Chapter 1121: Made Her Very Uncomfortable

??

He had dressed like this since his debut. Everyone was used to it.

They all looked respectful when they saw him.

“Director Camilan!”

“Director Camilan!”

Everyone greeted him in English.

Despite his reputation, Camilan didn’t put on airs. He greeted everyone politely.

Lu Tianci had always been developing in T Country, so he had some fame to his name. He went forward and greeted with a smile, “Director Camilan.”

“Mr. Lu,” the director said directly in the language of S Country.

Lu Tianci smiled and said, “Director Camilan, you’re truly an expert in S Country. You speak the language so fluently.”

“I’m flattered, Mr. Lu.” Camilan was short with a hoarse voice. It was not a pleasant voice, and he looked fair. She was of medium height and on the thin side. He did not look imposing at all.

However, those who knew him well knew that he had high standards for movies. That was what made them good quality.

Lu Tianci introduced Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun to him, saying, “Director Camilan, these are two of my artistes, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun. Please guide me in the future.”

“Of course.” The director was very polite and modest but said very little.

After Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun went forward to greet him, they naturally wanted to take a photo with him. Director Camilan did not reject them. He gently put his arms around them and posed in front of the camera. This action seemed rather familiar to him.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun wanted to use Camilan’s influence, so they took many photos.

In their hearts, they had even thought of what to post to gain popularity. They just had to go back and post these photos. When the time came, many people would know that they were the people Camilan valued and their acting skills were extraordinary. In the future, they would have a lot more advertising and film resources.

Not only that, but their remuneration could also be greatly improved.

However, Jia Shiyun was worried about Sheng Xiaotang, so she only took a few photos before she stopped. She didn’t take any more photos and gave way to Sheng Xiaotang and Camilan to continue taking photos.

Lu Tianci held his wine glass and watched everything with a smile.

At this moment, a tall figure appeared at the cocktail party. She was dressed in a black gown that made her look dignified and mysterious.

Immediately, someone asked in a low voice, "Who is that? I've never seen her before."

"Such a beautiful young lady. Could she be a new artiste signed by some big director?"

T Country was not familiar with Su Bei yet. She had only come to perform once before she became famous. Currently, her two popular movies were not shown in T Country, so not many people knew her.

However, someone had seen her movie on the internet and whispered, "That's Su Bei. She's been very popular in S Country recently. Moreover, both of her movies are very impressive."

"Is it really Su Bei? Then she looks better than she did in the movie. Those two directors wasted her looks!"

When Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun heard Su Bei's name, they immediately turned around and saw Su Bei appear at the scene. Both of them couldn't help but frown slightly, clearly uncomfortable.

Especially Jia Shiyun. She was previously high and mighty in front of Su Bei. When they met again this time, it was the scene of her being down and out while Su Bei was admired by others. It made her very uncomfortable.

When Lu Tianci saw Su Bei, his eyes narrowed with curiosity.

Sheng Xiaotang did not care about Su Bei. She had been famous for a long time and had a rich family background. She was also friends with the Tang family. She knew that while Su Bei was a member of the Tang family, she was not liked by her family.

Chapter 1122: Don't Post Them

In the film industry, Su Bei was just a newbie.

Therefore, in front of Su Bei, Sheng Xiaotang was still a senior.

However, she did not expect Su Bei to take the initiative to walk in her direction with a warm smile on her face.

Sheng Xiaotang thought to herself that since Su Bei was trying to be nice, she might as well give her some face and show some magnanimity. Maybe she could help Mr. Lu dig out something from Di Xing?

At this thought, she stood still and waited for Su Bei to come over.

When Su Bei was about to reach Sheng Xiaotang, she reached out her hand.

Sheng Xiaotang was still a little hesitant to be so friendly with Su Bei.

Camilan had already walked past Sheng Xiaotang and reached out to Su Bei, shaking her hand.

"Director Camilan," Su Bei greeted him with a smile.

Although this was the first time they had met, Director Guo had been worried about them. Hence, he pulled some strings for them to get to know each other.

In particular, Director Guo and Camilan seemed to be very familiar with each other. Director Guo had praised Su Bei many times in front of Camilan.

Although they had only just met, the two of them were already very familiar with each other.

Camilan didn't put on airs in front of the others. He was polite and proper.

But in front of Su Bei, he seemed even more relaxed.

Sheng Xiaotang looked embarrassed for a moment. Obviously, Su Bei had come over so enthusiastically just now because of Camilan, not her.

However, Sheng Xiaotang did not expect Su Bei to be so familiar with Camilan. This made her feel a little uncomfortable.

Even she had to go through Lu Tianci's introduction before she could talk to Camilan. How could Su Bei do that?

A reporter stepped forward to take photos of Su Bei and Camilan.

Sheng Xiaotang's fingers tightened around the red wine glass. She said to Jia Shiyun, "Don't post the drafts."

Not to mention Jia Shiyun, there was no way she was going to post any news about her with Camilan.

Jia Shiyun knew what was going on. Seeing how close Su Bei and Camilan were, it was obvious that Su Bei knew Camilan better.

If she and Sheng Xiaotang went to post some articles about their relationship with Camilan and how Camilan liked their acting skills, Su Bei's news would immediately follow.

At that time, she and Sheng Xiaotang would not get a single cent out of it. They would even be compared to Su Bei and become her stepping stones.

"Okay, Miss Sheng," Jia Shiyun said, her heart sinking.

She glanced at Sheng Xiaotang. Clearly, Sheng Xiaotang was not in a better mood than her.

Su Bei and Camilan chatted happily. Many directors came up to greet them, and Camilan introduced Su Bei to them.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun, who were at the side, were suddenly reduced to a foil.

Even Lu Tianci's limelight seemed to be overshadowed.

Su Bei didn't stay long. She quickly raised her glass and smiled. "Everyone, please excuse me."

"Go ahead," everyone said with a smile.

Su Bei left as quickly as she came. She brought nothing with her but cast a colorful light in everyone's hearts.

Actually, if not for giving Camilan face, she would not have come to the banquet tonight. She would rather stay in the hotel room with Lu Heting.

After she went out, the banquet returned to normal, but her appearance had made everyone's hearts unable to recover.

Chapter 1123: Half-Brother

After she left, she got into Lu Heting's car and said with a smile, "I said 20 minutes at most. Did I keep my word?"

"Yes." Lu Heting gently took her hand and put it to his lips.

"Oh yes, I saw Jia Shiyun earlier. I didn't expect her to be there."

"Was there a young man with her?"

Reminded by Lu Heting, Su Bei remembered. "Yes, there was a man standing beside her. He looked quite noble. Why do you ask?"

"His name is Lu Tianci. He's Lu Yaode's son."

Su Bei was slightly stunned when she heard the surname. "Lu Yaode?"

"Lu Yaode is my grandfather's son. My mother's husband—no, ex-husband." Lu Heting left a remark for the name.

And... he was his... father.

But obviously, Lu Heting never used this to define that man.

Su Bei understood. The neon lights of the night shone through the glass windows, casting dappled shadows in the car.

He had never mentioned his father. In the past, Su Bei had always thought that his father had passed away. But now, from his tone, it seemed that nothing had happened to this man. He had just done something during his marriage.

So Lu Tianci was Lu Heting's half-brother?

"Heting." Su Bei reached out and covered the back of his hand.

When Lu Heting talked about these things, it was as if he was talking about someone else's business. He didn't care at all. "T Country is their territory. This is the reason why I completely disagreed with you coming over in the beginning. Lu Tianci is not a person who has no desires."

Su Bei understood. It seemed that his half-brother had some tricks up his sleeve.

"I can't be around every day. You have to be careful."

Su Bei nodded with understanding.

As if knowing that she had a lot to ask, Lu Heting told her calmly, “Lu Yaode moved away when I was three years old, but he probably cheated on my mother before that. After he left, he took away a lot of resources and funds from Lu Group. Now, it’s very likely that he wants to take back everything from the Lu family.”

When Su Bei heard his calm tone, her heart ached inexplicably. When he was three years old, his father cheated on his mother and left. He even started a new family and abandoned him. How sad would a child be?

She’d always thought it was because his family was so happy that they raised him to be so unflappable. Who knew his childhood was no better than hers?

“I’m fine.” Lu Heting pulled Su Bei into his arms. His voice was clear and without any regret.

Perhaps his nature was just like Da Bao. He had never felt that there was anything to pity about losing someone he didn’t care about.

As long as someone who cared was around, everything was enough.

Su Bei buried her head in his chest and listened to his strong heartbeat. At that moment, she didn’t know whether to be glad or sorry. He and Da Bao shared the same temperament. He would protect himself to the best of his ability from the messy emotions of the outside world and put himself in a relatively safe environment.

After thinking about this, Su Bei thought of Jia Shiyun. In that case, Jia Shiyun had signed a contract with the new company and was being nurtured by Lu Tianci not because of her own abilities but because she was someone Di Xing did not want.

It seemed that Lu Tianci really wanted to compete with Lu Heting.

It was funny. Jia Shiyun had become a pawn, but she was still smug about it.

Chapter 1124: Irrepressible Vanity

As for Lu Tianci, Su Bei instinctively knew that the gap between him and Lu Heting was still too far.

The man didn’t even look at himself in the mirror first.

Lu Heting had the huge Lu Group to take care of, so he couldn’t accompany Su Bei in T Country every day. He had to go back the next morning.

He explained many things, but he was still worried. After repeatedly reminding her, he whispered, “Do you remember everything?”

“Yes, I remember everything.” Su Bei nodded vigorously.

He planted a kiss on Su Bei’s forehead before getting into the car.

Su Bei watched his car leave before looking away.

She thought of Lu Yaode and quickly searched for his information online. As expected, she found many things about him on T Country’s main web portal.

One of the official languages of T Country was English, so Su Bei could read the local news without any trouble. She found that he not only had a son, Lu Tianci, but also a daughter. In addition, his wife was also an actress who had been on shows before. She looked like a familiar face. Su Bei remembered that this woman had a good influence in S Country before this. She had only retired in recent years.

No wonder Mrs. Lu said that she hated models and actors. It turned out that Lu Weijian's father had cheated on her with an actress.

Thinking about it this way, she could somewhat understand Mrs. Lu's mentality. Although her hatred had overflowed, it was inevitable for a woman to have a psychological imbalance after enduring so many years of hardship.

Moreover, women back then had always regarded their husbands, their children, their dignity, and others as golden rules. On the other hand, women in the entertainment industry, especially in that era, lived freely and flirtatiously. It was indeed easy for some men to lose control.

It was also because of this extravagance that the entire entertainment industry became synonymous with the dirty industry rules that everyone spoke about.

Su Bei shook her head inwardly and put away her phone. No matter what this circle was like, it was enough for her to remain true to her initial goals.

She returned to her hotel room and began to study the script.

Neither Sheng Xiaotang nor Jia Shiyun published news articles about their meeting with Camilan. They were afraid that Su Bei would step on this and expand her popularity.

Sheng Xiaotang waited to see what would happen. She wanted to see what kind of posts Su Bei would publish. Then, she would follow closely behind and find another entry point to publish the drafts she had so that she wouldn't become someone else's stepping stone.

However, Su Bei did not do anything.

On that day, Su Bei and Camilan were clearly chatting happily, but there was no news of them in the country. Su Bei and Qiao Mei's Weibo were even quieter as if nothing had happened.

Since Su Bei did not publish the content, Sheng Xiaotang had no choice but to not publish her content for the time being as well.

It was a wasted meeting for Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun.

However, in the end, they could not suppress their vanity and finally released the news.

'International Director Camilan Meets Sheng Xiaotang And Praises Her Acting Skills. He Intends To Invite Sheng Xiaotang To Join His New Movie.'

'You're great! First Words Out Of Camilan's Mouth When They Met.'

‘An Actress From Country S Has A Bright Future, Guided By Sheng Xiaotang.’

Occasionally, one or two of the articles also included Jia Shiyun, such as the headline ‘Camillan Meets Sheng Xiaotang And Jia Shiyun To Promote Their New Movie.’

Chapter 1125: Luminous Figure

The articles were all accompanied by photos of Camilan standing with them while smiling.

Fans needed this kind of motivation, and passersby also needed such news to deepen their impression of celebrities.

In the eyes of those in the industry, such articles were a weapon to boost popularity, but many people liked it.

With the help of Director Camilan, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun got onto the trending topics and were naturally praised by their fans.

As for Su Bei, she had never thought of publishing a statement.

As Camilan was about to start filming, they had to issue a formal press release announcing the cast.

As the lead actress in Mother, Su Bei did not need to use those articles to increase her popularity.

On the day of the press conference, many media outlets from T Country and S Country came over in admiration. The entire venue was packed to the brim.

Both the East and the West were flocking to the press conference of Camilan’s new movie.

Camilan kept a low profile and had yet to announce the main cast.

Since it was the press conference, everyone naturally had to go over.

Su Bei appeared at the scene with the other actors and actresses. When the reporters saw her, they were surprised because she hadn’t appeared in public for a long time.

Many of the other actors and actresses were also active on the big screens throughout the Western world, hence they did not expect that Camilan would use Su Bei.

Soon, people started wondering if Su Bei was the third or fourth lead.

If that was the case, it was not surprising. After all, the film was to be released in S Country. Many movies planned by Western directors would be joined by some actors and actresses from S Country to attract audiences from S Country so that it would be popular.

However, these actors usually had very few scenes. Sometimes, they were not even considered supporting characters, it was difficult to say that they had distinct personas or complete stories.

With such suspicion, the reporters entered the scene.

By the time Camilan was interviewed, the reporters’ questions were entirely focused on Su Bei.

“Director Camilan, may I know what role Su Bei is playing this time?”

“May I ask how many much screen time she’ll have?”

“May I ask if you’re using an actress from S Country due to subject matter or for another reason?”

Camilan answered directly, “As the female lead of my movie this time, Su Bei will have a lot of scenes. I think very highly of Su Bei. I believe she can play this role well.”

There was an uproar.

Su Bei was playing the female lead!

Camilan personally said it!

Then again, the reporters thought that it seemed reasonable.

The two movies that Su Bei had released, one commercial and one literary, were both very successful. Their box office sales and reputation soared, and her acting skills had long been confirmed.

Everyone always found it hard to believe how good her acting skills were because every time she appeared in public, she was too beautiful and moving. She was like a luminous figure. Just by sitting there, she could attract everyone’s attention.

Her body shone brightly, and her skin was so fair that there were no flaws. Her gaze and actions were filled with charm.

It was easy to refer to such a person as an idol, but it was hard to associate her with acting.

But in truth, she was an actress.

Chapter 1126: Don’t Spread Rumors

The interview was not over yet. In order to get the news released as soon as possible, many reporters had already compiled the content and sent it to the country.

Not to be outdone, the domestic media immediately released the content.

However, it was sent quickly and urgently, so it was not accompanied by videos. Even the photos were unedited photos.

‘Su Bei Was Invited To Play The Female Lead, Shirley, In The New Film Mother.’

‘Camilan’s New Movie Lineup Is Out. Su Bei Is Listed.’

As soon as all kinds of news were released, they naturally became trending topics.

However, the only thing that accompanied the news was a blurry photo.

On the other hand, the netizens remembered what had happened recently. Just yesterday, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun had released a series of articles about their cooperation with Camilan. Today, there was news about Su Bei. Naturally, the news didn’t attract envy or blessings but doubt and ridicule.

[It seems that Camilan is very free. Didn't he just meet Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun? What's with him working with Su Bei now?]

[Someone must be scamming us! Do you really think Camilan would do something like that? He's a busy man!]

[To the commenter above, I can testify that Director Camilan is currently in T Country. Previously, when my friend was traveling, he bumped into Director Camilan. But it's hard to say who's pulling off the deception this time.]

Immediately, someone said: [What's there to speculate? It's obvious that Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun went to T Country. We even went to send them off previously. Anyway, I don't care. Sheng Xiaotang definitely didn't scam anyone.]

The person who said this was a fan of Sheng Xiaotang. Jia Shiyun's fans couldn't sit still anymore. [Our Shiyun definitely wouldn't try to scam anyone. Everyone knows that Shiyun signed with Tianyi, and Sheng Xiaotang is under Tianyi Media. Shiyun must be with her.]

[So it's another blackmailer?]

[Tsk, tsk, tsk. How funny. She just won the Best Actress Award on Venus, and now she's trying to scam me. Where did this trophy come from? I wonder. Grandpa, look at your phone on the subway.JPG.]

[Some people are really something. They should look at themselves in the mirror before thinking of sticking their finger in this pie. Do they really think that they deserve the time of international directors?]

[Director Camilan is not a big deal. Each time, he announces the cast at the end. He's just trying to gain popularity. Unfortunately, Director Camilan's status isn't that great.]

[Is she planning to have this piece of pie all to herself? Hahaha, will she be known as a boot-licker in the future?]

Su Bei's fans were furious. To be honest, they were not sure if this was even true.

They had been following Su Bei for a long time. They had walked all the way from vilification to glory. They had long known what kind of person Su Bei was.

They agreed that they would only wait for the official announcement and ignore everything else.

However, to the outside world, they were united and would never smear Su Bei's name. Looking at these rumors, they only said: [Don't spread rumors and don't believe in them. No matter what role Su Bei plays, we'll always support her.]

Even so, the anti-fans and others were still jumping around like flies that had smelled rotten meat.

[If Su Bei is really the female lead of Mother, I'll live-stream myself eating sh*t!] Loyal fans of Jia Shiyun and Sheng Xiaotang said boldly.

Chapter 1127: Begging Su Bei To Play The Beauty

[I'll live-stream myself eating dirt.]

[I'll live-stream myself eating grass.]

[I'll live-stream myself eating garbage.]

[I'll live-stream myself eating rocks.]

All this was accompanied by Su Bei's news, and everything became a joke.

But back in T Country, everything was in full swing.

Camilan stood with Su Bei, and together with the other cast members, they took the official photos for the news.

Photos and news of the cast and the official announcement were also officially released in two hours.

Mother Official Studio: [Su Bei, the female lead of Director Camilan's new film, Mother. Welcome @SuBei.]

Camilan Studios: [Su Bei vs. Camilan. East-West culture colliding and merging again. Looking forward to new sparks! @SuBei.]

Camilan International Studios: [How dazzling! @SuBei.]

A cast photo and a formal announcement were released.

The anti-fans and other netizens were shocked.

.....

Even some passersby who were just watching were shocked.

[Damn, it's actually true! Su Bei is really working with Camilan!]

[I can't believe my eyes! But she does seem cool now.]

[Speaking of which, Su Bei's acting skills are indeed quite good. It's just that she's so beautiful that I often forget that she has good acting skills.]

[I beg Su Bei to act as a devastatingly beautiful woman who'll ruin the country and bring disaster to the country and its people. With her beautiful face, she's always choosing to act in these rough roles instead. What a waste!]

Perhaps it was because those anti-fans had scolded her too fiercely previously, the effect was simply too good this time around. People with a little more rationality were cheering for Su Bei this time.

People in S Country had always watched movies with these foreigners. Why shouldn't these people see beauties from S Country?

Su Bei's fans were also proud. They knew that nothing would happen to Su Bei.

She didn't show herself in public much, but once she did, it would definitely bring a surprise.

As Su Bei's fans, they couldn't be happier. They wouldn't be taken advantage of. All Su Bei brought them was the glory and pride of being her fan!

As for those haters and anti-fans, they really couldn't do anything anymore. What else could they say?

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun's fans couldn't say anything else either. Occasionally, a few brainless fans would step out and say: [Su Bei is acting in a foreign movie. She's simply a traitor! Is there no director in S Country? Why is she working with a foreign director?]

Before these comments could be widely spread, the commenters were suppressed by their own people. [Shut up. Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun have also met Camilan and claimed that they almost had the chance to work with him. We're already in this era, and the global internationalization trend is in full swing. How can you still say such nonsense?]

Naturally, these comments were only made by brainless fans.

However, when it came to brainless fans, others suddenly recalled the person who wanted to broadcast themselves eating sh*t and the others after that who said they wanted to broadcast themselves eating grass and trash.

Someone looked for the person and left a message: [Hey, when's the live broadcast? We've been looking forward to your broadcast for a long time!]

Before long, the person deleted their account.

The others who made the same claims also changed their usernames, deleted their comments, cleared Weibo, and pretend as though nothing ever happened.

Chapter 1128: Delicious Feast vs. A Humble Meal

But none of this could stop Su Bei from working with Camilan.

Mother was going strong!

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun became jokes again. They were happy to mention the title of 'Queen of Airheads'.

Someone even issued a vote to see who would win the title.

Fans of both sides felt that the other party should obtain this title and listed various reasons.

However, in the end, Sheng Xiaotang got this title alone because of the many photos and content.

Even so, many passers-by also habitually called Jia Shiyun the Queen of Airheads.

This matter angered Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun so much that they almost went berserk in the hotel.

Sheng Xiaotang got someone to buy gossip about another artist overnight and put it on the trending searches to suppress her matter. She also spent money to delete the relevant articles and photos on the internet. Finally, she managed to calm things down.

Su Bei's participation in Mother was indeed unexpected.

Even though she was following Lu Tianci, she did not hear anything beforehand.

Camilan had indeed covered up the news quite well. Meanwhile, Su Bei was the kind of person who never made a big deal out of anything. From the start of the project to the start of the shooting, she had been doing it in silence.

When she saw this piece of news, Sheng Xiaotang felt that 'Wish', which she was starring in, was not good at all.

She had worked so hard to come to T Country to film and had to endure the terrible weather and conditions here. However, she realized that her competitor had gotten the delicious feast while she just got a humble meal. This disparity made Sheng Xiaotang lose interest.

"What's wrong, baby?" Lu Tianci's voice sounded in her ear.

Only then did Sheng Xiaotang smile. The best thing was still Lu Tianci, not Wish.

Compared to Camilan, Lu Tianci was her delicious feast.

"Nothing. I'm just thinking about the shoot."

"Film well." Lu Tianci patted her waist.

As for Mother, Lu Tianci never planned to let them film it smoothly.

It was because half of Mother's investment was invested by Di Xing Media Company.

As Lu Yaode's son, he could only live in T Country. Like his mother and sister, Lu Tianci had a lot of resentment.

They were all members of the Lu family and had the Lu family's bloodline. From the moment Lu Heting was born, he had been high and mighty. He had Lu Corporation in his hands, but he had to survive in T Country!

Originally, he should have had his share of everything.

In Lu Tianci's opinion, the vast prospects in S Country and Lu Corporation should not belong to Lu Heting alone.

However, it never occurred to him that Lu Heting was only three years old when Lu Yaode left. Lu Yaode did not leave without taking nothing either. Instead, he took more than half of Lu Corporation's assets and talents.

If it weren't for the fact that Lu Heting was sensible and smart at a young age, he wouldn't have been in charge of the family business at such a young age. He helped Mrs. Lu stabilize the entire Lu Group.

Now, Lu Heting hadn't enjoyed much, but he had already paid several times more.

Unfortunately, neither Lu Tianci nor Lu Yaode could see all of this.

They only knew that Mrs. Lu was currently being investigated by the police. Lu Heting was alone, and it was the best time for them to counterattack.

Chapter 1129: Don't Like Her

And the counterattack began with Su Bei and the movie.

Although Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci could not completely interfere with the filming of Mother, they had a deep foundation in T Country. It was easy for them to pull some tricks.

Ever since Su Bei started filming, she felt that Camilan was a person who smiled every day but was very meticulous about things. He would not let go of any details easily.

It was this seriousness that had contributed to his previous great success.

He was a very strict man, but he was very particular about his methods and never embarrassed anyone.

Perhaps that was why a lot of people liked him. He was well-liked and smiled at everyone, making people think that he was easy to get along with.

In fact, when they interacted, Su Bei felt that the more a person was like that, the more impossible it was for them to let you figure out their true thoughts. It was as if those smiles were a mask these sorts of people wore.

However, the assistant director was a local from T Country called Robin. He was harsh both directly and overtly.

Whenever Su Bei filmed a scene, he would nitpick everything, making Su Bei feel at a loss.

Many of the scenes that were shot at the beginning did not have any lines. Even the actors and actresses themselves did not know how the director would edit these scattered scenes.

Therefore, this film was very difficult to shoot. The scenes were fragmented and scattered. It was not easy to get into character in the first place. Coupled with Robin's interference, Su Bei could not get into character for the first few days.

Robin was one of the characters Lu Tianci had influenced.

Robin had originally planned to recommend an actress he liked to play the role of Su Bei, but Camilan had his own plans. His wish was dashed, so he could only let his actress play the fourth leading role.

He already had a lot of opinions about Su Bei. The information that Lu Tianci sent him told him that Su Bei had brought funds into the production. She only got this role because she had a certain big shot behind her. She was also an amateur and did not have much experience.

As a result, Robin's opinion of Su Bei grew increasingly tilted.

As the assistant director, although he could not completely make the decisions on Su Bei's every scene, if he interfered or raised any opinions, Su Bei would have to reshoot.

Moreover, no matter how Su Bei acted, he would give new suggestions, making the other actors and actresses feel that they were not able to proceed with their scenes. They were under the impression that it was because Su Bei's acting skills were not good.

For a moment, the entire cast and crew had opinions about Su Bei. However, in front of Camilan, they acted very friendly to Su Bei.

In fact, this was another way of grouping up and bullying. Although these actors and actresses had the blood of Country S' nationals, most of them were not from Country S. They had long ago moved to other countries and were raised abroad. They were not the same as Su Bei.

They had their own way of getting along with each other. They also felt that they, who had lived in Western countries since they were young, had received the most advanced education. In terms of acting skills, they were also better than the people in S Country. They more or less felt superior and felt that it was Su Bei's honor to be able to act with them.

Su Bei had repeatedly caused the filming to stall, so they naturally found a reason to dislike her.

Su Bei thought, 'Do I need you guys to like me?'

Chapter 1130: Convince Him With Acting Skills

??

This was Su Bei's third movie, but she felt that it was even more difficult than the previous two movies.

Qiao Mei had already returned to the country. Only Xiao Bai was with her.

Xiao Bai also saw through these tricks and felt indignant for Su Bei. "Su Bei, these people clearly don't like you and are deliberately making things difficult for you. Especially Assistant Director Robin. He's just nitpicking. You're already performing very well, but he always interrupts you."

"I know." She reached for her coat and headed for the powder room.

"If you know, why did you still give in to him?" Xiao Bai really felt that it was not worth it for Su Bei to do this. "We came all the way here. It's hot and stuffy here. It's simply unbearable. But these people don't think that you're working hard at all. They're even specially picking on you. Why don't we talk to Director Camilan about this?"

Su Bei smiled. "Do you think it'll be of any use to tell this to Director Camilan? Director Camilan is also in an unfamiliar place. Besides, Assistant Director Robin is right. It's useless to tell him anything before I convince him of my acting skills."

Xiao Bai was discouraged. Indeed, arguing with the director was the most fruitless thing.

The director had control of how the filming went, not the actors and actresses.

Sitting in front of the mirror, Su Bei checked her makeup.

From acting as characters in their 20s, she was now acting as someone in her 40s. Most of the time, her makeup was dismal in this film. It completely covered her beauty, and all that could be seen was haggardness.

Therefore, her foundation was two shades darker than her skin. She also used concealer to cover her dark red lips until they were pale.

The makeup made her look pale. Naturally, the entire crew was used to seeing her like this. They never associated her with the gorgeous Su Bei in those photos.

Many people felt that her looks were nothing much. The photos must have been refined by a million photo retouchers.

It was one of the reasons so many people were against her.

But none of this was a problem for Su Bei.

She believed that as an actress, her only duty was to act well on the set.

Xiao Bai brought her water. "Su Bei, filming is about to start."

"Okay, I'm on my way."

Su Bei picked up the script. The director's assistant told her, "The next scene is the scene where the female lead, Shirley, is practicing calligraphy. We'll film your face, but there'll be a substitute to film the calligraphy part."

Su Bei had read the script before. The female lead, Shirley, was always in a low mood. In addition, she had sent her son away but kept it a secret from her husband, so she stayed at home every day.

When she was in a bad mood, she would write with a brush, and she always wrote her son's name.

Writing calligraphy could calm her down. It was also a hobby of hers to pass the time.

Therefore, after writing for a long time, she was able to write especially beautiful words.

Naturally, Camilan didn't think young celebrities these days could practice calligraphy. Hence, he arranged for his assistant to find a calligrapher to substitute Su Bei early in the morning.

Su Bei waited at the side with a brush.

A crew member ran out to wait for the calligrapher who would substitute Su Bei later.

All the lights and sets were ready, and so was Su Bei's makeup.

They were just waiting for the calligrapher to appear.

It had been several minutes since the agreed-upon time, and everyone was getting restless.
