

Chapter 1251: Shocking News

Because Su Bei was on the same side as her now and she knew that Lu Tianqing had been giving Su Bei a hard time recently, Han Qingwan decided to visit Su Bei and ease their relationship.

To her surprise, she saw this.

It was nothing much, but it was indeed a little awkward.

Su Bei's face was so red that she couldn't raise her head. Although they were officially husband and wife, she felt a little uncomfortable being seen like this.

She quickly said, "I thank you on Gun Gun's behalf. I'll go and cut open the durians, then."

She ran to the kitchen.

Lu Heting rubbed his glabella. Han Qingwan said, "I'll leave first. Actually, I didn't see anything just now..."

Lu Heting didn't ask her to stay. After closing the door, he went to the kitchen. It was filled with the smell of durian. Su Bei was trying her best to break open a durian. Actually, she didn't want to eat it now, but it was quite awkward just now.

Seeing Lu Heting come in, she forgot that he hated durians. She subconsciously stuffed a piece into his mouth and said, "You eat it too."

After stuffing it into his mouth, she remembered that Lu Heting didn't eat durians. She quickly went to his mouth and said, "Hurry up and spit it out. I'm really muddle-headed."

"It'll be a waste." Lu Heting's voice was low. He slipped the durian into her mouth and kissed her again.

"Um... Where's Mom?" Su Bei asked in a muffled voice, her mouth filled with the fragrance of durian.

"She left. Focus." His big hand caressed her eyes and covered them. His lips were already by her ear, causing her to tremble slightly.

...

Because the political movie was divided into a few short stories, Su Bei quickly finished filming.

On that day, Lu Tianqing's filming was also completed.

Lu Tianqing invited the entire crew for a meal. With her good relationship with them and her style of doing everything, she quickly became a trending topic because she got along well with the crew members.

She was indeed the female lead of a political drama.

Her fans were also proud of this. They flooded the web and praised her for her beauty and generosity.

Lu Tianqing, who had surpassed Su Bei, became one of the most popular artists that month.

At this moment, the paparazzi who had gone to dig up information on Jia Shiyun revealed a lot of information about her admission to the hospital.

The paparazzi had taken many photos and videos of Jia Shiyun back then. They just didn't know what had happened to her and didn't expose her.

Now, it turned out that Jia Shiyun was previously hospitalized because she was pregnant. It was said that she was pregnant with the child of a rich man. Later, Jia Shiyun was suspected to have been schemed against by the rich man's wife, causing Jia Shiyun to miscarry. Now, not only was the child gone, but her career was also ruined.

This was shocking news. The paparazzi had contacted Tianyi Media to sell this information, but Tianyi Media did not accept it at all. Jia Shiyun was no longer their artist, so why would they still spend money to protect her?

Moon Breeze News had always attracted lots of attention. Soon, Jia Shiyun's matter became a trending topic.

Various videos and photos were also revealed.

Jia Shiyun's incident attracted a lot of attention.

[I didn't expect that Jia Shiyun, who had developed well in Di Xing Media Company back then, would end up like this. I guess it's fate. Tsk tsk tsk.]

[What a pity. Jia Shiyun is still quite beautiful.]

[What's there to pity? What kind of outcome would you expect from being a mistress? Mistresses don't deserve any pity, dog head.]

Chapter 1252: Things Adults Should Do

[Hahahaha, I'm dying of laughter because of the comment of the person above me. It's indeed retribution.]

[Jia Shiyun's fans are crying. I really don't know what to say.]

[Let's just disperse.]

Because Jia Shiyun had already been terminated by Tianyi and her management team was disbanded, there was no one to handle public relations for her. The comments she got were very real.

She had not appeared in public for a long time, and her fans were not strong enough to fight. It took a long time for this trending topic to die down.

This matter did not make much difference to Jia Shiyun, who had already hit rock bottom. It could not affect her anymore.

However, someone found Lu Tianqing in the video and photos.

This was very normal. After all, Lu Tianci was the boss of Tianyi Media. There was nothing wrong with Lu Tianqing visiting Jia Shiyun and having a personal relationship with her.

But the problem was that Lu Tianqing was seen smoking in the photos and videos.

Smoking was prohibited indoors and in public throughout Jingdu City. The rule was stipulated earlier on, and everyone knew about it.

Moreover, Lu Tianqing was in a hospital, a place where smoking was clearly prohibited.

This matter quickly caused an uproar.

Besides, the entire country was relatively conservative. There were very few women who smoked. Most women were averse to smoking, even if it was second-hand smoking.

From the way Lu Tianqing held her cigarette in the video, it was obvious that she smoked a lot.

Soon, this matter was taken seriously by netizens.

[Even if you're a celebrity, you can't have special privileges. Smoking is prohibited, and everyone has a shared social responsibility. Why can Lu Tianqing smoke?]

[I think so too. Especially for female artists. How could they smoke?!]

[Come, come, come. I'm reading about the no-smoking law in Jingdu City. When it was issued three years ago, it was clearly stated that no citizens were allowed to smoke in public or indoors. If they wanted to smoke, they had to go to a special smoking area. How many rules did Lu Tianqing violate? Why didn't the nurses in the hospital call her out at that time?]

[Really! I can't even accept a man smoking, let alone a woman. Can you understand the discomfort of being forced to smoke second-hand?]

[How can the patients and families in the hospital tolerate such behavior?]

The fans began to defend Tianqing. [Tianqing is definitely just practicing for filming purposes. She's not really smoking! Please pay more attention to the work she produces!]

[Tianqing has been living abroad and isn't familiar with the situation in the country. Please understand.]

[What's wrong with smoking? It's your freedom to smoke as an adult! Does Tianqing have to report to you whatever she does?]

The netizens almost laughed their heads off at the fans' comments. [Practicing for filming purposes? Isn't that Jia Shiyun's ward? Jia Shiyun has already left the industry, yet she's still practicing? Who are you defending here? She's not familiar with the situation in the country? Why do I feel that she's quite familiar when eating and drinking tea with the directors? Also, adults are free to smoke. But if you know that you're an adult, you should go to a special smoking area to smoke. This is what adults should do, right?"]

The violation of rules was not a big problem, and no one would pay attention to it under normal circumstances. Lu Tianqing had also always been very careful and had never been photographed.

However, she did not expect that this time, with Jia Shiyun's matter being exposed, it would become even worse.

Chapter 1253: Making Things Worse

With her early popularity, she wouldn't have attracted so much attention.

However, she was too popular now. First, she was constantly mentioned by her movie queen mother. Then, because of the political movie, everyone knew about her. Naturally, there would be a lot of trouble if she was popular. Moreover, she had really caused trouble this time.

Someone even said: [How can an artist like her participate in a political movie? Won't she lead the children astray?]

[That's right. You have to pay more attention to such small things. It's not as if we can let her be just because the matter is small. It's these small things that constitute the object of the children's imitation. Smoking is an easy thing to imitate. What if the adolescent children follow suit?]

[I don't think she should be in the political movie either.]

[But do you know that Lu Tianqing has deep connections? This matter will definitely be brushed aside. If you don't believe me, you'll see it later.]

Lu Tianqing did not expect things to turn out this way.

Ever since the paparazzi came to look for the people from Tianyi Media to sell dirt on Jia Shiyun, she had never taken the paparazzi seriously. She never thought that she would get involved in this.

It was too late for regrets now.

She could only minimize the damage, make a public apology, and say she was turning over a new leaf.

She had no choice. It was too obvious in the video. She couldn't even deny it.

Then, a director called and told her, "Tianqing, we can only bear with the pain and find someone else to record your scenes in the political movie."

"Uncle Zhang, is there no other way?" u Tianqing's heart turned cold.

Director Zhang had a very good relationship with Tian Xin. Since he said this, Lu Tianqing knew that things were indeed not good.

"It's a political movie. And the whole smoking in a hospital thing is a really bad influence."

Lu Tianqing bit her lip, unwilling to accept this. She had spent so many days working hard just to suppress Su Bei.

But now, everything was ruined.

As high-profile as she had been before, the mockery was overwhelming now.

"I've already admitted my mistake, Uncle Zhang. Can I fix things? Can I find the other uncles and aunts to think of a solution together?"

Lu Tianqing thought about how many of her mother's old friends and family members were on the production team.

Director Zhang sighed. "Tianqing, it's precisely because we have a good relationship with you that we have no choice but to take action this time. Do you understand? If we were just passersby, we could still argue for you. But now, no matter what we say, others will think that we're deliberately protecting you. Not only is it useless, but it'll also make things worse."

There were two sides to everything.

Lu Tianqing had previously created a situation where she formed very good relationships with the directors. Now, it had become a double-edged sword. With the sword pointed at her, no one could defend her.

In other words, her withdrawal from the movie was inevitable.

"If I have other good scripts next time, I'll surely let you know," Director Zhang said.

Lu Tianqing put down her phone, her palm cold.

Lu Tianqing's apology video was still effective and she gained the forgiveness of many people.

However, the political movie was silently reshoot. The reshoot calmed the public's anger.

From then on, all her high-profile actions finally ended in a dismal manner.

On Su Bei's side, the movie Mother that was directed by Camilan was officially released.

Chapter 1254: Relying On Works

Mother was not an easy movie, but its plot touched people's hearts and ignited the public's enthusiasm for watching it.

Su Bei's acting skills had long been recognized by everyone.

However, this time, her extremely restrained performance stunned everyone again.

Her face was completely different from the bright and beautiful Su Bei that everyone knew from every movie.

It was a real character made of flesh and blood.

She was the embodiment of the character she played.

The box office sales of Mother soared and quickly broke through a billion. Profits were guaranteed.

And with every box office breakthrough, Su Bei became well-known.

With the works she put out, she never had to fear rumors.

It was really a blessing to have high-quality works to rely on.

Fans could use her achievements to refute the brainless anti-fans and mocking passersby.

It was also possible for them to promote their idol confidently.

Her popularity as a celebrity would also increase invisibly.

Although there were also some negative comments such as [Su Bei's acting skills have deteriorated and are not as good as before], nothing could stop the rising box office sales.

Su Bei booked the entire venue and invited some friends to watch the movie.

Lu Weijian was naturally among her guests.

When they came out of the cinema, Lu Weijian's eyes were red. "Sister Bei Bei, your acting skills are really good. The mother is really great. In order to protect her son, she really did something admirable."

Su Bei smiled. "Thank you."

Lu Weijian switched his phone from silent to normal mode. After coming out of the cinema for a while, his WeChat kept ringing with countless messages.

His eyes immediately stopped turning red. He replied: [No, no, I can't get you an appointment. Is my Sister Bei Bei's schedule that free?]

"Mr. Weijian, are you trying to get in the way of my work? Let's hear it, then. No matter what, I have to earn money to support my son."

Lu Weijian immediately took the phone. "How can this be my job? Those people in my gaming team are all clamoring to see you. They've been pestering me for a long time. I'm really impressed."

"That's good. After all, I'm only someone with the label. If we actually meet, it'll give us away."

Lu Weijian sighed. "It's a pity that Da Bao is still too young to go out and show his face. It'll be fine when he grows up. I really want to take my nephew out to show off. When can my nephew step into public and earn me a good reputation?"

Su Bei smiled. "After he turns 18."

Lu Weijian counted with a bitter face.

Su Bei had no choice. Children had to be protected. It was not appropriate for them to appear in public too much.

Besides, even if she agreed, it would be useless if Lu Heting didn't agree.

Lu Weijian finally responded, "You need to earn money to support your son? My brother still needs..."

Su Bei said righteously, Why? Can't I?"

"Yes, yes, of course, you can. Whatever makes you happy."

...

After the filming of the political movie ended, Su Bei did not receive a more suitable script. She decided to wait and see for the time being, so she only had some activities lined up.

Chapter 1255: I Won't Do It Again

Usually, she would compare her gaming skills with Da Bao and accompany Gun Gun to read some picture books. At night, she would cook some delicious food for the three of them. Their days were carefree and comfortable.

When she received Director Guo's WeChat message, Su Bei sat up from the sofa.

"I didn't expect Director Guo to be turning 50," she muttered to herself.

Director Guo had always treated her as his daughter. The two of them had always been on good terms in private. This time, Director Guo invited her to his birthday party.

Seeing that she was free that day, Su Bei agreed without hesitation.

When Lu Heting returned, she asked him if he wanted to go with her.

"I'd like to go with you, but there's a meeting that day." Lu Heting smiled. "I'll just prepare a gift."

"That will do. I'll deliver your gift to Director Guo."

Lu Heting asked, "Will there be many people that day?"

"Not many. Director Guo said he only invited two or three of his best friends and his family."

"Okay." Lu Heting didn't say anything. He turned around and went to his room to pick a gift.

On Director Guo's birthday, Su Bei wanted to dress up in women's clothes.

But before leaving, Qiao Mei made a call. "Su Bei, be careful these days. There's a lot of paparazzi following you."

"Where did all these paparazzi come from?"

"Haven't they always been around? It's just that you've filmed a lot of movies recently. The outside world has never gotten a clear idea about your private life. Many people want to record you. I'm afraid it won't stop until all the news about you is dug up."

Reading on Mybo xn o v el. com ,Please!

Su Bei couldn't help but open the curtains and look outside.

Her neighborhood was well guarded.

So far, the paparazzi had not even dug up her residence.

However, after getting out of this protective shield that Lu Heting had carefully built, the situation was indeed not optimistic.

With that in mind, she turned to change into men's clothes.

Anyway, Director Guo had always known that she was Lu Bei and was used to her wearing such clothes. It was not a problem for her to meet Director Guo and his best friends like this.

Moreover, she could avoid trouble. She and Director Guo had not worked together recently. What if word got out that there was some scandal between the actress and the director?

Su Bei went to Director Guo's birthday party. There were indeed no outsiders at the party. They were all familiar people and Director Guo's family.

Seeing Su Bei's outfit, everyone smiled.

The entire banquet was as comfortable as a dinner among family.

The atmosphere was very good that night. Su Bei drank a little. When the banquet ended, Lu Heting called. "Where are you? I'll pick you up."

Su Bei gave him the address and waited by the roadside.

Because she was dressed as a man, she did not deliberately avoid suspicion and stood casually.

Soon, Lu Heting's car came into sight. Su Bei raised her eyebrows and smiled. When the car stopped, she got in.

Lu Heting's expression was calm, but when he smelled the alcohol on her body, he frowned slightly. "Have you been drinking?"

"A little. Director Guo was happy, and I was there to celebrate his birthday, so I didn't decline."

Lu Heting reached out and pulled her over. He said in a low voice, "Your stomach hasn't recovered yet. Don't you know that you can't drink?"

Su Bei felt that her stomach was already very good, but the psychological trauma left by this matter was too great for Lu Heting to be at ease.

Seeing his serious expression, she begged softly, "Just this once. I won't do it again."

Lu Heting reached for a bottle of mineral water, opened it, and gave it to her.

Chapter 1256: What A Bastard

Su Bei reached out to take it, but he was holding the bottle to her mouth. She had no choice but to take two small sips as he held the bottle in his hand.

Although she didn't drink much at night, she had a lot of drinks. She really didn't have much desire to drink water.

Lu Heting frowned slightly and approached her with a gentle gaze. "Drink a little more."

"I can't. I really can't drink anymore."

“Just one more mouthful.”

“I can’t drink anymore.” Su Bei felt as though her stomach was filled to the brim.

Lu Heting took back the mineral water bottle unhurriedly and took a sip. Just as Su Bei was about to heave a sigh of relief, the man’s breath invaded her nose. His thin lips were soft as he made her drink another mouthful of water.

Su Bei grunted. This last mouthful made her want to cry.

In the distance, a flash of light recorded the scene in front.

Then, Lu Heting’s car drove away.

When the phone containing the video was placed on Lu Yaode’s desk, he angrily pushed the phone to the floor.

The phone shattered into pieces.

“What a bastard! He actually likes men! What did Han Qingwan teach him to lead the Lu family astray?!” No matter how much Lu Yaode disliked Lu Heting, he couldn’t tolerate his son messing around like this.

But in the video, Lu Heting’s appearance was clearly shown. The person he was hugging and kissing was also clearly a man.

He really didn’t expect his son to do something so perverse.

Lu Tianci sat at the side with a faint smile on his face.

Lu Yaode could accept that his son had countless women, but he could not accept that he liked men. Especially since he already had a bad impression of that son, it was even harder for him to like him now.

Lu Tianci smiled and said, “Dad, isn’t this good? Now that we’re secretly buying the shares of Lu Group and roping in the people who support us, how many people will turn against Lu Heting and how badly will the shares of Lu Group fall if we release the news of Lu Heting liking men?”

Lu Yaode’s worry turned to joy. “You can’t blame me for taking back Lu Group. How can we hand over such a huge family business to such a person? How can we let him destroy the future of the entire family? Contact Feng Ze. We have to act as soon as possible!”

“I’ve been in contact with Feng Ze, and everything is normal,” Lu Tianci said. “I’ll collect more evidence. Lu Heting will definitely be abandoned by everyone!”

Soon, a piece of explosive news hit the public eye.

The leader of Lu Group, Lu Heting, who had always been mysterious and low-key, had gone on a date with a young hunk late at night. He was on the hot search list and directly occupied the first spot.

This trending topic was very eye-catching and quickly attracted the attention of many people.

First of all, the words ‘the head of Lu Group’ were enough to arouse everyone’s interest.

As one of the largest corporations in S Country, Lu Group was active in various fields and controlled half of the country's economy.

The head of Lu Group had always been mysterious. Many years ago, after Old Master Lu retired, Lu Yaode only appeared briefly. After that, the person in charge never appeared in public again.

However, the entire group's performance was improving day by day. Their achievements swept through the entire country and even the entire world.

Chapter 1257: Beautiful

However, no one knew who the person in charge was.

Those who saw the news were shocked. [F*ck!!! The person in charge is so young!]

[Oh my God, what kind of peerless handsome man is this? Although he's only sitting in the car, his profile, the line of his nose, and the perfect curve of his face... What kind of peerless handsome man is this?! Is he really not some top actor in the entertainment industry?]

[We need confirmation!]

[Lu Heting, so this handsome man's name is Lu Heting! I'm crying. He's such a winner in life! He's already so powerful at such a young age.]

[I'm so impressed!]

The effect was different from what Lu Yaode wanted. The first group of people in the comments were all obsessing over Lu Heting's looks.

And this trend was spreading.

[I wonder if you still remember Lu Weijian? He's good-looking enough, right? How can Lu Weijian's brother not be good-looking as well?]

[Lu Heting, please verify it on Weibo!]

[I beg Lu Group's official Weibo account to authenticate this handsome man's name!]

However, after being attacked by his good looks for a while, everyone's attention finally turned to the other word—'guy'.

It was no wonder that everyone didn't pay much attention to this guy at the beginning. It was just that this guy's overall temperament was a little weak. Lu Heting's aura was tough and proud, and it was especially easy to attract attention.

[This other guy is also very good-looking!]

[I'm also into this little brother. He looks so gentle and cute.]

[The little puppy belongs to the wolfdog. Sigh, what sins have we girls committed? Why don't we get such chances?]

[Please tell me his name.]

[What a beautiful love!]

[Such good-looking men belong with each other!]

[I'm crying. This is just like my favorite drama. Look at the way Lu Heting looks at the little puppy. He's so charming and lustful. I've already imagined an entire book about them. It's so exciting!]

[Please write it for everyone to enjoy!]

[I'll spend a lot of money to subscribe to the imaginative content!]

[Quick, quick, quick. Someone is already writing about this ship. They're called the most beautiful ship. Let's all read the cool novel!]

For a moment, everyone was just fangirling over the new ship.

Lu Yaode was furious when he saw these comments. This was far from what he had imagined.

Lu Tianci was already prepared. "Brainless people are all like this. They can accept anything. But the bad influence from this news will only get worse."

Lu Yaode glanced at Lu Group's shares. They were indeed on the decline.

And because of this, those from Lu Group whom he had roped in and were waiting to make a decision would definitely make a move soon.

In the eyes of many of the older generation, this was an immoral thing to do.

In particular, they always liked to mix personal feelings with work. They especially liked to use such things to attack others.

Lu Yaode and Lu Tianci deliberately dug up dirt on Lu Heting and finally found this. Their intentions were indeed vicious.

However, the people on the internet were enjoying themselves. They did not care about companies, stocks, or style. They only liked to see beautiful people sweetly dating each other.

Soon, someone pointed out: [Is that little brother called Lu Bei? The one who filmed a game advertisement with Su Bei previously? Although he's not very popular, he was also famous for his beauty back then.]

Chapter 1258: Wrong Focus, Right?

[Yes, yes, I testify that it's really him! I've compared the two men in detail. They really are identical.]

[No wonder I haven't seen any new works from Lu Bei. Previously, I thought that he was being suppressed. I didn't expect him to be focused on dating.]

[I totally understand. Who wants to work when they're in such a sweet relationship?]

[I'm so envious. I want to have such a sweet relationship too!]

[I'm crying. I was supporting Lu Bei and Su Bei. You guys have really torn my ship apart.]

[To the friend above, come and ship the new couple!]

When Su Bei woke up early in the morning, she received a WeChat message from Lu Weijian.

She rubbed her eyes and opened the message. Lu Weijian's voice sounded, "Sister Bei Bei, you really didn't expect my brother to have found a new lover last night, did you?"

Su Bei sat up with a start.

Lu Heting sat up as well. He wrapped his broad shoulders around her and rested his chin on her shoulder.

Hearing Lu Weijian's words, he reached for his phone and replied: "If it's possible to produce clones, this news might be real."

"Hahahaha, it's really Brother." Lu Weijian laughed. "You'll know when you see the photos."

He immediately sent a few photos. As he knew that the person in the photos was actually Su Bei, he teased her.

Lu Heting opened the photos, and Su Bei looked at them too.

Both of them could not help but laugh when they saw the scene that was captured last night.

Last night, because Su Bei was wearing men's clothes, she didn't pay as much attention as usual. The paparazzi were really professional.

Even though she was dressed as a man in the photos, she was indeed quite compatible with Lu Heting. She just didn't know what the netizens would say about Lu Heting.

"Let me read the comments first." Su Bei snatched the phone from Lu Heting and wanted to read the comments first. At the same time, she asked Qiao Mei to quickly suppress the news. As for Lu Group's public relations, it was very simple.

Lu Heting was an outsider in the industry. Su Bei didn't want him to be criticized. She worked for this industry, so it was fine she was mocked.

But Lu Heting had done something wrong and had to bear the infamy.

However, when she clicked on her phone, what did she see?

Why were they all talking about the most beautiful couple?

What fairy couple?

Someone had actually produced a comic for two, one that was not suitable for children to read!

The comments were filled with envy, jealousy, and hatred. Some were envious of Lu Heting, while others were envious of Lu Bei.

There were also a bunch of people asking for Lu Heting and Lu Bei's contact details.

There were even a small number of men who recommended themselves.

How did they have the nerve?

When Lu Heting took the phone from Su Bei, he happened to see the comic. He said calmly, "This position is not bad."

Su Bei: "..."

'That's the wrong focus, right?'

In addition to these, some other information was released.

Basically, Lu Heting really liked Lu Bei. For example, there were Lu Bei's photos and figurines in his office.

This was also what Lu Yaode had found out from someone in Lu Group.

Speaking of which, the photos and figurines of Lu Bei in Lu Heting's room were given to him by Su Bei during the lucky draw on Weibo.

Seeing this, Su Bei slowly raised her head and looked at Lu Heting. "I have a question. Why do you have Lu Bei's photos and figurines in your office?"

Chapter 1259: Fate

Even if Lu Heting wanted to put out some photos, he should put photos of her true self. There was no reason for him to pick photos of her as Lu Bei.

"You delivered them to me yourself."

Su Bei: "..."

After a moment, she realized. "So, you're the lucky audience member I drew the last time? The one whose Weibo account is called Shell 001?"

Lu Heting nodded.

"What kind of fate is this? I randomly picked you out of tens of millions of people?"

Lu Heting smiled. "What kind of fate is this? We went to the Civil Affairs Bureau together out of millions of people."

Su Bei threw herself into his arms. "I want to ship us too!"

After being in his arms for a while, she asked, "So how do we handle the current situation?"

"I'll take care of it," Lu Heting said casually.

In fact, he was quite satisfied with the fact that the entire internet was talking about him and Su Bei as a couple, even though no one knew that it was Su Bei.

There was a very subtle sense of satisfaction.

He didn't care what the outside world said. However, Lu Group had been around for so many years, and there was no lack of stubborn old shareholders who treated this kind of stuff with disdain. They won't be able to stop themselves from nagging at him.

.....

Lu Heting mainly wanted to deal with this group of people.

He quickly went to the office.

As expected, this matter had already taken root.

Those employees who usually didn't dare to talk about Lu Heting couldn't help but say, "I really didn't expect this. No wonder there have never been women around the president. It turns out that he likes men. I really couldn't tell."

"I heard he's already found a surrogate for a baby."

"But it's good. The man I can't have doesn't belong to another woman. I'm content."

"Hahahaha, I agree."

Lu Hang followed behind Lu Heting. When he heard these comments, his face immediately darkened. He wondered if Mr. Lu would lose his temper today because of this.

He stole a few glances. Fortunately, Mr. Lu's emotions were quite stable as if he was not troubled by this matter at all.

Thank goodness.

Besides, the employees were only discussing it quietly. Moreover, most of them had a kind attitude. The entire company's situation was quite normal.

Lu Heting took the elevator to the top floor. Some senior executives and shareholders were already waiting there. The security guards were maintaining order.

They had long seen Mr. Lu bringing the delivery man to his office. Initially, no one dared to think too much, but now, they couldn't help but size up Mr. Lu.

Why, alas, did quality men always prefer other men?

Security Guard A instinctively crossed his arms and looked worried.

Security Guard B said, "Even if Mr. Lu likes men, he won't like you and me, right?"

Security Guard A thought that made sense and let go of his hands.

On the other hand, the higher-ups and shareholders all had solemn expressions. Their gazes followed Lu Heting as if he had done something treasonous and said, "Mr. Lu, the impact of this incident is very bad. Actually, women are really quite good. Why do you have to—"

Lu Heting stopped in his tracks. "This is a company. Can we talk about private matters after work?"

“Mr. Lu, even if it’s a private matter, it’s still the business of the entire Lu Group. I’m worried that the entire Lu Group will be destroyed due to your current situation.”

Chapter 1260: What’s Worthy Of Respect?

A shareholder said solemnly and earnestly.

It was as if Lu Heting’s matter was a sign of Lu Group’s destruction.

They couldn’t accept this no matter what.

“Will my private life affect my working state? Did the share price fall? Is the entire company’s current situation worrying? Or is this just because you can’t stand something and are treating it as a great enemy?” Lu Heting asked.

No one spoke for a moment.

Of course, there were no bad effects yet. Even the share price had returned to normal after a slight dip. It was hard to say that it had been affected by the incident.

Naturally, they were only trying to persuade him because they couldn’t accept this matter and thought it was too perverse.

Therefore, they felt that it was necessary to get Lu Heting back on track.

“But Mr. Lu, this kind of thing is completely inconsistent with our ancestor’s teachings. Besides, it’s simply unorthodox and doesn’t conform to the mainstream. Even if it’s not related for the time being, we’ll definitely suffer a backlash later!”

Lu Heting snorted coldly. These old shareholders were always like this. When they encountered something, they didn’t look at the problem from a fair and objective perspective. Whenever they didn’t like something, they would force things to work their way.

It was like that at work, and it was also like that in one’s personal life.

He said, “I have my own conclusions on this matter. Lu Hang issued a statement asking everyone to not pay attention to my private life and pay more attention to the company’s development on the company’s official Weibo account. Everyone’s orientation is worthy of respect.”

“That last part isn’t very nice, is it?” said the secretary next to one of the shareholders.

There wasn’t much for a secretary to do on an occasion like this. He only said that because he was disgusted with men liking men.

Lu Heting looked at him and asked, “Then what do you think is good?”

“What is there to respect about men liking men?” he blurted out.

Lu Heting sneered. "I'm also not interested in affairs between men. But I don't think that one's private life and orientation should be discussed and judged by others. I also don't think that others are not worthy of respect and deserve to get their rights and freedom stripped. For the same reason, what you think is arsenic is something that others are willing to accept. Is there a problem, then?"

The secretary bowed his head at this.

Among the other secretaries, there were occasionally one or two who liked people of the same sex. It was just that they had never laid it out on the table. When they heard Lu Heting criticizing such people, they were really satisfied.

The neutrals may not support the cause, but they respected other people's preferences and were very convinced by Lu Heting's words.

Lu Heting glanced around. "Or do you want to eliminate all the things you can't stand? Today, you can't stand men being with men. Tomorrow, you can't stand that the company's development is not as expected. Are you going to overdo it?"

Everyone bowed their heads. Now even the shareholders were silent.

Lu Hang had already quickly gotten the people from the public relations department to log into the official Weibo account and post a statement: [Thank you for your concern about the personal affairs of our group's CEO, Mr. Lu. However, Mr. Lu is not from the entertainment industry and is unwilling to be involved in scandals. Please pay more attention to the operations of our group and give Mr. Lu some freedom in his personal life. At the same time, Mr. Lu wishes to tell everyone that everyone's orientation is worthy of respect.]
