

Chapter 1131: Rare

Country T was a country that was hot and humid to begin with. The climate was a little stuffy, and it was not easy for everyone to be calm while they waited.

Robin, in particular, had a hunch that Su Bei was going to mess up in her scenes again, so he kept urging his assistant to ask about the calligrapher.

After continuous urging, the assistant came back with the same answer. "I heard the calligrapher is stuck in a traffic jam. It might take two hours to get here."

"What traffic jam? There's no way a traffic jam can last two hours. Do you think this is a big first-tier city in S Country?" Robin said unhappily.

The stage supervisor came over and apologized profusely. "I'm sorry, Director Camilan. I'm sorry, Assistant Director Robin. The calligrapher I contacted can't come anytime soon."

The stage supervisor was about to cry. Everything was fine last night, but today, that person was stuck on the road.

However, he couldn't go over and drag them over.

Filming a movie was even more expensive than TV dramas. The lights and scenes had already been set up, so time was being wasted. Money was going down the drain, and one could almost feel the speed at which the money was flowing out.

The head of the crew was also sweating profusely.

It would have been fine if something had happened to a big shot at the last minute, but it had to be such a small figure. Everyone was furious.

Robin was already lashing out and cursing the man in charge.

It was uncertain whether it was because Camilan had good manners or a good temper, but he didn't curse. He was already adjusting the scenes and wasn't wasting time on pointless things.

"A calligrapher is making such a fuss," someone grumbled under their breath. "How rare."

.....

"What the hell? I've only just put on my makeup, and I'm already covered in sweat. I'm worried the afternoon shoot will be delayed."

"It's just calligraphy. Who doesn't know how to write? She should just write whatever first. It's possible to reshoot it later."

"Do you think it's that simple to reshoot under the same settings? They even scheduled for a calligrapher to come in today to substitute. This substitute is really shameless!"

Indeed, it was taking a lot of manpower and resources just for this calligrapher. There was no such precedent in many production teams.

It was fine if it was a TV drama. They could just figure out a way to go about things.

However, everyone was looking forward to Director Camilan's new film. Everyone was looking forward to it. He definitely couldn't just make do.

Su Bei knew that the incident with the delayed calligrapher might not be a coincidence. It was probably Lu Tianci's doing.

Although such a small matter did not match Lu Tianci's status, it was not easy for him to seize the opportunity to cause trouble for Lu Heting. Pulling this small trick was probably enough to make him excited.

After all, although such a small matter could not affect the foundation of the movie, it was enough to make the entire production team go crazy. If they wasted another morning and it affected everyone's mentality, it would indeed be enough for a vengeful person to have fun.

Camilan and Robin immediately discussed shooting another scene.

As top directors, they had plenty of backup plans. They would never lose time because one person didn't show up.

However, Su Bei stepped forward and said, "Director Camilan, why don't we continue with the original plan?"

"I'd rather wait until we get a new calligrapher to shoot this scene. The set and lighting will have to be rebuilt and reorganized by then anyway," said Robin.

Su Bei played with the brush in her hand with her long fingers and said with a smile, "Maybe I can do it without a substitute."

Chapter 1132: Stop Joking

Camilan immediately looked up at her. "You know calligraphy?"

"I've practiced it," she said, nodding.

Coincidentally, just like the female lead, Shirley, she practiced calligraphy to kill time.

In the past, her time in the orphanage was so difficult. Although there were many good friends accompanying her, she was still alone for a lot of the time. If she didn't find something to do, how could she survive?

"Good. Then we won't have to use a substitute. You can shoot it yourself." Camilan decided to give her a chance.

Robin disagreed. "Director Camilan, this will take too much time."

He didn't believe in Su Bei's calligraphy skills.

Instead of wasting time now, it was better to reshoot this scene later with the substitute.

Robin couldn't be blamed for thinking this way. Young people these days often used all kinds of electronic products. Forget writing with a brush, they had even forgotten how to write with a pen.

He had long heard that actresses like Su Bei were recruited with capital. She didn't have much real talent and was often on the list of hot searches. She probably spent all her time making advertisements and focused on earning money. She had calligraphy skills. What a joke!

Camilan glanced at her. "Are you sure you can do it?"

"Yes, I'm confident." Su Bei pulled out her phone and showed Camilan the words she had written before.

Camilan was an expert. He knew a lot about calligraphy. One look told him that the penmanship was impressive.

.....

He immediately agreed. "Okay, let's shoot!"

Robin cursed under his breath at Camilan's agreement but continued to show a nonchalant expression.

It would just be a waste of time!

"Everyone to your positions. Here we go!"

Su Bei's makeup and clothes had been prepared in advance. She picked up her brush and sat down where she was supposed to.

The others looked at Su Bei disapprovingly. "They're not using a substitute anymore?"

"Perhaps. Maybe Director Camilan will only be shooting close-up shots of Shirley."

"But I heard that the calligraphy scene is a highlight. Not only is it a reflection of Shirley's state of mind, but there's a deep meaning in the words she wrote. The detectives and lawyers on her case guessed that her son was not killed by her and was still alive because they had been pondering the words she wrote."

"That's right. If Su Bei screws up this scene, even if she has extraordinary abilities, she can forget about salvaging this movie."

"I don't know what Director Camilan is thinking. It's such an important scene, yet he's playing around with it."

"Just you wait. He'll regret this!"

Everyone was filled with anticipation for the shoot. Of course, they didn't want the movie to fail. No one would benefit if it failed.

However, no one dared to have too much hope for Su Bei. Even Director Camilan would not be able to deal with such an ignorant actress!

"Part 10 of scene eight, action!"

With that, Su Bei sat down in her position.

Because she didn't need to feel much emotion in this scene, the camera would only sweep across her face. The focus would be on her hands and the words she was writing. Therefore, her hands and words were very important.

When the camera panned to Su Bei's hands, everyone was silent for a moment. Su Bei did have a pair of beautiful hands.

Chapter 1133: Speechless

Her fingers were slender and fair. Because she had applied the same foundation on her hands, they looked slightly darker at the moment, but it still could not hide the shape of her perfect fingers.

Her joints were thin, while her fingers were long. When she held the pen, she exerted the right amount of strength.

When she dipped the brush in the ink using slightly more force, her joints bulged slightly.

Someone was already stunned by this scene and whispered, "Her posture is accurate. I've seen my grandfather write calligraphy before. There's nothing to nitpick about Su Bei's movements."

"Isn't it the basic skill of an actress to have good movements? You have to write well to pass the test."

"Exactly. Why else would she be acting? Let's see how she'll show off."

The man from earlier stopped talking.

Camilan and Robin both stared at her on the monitor.

The camera moved forward and no longer focused on Su Bei's hand. Instead, it began to focus on the words she had written from an overhead angle.

The child of the female lead in the movie was called Yunyun, so Su Bei wrote that.

The words for 'Yunyun' in Chinese had more strokes on the top and fewer on the bottom, hence they would seem top-heavy. However, it wouldn't seem like that when written in traditional Chinese.

Therefore, Su Bei wrote in traditional Chinese. With each stroke, one could see the words form on the paper.

Moreover, there was a feminine softness in the powerful handwriting.

.....

Some people stopped talking because Su Bei really knew how to write calligraphy. Moreover, her penmanship was much better than what they had imagined!

In particular, the stage supervisor had already recovered from his tears. As he knew how to admire calligraphy works, he had arranged for a calligrapher to be the substitute. Obviously, Su Bei's handwriting was much better than that of the substitute who was known as a calligraphy professional.

The others also fell silent. Even those who didn't know much about calligraphy could tell that the penmanship was indeed very good.

If not for years of practice, she would never have reached this level of penmanship.

Everyone had been mocking her previously, but now, they felt a little embarrassed.

The camera followed Su Bei's hand movements until the two words were completely filmed.

"Cut!"

At Camilan's shout, Su Bei stopped.

She blinked and looked over.

Earlier, she was focused on writing and did not pay attention to the situation around her. Now, she saw that everyone had fallen silent.

She wondered what they were doing.

Camilan looked at her with a smile. "Not bad! Write a few more times for this scene. I want different angles and different shots."

"Okay." Su Bei immediately agreed.

Robin was stunned for a few seconds. He was from T Country and didn't know much about calligraphy. He just thought that Su Bei's writing was quite beautiful.

The words she wrote looked good.

Based on that knowledge, he had little to comment on the scene.

For the first time, he didn't nitpick about Su Bei's scenes, nor did he have any suggestions.

Su Bei then filmed many scenes of her writing the words.

Because she was filming these shots under different circumstances and in different moods, she changed the font several times to write the words.

She thought it was quite normal, but it really shocked a few people who had S Country blood in them but were not nationals.

It left them standing there for a long moment, stunned and speechless.

Chapter 1134: Very Stunning

As descendants of Country S, they naturally knew how difficult it was to write with a brush. They also knew how difficult it was to write so well.

Otherwise, they would not have often heard praises from their elders about people who wrote well.

As for some of the staff from T Country, they were even more shocked.

They only wanted to know why such a soft and sharp brush that could not even form a horizontal stroke on paper was like an obedient child who could write beautifully in Su Bei's hands.

Su Bei wrote under the camera. The shots were good. Her words were utterly beautiful.

As for those who could write but didn't write very well, they wouldn't embarrass themselves. In front of Su Bei's calligraphy skills, theirs was just terrible!

Because these shots had to be edited and used in different parts of the movie, Camilan shot for a while.

Two hours passed before they finally finished filming.

Su Bei had written a lot of words in front of her. There were all kinds of words in all kinds of fonts.

Camilan gave her a thumbs up.

Robin wanted to say something but couldn't. After a moment's thought, he let it go.

This scene was settled just like that.

Camilan was in a great mood.

The others stood awkwardly for a while before whispering, "Didn't they say that Su Bei brought funds into the production team? She's quite talented, though."

"I don't know, but is being able to write a talent?"

"Then why don't you try?"

The discussion died down.

Su Bei ignored them and turned to prepare for the next round.

The filming of TV dramas usually did not take place in chronological order.

The filming of the movie was even more so like that, so there wasn't much time for the actors and actresses to build up their emotions. One second, they were filming this, and the next, they were filming something else.

After Su Bei finished filming the previous scene, she had no time to care about what the outside world was saying.

Robin picked on her less during filming after that.

The others were no longer so against Su Bei.

Xiao Bai rushed over to give Su Bei water.

"Su Bei, I heard someone praising you."

"See? If you perform well, this is what you deserve." Su Bei smiled and raised her delicate eyebrows.

At dinner, the person in charge of the production team happened to be sitting beside Su Bei.

He was a short, middle-aged man and had tanned skin from the sun in T Country. He had a particularly shrewd look about him.

However, because of this morning's incident with the substitute, he had to take a lot of responsibility for the matter. Robin had told him off.

While bringing over dinner, he glanced at Su Bei and said, "I'm sorry about what happened this morning, Su Bei. I've caused you trouble."

He spoke English with a strong T Country accent.

Fortunately, Su Bei understood him. She smiled and said, "It's fine. By the way, if you don't mind, you should hire more temporary personnel if we need the manpower. It's best to arrange them in advance."

The man in charge patted his head and said, "Okay!"

Su Bei guessed that Lu Tianci might not stop his efforts so easily.

However, it was impossible for him to directly delay the filming. In that case, he could only start with some temporary personnel.

Chapter 1135: What A Good Scheme

Sure enough, nothing much happened after that.

It seemed that Lu Tianci would not continue to use such childish methods.

But what Su Bei didn't know was that Lu Tianci was preparing a big move.

Su Bei had some fighting scenes in the film.

Instead of a fight scene, she was the one who got beaten.

In the movie, she often suffered from domestic violence. It wasn't that she hadn't resisted before, but after she did, she would be beaten even more fiercely.

By the end, she was numb and survived only to protect her son. Other things, including her getting beaten up, became less important to her.

The next scene was where the female lead, Shirley, was beaten up and fought back desperately. In the end, she was beaten up even more severely.

A stunt double was coming over for this scene. Firstly, she had to guide Su Bei and the actor playing her husband. Secondly, they had to test the angles and lighting.

It was so that the director could find a better angle to ensure that the shooting went smoothly.

This was when Lu Tianci made his move.

As an international director, Camilan had to rely on the local assistant director and put him in charge of many things. He couldn't be so meticulous. Hence, he wasn't the one who chose the stunt double this time.

The stunt double was someone sent by Lu Tianci.

.....

In fact, destroying Lu Heting's investment, which only made up half of the production team's funds, was really not a big deal for such a huge corporation.

A truly mature businessman would not stick to such small things.

However, Lu Tianci had probably held it in for too long. No matter what, he couldn't vent his anger on Lu Heting. Therefore, even though he knew that such a small matter was immoral and useless, he still enjoyed pulling such tricks.

The two stunt doubles were both males. They were about the same height as Su Bei and the male actor playing her husband. It was convenient for them to move around.

Camilan called out to Su Bei, "Su Bei, come here for a while. Familiarize yourself with a few movements first, then rehearse it."

"No problem." Su Bei nodded.

The two stunt doubles were lean and looked very tough. They were also very good at beating people up.

Looking at the two of them, Su Bei suddenly thought of Lu Tianci. His face was slightly similar to the Lu family, but in fact, it was a little uncomfortable to look at him.

She clenched her fists and thought for a moment. When she was filming Boxer, He Xuyan had found a professional to give her lessons.

If the two people in front of her were related to Lu Tianci, she would have to consider if she could defeat them.

The answer should be yes. After all, her months of training would not have been in vain. Even Lu Heting said that she had improved.

Su Bei knew that the security and law in T Country were not as good as in S Country. If these two people really injured her and ran away in the chaos, she was afraid that she would not even be able to find them.

If she really got injured, the progress of the movie would definitely be greatly impacted. In this foreign country, would she have to chase these two people and send them to jail?

Lu Tianci was indeed scheming.

"If everything's alright, let's get started, shall we?" Camilan said amiably, even to the stunt doubles.

The two stunt doubles exchanged looks. The thinner of the two approached Su Bei and said in English, "Please."

Su Bei smiled and nodded before stepping forward.

Chapter 1136: Powerful Explosive Force

The stunt double did a few moves with Su Bei. It was obvious that he didn't have any bad intentions this time.

However, Su Bei would not let her guard down. Instead, she became even more careful. She knew that there might be a big move coming.

“Back-to-back,” Camilan said when he saw it was okay. “First, the husband hit Shirley. The husband is especially vicious. Shirley fights back hard this time and hurts the husband. Then, the husband is triggered and fights back even more wildly. Shirley fails to fight back.”

When Camilan was done speaking, the body double came forward.

He had received a large sum of money. The other party’s only request was to injure Su Bei.

In the situation just now, it was impossible for him to injure Su Bei. The environment was not chaotic enough for him to escape.

However, when it was time to film continuously, his opportunity would come.

In a fight like this, injuries were sometimes inevitable.

Even the director had to admit that he could not guarantee that no one wouldn’t get hurt during filming.

The man only needed to injure Su Bei’s hand or foot to complete the mission.

The stunt double looked Su Bei up and down. The actress in front of him was not short, but her arms and legs were thin as if they could be broken with a snap.

During the rehearsal just now, she clearly did not have much strength. To injure her... he did not even need to use 70 percent of his strength.

“Let’s begin,” Su Bei said with a smile. Her eyes were filled with innocence as if she was completely defenseless.

.....

The stunt double began to walk into the scene. Everything was normal.

Halfway through, the stunt double reached out and aimed an arm at Su Bei.

He seemed to be using a lot of strength, but when his hand reached Su Bei’s shoulder, he should have restrained his strength. However, it was only on the surface that he seemed to have restrained his strength. In fact, he was still full of strength.

If this slap landed, Su Bei’s shoulder might be crippled.

No one noticed this at all because the stunt double was just very seriously carrying out the scene according to the agreed-upon moves.

According to how they had rehearsed it, Su Bei would resist at this moment.

However, the stunt double knew that even if Su Bei resisted, she would not be able to withstand his palm strike.

His palm wind was like a knife as it smashed toward Su Bei. Su Bei reached out to block it, then used her strength to send the stunt double staggering.

This was a fighting style she had learned from her professional coach. Speaking of which, Feng Feifei had taught her this fighting style before. Lu Heting too. Coupled with what her coach had taught her, Su Bei could be considered to have mastered it.

It had always been a famous method to fight back, especially for women who were not as strong as men.

The stunt double was forced back a few steps by Su Bei and lost his balance.

Su Bei stepped forward and hit the stunt double ruthlessly according to Shirley's crazy counterattack method. The stunt double could not fight back for a moment.

"That's right. Su Bei has a lot of explosive power here!" Camilan shouted.

The stunt double was stunned. This was more than just an explosive force. She was trying to kill him!

When Su Bei finally stopped, the stunt double couldn't believe that the soft-looking Su Bei was a match for him.

Moreover, she was completely on guard against his moves!

The stunt double did not dare to delay. When he tried the scene again, he found several opportunities in a row but still did not succeed.

The other stunt double was taller and stronger. He quietly swapped positions with the previous stunt double and volunteered to act in the scene with Su Bei.

Chapter 1137: Try Not To Hurt Her

The tall stunt double did not take Su Bei seriously at all. In his opinion, his partner took pity on her and went back on the agreement. That was how Su Bei was able to block these few moves.

If it were him, Su Bei would have been dealt with long ago.

He was someone who only cared about money and not people!

Seeing that it was his turn, Su Bei smiled and said, "Director Camilan, it's time for a break now. I heard that there's a certain fist technique from T Country that's quite powerful. I wish to ask for guidance. I wonder if Mr. Musashi will give me this chance?"

Su Bei knew that if he was going to attack her, she might as well put everything on the table.

The tall Musashi was stunned. "You want to compete with me?"

He could not help but sneer in his heart. T Country was famous for boxing. Su Bei overestimated herself and provoked him. It was a good opportunity to injure her. He would not be responsible for the outcome at all.

"That's right. Would it be all right if we go for a round?" asked Su Bei with a smile.

The others crowded around as well.

The filming crew was working hard, and the weather was hot every day. Everyone had been tense and naturally did not want to miss any excitement.

Seeing that Su Bei had taken the initiative to provoke a stunt double from T Country, everyone was naturally very interested.

Because of Su Bei's previous calligraphy scenes, several actors in the same group had changed their attitudes toward her. They couldn't help but persuade her, "Su Bei, don't be careless. It's not easy to challenge someone from T Country. If you accidentally get hurt, how will you film?"

"That's right, Su Bei. Why don't you forget it? You shouldn't have challenged him."

However, there were also some people who still didn't like Su Bei and wanted to watch the show. "Don't talk nonsense. I heard that Su Bei previously filmed a movie and learned a lot of fist techniques. She's already a professional now. She's quite powerful. She might be able to beat the fist techniques of T Country. It's good for us to broaden our horizons."

"Yes, yes. I think Su Bei can do it. Su Bei, you can do it!"

Of course, Su Bei could tell who had good intentions and who was deliberately instigating. She didn't care. She raised her eyebrows and asked the stunt double, "What do you think?"

"Of course. But we need to get permission from the director first," the stunt double responded. "I'm afraid of having to take responsibility if I hurt you, an actress."

Everyone around started to encourage her. "Let Su Bei fight. Let Su Bei fight."

Half of these people belonged to Robin's faction. The actress in the fourth leading role he had brought with him was quite popular. Many of the staff members felt sorry that she was not able to play the female lead.

When they heard that Su Bei was going to challenge a stunt double, these people were all pumped up.

The actress did not say anything, but she could not hide the faint anticipation in her eyes.

Camilan, who had always been a director who didn't know how to say no, said, "Give it a try, then. But make sure you don't interfere with the job."

"Director Camilan, that won't happen. It's not like a fight that happens on TV. How could he really hurt someone?" someone said optimistically.

The tall man said, "Then I have to make it clear that I'm not responsible if she's accidentally hurt. I can only promise to try my best not to hurt her."

This was what Su Bei wanted him to say. She smiled and replied, "I don't want you to be responsible, but let me say that if you get injured, the production team and I won't be responsible either."

Chapter 1138: Inferior

??

They all burst out laughing.

In fact, no one took this fight seriously.

Even Robin and the actress playing the fourth lead didn't really think that the two would really fight although they wanted to see Su Bei suffer.

They just wanted to have some fun and liven up the atmosphere.

Everyone looked at the two of them with a relaxed attitude.

But when the stunt double and Su Bei started fighting, the scene changed.

The stunt double's muscles bulged, and his entire body became more violent. When he raised his fist, he looked like he could kill a person with one punch.

A timid actress quietly took a few steps back and said fearfully, "This isn't a real fight, is it?"

However, in the next second, Su Bei grabbed the stunt double's fist and pushed it out easily.

He came forward again. This time, he changed his punch to a kick and kicked at Su Bei.

The people around them were a little shocked... This was a real fight!

However, before he could kick Su Bei, she quickly dodged it.

After a while, the stunt double's face was pale, but Su Bei's makeup was not even messed up.

Only then did the stunt double understand that his companion had not deliberately gone easy on Su Bei just now. It was all because they could not defeat Su Bei at all!

In the last move, Su Bei stepped on the stunt double's foot. His entire ankle was under her foot. With his current movements and posture, it was completely impossible for him to pull it out.

If Su Bei kicked him, the stunt double's hamstring would be cut.

If his hamstring was cut, his career and his life might be ruined.

Su Bei raised her eyebrows and glanced at him. The stunt double sure had a backbone. He didn't beg for mercy or shout for her to stop. He gritted her teeth and planned to endure it.

If one were inferior, one had to admit defeat.

Besides, if he had gotten such an opportunity, he would have attacked Su Bei directly.

Su Bei actually knew that these two people were probably not bad people. They only did such a thing because they had taken Lu Tianci's money.

At the last minute, she pulled back and smiled. "Thank you for letting me win."

The tall man was stunned for a long moment before he retracted his foot. The people of T Country had tanned skin, so it was impossible to tell if he was blushing.

But his gaze had softened, and he no longer looked as fierce as before.

Su Bei guessed that these two people would probably not make an enemy of her.

At this moment, a group of people hurriedly got off the plane and followed Lu Heting to the set.

Lu Heting had said that he would come often, so he naturally had to come often.

Whatever happened in the crew could not be hidden from him.

He hurried over. When he arrived at the set, the matter between Su Bei and the stunt double was over.

The man was wearing a simple white shirt. He had come with a solemn expression, but when he saw the situation, the cold aura around him dissipated.

Then, he thought of something and frowned tightly. A beautiful frown was formed on his face. He looked in the direction of the woman and was unable to relax.

Lu Hang followed behind Lu Heting. Seeing this situation, he quickly stopped.

“Mr. Lu, there have always been bodyguards nearby. Even if something had really happened, it would be impossible for Young Madam to be injured,” Lu Hang reported in a low voice.

Lu Heting’s eyebrows didn’t relax, but he wasn’t in a hurry to go forward either.

Chapter 1139: Just Right

Besides, there were too many people around.

He raised his eyes and looked into the distance. After the woman won this battle, she did not look arrogant. However, there was a look of relief on her face. Under the bright lights of the set, her eyes looked especially transparent and bright.

A smile finally appeared on Lu Heting’s lips, and the coldness around him began to slowly dissipate.

â€¦

When the cast and crew saw that the match between Su Bei and the stunt double had ended, many people were still dissatisfied.

Of course, they did not realize what had actually happened.

“Is that all?” someone asked.

“Of course, it’s over. Didn’t you see that Su Bei won?”

“As expected, the stunt double still gave in to Su Bei. Hahahaha, but that’s as expected. Su Bei is the main lead and a woman. The stunt double can’t really do anything to her.”

“He’s quite the gentleman.”

(dot)COM

The people around them spoke at the same time. They did not believe that Su Bei could really win.

The discussion continued. “But from Su Bei’s posture, it looks like she’s been trained. Her movements are beautiful and professional.”

“Of course. She’s an actor. She’s good at imitation. But she’s just an empty shell. When it comes to power, she still lacks some professionalism.”

“Her form just now was already very good. Anyway, I think Su Bei has impressed me. You make it sound like it’s easy to put on performances like that. Try it yourself and see if it’s easy.”

Anyway, Su Bei had resolved the current conflict.

On the other hand, Robin and another young male actor with S Country’s bloodline could tell that Su Bei had real talent. This was because they knew the boxing techniques of T Country and had studied them. They knew that it was not easy to dodge the few attacks of the stunt double just now. And whether Su Bei had the strength or not, those few moves of hers were indeed top-notch.

Stunned for a moment, Robin said to the actress playing the fourth lead, “She’s certainly as good as you.”

“Huh?” The actress had no idea who he was talking about or what he meant.

On the other hand, the young actor, who was born in the United States, had a typical oriental face and was full of admiration for Su Bei. Seeing that Su Bei usually liked to drink coke, he brought over a bottle of iced Coke and sat beside her.

“Sister Su Bei, teach me those moves just now!” His name was Huo Zhong. He had been obsessed with martial arts since he was young and always watched all kinds of martial arts movies.

Unfortunately, he was born in the United States. Such things were not so easily accessible there.

It was because he was attracted by these martial arts films that he became an actor.

Now that he’d finally met someone with real talent, he simply didn’t want to miss his opportunity.

“When I can.” Smiling, she held up the Coke bottle. “Thanks.”

“Okay, Sister Su Bei! You’re welcome!” Huo Zhong smiled happily.

Su Bei went to shoot next.

They had filmed a scene of domestic violence just now.

(dot)COM

As they had rehearsed the scene just now, the entire filming was done in one go.

Whether it was the scene of the fight or the fullness of her emotions, Su Bei had grasped it perfectly.

The resentment on Su Bei’s face, the suppressed anger that she did not dare to voice, the ferocity of her counterattack, and the numbness from being beaten when her counterattack was ineffective were all very difficult to portray. It might require the director to grind the actor many times.

However, Su Bei was like the real Shirley. Every emotion and gaze was integrated into her.

Chapter 1140: If You're Stronger Than Me, I'll Admire You

Especially the look in her eyes. It was as if she could speak. There were very few lines in the scene. All the tension was in the eyes.

When the camera came close, everyone was stunned by the look in Su Bei's eyes. It was such a look of despair and numbness.

When the bright light hit her eyes, they could see that her eyes were as dark as dead ash as if she had already lost her life.

Everyone's mood had yet to recover from the fun just now, but Su Bei's emotions carried too large of an impact. The others couldn't help but marvel at her for a while.

This was a major event. Camilan was going to shoot the same scene from a few different angles.

Su Bei acted out the scene seven or eight times in a row. Amidst everyone's surprise, she performed better and better each time. When she finally finished filming, the surroundings were silent.

Although no one applauded Su Bei, everyone completely acknowledged her in their hearts.

Previously, they mocked and looked down on Su Bei because they had heard rumors that Su Bei had brought funds into the production and relied on her backer and face to get the female lead role. However, all they saw was Su Bei with a dark foundation on her face. Her makeup made her look dejected and dull. They could not see anything worthy of praise. How could she rely on this face of hers to get the female lead role?

But now, everyone was really convinced!

The biggest weakness of these people was that they had a strong sense of superiority.

But there was also an advantage to this trait of theirs. If someone was stronger than them, they would submit to them!

After Camilan called out 'cut', Su Bei came out of the set with a familiar smile on her face again.

Huo Zhong raised his thumb. "Everyone, did you see that? This is my Sister Su Bei!"

.....

For once, Robin said nothing. These scenes passed.

When Su Bei went over to drink water, Xiao Bai shouted excitedly, "Su Bei, you're so awesome. Many people were stunned by that scene just now. I guess they won't question your acting skills anymore."

"Good." She smiled.

Camilan came over and said to her, "There seemed to be something wrong with those two stunt doubles?"

'You noticed it too?' Su Bei asked with a smile.

“You’re too careless. You knew there was a problem yet you still dared to provoke them?” For once, Camilan’s face darkened. In fact, he had only realized it later. At the time, he had thought that Su Bei and the stunt double were just fooling around to liven things up. Otherwise, he would have stopped them right from the start.

The thought scared Camilan.

Seeing that his face had darkened and he really cared about her, Su Bei smiled and said, “But as you can see, everything is fine now. Those two people have become obedient.”

“You got lucky this time! You won’t always get lucky like this!” said Camilan.

He was uncharacteristically serious. He gathered the person in charge of the production team, the stage supervisor, and the others. He stopped filming and held a meeting.

“I repeat, you must only hire trustworthy temporary staff members. Look for people with qualifications! No mistakes can be tolerated in the crew! Anyone who makes a mistake will be fired!”

The stage supervisor had made a mistake because of the calligrapher substitute, so there was nothing to argue about.

As for the others, they did not know about the stunt double.

Camilan didn’t point it out either. After all, the two stunt doubles had left, and they wouldn’t be needed for the rest of the scene. Besides, there was no real evidence that there was anything wrong with them.