

Chapter 1141: You Don't Have To Compensate

After all, they didn't really hurt Su Bei. Even if they asked her, they wouldn't be able to get anything out of her.

But it was a fact that there were problems with the crew. Everyone listened in silence as Camilan lectured them.

Everyone thought to themselves that Director Camilan had lost his temper but was finally starting to act like a big director.

Meanwhile, the two stunt doubles left the set after receiving their salary for the day.

Both of them looked a little worried. After all, they had not completed the mission their employer had given them.

However, they were no match for Su Bei at all. As stunt doubles, they could only secretly see if they could hurt her. If they really couldn't hurt her, it was impossible for the two of them to go over and beat Su Bei up, right?

Then what awaited them was a real prison sentence.

"Forget it. Let's pay back the money and it'll be over." The tall man spat out the words and pressed out the cigarette.

Not only did he have to return the money, but he also had to pay compensation for not completing the mission. Those were the rules of the trade.

The thinner stunt double was a little unhappy. "Why don't we find a quiet place and hurt Su Bei?"

"Are you crazy? It's considered an accident to injure someone at work. But it's called a criminal case if we do it outside of work! If it gets out of hand, you won't be able to bear the consequences."

The tall stunt double was speechless.

Moreover, he had fought with Su Bei before. He did not expect such a delicate and soft woman to be so skilled. She almost embarrassed him. To be honest, he admired and cherished her talent.

.....

Especially when she had the upper hand yet saved his face by smiling and letting the matter slide.

If he really hit her again, he would be inhumane.

Both men looked crestfallen for a moment, then decided against it.

Just as they were about to leave the set, they suddenly heard a series of orderly footsteps approaching from afar. Those people moved quickly and surrounded them.

The two stunt doubles turned to look and saw a group of men in black and sunglasses standing in front of them. They looked very serious and imposing. It made them feel afraid.

“Y-You go back and tell that person we didn’t complete the mission. We’ll refund the deposit and pay the compensation,” the tall stunt double said.

Actually, they did not know who their employer was. In any case, it was best to apologize first and show an attitude.

A car slowly drove up to them.

The men in black and sunglasses stepped aside. The window was half-open. The man inside looked exceptionally imposing.

The two stunt doubles thought that this was their employer. They knew that anyone who could afford such a sum of money was extremely powerful. If they did not complete their mission, they would probably suffer a lot.

They said in a panic, “We’ll pay...”

Lu Heting frowned slightly. Su Bei was fine. Even if something had really happened to her, he wouldn’t have to deal with these two people personally.

He would just treat it as though Su Bei was having some fun with them.

“You don’t have to pay.” The man’s voice from the car was rich and somehow pleasant. His English was very pure.

With some nonchalance, he said, “Who gave you the money? Go back and beat him up. Then we’ll call it even.”

The two stunt doubles were speechless.

So this person was here to stand up for Su Bei. He was not their employer!

“B-But we don’t know who paid us. We took up the job but never saw our employer,” the tall man said honestly

Chapter 1142: Witness My Power

??

“I know who it is,” the man in the car continued.

Without needing to check, Lu Heting knew that the only person who could have done this was Lu Tianci.

As Lu Heting had arranged for people to be here, many parts of the production were under strict control. However, there was still a loophole that could be exploited. Other than Lu Tianci, no one else could do it.

The two stunt doubles were shocked and a little shaky, because asking them to hit their employer... After all, to be able to pay such a large sum to deal with a female lead in a film crew, they must have some power in T Country. The consequences of asking them to hit their employer were unimaginable.

“W-We—”

They were too cowardly to even refuse.

The man in the car was silent for a moment. Just when they thought he was going to loosen up, he continued to speak, but not to them. He was talking to the people around him.

“I understand these two stunt doubles have families?”

The two stuntmen’s hair stood on end at those words.

The intensity of the threat in his voice was chilling.

‘Who doesn’t have a family?’

‘We weren’t formed from rocks!’

They were working hard to earn money to support their families!

“W-We’ll do it!” the two stunt doubles answered.

Lu Tianci was having fun in a bar, surrounded by a group of bad friends.

A lackey approached him and whispered, “Everything has been arranged for Su Bei’s matter.”

“That’s good.”

Lu Tianci actually quite liked Su Bei. That woman was even more beautiful than the ones he had seen before. She was like a feather that tickled his heart bit by bit.

Unfortunately, she was an artist from Lu Heting’s company. Otherwise, he would definitely spend a lot of money to get that woman.

But this was killing two birds with one stone.

By letting the stunt double injure Su Bei, he could take Di Xing Media Company down a notch and make them unable to continue filming. Although it was a small loss to Lu Heting, it would definitely not be a simple blow to his mood.

Su Bei would be injured and would not be able to film in the short term. Her resources would be affected. It would not be difficult for her to fall into his arms then.

At that time, Lu Heting would realize how powerful he was.

Although Lu Tianci thought that all the women in Di Xing Media Company were Lu Heting’s harem and Su Bei was one of them, with Su Bei’s beauty, she was definitely one of the women Lu Heting cared about.

“Not tonight.” Lu Tianci pushed his glass away and stood up.

“Mr. Lu, you’re leaving?” The woman in his arms said sweetly, “If you leave, we won’t be able to enjoy ourselves.”

“That’s right. Mr. Lu, play a little longer,” another woman added.

Those rich young masters also chimed in, “Mr. Lu, you’re going home so early. Has your temper changed, or are you hiding a mistress?”

Lu Tianci smiled. “I’ll pay for the bill tonight. Continue.”

“Thank you, Mr. Lu!”

“Mr. Lu is still so generous!”

As everyone laughed, Lu Tianci walked out of the bar.

The weather in T Country was always hot, but this cool breeze at night was comfortable.

Lu Tianci tugged at his collar and walked out.

Chapter 1143: Solving It In A Stupid Way

When he thought of Su Bei’s face, he felt inexplicably excited and hot. He felt that the ordinary women in the bar were not worthy of his attention.

When Lu Tianci’s car arrived, he got in. He was a little drunk, so he leaned back in his chair and closed his eyes.

The car made a sharp turn and screeched to a halt.

Lu Tianci was woken up from his sleep. Just as he was about to curse, the car door was pulled open and a sack covered his face. A few pairs of fists rained down on him.

“F*ck!” Lu Tianci cursed, but it was useless.

Fists and kicks rained down on him.

He was covered in the sack, unable to get out.

After his punches and kicks stopped, he got up with difficulty and ruthlessly removed the sack from his head. Where was everyone? Even the driver was nowhere to be seen.

He pulled out his phone and made several angry calls.

His driver and assistant arrived a moment later. They froze at the sight.

Lu Tianci kicked each of them. “Where the hell did you guys go?”

“Didn’t you tell us not to follow you?” the driver and assistant hurriedly explained.

Lu Tianci knew that he had been tricked.

He raised his eyes and looked around. There were no surveillance cameras or blind spots for passersby. With the security of T Country, he was afraid that he would not be able to find out who did it.

His dangling left arm was broken. His good mood had long since been replaced by a grimace on his face. He cursed again.

Lu Heting didn't like to solve problems by beating people up. That would be too low.

Unless the other party was really stupid.

This time, Lu Tianci foolishly provoked Su Bei and even tried to hurt her by using stunt doubles.

Therefore, Lu Heting caused him to have a broken limb.

'You need to deal with stupid people in a stupid way.'

As for the two stunt doubles, it was up to them how they wanted to run and hide. Whatever feud they had with Lu Tianci was their business.

After Su Bei finished filming, she went to the hotel in a good mood because today's scenes went smoother than before.

The hotel was in a particularly good location, right next to the set. She kept in mind that she had to protect herself. Since security in T Country wasn't particularly good, she shouldn't wander around anywhere else.

She was a person who could be both active and calm.

Today's filming was obviously a little tiring. Coupled with the fact that she still had to deal with the two stunt doubles, Su Bei felt a little exhausted when she returned.

Lu Heting sent a message to ask about today's filming.

[Pretty good. Although there was a small situation and some people didn't cooperate, the matter was quickly resolved.] Su Bei always told him the good news and not the bad news, lest Lu Heting worry.

She was already very honest as she had told him there was a small situation.

Usually, she tried her best to avoid talking about annoying things.

Lu Heting didn't reply. He must be busy.

She put her phone away and walked slowly toward her room. Xiao Bai followed her, carrying her bag for her.

"Just give it to me." She reached for it. "You should go home and get some rest too."

"Good night, then, Su Bei."

"Good night."

Su Bei opened the door and entered the room. Although she was a little tired, she had to admit that her physical fitness had indeed improved a lot after her last filming with He Xuyan. She was not so tired that she felt weak.

Chapter 1145: Did You Beat Someone Up?

“I’ll leave first. I’ll send you videos of Da Bao and Gun Gun every day.” Lu Heting kissed the woman. “If there’s anything, leave it to the bodyguards. Don’t take these matters lightly.”

“Yes, yes.” Su Bei kept nodding.

‘I’m unwilling to, but there’s no choice.’

Lu Heting raised his eyebrows. “I’ll come back soon.”

“Yes.” The woman’s voice was nasally, and when she looked up, her face was radiant.

After Lu Heting left, Su Bei was stunned for a long time before she got used to the room without him.

The sun was especially bright, and the temperature was high, but she found the space to be less brilliant.

When she got up, she was a little lazy. She glanced at the clock. It was almost time to shoot. She sped up.

When she went out, Xiao Bai immediately greeted her. Xiao Bai was obviously unaware that Lu Heting had come. When she saw Su Bei, she said excitedly, “Su Bei, have you seen the gossip?”

“What gossip?”

“It’s gossip from T Country. Isn’t Sheng Xiaotang filming a movie here? The investor behind her is called Lu Tianci. Yesterday, a reporter filmed Lu Tianci being beaten up, and his arm was broken. He was photographed at the police station and the hospital.” Xiao Bai grinned as she talked about the gossip. “Didn’t Sheng Xiaotang always look down on us? Who knew that our movie would go so smoothly this time and it’s her investor who encountered a problem?”

Su Bei took the phone from Xiao Bai and looked at the news for a while. Sure enough, Lu Tianci had been beaten up. Although he was hiding it, she could vaguely see that his face was swollen.

After all, Lu Tianci had power in T Country, so the media would not dare to use too extreme words. However, there were many photos taken.

Rich men like him who liked to get close to the entertainment industry had always been the hot topic of the media. This incident naturally attracted a lot of attention and quickly appeared on the trending searches.

“I wonder who did this,” Xiao Bai guessed aloud. “Perhaps a fan who’s overreacting?”

Su Bei suddenly thought of Lu Heting.

She shuddered. Could it be Lu Heting?

His timing was too much of a coincidence, and it was obvious that Lu Tianci was involved in the stunt double incident.

She felt a little happy, but Su Bei wasn’t particularly sure. After all, Lu Heting had never liked to use such low-level methods.

She thought for a moment, then asked: [Did you punch someone, honey?]

Lu Heting probably didn't reply to her because he was on the plane.

Su Bei could only go to the set first.

The people in the production team were naturally discussing this matter. There were all kinds of rumors. "I heard that no one was caught. I wonder who did it? In any case, this young master was furious this time. I heard that he fired several people around him and even flew into a rage. There aren't many people who can make this young master suffer to this extent."

When Su Bei heard this, she silently added in her heart, 'You reap what you sow.'

Just as she picked up her phone, it rang. Lu Heting had replied: [I gave him a taste of his own medicine.]

Su Bei burst out laughing and sent him a few emojis.

As expected, Lu Heting had found someone to beat Lu Tianci up. With Lu Heting's personality, the people he found were probably those two stuntmen. No wonder Lu Tianci was so seriously injured and couldn't find out who had beaten him up.

Chapter 1146: Super Secret

The rest of the shoot went very smoothly.

Previously, it had been Robin who nitpicked at everything.

Now, however, it was Camilan who said, "Su Bei, I think you can do a better job with this scene. Let's try again."

Robin, on the other hand, folded his arms and said sternly, "Actually, I think that's excellent enough."

Of course, if Su Bei tried again, she could definitely perform better.

Robin said nothing more.

As an assistant director who could work together with Camilan, Robin had real talent. He could tell that Su Bei was different from how the rumors made her out to be, especially about how she could only join after bringing funds into the production.

Naturally, Robin was impressed with her.

During the intermission, Huo Zhong brought a group of people to look for Su Bei and have her teach them martial arts.

Young people like them who had grown up overseas were simply obsessed with kung fu.

In fact, Su Bei had learned a lot. Hence, after just giving them a few pointers, they were very happy.

All of a sudden, there was a trend of learning martial arts in the entire production team. Everyone gathered together to practice.

Although there were no practical benefits to practicing this, there were many thieves here and they always lost their belongings. Ever since everyone started practicing martial arts, things stopped going missing.

The locals all knew that there was a foreign film crew here, and everyone was skilled. If they caught a thief, they would beat the thief to death. They were so frightened that some people who wanted to take advantage of the situation immediately gave up on this idea.

...

Lu Heting came over once every three days.

Every time, he came and went in a hurry. He was especially secretive. Even Xiao Bai would not know that he had been here.

On this day, after Lu Heting left, Su Bei got up and packed up. He often came, so Su Bei felt that there was not much difference between filming here and filming in Jingdu City.

However, she knew in her heart that there was no difference because Lu Heting was sacrificing his rest time for her.

She pursed her lips and sent a kiss emoji on WeChat.

When she went out, Xiao Bai followed behind her and said casually, "Su Bei, why do I find that you look especially good every two days?"

"Really?" She rubbed a hand over her face.

"Of course. You look especially good today. It was the same two days ago too. But I'm a little miserable. There are so many mosquitoes in the crew during the day. I've been bitten all over and can't sleep well at night."

Su Bei took her hand and glanced at it. "I have repellent in my bag. Find it and apply it."

This was indeed the case in T Country. The weather was hot, the trees were plentiful, and the mosquitoes were as big as spiders. One bite was enough to leave a mark.

It was too uncomfortable for someone to get bitten every day in the production team.

There were also repellent ointments in T Country, but it was unknown if it was because the foreigners were not used to it or if the mosquitoes had grown antibodies against the repellent. After everyone applied it, it was ineffective.

Previously, Su Bei had also been bitten. Later on, Lu Heting brought over repellent from S Country.

In the afternoon, several people came to look for Su Bei. "Su Bei, I heard that you have mosquito repellent ointment. Can you give me some?"

"I want some too."

"Please give me some too."

Ever since Su Bei's calligraphy and stunt double incident, these people no longer went against her. When they saw Su Bei, they always had good expressions on their faces.

Therefore, when they came to ask Su Bei for the repellent, they were all smiling.

Chapter 1147: Lu Heting's Personal Exclusive

"I'll have Xiao Bai give it to you later."

"Thank you so much! Su Bei, you're such a good person!"

Su Bei laughed and thought to herself that if she had known that a bottle of ointment could subdue these people, she would have brought the ointment over on the first day itself instead of waiting until she conquered them with her acting skills.

But it was just a thought.

When Xiao Bai brought her water, Su Bei said, "Go back to my room and bring all the ointment over."

"Is it enough, Su Bei?"

"It should be."

"I'm so sorry. I was just making a casual comment, but they all heard me and asked me where I got the repellent. I had to tell them."

"It's okay. I have more than I can use anyway."

"When did you bring them? I was on the plane with you. Why didn't I see them?" Xiao Bai thought it was really strange.

Su Bei also wanted to sigh. In the beginning, Lu Heting had asked someone to export fruits from S Country to her.

In the end, he remembered that because of the climate and terrain, T Country produced the most fruits. Many fruits were sweeter than those in S Country.

Later on, Lu Heting got someone to fly food over. He was afraid that she wouldn't be used to the food here.

.....

However, the food in T Country was actually not bad. After all, the produce was grown in such a climate.

Lu Heting didn't have much to send over. When he realized that the ointment was useful to Su Bei, he brought a big box of it over.

She didn't expect it to come in handy on the set.

Before night fell, almost everyone received the ointment that Xiao Bai had given out. Everyone came to thank Su Bei.

It seemed that Lu Heting's consideration was right. Using such small favors to help Su Bei build a good relationship was really useful for her filming.

“Su Bei, the repellent ointment has been distributed to everyone. Except for Director Camilan, everyone else has taken it.”

“Why didn’t Director Camilan take it?”

“It happened to be gone by the time we got to him. I wanted to share mine with him, but Director Camilan was kind enough to say no.” Xiao Bai sighed. “He’s such a good director. He doesn’t put on airs at all.”

Su Bei listened to the words. Camilan was indeed admirable.

When they returned to the hotel that night, Su Bei took off her clothes and carried them as she planned to take a shower. A bottle of ointment fell to the floor.

“I didn’t expect to miss one.” Su Bei picked it up.

After her shower, she remembered that Director Camilan did not get any ointment today. The mosquitoes in the production team bit everyone indiscriminately. They would not let Director Camilan off just because he was an international director.

Thinking of this, she took out her phone and sent a WeChat message to Director Camilan. [Director Camilan, I still have some anti-mosquito repellent. If it’s convenient for you, I’ll pass it to your assistant. Do you want to use it?]

After a while, Director Camilan sent a message. [Su Bei, let’s meet and talk.]

Su Bei had wanted to avoid arousing suspicion. Usually, scandals were common between actresses and directors. That was why she had said that she would leave the repellent with his assistant.

However, since Director Camilan had asked, Su Bei could not reject him directly.

She thought for a moment. Firstly, Director Camilan was not such a person. Secondly, Lu Heting’s bodyguards were very close to her. There should be no problem, so she agreed.

The director asked her to meet him in the hotel’s coffee lounge.

The hotel he was talking about must be the hotel up ahead. After all, Su Bei was staying in Lu Heting’s private hotel.

Chapter 1148: Out Of Personal Interest

Su Bei chose a more solemn dress and put on some light makeup. She arrived as promised.

These days, other than filming, she had not gone anywhere else. When she suddenly saw the flashing neon lights outside and the charm of the foreign streets, she could not help but feel a little greedy. She looked out of the window for a while.

As she was meeting the director, she couldn’t let the bodyguards come in with her. Su Bei asked them all to wait outside.

When Camilan came over, Su Bei stood up. “Director Camilan.”

Camilan sat down across from her with the same warm smile. "You won't mind my abruptness, will you, Su Bei?"

"Of course not." Su Bei handed the ointment over. "Xiao Bai just happened to finish distributing the ointment when it was your turn. I found that I had an extra bottle, so I wanted to give it to you."

"Thank you." Camilan took it directly.

He didn't say anything. They just talked about work and whether Su Bei was used to it. Su Bei answered all his questions. Moreover, she was grateful for his good attitude and how he was willing to give her pointers. The two of them chatted happily.

Suddenly, Camilan changed the topic and said with a smile, "I heard that you have a good relationship with Lu Weijian of the Lu family?"

"We're okay." For a moment, she didn't know what he was going to say, so she didn't elaborate.

"Lu Weijian has been doing well all these years, right? I heard that he loves games and is willing to try any games."

"Yeah. He's always dragging people around to play games. He's doing game development himself."

Camilan talked about Lu Weijian for a while. Su Bei wondered why he was talking about this.

Then, Camilan smiled. "I had a movie script about gaming before, but I never found an investor. It'd be good if someone who really likes games invests in it. I'm just casually chatting to you about it. You don't have to take it too seriously."

"I see." Although Su Bei said that, she also felt that his concern for Lu Weijian seemed to be more out of personal interest than business.

But after that, Camilan didn't say anything else. Su Bei didn't want to speculate, so they said goodbye and left.

Even though the two of them met like this in public, they had just talked about work. There was nothing much to be said about it.

But the bad thing was that when Camilan came in just now, he had bumped into Sheng Xiaotang.

Sheng Xiaotang had always been curious about Camilan's whereabouts and wanted to meet him by chance. After all, being able to work with someone like Director Camilan meant that there would be more possibilities in her future career.

Camilan had been able to gallop around Europe for more than 20 years. He was also supported by enormous capital and funds. No actor would ignore Camilan's strength.

Even though Camilan had already chosen Su Bei, this wasn't the only movie he was filming. Sheng Xiaotang felt that she still had a chance.

Hence, she wanted to create a chance encounter with Camilan.

She and Camilan had met face-to-face just now. She had said hello, but he was so lost in his thoughts that he did not see her or respond. He just left while she stared at him.

This made Sheng Xiaotang stand there and sulk for a while.

When she came back to his senses, Sheng Xiaotang was curious. She followed him with her assistant and immediately saw Camilan and Su Bei sitting together.

Chapter 1149: Camilan's Private Meeting With Su Bei

She didn't dare get too close, so she had no idea what they were talking about. All she could tell was that they were chatting happily.

Sheng Xiaotang did not give up on this rare opportunity and took a video and photo of the two of them meeting.

When Camilan and Su Bei left, she was in a cold sweat herself. After all, as a daughter of a good family and an A-list actress, this was the first time she had done something like this.

Looking at the footage, she thought about it for a while before picking a few major media outlets to secretly send the content to.

Ordinary small media outlets did not dare to touch on the scandals of artists from Di Xing Media Company too much.

However, it was different for big media outlets. They had a complicated network behind them and had more authority. They weren't too scared of risks when it came to publishing such scandals.

Sheng Xiaotang did not remind the media what to do or post because smart people would naturally know what to do when they saw the content she sent them.

She had only obtained this scoop by chance.

She muttered to herself, "Su Bei, don't blame me. You can only blame yourself for everything being so coincidental. I'm not deliberately slandering you, but how can I not take advantage of such a good opportunity?"

...

The next day, the trending topic in S Country was 'Camilan's Private Meeting With Su Bei'.

One of the media outlets released a video of the two of them meeting. In the video, they were chatting happily. At one point, Su Bei was seen reaching out, and Camilan touched her hand.

Although in reality, Su Bei was just handing over the ointment and Camilan took it.

However, as Sheng Xiaotang's video was blurry, it covered up the truth.

Even though there was nothing concrete about this video, it still attracted a huge discussion.

The anti-fans were the first to take action, especially Sheng Xiaotang's and Jia Shiyun's fans. They finally found a chance to turn the tables.

[I knew it. The resources that even Xiaotang and Shiyun couldn't get were snatched by Su Bei. Now, I know the reason clearly. So, this is how she did it.]

[So that's why no one else has such resources. Su Bei sure knows how to please people.]

[Tsk, tsk, tsk. No wonder she had to go to T Country to film. They're simply using public funds to engage in adultery.]

[I wonder if Di Xing Media Company knows that the movie they spent money on ended up with Su Bei and Camilan having an affair?]

The words became more and more unpleasant to hear. They completely forsook Su Bei's efforts in obtaining this resource fair and square.

Of course, there were also those with objective views. [Aren't the two people in this video drinking coffee? Could it be that the director and actress can't even meet each other anymore?]

[That's right. What they did isn't very out of line. Do those commenters above see everything in a warped way?]

[Besides, these two are single, right? Why make it sound so bad?]

Su Bei's fans even defended her. [Everyone, watch yourselves. In the future, don't meet your male or female colleagues at work. Whether it's work or school, we're all divided into men and women. If women are with women, everyone will be fine and satisfied.]

[Su Bei is working hard at filming every day, okay? Can't she meet the director and talk about work?]

[Other than this video and some photos, there's nothing else. That in itself means the two of them just met up for a casual chat. What are you trying to slander here?]

Chapter 1150: Sleeping Her Way Up

Things were getting noisy.

The public was more concerned about the news of romantic scandals. Even if there was no news, they would still gossip about it. This time, there was even a video.

When Su Bei woke up in the morning, she was bombarded by various WeChat messages and private messages.

Her lips twitched. She really didn't expect the paparazzi to be so pervasive.

Just a glance at the messages had given her a real headache.

Qiao Mei called. "Su Bei, what's going on?"

"That's what happened." Su Bei explained the situation to Qiao Mei.

Qiao Mei also frowned. "Someone captured such a small matter? Pay more attention to your surroundings. I'll deal with this as soon as possible."

Su Bei said, "Let me see if there are any surveillance cameras in the lounge. If there are surveillance cameras, at least the footage can prove that the handshake they're suspecting is just me handing him a bottle of ointment."

"Okay, I'll explain it to the fans first."

Su Bei thought about it and decided to tell Lu Heting. Even so, she knew he would definitely not believe these discussions.

...

Lu Group.

.....

Naturally, many people gossiped about Su Bei.

Some of the employees in the lower levels, in particular, enjoyed such things.

Moreover, this matter involved Di Xing Media Company.

"Our company invested in the film this time. Does Su Bei really not take this investment seriously? She's with the director now?"

"Don't talk nonsense. Things haven't even started yet," a young female employee said. "I realized that people like to slander female artists. I can't tell anything from this video, but the men are all talking about it. It's fun to slander women, huh?"

The man who started the conversation said, "Su Bei is so beautiful, and there are countless people coveting her. Do you really think she can stay clean in the circle? Seeing as how she even entered Di Xing Media Company, she must have put in a lot of effort..."

As he spoke, he sensed that something was wrong. He looked up and saw a few senior executives standing in the office. They were all handsome and distinguished. Wherever they stood, the entire office was under pressure.

He was so startled that he swallowed the words 'sleeping her way up'.

The others looked at him as if he were dead.

Someone had previously informed them that the higher-ups would be coming over today to check on their work. However, everyone was too busy gossiping and forgot about it.

Now that a few of the higher-ups were around, the male employee from just now immediately lowered his head.

The others quickly lowered their heads as if they were afraid of being implicated.

The person in the lead was Lu Heting. Few of the low-level employees of Lu Group knew him. However, since he was standing with the higher-ups, no one could ignore his identity.

His aura was especially outstanding. As he stood in front of them, they held their breaths and did not even dare to breathe loudly.

When Lu Heting heard these discussions, he said calmly, "Take out the entire year's work record and write a 100,000-word review."

"I—" The male clerk looked up, clearly not expecting such a punishment.

"Is it a tradition of Lu Group to gossip during office hours?"

The male employee lowered his head guiltily.

Everyone was silent.

Lu Heting strode out.
