

Chapter 1161: Nothing To Like

“Old Man, that’s our son.” Old Madam Lu was soft-hearted.

“Does he know that he’s my son? When he left back then, he took away the manpower and funds. He didn’t want anything for the sake of that vixen he kept outside. Back then, Lu Group was in danger because of his actions. If it weren’t for Qingwan and Heting’s early maturity, would the Lu family still exist today? Why are you still protecting him?!”

Speaking of this, Old Madam Lu was indeed angry. When Lu Yaode left back then, he completely disregarded the life and death of the entire Lu family.

“How about this? Call him in and I’ll scold him in his face!” Old Master Lu was still angry.

Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci stood outside the door. The butler did not return. No one knew what was going on.

Lu Tianci couldn’t stand it anymore. “Dad, how much longer do we have to wait?”

“Just a little longer.”

“Don’t my grandparents want to see me at all?” Lu Tianci thought that he was no worse than Lu Heting. The two elders of the Lu family even doted on Lu Weijian. How could they not like him?

He had no idea how badly Lu Yaode had hurt the two elderly when he left.

Lu Yaode usually wouldn’t expose his shortcomings. He would only brag about his achievements. How could the children of the younger generation understand the actual situation back then?

Lu Yaode knew that his parents would not forgive him easily, but if they had not suppressed Tian Xin too much back then, he would not have disobeyed them.

Besides, it had been more than 20 years. What grudge could not be resolved?

.....

As he was thinking, he saw the butler return.

Lu Tianci was delighted.

The butler came to their side and said, “The old master invites you in.”

Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci looked at each other. They both knew that in the end, the old man still couldn’t ignore his bloodline.

Lu Yaode walked along the corridor. He was very familiar with everything here, but there were also many details that had been completely changed. The place looked unfamiliar to him.

When he reached the living room and saw the two elderly's graying hair and old faces, Lu Yaode's heart softened for a moment. After his heart softened, he thought about how his parents were old and had left behind the huge Lu Group. Even if they didn't give it to him, Lu Tianci should have a share.

As he thought about it, his tone softened. "Mom, Dad."

Old Madam Lu wanted to respond, but seeing Old Master Lu's stern face, she did not respond. Her heart still softened in the end and she said, "Take a seat first."

Lu Yaode said to Lu Tianci, "Tianci, hurry up and thank Grandpa and Grandma."

"Thank you, Grandpa and Grandma." Lu Tianci immediately brought out the gift. "Grandpa and Grandma, this is a product I specially brought from overseas. It's very good for your health. I hope the two of you can be healthy and live a long life."

Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu were indeed a little moved when they looked at him.

Lu Tianci thought that he was quite good at interacting with the elderly and making them happy, so he said a lot of nice things.

Old Master Lu looked less upset now.

However, after taking a closer look at Lu Tianci, there was nothing about him to like.

The Lu family was all good-looking. Lu Heting and his two children were outstanding as well.

Lu Weijian wasn't bad-looking either. He was the kind of person who could debut in the center position of a group.

Lu Tianci's appearance could not be said to be ugly, his outward appearance was somewhat ordinary.

Even so, the comparison meant nothing.

Chapter 1162: Morose

People feared comparisons.

Lu Tianci's appearance alone made him qualified.

However, he was far inferior to Lu Heting and the others.

Moreover, Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu had never seen him before and did not have much feelings for him. Now that he was suddenly standing in front of them, it was indeed impossible to arouse the old man's fondness.

Old Master Lu picked up his teacup and said, "You don't have to come here often in the future. Despite your efforts, Lu Group hasn't closed down yet."

"I was young and ignorant back then," Lu Yaode admitted his mistake.

The mistake he made back then had not only hurt Lu Heting and his mother but also implicated the tens of thousands of employees of Lu Group. They were not paid for months and had no money to support their families.

At that time, the entire Lu Group was almost defeated.

Old Master Lu slammed his teacup on the table. "You were young? You never thought about how your three-year-old son lived at that time! Did you ever wonder how the Lu family got through at that time?!"

Old Madam Lu could not bear to see how aged her son had become, but she did not interrupt.

"Everything is fine in the Lu family now. You don't have to come back. Go and live your carefree life! The Lu family doesn't need anyone to manage them. Butler, send the guests off!" After Old Master Lu finished speaking angrily, his anger subsided a little. He didn't want to see them anymore.

Lu Yaode was about to say something when the butler stepped forward.

Lu Tianci frowned slightly, but it was not appropriate to say anything under such circumstances.

Neither father nor son was in the best of moods when they were together in the same space.

Lu Heting soon received the news.

The entire Lu family was relying on Lu Heting. Even if he didn't say anything, someone would naturally report the news to him.

Lu Heting pinched the space between his eyebrows. He didn't think much of this pair of father and son.

Especially Lu Yaode. He had never acknowledged such a father.

He had seen him cheat with his own eyes and had never enjoyed his father's care and gentleness. He was raised to rely on himself for everything.

It didn't matter if Lu Yaode was there or not.

As for whether Lu Yaode was here to snatch everything, Lu Heting didn't care.

'Haven't we had enough people trying to rob Lu Group over the years?'

After Su Bei's scenes were wrapped up, she did not publicize the news. The follow-up production and editing of Mother fell into the hands of Camilan's team. Everything was carried out methodically.

On the other hand, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun were especially high-profile when they returned to the country. Not only did they arrange for reporters to pick them up, but their fans also flooded the airport that day.

Soon, Su Bei received an invitation from Tang Yue.

She glanced at it and knew what Tang Yue was thinking.

Actually, she had never understood why Tang Yue had to go against her. She had not rejoined the Tang family and did not care about anything related to the Tang family.

However, every time Tang Yue made a big move, she still insisted on sending her an invitation.

This time, Tang Yue's big move was about Lu Tianci.

After Lu Yaode and his son visited the two elders of the Lu family, they started various business activities in S Country.

They did not mind if the two elders of the Lu family forgave them or not. Visiting was basic etiquette. They would still have to rely on themselves for their future development and the fight for Lu Group's assets.

Chapter 1163: A Good Opportunity

Tianyi Media, which Lu Tianci had invested in, had already officially opened in S Country.

The artists he signed were Sheng Xiaotang, the daughter of a wealthy family, Jia Shiyun, who was abandoned by Di Xing Media Company, and various other artists.

Currently, his cooperation with Sheng Xiaotang was the closest.

Sheng Xiaotang was one of Tang Yue's best friends, so Lu Tianci naturally had to build a good relationship with the wealthy families in the capital.

Therefore, the banquet hosted by Sheng Xiaotang and assisted by Tang Yue became a grand occasion in the capital.

Since it was a grand occasion, Tang Yue had to let Su Bei witness it with her own eyes.

The return of Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci evoked the memories of many of the older generation in the capital.

"Lu Yaode? He was quite capable when he was young. Moreover, he was the head of Lu Group and took over Old Master Lu's mantle. At that time, we were all ashamed to be compared to him. I just don't know what happened. He went overseas for many years," Tang Jianming said. "I really didn't expect him to come back now."

Tang Yue was especially interested in these things and immediately asked, "So, Lu Yaode came back this time to inherit Lu Group?"

"That's hard to say. Isn't Mr. Lu in charge of Lu Group now?"

"I've already gotten someone to check it out. Mr. Lu is just Lu Yaode's son. Moreover, I heard that Mr. Lu's achievements were completely supported by Old Master Lu's ability. Dad, the Lu family will definitely be in Lu Yaode's and Lu Tianci's hands in the future," Tang Yue said without hesitation.

“You’re right to analyze it that way.” Tang Jianming didn’t know what had happened to the Lu family back then, but he still approved of Lu Yaode’s ability. “Lu Yaode obviously likes Lu Tianci more. As for the current head of the Lu family... They say he’s a young fellow whom everyone calls Mr. Lu. That’s just all for show. It seems that Old Master Lu has indeed been supporting the Lu family all these years. The youths are just so-so.”

It was not surprising for them to think so. Lu Heting had always kept a low profile. When he first managed Lu Group, he was only in his teens and could not convince the public.

Because of this, many of his constructive opinions and solutions were implemented in the name of Old Master Lu.

This situation continued until Lu Heting was in his early 20s. That was when he had completely suppressed everyone. Only then did he really act in his own name.

Naturally, the outside world did not know much about him.

Now that Lu Yaode had returned with Lu Tianci, the situation was naturally biased toward him.

Tang Yue smiled even more. “This time, Xiaotang has returned and has a deep cooperation with Lu Tianci. She’s also willing to help us. I think this is a good opportunity.”

Tang Jianming did not have any objections. When he was young, he listened to his father. When he was old, he listened to his daughter. It was a life of luxury.

Why did Tang Yue invite Su Bei? Su Bei had a good relationship with Lu Weijian before this, so she wanted to show off that she had a good relationship with Lu Tianci.

Even Mr. Lu was nothing in the face of Lu Tianci, let alone an outsider like Lu Weijian.

Only Lu Tianci was the true chosen one. He was the future of Lu Group and the person most worthy of putting in the effort!

‘Su Bei, you’ve lost again.’

Chapter 1164: Mistake In Judgment

That was what Tang Jianming and Tang Yue thought of Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci.

Almost half of S Country thought the same. The public thought to themselves, ‘Since Lu Yaode brought Lu Tianci back, the head of Lu Group will definitely be replaced in the future. The previous one only survived for so many years because of Old Master Lu. I’m afraid he won’t be able to hold on anymore.’

Therefore, a few days after Lu Yaode and his son returned, there were already countless people coming to befriend them.

This news made Old Master Lu so angry that he laughed. He slammed the newspaper on the table. “Ridiculous! I didn’t expect that after going to T Country for so many years, he hasn’t improved much. Instead, he has learned more about vanity. Why isn’t he like Heting at all?!”

Others might not know, but how could Old Master Lu not know how he had enjoyed life at home all these years?

Ever since Lu Heting was a teenager, the old master had not spent any effort on the company. Lu Heting had arranged everything properly. Lu Group also successfully walked out of the storm caused by Lu Yaode back then and rose again to become what it was now.

What had the outside world become?

“Heting, why don’t we just clarify things and let people know that you’ve been handling Lu Group’s official matters for so many years?” Old Master Lu really didn’t want to see his favorite grandson suffer.

“Grandpa, why bother with the discussions of those people? It’s their business what they want to say and do. Why should we interfere?” Lu Heting’s voice was as calm as ever.

When Old Master Lu heard this, he laughed and said, “You’re right. Now is the time to test their judgment. Why should we show meddle?”

Sure enough, Lu Heting was the one who won his heart the most. After the old man hung up the phone, his mood became better.

Sheng Xiaotang and Tang Yue’s cocktail party started as scheduled.

Although it was called a cocktail party, it was actually a grand meeting of the business world.

The Sheng and Tang families attached great importance to Lu Tianci’s appearance this time. They did not care about manpower, material, and financial resources. They just had to hold this meeting well.

Sheng Xiaotang and Tang Yue stood together with red wine in their hands. Their hearts were filled with countless thoughts about the future.

Originally, they could only be considered ordinary among the wealthy families in Jingdu City. It was undoubtedly a dream for them to have business dealings with Lu Group.

But this time, with Lu Tianci, everything was different.

Lu Tianci was the future of the Lu family and Lu Group, as well as the future leader of Lu Group. With Lu Tianci, everything would be completely different.

Many people from the business world had already come over. The rumors about Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci were also abuzz. On the one hand, the public had no choice but to believe the rumors. They felt that Mr. Lu might only be so ‘outstanding’ because of Old Master Lu.

On the other hand, they were people who believed in anything. In such chaos, no one could open their eyes. They could only fumble around and not give up, afraid that they would make a mistake.

The more Lu Heting didn’t say anything publicly and pretended that nothing was going on, the more these people were like headless flies. They could only bump into each other without daring to blatantly suppress one side.

Of course, those people who had completely placed their hopes on Lu Tianci were those who had nothing to do with Lu Heting and would never be favored by him.

Chapter 1165: The Future Is Promising

Currently, Tang Yue and Sheng Xiaotang were the leaders of this group.

On this night, even Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian came to the cocktail party.

Sheng Xiaotang's parents had also come early in the morning. It was obvious that they valued Lu Tianci very much.

"Xiao Tang, is everyone here?" Sheng Xiaotang's father asked with concern. He was very satisfied with his daughter. He had worked hard all his life but had never been able to establish a business relationship with Lu Group. He did not expect Sheng Xiaotang to obtain a chance through her career in the entertainment industry.

Initially, he had been very against his daughter entering the entertainment industry. Now, he did not object. Instead, he was satisfied.

"Everyone is here. Everyone who received an invitation has come." Sheng Xiaotang was very satisfied. "There are also many people who didn't receive an invitation here. I can tell that the outside world really thinks highly of Lu Tianci."

Mr. Sheng nodded. "You must treat him well later."

"I know, Dad. Uncle and Aunt Tang are also there. Let's go over first."

When Tang Jianming saw Mr. Sheng, he couldn't help but praise, "Old Sheng, your daughter is so capable. Speaking of which, your daughter is the first family member at our level to come into contact with someone at the core of the Lu family. Moreover, I heard that Mr. Lu has a very thorough plan for her career. The Sheng family's future is promising."

"Uncle Tang, you flatter me." Sheng Xiaotang smiled brightly but humbly.

"Children can't be praised excessively. Old Tang, don't praise her too much. Actually, Tang Yue isn't bad either. I heard that if Tang Yue hadn't proposed a series of business plans, Mr. Lu wouldn't have given her so much face and attended this business event. At the end of the day, your Tang Yue is also a powerful woman."

"Hahaha, you flatter me."

Both parties praised each other for a while. Clearly, they were in a very good mood because they could work with Lu Tianci.

.....

Sheng Xiaotang smiled and said, "Uncle Tang, Dad, I'll excuse myself for a while to receive some guests."

"Go on."

Sheng Xiaotang blended into the crowd. With her beauty and aura as a female celebrity, as well as her perfect business acumen, she was like a fish in water.

Tang Yue was just like her. She had the demeanor of a socialite.

When Su Bei came in, she looked much more ordinary.

Su Bei was too lazy to come to such an occasion. After all, Tang Yue just wanted her to be here so that she could be a foil.

However, because Lu Tianci would be here as well, she wanted to see what was going on.

Seeing the crowd coming and going, Su Bei smiled slightly.

Her ears were filled with praises for Lu Tianci. Su Bei couldn't help but sneer. Speaking of which, she had seen how low Lu Tianci's methods were. She knew that this man was not presentable, and compared to Lu Heting, they were worlds apart.

However, so many people treated him like a treasure?

Su Bei felt that this joke needed to be shared.

After telling this joke to Lu Heting, she immediately sent it to Lu Weijian.

[F*ck! These people are really going to support Lu Tianci? Do they know who's behind Lu Group? Do they know who went all out to save Lu Group at the age of 12? These people are blind! They're actually going to support Lu Tianci?! I'm really furious!]

Lu Weijian sent an emoticon, then recalled his brother's gaze and quickly retracted it.

Chapter 1166: It Depends On Who You Compete With

??

Su Bei nearly fell over laughing.

After laughing, she heard a commotion in front of her. She looked up and saw that everyone had taken the initiative to make way for someone.

The person who came was Lu Tianci.

He was quite tall and good-looking. He had a graceful bearing and was considered outstanding among the young talents.

He had probably inherited Lu Yaode and Tian Xin's good looks. He was very presentable.

However, that also depended on who he was competing with.

Among this group of people, he was naturally not inferior to anyone.

However, Su Bei pursed her lips slightly. If one were to make comparisons within the Lu family... he wouldn't even be qualified to carry Lu Heting's shoes.

Lu Tianci naturally attracted the attention of all the women present.

Sheng Xiaotang and Tang Yue were also among the crowd. They smiled and went forward.

It had to be said that Tang Yue had always been a woman who never valued relationships between men and women much. Perhaps in her heart, power and her parents' love were even more important. Therefore, when facing Lu Tianci, she did not have any gender difference at all. She was as frank as if she was facing a female friend. Or rather, it was not a problem for Lu Tianci to treat her as a brother.

Therefore, this was probably one of the important reasons why Sheng Xiaotang was confident enough to introduce Lu Tianci to her.

Standing beside Lu Tianci, Sheng Xiaotang reached out and gently held his arm. Their intimacy was obvious.

Everyone knew that the Sheng family had really climbed up the social ladder this time.

Sheng Xiaotang and Tang Yue introduced Lu Tianci to everyone and said with a smile, "This is Mr. Lu of Lu Group and CEO Lu's biological son."

CEO Lu was naturally referring to Lu Yaode.

Some of the older people immediately thought of Lu Yaode. When he was young, he was considered an influential figure in the capital. Under his leadership, Lu Group was not as low-key as it was now. Instead, it was high-profile and did well in the capital.

Immediately, everyone understood that Lu Group would probably return to Lu Yaode, who was now in his prime.

And Lu Tianci, Mr. Lu, became the target of everyone.

"Mr. Lu, it's my honor to see your face today."

"Mr. Lu, please guide me in the future."

"Mr. Lu, you're young and promising. Lu Group certainly has a promising future."

"With Mr. Lu around, Lu Group will definitely improve!"

Everyone started flattering him. As for that low-key Mr. Lu, they couldn't even see him even if they wanted to. Didn't that mean that they could only try to curry favor with Lu Tianci?

When everyone gathered around, Su Bei stood alone in the outer circle, which made her stand out.

Lin Shulian took a few steps forward and said with a smile, "Su Bei, why don't you go over? Mr. Lu has come back this time. He'll be staying in the capital in the future. It'll be helpful for your future if you interact more with him."

"Isn't Sister interacting with him? If she gains a good opportunity, I naturally have get to reap the benefits too."

Lin Shulian smiled and said, "That's true. Your sister is indeed on good terms with Mr. Lu. Su Bei, I'm relieved to see that you two are doing well."

Lin Shulian was always so gentle. She showed no obvious bias toward her two daughters. Compared to Tang Yue, she was considered a completely different person.

Chapter 1167: He Should Be Proud

However, even though she knew that the person standing in front of her was her biological mother, Su Bei still... couldn't feel close to her.

Despite her disappearance back then having nothing to do with her mother, perhaps the past 20 years of separation had made her used to living without her mother.

Su Bei's expression was indifferent. There was no way she could force herself.

Lin Shulian could tell this too. She stopped forcing it and said, "Then I'll go over there. You can stay here for a while."

As soon as Lin Shulian left, Tang Yue walked over. Even in high heels, she was barely at the same height as Su Bei, who was wearing flat shoes. She was holding a glass of red wine in her fingers, and a smile appeared on her lips, which were covered in bright lipstick.

"Su Bei, you're here?" Tang Yue raised her neck high, revealing her beautiful curves.

"Yes," Su Bei said softly.

Tang Yue smiled. "Do you want to meet Mr. Lu? Shall I introduce you to him?"

She certainly didn't mean what she said.

She just wanted to show off.

Su Bei smiled and said, "Of course, that sounds good. But I have something to do, so I'll take my leave first. Goodbye."

Watching Su Bei leave, Tang Yue laughed. Sheng Xiaotang walked over and asked with a smile, "What are you so happy about?"

She raised her chin in the direction Su Bei had gone.

Sheng Xiaotang also laughed. "She left just like that? That's true. She knows that even if she stays here, she won't be able to get Mr. Lu's favor. If she leaves early, she can still save some face. It's also a wise move."

"Su Bei can't do anything else, but she's indeed second to none when it comes to protecting her image," Tang Yue agreed.

After Su Bei came out, she glanced at Lu Heting's message.

On the other hand, Lu Weijian had been asking her about Lu Tianci's situation.

She replied casually: [There's nothing to see. I'm already out.]

[Lu Tianci is very arrogant, right?]

Su Bei said: [That's only natural. Everyone is surrounding him and flattering him. The scene is very lively and grand.]

However, no matter how lively it was, the gap between him and Lu Heting was as big as the Milky Way.

Lu Weijian replied: [Then I won't talk to you anymore. I still have some tasks to handle for my big brother.]

[What are you so busy with?]

[Rare metal-trading stuff between several countries. The smaller neighboring countries want to do business with my big brother. I went on his behalf.]

Lu Weijian went offline after replying.

"..." Su Bei thought for a while. No wonder Lu Heting was so busy tonight that he didn't even have time to reply to his messages.

Since she had nothing to do, she decided to go to Lu Group to wait for Lu Heting to get off work.

When she arrived at Lu Group, the lights on the top floor were indeed still on. The entire lobby on the first floor was also brightly lit, but there were not many people. The other employees had probably already gotten off work.

She put on her hat and pulled the brim down. She decided to wait on the first floor. Since Lu Heting was busy, she wouldn't disturb him on the top floor.

Just as she sat down for a while, she saw several cars parking outside Lu Group's entrance. The license plates of these cars... Su Bei glanced at them. They all seemed to have foreign license plates.

Recalling how Lu Weijian said that some neighboring countries wanted to discuss business with Lu Heting, Su Bei didn't find it strange. She would just continue waiting.

Chapter 1168: Filled With Charm

Before she sat down, a group of well-dressed foreign-looking bodyguards hurried toward Su Bei and said stiffly, "We're clearing the area. You can't stay here."

"Okay, I'll leave now." Su Bei didn't think there was anything wrong with the other party's attitude. She had come uninvited, after all. Besides, the foreign license plates outside did look quite grand.

Her original intention was not to cause trouble for Lu Heting.

Just as she got up, Lu Hang ran over and exchanged a few words with the foreign bodyguards before they left.

"I'm sorry, Assistant Lu. I didn't expect this to happen tonight. I'll leave now." Su Bei smiled.

Lu Hang was originally afraid that Su Bei would be angry, but he did not expect her to be so reasonable. He hurriedly said, "I'm really sorry, Young Madam. The people Mr. Lu is meeting tonight are all presidents of other countries, so security is stricter than usual. I'm really sorry."

“Oh, the presidents?” Su Bei was really surprised by the title.

“Yes, these are presidents of Sri Lanka, Indonesia, and Australia. They’re talking to Mr. Lu about the cooperation of rare metals. Because it concerns the development of those countries, the countries’ top leaders came personally.” Because he knew Su Bei’s identity, Lu Hang had no intention of hiding it and told her directly.

Su Bei was speechless. “Then I’ll leave now. I won’t stay here to cause trouble.”

Even if she didn’t have any common sense, she knew that when people of this level appeared, they indeed had to clear the area in advance. The security measures would also be abnormally good. It was indeed a little rude for her to come over without permission tonight. No wonder the bodyguards just now all had stern expressions as if they were facing a great enemy.

“Okay, then I’ll arrange for a car to take you back immediately.”

“No need. I drove myself.” Su Bei waved the car keys.

“Then I’ll send you to the parking lot.” Lu Hang accompanied her out.

When she went out, Su Bei saw Lu Heting walking over with a few leaders. In front of those people whose status was far higher than those in the business world, he was neither servile nor overbearing. He was talking fluently and looked very professional.

Because of his professionalism, he looked even more handsome than usual. His entire body was filled with charm.

Su Bei couldn’t help but look at him a few more times. Once she thought of the fact that he was her husband and her man, she felt completely satisfied and proud.

Speaking of which, the people Lu Heting was meeting were the presidents of countries, while the people Lu Tianci was meeting were just Sheng Xiaotang and Tang Yue. Where did he get the confidence to think he could defeat Lu Heting?

“Let’s go,” Su Bei said to Lu Hang.

Since Lu Heting didn’t arrange for her to come over, it meant that he didn’t need her at the venue tonight. She shouldn’t have taken the initiative to appear. It wouldn’t be good to cause trouble for Lu Heting at such a big occasion.

Su Bei was about to turn around when Lu Heting saw her. His eyes swept past her, and his serious expression relaxed. It was as if a spring breeze had swept through the place, and spring was coming.

“Su Bei!” Lu Heting stopped her.

Su Bei’s heart skipped a beat. Oh no, Lu Heting had seen her. She wondered if it would affect his work.

Chapter 1169: Wife’s Praise

She flashed a smile and whispered, "Sorry. I didn't know there was such a formal occasion going on here. I'll be on my way."

"Sorry for what?" Lu Heting put his arm around her waist. "Since you're here, meet the guests with me."

Lu Heting held her hand and went straight to the big shots. He introduced Su Bei to them. "This is my wife."

Those people were all very distinguished people. When they saw Su Bei, their eyes flashed with surprise. They greeted her in a very official and polite tone.

Because the meeting was not long, Lu Heting asked Su Bei to stay with him.

Su Bei felt like she was in a dream. Weren't these the people she often saw on the international news? It was hard to imagine that she was sitting opposite them now.

Fortunately, she had never been afraid of any big occasions. She was well-mannered and could speak fluent English. Under such circumstances, she could easily make it through.

However, after Lu Heting sent these people off, her palms were still sweating nervously.

After sending off the guests, Lu Heting turned around to look at her. Su Bei was still a little confused because she didn't really understand the technical terms and the cooperation plans that were discussed.

"Wake up." Lu Heting laughed and waved his long fingers in front of her.

"Did I affect your work by being here tonight?"

"If that was the case, I would've gotten Lu Hang to send you back long ago."

"I thought you were working late, so I was going to pick you up and go home together. I wasn't expecting these people to be here."

Lu Heting smiled. "Then let's go home. You can attend any event with me. I just didn't bring you here because I was afraid that you'd be bored. You came at the right time today. You were able to accompany me tonight."

"So it really didn't affect you?"

"Don't you know that even those big shots bring their wives to events?" Lu Heting raised his eyebrows slightly.

Su Bei remembered what had happened tonight. It was like a dream.

Thinking of Lu Tianci, who was surrounded by some third-rate businessmen and still looked so arrogant, she looked at the man in front of her and said sincerely, "Lu Heting, you're so handsome."

"Thank you, Mrs. Lu." Lu Heting accepted his wife's praise.

That night, Lu Tianci's news occupied several sections of the financial news, business news, and entertainment news. The media praised Lu Tianci as the role model of the younger generation of businessmen.

Moreover, there was also news that Lu Tianci would focus on developing in S Country in the future.

In particular, it was emphasized that the current Lu Group was actually completely run by the old master. As the leader of the Lu family's third generation, Lu Tianci was about to take over the old master's mantle and manage the entire Lu Group. In the future, they would work together to develop in different industries such as entertainment, live-stream, esports, online games, and other emerging industries.

This news did cause a lot of discussion.

Because Lu Tianci's looks were outstanding and he was only slightly inferior to Lu Weijian, he even attracted a large number of young people who had no interest in the business world and who didn't understand the logic behind it. They became his crazy fans.

[What kind of peerless beauty is this? He's even the leader of the third generation of Lu Group. I'm a fan!]

[I approve of such a man!]

[Wait, isn't the current Mr. Lu at the helm of Lu Group?]

Chapter 1170: Admire His Ability

[Previous commenter, the news made it very clear that Lu Group has been relying on Old Master Lu's support all these years to stand tall. That Mr. Lu is probably just a cover. Compared to this Mr. Lu, he's not even worthy of carrying his shoes.]

[That's true. I also heard that Old Master Lu was a powerful figure when he was young. In that case, Lu Tianci will become the head of Lu Group in the future, then? Will he become the richest man in S Country among the younger generation?]

[In the past, the richest man was old enough to be our father. Now, he can be my husband!]

[He's mine!]

[He's mine!]

[I can't hide it any longer. I'll have to show my marriage certificate to my husband.]

Lu Tianci was satisfied with the praises on the internet.

In the past few years, he had been developing in T Country. Although he was quite accomplished, he was still overseas. It was inevitable that the people there felt a natural sense of rejection toward outsiders like him.

Even if the locals admired him and Lu Yaode, it was impossible for them to flatter him so much.

As soon as he returned, he received so much praise. Lu Tianci was really overjoyed by this early success.

“Dad, we were the ones who released the news last night. I wonder what Grandpa will say when he sees it?” This was the only thing that made Lu Tianci nervous.

If Old Master Lu stepped out to refute what the news said, his reputation would undoubtedly be greatly reduced.

“I don’t think your grandfather will say anything. You and Heting are both his grandchildren. Heting’s ability is not good. Grandpa doesn’t like you yet, but after a long time, he’ll have to admire your ability. Otherwise, the Lu family’s huge business will be handed over to others,” Lu Yaode said confidently.

.....

All his confidence came from his and his son’s abilities, as well as his firm belief that Lu Heting was useless.

He liked to show off, and so did Lu Tianci. Therefore, he thought everyone was like them. If others were accomplished, they would definitely lay it all out.

All these years, Lu Heting had never said anything in public, nor had he ever shown off his achievements. From this, it could be inferred that the person who brought about these achievements was Old Master Lu.

Lu Tianci also believed this. “Then let’s wait for Grandpa’s opinion.”

Two days passed.

Not only did Old Master Lu not make any public comments, but he did not even look for them in private to say anything.

Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci were even more convinced of their speculation. They got more confident about returning to the country to develop.

It was not that Old Master Lu did not want to say anything. After watching the news, he was silent for a long time before saying, “Fortunately, Heting takes after me.”

If he had taken after Lu Yaode and constantly showed off his achievements, how could Lu Group improve?

The old master had not been in charge for many years, so he naturally would not discuss anything openly.

Old Master Lu’s only certainty was that Lu Heting would handle everything well. Lu Group would definitely be safe in his hands.

Without Old Master Lu’s rebuttal, Lu Tianci felt that Old Master Lu had tacitly agreed that he could return to fight for the family assets.

However, if he wanted to compete for the family assets, he had to show others his strength.

His entertainment company in T Country had always been doing well, so he only needed to replicate his methods in S Country to achieve success.

His previous fields were mainly in the emerging industries such as entertainment, live-streaming, esports, online gaming, and so on. All of them were industries that could easily attract fans and make a lot of money.
