

Chapter 1171: Can You Keep Up?

Especially online games... The most popular online game in the country had a daily top-up of hundreds of millions of yuan.

Just by producing a set of skin each time, tens of millions of sets could be sold. And these costs, excluding the development costs in the early stages, were almost negligible in the face of such huge profits.

He checked and found that the best person in this field in the country was Lu Weijian.

Hence, he would start with Lu Weijian and use the way of the entertainment industry to gain popularity. In this way, he could go into the live-stream, esports, IP development, and other downstream industries.

At home, Su Bei was playing games with Da Bao when a notification popped up on Weibo. 'Tianyi Media's TG Team wants to challenge Lu Weijian's JJ Team?'

"Don't be distracted, Su Bei," Da Bao reminded Su Bei at the critical moment of the game.

Su Bei quickly returned to the game and cooperated with Da Bao to kill the last enemy before opening the news.

The news said, 'As TG team has always been developing in T Country, they have had a good record in T Country over the years. This time, they openly challenged Team JJ. Will Team JJ, who has won an international championship, accept the challenge? Moreover, it's reported that this challenge will be witnessed by Coconut Live and Tianyi Media. There'll also be female artistes who we're familiar with, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun, participating as guests. They'll become popular before the battle. Let's wait and see what the future holds.'

"Who is this person?" Da Bao asked, scanning the news.

"A little thief wants to step on your Uncle Lu Weijian to get to the top." How could Su Bei not understand what Lu Tianci wanted to do?

Lu Heting's businesses were things that Lu Tianci couldn't touch at the moment. Of course, in Lu Tianci's heart, the reason why he couldn't do it was because he didn't have his grandfather's support.

What he was involved in was Lu Weijian's field. Lu Tianci naturally wanted to start with Lu Weijian and launch the first shot to enter S Country and snatch Lu Group's businesses.

"Will Uncle accept the challenge?"

.....

"I'll ask."

Su Bei immediately asked in the WeChat group.

Lu Weijian replied immediately: [Of course. He'll step on me no matter what. Why don't I agree and let him suffer a crushing defeat as he wishes!]

Lu Weijian was quite confident.

[How ambitious!] Su Bei replied with a few thumbs up.

[It's not that I'm ambitious, but I have Da Bao!] Lu Weijian replied with a few laughing emojis.

Su Bei was speechless.

Su Bei said: [Da Bao has to study. He's not participating.]

[Got it, Sister Bei Bei.] Lu Weijian agreed quickly, but he was plotting in his heart. It was fine if he could win, but if he really couldn't, he would definitely use his trump card, Da Bao!

Da Bao glanced at Su Bei's message calmly. He believed that Lu Weijian could crush ordinary people, but if someone was thinking of bullying Lu Weijian, they would have to get his permission first!

"Da Bao, you have to go to school, right? Are there many questions in the junior high school syllabus? Are they difficult? Can you keep up?"

"It's okay." Da Bao thought for a moment. With the number of questions in the junior high school Mathematical Olympiad, he could do 20 sets of papers a day and still have time to play games. That counted as keeping up, right?

Su Bei flipped through his homework and was relieved to see an entire row of A+s. She had been worried that it would be too difficult for him to skip grades, but now it seemed that... with so many A+s, he still had time to play games. He shouldn't be doing too bad.

Chapter 1172: Betting Away

On the internet, Lu Weijian accepted the challenge. [Team battle or individual battle, you choose!]

Lu Tianci replied: [Everything. Is that alright?]

[Okay!] Lu Weijian made the decision and rang the battle bell.

On the internet, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun had already started to warm up. They had posted a few videos of themselves playing games on Weibo, and they were quite good at it, causing their fans to praise them non-stop.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun were both pure and innocent. They had a lot of homebody fans. As expected, the videos of them gaming had already attracted many such fans.

Moreover, otakus were the ones who liked to play games the most. They were also the ones with the highest spending power. If they could convert their enthusiasm into games, live broadcasts, and future IP adaptation movies, Lu Tianci's career in S Country would be completely and thoroughly revived.

Coupled with his experience in T Country, he believed that when the time came, Old Master Lu would definitely see his ability and acknowledge it. From there, the old master would consider handing over Lu Group to him.

He and Lu Yaode had been in T Country for more than 20 years. They did not know that Lu Heting's business chain had already reached the crucial economic industries such as aviation, rare materials, military, and future technology.

The reason why Lu Weijian played games and live-streamed was partly because of his hobby, and partly because it was an industry that Lu Heting... had no time for and couldn't be bothered to get involved in.

A hundred million a day for games? What was the turnover for military and future technology?

Tens of millions of sales for a set of game skins? How could money and sales account for the advancement and research of human civilization by the development of cutting-edge technology?

After Lu Weijian accepted the challenge, more and more people were waiting to watch a good show.

Lu Weijian's Team JJ had always been very professional. Last year, when they were overseas, the scene of them defeating the opponent to win glory for their country was still vivid in their minds.

.....

In the eyes of professionals, they were very good.

In terms of fans, Lu Tianci had indeed gained a lot of fans recently because of his strong presence.

On the other hand, TG Team's results were not bad. They were completely invincible in T Country. They had also won an international championship a few years ago, so they had many loyal fans.

If the two sides really fought against each other, it would be too interesting!

Lu Weijian had a lot of fans. When they learned that he had accepted the challenge, they were all excited.

[Is Mr. Weijian going to do it himself?]

[I beg you to do it yourself. I can watch 800 episodes of you playing.]

[I think Mr. Weijian is more handsome. I support Lu Weijian. There, I've said it!]

[I'm tired of Lu Weijian. Lu Tianci looks better!]

[I vote for Lu Weijian!]

[I vote for Lu Tianci!]

[I'll bet on it. I'll bet on it.]

Team JJ and Team TG's battle mode was best of three.

In the first two weeks, both sides fought and won once. In other words, the real deciding game was in the third round.

The third round was going to be live. The two teams would meet in a third-party arena to decide the winner.

For this duel, Lu Tianci had been constantly urging Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun to hype things up for him.

Live broadcasts and videos were the most profitable media platforms in the past two years. Coincidentally, Lu Weijian was also the best in this field. His live broadcast and video platform focused on esports and online games. It was already at the forefront of the industry.

Chapter 1173: Disdain The Enemy

Now that Lu Tianci wanted a share, wouldn't he be sucking Lu Weijian's blood?

Lu Heting asked him, "How's the matter with Lu Tianci?"

"Everything went smoothly! If I can't even handle a mere Lu Tianci, how can I still have the cheek to be your younger brother? Don't worry, if there's a problem, I'll look for you for help. I hope you can help me when the time comes."

Lu Weijian was still counting on Da Bao to help him when the time came, so he had a way out.

Lu Heting didn't say anything and just nodded. Indeed, he didn't need to do anything to Lu Tianci.

Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun's various promotions had indeed played a huge role in boosting TG Team's and Lu Tianci's name in the industry.

Even many netizens couldn't help but say: [In order to see the beautiful ladies, I'll definitely download the Coconut Live and broadcast the game live!]

[If Xiaotang is a loyal user of Coconut Live, I'll use it too!]

[For Shiyun, I'll risk it! I even downloaded Coconut Live on my parents' phones. Beautiful woman, come on!]

In order to thank their fans, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun even arranged a few live broadcasts on the two apps, Coconut Video and Coconut Live, which attracted countless people to watch.

Just before the team battle between Lu Tianci and Lu Weijian, there was a one-on-one PK.

A one-on-one PK was a one-on-one battle between two parties.

There was no special rule on who the player should choose. It was up to fate whether they chose a member or sought external help.

Lu Tianci placed high importance on this one-on-one PK, so he spent a lot of money early on to choose a top player in the United States who claimed to be the fastest and had never lost.

The contestant's name was arrogant. He called himself 'Quick-Handed Trash'. The name said something about him and revealed his contempt for his enemy.

His real name was Huo Zhong.

That was right. It was the young male actor, Huo Zhong, who had filmed Mother with Su Bei previously.

Huo Zhong originally did not agree to Lu Tianci's invitation to participate in this individual competition. He had no interest in the competition and did not like to participate in commercial competition.

However, Lu Tianci convinced him with one sentence. "The person you'll be defeating is Lu Weijian. If I remember correctly, his surname was originally Huo?"

A strange light flashed in Huo Zhong's eyes. He then agreed to Lu Tianci's invitation.

The Huo family was the family that Lu Weijian's mother, Lu Yaolan, married into. The man she married was called Huo Ye.

After Lu Yaolan married into the family, Huo Ye had an affair with a female celebrity and model.

After Lu Yaolan gave birth to Lu Weijian, Lu Weijian was taken in by Old Master Lu.

Therefore, Lu Weijian's surname should have been Huo.

Lu Yaolan and Han Qingwan, this pair of sisters-in-law, had the same fate. This caused Mrs. Lu and Han Qingwan to raise Lu Weijian as their own.

But there was still a fundamental difference between Huo Ye and Lu Yaode.

Lu Yaode went crazy over the beauty by his side. He abandoned his wife and son, which split up Lu Group's huge family business. He ran to T Country to live a carefree life.

As for Huo Ye, under the pressure of the Lu family and Old Master Lu, he was never able to marry his mistress in his life. Moreover, not long after, he sent Huo Zhong and his mother to the United States where he wanted them to stay forever. He only paid for their stay, and he never visited them. Their relationship as family only existed in name.

Chapter 1174: In My Lifetime

Huo Zhong was disappointed and disgusted by his irresponsible father. He also had an inexplicable opinion about Lu Weijian.

His heart ached for his mother who had lived in the United States for more than 20 years, but he knew that he was just an illegitimate child. He had no right to blame Lu Weijian.

However, the thought of defeating Lu Weijian had always been hidden in the depths of his heart.

Perhaps people who had been hurt by their childhoods and families would spend their lives making up for their childhoods. They would fight to heal from their childhood trauma all their lives. They wanted to prove to the world that they were no worse than anyone else.

The news that Quick-Handed Trash would become Lu Tianci's special guest contestant and fight against Lu Weijian exploded like a heavy bomb.

Professional fans who liked esports were familiar with the name Quick-Hands Trash.

Ever since he entered the esports scene a few years ago, he had an unparalleled record in both individual and team battles. His hand speed was so fast that fans in the United States called him 'Raging Tornado'.

Moreover, because he was of Country S' bloodline, he often used profanities in the local language during competitions. As a result, his fans in the United States were familiar with the local curse words.

This time, he was invited to fight. The esports scene exploded at the news .

[Is it true? Someone please strangle me awake and tell me I'm not dreaming!]

[To the commenter above, I'll do it for you.]

[Damn! Lu Tianci is generous! I'll download Coconut Video, Coconut Live, and anything else that Lu Tianci invested in.]

[I really didn't expect to see this lord accept a challenge like this in my lifetime.]

[His hand speed is so fast! Let's see who's going to be tortured by him!]

Lu Tianci managed to invite Quick-Hands Trash, whose popularity was simply overflowing.

Lu Weijian scratched his head.

He had fought this person before, but every time, he was just a hair away from winning.

The JJ Team he led was only able to win the championship last year because at that time, Quick-Hands Trash was resting because of his illness. Hence, JJ Team got a privilege.

As there was a one-on-one battle this time, Lu Weijian had thought of hiring all kinds of experts. However, he never thought that the other party would be able to hire Quick-Hands Trash!

After all, he was famous for not dabbling in business and doing as he pleased. He did not like to participate in boring business activities.

Lu Weijian looked at the members of the team.

Everyone hung their heads, clearly avoiding his gaze.

Everyone could play any competition and had no problem cooperating.

However, the individual competition... was the most difficult of all competitions. Although there were some uncertainties, individual skills were indeed very important.

Everyone was not afraid of team battles at all. They could do whatever they wanted, but it was a little difficult for them to fight individual battles, especially against Quick-Hands Trash.

No one was willing to be crushed in public when they knew they were going to lose!

"I'm afraid you're the only one who can fight him, Mr. Weijian!" A team member looked up at Lu Weijian seriously.

"That's right. Besides, you've played in a one-on-one competition with Quick-Hands Trash before."

Chapter 1175: Keep Your Word

Lu Weijian: "..."

Lu Weijian: “!!!’

‘But I’ve never won when I fought him!’

“Okay, let me think about it.” Lu Weijian waved his hand to dismiss everyone.

Otherwise, his pride was going to suffer even more.

Quick-Hands Trash was currently ranked first in the world.

When Lu Weijian was in a good state, he could hover around second and third place.

However, he played games mostly for fun. He played whatever was fun, so he often lingered around the ninth and tenth place.

Come to think of it, even if he brought in the second and third-ranked players, they still wouldn’t be able to put up a fight against Quick-Hands Trash.

His eyes lit up. The only solution now was Big Brother!

...

In Lu Heting’s office, Lu Weijian tried for a long time but to no avail.

Lu Heting’s hand speed was indeed fast, and his ability was very strong. However, it was obvious that he was not familiar with games and solo battles. If he wanted to participate in the competition, he had to undergo last-minute training.

.....

But as the head of Lu Group, the person who controlled the economy of Asia and even of the entire world, did he have the time to practice games?

What could he possibly gain from it?

He could just use the time to spend it with his wife and children.

“No,” Lu Heting said simply.

“But the other party is Lu Tianci, the illegitimate son who wants to snatch your family business.”

“Can he get it?” Lu Heting asked.

Lu Weijian: “...”

‘Okay, you’re awesome. You’re awesome.’

“Brother, am I still your biological brother?” Lu Weijian changed tactics and brought up familial relations.

“Yes, a distant one.”

Lu Weijian: “...”

Lu Weijian: “!!!’

Lu Weijian sat on the sofa dejectedly, hugging the pillow pitifully like a frustrated puppy.

When Lu Heting finished his work, he was still sitting there with a frown.

Lu Heting raised his hand and pinched the space between his eyebrows. In the end, his heart softened.
“Anyone but me.”

“You said it yourself!” Lu Weijian jumped up. “You have to keep your word!”

“Of course.”

“Da Bao and Sister Bei Bei have already agreed to help me!” Lu Weijian waved his phone.

Lu Heting was speechless.

It turned out he had already convinced Su Bei. He was just afraid that he wouldn't agree to let Da Bao participate, so he came here to look for him?

Lu Weijian was afraid that Lu Heting would go back on his word, so he immediately took preventive measures.

“Alright,” Lu Heting interrupted. “I agree, but Da Bao can't show his face.”

“Of course. We've already agreed that the competition will be done at home. A third-party organization will check if anyone's cheating or if they don't conform to the rules of the competition. The rest is completely up to us. I definitely won't let my nephew show his face!”

Lu Heting was speechless.

So he had already thought of everything. He came to pester him in the afternoon just for this?

Lu Heting didn't know if he should punch this annoying face in front of him.

Da Bao had never participated in the world rankings and rarely participated in official competitions.

People in small circles would be able to recognize his account.

But in the larger circles, almost no one knew him.

Besides, he only played games occasionally. His studies were his main focus.

Lu Weijian still had to specially teach him some things.

Fortunately, Da Bao had a photographic memory. Lu Weijian said, “Let me teach you this again...”

Chapter 1176: Show Me Something

“There's no need. I've memorized it all.”

Lu Weijian: “...”

‘I'll only say it once, you're amazing!’

“First of all, I can’t guarantee that I’ll win.” Da Bao had seen the video of Quick-Hands Trash. He was indeed as fast as lightning and swept like a tornado. The American netizens were right.

Da Bao was confident in himself, but he also knew that he was only five years old. Just the length of his fingers was far inferior to Quick-Hands Trash.

“I believe in you! You can definitely do it!” Lu Weijian patted his shoulder. “In my opinion, you definitely have the ability to fight him. You just have to be calm!”

“All I can promise is that I’ll fight him to a draw and find a chance to beat him.”

Lu Weijian almost knelt down. Was this not considered guaranteeing a win? If he could already guarantee a draw, what more was winning?

“Then come up with a name.”

“Let’s just go with Baby.”

Lu Weijian: “...”

Recently, Lu Weijian had always been speechless.

When Lu Weijian announced that the person who was about to have a one-on-one battle with Quick-Hands Trash was called Baby, it immediately became a trending topic.

.....

And the trending topic was in this form of #Baby???, followed by a little yellow man emoji with a head full of question marks.

Not only was Baby unknown, but this name also seemed to imply that the person was young. Everyone seemed to imagine a little kid with a pacifier in his mouth while smiling cutely.

A person like him was going to go against Quick-Hands Trash?

The people on Weibo were about to die laughing.

[So, Lu Weijian knows that he’ll lose no matter what, so he chose this player who’ll act cute?]

“Hahaha, I think this is a good plan. Maybe when Quick-Hands Trash sees this name, he won’t have the heart to torture him anymore. It’s also possible that he’ll let him off.]

[I wonder what’s gotten into Mr. Weijian’s head. What’s going on?]

[I knew it. When facing Lu Tianci’s Thunder Strike, no one can fight back. Coupled with the fact that his hands are fast, the outcome is probably already decided.]

[Let’s bet! Those who bet on Lu Weijian winning is probably 1:20.]

[What about those who bet on Lu Tianci winning?]

[One to three! It’s all because Lu Tianci looks so confident!]

Lu Weijian didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

Lu Tianci himself was surprised. He had thought that even if Lu Weijian didn't seek external help, he would at least fight on his own. Who knew that he would find such a player?

However, because of this, the matter was even more hyped up.

Huo Zhong was unhappy. "You want me to compete with such a person? I'm not participating!"

Lu Tianci could only make an overseas call. "What do you think this is? Lu Weijian is deliberately humiliating you. The only way you can humiliate him is to crush Baby. If you withdraw now, what do you think Lu Weijian will say?"

Huo Zhong was silent for a long time.

In fact, although Lu Weijian knew of his existence, he had never thought of looking for him or interacting with him.

However, under Lu Tianci's instigation, Huo Zhong still decided to teach Lu Weijian a lesson!

Besides, it was also because of the effects of the name Baby that this single-player competition attracted the attention of countless people.

Lu Tianci had also been promoting the competition. After all, there was still the final team battle. That would be the time for him to welcome high traffic and have the few apps under his name soar to the peak!

Chapter 1177: Qualified For The Battle Of The Century?

Many people had already made videos on Coconut Live and Coconut Video. They had also signed up to watch the single-player and team games.

Lu Tianci kept receiving good news.

"Mr. Lu, the downloads for Coconut Video and Coconut Streaming App have exceeded 10 million."

"Mr. Lu, Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun's live broadcast has brought tens of millions of views to a few major apps."

"Mr. Lu, it's estimated that the number of visitors to the app will exceed 100 million on the night of the individual competition. We'll apply for additional maintenance staff to prevent bugs from appearing."

Lu Tianci looked at the documents and smiled. He asked, "How many people are expected to participate on the night of the team battle?"

"No less than 200 million. Compared to watching individual battles, many esports fans still like to watch team battles. At the moment, the number of downloads and views worldwide is already very impressive."

Lu Tianci knew that inviting Huo Zhong to participate in the competition was the right decision. Huo Zhong was famous and could bring countless foreign traffic.

This would also lay a solid foundation for his apps to enter the international market in the future and be listed on the US NASDAQ.

The night of the singles match.

All equipment checks were correct.

The computer Da Bao used was also equipped with professional software to cover his face and hands. Da Bao's real appearance would not be shown.

.....

Of course, a high-level player like Quick-Hands Trash had never shown his true face either.

However, the fans who were watching the competition did not care about this. They were watching to see if the competition was good or not. They were not here to see if the fight was exciting.

No one paid much attention to the real faces under the filters.

Su Bei squeezed Da Bao's shoulder. "Good luck, baby."

For once, Da Bao smiled. "Thank you."

He had been waiting for this moment. It had been a long time.

Although he looked as cold as Lu Heting, deep down, he was still a boy. This competition was not only to help Lu Weijian, but also to determine who between them would be the winner and loser.

It was a rare opportunity for him to test his strength.

To Da Bao, the harder it was to face a certain challenge, the more powerful he would become.

Perhaps, he had inherited the Lu family's most competitive genes.

Of course, he also had the ability to support his competitiveness.

On Huo Zhong's side, he was sitting in front of his computer and starting various preparations.

Although the other party called himself Baby, he knew that he could not let his guard down.

Under the oppression of the Lu family, his father exiled him and his mother to the United States. In the blink of an eye, more than 20 years had passed. He had resentment in his heart, but more than that, his heart ached for his mother.

That distant and high and mighty Lu family in the east had always existed like a thorn in his heart.

Now, Lu Weijian was standing in front of him, brandishing his sword.

All he had to do was face this thorn in his side, defeat it, and pull it out!

The screen was already filled with people. There were so many people sending comments that the people on the other side of the screens could not see what they had sent or what others had sent.

[I'm looking forward to it!]

[I'm eagerly waiting!]

[Quick-Hands Trash is invincible!]

[Baby, go home and drink milk!]

[We'll witness the battle of the century!]

[The one who said that this is the battle of the century, wake up. Is Baby qualified to participate in the battle of the century?]

Chapter 1178: Super High Level

The people in Lu Weijian's team were also typing in their group chat. [Do you know who Baby is?]

[I don't. Brother Lu refused to tell me.]

[Could it be Brother Lu himself?]

[I'm sure that's not it. Haven't you seen how he's been constantly scratching his head out of nervousness these days?]

[I hope it's Batman Luko from Mexico who's second in the world.]

[I'd prefer it to be the player who's ranked third in the world and is extremely fast but whose condition is unstable. After all, what if his condition stabilizes?]

While everyone was discussing, Lu Weijian replied: [Just watch the competition.]

Only then did everyone look at their computers.

Da Bao was going to participate in such an important competition, but there were only Lu Heting, Lu Weijian, and Su Bei around.

As for Gun Gun, although he was clamoring to watch the show, he was sleepy when the time came. He rubbed his eyes with both hands and began to lean his head against Su Bei's body.

...

His sleepy appearance reminded Lu Heting of Su Bei, making his heart soften even more.

Lu Heting picked him up. "I'll bring you to bed."

"No, I want to see Big Brother Da Bao play..." Gun Gun disagreed, but the sounds of his struggles grew fainter. "The competition..."

He tilted his head and fell asleep on Lu Heting's shoulder.

Lu Heting chuckled and said in a low voice, "Silly boy."

Su Bei sat closest to Da Bao, but she was out of view from the computer's camera.

Time was up. The match had officially begun.

After the competition started, the noisy people stopped making a fuss. There were fewer comments.

However, when Baby made a few brilliant moves, the comments began to increase visibly.

[Bravo, Baby!]

[Baby, you're amazing! These few moves stunned me! How did you do it?]

Huo Zhong, who was sitting opposite the computer, also felt some pressure. Although he did not underestimate his opponent, he did not think much of this person called Baby.

However, after exchanging blows, he realized that the other party was indeed not easy to deal with. His strength and speed were actually above Lu Weijian's.

He wondered which expert it was.

Half of the audience and fans watching this competition were watching through Lu Weijian's Watermelon Video and Watermelon Live.

A quarter of them were on Lu Tianci's Coconut Video and Coconut Live.

The other quarter watched it through some other recording platforms.

The staff member beside Lu Tianci had been reporting the situation. "Mr. Weijian, the number of users watching through us has increased. It's slightly more than a quarter.

"The number of overseas users is also growing steadily.

"Lu Weijian's two apps have been around longer than ours. This time, we have half or even more than half of their numbers. We don't have to worry about the future development. If nothing else happens, we'll have the same number of users as them or even more than them when it comes to the team battle."

Lu Tianci looked at everything in front of him with satisfaction. All of this was brought about by the competition.

Meanwhile, the competition was in full swing. What was unbelievable was that Baby, whom no one thought highly of, had displayed extremely high standards.

Under the super strong attack of Quick-Hands Trash, the others didn't think they could last more than a few moves.

However, not only was Baby not at a disadvantage, but he was also able to counterattack easily after dodging in the battle.

Chapter 1179: Kneeling For True Colors

??

While everyone was enjoying the show, the most common question they asked was: [What kind of expert is Baby?]

A world-class expert like Quick-Hands Trash was publicly acknowledged to be difficult to deal with. He had never been defeated.

His resume was filled with victories.

There was no need to talk about those who had fought with him before. Even those professionals who had not fought with him before could also get a sense of his gaming skills through watching his matches. Until now, no one dared to say that they could defeat him.

But now, the outcome of the competition was basically 50-50. The two sides were actually fighting to the bitter end!

This was the world's number one player!

[Who the hell is the other guy?]

[Who's Baby? I beg you to show your true face!]

[I'm in awe. I shouldn't have looked down on that name. Indeed, a god is a god. No matter what his name is, he's a god.]

[I've decided to use the name Baby too in the future. I don't believe I can lose if I do that.]

...

[Wait, Baby, can I take the exam without failing?]

Lu Weijian's team was also in an uproar. The group of people swore that they would find Lu Weijian and ask him who Baby was.

Huo Zhong felt extremely pressured.

His nerves began to get all jangled up too.

He never expected to be so exhausted when facing his opponent.

Although he still had the upper hand now and it was hard to say who would win, he knew that he had already used his full strength. This was completely different from his usual relaxed state.

Lu Tianci could also tell that Huo Zhong's situation was not too good.

But even if he lost, it would not affect Lu Tianci much. He had already gotten all the traffic that he needed to get, and the downloads and views of the apps under his name were also very outstanding. It would not be a problem for the apps to stabilize in the future.

When the traffic was converted, it would all become money in his pockets.

However, he was curious. Where did Lu Weijian find such a powerful person?

He gave instructions to the people around him before beginning to watch the competition.

The people around him immediately started hacking into Baby's computer, wanting to see the true face of this god of gaming.

Lu Tianci could not sign Huo Zhong to his professional team, but if this god was willing to join, he knew that his TG team would be invincible in the world.

“Have you found anything?” Lu Tianci asked 10 minutes later.

The staff member beside him was sweating.

“The security factor of the other party’s computer is especially high. It won’t be easy to hack into it.”

Lu Tianci waited patiently.

However, his staff did not have it easy. Even though Da Bao’s computer only used a little of the firewall that he wrote himself, it was enough to resist these intrusions.

The match was still in progress. Baby was beginning to have the upper hand.

Lu Tianci had already lost his patience. “Arrange for a few more people from the technical department to come over.”

His technical department had a lot of top hackers, because only by hiring these hackers could he defend himself from other hackers.

Soon, the hackers were attacking Da Bao’s computer. It was not to sabotage his game but to find out who he was.

However, the other party’s firewall system was too powerful. There was almost no breakthrough.

The hackers could only start with the weakest aspect in the computer’s camera.

Chapter 1180: I Only Hate How Uncultured I Was When I Was Young

At the same time, the entire live-stream audience was watching the competition nervously and excitedly.

In the later stages of the competition, the excitement had completely exceeded their imagination. It no longer mattered who won or lost. What mattered was that they had seen the most exciting competition in history. Every attack, defense, and dodge was superb.

The comments on the screen was going crazy.

[I’m impressed. The gods are indeed gods. It’s worth it to see these two gods play it out in my lifetime.]

[I can rest in peace!]

[I’m dead!]

[I only hate how uncultured I was when I was young.]

[Gods, I worship you!]

Even Lu Weijian and Su Bei were excited.

Only Lu Heting and Da Bao maintained their cold faces as if these things had nothing to do with them.

...

The match was coming to an end. At the appointed time, after the two gods each released their respective stunning ultimate move, it was a draw!

A draw!

Huo Zhong was already exhausted and deeply admired his opponent.

Da Bao put down his headset and keyboard. After all, he was still young and got tired after the battle. He took a deep breath.

Su Bei quickly held him in her arms, her heart aching. No matter how powerful he was, he was only her son.

However, she was still so excited that she wanted to say that her son was really awesome! He was indeed Da Bao!

Lu Heting could not bear to see his wife tired. He reached out and carried his son to his side.

Da Bao did not mind being carried by him. When he was tired, it was quite comfortable to be carried.

Lu Weijian had nothing to say now. He had a bright smile on his face and was grinning from ear to ear.

At this moment, Lu Tianci's hacker said, "We've broken through Baby's camera. We can see who he is now."

"Quick, open it immediately!" Lu Tianci said impatiently.

The hacker immediately controlled the keyboard and turned on the camera on Baby's side so that Lu Tianci could see the extremely capable player who was a match for Huo Zhong!

Lu Tianci stared at the computer screen, unwilling to miss anything.

The camera was turned on, and Da Bao's entire appearance appeared on the live video feed.

At this moment, not only could Lu Tianci see who Baby was, but the entire audience also saw that face on the computer screen!

The audience was still in a very excited state. They posted comments and reminisced about the exciting solo battle game.

At this moment, on the live-stream screen, everyone's attention was attracted to Baby's profile photo although he had gone offline earlier.

[Baby's back? Could he have something to say to us viewers?]

[Dunno. Looking forward to it, though.]

[I wonder if it's a girl or a boy? I want to hear their voice. I want to see them.]

Everyone saw that after Baby went online, the filter still covered his face, preventing people from seeing his actual appearance. Even the hands he operated had filters moving with him, covering his hands at all times.

Just as everyone was feeling a little disappointed, the filter on the computer screen disappeared.

This was because Lu Tianci's people had already hacked into Baby's computer camera and also removed the filter that covered his head and hands.
