

Chapter 1151: Large-Scale Recommendation Session

The senior executives were trembling with fear. They looked at each other and quickly followed.

When they came over, Lu Heting was in a good mood. They didn't expect him to be so angry all of a sudden. The higher-ups couldn't help but glare at the middle-level manager. It was all these insensible employees' fault. Why were they gossiping instead of working during working hours?

These managers were also complaining. They had originally thought that the higher-ups would come and check on them. They had arranged everything well and prepared everything so that they could leave a good impression on the higher-ups. Who knew that this ignorant person would ruin it?!

The middle-level manager scolded angrily, "All of you have nothing to do, huh? Lu Group is paying you a generous salary for you to gossip, huh? Besides, everything is just a rumor. How dare you openly slander the company's A-list female artist without clarifying anything? You must be tired of living!"

The male clerk's head dipped lower.

A female employee said, "Camilan has already clarified it. Didn't you see? Director Camilan personally went to retrieve the surveillance footage of the coffee lounge. The surveillance footage shows that Su Bei didn't even touch his hand. Su Bei just handed Director Camilan a bottle of mosquito repellent from S Country!"

The middle-level manager was so angry that he cursed the male employee.

On the internet, Camilan had cleared things up before Su Bei did. He pulled up the surveillance footage from that night and showed everyone the most controversial part.

Su Bei had indeed handed him a bottle of repellent, and he reached out to take it.

Their fingers did not touch.

The video that Sheng Xiaotang provided only caused a misunderstanding because of the angle. The two of them seemed to be holding hands, but in fact, they didn't even touch each other.

This surveillance footage was a slap in the face for the anti-fans.

The surveillance footage was pinned at the top for the entire day.

This was a day when the anti-fans were seriously mocked. [Anti-fans, come out and take a look. The matter is so clear. Why aren't you saying anything? It seems that you're blind and can't see.]

[Su Bei has already proven her strength with the acting skills she showed in the previous two movies, and Director Camilan has never used an artist who doesn't match the script of the movie. However, others just have to continue to spite her. Look at how the tables turned in the end.]

[Everyone should focus on the movie Mother. I've never been disappointed in Su Bei!]

[Never disappointed +1]

[Support Mother!]

[This mosquito repellent is super handy. Really. I used it when I was traveling abroad.]

[Su Bei recommended a national product to a foreign director. She's simply the best spokesperson for our country. However, people actually said those things about Su Bei. What were they thinking?]

The passersby who were watching the show previously were also stunned by Su Bei's down-to-earth actions. "I'm really going to be a fan of Su Bei now. She has spared no effort in recommending our country's products. She's simply the spokesperson of S Country. By the way, this repellent is really useful. Go overseas and give them to your friends. You don't have to bring anything else. Just bring the repellent.]

After some time, the netizens had long forgotten about Su Bei's scandal. All they remembered was Su Bei's pious look when she recommended the repellent.

At first, everyone was just watching the drama unfold, but now, they were happily sharing all kinds of useful products and medicines from S Country. In an instant, this trending topic turned into a large-scale recommendation session.

Su Bei also gained a large number of rational middle-aged fans.

Chapter 1152: Promotion Ambassador

The movie Mother became popular before it was even aired and had a place among the vast number of fans.

When Su Bei called Lu Heting, he was walking out of the staff office while surrounded by a cold aura.

The others all followed in trepidation, unsure how to smooth things over.

Everyone silently lamented that today's work would probably be difficult.

When Lu Heting's phone rang, the higher-ups stopped in their tracks. They didn't dare to follow too close, but they didn't dare to stay too far away either.

However, everyone saw that the moment Mr. Lu took out his phone, the cold aura on his body slowly dissipated.

Everyone was confused.

'What kind of magical call is that?'

'Just how magical was the person on the other end?'

Su Bei told Lu Heting what had happened. "I'm already planning to get the surveillance footage. I remember you telling me that there are surveillance cameras in the hotel lounge. I'll send the footage to Sister Mei after I get it. It'll be fine soon."

"I've gotten the footage."

"How did you do it so quickly???"

“After the incident, Director Camilan called me to clarify things. I asked him to retrieve the surveillance footage. If I’m not mistaken, the surveillance footage should be at the top of the trending searches now,” Lu Heting explained.

Su Bei really admired him. He would always think of her and was able to come up with a solution faster than others. His IQ was always top-notch, and his solutions were always great.

“Lu Heting, fortunately, you’re my husband.”

“Huh?” Lu Heting raised his eyebrows.

“How terrible it would be if you were my enemy.”

He laughed softly. “Silly.”

Su Bei heard his laughter coming from the phone. His mellow voice had a hint of electricity, and it immediately soothed her ears.

The senior executives looked at each other. Although they didn’t know who Lu Heting was talking to on the phone, they knew that the crisis had passed. From the looks of it, Lu Heting seemed to be smiling.

Lu Heting wasn’t good at smiling, so they nearly forgot that he could smile.

“I’m guessing it’s Little Master.” Someone gave him a look.

Another senior executive who knew about Gun Gun suddenly understood. “I guess so too.”

“Only the little master can ease Mr. Lu’s emotions so quickly.”

Everyone communicated with their eyes without batting an eyelid.

They wondered who the little master’s mother was.

After the matter was settled and when Su Bei went to the set, everyone saw that the trending topic was ‘Su Bei #S Country’s Products Promotion Ambassador’.

This trending topic reached T Country.

Moreover, according to the rumors, all the shops in T Country that sold the ointment had all run out of stock.

Many shops and pharmacies throughout T Country were considering importing the ointment.

Su Bei was speechless.

For a moment, she didn’t know what to say.

Sheng Xiaotang did not expect this outcome.

Firstly, she had not thought about the surveillance cameras at all. Secondly, she did not expect Su Bei to be in a normal relationship with Camilan.

She never thought that Su Bei would become so popular because of this matter.

The people from T Country looked similar to the people from S Country, but they were slightly different. Everyone's aesthetics were the same. Previously, they didn't know about Su Bei. This time, they followed the trending searches and saw all kinds of photos of Su Bei. All of them were shocked and joined the fandom immediately.

Chapter 1153: Lu Heting Made The First Move

When there was a hot topic, people would naturally track it down and pay attention to it. This was the law of capital in the entire world.

According to the polls in T Country, everyone's acceptance and favorability of Su Bei were very high.

In addition, S Country was currently establishing a friendly cooperative relationship with T Country. Those with business acumen in T Country quickly applied to import Su Bei's first two movies into the local movie theaters.

Two Phoenixes had Lu Group's investment.

Boxer was He Xuyan's personal movie.

Lu Heting waved his hand and agreed.

He Xuyan agreed without much thought.

Just like that, Su Bei's two movies made it to the movie theaters of T Country!

One shouldn't underestimate the release of two movies. Over the years, movies from S Country rarely went out of the country. The entire international market was dominated by the United States and promoted American culture on a large scale around the world.

It was rare for movies from S Country to go out and be scrutinized. It was also rare for them to have a chance to enter the theaters of other countries. A real public release would spread the thoughts and culture of their own country.

This time, Su Bei appeared in two movies at once. It was very meaningful and groundbreaking!

Sheng Xiaotang was speechless.

She really wanted to ask if it was too late for regrets.

.....

Why would a scandal about Su Bei be such a blessing in disguise?

Lu Tianci was especially angry about this matter. He held his broken left hand and threw everything on the table.

"I haven't even broken into the S Country's market, and Lu Heting has already broken into T Country's market?" He supported himself with one hand on the table, his face filled with disbelief.

It was because Lu Yaode had brought a large sum of money as well as several talents from Lu Group to T Country to develop. T Country had always been their private territory. Lu Group was neither disdainful nor willing to develop here, so the two sides had always maintained a balance that could not be exposed.

It was not easy for them to wait for Mrs. Lu to go to jail. Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci planned to attack S Country's market in one fell swoop. However, before they could make any progress, Lu Group quickly seized T Country's market with a movie and an artist.

In a battle between two armies, morale was the most important. The first person to win could be far ahead in confidence.

That was why Lu Tianci had personally caused trouble for Su Bei, a small celebrity.

In the end, he didn't succeed, and Lu Heting even beat him to it!

How could he not be angry?!

Lu Tianci said coldly, "Let's speed up the progress of our movie. When the time comes, we must release it at the same time in T Country and S Country to seize the market!"

Wish, which starred Sheng Xiaotang, had been a chip for him to enter S Country's market from the beginning. However, he did not expect that he was still a step too late.

Sheng Xiaotang looked at Lu Tianci and didn't dare to mention that Su Bei's success had something to do with her.

She didn't expect any of this herself.

"I'll speed up the progress, Mr. Lu." Sheng Xiaotang took out her phone and deleted everything about Su Bei, pretending as if it had nothing to do with her.

Fortunately, when she sent the content to the media outlets back then, she had used an anonymous account. She was not greedy for the money given by the media outlets, so after she sent the video and photos, she disappeared. As she had a backup plan, she would not end up offending Lu Tianci.

Chapter 1154: Thank The Paparazzi

Su Bei did not expect to get such an opportunity through a scandal.

When Qiao Mei called to congratulate her, she was still in a daze.

"The movies are aired here just like that?"

"The other party is very fast. They can't wait to take advantage of your popularity to earn money. Speaking of which, although there aren't as many people in T Country as in S Country, the box office sales here are usually quite good. After all, the weather is hot and everyone likes to go to the movie theaters to enjoy the air conditioner to avoid the heat. Therefore, your two movies will do quite well when the time comes." Qiao Mei sighed and said, "Recently, there have been many businesses in T Country looking for you to endorse their brands. You know, Manager Li is going to hire a translator for me."

Su Bei imagined that Qiao Mei's workload would indeed be quite heavy recently.

"I was going to wait for you to stabilize in two years before we took the international route. Now, it seems that this process is going to be brought forward." Qiao Mei was very emotional. She had led many artists, but there were indeed not many who were as lucky as Su Bei.

She put down the phone and thought for a moment. Her rationality returned, and she knew that this could not be done by luck alone.

After all, once a scandal was exposed, the artist had to react quickly enough to break out of the situation and turn defeat into victory. More importantly, Su Bei had existing works that she could show off. She also needed to have the ability to let others see her potential. Only then could she use the scandal as an opportunity to start a cooperation between the two countries.

Because of this, Su Bei unexpectedly received an endorsement deal for the repellent ointment brand.

Actually, this ointment was considered traditional medicine in S Country. It was developed using an ancient method and was well-known. It was simply a must-have ointment to keep at home. Almost everyone had a bottle of it. Moreover, they had never needed a spokesperson, but the sales were always very stable.

However, because this ointment was currently expanding overseas, it was very important to have a dazzling spokesperson. This could help them quickly penetrate the market overseas.

After this incident, Su Bei successfully caught the attention of businesses.

"This commercial is going to be easy. There's nothing fancy about it. And the brand has a very good reputation. The quality is stable, so I'll take it for you." Qiao Mei beamed. "I don't need you to do much publicity. You just have to bask in the glory of this ointment and become famous in other countries."

Alright, the scandal had given Su Bei such good benefits that it made Su Bei want to find the paparazzi who filmed the scene and thank them properly.

When Sheng Xiaotang found out about this, she gritted her teeth in anger. Even her own staff members were sighing at Su Bei's good luck, but she had no choice but to swallow her anger.

Su Bei had also successfully finished filming her scenes in T Country.

The first half of the shoot was bumpy, while the second half of the shoot simply saw an advancement by leaps and bounds. Even Robin was convinced by Su Bei and couldn't find any fault with her. Naturally, the speed continued to rise like a rocket.

Initially, everyone thought that they would have to stay in this hot and stuffy place for a longer time. When they suddenly heard the assistant director shout, "Su Bei's scenes are all done. The entire crew can wrap up work," they were momentarily stunned.

"So we're wrapping up seven days early?"

“We can go home early!”

The staff, who stood in a daze for some time, came to their senses and let out cheers and laughter. “We can go home!”

Chapter 1155: A Million-Dollar Painting Had Come To Life

Su Bei was also eager to go home.

In the past few months of filming, she had only been back twice. The duration of each stay was particularly short.

Lu Heting, on the other hand, came often.

However, her time with Da Bao and Gun Gun was too short. She could not wait to see her two sons.

“The wrap party is tonight. Everyone’s air tickets are booked for tomorrow!” Robin reminded them.

“No problem. You must come and have a good meal with the crew tonight.”

“Can I have seafood? I’ve been craving seafood for a long time, but I just don’t dare eat too much. I was afraid I’d have stomach problems and it’d delay my work.”

“Hahaha, I’ll be full tonight.”

Although the staff wanted to go back early, it didn’t matter if they just stayed for another day or two. Everyone went to talk about food.

At night, Su Bei finally relaxed. She changed her clothes and appeared in front of everyone.

During the entire filming process, she appeared on set with a foundation that was two shades darker than her skin color. Every time, she wore the same clothes as in the movie. The clothes were the casual and comfortable kind. It had been a long time since she revealed her true appearance.

In fact, this was why many people didn’t like her at all in the beginning. She looked so good in photos online but looked ordinary in person.

There were a few artists in the entertainment industry that belonged to such a category. They were very photogenic. On camera, their facial features looked exquisite and beautiful. However, in real life, these celebrities gave the impression that one would have difficulty spotting them in a crowd.

Therefore, Su Bei had given everyone the impression that her good figure and beautiful face were all the work of good PR.

In truth, she was just an ordinary person.

Although she relied on her acting skills and popularity in the later stages, once everyone’s impression of her was formed, it would be very difficult to change it.

The wrap party that night.

Everyone was busy ordering food. They held cold drinks and chatted about work now that it was over.

“I think we’re two people short?”

“Su Bei and Xiao Bai haven’t come yet. Everyone else is here.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Su Bei hasn’t come yet. Speaking of Su Bei, did you see the two movies released in T Country? Su Bei’s acting skills are really good.”

“I didn’t watch them before this, but I saw them on the computer this time. My God, my impression of her has completely changed. Her acting skills are amazing.”

Everyone chatted casually until two more people appeared beside them.

Only then did everyone turn back to take a closer look.

As Su Bei and Xiao Bai did not stay in the same hotel as everyone else, they came a little late after taking a shower.

When everyone turned around, they were stunned. Who was this tall beauty who could casually wear a white shirt and look so charming?

The person beside her was Xiao Bai. Was she Su Bei?

“Damn!”

“Oh my God!”

“Oh, God!”

Everyone quickly recognized her after looking at her facial features. Who else could it be but Su Bei?

She was wearing a large white shirt that casually hung on her body, making her look natural and elegant. It made her look even more slender and tall.

The hem of her shirt was casually tucked into her shorts. Her straight and slender legs were revealed.

Her skin was fair and translucent, completely at odds with the strong sunshine and sultry heat here. Her facial features were exquisite and beautiful.

This was a million-dollar portrait that had come to life!

Chapter 1156: Exactly Like A Beauty Filter

Everyone’s mouths slowly opened wide.

It was no surprise that they looked as if they hadn’t seen much of the world. Unfortunately, the female actresses in this production weren’t hailed as great beauties, including Su Bei’s character, the second female role of a lawyer, and the third female role as a police officer. They usually wore sloppy clothes or uniforms that made them look strong.

Especially Su Bei. Was there ever a day when she did not arrive wearing dark foundation?

Today, she suddenly revealed her original appearance. It was just like she was using a beauty filter!

The impact was a little too great, making it difficult for the others to breathe!

“Sister Su Bei, you were finally willing to put on makeup today. You look much better after putting on makeup.” Juliet was the fourth female lead who was also the one Robin had introduced. She was supposed to be the female lead, but she was reduced to a fourth lead role. She was convinced by Su Bei’s acting skills, but she still had a little pride in her heart. On the surface, she was praising Su Bei, but in fact, she was hinting that Su Bei was relying on makeup to improve her complexion.

Actually, what she said was not wrong. Female celebrities had to cake on makeup and face harsh lighting every day. Many of them did not have good skin, so there would be a stark contrast in their complexions from when they put on exquisite makeup and when they were bare faced.

When they did not have any makeup on, it was inevitable that they would not look as beautiful.

Seeing that Su Bei was shockingly beautiful, Juliet subconsciously felt that Su Bei had specially dolled herself up today.

When everyone heard this, they all looked at Su Bei’s makeup seriously. God, her makeup was so exquisite that it was indeed enviable.

Xiao Bai was still panting. “Su Bei doesn’t have any makeup on. We came over after taking a shower because we were afraid of being late. Su Bei has no makeup on now.”

When she said that, everyone remembered that artists with a little fame were usually accompanied at all times by at least one assistant and a stylist.

Su Bei had been in the production team for so long, but everyone only saw newbies following her around. She got her makeup done by the makeup artists from the production team, and that was only during filming hours. She had no private makeup artist at all.

“Woot woot...” The men howled. When they looked at Su Bei, their eyes turned green. How did they manage to face such a beautiful lady before this? All of them were had even said she was ordinary?

At this moment, they wished they could take a few more glances to make up for all the losses they had suffered.

The woman from earlier stared at Su Bei covetously and said, “Sister Su Bei, sit with me.”

They all wanted to know how Su Bei did her skincare. They had been filming in T Country for so long. They were exposed to strong sunrays and a high concentration of ultraviolet light. Many of their skin color had darkened by a shade. On the other hand, Su Bei was simply a walking luminescent figure. Not only was she not tanned, but she looked pale.

Su Bei casually found a seat and sat down to chat with everyone.

Xiao Bai thought to herself, ‘No wonder Su Bei had to wear dark foundation at all times. If she met these people with her original appearance from the beginning, would they be able to finish filming a week earlier? They might not even be able to finish filming a week later than the expected date!’

Only Juliet had embarrassed herself. She had wanted to take advantage of the situation using her words, but she only became a stepping stone for Su Bei.

She could only look down and eat without interest.

Like the other actors, Su Bei toasted the creators with a glass of water.

Chapter 1157: Surprise

When she reached Camilan, his eyes followed her as if he had something to tell her.

However, he did not say anything in the end.

Su Bei found it a little strange. She could sense that Camilan cared about her and adored her like an elder. However, when they chatted, he wouldn't say much.

'Maybe he wants to avoid arousing suspicion.'

After all, it was thanks to the lounge's surveillance cameras that the crisis was resolved. If there really were scandals, it would not be good for anyone.

After the wrap party, Su Bei and Xiao Bai took the plane back.

Su Bei deliberately told Lu Heting that her flight was two hours later.

It was because she wanted to surprise him. Hence, she went straight to his office to wait for him.

Su Bei had already changed into her new nightdress. She put on a man's long woolen coat, a baseball cap, and jeans. The weather in S Country was not as hot as in T Country, and it was still chilly. This outfit was just right.

If not for Lu Heting's permission and help, Su Bei would not have been able to film so smoothly.

In particular, she didn't know that it was the territory of Lu Heting's irresponsible father until she arrived in T Country. Only then did she understand that he needed to overcome a lot of his own psychological burden to agree to let her shoot there.

Su Bei remembered all this and understood the compromise he had made because of her.

"Xiao Bai, after you get off the plane, take a taxi home. I'll take my own car back."

"Will you be okay going alone?"

"Of course, there's no problem. Besides, we've announced to the public that our flight is two hours later. I'm sure no reporters or paparazzi will be waiting for me this early."

Xiao Bai nodded excitedly. She had been out for a long time and wanted to go home. She was naturally happy to be given a break by Su Bei.

After getting off the plane, Xiao Bai and Su Bei split up.

However, Su Bei did not expect that there would be quite a lot of reporters present. Fortunately, she had asked Qiao Mei to inform the fan club ahead of time so that the fans would not come to welcome her. Otherwise, there would be many more people present.

Recently, Su Bei had been in the limelight, so the reporters and paparazzi came early to ambush her.

When Su Bei was with Xiao Bai, her long hair was let down, and she looked completely like a woman.

After Xiao Bai left, she put on the coat. The coat could be worn on both sides, and the colors on both sides were completely different. Then, she tied her hair up and put on another cap. Even Xiao Bai probably wouldn't recognize Su Bei.

Under the gazes of the reporters and paparazzi, Su Bei strode through the crowd and quickly got into the car she had arranged for earlier.

"To Lu Group," Su Bei said in a low voice.

The driver in the front seat turned around, and the man's face could be seen clearly. He looked at her lovingly.

"Hubby!" Su Bei was pleasantly surprised. "Why are you here?"

Lu Heting got out of the car, opened the door, and got into the backseat. He called the driver over to drive.

Su Bei was happy to see him for a while, but then she felt a little disappointed. "I was going to go to your office and surprise you. Because of this, I specifically asked my bodyguards not to tell you my whereabouts. It seems that your bodyguards don't listen to me very much."

The bodyguards were in different cars, but they could feel a chill on their backs.

Chapter 1158: Can't Refuse My Wife

However, Lu Heting quickly defended them. "They only listen to you now and don't care what I say."

"Then how did you know about my flight time?"

Su Bei took a look at the nanny van. Lu Heting had picked her up at the right timing.

Lu Heting took out his phone and waved it in front of her. "You contacted me from the taxi application I registered."

"!!!!"

Su Bei suddenly realized that she had booked Lu Heting's car countless times before.

When she just returned from America, she would take this taxi every time.

'So that means...'

Lu Heting didn't intend to hide it from her anymore. He smiled and said, "I registered a taxi application and created a running program. As long as you booked a taxi, the order will come to me."

Therefore, whenever Su Bei booked a taxi to pick her up, Lu Heting would quickly receive the news.

He had to spoil her little surprise. After all, he simply couldn't bring himself to reject his wife on the phone.

"Lu! He! Ting!"

So all the coincidences in the first place had been skillfully planned by him.

Lu Heting rubbed the woman who had rolled into his arms, and his eyebrows relaxed like a spring breeze.

Su Bei rebuked, "Can't I have some privacy?"

Although she said that, sweetness gushed in her heart. She knew that Lu Heting had premeditated some of these matters, but he had always respected her in other matters.

"No." Lu Heting's eyes were dark and his voice was hoarse.

Su Bei met his gaze and followed it down. She saw that her coat was half-exposed. Besides, she had carefully selected the nightdress inside. She had the urge to pounce onto the man immediately.

There was indeed no privacy left...

Su Bei was originally wearing men's clothes, so when the exquisite lacey nightdress was revealed, she looked especially stunning.

The man moved closer and leaned over. His voice was low and charming. "Now, can I open my surprise?"

...

When Su Bei returned, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun also came back.

Accompanying them were Lu Tianci and Lu Yaode.

The father and son had been coveting everything in S Country for a long time. This time, they could not wait to take advantage of Mrs. Lu's imprisonment.

Lu Yaode looked at the vast land of S Country, his eyes reflecting everything on this land. His gaze was filled with determination.

"Dad, we're finally back," Lu Tianci said excitedly.

"It's time for us to be back. Back then, I promised your grandfather that I wouldn't set foot in S Country for 25 years. Now that the time is up, I don't feel any guilt toward anyone." Lu Yaode was relieved.

Back then, he cut off ties with his family in a fit of anger for a beauty and ignored his wife and children. All his thoughts were on Lu Tianci's mother, Tian Xin.

Now, he was finally back with the son he had given birth to with his beloved wife.

Everything in Lu Group should no longer be controlled by Lu Heting alone. Lu Tianci should have a share of everything!

In fact, he didn't even have any feelings for Lu Heting.

After all, how could the son of that woman compare to the life of the woman he loved?

Chapter 1159: Lu Heting Is Ordinary

Lu Yaode thought of Han Qingwan, Lu Heting's biological mother and the real Mrs. Lu of the Lu family. She was a woman who looked soft on the outside but was strong on the inside. She was capable. It was precisely because of this that she did not go easy on him. As the young master of the Lu family back then, it was impossible for him to be subservient to her. That was what caused their relationship to break.

After he met the gentle, understanding, and good-looking Tian Xin, he quickly fell for her. Even though he had a wife and children at home, how could a strong-headed wife and a son who did not know how to please him compare to Tian Xin, who was in the entertainment industry?

The scales in his heart quickly tipped so that there was no longer any fairness.

However, Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu were very traditional people. After knowing this, they insisted on forcing him to break up with Tian Xin.

Not only did Tian Xin not look for him and cry, but she even gently persuaded him to return to his family. She was also willing to give up the child in her stomach.

He had already heard that Tian Xin was pregnant. How could Lu Yaode leave her?

He failed to negotiate with Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu. He did not hesitate to have a falling out with them before proceeding to take away half of his assets and personnel to a foreign country.

Old Master Lu was so angry that he wanted to sever ties with him and even forbade him from stepping into the market of S Country for 25 years.

Thinking of this, Lu Yaode was proud of his actions back then.

As a man, he gave everything up for true love. As a father, he and Tian Xin raised a pair of outstanding children, Lu Tianqing and Lu Tianci. This made him not regret what happened back then at all.

"Dad, they all say that Lu Heting is very capable. I wonder what precautions he has taken this time," Lu Tianci said.

He had specially inquired about Lu Heting in T Country.

In the eyes of outsiders, Lu Heting was very mysterious, but in his heart, Lu Heting was not scary. Every time Lu Yaode mentioned him, he would just say 'that little thief'. Therefore, Lu Tianci had never been afraid of Lu Heting.

Sure enough, Lu Yaode snorted. "The real powerful person in the Lu family is the old man, your grandfather. Han Qingwan is quite capable. As for Lu Heting... he's just so-so. All these years, the old man and Han Qingwan have probably been giving all the credit to that thief."

He had long disliked his overly cold son. Besides, they had not seen each other since Lu Heting was three years old. He did not know much about Lu Heting.

He also firmly believed that Lu Heting would not be of much help to Lu Group's current development.

He had a deep impression of Lu Heting. He always seemed to look at him coldly and indifferently as if he could see through everything.

He was only a three-year-old!

This made him dislike his biological son to no end.

Hearing Lu Yaode's words, Lu Tianci was even more relieved. As long as Lu Heting was easy to deal with, it was only a matter of time before he took down Lu Group.

As for Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu, no matter how much they disliked Lu Yaode and Tian Xin, could they really hate their own grandchildren?

Lu Tianci was obedient and good at pleasing his elders. He had always been confident about this.

As soon as Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci got off the plane, a convoy came to pick them up and send them to the villa that they had already bought.

Chapter 1160: That Young Master

What the father and son were going to do next was visit Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu.

Lu Yaode thought to himself, 'Back then, my parents didn't agree with my and Tianxin's relationship. But Tianqing is so outstanding now and has married a very good man, while Tianci looks dignified at first glance. How can they not like the two children? Old people don't mean what they say. We'll just visit them a few more times.'

The next day, the father and son went to the Lu family's mansion early in the morning.

In the Lu family's mansion.

The mansion, which was usually slightly deserted, was very lively in the past two days. Da Bao and Gun Gun had spend the weekend here. They only left when Su Bei returned.

In the past two days, Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu seemed to have been revitalized. The two of them were no longer dizzy, their legs were light, and they were energetic.

Gun Gun was obedient and sensible, while Da Bao's IQ was so high that the two elders could not close their gaping mouths.

Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu could sit there and watch Da Bao solve questions for the entire day without stopping.

Previously, they had thought that Da Bao's personality was a little cold and he was not considerate enough. But who among the elderly did not like smart children?

Especially Old Master Lu. He twirled his beard and nodded repeatedly. "His IQ is even higher than mine back then."

If Lu Tianci had come a little earlier, he might've had some hope. After all, the two elders had been lonely for a long time and needed the company of juniors.

Unfortunately, they happened to drop by just as Da Bao and Gun Gun were leaving.

Lu Heting and Lu Weijian left one after another.

Old Master Lu was still sitting on the sofa, reminiscing about their interaction. He felt even more satisfied with Su Bei.

Old Madam Lu also lamented, "The student surpasses the master. Our two grandchildren have a bright future ahead of them."

"They have the grace of my youth," Old Master Lu said with satisfaction.

"Speaking of which, Su Bei is quite good-looking. That's why Gun Gun and Da Bao are so cute."

As they spoke, the butler came to report, "Old Master, that young master has returned with the young master."

"What young master? Tell me his name." Old Master Lu did not understand.

In this family, the eldest young master had always been Lu Heting while the second young master was Lu Weijian. The two little masters were naturally Da Bao and Gun Gun.

But back then, Lu Yaode was addressed as Young Master.

The butler had been in the Lu family for a long time, so when he saw Lu Yaode, he did not know if he should address him as Young Master. Hence, the way he addressed him was a little messy.

Only then did the butler say, "Young Master Lu Yaode has returned with his son, Lu Tianci. He said that he wants to visit the two of you."

Hearing the name Lu Yaode, Old Madam Lu was stunned. After all, he was her son. How could her heart not soften?

In the blink of an eye, more than 20 years had passed. The mother and son had been separated for so many years. It would be a lie to say that she didn't think about him.

It was just that the presence of other children had weakened her longing.

When Old Master Lu heard that the unfilial son had returned, he snorted angrily. "Who told him to come back? We're not dead yet, so we don't need him to visit us. Go back and ask him to leave the same way he left back then. He doesn't need to come back anymore."

The butler was also one of the people who knew the details of that year. When he heard this, he bowed in agreement.

Old Madam Lu quickly said, "Don't go yet."

The butler stood still.

Old Master Lu was furious. "What do you mean? Go over there and tell him not to come anymore!"
