

Chapter 1231: So Much

Tian Xin looked at Su Bei without anger.

She sat steadily with a proper smile on her face and maintained the demeanor of a senior. She knew in her heart that the more publicly Su Bei mocked her, the worse she would lose and the more public opinion would be against her.

She was proficient in manipulating reporters and fans. After all, Su Bei was still too young and would definitely fall into her trap.

Go ahead and curse! It would be best if Su Bei scolded her as fiercely as possible so that Tian Xin could gain more benefits.

Sure enough, as Tianxin had expected, Su Bei continued, "I know that most of the seniors are still talented, but there are indeed some who are not good enough to interfere with someone's career. The entertainment industry is indeed a place of fame and fortune. Everyone's life is being watched by many eyes, and there are all kinds of rumors. Some people who don't know our circle will think that this industry is especially messy and dirty, but we ourselves know that this is just a place where we work. It's a place where we make a living. Apart from the fact that there is indeed a small portion of dirt and chaos, most people are still working seriously to support their families and realize their dreams. We're just working hard to move forward."

These words made many artists below the stage empathize with her.

Everyone was afraid of certain comments from the outside world. There were also many cases of the entertainment industry being demonized. When this industry was mentioned, others would talk about how terrible it was. It was as if everyone here was promiscuous and practiced those unspoken rules.

There were a lot of such phenomena in this circle, but it would be a great injustice to others who were serious and hardworking to assume it was always the case.

Therefore, after Su Bei finished speaking, someone took the lead and applauded. Then, everyone gradually joined in on the applause. The claps resounded throughout the entire event venue.

Although this applause did not mean anything, it was no different from slapping Tian Xin in the face. This was because everyone could tell that these words were first directed at Tian Xin, then the others.

When the applause stopped, Su Bei said, "Our working environment has already been demonized, yet some seniors are taking the initiative to plant more scandals in our circle. I wonder what their intentions are? We're all adults with rational thinking. I hope everyone can think about the logic behind this."

Tian Xin's expression did not change. She even wanted to give Su Bei a thumbs up. Although Su Bei's words made sense, she did not clarify the scandal at all.

What was the use of just talking about logic? After the news came out, wouldn't they still blame everything on Su Bei?

Young people were still too impulsive.

Lu Tianqing tilted her head and said to Tian Xin softly, "Mom, it seems that Lu Heting is just so-so. His artists don't have any sense of crisis at all. They only care about their own happiness, but they don't know what kind of waves they will cause tomorrow."

"That's right. No wonder Di Xing Media Company has been relying on the Lu Group for so many years. It's just an ordinary second-rate entertainment company," said Tian Xin.

The reason why Di Xing Media was only a second-rate entertainment company and didn't become a top entertainment company was that Han Qingwan didn't like this company back then. Lu Heting and Lu Weijian hadn't really invested in it either.

However, Tian Xin did not understand this logic.

Chapter 1232: Did I Hear Wrong?

After Su Bei finished speaking, the reporters were in an uproar for a while before asking, "So, all the rumors were spread with ulterior motives?"

This time, Su Bei didn't answer.

The man who took the microphone was Camilan.

The host was supposed to control the entire process and not let Su Bei and Camilan be asked so many questions. However, the situation was too intense. Even the host himself wanted to know how the situation would develop.

Of course, she had no way of controlling the situation now. Everyone wanted to continue to know where this was going.

Fortunately, the organizer also said to the host, "It doesn't matter if they take longer. Let Su Bei speak."

The organizers also knew that only when there was something explosive would there be popularity. Since Su Bei wanted to stand out, it was normal for them to make use of her.

It had been a long time since such an explosive event had happened in the entertainment industry. Tonight, the entire event would definitely become the most influential event of the year.

After Camilan took the microphone, the reporter immediately asked, "Mr. Camilan, are you going to clarify the scandal on behalf of Su Bei? What do you think of the rumors about you?"

Camilan was well versed in the language and culture of S Country. He did not need a translator to understand the reporter's words. He could even answer the reporter's questions himself.

Holding the microphone, he smiled and said, "Here, I ask all reporters to address me as Ms. Camilan and not Mr. Camilan."

Her words caused an uproar. "Camilan is female?"

"But they always said she was a man. No one ever contradicted that."

"What's going on? Is there something else going on?"

“I heard something, but did I hear correctly?”

“Mr. Camilan, no, Ms. Camilan, can you tell us what’s going on?” It was the host who was more tactful. He immediately took control of the situation and steered the conversation in the normal direction.

Camilan always wore a small mask over the bottom half of her face that hid half her features. However, the rest of her body was relatively masculine. Her eyebrows were thick, and the corners of her jaw were sharply angled. Hence, no one had ever questioned her identity.

However, she had now admitted that she was a woman. Apart from being curious, everyone wanted to know the details.

Camilan smiled and said, “Everyone, when I was working in Europe, I always had short hair. Back then, everyone called me Mr. Camilan. For safety and convenience, I didn’t object or clarify. Years have passed since then. The outside world has gotten used to thinking of me as a man, but I’m still a woman. It’s the gender I was born with. If you don’t believe me, you can check my credentials and look for the relevant authorities to authenticate this fact.”

“So Director Camilan really is female.”

“I really didn’t expect this. Then the rumors about her and Su Bei can be considered to have collapsed, right?”

“That’s the last thing I expected. It’s unpredictable.”

“I suppose there’s just pure friendship between her and Su Bei?”

“You don’t say. Actually, the two would make quite a good pair. Director Camilan’s facial features are quite good.”

Chapter 1233: Overbearing

After all, the identity of a director was not as popular as that of an artist. There were not many opportunities for Camilan to come to Country S. Therefore, the reporters in Country S had never questioned her gender before, let alone explored it.

The host also said nimbly, “So in fact, many rumors and prejudices can’t be trusted. Today, Director Camilan stood in front of us with short hair and spoke with a slightly lower voice. Just because of that, we’ve been treating her as a man and have never questioned this for so many years. However, in fact, sometimes what you see might not necessarily be true. It’s easier to believe what you hear. The matter with Director Camilan tells us even more about this. Those rumors about Su Bei are probably also nothing.”

The host was indeed a host. Initially, she was on Tian Xin’s side, but now, seeing that the public opinion would turn to Su Bei’s side, her response immediately changed.

Of course, the production team also had such intentions. No one was willing to go against the public.

The reporters still had a bunch of questions for Camilan and Su Bei. They all rushed toward them with long microphones.

Su Bei held the microphone and smiled brightly. “The host is right. What the eyes see is not necessarily true, and it’s even more so for what the ears hear. I don’t know why that particular senior insisted on saying such things as if she had seen with her own eyes that there’s a shameful relationship between me and Director Camilan. What we have is just friendship.

“I think that as juniors, we should respect our seniors, because every path we take now was forged by their hard work and experience. Our glory also has its share of their sweat. We’ll inherit excellence, discard the dross, and strive to do better.

“But what about some seniors? Shouldn’t they be good examples for their juniors? They shouldn’t casually believe in rumors and spread them. Can’t they wipe their eyes and see more facts clearly? Moreover, shouldn’t they sincerely apologize for their mistake of deceiving the public?”

Su Bei’s words clearly pointed to Tian Xin, who was sitting below the stage.

At this moment, Tian Xin was indeed not as calm as before.

She had indeed never expected Camilan to be a woman!

The fact that Camilan dared to say that in public meant there had to be evidence. The move had caught her off guard.

If she spread rumors about a woman and a woman, it would essentially cause public dissatisfaction.

And Su Bei was getting more and more aggressive.

Tian Xin kept smiling but said nothing.

Su Bei’s smile widened. “Some so-called insiders dared to talk about Director Camilan’s private matters without even knowing her gender. Everyone is very smart, so I hope we won’t be misled in the future.”

Su Bei had said everything she needed to say, and the reporters returned with a full load.

Su Bei and Camilan held hands and sat in the front row not far from Tianxin and Lu Tianqing.

Tian Xin was still smiling, but because she was too angry, her fingers were trembling.

Lu Tianqing squeezed her mother’s fingers and barely calmed her down.

Tian Xin wasn’t in the mood for the rest of the event. In the second half of the show, she went to the bathroom and stayed there for a while. She reapplied her makeup before returning to the public eye.

Chapter 1234: Stingy

After the event, Su Bei and Camilan graciously accepted some more interviews before leaving together.

When they came out, Su Bei smiled and said, “Director Camilan, it’s all thanks to you this time.”

“I’m clearing things up for myself as well. Am I supposed to stand by and watch my reputation go up in flames?” Camilan said with a grin.

When she clarified her identity, Su Bei realized that although her voice was low, it was still a little different from a man's. It was just a rare female voice.

It was obvious how much people relied on what their eyes saw when forming conclusions. They completely reversed a person's gender just because of some inherent characteristics.

"If you hadn't contacted me, I really wouldn't have been able to fight back against Tian Xin. This time, it's all thanks to you."

Camilan smiled. "No harm done. You said it yourself. We're friends, aren't we?"

Su Bei smiled. "Then I'll treat it as a mutual favor between friends."

"Until next time, then." Nodding, Camilan turned and disappeared into the night.

Su Bei got into the nanny van. With Qiao Mei's calm personality, she couldn't help but pat her chest. "Fortunately, we had a trump card. That's why this matter was resolved so smoothly. It's just that I didn't expect her to be a woman. Did you know before this?"

"I didn't know either." Su Bei shook her head.

She had only guessed. She did not expect Camilan to take the initiative to help clarify.

Qiao Mei reached out to tidy up Su Bei's clothes and said, "Alright, go back and wash up, then have a good sleep. It seems that the entire public opinion tonight will be aimed at Tian Xin!"

The nanny van sent Su Bei to the apartment she lived in. Qiao Mei glanced at the apartment and said, "The place you live in isn't very safe. I've suggested a few times to Manager Li to move you elsewhere, but I don't know what's wrong with Manager Li. He keeps refusing. He's really stingy."

"No, no, no, Sister Mei. I'm fine living here. Don't make me move. You know I dislike being inconvenienced the most." Su Bei quickly made a begging gesture.

As for Manager Li, would he dare to let her live somewhere else? Wouldn't he be cut to death?

Qiao Mei smiled and said, "Okay, okay. I'll try to give you more subsidies next time. I'll give you two more bodyguards, okay?"

"That's pretty good. Thank you, Sister Qiao Mei."

After getting out of the car, Su Bei went straight home.

Lu Heting was still making some changes to this neighborhood.

Although there were still other residents in the building where Su Bei lived, they had slowly been relocated to other buildings.

Because the building where Su Bei lived was in the innermost part of the neighborhood, the various passageways had been changed to lead directly to the building. Hence, privacy and safety were practically guaranteed.

Su Bei had lived here for so long, but she had never been recognized or harassed.

The safety of the two munchkins could also be guaranteed.

Su Bei went straight to her place. Lu Heting came down to fetch her with the two munchkins.

Gun Gun immediately ran over when he saw Su Bei. He hugged her legs and climbed up like a little monkey.

Su Bei scooped him up and kissed him a few times before asking, "Why aren't you asleep?"

"I couldn't sleep when Bei Bei wasn't home," the kid said matter-of-factly.

Chapter 1235: So Explosive

"Okay, then I'll sleep with you." Su Bei took Da Bao's hand.

With the two munchkins on her left and right, there was no spot for Lu Heting. He could only follow behind the three of them.

After going back and making arrangements for the two munchkins to sleep, Su Bei finally had time to change her clothes.

"The fact that Camilan is a woman was sensational tonight. A lot of people were shocked." She removed her makeup while looking in the mirror. Behind her, Lu Heting helped her pull down the long zipper of her red gown.

The zipper was unzipped, and the skin that was exposed was smooth and delicate. It was fair, pure, and flawless.

The man's throat moved slightly, and he didn't hear what Su Bei was saying at all.

His mind was no longer on those things either.

"Actually, I had a vague feeling that something was up with Camilan before. I just didn't expect it to be so explosive." Su Bei felt a slight chill on her back and the sting of his stubble.

She bit her lip slightly. "Did you hear what I said?"

"Yes, you're talking about Camilan." Lu Heting kissed her back, his long fingers sliding over it.

"What did I say about Camilan?" Su Bei continued, also a little distracted by him.

Lu Heting reached out to help her change and picked her up. "You're tired. You should wash up and sleep, okay?"

Su Bei was weightless in the air. She hooked her arms around his neck, and her head began to spin. She had completely forgotten about Camilan by now.

Who cared about Camilan? What she felt at the moment mattered more.

That night, the video of Su Bei berating Tian Xin at the scene was uploaded. It quickly reached the top of the real-time hot search list, followed by a big red symbol that read 'Explosive'!

The second on the list was 'Camilan is a woman'.

During this period of time, Su Bei, who had been boycotted and mocked by Tian Xin, had long become a hot topic. Su Bei's participation in various unspoken rules had also become a hot topic. Even the name Camilan was repeatedly mentioned.

During this period, Su Bei and her team did not do any public relations.

It was precisely because of this that the anti-fans and her loyal fans had fought many times. All kinds of comments flew everywhere.

When everyone was at a loss, the video of Su Bei raging at Tian Xin exploded. The effect was undoubtedly the greatest. It was like a volcanic eruption, detonating the firepower that everyone had been accumulating for a long time.

The comments said everything.

[What did I say? Don't talk about things without evidence. So what if she's a senior? Can a senior casually gossip and spread rumors about others?]

[Look at Tian Xin. Doesn't she look like those old grannies on our streets who gossip? That face of hers is really hateful!]

[To the commenter above, you forgot that Tian Xin didn't say anything about Su Bei. Who asked Su Bei to rush to admit it? What did Tian Xin do wrong?]

[The person above, Tian Xin didn't say anything about Su Bei? Should I send you the link to the video and let you take a good look at it? Tian Xin was just short of pointing at Su Bei's nose and scolding her again and again. Su Bei just never responded. Tian Xin was really energetic, huh?! Su Bei really did a good job this time! It's only right that Su Bei scolds someone who likes to criticize others!]

[I agree. Of course, Su Bei has the right to refute!]

Chapter 1236: Don't Talk Back

[I'm especially sympathetic to this kind of thing. There are always people around who take advantage of their age and impose their opinions and thoughts on others. If you don't do what they want, they'll blame you in all kinds of ways. A move like Tian Xin's has caused me to feel both psychological and physical discomfort [hands up].]

[Su Bei, well done! Other artists are clearly trying their best to protect this circle, but some people are so self-righteous that they want to jump out and slander their own circle! If it were me, I would also retort!]

[Seriously, if Director Camilan hadn't exposed that she was a woman, wouldn't Su Bei be unable to clear her name? Tian Xin is really shameless!]

[In this era, women like to make things difficult for other women. Many people have said that it's a pleasure to work with Su Bei. Su Bei's acting skills are also obvious, but a certain someone just had to attack her.]

[It's really not easy for Su Bei. Fortunately, Director Camilan is a woman. Otherwise, I don't know what Tian Xin would have said.]

[The host is right. What you see might not be true, and what you hear is even more false. Rumors come from such irresponsible people!]

[That's right, that's right. She's even a vice president. She even hung out in Hollywood and was a movie queen back then. She didn't know that Director Camilan was a woman, but she dared to say that she knew about her private life. How could she have the cheek to say that?]

[Su Bei is so straightforward!]

[Some seniors really owe the public an apology!]

[I support Xiao Bei. Xiao Bei is the best!]

"I urge everyone to not believe in rumors, and definitely don't spread them. But when facing malicious rumors, don't be afraid. You must protect your interests openly! All the best! We'll always support Su Bei!]

The matter of Su Bei angering Tian Xin caused a heated discussion on the internet.

It was mainly because over the years, everyone valued their privacy and rights. Tian Xin's previous actions had long reminded them of their relatives, friends, neighbors, and aunts.

Now, this matter reminded them of the pain of being criticized by their elders and their arbitrary guesses. Therefore, they could empathize with Su Bei. Even if they were not fans, they still stood on Su Bei's side and took the initiative to speak up for her.

Of course, Tian Xin's fans were also putting up a struggle. For example, they said that Su Bei didn't know how to respect her seniors and was too aggressive and rude.

Reading on Myb o xno vel. com ,Please!

They also railed against Camilan for being a liar and deliberately disguising her gender. She was clearly a woman, yet she used her male identity to attract fans and deceive everyone's feelings.

However, they were scolded by even more netizens. [Seniors who are worthy of respect should be respected, not the seniors who casually insult and slander others.]

[I think Su Bei is quite polite. Tian Xin went overboard previously, but she didn't say anything. Even a rabbit will bite when forced to. Is it reasonable for Su Bei to let others hit and scold her without retaliating? Why?]

Fans of Camilan were triggered as well. They didn't speak up when Camilan was slandered. They didn't think it was necessary. However, they were angry now as well.

Chapter 1237: Should Not Be Oppressed

Now that such a thing had suddenly been exposed, they couldn't help but take the initiative to speak up. [Director Camilan has never said that she was a man, and she was also very worried about her private life being exposed online. For so many years, apart from filming, she's been doing various activities that helped children and women. She never once relied on selling her persona. If it weren't for Tian Xin deliberately misleading people, they wouldn't have bothered with her at all and she wouldn't have needed to expose her identity. You guys were the first to stir up trouble, yet you still think you're the reasonable ones, right?]

[The first to stir problems is the problematic one! Tian Xin and her fans, this refers to you!]

This chaotic battle naturally entered the eyes of the casting and directing team of the political movie.

Previously, they had been hesitating about selecting Su Bei even though in terms of acting skills and image, Su Bei was definitely qualified to be selected.

However, it was because of her scandal with Camilan that everyone was repeatedly unable to make a final decision.

At this moment, everyone had seen the trending searches and read about the entire scandal. Even the fact that Camilan was a woman had been exposed. They could not help but feel ashamed of their previous thoughts.

The female director in the casting team stood up at that moment. As a woman, she was better able to put herself in the other woman's shoes. She had experienced how difficult it was for a woman. Whether it was in the workplace or in the family, the slightest moral flaw could destroy a woman.

And because of that, there were people who preferred to use moral standards to make demands from female artists and smear their names with such things.

She was thrilled by Su Bei's retort. This was what she wanted. When one encountered injustice, one had to voice out and clarify it. One had to be brave enough to say no to the evil forces suppressing one's head no matter how domineering they were.

Otherwise, one would have fewer and fewer opportunities to voice out.

She suppressed her excitement and said, "Everyone, are you convinced that there's no problem with Su Bei now?"

The other directors had already approved of Su Bei's ability right from the start. The only thing they were worried about was getting dragged down by her scandals.

.....

However, now that it was proven that Su Bei had been framed, everything was easier.

The casting directors were respectable and talented people. They looked at each other and nodded at the same time. "I'm fine with it."

The executive director pushed open the door and said, "Everyone, what do you think about Su Bei?"

“I think we can proceed with her.”

“I think so too.”

Ever since the director saw Su Bei’s audition the last time, he had given her his approval. However, he had to respect his colleagues’ opinions.

Therefore, after seeing the clarification on the internet, he quickly confirmed the authenticity of the matter in the circle and confirmed that Camilan was indeed a woman. Hence, he immediately rushed over to ask everyone’s opinion.

The executive director smiled knowingly at everyone’s answer. It seemed that everyone had been paying attention to this matter, so everyone knew how it had ended.

Su Bei wouldn’t be oppressed.

Nor should Su Bei be oppressed.

Tian Xin was facing the biggest crisis in her life.

She never expected trouble to come from her own mouth.

It was true that she had not faced the fans’ enthusiasm for many years, nor had she faced the fans’ super combat power.

She was being chewed out on the internet. Times had changed. It wasn’t the same as it had been in her day when all reports could easily be artificially interfered with.

Chapter 1238: Official Announcement

Netizens nowadays had learned to look at things in many ways and wait for the final result after taking into consideration the strong evidence.

Instead of becoming Tian Xin’s blade to stab Su Bei, they stabbed Tian Xin instead.

Seeing the insults on the internet, Tian Xin’s heart ached. It was too uncomfortable. She had been popular all her life and rarely suffered because of her beauty. Now, she was being insulted by so many unrelated people. It was far beyond her imagination.

Lu Tianqing reached out and snatched her phone away. She put it aside and said, “Mom, stop looking. These people have parents but they clearly didn’t educate them. Why bother reading their comments and getting angry at them?”

“Back in my time, who would argue with their seniors like this? They would have been scolded to death long ago,” said Tian Xin.

Lu Tianqing said, “Mom, I’ll release the news that I’m participating in the political movie now. We’ll be able to suppress this matter soon. I’m also making arrangements with Tianci. We’ll release news of his artists to reduce the traction of your news. Soon, no one will continue to pay attention to this matter.”

“Go ahead,” Tian Xin said. She looked at the comments. She was indeed exhausted and didn’t want to take another look.

Lu Tianci posted some news about his artists.

Lu Tianqing also announced that she was going to participate in the political movie.

This time, many people were paying attention to the political movie. Currently, the cast list was being released one name after another.

As soon as the news of Lu Tianqing’s participation in the political movie was released, it attracted a wave of attention. Everyone started discussing enthusiastically.

Lu Tianqing’s fans also began to speak up for Tian Xin. In short, the effect Lu Tianqing wanted was achieved.

The matter of Su Bei being angry at Tian Xin was already discussed all night. The effect had already decreased, and now, all attention was on Lu Tianqing’s news.

When Lu Tianqing and Tianxin saw this result, their expressions finally relaxed a little.

At this moment, the official Weibo account of the political movie posted a message while tagging Su Bei: [Welcome, Miss Su, to our big family. Let’s make our own contributions and efforts to the cultural cause of S Country. Teacher Su, please take care of us.]

The outside world had also been waiting for these announcements. It could be said that everyone was looking forward to learning who was joining the cast.

Especially the artists themselves and their teams, they were all waiting for this.

They also hoped to use this to enhance their status and advance their careers.

Even Lu Tianqing valued this opportunity very much.

While everyone was waiting, Su Bei silently obtained this opportunity.

The artists themselves understood the importance of this role, and the fans even more so.

As soon as the official Weibo results were out, Su Bei’s fans erupted. [Su Bei is mighty. We’re proud of you!]

[As an actress of the younger generation, Su Bei has worked hard in her acting career. She respects the seniors in the industry and is not afraid of power. Her deeds are worth learning from. Congratulations to actress Su Bei for winning the role.]

[Congratulations, Actress Su Bei!]

[Congratulations, Su Bei!]

Therefore, the matter that had just died down surfaced again.

[What does this mean? It means that the official party knows that Su Bei was framed. They're clearing her name in this way!]

[The eyes of the crowd are sharp. Everyone knows what kind of person Su Bei is. Let's not be afraid of rumors and move forward bravely! We'll always support you, dear Su Bei!"]

Chapter 1239: Crack

[If it weren't for the fact that the occasion is inappropriate, I'd really like to ship Su Bei and Camilan. Don't you think they make quite a sweet pair?]

[I agree! They're indeed quite sweet. A super-invincible genius director and a talented and beautiful actress. It's quite a nice ship, isn't it?]

[And look closely at Director Camilan. Although she looks a little masculine, it's mainly because of her dressing and makeup. In fact, her facial features look quite good, and she's especially mature.]

[Is anyone writing stories about this ship? I promise to tip, vote, and subscribe immediately! Please, writers!]

[Speaking of which, I'm going to start cursing Tian Xin again. I think Tian Xin is jealous that Su Bei is young and beautiful, so she became an old witch!]

Tian Xin tried her best to reduce the traction of her news, but Su Bei's official announcement brought it up again.

The image of her as an old witch had now taken root.

There were also some talented netizens who photoshopped her photo and made her look like an old witch. They made her into various stickers, and the words accompanying them were especially funny. [If I say that you guys are having an affair, then you guys are having an affair!]

[Women are nothing. You bow your head to those filthy unspoken rules!]

As these memes spread, Tian Xin's matter became a foregone conclusion.

All along, Tian Xin had been very confident in her appearance and had taken particularly good care of herself. She would never admit defeat, nor would she admit that she was old.

However, this time, as these memes became popular, her image in everyone's minds was closer to the wrinkled, dejected, sinister, and vicious appearance in the memes. It was no longer the perfect beautiful image she had been maintaining.

Although Tian Xin had thought of spending money to solve the problem, matters on the internet spread too quickly now. Moreover, everyone was passionate about creating their own works, so Tian Xin had to continuously spend money.

She finally realized that she was out of touch with the times.

...

Han Qingwan had also been paying attention to this matter. Seeing that Su Bei had won this battle, she couldn't help but smile.

The nanny smiled and said, "Young Madam is really quite good. She caused this woman to fail miserably."

"It seems that Su Bei knows how to strike at Tian Xin's sore spot," Han Qingwan said with a smile.

Her mood lifted, and her complexion improved as well.

When she walked downstairs, she saw Old Madam Lu talking to the family doctor about pregnancy.

Han Qingwan's heart skipped a beat. Was Su Bei pregnant again?

Lu Weijian had never interacted with women. The only possibility was Su Bei.

However, when Han Qingwan went over, Old Madam Lu kept quiet and the family doctor also left.

Han Qingwan asked with a smile, "Mom, who's pregnant?"

"No one. I was just asking," Old Madam Lu said. Of course, she was concerned about Sheng Xiaotang's pregnancy. Ever since Lu Tianci and Sheng Xiaotang told her that they were expecting, Old Madam Lu had been abnormally concerned.

However, she couldn't tell Han Qingwan about this. If she did, something would happen sooner or later.

Seeing that she was being secretive, Han Qingwan did not ask further.

Not many in-laws could get along well with each other. It was the same for her and Old Madam Lu. On the surface, they were calm and harmonious, but they could not withstand any storms.

Since Old Madam Lu did not say anything, she did not ask further.

Chapter 1240: Pregnant?

However, from the looks of Old Madam Lu, someone in the Lu family was definitely pregnant.

If Su Bei was really pregnant, Han Qingwan couldn't ignore it.

Su Bei had already given birth to Da Bao and Gun Gun. It was a big hurdle for a woman to give birth. As a woman, Han Qingwan could understand the hardships.

With that in mind, she called Su Bei.

Su Bei was eating an apple while reading the script. After the official announcement of her participation in the movie, the entire script was quickly sent to her. Su Bei was thinking about her scenes.

When she picked up the phone, Han Qingwan said, "Su Bei, has the diagnosis been confirmed?"

"What diagnosis?"

"About the child. You're pregnant, aren't you?" Han Qingwan asked bluntly.

Su Bei was so shocked that she almost choked on an apple. "I'm pregnant?"

Hearing her tone, Han Qingwan was a little uncertain. "Isn't it?"

"Where did you hear that? I'm not planning on having another baby, and I certainly am not pregnant."

As she spoke, Su Bei's phone was taken away. She turned around and saw that Lu Heting had returned. He must have heard what Su Bei said as soon as he returned. His eyebrows were furrowed as he was frowning.

He took the phone and said to Han Qingwan, "Su Bei won't have another child. It's tough for a woman to get pregnant and deliver children. I'm sure you know this well, don't you?"

Su Bei lay on the bed with her face in her hands and looked at Lu Heting. The way he said such words was so charming.

Han Qingwan knew that Lu Heting had misunderstood and thought she was looking for Su Bei to ask her to give birth to another child. She said, "That's not what I meant. I overheard your grandmother consulting the family doctor about pregnancy, so I thought that Su Bei was pregnant. That's why I called her."

Reading on Mybo xno vel. com ,Please!

Lu Heting's brows relaxed, and his expression wasn't as tense. He said calmly, "It's not Su Bei."

"That's good. With Da bao and Gun Gun, what's there to be dissatisfied about?" Han Qingwan said.

"Okay." Lu Heting nodded and hung up.

Still holding her face in her hands and smiling, she sat up when he looked at her. "What did Mom say?"

"She said Grandma was looking for the family doctor and talking about pregnancy. That's why she called. She has no intention of asking you to give birth again."

"That's good." Su Bei was relieved.

Lu Heting looked relieved and gentle. He reached out and stroked her hair. "We already have two sons. No matter what the family says, as long as we don't want to, no one can force us to have children."

When facing Su Bei, he was gentle. His coldness was directed at those who were hostile to Su Bei.

Su Bei tilted her head and said, "But why did Grandma consult the doctor about pregnancy for no reason? Could it be that Lu Weijian's girlfriend is pregnant?"

"He has to have a girlfriend for that to happen," Lu Heting said mercilessly.

Su Bei burst out laughing.

It was too cruel, but it was really too funny. She couldn't help it.

Lu Weijian's ears burned as he sneezed. Who was thinking of him?

After laughing, Su Bei remembered. "If Lu Tianci has a girlfriend, it must be Lu Tianci. No wonder Grandma wanted to give him her shares the last time. It turns out that his girlfriend has a child. In that case, everything makes sense."

Lu Heting also remembered. "You have a point. It should be him."
