

Chapter 1281: Utterly Embarrassing

Lu Tianci did not believe it either. "Grandma gave her shares to me. It can't be wrong. I received them personally."

Lu Heting still sat steadily and said calmly, "Are you sure you were able to keep what Grandma gave you? Mr. Lu Tianci, the market is risky. Please be careful when investing!"

Lu Tianci's face turned pale. "You... You... You cheated me of 10% of my shares?"

Lu Hang replied unhurriedly, "Mr. Lu Tianci, please have some self-respect. How can you say that we cheated you when it comes to investments? If you want to blame someone, you can only blame yourself for not being capable enough and being inferior to others. You lost all the shares to our Mr. Lu."

Hearing this, Lu Yaode's face turned pale, and his hands trembled. His footsteps, which were originally walking toward Lu Heting, became as heavy as lead!

Oh no!

It was all over!

The 51% that Lu Heting had was given to him by Old Master Lu and Han Qingwan.

They all hated Lu Yaode. No one would be as soft-hearted as Old Madam Lu and be deceived by a few words of flattery.

In other words, Lu Heting's current shares were impregnable. No one could shake them.

Most of the shareholders supported Lu Heting. Seeing that the situation had changed, they all looked excited.

One of them led the applause.

.....

The applause of the others followed closely.

Lu Hang and Lu Weijian also clapped until their hands turned red.

The old shareholders looked at each other with flushed faces. It was as if those slaps had all landed on their faces.

Lu Yaode turned around and slapped Lu Tianci. He felt deeply embarrassed!

After planning for so long and even holding the various shares that Feng Ze had secretly bought from the secondary market, he still suffered a crushing defeat.

Lu Yaode felt embarrassed and turned to leave.

Lu Tianci hurriedly followed.

Tian Xin and Lu Tianqing were no longer as energetic as before. Although the mother and daughter wanted to maintain their composure and walk out arrogantly, they still almost tripped over their high heels at the door.

Those old shareholders who had sided with Lu Yaode could neither leave nor stay. Especially when they thought of how Lu Heting had given them important positions recently, they could not help but regret it.

If they had followed Lu Heting, their futures would've been bright. Why did they have to be overwhelmed by anger and fantasize about helping Lu Yaode in order to improve their lives? In the end, it was all for nothing.

Lu Hang smiled and said, "Do you want me to accompany you out?"

"We wouldn't dare." The old shareholders immediately left in embarrassment.

The latest_epi_sodes are on_the LIBREAD.COM. website.

Su Bei, who had been watching the video, heaved a sigh of relief. Lu Heting had handled everything well.

Her husband was so capable and handsome.

To celebrate, she unscrewed another bottle of Coke.

At this moment, Lu Heting took the phone from Lu Weijian and whispered to her, "Drink less, okay?"

She got caught, boo-hoo.

Su Bei smiled awkwardly. "I only took a small sip from that bottle just now. I was so angry that I squeezed the bottle and spilled the rest."

"Okay." Lu Heting returned the phone.

Han Qingwan glanced at her son and did not say anything, but her expression became much gentler.

The other shareholders said happily, "Mr. Lu, no matter what happens, we'll follow your lead!"

Chapter 1282: Underestimated That Bastard

Lu Weijian said, "Of course. You can only enjoy wealth if you follow my brother."

Lu Heting interrupted him and said, "Let's have a meeting."

When Lu Yaode went out, he could not control himself and gave Lu Tianci another tight slap.

Lu Tianci covered his face, his eyes red. He had nothing to say.

This time, not only did he lose the 10% shares, but he even borrowed a lot of money as capital. He planned to get back what he had lost previously.

Previously, the investor had always said that there was no problem at all. Now, it seemed that everything had been for naught.

The most urgent problem he faced was the high-interest loan he still had to repay.

Tian Xin hurriedly advised, “Hubby, our son didn’t do it on purpose. He was tricked by Lu Heting.”

Lu Tianci secretly gritted his teeth. He had originally wanted to rely on these 10% shares to earn more benefits and stabilize his father’s position.

Unexpectedly, he fell into Lu Heting’s trap. No wonder that investor had been perfunctory in his responses to him. It seemed that the investor had long been bribed by Lu Heting.

Lu Yaode looked up at the sky. “I really underestimated that bastard.”

After his failure, he no longer had any father-son relationship with Lu Heting. He said insultingly, “I should have expected it. When he was so young, he looked at me with evil intentions. I actually treated him like a little lamb!”

Tian Xin was extremely disappointed, especially when she received Han Qingwan’s gaze when she left. That gaze was high and mighty, shattering her dignity.

She hated it. She was so close to victory, but in the end, it was all for nothing.

But now, with her husband and son in this situation, she had to brace herself to deal with it.

“Hubby, let’s run our own company well first. If we can’t do it the first time, there’ll still be a next time. This time, we were just short of victory. There are still many opportunities in the future.”

Lu Yaode had no choice.

Lu Tianqing remained silent.

Many people in her WeChat group were asking how she was doing.

Among the people of He Consortium, her status was the most inconspicuous. However, if her father became the head of Lu Corporation, she would not be afraid of anyone looking down on her.

The latest_epi_sodes are on_the LIBREAD.COM. website.

The news that she bought four villas as if they were nothing had already been sent to the family group chat, attracting many envious voices. Many people had already expressed their blessings in advance.

Lu Tianqing also promised everyone that when the villas were renovated, she would invite everyone over.

Now, her father had failed. She had to gather the credit cards that she had been fanatically swiping recently and give them back to her father. How could she afford to buy a house?

Someone in the family kept tagging her. [Tianqing, how’s the situation? When can we go to your new villa to play?]

[Exactly. We’re all looking forward to it.]

[Also, can we visit Lu Group in the future? I heard that the design of that building is very ingenious, but we haven’t seen it with our own eyes, so we don’t know how ingenious it is. Tianqing, can you show us when the time comes?]

[@Tianqing, let's talk about business cooperation. With you as the channel, we can finally build a relationship with Lu Group. I'll give you a discount. Name a price.]

[@Tianqing, if we do business together, everything can be discussed.]

Lu Tianqing pretended to be dead and did not reply. She took a deep breath.

Chapter 1283: Can't Be An Irresponsible Man

The manager who sold the villas to her also sent a WeChat message: [Miss Lu, this is the sales office of the villa district in the city center. Sorry to disturb you, but let me remind you that the villas you've booked will have to be paid for in three days. If you don't pay in time, we can't reserve the right to buy them for you, nor can we refund your deposit.]

Lu Tianqing: "..."

Lu Tianqing didn't want to reply at all. She only wanted to do one thing—kill Lu Tianci!

Of course, it was just a thought.

After the shareholders' meeting, Lu Heting returned to his office.

Han Qingwan came out of the conference room and saw that all the employees were looking at her expectantly with relieved expressions.

She couldn't help but feel a wave of relief. Even with so many people standing against her son, there were still so many people waiting eagerly for him to win.

His dedication and ability had not been let down.

She flashed a smile at the crowd before turning.

The employees whispered, "Everything's fine, everything's fine! There's finally no unrest."

"Exactly. It was horrible. I was prepared to find another job."

"What are you afraid of? It's such a big corporation. Even if the boss of our boss changes, it doesn't matter, right?"

"What do you know? If there really was a change, you'd cry to death. Anyway, I don't know how they make decisions and lead the company. I only know that with Mr. Lu around, I can work in peace and don't have to worry about not getting a salary and bonus. I also know that as long as I'm capable, I can obtain the corresponding gains. My family and I can live carefree lives."

"I can't agree more."

"I agree very much."

"If it were another boss, they might not be able to do this. Otherwise, why do you think so many people want to sharpen their minds and come to our company?"

"I was wrong, I was wrong. I apologize for what I just said. The big boss can't be changed. Your words have enlightened me."

...

There was a knock on the door.

"Mom." Lu Heting opened the door. He had already packed his things and was about to leave.

"You're going back?"

"Yes." Lu Heting nodded.

Han Qingwan followed him out. "It's been hard on you today."

Lu Heting shook his head. "It's just my job."

Han Qingwan was very apologetic, but she felt pretentious when she said it.

The person who should be sorry for this was clearly the irresponsible man.

They walked in silence.

Lu Heting was not a talkative person to begin with. Because of Su Bei, the relationship between him and Han Qingwan was even more different than before. Although he was still respectful, he had obviously added a barrier between them. He would no longer be unguarded against his mother.

Han Qingwan knew that she had asked for it, so she couldn't blame anyone.

She suddenly thought of something and said, "What exactly is going on with that Lu Bei?"

"What do you mean?" Lu Heting asked casually and pressed the elevator button.

"Previously, you were photographed with a guy named Lu Bei. I believe you aren't such a frivolous person. How can you face Su Bei and the two children like this? Is it a rumor? Tell me and I'll settle it."

"It's true. There's no need to settle it."

Han Qingwan: "..."

She said earnestly, "Then does Su Bei know? Son, you're old now. There are some things that I shouldn't say, but you can't be an irresponsible man."

Chapter 1284: Pursue This For Su Bei

Lu Heting replied casually.

Han Qingwan was really anxious. The only thing she had ever insisted on before was regarding Jia Shiyun's matter.

Now, she wanted to pursue this for Su Bei.

When the elevator reached the underground parking lot, Lu Heting stepped out.

Han Qingwan strode out as well.

She stood in front of Lu Heting and said, "Lu Heting! Since you've chosen to be with Su Bei, shouldn't you reflect on your actions for the sake of the two of you and the children?"

She knew that falling out with her son like this would only worsen their mother-son relationship.

However, she had to say these words in her heart. She said anxiously, "Could it be that without me obstructing you and Su Bei, you treat this relationship as nothing and feel that it's meaningless? Not only do people have to seek excitement, but they also have to be responsible for the choices they make."

A car stopped in front of the mother and son. Lu Bei stuck his head out and shouted to Lu Heting, "Hubby!"

Han Qingwan: "???"

She turned back and met the driver's eyes. The man behind the wheel had delicate features and a sweet smile. 'Did he shout that?'

Su Bei greeted obediently, "Mom."

"???" Han Qingwan's lips twitched.

As expected, she was getting on in years. She no longer understood the pleasures of youth.

Su Bei opened the door and got out of the car. Lu Heting pulled her to his side and rubbed her hair.

Su Bei said, "I'm here to pick you up. I even made a lot of delicious dishes."

"I want to go too." Lu Weijian rushed over from the elevator. He was used to seeing Su Bei in men's clothes.

Only then did Han Qingwan realize that an elder like her was probably the only one kept in the dark.

Lu Heting smiled. "Why are your ears so sharp?"

Thinking that she had even invited Lu Weijian, Su Bei said politely, "Mom, do you want to come too?"

"Forget it. You young people can gather by yourselves. I still have something on. I'll visit you next time." She glanced at Lu Weijian. "Why are you joining in the fun? Come home with me for dinner."

"No, I'm going to Big Brother's house."

Han Qingwan smiled. "Don't you think you're being a third wheel here?"

Lu Weijian shook his head. "How am I being a third wheel? I can help take care of my nephews."

"Then get in." Su Bei opened the door.

As Su Bei drove, she was still thinking about what had happened today. She asked, "Will Lu Tianci and the others cause any more trouble after this?"

"They need to have the ability to do it. This pair of father and son can't do anything," Lu Weijian said.

"I was scared to death today," Su Bei said with a smile. "They're really scary when they're aggressive."

“What’s there to be afraid of? My brother had already planned everything. In fact, if it weren’t for Grandma being too soft-hearted and giving the shares to Lu Tianci, my brother wouldn’t even need to spend these efforts. Sigh, sometimes, the people we should guard against are the people closest to us.” Lu Weijian sighed.

Su Bei said, “They still have more than 40% of the shares. It’ll be very troublesome if they cause trouble, right?”

“At least half of Lu Yaode’s 40% shares were secretly bought by Feng Ze from the secondary market. They don’t belong to him at all, and he doesn’t have the ability to buy them. He thinks highly of himself, but without Feng Ze, he’s nothing!” Lu Weijian was full of disdain when he mentioned Lu Yaode.

Chapter 1285: Reconciliation

Hearing Feng Ze’s name, Su Bei gripped the steering wheel tightly and didn’t say anything else. Helplessness flashed across her delicate eyes.

Lu Weijian was still chattering, but she didn’t respond.

Her face flashed in the night as she drove away from the parking lot.

In another car, Feng Ze sat behind the wheel and watched her drive away.

A layer of frost covered his body, separating him from the others.

But the only person he wanted to approach on his own initiative was getting farther away.

Su Bei’s car disappeared into the night in the distance, blending into the inky darkness. She was never to be found again.

Feng Ze pulled out his phone, clicked on his conversation with Su Bei, and typed: [Sorry.]

However, after thinking about it for a moment, he deleted the word and exited the conversation.

What happened between them could not be explained in a few words.

That one word was also meaningless.

The next day, when Su Bei was at home, she received a call from Old Madam Lu.

“Grandma, are you looking for me?”

“Su Bei, can we meet?” Old Madam Lu’s tone was pleading.

Su Bei agreed. She chose a beverage shop downstairs and sent her the address.

Lu Heting went to the company, and Su Bei knew that the person Old Madam Lu wanted to see wasn’t her. However, she pretended not to know and didn’t mention this to Lu Heting.

Su Bei arrived first. She ordered something and waited for Old Madam Lu.

After a while, Old Madam Lu appeared at the door.

Her hair was white, and her back was straight. There were obvious wrinkles on her face. She looked a few years older than she looked a while ago.

“Please sit down, Grandma.” Su Bei pulled out a chair for her.

Old Madam Lu thanked her and sat down. “Where’s Heting?”

“In the office.” Su Bei sat down with her.

Old Madam Lu slowly ordered her drink and said, “I’ve heard about what happened in the company. The situation was very dangerous at that time. It wasn’t easy for Heting to dodge the bullet.”

Su Bei smiled and corrected her. “He didn’t dodge the bullet. He was prepared for danger and difficulties. That’s why he was able to fight head-on and win. But it wasn’t easy. After all, no one expected such a situation. Even now when I think about it, I still have a lingering fear.”

Old Madam Lu could understand Su Bei’s resentment. She was indeed wrong in this matter.

If she had not been too soft-hearted and became biased toward Lu Tianci, these things could have been avoided.

However, Su Bei retorted with a smile. Old Madam Lu could not be angry.

She said, “Su Bei, how about this? Have dinner with me and Heting tonight. I want to talk to him and apologize for my mistake.”

Su Bei stirred the coffee gently with a spoon. The strong aroma of the coffee entered her nose and was fragrant.

Hearing Old Madam Lu’s words, she slowly raised her head. “I don’t think we should do this, Grandma.”

“Why?” Old Madam Lu felt very guilty toward Lu Heting.

However, she also knew that Lu Heting was cold by nature and might not forgive her easily. Besides, if she was alone with him, she might not be able to say a lot of things.

That was why she thought of looking for Su Bei to ease their relationship and apologize to Lu Heting.

Chapter 1286: Been A Fan For A While

Su Bei put down the spoon and said seriously, “Although Heting has resolved this matter, he had to put in a lot of effort to completely resolve it. Outsiders can’t possibly imagine it.

“He respected you very much, especially since you had raised him and accompanied him growing up. He did not say a word about your mistake in this matter. You want to apologize because you want to gain his understanding.

“He’ll certainly forgive you, but only you will feel better when he forgives you. Have you ever wondered how he will feel?

“Can you give him the time to move past this?”

Old Madam Lu held her teacup and fell silent for a long time.

Su Bei continued to stir her coffee with the spoon, which clinked against the cup.

“I was indeed wrong,” Old Madam Lu said in a low voice.

However, she had also looked at the source of her mistake. Was it wrong to love her other child?

She just didn’t want the Lu family’s bloodline to grow further apart. Was that wrong?

“Su Bei, after you become an elder, you’ll understand my painstaking efforts. Which elder will choose not to love their child?” she murmured.

Su Bei sighed softly. After a long time, she said, “But loving those with questionable character is a mistake. The love you’re giving isn’t love but a murderous knife.”

Old Madam Lu looked at her in shock.

She stood up and said, “I’ll go now. Enjoy your tea.”

She turned around and left. Old Madam Lu looked at her back and could not withdraw herself from her thoughts for a long time.

When Su Bei went to Di Xing Media Company, she found that the newer male artists were very fond of dressing up. Moreover, some managers seemed to be more inclined to sign male artists. For a moment, there were many new male artists.

Qiao Mei smiled helplessly and said, “After seeing Mr. Lu and Lu Bei’s photos, some people think that they would have such good luck too. When the time comes, they might even be fancied by a big shot. Even their managers are a little confused.”

“Mr. Lu only comes to Di Xing Media Company once every few years. I wonder where they think they’ll get their luck from.” Su Bei also smiled.

“I know, right?”

Su Bei smiled and said, “But the new artists are quite eye-catching.”

“After all, they’re all people who look like Lu Bei. Of course, they’re eye-catching. However, there’s not a single one who’s masculine. They’re all cute little dogs. When the time comes, there’ll be too many cute little dogs in the entire market. No, I have to take the opportunity to nurture one or two male artists as well. At that time, I’ll definitely be able to gain a foothold.” Qiao Mei had already seen a business opportunity.

Su Bei smiled as well. She was definitely not masculine. She successfully disguised herself as a man by getting her gaze right, but her overall physique was thin. It was not easy to be masculine.

Qiao Mei suddenly asked, "By the way, don't you know Lu Bei? Has he really left the industry or signed a contract with someone? I had a friend who's been a fan of his for a while. She keeps asking me for his information."

"It's been too long. I'm not sure anymore," Su Bei said perfunctorily.

She did not want to escalate this matter. She would pretend not to know in case she made more mistakes.

Qiao Mei only asked casually. She didn't really want to ask about the situation. Seeing that Su Bei didn't know, she changed the topic and talked about work.

Chapter 1287: Utter Disappointment

Just as Su Bei was busy discussing an event with Qiao Mei, Xiao Bai came over with her phone. As she walked, she said, "Sister Qiao Mei, do you know about this big news? I wonder if Lu Group can survive it."

"What is it?" Su Bei asked immediately.

Seeing that she was interested, Xiao Bai directly handed the phone to her and said, "Someone released a big piece of news. They said that Mr. Lu's mother, Han Qingwan, killed her best friend and her husband in a car accident back then. Even the child wasn't spared. They made it sound so convincing and even gave us the simulation video from back then. Looking at this video, it seems to be true. If that's really the case, I wonder if we'll be affected? After all, we also rely on the headquarters for a living."

Su Bei had already seen the video that Feng Ze had given Han Qingwan.

This video was very realistic. Those who had watched it would easily be drawn into it and have a bad impression of Han Qingwan.

The comments below were already very rude. [I really didn't expect rich people like them to have reached the point of forsaking lives. If this is true, she must be severely punished!]

[What kind of fake friendship is that? You can't let people like that go just because they're rich.]

Han Qingwan had previously cooperated with the investigation because of this matter. Some people also knew about the investigation back then. However, the impact of the incident back then was very small and did not attract widespread attention.

However, those in the know also stepped out to expose the truth. [Forget it, everyone. Don't think about it anymore. Do you think Han Qingwan is an ordinary rich person? Don't forget that her son is Lu Heting! The leader of Lu Group! He's a man who can affect the entire Asian economy! This matter was mentioned back then, but it was quickly dropped. It was Lu Heting who personally came to bail Han Qingwan out. I advise you not to think too much about it and take care of yourself.]

[These rich people are so disappointing. They're a disappointment to our country.]

[How disappointing!]

[But I can understand Lu Heting's actions. Can you watch your mother go to jail? It's easier said than done, right?]

[What's wrong with that? I don't have a murderer mother! Not everyone has the heart to kill, okay?]

[I still want to stand on Lu Heting's side. I can't hate such a person.]

[I'm willing to be Lu Heting's dog for the rest of my life.]

[Are you all f*cking retarded? You won't realize what you're doing unless you're taught a lesson, huh?]

[You people must be suffering from brain damage. Set aside your fangirling and go back. We have to punish the murderer severely!]

[Severely punish the murderer!]

Su Bei could tell that this matter had really blown up. It was not something that could be resolved with a few words.

The matter between Lu Heting and Lu Bei last time was just a personal matter, and the choice was entirely up to the individual. This time, it was not so simple.

This was already a serious matter of human lives. It was completely reasonable for everyone to react so violently.

Su Bei's heart skipped a beat. She immediately went to check the share price of Lu Group. As expected, it had fallen drastically after the news came out.

Lu Group's share price usually rose and fell. The range of rise and fall was very normal, but today, it was falling in a straight line.

After all, such an incident would affect the shareholders' expectations of the entire group.

Chapter 1288: Don't Worry, It'll Be Settled

Xiao Bai said, "Su Bei, don't worry too much. Di Xing Media Company has its own business, so it might not be affected by the share price of the head office. I think this matter will come to light eventually."

Su Bei nodded. She guessed that Feng Ze would never do such a thing. Regardless of his personality, he was a gentleman. Even if he wanted to take revenge on Han Qingwan, he had never made this matter public before. He had only resolved it in private.

Moreover, with his personality, he was probably unwilling to have his personal matters discussed and monitored in public.

Hence, the person who might have released this video was Lu Yaode's family.

Worried, she immediately called Lu Heting.

He didn't answer. After a while, he texted back. [In a meeting. Don't worry. It'll all work out.]

Su Bei felt a little more at ease now.

Xiao Bai and Qiao Mei were still discussing this matter when Qiao Mei said, "I've seen Han Qingwan once. She looks very elegant and doesn't look like someone who would do such a thing."

But Xiao Bai said, "You can't judge a book by its cover. Who knows exactly what kind of person she is? Besides, the reason why rich people are rich is that they have some powerful means that ordinary people can't possibly imagine."

"Even so, Han Qingwan had already married into the Lu family back then and even given birth to Mr. Lu. She had everything she wanted. Why would she attack her best friend's family? What was so dangerous about this best friend of hers?" Qiao Mei said.

This was also a question that Su Bei had never figured out.

Xiao Bai said, "That's true. But who knows what went on behind the scenes? It's better for the police to investigate the matter in order to seek justice for the victims. But the best friend's family is really too pitiful. Sigh, this cold case was even mentioned in a legal show in the past. I didn't expect there to be such progress now."

Su Bei spoke to Qiao Mei for a while more before turning to leave.

The internet was abuzz. Many people tagged the police and asked them to give them justice and deal with the matter seriously.

Actually, the police had already investigated this matter. Han Qingwan had also cooperated and stayed with them for a long time. Unfortunately, there was no direct evidence to prove that Han Qingwan had done it.

Now, the police were also under a lot of pressure. The netizens were getting agitated and were forcing them to give an explanation.

However, even if they released a statement out now, no one would believe them, right?

Helpless, they could only ask Lu Heting for help.

Lu Heting said, "Tell the truth. We'll give an explanation. Please announce the results of the previous investigation."

Putting down the phone, Lu Heting frowned.

Lu Weijian said, "Fortunately, we've already cooperated with the investigation. Can you shut these people up now?"

Lu Heting looked up at him. "No, the outcome will only be worse."

"Why?"

"Right now, people don't believe us at all. Even if the police give a statement, they'll just think it's fake and that we bribed our contacts. When the crowd is riled, everyone wants to believe only what they believe."

“Ah... Then we’ll be adding fuel to the fire.” Lu Weijian was stunned.

Lu Heting understood that even if he was adding fuel to the fire, he could only do so. He had to give an explanation, or his credibility would be questioned.

Chapter 1289: Fight To The End

His mother’s grievances would eventually be washed away. That day wouldn’t be too far away. They just had to wait for the right time.

Now, the bigger the fuss, the better. When the time came, the person who would have a hard time ending it would be the real murderer, not himself or the entire Lu Group.

Lu Weijian quickly took out his phone. Sure enough, although Lu Group and the police had made a statement that they had investigated this matter long ago, there was no clear evidence that could clear Han Qingwan’s name. They said that Han Qingwan had killed her best friend’s family, which was why this matter was suppressed.

Everyone got even angrier. They did not believe the statements at all.

[See? What did I say? Money makes the world go round. Lu Heting made arrangements long ago. It’s impossible for his mother to be in jail. The law is to protect the rich and powerful.]

[I’m so disappointed! I’ve followed this cold case before. All those years ago, I kept wondering why there was no clear explanation for a simple case of a car crash. Why couldn’t we find clues or the killer? Now, I understand. It wasn’t that we couldn’t find the person. It was just that the killer’s background was so strong that no one dared to investigate. Anyway, I’ve seen through it. I’m disappointed.]

[An entire family was wiped out. I really can’t accept this disappointing world.]

[Sigh, I’ve finally seen through Lu Group. They actually faked such a thing. If they can fake it, what else can’t they fake?]

[We can only disperse. What else can we do?]

[Why should we? How can they do that? That poor family suffered at their hands and no one spoke up for them. What if something like that happens to us tomorrow? Who will speak up for us then? Should the rich and powerful enjoy privileges like this?]

[Yes, we must punish the murderer severely!]

[Lu Group must give an explanation!]

[I won’t give up until this is over.]

The people on the internet were very righteous. There had to be an outcome.

However, they refused to believe the outcome they were shown.

These comments made Lu Weijian furious. “Then what do you want? What do you know? Oh, if it doesn’t match your imagination, it must not be the truth, right?”

He scrolled for a while and saw that Tian Xin had actually appeared at this moment.

Tian Xin directly posted on Weibo, saying that he was also very good friends with the deceased. Back then, she had always been very regretful that she did not find the murderer. She hoped that this time, with this case being so important to everyone, they would find the murderer as soon as possible so that justice could be given to her good friend.

As a public figure, her speech happened to be in line with the public's emotions this time. Hence, it gave everyone a good impression of her.

The comments below supported her.

[You're so kind and beautiful. You deserve to be famous!]

[I was a little unhappy with you in the past. I was really blind. It turns out you're a person with a heart of justice! I apologize. I'll always support you in the future!]

[Come on, let's get justice for the dead together.]

[Protect yourself. Justice will come eventually!]

[So she was your friend. I hope you can fight with us to the end.]

As Tian Xin was the movie queen of the past, this topic quickly became a trending topic.

Things started brewing again as the matter escalated to new heights.

Chapter 1290: Stop Acting On Your Own

"No wonder she became the movie queen back then. She really knows how to ride on trends. She even wants to ride on this hot topic." Lu Weijian couldn't stand Tian Xin's face. "Brother, are you really not going to care about this woman?"

Lu Heting said, "Let her continue."

Lu Weijian was about to die of anger. His mother-son relationship with Han Qingwan was not ruined by what had happened the last time. From the bottom of his heart, he still respected Han Qingwan. Seeing her being slandered like this, he felt terrible.

"What exactly is your plan, Big Brother?"

"I'm working on that too. All I can tell you is that this time, the truth will come out."

Lu Weijian was finally happy. "Then I'll wait for your good news. By the way, I'll go back and accompany Mom. She must be feeling terrible at this time."

"Go on."

When Lu Heting returned home, Su Bei was also browsing the relevant news. When she saw him coming in, she put down her phone.

"Are you looking into this?" she asked.

“Yes, we’re getting somewhere.”

Su Bei said nervously, “It has nothing to do with Mom, right? I think one thing is right. At that time, Mom’s career and family life were going very smoothly. Even if she had some personal conflict with her best friend, she definitely wouldn’t have resorted to such a despicable method to harm those people’s lives. How much hatred must there have been for one to do such a thing?”

“You’re right. Continue with your train of thought. Actually, you can see issues in many things. However, everything depends on evidence. Otherwise, one won’t be able to feel at ease or convince others.”

“So, are you now at the stage of gathering evidence?”

“Yes.” Lu Heting reached out and stroked her hair. “This stage is very important. I can’t tell anyone for the time being, but I can tell you something.”

Su Bei nodded gently and immediately fell silent, leaning her ear close.

Lu Heting was amused by her cute actions. Even when he was busy with work, she was like a ray of bright sunlight that shone onto him and added warmth and color to his life.

...

Lu Tianci paid attention to the share price of Lu Group. As he watched it fall bit by bit, he felt happy.

Originally, Lu Yaode and Tianxin did not agree to release this video, but Lu Tianci insisted on doing it. He was anxious about losing and wanted to find a way to take revenge on Lu Heting. Hence, he secretly released the video.

Lu Yaode and Tian Xin could only let him be.

It was just that the effect was even better than they’d expected. Maybe the netizens were too righteous, or maybe some of them had a serious grudge against the rich. Perhaps there were other reasons too. Anyway, all the results were satisfactory.

Even Lu Yaode did not expect public opinion to be so powerful. It was far stronger than when he was young.

The shares of Lu Group were falling day by day, and the company was unable to stop this momentum.

When Feng Ze called, Lu Tianci was feeling smug.

“Who told you to release the video?” Feng Ze’s voice was so cold that it made people shiver even though it was just a call.

The person who answered the phone was Lu Yaode. He was much more cautious than Lu Tianci. He said, “I didn’t educate my son well in this matter. But as you can see, the situation is very good. Lu Group is suddenly forced to face a huge crisis. This is what you want to see, right?”

“Next time, don’t act on your own.” Feng Ze’s words were so cold that Lu Yaode subconsciously tightened his grip on his phone.
