scum of society!]

[I'll never trust Jia Jia's endorsements again. What trash!]

Jia Jia hid behind her phone screen, not daring to say a word.

Moreover, Li Qisheng had also made it clear that he could not do public relations for her. This was because he had already reminded her of the situation beforehand. When she and Tian Jinnuo signed this contract, they said that they would take responsibility.

Di Xing Media Company was not affected this time because the entire company did not help Jia Jia with the publicity. At that time, Li Qisheng had already understood the hidden meaning of Su Bei's words. He was very careful and avoided this storm.

Jia Jia was busy looking for President Du, but she was scolded by President Du.

President Du was already in a terrible fix and could not figure out the source of the problem. How could he have the time to care about a lover like her?

Jia Jia had no choice but to admit that she was unlucky.

Unfortunately, her new acting career was destined to suffer a huge setback because of this.

Other brands did not dare approach her for endorsements now. Even good scripts could no longer be handed to her at this critical moment.

Su Bei had already given them advice on this matter, but they refused to listen.

Even at this point, Jia Jia didn't blame herself. Instead, she blamed Su Bei.

"It's all that jinx Su Bei's fault. She cursed me and made me like this!" Jia Jia was very angry. Her face contorted when she thought of Su Bei.

Tian Jinnuo was the same as Jia Jia. She didn't reflect on her own problems. Instead, she felt that if not for Su Bei, things wouldn't have ended up like this.

However, she didn't believe that Su Bei had the ability to dominate the entire market.

Chapter 1106: She Had Not Believed Her For A Long Time

Since things had come to this, there was no way to save Jia Jia. However, Tian Jinnuo could still be saved.

She quickly went to look for Li Qisheng and admitted her mistake. She did not want to be the next target along with Jia Shiyun and Jia Jia.

Jia Jia's identity was different. Even if she admitted her mistake, she would not be able to get any resources.

However, Tian Jinnuo worked behind the scenes. Once she admitted her mistake and switched artists, who would know that she had made mistakes in her work?

Jia Jia had already hit rock bottom. If she did not vent her anger, she really could not get over it.

She used the remaining money to buy a large number of posts to slander Su Bei. She posted everything online.

However, this kind of despicable method did not cause much of a stir at all. It was suppressed by Qiao Mei, and the posts were deleted completely.

At the same time, Qiao Mei also found out that it was Jia Jia who did it.

Jia Jia was eating instant noodles in her apartment when someone knocked on the door.

She opened the door and saw that it was Qiao Mei. She was about to close the door.

Qiao Mei looked at her calmly and said, "Jia Jia, I have two things to say."

"I don't know what you're going to say, and I don't want to hear it."

"You don't want me to talk to the police, do you?" Qiao Mei asked.

Jia Jia let go of the door handle.

Qiao Mei said indifferently, "I already know that the dirt from the past few days was all posted by you. Su Bei isn't pursuing the matter with you, but I have something to say."

Jia Jia's face darkened as fear flashed across her heart.

Qiao Mei said, "Jia Jia, do you really think no one knows about your relationship with President Du? I have a video of the two of you. If you don't behave yourself, I'll have to release it!"

"No, Sister Mei!" Jia Jia immediately gave in.

Although she was down and out now, she still had a chance. However, if that video was released, her entire life would be ruined.

"Since you know how powerful I am, I don't want to make more enemies for Su Bei. I hope you'll watch yourself in the future. If you do that, we won't release the video."

Qiao Mei's warning was very effective. Jia Jia's expression kept changing. She knew that she could no longer be enemies with Su Bei.

She had asked for it. Thinking about it now, she deeply regretted it.

Seeing that she was already wavering, Qiao Mei did not say anything else. She said, "Jia Jia, it's really a pity for you. You clearly had such a good path ahead of you... Back then, it was all thanks to Su Bei helping you fight for the funds for 'Basketball Baby' in front of Manager Li. Unfortunately, everything was ruined by you."

"Su Bei helped me get the funds for Basketball Baby?" Jia Jia could not believe what she was hearing.

"Otherwise? Do you think it was Jia Shiyun? Does she have that ability?" Qiao Mei asked.

Jia Jia's mind was buzzing. She knew in her heart that of course, it was not Jia Shiyun.

If it were in the past, she would have believed that it was true. However, after finding out that Jia Shiyun had no background to rely on and had a fiancé to whom she was engaged for four years, she no longer believed her. Jia Shiyun had nothing to do with her at all. It was just that everything was a lie.

On the other hand, it was indeed possible for Su Bei to do it. This was because Su Bei had always been a popular figure in Di Xing. She had the ability to influence Li Qisheng.

Moreover, she was even confident about President Du's future.

Jia Jia really regretted it.

Chapter 1107: A Toad Doesn't Bite But It's Annoying

She admitted that in addition to wanting a better foothold for herself, she was also influenced by Jia Shiyun and felt that Su Bei had contributed to everything that had happened to Jia Shiyun now.

However, she did not expect that the only thing she had obtained from Jia Shiyun had nothing to do with Jia Shiyun. It was all thanks to Su Bei.

Qiao Mei said, "You're still young and have a bright future. We can forget about this matter. I hope you'll take care of yourself."

She walked out and called Su Bei. "I've taken care of Jia Jia."

"That's good. Jia Jia doesn't deserve to fall from grace. I don't want to make another enemy," Su Bei said. If people like Jia Jia and Jia Shiyun joined forces, it would be really annoying.

However, after dividing one of them and not giving them the chance to band together again, it was fine.

Otherwise, her energy would be occupied by such petty people. It would be a waste of time.

Qiao Mei smiled and said, "Su Bei, why are you fighting for Jia Jia instead of for yourself?"

She didn't know about the relationship between Su Bei and Lu Heting, so she couldn't figure it out.

Su Bei smiled. "Because I have Director He as my guarantor."

Qiao Mei knew that Su Bei wasn't being completely honest, but everyone had their own little secrets, so she didn't pry.

Su Bei was right. Jia Shiyun did want to join forces with Jia Jia to take revenge on Su Bei.

However, Jia Jia was already aware. When Jia Shiyun looked for her, she rejected her. The two of them never worked together again.

A few days later, Jia Shiyun proposed to terminate her contract and leave Di Xing Media Company.

Li Qisheng asked her to pay the penalty fee.

Jia Shiyun paid the high penalty and left Di Xing Media Company and joined another film company.

At the same time, Su Bei's movie, Two Phoenixes, was released.

With Boxer as the foundation, everyone was quite confident in Su Bei's acting skills.

Her fans, in particular, had been looking forward to it.

[This is Su Bei's first movie. When the news first came out, there was already a huge wave of fans. When it's officially released, the results will definitely be even better!]

[That goes without saying. It'll definitely create another box office legend.]

[My Su Bei is awesome.]

Of course, there were also many industry insiders who rained on their parade. [The reason why Boxer could obtain high box office sales is because of He Xuyan. As everyone knows, He Xuyan is especially good at training actors and has very strict requirements. That's why those actors can perform beyond their usual standards and fuse with their characters. As for Director Guo, although he's not bad, he's still a director who prioritizes making a living. He's laxer with actors.]

[I agree with the commenter above. Besides, Boxer is Su Bei's second movie. Two Phoenixes is a work she produced when she just entered the industry. It's obvious that her acting skills will definitely be immature. Anyway, I don't have high hopes for this movie.]

There were also people who objected. Don't forget that this movie is supported by Lin Yu, as well as Han Feng and Rong Xiu from Di Xing Media Company. The company will definitely expand its cooperation with the cinema chains to ensure good box office sales for this movie.]

[We're still certain the box office sales for this movie will be pretty good.]

Because of Su Bei, the movie became popular before it was released.

On the day of the actual release, the movie's box office sales rose to first place.

Chapter 1108: Of Course, My Wife Acts Well

Su Bei's fans bought tickets like crazy.

They had been anticipating news from Su Bei for a long time, but in the past month, Su Bei had not given them any news at all. No one knew what she was doing. The fans' urge to see her had been stimulated to the maximum.

Anyone who had watched Boxer knew that the film was more about the characters. The completeness of the story was average, and it was all down to He Xuyan's skills.

As for Two Phoenixes, it was a complete feature film with cause and effect. It was a commercial story blockbuster that was more in line with the market.

Therefore, although the word of mouth and reputation of this movie wasn't as good as the previous one, the storytelling made many movie fans feel satisfied.

In particular, the complete family, romance, and friendship scenes made many people cry.

There was also a scene where Lu Heting was a substitute for Lin Yu and kissed Su Bei.

Director Guo handled this scene very well. Almost no one could tell that Lin Yu had used a substitute. Everyone was moved by the scene and kiss. Many people even took screenshots of this scene and made them into GIFs that spread widely.

When Lu Weijian went to the cinema and saw this scene, his lips twitched. His brother wasn't jealous?

This was really strange!

Could it be that Su Bei had used a substitute for her scenes here?

That must be it! Lu Weijian had no doubt that his brother would never let Su Bei kiss anyone else!

He looked around and couldn't see any difference between that substitute and Su Bei. He couldn't help but praise Director Guo in his heart. He was really skilled. He couldn't tell who his sister-in-law had used as a substitute at all!

After Lu Weijian finished watching the movie, he deeply felt that this movie was more to his liking than the previous one. In the group chat with Lu Heting and Su Bei, he praised crazily: [Sister-in-law, your acting is really good. I cried several times?]

[Thank you ^_^!] Su Bei replied.

[To put it bluntly, my favorite character in this is your character as Ni Huang. You act so well!]

[Of course, my wife acted well!] Lu Heting replied. He seemed to think that Lu Weijian's flattery was unnecessary. Did he need to praise Su Bei's acting skills?

Lu Weijian was shocked. [I shouldn't be in the group. I should be hiding underground.]

Su Bei replied: [Thank you, Hubby!]

Lu Heting posted a GIF of Ni Huang kissing Zhan Han in Two Phoenixes. This was also the photo he had just uploaded on Weibo. This scene became the best scene in his opinion.

When Lu Weijian saw this, he was confused.

What was Big Brother trying to do by posting this kissing scene that was shot by a substitute? How could he please Sister-in-law like this?

As he was thinking, he saw Su Bei replying to Lu Heting with a GIF of the kiss scene from another angle.

Lu Weijian could only say that he couldn't understand the couple.

In the past month or so, Su Bei had not shown her face much. In fact, she had been accompanying Da Bao and Gun Gun.

Coincidentally, it was summer vacation, so the two munchkins had plenty of time. Su Bei couldn't bear to miss their childhood days, so she spent more time at home. During this time, she even took them on a few short drives.

Gun Gun was so excited and active during the day that he would very quickly fall asleep after getting home every day. Da Bao also enjoyed Su Bei taking time out to accompany them.

Chapter 1109: The World Of The Rich

Lu Heting was busy with work and couldn't accompany them every time. However, he would try his best to make time for them.

This time, Su Bei didn't specially buy tickets to invite Lu Heting to the cinema to watch Two Phoenixes.

Su Bei was at home. She kept receiving good news and watched as the box office sales of Two Phoenixes climbed higher and higher.

When they went to bed that night, Su Bei rubbed her shoulders and exclaimed, "My son is so heavy!"

"Did Gun Gun ask you to carry him again?" Lu Heting reached out to massage her shoulders. He lowered his eyes and looked at her pitifully.

Su Bei smiled. "Well, he's my son, after all."

Da Bao did not like to be carried, but Gun Gun loved to be carried the most. Su Bei was not able to hug or carry Gun Gun in the past few years, so she felt guilty toward him. Naturally, she would grant his requests.

Lu Heting thought of Gun Gun's face, which was similar to Su Bei's. He couldn't blame the child.

When he was almost done massaging her, he whispered, "Let's watch a movie tonight."

"Sure." Su Bei nodded in agreement, but then grew wary. "You're not going to show me one of those movies, are you?"

After watching that movie, she slept until the afternoon the next day and couldn't get up. The aftereffects were simply too severe. From then on, Su Bei firmly forbade Lu Heting from watching those movies.

Lu Heting laughed. The last time was his first time watching such things too.

"I'm not."

"Then tell me, is there a kissing scene in the movie?" Su Bei asked warily.

“Yes.”

Su Bei looked annoyed. “Are there any action scenes?”

“Of course.”

Su Bei snatched the remote control away. “We’re not gonna watch. Let’s just go to sleep.”

“Then you can sleep. I’ll watch it myself.” Lu Heting nodded and took the remote control from her hand.

Su Bei pulled the blanket over her head.

Instead of a TV, the room was equipped with an ultra-high-definition projector, so whatever they watched gave them plenty of audio-visual enjoyment.

However, if she were to watch those movies, Su Bei would definitely refuse!

She heard Lu Heting turn on the projector, and images began to appear on the screen.

Lu Heting seemed to be watching with relish. Su Bei couldn’t help but be curious. She couldn’t help but poke her head out of the blanket and look at the screen.

She was surprised. On the screen was Two Phoenixes, which she was starring in!

“Lu Heting, are you watching a pirated movie?!” Su Bei knew that the movie had just been released. Other than the cinema, there was no other way he could watch it.

As the CEO of a listed corporation, how could he watch pirated movies?

Lu Heting explained, “This is a copy from the cinema chain. I paid for it.”

The world of the rich!

Relieved, she immediately sat up and watched it with him.

“You’re teasing me!” Su Bei blushed. Of course, there was a kissing scene in Two Phoenixes. Besides, as an ancient martial arts film, it was normal to have action scenes.

“Or do you want to watch that?” Lu Heting’s mischievous voice sounded.

“This is a good movie.” She took his arm.

The projector at home was very professional and was not inferior to a movie theater.

Hence, watching the movie here felt like they were in the movie theater.

When Su Bei filmed the scenes, she filmed them one by one. She didn’t film them in the exact order of the entire movie, so she didn’t know how the results would be.

When she immersed herself in her emotions to watch, she was attracted by the stories and characters, completely intoxicated by them.

Chapter 1110: Winner In Life

By the time she was done watching, there were tears in the corners of her eyes, and they had turned moist.

“Everyone is right. It’s really great,” Lu Heting said softly and kissed her tear stains.

Su Bei looked up and took the initiative to kiss him. Perhaps it was because he had become a substitute when they filmed the kiss scene, her feelings when watching the movie were even hotter and more passionate as though she thought of the character as this man whom she loved the most.

Lu Heting lowered his head and let her kiss him passionately.

Two Phoenixes’ box office sales kept rising. It quickly caught up with Boxer’s box office results in the same period and even surpassed Boxer’s records.

Despite the fact that many people criticized it as a movie targeted at the masses, it was undeniable that many viewers appreciated this kind of storytelling.

The audience’s preferences were diverse. They could accept anything as long as it was a good movie. But in any case, a good story was indeed the easiest for them to accept.

In terms of artistic merit, Two Phoenixes couldn’t compete with Boxer. But in the minds of fans and the general public, they loved the characters in Two Phoenixes more. And they loved the main couple in it too.

Lin Yu was far away in the United States and had been tagged by his fans countless times.

[I worship this pairing!]

[I had shipped them long ago. With the release of Two Phoenixes, my long-cherished wish has been fulfilled. I can die without regrets!]

[But Ni Huang actually jumped off the cliff to commit suicide. The love line has actually changed. I strongly request for Two Phoenixes 2!]

However, it was precisely because Su Bei’s character, Ni Huang, and Lin Yu’s character, Zhan Han, did not end up together in the movie that the two of them became the target of many people. On various websites, there were countless edited videos that saw them with a happy ending.

Lu Heting saw these videos on the internet. This time, he was not as jealous. The main reason was that in every video, there would be the kissing scene between Ni Huang and Zhan Han from various angles. Lu Heting knew that this kiss was between Su Bei and him, not Lin Yu. Hence, Lu Heting was very satisfied. No matter how many such videos were edited, he would just watch them and not do anything else.

As the head of Lu Corporation, everyone thought that he handled international affairs in the office, controlled the global economy, and guided new developments in the economy. On the surface, he was a business elite and was respected by everyone.

Unexpectedly, he was just a man in love in private. In the top-floor office of the huge Lu Corporation, he was browsing through Ni Huang and Zhan Han's content on the computer.

Tsk, tsk, tsk.

He was being shipped with Su Bei during the day and got to sleep with the very same woman at night. Tsk tsk tsk, he was undoubtedly a winner in life!

With this momentum, Two Phoenixes maintained its high box office sales. In just a few days, their box office sales had already exceeded one billion yuan. At the current rate, it would not be a problem for it to steadily make it to three billion yuan.

They had made a fortune in every way.

Su Bei received a call from Director Guo. He was smiling on the phone. "Su Bei, do you want to see my new script?"

At the moment, Director Guo's commercial value was also higher. He was also wholeheartedly supporting his beloved helper, Su Bei.

"Sure," Su Bei agreed.

There were a lot of good scripts in her hands so far, but she hadn't seen anything suitable for herself.

She didn't mind working with Director Guo again.

Soon, she received the script from Director Guo. She opened it and read it.
