

Chapter 1221: Don't Think About Taking Shortcuts

"Hahaha, my daughter, Lu Tianqing, of course."

The reporter asked her. "As a senior, do you have anything to say to young celebrities these days?"

"Oh, I do. I just want to tell those young children that people have to rely on their own efforts to fight for what they want and achieve their dreams. Never, never think of taking shortcuts.

"I've heard before that some celebrities, especially female celebrities, are willing to use their bodies to please big directors in order to obtain resources. I especially don't advocate such behavior. Honor and achievements that aren't established by oneself will eventually collapse.

"I hope such young women will take better care of themselves."

As soon as Tian Xin said this, the media reporters recorded it all.

When she said things like that, she didn't give the impression of being arrogant. Instead, she sounded patient and magnanimous as if she was genuinely worried that young women would take the wrong path and be doomed.

Her tone was kind and especially gentle. Besides, her personal resume was already filled with glory from when she was young. She even obtained positions in Hollywood and the film association in S Country when she was older. Hence, there was no problem at all with her saying this.

The reporters quickly posted her statement.

There was nothing wrong with that.

However, someone quickly took the lead and said: [Our Su Bei is not the kind of person that Tian Xin is talking about. She relied on her own efforts to get her resources. The matter with Director Camilan the last time has already been clarified. Why are you still holding on to it? I curse people like you to die a horrible death! Those who criticize Su Bei will all die!]

On the surface, these words were to protect Su Bei, but they were simply making Su Bei a target.

In an instant, Su Bei was pushed to the forefront.

It had to be said that criticizing anti-fans was really a useful method. It immediately caused many people to denounce Su Bei's fans. [Su Bei's diehard fans, listen up. Back when Tian Xin was filming, your idol was still in diapers. Don't think that just anyone can be scolded by you!]

[Crazy fans are really getting worse. They're full of sh*t. The idol stinks, and the fans stink even more.]

Please reading on Myb o x no ve l. com

[Stupid fans, go home and grow a brain. Remember to bring it out when you leave the house.]

Su Bei's fans naturally wouldn't allow such a reputation to be attached to them. They immediately counterattacked to protect their reputation.

Soon, this caused a huge battle between fans and anti-fans.

Originally, nothing should have happened, and Tian Xin's words did not refer to anyone. After such a big battle, everyone seemed to understand that Tian Xin's statement was directed at Su Bei.

Needless to say, this batch of anti-fans was hired by Lu Tianqing.

For the time being, she could not defame the other members of the Lu family but could defame Su Bei.

Taking advantage of her mother's return, she successfully criticized Su Bei.

When Tian Xin returned home and saw the news on the internet, she smiled. "Your team is not bad. They're quite fast to make a move."

"Mom, you spoke all the right words. Otherwise, how could we have a reason to attack Su Bei?"

Chapter 1222: Harsh Words

Tian Xin laughed out loud. Her words were not meant to warn the younger generation. When she spoke, she went straight for Su Bei.

Who asked Su Bei to make Lu Tianqing suffer at the banquet the last time?

Since Han Qingwan wanted to protect Su Bei, she had to make a move on Su Bei. If she succeeded Bei, it would be equivalent to slapping Han Qingwan in the face.

With this incident, although it was not enough to destroy Su Bei's reputation, it definitely wouldn't help Su Bei with the selection for the political film.

After all, there were too many actors to choose from. There were also many capable actors.

If Su Bei was dealt a blow at this critical moment, wouldn't she become the first to be eliminated?

As Tian Xin had hoped, there was a huge disagreement among the political film's production crew.

With Su Bei's acting skills, she had already passed the preliminaries and entered the semi-finals.

However, the sudden scandal claimed that Su Bei had slept with the director to get her previous role. In that case, wouldn't it be a humiliation to the political film that represented the entire country if the production crew chose Su Bei?

Casting Assistant Director A was extremely fond of Su Bei. He tried his best to vouch for her. "Su Bei is not that kind of person. I've interacted with her in private. It's absolutely impossible for her to use that kind of method to gain resources. Besides, how outstanding was her performance during the audition previously? She's clearly so beautiful, but when she changed her clothes, she had the gentleness and determination of a primary school teacher. Her tone was exactly the same as my primary school teacher."

Casting Director B disagreed. "Su Bei's acting skills are good, but it's not like there aren't any actors with good acting skills. We have better choices, so why waste them on an uncertain factor like Su Bei? What if her fans are still fighting when the movie is released? How can we guarantee that the sentiments are properly conveyed by the movie?"

"I don't think there's anything wrong with Director B's concerns," said Casting Director C. "There can't be any mistakes or problems with our casting. We absolutely can't let someone with a stained past contaminate our otherwise clean and pure creative environment!"

Casting Director D was a woman. She thought for a moment and said, "I think we should give Su Bei another chance. Apart from the second audition, isn't there a final audition too? If she can pass the heavy screening and stand out from the rest, why don't we give her a chance?"

As a woman, Director D had been treated unfairly in the workplace, so she knew that when it came to women, all it took to be stepped on was getting sl*t-shamed.

As a woman, she empathized with Su Bei's plight.

Seeing that Director D had already said so, everyone decided to give Su Bei a chance.

Director B said, "Then I'll say this first. No matter how capable Su Bei is, if such a scandal continues, we shouldn't be blamed for being rude. There are so many of us. We can't be implicated because of her, right?"

They all nodded in agreement.

As the vice president of the Film Association, Tian Xin was especially clear about the progress and process of this casting. She knew that what she said would definitely work. She just had to wait and see.

If Su Bei was dropped from this movie, her reputation would only continue to fall.

With Tian Xin's talent and years of experience in the industry, it was a given that Lu Tianqing would enter the final selection.

Chapter 1223: Refusing To Agree

In Di Xing Media Company, Qiao Mei was so angry that her face turned red.

"Tian Xin is an old senior, yet she actually said such irresponsible words!" Qiao Mei knocked on the table. "Now is the critical moment when Su Bei is in the midst of auditioning. With such a scandal, although we've already suppressed the news, how can it not affect Su Bei?"

Li Qisheng was also filled with anger. "That's right. Tian Xin hasn't been back for many years. Who knows why she did such a thing the moment she returned? Even if it's for her daughter's sake, it's too much for her to do this to Su Bei. She and Lu Tianqing shouldn't ever fall into my hands, or I won't be nice."

If he found any dirt on the mother and daughter, Li Qisheng would definitely get revenge!

Qiao Mei said, "I've already called the production team several times, wanting to invite Director Jiao to come and talk about this matter. But at this critical moment, he refused to agree and doesn't want to be involved in scandals. Manager Li, I might need you to speak up for Su Bei."

“I’ve already found someone.” After the incident, Li Qisheng had already gone around to make peace. As long as the director of the production team believed in Su Bei, the dirt the outside world thought they had on Su Bei would mean nothing.

When the announcement was made that Su Bei had been selected, the scandal would die off.

Unfortunately, the production crew was avoiding suspicion now. Coupled with the fact that they were part of Tian Xin’s connections, Li Qisheng’s work was progressing very difficult. A whole day had passed, but there was still no progress.

He called Lu Heting, but Lu Heting didn’t make anything clear, so Li Qisheng couldn’t rush him.

He and Qiao Mei were in a terrible fix.

Qiao Mei didn’t want Su Bei to worry, so she asked her to go home and rest. After all, for Su Bei, acting was her main focus.

On Tian Xin’s side, she attended an event.

.....

As an artist who had recently been tied to the name Su Bei, she was very eye-catching.

The reporters couldn’t help but ask her about the matter.

“Tian Xin, may I ask if the words you said to warn the young were meant for Su Bei?”

“Not really. But young people who behave like that do have to look at themselves in the mirror. I want young people to be down-to-earth and look at the big picture. That way, they’ll do better in the future.”

Her answer was flawless, but it secretly pointed at Su Bei.

Another reporter asked her again, “So what would you do if you found artists who behaved in such a way?”

“I’ll boycott her and hope she never shows her face in public again. Idol influences children too much. I don’t want the younger generation to be influenced by an idol’s bad behavior.”

Tian Xin’s words were reasonable and won a round of applause.

Parents were moved to tears. Tian Xin’s words had undoubtedly hit the nail on the head.

These parents had grown up watching Tian Xin’s movies when they were young. Now, they were deeply proud of her. “As expected of my idol. What she said is wise. What right do those young people have to be liked by so many people?! My idol is still worthy of respect!”

Sure enough, strange animals like humans were only willing to hear what they believed in. The things they liked were justified, while the things others liked were sh*t.

Chapter 1224: Maximum Loss

These words were published by the media under Lu Tianqing and Lu Tianqing. [Senior publicly criticized Su Bei for her misconduct!]

[A queen-level movie celebrity suggested banning low-quality idols like Su Bei and providing teenagers a good influence!]

[Su Bei has been criticized by the Film Association. Her future is bleak.]

[The Film Association is calling for Su Bei to be banned! Her bad behavior as an idol will affect the growth of the younger generation!]

One had to admit that it was a brilliant move.

Tian Xin's words were evasive but watertight. On a legal level, Tian Xin and the media outlets that reported on it had all avoided risks. Hence, no one could catch them.

And all of this had put Su Bei in a tight spot.

This had a profound impact on Su Bei's audition for the movie.

The anti-fans were even more excited than anyone else. [Even a great senior said so. How many more days can Su Bei last?]

[This kind of female artist who relies on her body to climb up the ranks should quickly disappear!]

Su Bei's competitors also took this opportunity to hire anti-fans and launch another wave of unscrupulous hate comments.

As for Su Bei's fans, they read the comments every day and tried their best to protect her. They still believed in their idol.

Su Bei was very touched. She entered the group chat a few times and told everyone that she was fine at the moment. Everything was fine. She would definitely repay everyone's kindness with results.

.....

With Su Bei's words, the fans felt at ease. They knew that Su Bei was invincible!

Sooner or later, this dirty stain on Su Bei's reputation would be washed away.

...

Su Bei took part in the casting audition.

Perhaps because the malice of the outside world had struck something in her, Su Bei's performance in the second audition stunned the directors who were responsible for the casting.

It was as if she were not a female artist but a female volunteer teacher. She stood directly in front of them.

After this selection, the directors did not know what to say for a moment.

Was it out of respect for an actor's basic professional ethics, or was it in reference to the groundless gossip on the internet?

The four casting directors fell into another round of wild discussion.

This time, the executive director had sat behind them and seen Su Bei's second audition.

Su Bei's performance was breathtaking.

Even the executive director felt that missing out on Su Bei would be the biggest loss for this movie.

However, her scandal was also something that the executive director had to consider.

A political film was a film that would show the culture of the nation. It would be shown to all young people. He would not tolerate a flaw that could be avoided.

The movie Wish that Lu Tianci had invested in starred Sheng Xiaotang and Jia Shiyun. They had already decided on the schedule, but it was suddenly rejected. The release date had to be changed.

Lu Tianci was dumbfounded.

But Tian Xin knew the reason. "We've caused so much trouble for Su Bei. How can Lu Group not retaliate? It seems that Han Qingwan is indeed not easy to deal with."

She also firmly believed that Han Qingwan's son was not capable. All of this was done by Han Qingwan.

In fact, when she reached out to deal with Su Bei, Lu Heting didn't stay idle.

Since Lu Tianci wanted to occupy S Country's market so much, Lu Heting would not even allow his movie to be screened.

Lu Tianci said, "Mom, you have to help me with this. You have connections in the Film Association, so everyone will definitely give you face."

Chapter 1225: No Impenetrable Wall

"Of course," Tian Xin said confidently.

Back when she was establishing contacts in Hollywood, she had never given up on maintaining her contacts in S Country. Besides, she had been a popular movie queen back then.

She had known that sooner or later, she would have to fight her way back.

Han Qingwan's ability was not enough to block her path.

She was fully prepared for this battle with Lu Group.

...

Guests gathered at the Film Association's banquet. They were all tycoons of the entertainment industry in Country S and people like Tian Xin who had positions or connections in the Film Association.

Tian Xin walked among the crowd, chatting happily with everyone.

However, at the mention of Lu Tianci's Wish being released, those who could speak up shook their heads. "I'm really sorry, but I can't help. There's nothing we can do."

Everyone was very polite and respected Tian Xin very much. However, when it came to the problem that she really wanted to solve, everyone expressed that they couldn't help her.

Tian Xin had not expected this to happen.

Could Han Qingwan's power really reach so far?

Tian Xin held her wine glass and lowered her head in deep thought. The wife of a tycoon who had a good relationship with her years ago said to her, "Perhaps you should look for that person over there."

Tian Xin looked up and saw a young man standing there. He was tall and slender. He was surrounded by others as he stood in the middle of the crowd. His temperament was outstanding, and his face was somewhat similar to Lu Yaode's.

"Who's that?" she asked automatically.

Please reading on Myb ox no ve l. com

"Who else could it be? He's the one in charge of the Lu family now."

Only then did Tian Xin understand that it was Lu Heting.

Lu Heting was a low-key person and had never allowed any photos or interviews of him to be posted online. In Tian Xin's heart, he had always been the useless kid that Lu Yaode had told her about. Hence, Tianxin had never taken him seriously. She had never thought that he could compete with Lu Tianci.

However, when she saw Lu Heting now, she couldn't help but doubt her own thoughts.

Was this Lu Heting? Han Qingwan's son?

Instinctively, she did not want to believe that fact.

Just then, someone else came to talk to her. Tian Xin's attention was pulled back. Someone mentioned Su Bei. "President Tian, you've always been strict with newcomers. Recently, there's been a lot of talk about Su Bei. I hope you can support the other newcomers."

There was a reason why this person mentioned Su Bei. It just so happened that there was an artist in the company he was working with who had been competing with Su Bei for resources recently. If he took advantage of the situation and expressed his disapproval toward Su Bei as well, it would be very beneficial to him.

"It's our duty to help the younger generation. However, an artist like Su Bei has a bad character. I won't show mercy to such a newcomer." Tian Xin still insisted on her point.

She was just saying it. It wouldn't leave an impact. However, she did seem a little reckless.

"President Tian, have you witnessed Su Bei's bad behavior for yourself?" Lu Heting raised his voice and said calmly with a dignified tone.

Everyone saw him walking over with his wine glass and made way for him.

When Tian Xin saw that he had taken the initiative to come over, she smiled. “No, but there’s no such thing as an impenetrable wall. I always hear rumors about her.”

Chapter 1226: Won’t Miss The Lesson

“So it turns out that President Tian doesn’t judge a person based on what she sees but based on the rumors she hears from elsewhere.” Lu Heting’s tone was mocking.

No one had expected this either. Previously, Tian Xin had sworn that Su Bei was immoral. They thought that she had seen Su Bei do scandalous things herself, but in the end, Tian Xin had just come to the conclusion after hearing rumors.

As for Lu Heting defending Su Bei, everyone felt that it was normal. After all, Su Bei was an artist under Lu Group.

Tian Xin wasn’t in a hurry. She smiled and said, “Some rumors are spread by people in the industry, so they’re naturally credible. I’ve been in the United States for a long time, and I’ve heard some things about Camilan.”

There was some truth in her words. For a moment, no one knew whether to believe her or question her.

Lu Heting said, “Well, it just so happens that Director Camilan is known to sue those who slander him. President Tian, since you’re so confident, I hope you can testify with this same confidence in court.”

Tian Xin: “...”

Tian Xin said, “Really? Then let’s hope he wins the case. Some people really need to be taught a lesson.”

She didn’t expect Lu Heting to be so stubborn as to bring up Camilan’s lawsuit.

She smiled. In her words and expression, she seemed to be pretending that what she had just said had never happened.

She knew the rules of the entertainment industry very well. As long as there was no evidence left behind, it was fine as long as she did not admit to anything. When the time came, she would claim that it was a misunderstanding and brush it off. At the same time, she could also gain some popularity. It was perfect!

She was used to being tactful, but Lu Heting couldn't be bothered to waste his breath on her. "I won't miss the lesson, then."

Lu Heting turned around and left.

Even though everyone was of high status, they were still stunned by Lu Heting's response and watched him leave in awe.

On the other hand, Tian Xin did not look too good after being humiliated by Lu Heting in front of everyone.

However, she recovered quickly and her expression immediately improved. She continued to greet everyone.

After this incident, Tian Xin felt that Lu Heting was not easy to deal with.

â€¦

For the sake of Lu Tianci's movie, Tian Xi took a step back.

She hired a middleman and asked him to help her pass a message to Lu Heting. If Lu Heting agreed to stop causing trouble for Wish and let Wish be released directly, then she would stop slandering Su Bei in public.

This was the biggest concession that Tian Xin thought she could make.

Lu Heting, who had received the news, found it funny and ignored it.

Seeing that Lu Heting was silent, Tian Xin asked the middleman to send another message.

Lu Heting directly replied to the middleman: [Do the artists under Lu Group require her judgment?]

The middleman understood what he meant. With Lu Group's ability, why would they need to reconcile with Tian Xin? Moreover, Tian Xin had such a high and mighty attitude.

Seeing that there was no response, Tian Xin personally came to meet the middleman.

The middleman, who was also a highly respected old man, grimaced. "I've delivered the message and said what I had to say. But, President Tian, I think this matter may not be so easily resolved."

"I'm here to solve the problem with sincerity," said Tian Xin. "Could it be that he really doesn't care about the reputation of his artists? Besides, I know that Su Bei has been fighting for a good opportunity recently. If I don't let her go, will she really get that opportunity if her reputation continues to be so bad?"

Chapter 1227: After You Meet

The old man actually knew Lu Heting's ability very well. From the looks of it, Tian Xin still had a misunderstanding about Lu Heting's ability.

He already knew that it was useless to say anything else, so he said, "I really can't help you with this matter. President Tian, you should find someone else."

As the old man turned to leave, Tian Xin gripped the glass tightly. Her nails, covered in red nail polish, reflected blood red on the glass.

She refused to believe she couldn't handle something so trivial.

Tian Xin used all her connections. After asking around for many days, she finally obtained an opportunity for Lu Tianci. As long as the contents of Wish attained the right qualification, it could still be released.

However, it had been a long time since the initial release date. Moreover, no one could say for sure what it would take for the content to pass.

But the situation was better than before. Tianxin urged Lu Tianci, "During this period of time, keep an eye on this project. You must modify the content as soon as possible, do you understand?"

"I know, Mom."

Both mother and son knew very well that the release of this movie was not just a matter of whether it could make money or not. If the box office sales were even better than Camilan's Mother, then this would be an official sign that they had defeated Lu Heting.

Tian Xin and Lu Yaode had been working hard to prove themselves their entire lives. How could they miss such a good opportunity?

Moreover, since Lu Heting refused to make a deal with Tian Xin, Tian Xin's slander against Su Bei naturally couldn't be stopped.

It was all because she was popular and had the right to speak in the industry. She was not called the movie queen for nothing.

The Film Association held its annual Celebrity Meet.

Please reading on Myb oxn o ve l. com

As the vice president, Tian Xin was naturally the first to get an admission ticket. She and Lu Tianqing attended together.

She had retired for many years, but she had developed well in Hollywood. She was a top star in the hearts of many people back then.

Previously, many rumors said that she married a foreigner and had children. Not only did these doubts not reduce her popularity, but they also increased her popularity.

As soon as Tian Xin appeared with her daughter, she was surrounded by reporters.

No one expected Tian Xin's daughter to look Asian. Not only that, but she was even more beautiful than Tian Xin. Everyone went forward to take photos.

The reporters even asked, "President Tian, will Tianqing follow you back to China to develop?"

"President Tian, I heard that Miss Tianqing is about to participate in S Country's political film. Is that true?"

"President Tian, can Miss Tianqing talk to us more about her future plans?"

Tian Xin looked at everything in front of her with satisfaction and said with a smile, "Actually, it's not just Tianqing. My son, Tianci, is currently investing in a movie. The movie he invested in, Wish, will be released soon. I hope everyone will pay more attention to it."

"President Tian, you're really successful."

“She has two children and is so capable. Many people would never dream of it.”

“Tian Xin is indeed the idol of the older generation. She handled her career, love, and family well. Her life is perfect. It’s really impressive.”

Tian Xin smiled reservedly and walked down the red carpet with Lu Tianqing.

Another reporter asked, “President Tian, Su Bei will also be participating in today’s event. I wonder if you’ll talk about anything after you meet?”

Chapter 1228: Excited

“Speaking of that, I might tell Su Bei that young people should work hard.” Tian Xin’s words were light and sounded like encouragement from an elder.

But in fact, those who knew a lot of inside information knew that Tian Xin looked down on Su Bei.

Thanks to the fact that the internet was not developed in the early years, there was no dirt on Tian Xin back then. The fact that she was a mistress was not known to the public. She was also a Best Actress and had a very good reputation.

Therefore, what she said was undoubtedly a heavy bomb to Su Bei, worsening her reputation.

The reporters at the scene wished they could dig out more information, but Tian Xin only said a little every time. She refused to say anything else, so no one could ask further.

The people assigned to follow Su Bei did not manage to capture anything each time. For a moment, there was a lot of clamor surrounding Su Bei’s scandal. Although there was no substantial evidence, it still made people’s imaginations run wild.

The reporters were all waiting for Su Bei to come over later. After she met Tian Xin, they wondered what kind of large-scale battle would take place.

After Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing went in, the reporters’ attention shifted to the other artists. All kinds of artists appeared one after another. The reporters couldn’t care less about Tian Xin and Su Bei for now and were busy interviewing other artists.

There were a lot of celebrities who came to the scene that night, and they were all very popular celebrities in S Country. The reporters’ gazes shifted slightly.

Lu Tianqing and Tian Xin held hands and sat in the front row. The mother and daughter were in high spirits and had smiles on their faces. A small group of reporters wanted to have an exclusive interview with them after the event, so they followed them and surrounded them to continue chatting.

As they were talking, there was a faint noise from the red carpet. It was even louder than when the other big-name artists appeared. It made one turn around to see what was going on.

Even the reporters surrounding Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing looked over in unison, wanting to see what was going on.

They all stood up and looked toward the red carpet, their footsteps moving in that direction.

This made Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing curious. What had happened over there that attracted so much attention?

The pair of mother and daughter stood up. They saw Su Bei dressed in red and Camilan in a suit walking hand in hand at the end of the red carpet.

Please reading on Myboxford.com

Su Bei was already fair, and the red evening gown made her skin look even fairer and more beautiful. She already had an advantage in height, so she was even more eye-catching.

Camilan was wearing a black suit. Although he was of medium height, he had an outstanding temperament. When he appeared with Su Bei, he did not look out of place.

The reporters surged forward like madmen.

Recently, with the help of Tian Xin, the scandal between Su Bei and Camilan had become known to everyone. Originally, the reporters were already paying attention to this matter, but they had never captured anything.

Unexpectedly, Su Bei and Camilan came together tonight.

This made everyone excited as though they were on steroids.

As the reporters rushed over, they said, "Hurry up and take photos! Su Bei is too beautiful tonight, isn't she?"

"Judging from Su Bei and Camilan's frankness, it doesn't seem like there's any scandal between them. Besides, we didn't manage to capture anything thus far."

Chapter 1229: Popularity

"But Tian Xin is the vice president of the Film Association and the movie queen of the past. She wouldn't slander a young junior, right?"

"Whatever. Let's take photos first. We've already got the headlines for tonight."

"Yes, yes, yes. Let's not miss the headlines tonight. Su Bei's matter has been the most popular recently."

Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing heard everything. The other reporters probably had the same thoughts. They couldn't wait to go to Su Bei so that they could get more photos and news.

Lu Tianqing originally thought that with her mother's appearance today, their names would be all over the headlines.

The competition between artists nowadays was especially fierce. Many media outlets would choose the most popular artist of the night to post about so that they could hike up the traffic. The other popular artists could only play supporting roles.

Unless the artist paid for a feature.

However, Lu Tianqing did not allocate the budget for this tonight. After all, Tian Xin had been really popular recently.

The mother-daughter pair was also a hot topic.

She snorted. "I really didn't expect Su Bei to be so shameless. For the sake of traffic, she didn't avoid suspicion at all and actually appeared with Camilan."

Tian Xin nodded and said, "That's right. I really underestimated her self-esteem. It turns out that the artists under Lu Group are just so-so."

"Look at her. Not only is she not ashamed of this matter, but she's also proud of it. It's really disgusting," Lu Tianqing commented in a low voice.

Tian Xin looked in Su Bei's direction. Su Bei was indeed like a fish in water on this occasion. She came hand in hand with Camilan and spoke with confidence. She faced the reporters with poise. She was indeed a natural star. She was born to do this.

Tian Xin guessed that Su Bei was also well-versed in the rules of survival in this circle. Nothing was more important than popularity. As long as she was shameless, she could obtain popularity. As long as she clung to Camilan, she could obtain resources. What was there to be afraid of?

She had really underestimated Su Bei.

Lu Tianqing maintained a smile on the surface, but she despised Su Bei in her heart.

Tian Xin tilted her head and said to her with a smile, "Since Su Bei doesn't care about her reputation, she can forget about getting a role in the political movie this time."

Lu Tianqing's smile became real as she thought to herself, 'Indeed, that political movie pays a lot of attention to the character of the artist and their past history. Since Su Bei is in a hurry to confirm her scandal, she basically took the initiative to give up that opportunity. As for me, I've already received the notice to participate. Su Bei is indeed too forward-thinking.'

On the red carpet, Su Bei and Camilan walked over together.

Originally, every star who walked down the red carpet had a relatively fixed time. For example, if it was a minute, then everyone who appeared would only have a minute.

However, as the reporters were too enthusiastic, Su Bei and Camilan had been surrounded on the red carpet for more than three minutes.

It was only when the host smiled and helped them out that Su Bei and Camilan were saved from being surrounded by reporters. They finally walked to the front of the stage.

Su Bei's popularity was obvious.

When Su Bei and Camilan came to the front of the stage, the host would interview them briefly. The reporters would also throw out two or three questions to interact with them. Then, the artists would leave the stage and sit down.

The host smiled and said, "Su Bei, I really didn't expect you to appear with Director Camilan."

Chapter 1230: No Different From A Gossipy Woman

"Director Camilan and I are partners and friends. It's normal for us to appear together, right?" Su Bei said with a smile.

"Of course," the host said. "We're glad to have you here. Director Camilan, you even came from afar. We're honored."

The reporters also seized the opportunity to ask, "Su Bei, there have been quite a lot of rumors about you and Director Camilan recently. I wonder if you're prepared to face such rumors today?"

Su Bei smiled and said, "I don't know what the rumors about me and Director Camilan are or where they came from."

In order to dig up more news, the reporter said, "There's a senior present here today who spread this news."

Everyone admired the courage of the reporter who spoke. He did not hesitate to openly provoke conflict.

However, this was the profession of a reporter. They always had to make some big news.

Besides, this opportunity was so rare today.

As soon as the reporter asked the question, everyone subconsciously looked at Tian Xin.

Tian Xin stuck out her chest and raised her head, looking fearless and open. She had indeed said something, but she knew that she had said nothing wrong. She didn't believe that the rumors about Su Bei and Camilan were groundless. Did Su Bei dare to confront her on the spot?

Seeing Tian Xin like this, everyone couldn't help but worry for Su Bei. Tian Xin was an early movie queen and had a vice president position in Hollywood and S Country's Film Association. Although Su Bei had also achieved good results, she was only a rising star.

Compared to Tian Xin, Su Bei was really lacking. Besides, how could Su Bei clarify the scandal?

Perhaps because they had a natural sense of closeness to good-looking people, the reporters were a little worried for Su Bei. It was troublesome to get involved in scandals, and it was really not a wise move to openly confront a senior.

.....

However, some of the reporters were flushed with excitement because it seemed that they would be able to get their hands on exciting news.

No matter how Su Bei responded, the outcome that awaited her was big news to the reporters.

Su Bei's expression did not change at all. She looked at Tian Xin and said with a smile, "So, it's a respected senior. However, I really didn't expect you to have the time to care about my personal matters. I truly didn't expect this. I thought you were busy improving your personal abilities and guiding your juniors to do more meaningful things."

As soon as she said this, she slapped Tian Xin in the face by implying that she was not doing her job and was no different from a gossipy woman.

The reporters waiting for the news were all shocked. Su Bei was too bold!

They only wanted a headline, but Su Bei directly gave them an explosive piece of news!

Everyone kept pressing the shutter to capture the scene of Su Bei being straightforward.

Su Bei actually didn't have any special feelings for a mistress like Tian Xin. If others wanted to be a mistress, she couldn't stop them, right?

She had no intention of defending Han Qingwan. That was between the main wife and the mistress.

Her heart ached for Lu Heting. Because of this scumbag father and mistress, Lu Heting suffered a lot since he was young. Now, this mistress actually wanted to publicly humiliate his company and his artists?

Who gave this mistress the courage?

Did she ask for Su Bei's permission?
