

HEAVEN SENT 1111

Chapter 1111: Discussing This Question

This script was called 'Mother'. It spoke of a mother's life.

This mother's name was Shirley. She was originally an ordinary and cowardly woman. After she married her husband, she vaguely had the feeling that her husband had killed many people.

This was because although her husband looked gentle and refined on the surface, he was very ruthless in private. He would punch someone if there was a disagreement.

Why did outsiders have that impression of him? It was because he'd deal with anyone who dared question him.

The rest were naturally all people who had a good impression of him.

The woman had called the police, but her husband claimed that she was suffering from an illness. With her husband being so eloquent, she, who was not good with words, was treated like a monster. Instead, it was her husband who maintained a sanctimonious facade. Everyone trusted him.

Plus there was no evidence to prove it. Nobody believed Shirley.

She was taken home where she was subjected to her husband's persistent beatings. She was also forced by him to kill their own son. In doing so, she became a criminal. That way, her husband would not have to worry about her wanting to turn him in.

A dozen years later, her husband was arrested and jailed after the scandal broke.

As a result, Shirley became an accomplice and had to accept the corresponding punishment.

However, during the joint investigation by the lawyers and the police, it was discovered that Shirley was not a bad person. She was not involved in any of the things her husband did. The only one she was involved in was the murder of their son.

The police found no evidence that Shirley's son was murdered. If they could prove that her son was still alive, Shirley could be acquitted.

However, during the repeated questioning by the police, Shirley claimed that her son had been killed. She was willing to take any responsibility.

The story was about a policewoman and a lawyer. During the investigation, the bleak but determined life of Shirley was shown.

Just as Shirley was about to be executed, they finally found evidence through Shirley's various personal belongings. They discovered that Shirley had long since given her son away for adoption. However, in order not to let her deranged husband find out, she pretended that she had personally caused her son's death.

Even now, when her son was an adult, she kept that secret to keep him physically and mentally safe so that he would never know what kind of parents he had.

It was because she knew full well that her husband had long since lost his humanity. If he knew that their son was still alive and that she had betrayed him, then her son's life would be in danger.

And if their son knew about these things, it would definitely haunt him for the rest of his life.

She pleaded with the policewoman and the lawyer to keep the secret forever because all her life, there had only been darkness. She wanted to leave all the light to her son.

Even if she had to watch him grow up healthy and happy in another family, she would accept it.

Because, as a mother, that was the only thing she could do for her son.

The script explored not only crime but also women's place in the family and the suffering they had to endure when subjected to domestic violence. Uneducated women with little ability to protect themselves often suffered a lifetime of pain.

However, the script made all the situations more extreme to discuss this problem and to appeal to the progress of the entire society.

Chapter 1112: Seduced By A Brat Like That

After reading the script, Su Bei's eyes were completely wet.

As a woman and as a mother, she knew the weight of the story well.

The word 'mother' carried far too much.

Su Bei immediately gave Director Guo a call. "Director Guo, I'm willing to accept this script."

"Su Bei, I knew you'd be willing. However, the subject matter is relatively heavy. There'll be a lot of criticism when it comes out. Also, because of the subject matter, it might not be filmed in S Country. We'll choose a place with a legal environment similar to the script," Director Guo said. "Just like those previous detective movies. Because of the subject matter, they set the background in T Country, the United States, or H Country."

Su Bei nodded. "I understand. Which country will we most likely shoot in?"

"T Country," Director Guo said. "It'll take about three or four months. And I'm not the one filming, but I can tell you that you'll definitely benefit a lot from working with this director!"

"Who is it?" she asked, intrigued.

"Camilan!"

Su Bei was pleasantly surprised. Camilan was currently the most famous genius director in the world. His works had never been limited to a certain theme but were constantly innovative.

The subjects he was currently involved in included history, conspiracy, Western fantasy, games, women's rights, and the protection of children's rights. Although he was European, he was fascinated and well-versed in the history of S Country. He spoke the language fluently and had always been advocating for women's and children's rights.

Presumably, the script of Mother had moved him. It was also because he had seen the harm domestic violence could do to women, as well as the forbearance of women in Country S. Hence, he personally wanted to participate in it to contribute to women's rights in the country.

"Camilan!" Su Bei repeated the name. She didn't need any further introduction from Director Guo to understand the weight of the film.

This might not be a box office dark horse. It might not be liked by many people, but it would definitely leave a place in film history. It would make a strong mark for women's rights.

Su Bei calculated. T Country was not close to S Country, but fortunately, it was much closer than America. Before agreeing, she needed to discuss it with Lu Heting.

Director Guo also knew that she had a man by her side. Before she made a decision, she needed to discuss it with him.

Director Guo's heart ached. Such a good woman and a natural actress had been seduced by such a brat. She even had to think twice before making a decision.

Unfortunately, Director Guo was not familiar with that brat. Otherwise, he would have called him and told him not to hog Su Bei.

Sitting in his office, Lu Heting felt the tips of his ears heating up. He subconsciously touched them.

He had no idea that Director Guo was talking about him.

Su Bei also knew that it was not easy to convince Lu Heting. After all, the last time she filmed Boxer, she had only gone to the suburbs but Lu Heting was already very reluctant.

Not to mention going straight to T Country this time.

Hence, she simply changed her clothes and went to Lu Group's building. Naturally, she came in men's clothes this time too.

Chapter 1113: Why Are You So Free?

Otherwise, if the reporters caught her, it would cause a huge commotion.

Su Bei had to protect the two munchkins, so it was better to keep a low profile.

Because she had already appeared on the top floor the last time, Lu Hang had made arrangements. As long as the people there saw Su Bei coming over, they would directly let her in regardless of whether she was in men's or women's clothes.

Therefore, this time, Su Bei reached the top floor without any obstructions.

When he reached the top floor, Lu Hang came out with a document. His vision blurred, and he saw a figure.

“Mister...” Lu Hang immediately changed his words. “Miss Su, are you here to look for Mr. Lu?”

“Yes. Is he busy? If he is, I’ll just wait.”

Lu Heting was meeting two senior executives to discuss something. Under such circumstances, he was naturally busy. If it were anyone else, they wouldn’t have been able to see him.

But who was Su Bei? Lu Hang had long known that no matter what the situation was, Su Bei had special privileges.

Therefore, he immediately smiled and said, “Mr. Lu isn’t busy. I’ll bring you over now.”

Hearing that he was not busy, Su Bei followed him in peace.

Lu Hang arrived at Lu Heting’s office and knocked on the door.

“Come in,” Lu Heting said coldly.

.....

Lu Hang brought Su Bei in and said, “Mr. Lu...”

There was no need to finish the rest of his sentence. Lu Heting understood.

The higher-ups found it strange that someone was allowed to disturb Lu Heting when he was discussing something.

Lu Hang directly brought a young man in?

The young man didn’t look like someone important. He didn’t look like he had anything important to do here...

They were confused.

They turned to look at Lu Heting and saw a smile on his cold lips.

The two senior executives immediately felt a chill in their hearts. It was as if they had discovered something extraordinary. They immediately lowered their heads as if they were afraid that they had found out a secret.

Then, they heard Lu Heting’s voice above their heads. “Let’s settle on this first. Give me a detailed plan later.”

The two senior executives tactfully took their leave, not daring to look up at Su Bei again.

Lu Hang also left with the two higher-ups.

“Why are you so free?” Lu Heting was happy that Su Bei took the initiative to visit him.

Speaking of which, Su Bei rarely came here. This was only the second time.

Su Bei looked tall and thin in front of others, but in front of Lu Heting, she was not tall enough. She had to stand on her tiptoes to kiss him.

Lu Heting closed his eyes in pleasure and placed his long fingers on her waist.

"I came to pick you up for dinner tonight. Da Bao and Gun Gun were both picked up by Grandpa and Grandma."

Lu Heting smiled. "Then I'll get Lu Hang to arrange it tomorrow."

Seeing his expression, Su Bei was a little nervous. If Lu Heting found out that she was trying so hard to please him, how disappointed would he be?

Therefore, it was better to say it now.

"Well, Heting... I have something to tell you."

Seeing that she was serious, Lu Heting stopped smiling. "Okay, go ahead."

"Director Guo recommended a script to me. The plot is very good, and I'm a little tempted. But if I film it..." Su Bei couldn't say it under his dotting gaze. The better he was, the more she couldn't take advantage of his kindness.

Chapter 1114: I Can't Let You Go There

However, the pursuit of her career and life had taught Su Bei that such a good script and director could only be chanced upon by luck, especially when it came to working with Camilan. Even internationally renowned big-name actors might not encounter such opportunities often.

So, she had to keep talking, "If I shoot it, I'll have to go to T Country. The shooting will take about three or four months."

As expected, Lu Heting frowned, and a deep look flashed across his eyes.

"T Country is a tropical country. The security there isn't too good either."

"I know." How could Su Bei not know? The last time she went there, many of the people she traveled with had fallen ill. Some of them had had their phones and wallets stolen.

Lu Heting had always supported Su Bei's career, but he couldn't let her go to dangerous places.

"Su Bei, I can't let you go there."

Su Bei's face darkened a little. "I'll protect myself," she said in a low voice. "The opportunity to work with Director Camilan is really rare."

However, Lu Heting did not agree readily like before.

His brows furrowed. He'd never known her to be a free bird, and he'd never been willing to imprison her or break her wings.

But he couldn't let her fly off into danger without doing something about it.

Su Bei eased the atmosphere. "Shall we go eat first?"

Lu Heting looked at the time and said, "Okay."

During the meal, the atmosphere was not as harmonious as before. It was rare for them to have a disagreement. This was a problem that they had never encountered before.

Each had their own reasons. Knowing that neither of them would be able to convince the other for the time being and that saying too much would affect the other's mood, they tacitly avoided the subject.

After dinner, Lu Heting drove back to the Lu family's mansion with Su Bei to pick up Da Bao and Gun Gun.

Seeing that the two munchkins were about to leave, Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu couldn't bear to part with them. Old Madam Lu asked the butler to bring out dessert and asked Su Bei to stay for supper.

This meant that they could have more time with the two munchkins.

"Heting, come with me to the study." Old Master Lu stood up and called Lu Heting upstairs.

Old Master Lu's study was on the second floor of the mansion. It was filled with old-fashioned bookcases. The place was richly ornamented and old-fashioned. There were a lot of old and out-of-print books on display. It was quaint.

It matched the aura of the entire mansion.

"Heting, do you remember that you grew up here when you were young?" Old Master Lu said emotionally.

Lu Heting glanced at the entire study. From the window, he could see the tree he had planted in the backyard when he was young. He nodded and said, "Of course, I remember."

"Then why don't you move back in?" Old Master Lu said. "Let Da Bao and Gun Gun do what you did when you were young."

Ever since Mrs. Lu turned herself in and left, Lu Weijian rarely came back. The entire Lu family's mansion was so empty that the two elderly felt gloomy.

They also thought that the two children would be able to enjoy themselves here.

Lu Heting's heart skipped a beat. "We won't move back until you acknowledge Su Bei."

"You!" Old Master Lu was furious, but he knew in his heart that he had not completely acknowledged Su Bei.

"Grandpa, you know very well that this place is a cage for Su Bei," Lu Heting said calmly. "I love her and want to give her freedom."

Chapter 1115: Look At Your Big Brother

Old Master Lu was silent for a long moment.

Lu Heting knew that he had nothing more to say. He turned around and said, "Grandpa, Su Bei is Gun Gun's biological mother."

"What did you say?" Old Master Lu was shocked.

“I mean, Da Bao and Gun Gun are twins,” Lu Heting said. “Gun Gun only looks younger than Da Bao because of his illness.”

Old Master Lu sat back heavily in his chair. This time, he really had no reason not to accept Su Bei.

His two favorite babies were both given birth by Su Bei. Who would have the heart to separate them?

Lu Heting came downstairs and picked up Gun Gun. Holding Da Bao’s hand, he said, “We’re leaving. Say goodbye to Great-grandma.”

“Goodbye, Great-grandma.”

Old Madam Lu was reluctant. She stood up and held Da Bao’s hand. “When are you coming again?”

Lu Heting lowered his eyes, and Gun Gun said obediently, “Very soon, Great-grandma. We’ll miss you.”

Old Madam Lu looked at Gun Gun. “Gun Gun, you’re a good child.”

She thought to herself that the cute Gun Gun was more obedient. It wasn’t that she didn’t dote on Da Bao, but Da Bao looked too cold. Although she knew very well that his coldness was a replica of Lu Heting, she couldn’t help but secretly think that it was because of Su Bei.

After the four of them left, Old Madam Lu couldn’t help but say, “Sigh, Da Bao grew up with Su Bei. His personality is too cold. I think Gun Gun knows how to be more affectionate. It can be seen that Gun Gun took after his biological mother...”

Old Master Lu was already downstairs. When he heard her words, he said, “Don’t say such things again in the future. Su Bei is also the birth mother of Gun Gun.”

“Huh?” Old Madam Lu did not react for a moment.

“Heting said it himself. It can’t be fake.” Old Master Lu had already called Lu Weijian. The evidence would arrive soon.

Sure enough, while Old Madam Lu was still in shock, Lu Weijian had already rushed over and brought back the DNA evidence and information.

After Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu finished reading it, they were extremely emotional. Only now did they understand that Da Bao and Gun Gun were twins!

So what was the point of them opposing Su Bei?

They couldn’t let two good children give up their birth mother to accept a stepmother, could they?

Previously, with Liao Xintong, everyone thought that she was related to Gun Gun by blood.

However, no one was more important than Su Bei now.

Lu Weijian also knew what they were thinking. He hurriedly said, "Grandpa, Grandma, don't worry about Big Brother. His family of four is living very well. If you can't accept their family, you'll be estranged from him. Why bother?"

Old Madam Lu looked at Old Master Lu deeply.

Lu Weijian continued, "Anyway, my brother is smiling more than before. You don't want to see him go back to how he was then, do you?"

Old Master Lu sighed. He also understood that the matter had already been decided. No matter what, they could only acknowledge Su Bei.

He looked at Lu Weijian and asked, "What about you? When do you plan to bring your girlfriend home? Look at your brother. His child is already in junior high school. What about you? What are you doing? Have you made any progress? Come back for a meal with the girl from the Zhou family this weekend. That's settled."

Chapter 1116: Let Her Free

Lu Weijian looked innocent. Why? What had he done?

He said in distress, "Da Bao wanted to skip a grade and enter junior high, but he's only a five-year-old child. Why do you make it sound like the gap between me and Big Brother is hundreds of thousands of years?"

It seemed that Big Brother's matter had stabilized and he would be the one suffering next.

Su Bei returned home and settled the two children down. Seeing that Lu Heting didn't say much at night, she knew that he was still troubled by this matter.

She sat on the bed after her shower and played with her phone while surreptitiously watching him go into the shower. He hadn't smiled much the whole time.

'It seems the situation is a little serious.'

As she was thinking, Director Guo asked on WeChat: [Su Bei, how's it going on your side? I've already asked Camilan. He says that if you agree, you can get a free pass. I've already shown him a lot of your scenes.]

[I still need some time, Director Guo.] Su Bei replied. She took a towel and went to the bathroom to wait for Lu Heting.

Even if he disagreed, she didn't want to see him lose his smile.

When Lu Heting came out, he was wearing a towel, revealing his perfect eight-pack and figure.

He was startled to see her.

Su Bei smiled softly. "I got you a towel too. Can we have a temporary settlement for now?"

"What's a temporary settlement?" Lu Heting asked.

“Let’s just put the problem aside first and don’t sleep while angry.” Su Bei couldn’t bear to see him depressed.

She did want to come back to that for the next few days either.

Lu Heting reached out and hugged her. He couldn’t bear to see her worried.

The second Su Bei’s consciousness fluttered, he whispered, “I agree. Go.”

Su Bei wanted to ask him what he agreed to, but her mind was too heavy and her body was especially tired. Before she could confirm it with him, she fell asleep.

When she woke up, she was stunned for a long time before her consciousness gradually returned. When she opened her eyes, Lu Heting was looking at her.

She blinked. “Honey, you said last night—”

“I said I agree.” Lu Heting lowered his eyes and smiled.

The Lu family’s mansion was already a cage, so how could he bear to give her another cage?

He loved her. He had never wanted to imprison her. He wanted to let her have her freedom.

He didn’t let her go because he was afraid she would lose her protection...

Su Bei was stunned for a moment. Clearly, Lu Heting’s answer surprised her. He had been so unwilling before, but at this moment, he smiled and said that he agreed.

“Are you happy?” Lu Heting picked her up and pecked her on the lips.

“Thank you, Hubby,” Su Bei said in a muffled voice as she buried her head in his arms, knowing what kind of compromise he had made for her.

Lu Heting’s heart ached. He hugged her. She had already suffered so much and been denied by so many people. Letting her be free was all he could give her.

And he knew that Su Bei didn’t mind anyone else’s opinion. She wasn’t influenced by anyone, but she cared about him.

He needed to give her what she wanted more than he needed to bind her to his side.

After Lu Heting confirmed it, he got someone to check everything about T Country, such as the weather, policies, and all the situations that they might encounter during filming.

Chapter 1117: Su Bei Is At Home Scratching Her Feet

He wanted to know which city Su Bei was going to and all the other details.

As a result, Su Bei was reluctant to leave.

The more he understood her, the more she could step into his shoes.

People who were connected to each other had unimaginable feelings for each other.

Since Camilan was the one directing the movie, he was also the one bringing in the investments.

However, because of Su Bei's participation, Di Xing Media Company also invested half of the funds.

Based on Camilan's low-key personality, the movie didn't even have much publicity in the early stages.

Qiao Mei printed a lot of things for Su Bei and said, "I can only accompany you for two days. When everything stabilizes, I'll come back. But this is a good opportunity for you. Su Bei, I really didn't expect that I could nurture an international superstar!"

Su Bei smiled. "I haven't even started filming yet."

"I have faith in you!"

At this moment, Jia Shiyun announced in a high-profile manner that she had joined a film company, Tianyi Media. She had also signed a contract to film a movie in Thailand.

Jia Shiyun's image had collapsed, but there was not much dirt on her. Therefore, it was not very surprising that a film company wanted her.

Moreover, it was said that this film company had powerful capital behind it and was popular in many countries. They had signed Jia Shiyun and were going to boost her up with a lot of money.

It was said that this movie was joined by Sheng Xiaotang, the top actress of Tianyi Media. The lineup was very powerful.

Sheng Xiaotang was a rich young lady, so she was naturally blessed in the film and television industry. Not only did she not need to involve herself in those unspoken rules, but she also had her own resources. This time, Jia Shiyun was able to film a new movie with Sheng Xiaotang. In everyone's opinion, this was Jia Shiyun's turnaround.

After Jia Shiyun left, she quickly poached Tian Jinnuo and brought her with her. She came up with a series of proposals and vaguely stepped on Su Bei to get to the top.

For example, there was the headline, 'Su Bei has been silent for a long time. Jia Shiyun's new movie has begun filming. Who will be the next movie queen?'

'Jia Shiyun is supported by Tianyi Media, but Su Bei is at home scratching her feet. What unique advantages does Jia Shiyun have after leaving Di Xing Media?'

It seemed Jia Shiyun wished to put a ladder on Su Bei and climb to the top while trampling on her.

Su Bei was used to this and did not take it to heart.

On the other hand, Wang Juntang called to apologize on Su Bei's behalf. Only now did he know that Su Bei and Jia Shiyun were competitors.

"I'm so sorry, Su Bei. I didn't think Shiyun would do such a thing."

"Dr. Wang, are you still planning to win her back?" Su Bei asked with a smile.

“No, I’m not. I just think what she’s doing is so wrong that I...”

Su Bei thought to herself that with Wang Juntang’s straightforward thinking, it was no wonder he was kept in the dark by Jia Shiyun for so long. In the end, he was even broken up with.

It would be a good thing if he really gave up on her. Su Bei smiled and asked, “Really?”

“Really.” Wang Juntang was just short of swearing.

“Then you don’t have to apologize for her. It’s okay. I didn’t take it to heart, so don’t take it to heart either, Dr. Wang,” Su Bei said with a smile.

Since she knew Wang Juntang’s standing, Su Bei would know what to do when she met Jia Shiyun again in the future. If Jia Shiyun bumped into her again, she would not show mercy on Wang Juntang’s account.

Chapter 1118: Mockery In The Circle

Jia Shiyun never dreamed that she would have to face another dilemma just by making an announcement.

Moreover, her articles did not boost her reputation. She was even mocked by the crowd.

What did the headline mean that Su Bei had been silent for a long time?

Yes, Su Bei had indeed been appearing in public less frequently now, but Two Phoenixes was currently being shown and the box office sales for it were climbing.

How much of an advantage did Jia Shiyun have?

Her advantage was that she had just signed with Tianyi Media. As a latecomer to the industry, Tianyi Media was worlds apart in terms of the resources it could provide compared to Di Xing Media Company.

As for other aspects, how could Su Bei lose in terms of beauty? In terms of loyalty to her fans, she was also at the top.

Su Bei’s fans almost mocked Jia Shiyun to death.

Jia Shiyun looked at the things being said about her on Weibo and clenched her fists tightly. She had to get revenge for all of this!

Especially everything that had to do with Wang Juntang!

She had already secretly seen that Wang Juntang and Su Bei had interacted in private, so she guessed that Su Bei had something to do with her being caught by the reporters that time.

Su Bei must have done all of this!

“Wang Juntang and I weren’t exposed for several years before that. Why did our relationship have to be exposed this time? If it weren’t for Su Bei, none of this would have happened!” Jia Shiyun was afraid of the ridicule from the fans on Weibo.

However, that was nothing much. It was the mockery that went on within the circle that embarrassed her the most.

Once she hit rock bottom, she would never be able to enjoy her former glory in the circle.

Jia Shiyun's new movie was named 'Wish', and it was produced by Tianyi Media. The female lead was Sheng Xiaotang, the most popular actress in Tianyi Media.

As Tianyi Media was established in T Country, in order to save on filming costs, Wish would be filmed in T Country. Even the crew members were made up of people from T Country due to their cheap labor costs.

On the day Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun boarded the plane, the airport was packed with fans and reporters.

After boarding the plane, Jia Shiyun carefully greeted Sheng Xiaotang. Her tone and attitude were very respectful.

Sheng Xiaotang put down her arrogant mask and said, "You know how to conduct yourself, so why did you fall out with Di Xing over a small matter?"

Jia Shiyun's expression became unnatural when she thought of Su Bei.

Sheng Xiaotang said, "Because of Su Bei?"

Jia Shiyun wasn't familiar with her, so she couldn't say it directly. She didn't know if Sheng Xiaotang had anything to do with Su Bei, so she could only say vaguely, "Some things just happened."

Sheng Xiaotang smiled and said, "Then you're following the right person."

Jia Shiyun was shocked. Did Sheng Xiaotang hate Su Bei too?

If that was the case, it had undoubtedly given her a boost. Having allies in the entertainment industry was more important than anything else.

Jia Shiyun thought back carefully. She didn't know what feud Sheng Xiaotang had with Su Bei, but she would find out eventually.

As Wish was being filmed in another country and such a big spectacle was being made out of it, it had already become popular on Weibo before filming started.

Sheng Xiaotang had many fans, so she was naturally happy to see this.

Because she had brought Jia Shiyun along, she naturally had to compare her to Su Bei. After comparing, she realized that Su Bei hadn't done anything for a long time.

In fact, Lu Heting had arranged a private plane to send Su Bei directly to the filming location in T Country.

Chapter 1119: A Different World Inside

Because it was a private plane, the schedule was relatively free.

While Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun were still waiting for their luggage at the airport in T Country, Su Bei was already resting in her hotel room.

Su Bei checked into a small private hotel. To be precise, it was a hotel owned by Lu Group. It was usually used to receive VIPs who had business dealings with Lu Group and was not open to ordinary guests.

Its security, privacy, and service standards were all top-notch.

Not only did it have its own spa, pool, cafe, bar, and reception room, but it also had a garden. It was like a private villa.

However, the appearance of the hotel was not eye-catching. There was a world of difference between the inside and outside.

After looking around, Su Bei couldn't help but ask with a smile, "In that case, don't I look a little out of place with the others in the crew?"

"No, the crew can stay on the other side," Lu Heting said. "Do you see the tall building up ahead? It's open to the public."

The place was open to the public. It was resplendent, rich, and prosperous. The extravagance was a little shocking, but compared to this place, it seemed less meticulous.

Outsiders would only think that Su Bei was keeping a low profile, but they would never expect that there was another world inside.

Su Bei looked at Lu Heting and smiled. "As expected of a capitalist. He won't give up on any profitable place."

"Are you satisfied with what you see now?" Lu Heting looked down at the woman and smiled.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun were staying at the place in front. As the people supported by Tianyi Media, they naturally wouldn't let them stay in a shabby place.

Jia Shiyun used to live in a good place because of her status, but in the past few months, she had been neglected. She cherished being able to step into such a luxurious place again.

However, Sheng Xiaotang was used to it. She walked in in her high heels.

A young man stood opposite her. He was suave and looked at Sheng Xiaotang with narrowed eyes. When she came over, he reached out to take her and looked intimate.

"Shiyun, this is Mr. Lu," Sheng Xiaotang introduced.

Jia Shiyun hurriedly greeted him, but her heart skipped a beat. Mr. Lu? Was he from Lu Group?

However, she did not ask. After suffering the last time, she already had an instinctive fear of the Lu family and did not dare to think too much about anything uncertain.

This Mr. Lu's name was Lu Tianci. He was very flirtatious. He held Sheng Xiaotang's arm and walked forward. He said, "Director Camilan will be coming to T Country tonight. You can attend the banquet and meet him."

Even though she did not enter the entertainment industry for wealth, Sheng Xiaotang was not immune to the name 'Camilan'. She said in surprise, "Really? He's going to film a new movie?"

"That's what I heard, but he hasn't decided on the details yet."

"If I can join Camilan's movie..." Sheng Xiaotang unknowingly said what was on her mind. "Sigh, but let's not talk about it. Even if I can just meet him and take a photo with him, my value will double."

Because Camilan paid special attention to the culture of S Country, his reputation in S Country was excellent. To be able to be recognized by him guaranteed a bright future.

Not to mention Sheng Xiaotang, even Jia Shiyun, who was following behind them, could not help but have an unrealistic wish. She fantasized about being able to chat with Camilan.

Chapter 1120: Look At The Chess Piece

If she could get close to Camilan, wouldn't she be able to do whatever she wanted with the press release?

Lu Tianci said, "No matter what, let's meet the higher-ups first. Prepare well tonight."

Sheng Xiaotang smiled.

After Lu Tianci left, she called Jia Shiyun and said, "Don't say that I'm not helping you. Tonight's opportunity is very good. I'll bring you along."

"Thank you, Miss Sheng." Jia Shiyun immediately thanked her. She naturally knew how precious the opportunity was.

However, she also knew that she could not snatch Sheng Xiaotang's opportunity, so when she chose her clothes, she deliberately chose something simpler than Sheng Xiaotang's. She was used to being high and mighty in Di Xing Media Company. Back then, she was unwilling to see her sidekick dress better than her when she wore beautiful clothes, so she was very experienced in this.

Sheng Xiaotang was very satisfied with Jia Shiyun's knowledge, but she also knew that Lu Tianci wanted to see Jia Shiyun appear.

She did not know what was going on, but she knew that Lu Tianci was also a member of the Lu family of Lu Group. She knew that Lu Tianci did not get along with Di Xing Media, which was why he took Jia Shiyun over from Di Xing Media.

He wanted to make Jia Shiyun famous and teach Di Xing a lesson.

Sheng Xiaotang had seen Lu Tianci with his parents before. His father was the former head of the Lu family, Lu Yaode. It was not good for Sheng Xiaotang to inquire too much about the Lu family's matters. Moreover, these secrets were mostly rumors in the outside world. It was very difficult to know the truth.

However, Sheng Xiaotang placed all her hopes on Lu Tianci.

He was a true member of Lu Group and a member of the Lu family. She had even managed to pick a backer whom the outsiders did not know about.

Sheng Xiaotang did not care about the current head of the Lu family or Mr. Lu.

Therefore, since Lu Tianci wanted to go against Di Xing, she naturally had to help support Jia Shiyun.

“Perform well,” Sheng Xiaotang said. He looked at Jia Shiyun like she was a chess piece.

The evening feast began.

The people coming and going were all celebrities and famous directors of T Country’s film industry.

Although T Country’s development could not compare to S Country’s in any aspect, and the development of film and television in T Country rarely went out of the country, with the integration of the world economy, the cooperation between S Country and T Country had increased sharply. Working with T Country could obtain a lot of tax and policy support. Therefore, a lot of capital in S Country had begun to enter T Country’s market as those people intended to take a share of the pie. Therefore, the current T Country could be considered to be a big figure in film and television.

Sheng Xiaotang took Lu Tianci’s arm and entered the venue. Jia Shiyun followed behind them.

It was obvious that Lu Tianci was very familiar with everything here. Wherever he passed, many people greeted him respectfully.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun were also holding glasses of red wine and interacting with everything present. Because of the language barrier, they could only smile.

Fortunately, many people in T Country had mastered English in order to adapt, so Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun could somewhat communicate with them.

Just as everyone was laughing and talking, someone suddenly said, “Camilan is here!”

They all looked toward the door and saw a middle-aged man of medium height enter. He wore a simple mask that covered a small area of his nose and eyes. The rest of his face was exposed.
