

Chapter 1271: Double Back

With his words, Old Madam Lu was finally relieved. Seeing that the child was worth teaching, she said sincerely, "Tianci, it's not that I don't dote on you and don't want to let you take charge of the company. It's just that the huge Lu Group is related to the survival of hundreds of thousands of people and the stability of many industries. I don't want to see any chaos.

"What should be given to you will be given to you. Your grandfather and I will not be biased in the future. Don't fight with Heting and let the third party benefit from the situation. Do you understand?"

Lu Tianci pretended to agree. "Don't worry, I won't do that kind of thing. I'm a member of the Lu family, so I want to see the Lu family harmonious too. Grandma, take care of yourself."

'Otherwise, you won't be able to witness the day I reclaim all the power.'

Lu Tianci's words were pleasant to hear. Old Madam Lu was finally at peace again. As long as she got all the shares back, Lu Tianci and his son would not pose a strong threat to Lu Heting even if they held a shareholders' meeting.

Therefore, Old Madam Lu didn't have to worry about letting Lu Heting down.

After Old Madam Lu left, Lu Tianci said impatiently, "Old witch, you only know how to be biased. You want to get back your shares? Dream on!"

Annoyed, he opened his phone and glanced at it. He kept sending messages on WeChat.

Now, it wasn't just a question of whether he wanted to return the shares or not. He also needed to get back what he had invested.

Ever since he got the shares, he had used them to start doing business in an attempt to reap huge benefits.

However, the truth was that the investment market was not easy to play around with. There were risks to investing.

Now, his 10% shares were all thrown into the market without earning him any money.

He had borrowed a lot of money to recoup his losses. But the more he borrowed, the more he lost.

Even if he wanted to return the shares to Old Madam Lu, he had nothing to return.

He put the call through to the investor. "Will these shares of mine really be returned to me in three days?"

"If you do it my way, they'll definitely come back. And they'll come back twice as fast." The voice on the other end of the line was very confident.

Lu Tianci snorted. "As long as I get my things back, I won't think about doubling them. You have to make sure that my shares can be returned!"

“Definitely!” The man on the other end was very solemn. There was no hesitation.

Lu Tianci was slightly relieved.

He had even kept this from his parents and sister. Anyway, the shares would be back in two days. It wouldn't affect the shareholders' meeting. There was no need to worry too much.

After a while, Lu Yaode called. “Tianci, your shares are ready, right? When the time comes, we'll have more shares than Lu Heting. With the support of those shareholders, our authority will be higher than Lu Heting's, and we can remove him from his position.”

“Dad, don't worry. Everything is ready,” Lu Tianci said.

Lu Yaode nodded in satisfaction. “Alright, conserve your energy for the next few days. Get ready.”

Lu Hang put away his phone and said to Lu Heting, “Mr. Lu, everything on Lu Tianci's side is in the plan.”

“Follow the plan.” Lu Heting rubbed his eyebrows.

Ever since Lu Yaode returned, he had never let his guard down around the father and son.

Now, it was finally time for a head-on confrontation.

Chapter 1272: I've Let The Mother And Son Down

The shareholders' meeting was about to take place.

Old Madam Lu was still waiting for Lu Tianci to return the shares. In fact, Lu Tianci did not even pick up the phone.

This made Old Madam Lu anxious.

However, Old Master Lu, Han Qingwan, and the others were also very anxious at this moment, so no one suspected anything.

Lu Yaode woke up early in the morning. He was wearing a custom-made suit and stood in front of the mirror, looking exceptionally energetic.

As Tian Xin helped him tie his bow tie, she said, “Hubby, tomorrow will definitely be fine. We're all ready. You've been in the industry for so many years.”

“It won't be a problem.” Lu Yaode held her hand. “It's been hard on you to follow me all these years. But after this, I'll definitely give you everything I promised you.”

“Actually, these aren't what I want the most. What I want the most is to be with you until my hair turns white. With you around, I really don't want anything else,” Tian Xin said gently. “I never chose to be with you for wealth or fame. I chose you because of you.”

Lu Yaode was very touched. “Even if you don't want those things, it's my duty to give them to you.”

Tian Xin was even gentler than before. “Hubby, actually, it hasn’t been easy for Qingwan and Heting all these years. When you become the person in charge, give Heting a chance. After all, he’s your son. All these years, I’ve indeed let them down.”

Lu Yaode sighed and said, “You’re really too kind. The mother and son hate you so much. Previously, Han Qingwan even embarrassed you in public and made Tianci’s movie unable to be released. She even slandered you in the media, but you keep speaking up for them. You’ll suffer for your kindness.”

“Sigh, it’s a blessing to suffer losses. Besides, Qingwan was my good friend back then. If it weren’t because I was unable to control my feelings for you and if I hadn’t gotten to know you better than she did or let her down, we wouldn’t have ended up like this. Just promise me that you’ll at least treat them well in the future, okay?”

Lu Yaode was really touched by her. It had been so many years, but Tian Xin was still so kind and generous. She never thought about herself and always thought about others.

How could Lu Yaode not be infatuated with such a woman?

He nodded. “I’ll naturally agree to your requests. It’s just that that unfilial son didn’t learn well and actually fooled around with men. When the time comes, I’ll definitely teach him well. I must straighten him up.”

“Of course. Only a strict father like you can educate sensible children. Educating him is also for his own good.” Tian Xin smiled, but she knew that when the time came, there would be many conflicts between the pair of father and son. She just had to sit back and watch.

Anyway, none of this fire could reach her.

Lu Tianqing had been buying things very freely these past few days.

Before this, she was already especially generous with her spending. Recently, she didn’t even take money seriously.

The entire Lu family was rich and powerful, so it was no problem for them to satisfy her expenses. Moreover, she earned a lot of money herself and had the support of He Consortium.

After shopping at the mall, she spent eight figures in one go. Still not satisfied, she said to the driver, “Let’s go see some villas. By the way, Xiaotang, do you have any good recommendations for villas?”

Chapter 1273: Qualified

Sheng Xiaotang smiled and said, “Sister Tianqing, if you want to buy a villa, let me introduce you to a good place. Recently, the villa area in the city center is open for purchase. That location is the best in the entire S Country. It’s quiet in the midst of all the hubbub, and the environment is very good. The geographical location is also especially superior. Although it’s in the city center, it’s completely quiet as if it’s in a forest. Moreover, there are mountains, flowers, and trees. And the price is very affordable. A single villa only costs 300 to 500 million yuan. With your background, it's not a problem to buy a few villas."

Lu Tianqing was indeed very tempted.

She had been developing her career in T Country previously and had not done much in S Country.

Since she was going to live in the capital in the future, she naturally had to buy a few more houses.

Moreover, her father was about to become the head of Lu Group. The place where they lived naturally had to match her father's status.

"Let's go there." Lu Tianqing was tempted.

Sheng Xiaotang said, "Alright. There's no need to provide an address. Just go straight to the city center. If you live in that location, it's as though you're the queen looking down at all her subjects."

Lu Tianqing was very satisfied with this statement. "Thank you for your blessings."

"Speaking of which, my father actually has an interest in this place. However, although the location is good, there aren't many houses available for purchase. After all, only a few houses were built. You have to find connections to buy houses there. With my family's wealth, we have no hopes of buying a house there. Therefore, I think only you can buy houses in that area."

A trace of arrogance appeared on Lu Tianqing's face. Sheng Xiaotang was right. When her father became the head of Lu Group, only her family was qualified to buy the houses in that area.

She and Sheng Xiaotang soon arrived at the place.

When the reception staff saw them appear, they quickly recognized them. They were very enthusiastic and came up to greet them. Tea, coffee, and fruits were quickly served. The staff member drove a special tram and accompanied them to look at the houses and explained everything in detail.

Lu Tianqing had seen enough and called Tian Xin.

When Tian Xin heard that such a good place existed, she smiled. "There's such a good house?"

"That's right. Dad will be in charge of the company soon, so we definitely can't live casually in the future. We have to live in a house that matches Dad's identity, so I want to give him a better one. At the same time, we have to pay more attention to our privacy and taste. Otherwise, it'll be embarrassing for the head of Lu Group."

Tian Xin smiled happily. Lu Tianqing's words made sense. She said, "Then look around more. If possible, buy a few more houses. You and your brother can each have one. Even if you don't stay there in the future, it's good to keep them."

"Yes, then I'll confirm it as soon as possible."

Lu Tianqing put down the phone and asked for the price.

The staff member said awkwardly, "Actually, our villas aren't for sale."

“Why did you show me around if you’re not selling them? Just tell me the price. If it’s suitable, I’ll buy four villas,” Lu Tianqing said.

This generosity frightened the staff member, and they quickly went to ask their manager.

Sheng Xiaotang gasped. “Sister Tianqing, are you really going to buy so many? Although this money is nothing to you, it’s too much.”

“Since I like it, then I’ll buy it. If I can afford it, then I’ll buy it. Is there a problem?” Lu Tianqing asked.

“No problem, no problem at all.” Even a rich young lady like Sheng Xiaotang was also shocked by Lu Tianqing’s spending.

Chapter 1274: Really Envious

The manager came out quickly. Lu Tianqing said, “Can I get four villas? I’ll pay the deposit now.”

“Miss Lu, actually, our villas are reserved for internal orders. However, I just asked the boss and he knows that you want them, so he agreed. However, these four villas have to be paid in cash.”

Sheng Xiaotang said, “Are you worried that Miss Lu can’t afford it?”

“That’s not what I meant. Four villas cost a total of three billion yuan. Although it’s nothing to Miss Lu, to come up with such a large sum, you’d need to go through the bank. Hence, it’s no longer a simple matter. That’s why I reminded you.”

Three billion. Lu Tianqing indeed did not have that much money.

She usually spent a lot of money, but Tian Xin spent even more than she did.

Even if Lu Yaode still had a company of his own and they could earn money themselves, they did not have much money left. Besides, she had already spent a lot recently.

However, she wasn’t worried at all. “It’s fine,” she said. “How about this? After tomorrow, I’ll have the money sent over. For now, I’ll give a deposit.”

“Alright, Miss Lu.”

Sheng Xiaotang was really envious that Lu Tianqing had settled such a big deal so easily.

Even though her status was not low, she had never been so bold with her purchases. It turned out that it felt so good to stand above others.

However, when she thought about how she could still live here with Lu Tianci in the future, Sheng Xiaotang felt alright again.

She would have a share of everything that Lu Group had in the future, so there was no need to be too envious of Lu Tianqing.

After Lu Tianqing finished shopping, she returned to her villa and distributed the gifts she had brought to the nanny, security guards, and driver.

“Thank you, Miss.”

“Thank you, Miss.”

“Eldest Miss is such a good person. She’ll definitely be even richer in the future.”

“That’s right. I heard that Master is about to become the head of Lu Group. In the future, we have to work harder in the Lu family. We’ll definitely get more opportunities.”

“Oh, how fortunate. In the future, our young master will also be the head of Lu Group.”

Most of these words were meant to compliment Lu Tianqing. She carried a luxurious bag and returned to her room.

Her agent called her. “Tianqing, a lot of directors have been offering you scripts lately. I took a look and they’re all pretty good. Would you like to see them?”

“Leave them there for now.” Lu Tianqing casually put on skincare products while looking in the mirror. She put her phone aside. “I’m not in a hurry to make money from this career.”

“I’m just afraid that Su Bei and the others will intercept if we’re too late.”

“Haha, Su Bei is only fit to earn this kind of money. Why should I fight with her?”

The agent smiled. “That’s true. I heard that your father is about to become the head of Lu Group. This kind of hard money is indeed not worth mentioning to you. In that case, I’ll try my best to arrange some easy work for you in the future. A rich young lady doesn’t have to work like a maidservant.”

“Alright. I’ve bought you a set of skincare products. I’ll bring them to you the next time we meet.” Lu Tianqing hung up.

There were countless calls and WeChat messages on her phone. Recently, there were more and more people who wanted to get close to her.

Chapter 1275: The Identity Of A Mistress

Lu Tianqing smiled. “Finally, this day has come. This is what I should have enjoyed when I was born. It’s not too late for me to get everything that even Lu Weijian can enjoy.”

Her lips curved as she toyed with the diamond ring on her finger and stared at her gorgeous face in the mirror. It wasn’t too late.

...

Lu Group.

The shareholders’ meeting was officially held.

All the shareholders were present. They sat in their seats and chatted softly. Everyone was really uncertain about the situation today.

Logically speaking, Lu Yaode was Lu Heting's father, so it seemed logical for him to manage Lu Group.

However, everyone had been with Lu Heting for more than ten years and had long believed in his various abilities. Lu Yaode's interference made them a little worried.

However, in the end, this was the Lu family's matter. Even if everyone had all kinds of thoughts, they could only suppress them in their hearts for the time being.

When Lu Heting appeared, the discussion suddenly quieted down. His expression was calm, and there was nothing odd about him. His tall figure was wrapped in fitting clothes. He strode forward and sat down at the head of the table.

The people following him were Han Qingwan and Lu Weijian.

Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu had not participated in the company's affairs for many years, and they did not appear today as well.

Outside the door, Lu Yaode appeared at the right time.

Even though he was in his 50s, he had taken good care of himself and still looked young. His refined temperament had the unique charm of a middle-aged and mature man. On his arm was Tian Xin's hand.

As the movie queen of the past, Tian Xin's appearance was still very good. She carried her luxurious branded bag and walked over in high heels.

Lu Tianqing and Lu Tianci followed behind them.

When the staff in the lobby saw them appear, they couldn't help but stop and stare.

Tian Xin was quite proud of all of this. Although it was not often that someone dared to mention the identity of a mistress in front of her, it was indeed a stone that weighed on her heart, making it difficult for her to rest and breathe all day.

She was clearly the one who was loved. Just because Han Qingwan appeared first and got to know Lu Yaode first, she had to continue carrying this reputation. How could she be willing?

After today, Lu Yaode would be in charge, and she would become Mrs. Lu.

History was written by the victors. Who would remember that Han Qingwan was the real Mrs. Lu?

As she walked over, she frequently glanced at the people around her. In the future, these people would all be under her control. Naturally, she had to have a good reputation for being amiable.

The four of them entered the elevator.

The staff in the lobby couldn't help but whisper, "Is that Mr. Lu's father, CEO Lu? I didn't expect him to be so handsome at such an old age. The children born to CEO Lu are also quite good-looking. I wonder if they're here to compete with Mr. Lu for the family assets?"

“Come on, who can compete with Mr. Lu? I still think highly of Mr. Lu. After all, in terms of handsomeness, Mr. Lu can still beat them.”

“That’s true. But I wonder who will win? It’s really hard to feel at ease.”

“You should be concerned about whether you’ll be able to pay off your mortgage this month. Do you think you can worry about the higher-ups now?”

“I can’t even talk about it?”

Chapter 1276: Fire, Thieves, and Best Friends

Lu Yaode and Tian Xin appeared together. When they stepped into the conference room, Han Qingwan looked over.

Initially, she thought that her heart was as still as water. However, this look once again evoked all her feelings. The sincerity she had given in the past had been trampled to pieces. She thought that she had forgotten this heartbreaking feeling. Now, it was vividly evoked again.

She remembered the heartache she had felt when she took her son and waited day and night for her husband to change his mind. Even though she had long ago given up hope for this man, how could she easily forget the pain she had gone through?

Tian Xin also saw Han Qingwan at a glance. It was different from what she had imagined. Han Qingwan was not as haggard as she thought. She had a graceful and noble aura on her body, revealing her calmness. It was the kind of calmness that came from living in a wealthy family.

Compared to Han Qingwan, she felt uneasy.

She straightened her neck slightly and adjusted her smile to its best state. So what if she was uneasy now? When the meeting started, she would be the official Mrs. Lu. She would be the elegant one.

She smiled at Han Qingwan.

Han Qingwan pinched her palm gently. If this woman hadn’t been her best friend and if she hadn’t treated her so well back then, she might have felt better.

However, it just so happened that not only did she help this woman a lot, but the person who had hurt her the most in her life was also the person she trusted the most.

Su Bei didn’t go to the scene. Instead, Lu Weijian was responsible for reporting the scene to her.

Lu Weijian took a video and said, “Look, Tian Xin is so smug. Those who don’t know might think that she’s the real wife. I wonder where she got her shamelessness from.”

“How long can she be smug?” Su Bei said. “I’m afraid she’s going to leave in disappointment today.”

“Sigh, let me tell you. The phrase ‘fire, thieves, and best friends’ is really the essence. Tian Xin was my mother’s best friend in the past. My mother even spent money to support her career. My mother contributed greatly to her getting the Best Actress Award. However, in the end, she snatched my father away and left the three of us behind. If my gaze were a knife, I'd have stabbed a hundred holes in the two of them."

Lu Weijian still addressed Han Qingwan as his mother. They had a deep relationship.

"Look, she still has the cheek to smile at us innocently." Lu Weijian pointed the camera at Tian Xin and showed it to Su Bei.

Su Bei glanced at the four people who were satisfied. It seemed that they had indeed come prepared.

Seeing Lu Weijian recording her, Tian Xin wasn't angry. Instead, she gave him a magnanimous smile.

Lu Weijian rolled his eyes at her.

This was the first time Lu Yaode had seen his biological son, Lu Heting, with his own eyes. Of course, he had seen Lu Heting when he was young, but he had long forgotten him. He had only seen Lu Heting's appearance in photos.

The son in front of him was taller than he had imagined. His facial features were far more handsome than Lu Tianci's.

This made Lu Yaode feel a trace of guilt and love. Although his heart was already with Tian Xin, Lu Heting was still his biological son, after all.

He was no exception to that sentiment.

"Heting," Lu Yaode called emotionally.

Chapter 1277: I Can't Stand You

Lu Heting looked back at him indifferently. It was the kind of indifference that said, 'Who are you and why should I care about you?' It was mixed with a little disdain and disgust.

This glance immediately reminded Lu Yaode of the way Lu Heting had looked at him when he was young. His heart turned cold. He thought to himself, 'I was really led astray by Han Qingwan. I shouldn't have had any hope for him.'

His feelings of love for his son evaporated.

Lu Yaode and the others sat down. Then, there was a discussion about special matters.

The atmosphere seemed harmonious, but in fact, there was tension in the air. The tension was palpable.

Su Bei could feel the tension through the screen.

Lu Heting was obviously confident about this shareholders' meeting. But even if he was prepared, how could Su Bei not be worried?

She stared at the screen without blinking. Lu Weijian wanted her to see the full view, so the camera was always on Lu Yaode.

Su Bei typed: [Mr. Weijian, can you aim the camera at Lu Heting? I'm not in the mood to look at others.]

[Okay, okay, okay. I really can't stand you.] Lu Weijian aimed the camera at Lu Heting and fixed it.

As if knowing what Lu Weijian was doing, when the camera was pointed at Lu Heting, he smiled at the camera.

Su Bei's heart melted. Why did he have to be so handsome?

.....

Lu Yaode was talking about serious matters. Seeing Lu Heting suddenly smile, he couldn't help but smile as well. 'I was right. What kind of big responsibility can he take?'

Actually, he knew how much Lu Heting had done over the years.

But he'd never believed in that and stubbornly stuck to his guns.

In addition, later on, Tian Xin goaded Lu Heting to assign some important positions to a few old shareholders. Hence, Lu Yaode believed in his own point of view even more. He ignored everything the others said.

At this critical moment, Lu Heting was still smiling. How could he have such a son?

"Heting, since we've already come to this, I won't beat about the bush. Let's get straight to the point. Since all the shareholders are here today, let's re-elect the person in charge again," Lu Yaode said.

As soon as he said this, although everyone had a premonition, they could not help but be shocked and start discussing.

Lu Yaode stood up. "I'm of the Lu family bloodline and also Lu Heting's father. I'm qualified to compete with him, right?"

No one objected. "Of course. Lu Group was founded by the Lu family back then. Everyone in the Lu family has such qualifications."

However, the majority still stood on Lu Heting's side. "However, Mr. Lu has worked hard for Lu Group for so many years. His ability is obvious to all. It's not good to replace him, right?"

Lu Yaode smiled. "It's not that simple. Lu Group has a rule that the person in charge not only needs everyone's support but it also has to be the person with the most shares in hand. I won't say much. Now, I already have 52% of the shares. Heting, I want to ask you, how many do you have?"

"Ah? 52%?" Someone exclaimed. "That's indeed enough. I remember that Old Master Lu's and his family's shares combined only make up 51%."

Chapter 1278: The Will Of The People

"Indeed, 52% of the shares means that CEO Lu has enough authority. But why do I remember that Mr. Lu has always held the most shares?"

Lu Tianci sat at the side and did not speak. The 52% that Lu Yaode had mentioned naturally included the 10% he had. However, he had already lost the 10% shares. The investor had said that he would earn them back for him, but he had not earned them back until now. He had even caused him to be in debt.

At this moment, it was not convenient for him to speak. He could only quickly type and communicate with the investor. [When will my shares be back?]

[Mr. Lu, are you in a hurry to use them? They can't come back now. Don't be anxious. I heard about what happened to your Lu family. Even without your 10%, it doesn't matter, right? After all, Lu Heting doesn't have the other 10%, and he only has 41%. Even if you lose this 10%, you can still win, right?]

Neither Lu Yaode nor Lu Heting had the 10% shares. It was still 42% against 41%. They indeed had a winning chance.

Although Lu Tianci knew that this was extremely risky, he had no choice but to take things one step at a time.

A shareholder said loudly, "That can't be right. Mr. Lu has 51% while you guys, at most, will only have 49%. How could you guys have 52%?"

Lu Yaode smiled and said, "I bought a lot from some old friends. They're here today to express their support for me."

At his words, many of the older shareholders raised their hands, indicating that they were now on Lu Yaode's side.

Everyone was surprised. These old shareholders had just been put in important positions by Lu Heting, but they had already sided with Lu Yaode. It was really surprising. They didn't know what magic Lu Yaode had. Or was it that Lu Heting really couldn't hold on anymore?

"But even so, it can't be 52%, right? Where did the extra shares come from?" Lu Weijian couldn't help but shout.

Su Bei looked at the video and couldn't help but feel worried. Lu Yaode and his son had used all kinds of methods during this period of time. Lu Heting was in the light while they were in the dark. It was really impossible to guard against them. Everything in front of her worried her.

She unscrewed a bottle of Coke and took two gulps.

The shareholders were whispering to each other. Lu Weijian's question also attracted everyone's attention.

"That's right. Even so, it's impossible for you to have gotten 52%. CEO Lu, do you have any explanation?" Some shareholders who supported Lu Heting asked directly.

Lu Heting didn't say anything. Among the shareholders present, the younger ones generally supported Lu Heting. He was tough and could keep up with the trends. He handled all kinds of things with ease and had long surpassed his seniors.

Whether it was his horizons or his ability to act, he was a good role model.

However, some old shareholders who were old-fashioned couldn't stand Lu Heting's actions, especially those who had a lot of opinions about Lu Heting. The incident with Lu Bei last time had also become their trigger.

Immediately, an old shareholder stood up and said, "Since CEO Lu can take out 52% of the shares, the matter is very clear. This means that there are people in the Lu family who are using their shares to support CEO Lu's career. The people in the Lu family are all supporting CEO Lu, so it can be seen how popular he is, right?"

Chapter 1279: Show Me

The old shareholders nodded. "As a member of the Lu family, CEO Lu used to be the backbone of Lu Group. It's only natural for the people in the Lu family to support him to become the leader."

"That's right, I agree with that. After all, CEO Lu is Mr. Lu's father. He was overseas previously, but now that he's back in the country and in his prime, there's no reason for his son to be in power."

Lu Yaode reached out to stop them and said, "Heting, I have 52% of the shares in my hands now. Actually, 10% was given to me by your grandmother. As for you, without Grandma's 10%, you should only have 41%, right? Even if the other shareholders all support you, you can't be holding more shares than me. Therefore, leave Lu Group to me."

Everyone heard that it was indeed someone from the Lu family who had made a choice and given the shares to Lu Yaode. In that case, what was the point of everyone still fighting for it when even their family had made a choice?

The younger shareholders couldn't help but sigh. They knew better than outsiders how serious the loss of Lu Heting would mean for the group.

At the thought of this, many people's eyes revealed reluctance and sadness.

The old shareholders were all very excited. It seemed that Lu Heting was indeed not Lu Yaode's match.

They said, "The important positions in the company have always been occupied by the capable. Only the capable can give us the best results and make the entire company better. Therefore, CEO Lu's election this time is what everyone wants."

Lu Heting's expression remained unchanged as he sat calmly in his seat.

On the other hand, Lu Weijian asked on his behalf, "You said that you have 52% of the shares. Take them out and let's take a look at them. If I say I hold 100% of the shares, should you nominate me as the leader, then?"

Lu Yaode was not so patient with Lu Weijian. His face darkened as he said, "Tianci, take out the report and show it to them."

Lu Tianci sorted out the report and felt very depressed. His fingers felt as if they weighed a thousand kilograms.

“What are you waiting for, son? Quickly get it done.” Tian Xin nudged him.

Lu Tianci had no choice but to step forward and raise the report high. “We do have 52% of the shares, and 10% of it was given to us by my grandmother. However, the 10% my grandmother gave us is still under a mortgage and can’t be taken out. Therefore, we only have 42% now.”

Lu Yaode was shocked. “Why are you only saying this now?”

Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing also exchanged a look. They had a bad feeling.

“Dad, I didn’t mean to lie to you. It’s just that the shares are a little delayed, so they haven’t reached me yet,” Lu Tianci said in a low voice. He turned to the crowd and raised his voice. “Even if we only have 42%, compared to the total 41% owned by Lu Heting and his family, we still have more. Therefore, regardless of whether we have the 10% or not, we’re currently the shareholders with the highest authority. Everyone, I believe that you have no objections to my father replacing Lu Heting as the leader, right?”

Chapter 1280: Not Enough

Everyone was stunned. They did not expect that the 10% shares given by Old Madam Lu had not been transferred yet.

However, Lu Tianci was right. Since they had more shares than Lu Heting, they indeed had the right to change the leader.

The old shareholders nodded. “Indeed. No one should have any objections to everything now.”

When Lu Yaode thought of this, his expression relaxed.

Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing also heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, although there were twists and turns, they did not fail.

The end result was still good.

“Then, everyone, let’s congratulate CEO Lu for becoming the new leader of Lu Group!” An old shareholder extended his hand and made a gesture to welcome Lu Yaode to take over.

At this moment, Lu Heting was helpless. Everyone had already decided that this was the outcome.

Some people sighed while some laughed.

Su Bei crushed the Coke bottle. Although she knew that Lu Heting must have a solution, she couldn’t help but want to smash their heads.

Lu Yaode stood up, adjusted his clothes, and gestured to everyone. He was in high spirits. This position should have been his many years ago. After more than 20 years, he was finally back!

Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing were also overjoyed. They looked at Lu Yaode happily and smiled sweetly.

Lu Tianci heaved a long sigh of relief. Although he was indeed not cautious enough, it was not a big deal.

.....

This position belonged to his father now. Sooner or later, this position would also be his.

Lu Heting would eventually be excluded from the entire Lu Group.

Lu Yaode walked toward Lu Heting.

“Hold it,” Lu Heting, who had been silent, suddenly said.

His voice was not loud, but it was very clear. It easily attracted everyone’s attention.

Lu Yaode stopped in his tracks. Because he was already the winner, he was especially relaxed and more tolerant of Lu Heting.

He smiled and said, “Heting, so what if you lose to your father? Work hard in the future. As long as you’re sensible, I won’t make things difficult for you.”

[How shameless.] Lu Weijian and Su Bei typed at the same time.

Lu Heting said calmly, “Mr. Lu, aren’t you going to ask me how many shares I have?”

His name was Lu Yaode, but he was neither his father nor CEO Lu. Clearly, Lu Heting did not treat him as a member of the Lu family or Lu Group.

How distant.

Because Lu Yaode looked down on Lu Heting and didn’t think that he had any ability, he underestimated Lu Heting. He smiled and said, “Then how much do you have? Show me.”

Lu Hang immediately took out a stack of documents and placed it in front of everyone. He said, “Mr. Lu, if you want to be the person in charge, I’m afraid you’re still lacking in shares. Mr. Lu has 51% of Lu Group’s shares!”

“Impossible!” Lu Yaode said immediately. “The shares of the entire Lu family will only be 51% when combined with yours, but your grandmother has already given 10% to me and Tianci. Even if you gather more, you won’t be able to gather enough!”

Everyone was also surprised, but what Lu Hang took out clearly stated that Lu Heting indeed had 51% of the shares. He had far more than Lu Yaode!

What the hell was going on?
