

Chapter 1331: Obviously Biased Words (3)

Du Jinghao knew that he still lacked some love for Tang Yue. He lacked the romantic impulse that came from the bottom of his heart when he saw her. However, since he was already engaged to her, he would fulfill his duties.

Tang Yue really did not expect Du Jinghao to say such a thing.

She was very touched, but when she thought about how even Du Jinghao could make a decision that made her feel at ease at such a time yet her mother didn't care about her and only cared about Su Bei, her heart turned even colder.

This did not make her regret doing this scam. If not, she would not have been able to figure out how the people around her felt.

Su Bei's schedule for the past two days was affected by Tang Yue.

Those feverish voices had been weighing her down.

The world had always been cruel.

During the break, Su Bei had a brand show to attend.

When she dressed up and stepped forward, an audience member actually threw rotten vegetables at her.

Fortunately, the bodyguards who accompanied her managed to shield her from the vegetables. The security guard also picked out the person who deliberately threw the vegetables and kicked them out.

However, when that person was chased out, he was still shouting, "How can a heartless person be an artist? You don't even care about your own sister, but you still have the cheek to stand on stage so righteously? You have to learn some virtues first. An artist like Su Bei is not worthy of standing on the stage!"

.....

The scene was chaotic for a while. Fortunately, the host resolved the awkwardness with a few witty words.

However, it could be seen that the attention on this matter was not reduced at all.

Fortunately, Qiao Mei and Xiao Bai had been following closely during this event. After the event ended, many reporters planned to ask questions about this, but Qiao Mei stopped them.

After they got into the car, the car left the bustling reporters and finally escaped this situation.

Qiao Mei called the media she knew and asked them not to casually write about Su Bei.

After putting down the phone, Xiao Bai couldn't help but curse, "If Tang Yue wants to die, she should die herself. She really has to cause trouble for others. The sooner she dies, the sooner she can reincarnate!"

She really couldn't help herself. She was truly upset.

Su Bei comforted her. "Alright, scolding her won't affect her in any way. You should save your saliva."

"Sigh, if this continues, you'll really be dragged to death by her. Didn't you see the way those reporters looked at you just now? Although they didn't say it, they think that you did something wrong. It's really easier said than done. Can kidneys be simply donated just like that?" Xiao Bai was indignant.

"The kidney is with me. If I say I won't give it to her, will she dare take it from me openly?" Su Bei asked with a smile.

Xiao Bai couldn't help but laugh.

However, although Su Bei said it casually and didn't care at all, what happened tonight was still exposed by a few media outlets.

Netizens on the internet naturally went crazy discussing it.

[Didn't you say that Su Bei was very busy? Now it seems that she's really busy earning money.]

[I heard that Su Bei hasn't been to the hospital once since Tang Yue was hospitalized. She's really capable.]

[No matter how bad their relationship is, they're still from the same family. She should at least show some concern, right? Su Bei is really heartless.]

[We don't understand other people's family matters. Let's not talk about it casually. This is too unfair to Su Bei!]

[Tang Yue is about to die, and you're talking about fairness here?]

The internet was noisy, but Su Bei didn't look at any of the comments. Instead, she picked up a call.

It was from Old Master Tang. He said that he wanted to see her.

Su Bei pondered for a moment and said, "Okay, I'll come over."

Qiao Mei asked, "Are you really going over? What if the old man persuades you?"

"Running away isn't an option. Even if I don't donate, I'll make it clear to them."

"Alright. But Su Bei, you have to think carefully. Don't give in to the pressure at home."

Su Bei smiled. "I know."

The nanny van sent her to the place that Old Master Tang had booked.

Su Bei got out of the car, put on her sunglasses, and went straight to the meeting place.

Old Master Tang had already arrived. He looked slightly tired and old. It was obvious that he had been worried about Tang Yue. He had probably been running around to find a kidney for her.

She sat down, said hello, and put her bag down.

“Su Bei, I called you today mainly to tell you about Tang Yue.”

Su Bei pursed her lips and nodded. She knew that at a time like this, what else could the old master talk to her about except for Tang Yue?

Old Master Tang looked at her and said, “I’m not here to persuade you. I just want to tell you that Tang Yue is very important to me, but so are you. No matter what decision you make, I’ll agree with it.”

Su Bei looked into his dignified, tough, and slightly cloudy eyes and knew that it was not easy for him to say this. However, the fact that he could say such a thing really reduced the pressure on Su Bei.

She nodded. “I know, Grandpa. I’ll also help find a kidney source for Tang Yue.”

The message was clear. It was unrealistic to expect her to donate a kidney.

Old Master Tang had also expected this answer. Tang Yue had never welcomed Su Bei home, and there were many conflicts between the two of them. He was even a little relieved that Su Bei was not a saint.

Old Master Tang said, “Your mother has the same intention. She asked me to tell you that she hopes you can take care of yourself.”

“Mom said that too?” Su Bei was surprised.

Su Bei believed that Old Master Tang could say such a thing.

His affection toward her had always been genuine.

However, Su Bei had very little contact with her mother, Lin Shulian. They didn’t even feel like a pair of mother and daughter. However, Lin Shulian clearly sided with her, which surprised Su Bei.

Old Master Tang said, “We all feel very sorry for Tang Yue, but we can’t drag the other down because of one child. It’s very difficult to make such a choice, but what can we do?”

Su Bei didn’t know what to say.

To be honest, she had no sympathy for Tang Yue’s illness, nor was she in the mood to consider Tang Yue’s feelings.

But she empathized with her elders.

After sitting with Old Master Tang for a while, she returned home.

When she reached home, she was about to open the door when it opened. Lu Heting stood in front of her and sized her up with a frown. “Qiao Mei said that you went to see Grandpa.”

“Yes. Grandpa told me not to worry about what the outside world thinks. He even agrees that I shouldn’t donate my kidney.”

Lu Heting looked relieved. He reached out to hold Su Bei’s hand and gently rubbed the back of her hand with his index finger.

He was originally worried that the Tang family would fight for Tang Yue.

But since that didn't happen, everything was alright now.

"I've already asked Lu Hang to get Tang Yue's medical report and ask him to help find a kidney source," Lu Heting said.

Su Bei suddenly smiled. "This is really helpless. I still have to help Tang Yue find a kidney source. What right does she have to use Lu Group's resources?"

"She was lucky enough to be cast into the same family as you when she was reincarnated. She benefited from you."

Su Bei felt much better.

Tang Yue vaguely heard that Old Master Tang and Su Bei had met.

As for what the meeting was about, she didn't find out.

However, Lin Shulian had already said such words last time. She guessed that her family was probably on Su Bei's side this time.

Even though all of this was fake, the feeling of being abandoned by her entire family made her heart ache.

She clenched her fists and dug her nails into her palms. "Su Bei! Su Bei! Everyone thinks of Su Bei! Does no one care if I die?"

However, without her knowing, Old Master Tang was also using all the resources he could to help her find a suitable kidney source.

It never occurred to her to wonder how much her fake setup had worried her entire family and caused so much trouble for everyone.

She only cared about her own feelings and whether others cared about her or not. She had never thought about how hard Old Master Tang and the others were working to help her.

The media quickly arrived at the hospital Tang Yue was in.

Tang Yue was dressed in a hospital gown with her hair loose. Her face without makeup looked terrible. Her lips were pale.

Her appearance in front of the media drew a wave of attention.

"Tang Yue, can you accept our interview?"

"How's your condition now? Is Su Bei here?"

"We want to know how Su Bei's attitude is now. What's your relationship like in private?"

Tang Yue sat in her wheelchair and smiled kindly. "Sure. Don't push, everyone. Ask your questions one by one."

She was polite and still considerate of the reporters even when she was sick. This made the reporters like her even more.

“I’ll answer everyone’s questions now. My physical condition is very stable now, but I don’t know how long this stability can last. The doctor’s advice to me is to get a kidney transplant as soon as possible.

“I appreciate everyone’s concern for me. My illness has drawn the concern of many people, and I’m deeply grateful for that. As for Su Bei, I know she’s busy and that’s why she hasn’t come to see me. I can understand that, and I don’t want to delay her too much because of my illness.

“Please give Su Bei more time and space. Don’t disturb her because of my matters. Let her be at ease and do her own things.

“As for my relationship with Su Bei, there’s no need to speculate. Our relationship has always been quite good. I believe that as long as Su Bei has time, she will definitely visit me.

“Su Bei is one of the younger children in the family. My family has told me since I was young that an older sister should take care of her younger sister and teach her to respect her older sister. I believe that Su Bei’s thoughts are the same as mine. We both want each other to live better lives.”

The reporters were touched by Tang Yue’s understanding.

Under such circumstances, Su Bei completely ignored her. On the other hand, Tang Yue still spoke up for Su Bei and considered problems from Su Bei’s perspective. The two of them were worlds apart.

The media quickly released the interview.

The situation, which had calmed down a little, stirred again.

[Tang Yue is really too pitiful. Besides, she’s really gentle. She’s already seriously ill, but she still speaks up for Su Bei. She’s even understanding of why Su Bei hasn’t visited her.]

[Sigh, I’m really a fan of Su Bei, but this is too heartless. Even if she doesn’t donate her kidney, visiting her sister won’t waste much time, right? Not to mention biological sisters, even colleagues shouldn’t be so heartless.]

[I think there’s something wrong with this family. Perhaps they’ve been biased toward Su Bei since she was young, especially since Su Bei only returned home later on, so they’re even more biased toward her. I don’t even see any other members of the Tang family coming out to say anything.]

[Tang Yue doesn’t deserve this. What’s the point of being a good sister? Su Bei won’t appreciate it.]

[Those parents who want to have a second child should take a good look. What’s the use of having so many children? No matter how many children there are, they can’t support each other. They can only add to each other’s troubles.]

[Why don’t the saints above donate their own kidneys, then? You only dare to say these things because it’s not happening to you.]

[I support Su Bei. Why should she waste her career for others? Is it wrong for people to do things for themselves?]

[That’s right. I heard that even giving birth will be a problem after donating a kidney. I don’t want to see Su Bei ruin herself over this.]

[This kind of self-serving talk from a die-hard fan is simply outrageous. Truly, like idol, like fan.]

When Lu Tianqing saw these comments, the smile on her face seemed permanent. “Tang Yue is really a promising talent. Her idea is much better than I imagined. She’s really a genius. She can even think of such a thing.”

Although the impact on Su Bei was not serious at the moment, with everyone criticizing her, this would definitely be a huge blow to her career.

And her movie’s filming progress was much faster than Su Bei’s movie now.

When the movies were released together, the gap in reputation between her and Su Bei would become obvious to all. The box office sales would definitely reflect that as well.

Su Bei would definitely be dragged down by her reputation.

The screenwriter was discussing the script with Lu Tianqing. “Tianqing, let’s go through this scene again.”

“Let’s do it.” Lu Tianqing put down her phone. She valued this movie very much, so even if it was a line or a paragraph in the script, she had to review it repeatedly. Every part had to be practiced to the extreme. There could not be any problems.

Lu Group.

Lu Hang brought Tang Yue’s information over.

“How’s the kidney search going?” Lu Heting asked.

“We’re looking. We’ve searched all the places with kidney sources so far. We’ve also made a filing.”

Lu Heting pinched his eyebrows. “Did you find anything wrong while investigating?”

Lu Hang was about to touch on this. He said, “As you expected, there’s really a problem. For the past two days, we’ve been observing Tang Yue’s movements. She’s staying in the intensive care unit, but every time the medicine is sent in, it’s sent out intact. The medical record hasn’t been updated for two days. I keep feeling that her condition isn’t as serious as it appears to be.”

Chapter 1332: Even If She Doesn’t Die, She Will Be Skinned Alive (1)

Lu Heting snorted, and his dark eyes turned cold. “Is it possible to pretend to be sick?”

“Yes, I’ve already given the medical records to the doctor and asked him to take a look at the situation,” Lu Hang said.

Because Tang Yue had done many misdeeds, Lu Heting did not completely believe in her illness.

If she was truly ill, that was another matter.

If she was only pretending to be ill...

There was a hint of coldness on Lu Heting's face.

Lu Hang returned very quickly and said, "The doctor has taken a look at her medical records. Although he couldn't see any obvious problems with her medical records, he compared them with all the medical records saved in all the hospitals. They're exactly the same as the records of a patient with kidney disease two years ago.

"In other words, it's possible that Tang Yue is pretending to be sick. In order to cooperate with her, her doctor directly copied the medical records of a previous patient," Lu Heting concluded.

His eyes were deep and filled with mockery. Previously, he had felt that Tang Yue's illness was a little strange. Moreover, he did not see her go through any verification yet directly announced that Su Bei's kidney was compatible with hers.

Sure enough, as long as it wasn't real, it would naturally give the game away.

"Check again. Make sure you don't alert her or her doctor."

Lu Hang immediately nodded. "Yes."

He was also in high spirits. He had not expected this problem to be resolved so quickly.

Previously, he had also been sweating profusely.

When he got into the car, he saw that Tang Yue was still being interviewed by a certain media outlet. He felt that it was too ironic.

Lu Hang quickly gathered all the information.

He investigated everything carefully. After all, since Tang Yue was only pretending to be sick, it was impossible for there to be no clues. If she was not sick, it was impossible for her to really do dialysis or take real medicine. At most, she would use some vitamins to deceive others.

When Su Bei returned home, she was slightly surprised to learn this information.

"In order to harm me, Tang Yue even thought of such a method?" Su Bei was really shocked by her. "She's really too reckless. Should I say I admire her? I really don't know what else to say."

Lu Heting's expression was obviously relaxed. "So now, what you have to do is to agree to donate your kidney to her."

Su Bei rolled her eyes and knew what Lu Heting meant. "Are we going to expose her true colors in public?"

"She has to pay a little for what she did."

After Su Bei spread the news that she was going to donate her kidney to Tang Yue, the outside world was in an uproar.

The biggest reaction came from the fans.

Su Bei's fans were different from the others. They were against Su Bei donating her kidney.

[Su Bei, don't do it. Donating a kidney is really harmful to the body. I don't want anything to happen to you.]

[Su Bei, I'm really begging you not to. I'm begging you. Your body will be destroyed. Medical technology is so advanced now. Tang Yue will definitely be able to find a suitable kidney source. There's really no need for you to sacrifice yourself.]

[Boo-hoo, I'm crying. I want you to be kind, but not in this way. I just want you to be safe, healthy, and kind, not sacrifice yourself.]

[Are her company and agent dead? Aren't they going to persuade Su Bei? I don't agree!]

[I don't agree. Darling, don't do anything!]

[I don't agree either. Dear, you have to be good and healthy!]

[Su Bei's company, step forward and receive your punishment! Is this how you treat your artists?]

Most of the other netizens were happy to see this. [It's really human nature to save your sister. It's definitely possible for Su Bei to make this decision.]

[She probably agreed because she couldn't stand the scolding, right? Fortunately, we were there to supervise. Otherwise, she definitely wouldn't have agreed.]

[The coward has finally come out!]

[Actually, I really don't think there's a need to pressure Su Bei like this. Really, it's too difficult for Su Bei.]

[But since it's Su Bei's decision, let's all respect it.]

Lu Tianqing quickly saw the news and smiled. "Su Bei really agreed?"

Her agent said, "She's in the wind now. She has to agree even if she doesn't want to. Otherwise, her reputation will be completely ruined."

"But she's really stupid. She's gained a good reputation, but her body will be completely ruined." Lu Tianqing was much less afraid of Su Bei now.

Although Su Bei's kidney donation would receive countless praise from netizens, how could the movie be filmed after this? She would have to rest for a few months.

Chapter 1333: Even If She Doesn't Die, She Will Be Skinned Alive (2)

If her body was destroyed, she would not have the strength to fight anymore.

Lu Tianqing suddenly recalled that Tang Yue's condition was fake. How could Su Bei donate her kidney?

She was worried. She couldn't let Su Bei gain both fame and fortune.

She quickly dialed Tang Yue's number.

Tang Yue had just seen this news. She was also quite surprised that Su Bei had agreed to donate her kidney.

!!

Just as she was thinking about it, Lu Tianqing called.

Tang Yue picked it up. Lu Tianqing asked, "Su Bei wants to donate her kidney. How do you plan to get her to donate it?"

Tang Yue was also thinking about this problem. Even if Su Bei donated it, she wouldn't need it.

In fact, even the match was a lie. She didn't find any of Su Bei's blood to do the test, so how could she be sure they were a match?

It was indeed a little troublesome now that Su Bei had announced she would be donating her kidney.

However, Tang Yue recalled the attitude of Old Master Tang, Lin Shulian, and the others.

She thought of Lin Shulian crying and begging her not to let Su Bei donate her kidney.

Tang Yue found an excuse and said, "You're asking me how she'll donate? How else can she donate? The doctor will cut it out of her, that's how."

Her tone was venomous. Even if she had no use for the kidney, she wanted Su Bei's kidney removed.

Lu Tianqing heard the meaning in her voice and felt a chill run down her spine. Tang Yue was really ruthless to her sister. Even if she didn't need it, she wanted Su Bei to cut her kidney.

However, Lu Tianqing was also happy about this. Without Su Bei as a competitor, her path would be much easier. There was no artist in Di Xing Media Company who could fight with her after this.

"Then rest well, Tang Yue. When I'm free, I'll come and visit you." Lu Tianqing hung up.

After learning that Su Bei had donated her kidney, Old Master Tang and Lin Shulian called and persuaded her to reconsider.

Especially Lin Shulian, who was even more anxious than Old Master Tang.

Su Bei rejected them all. "I've already thought about it. Don't worry, I have my own considerations."

However, she could only hide it from the fans for the time being. Only the insiders knew about this matter as the information could not be spread on a large scale. She was afraid that Tang Yue would be wary.

Su Bei could only persuade everyone that everything would be fine and tell them not to worry too much.

Some fans were so anxious that they were about to leave the fandom. [If I leave the fandom, I don't have to worry anymore. I really can't stand this abuse. I don't want to see Su Bei like this.]

Su Bei couldn't help but laugh. These fans were really cute. However, the most important thing for her now was to expose Tang Yue.

Only then could her fans no longer have to worry.

In the ward, Tang Yue was in a good mood.

Du Jinghao had been visiting her frequently recently and really showed some sincerity to her.

And Su Bei had agreed to donate her kidney.

Thinking that Su Bei's health would deteriorate in the future and she would no longer have the ability to compete with her, she felt extremely happy.

She had already bribed the doctor. This matter would gradually be erased with time after Su Bei donated her kidney.

At that time, when she recovered and was discharged from the hospital, Su Bei's body would be weak and incomplete. Everyone would praise Su Bei, and she would not hesitate to thank Su Bei for everything she had done.

No one would know that Su Bei's kidney wasn't transplanted into her body at all. It just became rotting garbage in the sewer.

On the day of the operation.

Tang Yue got up early to get ready.

Apart from Lin Shulian, the rest of the Tang family had arrived.

Tang Yue was extremely disappointed in her mother. Once again, she felt abandoned by her mother.

Old Master Tang persuaded her, "Your mother just doesn't want to see both her daughters suffer."

However, Tang Yue did not listen to a single word.

Old Master Tang watched her enter the operating room.

Her phone and communication devices had been taken away. Despite her reluctance, everything had to look real since she was putting on a show for others to see. One couldn't bring those things into the operating theater, after all.

That day, the reporters arrived early and surrounded the entire hospital.

Fortunately, this was a private hospital to begin with. Only very rich people could be admitted here. Therefore, even though there were many reporters, they did not hinder the public.

The reporters were all waiting.

Lu Heting had already made all the arrangements. When Su Bei was about to get out of the car, he pulled her over and kissed her hard on the lips before letting her go.

Chapter 1334: Even If She Doesn't Die, She Will Be Skinned Alive (3)

The reporters were guarding the door. When they saw Su Bei's car, they got excited.

"Su Bei is here!"

“Hurry up, Su Bei is here.”

“Su Bei, can you talk to us briefly?”

Su Bei got out of the car and was immediately surrounded by the reporters’ microphones.

!!

She was wearing a very plain dress without any makeup, but her skin was as white as snow, and her lips were as pretty as spring peach blossoms.

With a smile, she said, “Please don’t delay my sister’s illness. Let me in.”

“Just give us a few minutes!”

“We’ll just find out a little about your mood.”

Su Bei smiled and said, “Alright then. The reason why I’m here today is to donate my kidney to Tang Yue. Although my relationship with Tang Yue isn’t good—after all, we really don’t get along much—since she needs it and has been contacting me, I’ll just be a good person for once.

“It’s not that I’m kind or that I value sisterhood. It’s just that I can’t bear to see someone suffer from an illness, so there’s no need to praise my actions or even learn from them. I hope everyone will love themselves better.”

With that, the reporters finally moved aside to let her into the hospital.

As this matter had been hyped up for a long time, the desire to watch it online was very strong. A few media outlets had also started live-streaming the scene to take advantage of the traffic.

Many people rushed in to watch the live broadcast.

Needless to say, Su Bei’s fans were watching.

[It’s really not easy for Su Bei. She was really pressured to be a saint.]

[I really think what she said is meaningful. It’s hard enough to love yourself better, yet she was pressured into donating her kidney.]

[Things are really too tough on her. Must it be so hard to be a public figure? Does she not even have the right to refuse?]

[What a pity. I don’t think I’ll be able to see Su Bei on the big screen in the future.]

[Ah, I don’t know what to say. My heart aches.]

[Learning from Su Bei also encourages such behavior.]

At this moment, the reporters also realized that there were two other cars following Su Bei’s car. A group of doctors got out of the cars.

“What’s going on here?”

“Did Su Bei bring the doctors here herself?”

Qiao Mei said to the media, "After all, Su Bei is an artist our company values the most. Since she has chosen this path, we can't say anything. But no matter what, our company doesn't want to see anything happen to her. Therefore, we invited the most famous kidney disease treatment team in the country. On the one hand, the team will be responsible for retrieving Su Bei's kidney. On the other hand, they'll also operate on Tang Yue. I hope everyone can understand and support us."

The reporters all nodded. "We understand."

"Then please give us some time and space now. We'll set aside some time for interviews later," Qiao Mei said.

The media reporters made way for the doctors.

The audience watching the live broadcast also posted comments: [Of course, we understand. Di Xing Media is really considerate.]

[Of course. We have to use the best doctors to ensure Su Bei's safety.]

[These doctors are all top experts! Di Xing Media is really very conscientious.]

[Sigh, Di Xing Media Company is really willing to go all out. It wouldn't have been easy for them!]

[In the future, if there are any movies or TV shows by Di Xing Media Company or Su Bei, we'll support them!]

The hospital did not know that so many doctors were coming over. They had no intention of welcoming these doctors.

However, Lu Corporation had just sent someone to communicate with them. The hospital staff thought that since the other party consisted of top experts, they could treat the patients better, so they agreed.

Moreover, the operating theater was fully equipped with medicine and medical equipment. They only needed to swap doctors. Everything was very convenient.

So far, only Tang Yue and the doctor she had bribed were still in the dark.

Tang Yue didn't know what was going on outside because she wasn't carrying any communication tools. She was already dressed in sterile clothes and couldn't come out again. She could only wait in the ward for it to end.

Even if her trusted aides knew that they were going to change doctors, they did not know that Tang Yue was pretending to be ill. They would only rejoice for her and not think to remind her that something had gone wrong.

As for the doctor that Tang Yue had bribed, he had already been stopped by Lu Hang and his men. Naturally, he would not cause trouble.

Soon, everyone saw Su Bei enter the hospital building with the doctors.

Chapter 1335: Don't You Understand? (1)

Tang Xinru quickly stepped forward to welcome Su Bei and asked, "Su Bei, are you really ready?"

"I'm ready, Sis," she said with a smile. "Don't worry. It'll be fine."

"I know your company has found the best doctors for you, but Su Bei, some conditions can't be completely cured by doctors..."

Su Bei couldn't tell her the truth at this moment, so she could only give her a smile. "I know. I understand your good intentions. I'm going in now. Wait for me to come out."

Tang Xinru originally wanted to persuade Su Bei to give up, but now, it seemed that Su Bei had already made up her mind. There was no way to salvage the situation.

!!

Tang Xinru watched Su Bei leave and sighed softly in her heart.

She just wanted to know how Lu Heting could bear to let Su Bei do this. Previously, she had trusted him so much. Was this how he did things?

Unfortunately, she didn't have Lu Heting's contact information. Otherwise, Tang Xinru really wanted to call him and confront him.

Lu Heting was waiting outside the hospital. His ears were burning. At this moment, many people were talking about him.

He just concentrated on the final result.

He had planted people throughout the hospital to make sure nothing went wrong.

Tang Yue knew nothing about this, so everything was going smoothly.

The reporters were all waiting patiently. Some of the hosts of the live broadcasts were still talking to the cameras. "At this moment, we see that Su Bei has already gone in and is preparing to undergo surgery.

"As far as we knew, such operations usually take a few hours. Complicated ones take ten.

"As far as we know, Tang Yue's illness this time is a type of acute kidney disease. It's very dangerous, so she needs a kidney transplant as soon as possible to treat it. We'll also bring you updates the entire time and pay close attention to all the changes in the situation."

Su Bei's fans were already speechless. [I really can't understand! I really can't accept it!]

[I can't wait to bring Su Bei out. How could she make such a decision? I really want to shake her so that she'll come to her senses.]

[Forget it. She made that decision. What can we do?]

[I think the company must have pressured her. After all, Tang Yue is the eldest daughter of the Tang family. The Tang family must have communicated with Di Xing Media Company. They forced Su Bei. My heart aches.]

[Although I don't know the inside story, I really can't bear to see Su Bei suffer.]

Lu Tianqing was also watching the live broadcast seriously. Seeing that everything had settled and Su Bei and Tang Yue had entered the operating theater, she thought to herself, 'Everything is fine. No matter how Su Bei struggles, she has no choice.'

Seeing that there were still several hours before the surgery ended, she got up and told someone to put on her makeup so that she could continue filming. She wasn't going to waste all her time on this.

In the hospital.

The doctors filed into the operating theater.

Tang Yue lay on the operating table. She did not look like a patient at all. Instead, she was smiling happily.

Su Bei's surgery was about to begin.

Initially, she didn't want to remove one of Su Bei's kidneys. She just wanted to put pressure on Su Bei.

He didn't expect Su Bei to be so stupid as to donate her kidney. If that was the case, she would have everything go according to plan.

Tang Yue was still thinking about it when she heard the doctors enter. All of them were wearing surgical gowns and masks.

An unfamiliar voice said, "Tang Yue, right? We're going to operate on you now. First, we'll remove your damaged kidney and replace it with a good one. But don't be afraid. You'll be given anesthesia for this surgery. Just relax during the entire process. Don't worry."

The syringe in the doctor's hand was raised and held high. It was filled with an anesthetic.

Tang Yue panicked when she saw that it was not the doctor she had found. "Where's Doctor Zhang? Who are you? Who asked you to come?"

"Tang Yue, don't worry. We're all kidney specialists in the capital. We all have relevant qualifications. We've replaced Doctor Zhang to help you with the surgery. Don't be too nervous."

"Who asked you to replace him? Who gave you the right? Go and get Doctor Zhang for me."

"I'm sorry, but the hospital has agreed to let us operate on you. We have more than 30 years of surgical experience. We won't hurt you. Please don't worry."

Tang Yue panicked even more. Only Doctor Zhang could perform her surgery. No one else could.

She sat up.

The doctor signaled to the nurse to hold Tang Yue down so he could forcefully inject the anesthetic.

Chapter 1336: Don't You Understand? (2)

Doctors had to treat patients kindly and conduct good psychological counseling so that better operations could be performed.

However, the doctors here knew that Su Bei had already entered the operating theater. They were worried that the difference in progress between the two sides would affect the surgery, so they had no choice but to speed up.

Therefore, they had no choice but to adopt a slightly tougher attitude when Tang Yue refused to cooperate.

Tang Yue was terrified. Her kidneys were good. If one of them had to be removed, it would be terrible. Besides, even if Su Bei donated her kidney, she wouldn't need it.

"I'm not doing the surgery! Let me out, I'm not doing it!"

!!

"Tang Yue, you can't refuse to undergo surgery. We've read your report. Your condition is very serious, and you have to undergo surgery. Moreover, Su Bei has also entered the operating theater. If you still want to escape now, even if Su Bei's kidney is taken out, it won't last long if it's not transplanted soon after. If you lose such an opportunity, I don't know when you'll be able to find another match in the future. I hope you can cooperate and not be willful. This is everyone's responsibility to you," the doctor said righteously.

The nurse stepped forward and grabbed Tang Yue.

The anesthetic appeared in front of Tang Yue's eyes. At the thought that her kidney was about to be taken away, Tang Yue's heart almost jumped out of her chest. She pushed the nurse away and said, "I said that I don't want to undergo surgery anymore. Don't you understand? Why are you forcing me to undergo surgery?"

The nurse was a little angry. "It's not that we want to force you to undergo surgery, but you need a kidney. Besides, Su Bei took the initiative to donate her kidney to you. Our attending doctor is very busy. We took special time out to help you. Can you be more understanding? Everyone is worried about you and fighting for you. You can't be like this."

Tang Yue said angrily, "I'm telling you that I'm not doing the surgery anymore!"

The doctor really did not know that she was pretending to be sick. He only knew that Lu Group had reminded them that Su Bei's surgery would not take long. This surgery had to be completed successfully, and Su Bei's good intentions could not go to waste. Therefore, everyone had to perform the surgery on Tang Yue.

The doctor said, "In that case, Tang Yue, we can only take mandatory measures. Please bear with it. Nurse, come and help. Tang Yue, the injection will only hurt a little. After the anesthetic takes effect, it won't hurt anymore. Just bear with it."

Tang Yue had not expected this team of doctors to be so tough. She could not be operated on, given anesthesia, and have her kidney taken out! They could not do anything to her!

Seeing that there was no way to avoid it, she immediately ran toward the door of the operating theater.

After she ran out, she wanted to find a path to escape. As for how she would explain it later, it was a small matter.

Most importantly, if Su Bei's kidney was taken out, there was no way to reverse the damage.

Tang Yue ran out. However, all the doors were closed. The small doors that she was familiar with were all closed tightly.

And the medical team was right behind her, hurrying to catch up.

The doctors and nurses were having a headache, too. They'd never had such a difficult patient. All they wanted to do was get on with things, but they had already been delayed for so long.

If they were to chase after Tang Yue now, they would probably not be able to undergo surgery immediately. Later, they would have to give Tang Yue various psychological counseling and communicate with her before the surgery. All of them would have a headache.

Seeing that she could not get through the various doors and the doctors and nurses were chasing after her, Tang Yue had no choice but to escape.

She didn't want to get caught and actually have her kidney taken.

As she fled, she arrived at where the reporters were. The reporters were waiting lazily. They all knew that the surgery would take a long time, so they did not expect anything to happen midway.

When they saw Tang Yue running over and the doctors and nurses chasing after her, the reporters were surprised. What was going on?

What was Tang Yue doing out here? What were the doctors and nurses doing?

Although they did not know the whole story, their professional sensitivity made them immediately gather around and aim their cameras at Tang Yue.

The platforms that were broadcasting immediately turned their cameras to her, waiting to see what was going on.

"What's going on, Tang Yue? What happened?" the reporters asked immediately.

"My doctor was replaced. What's going on? Why was my doctor swapped to a bunch of doctors I don't know?" Tang Yue was still trying to stall for time so that Su Bei's surgery could be completed quickly.

Qiao Mei stepped forward. "They're doctors arranged by Di Xing. I advise you to get the operation as soon as possible."

Chapter 1337: Don't You Understand? (3)

"Doctors arranged by Di Xing? I don't believe it! Why did you replace my doctor for no reason?"

The doctors and nurses walked over and explained simply, "We won't harm you. Don't worry. If you don't undergo surgery now, even if Su Bei's kidney is removed, it can't be kept for long. Your condition won't be treatable by then."

One of the reporters recognized the doctor and said, "This doctor is Wang Lang, a top-notch doctor from Jingdu Hospital's kidney department. He's especially famous and usually can't be booked. Tang Yue, why are you still delaying?"

The people watching the live broadcast could not help but break out in a cold sweat. [Tang Yue is really too willful. At a time like this, she's still throwing a tantrum.]

[That's right. Doesn't she know this doctor? It's Wang Lang! You can't find a better kidney doctor in the entire S Country. Previously, when my grandfather was sick, he was the one who performed surgery to treat him. However, it was really very difficult to make an appointment with him. Back then, we waited for a full six months before he was free to help treat my grandfather.]

!!

[So why is Tang Yue dawdling?]

[Su Bei has already entered the operating theater, but Tang Yue is still wasting her time here. Previously, I thought that she was quite pitiful. Now that I think about it, there must be something hateful about a pitiful person.]

Faced with the reporters' siege and everyone's distress, Tang Yue calculated that it was about time. She said, "Actually, my condition was a misdiagnosis. My doctor already gave me a diagnosis this morning, so I don't need surgery."

"What?" The watching reporters were shocked. "Why didn't you say so earlier?"

The doctors behind her were also very shocked. They really had not expected this.

No wonder Tang Yue refused to operate.

"I was going to say that earlier, but I was taken to the operating theater with no communication tools and no way to tell everyone, so there was no way to say it. So what's going on now?"

When Tang Xinru heard this, she gritted her teeth. Before she could say anything, she turned around and ran towards Su Bei's operating theater while staggering.

Old Master Tang and the others immediately ran over.

Qiao Mei questioned loudly, "Tang Yue, Su Bei said that she wanted to come over to donate her kidney to you. It was reported long ago. Since you had already discovered that you made a mistake, why didn't you say so earlier?"

"I told you that I couldn't contact anyone. Besides, I said before that I didn't need Su Bei to donate her kidney to me. Who knew that she would come and donate it to me? I was also out of the loop," Tang Yue said innocently.

Wang Lang said angrily, "Tang Yue, since you're not sick, why didn't you say anything when we entered the operating theater just now? Why didn't you tell us? If you had said something just now, we could have stopped Su Bei's surgery."

"I... I was shocked when you guys came in just now. I didn't know what you were doing. That's why I didn't dare to say anything." Tang Yue basically claimed that she did not know anything and was afraid. In any case, she was the most innocent. All this had nothing to do with her.

Su Bei's fans who were watching the live broadcast were shocked. [Damn, damn, damn, Tang Yue isn't sick? What misdiagnosis? Why didn't you say so earlier?]

[What should we do now? From the looks of it, Su Bei has been in the operating theater for a long time. The surgery to take out the kidney is simple. Perhaps it's already been taken out by now.]

[Damn it, what kind of scheming b*tch is Tang Yue? She actually lied about such a thing! This hospital is also terrible! Why didn't they communicate properly?]

[I'm so angry at this damned woman. Why didn't she really get sick and die? Su Bei went into the operating theater for her, but she actually said that it was a simple misdiagnosis.]

Qiao Mei stepped forward and grabbed Tang Yue's wrist. "Tang Yue, tell me what happened! If anything happens to Su Bei, you won't be able to bear the consequences!"

Tang Yue pretended to be completely unaware and said, "I don't know either. My doctor said it when he re-examined me this morning. I don't know anything..."

Tang Yue was good at shirking responsibility.

But Qiao Mei would not give her a chance to shirk responsibility.

She said, "The doctor who treated you is Zhang Shiping from this hospital. We'll just get Zhang Shiping to come out and explain to us your condition."

Zhang Shiping came over very quickly. Tang Yue was not worried at all. Zhang Shiping had accepted her money. As long as she insisted that she was completely unaware, even if Su Bei's kidney was removed, it would have nothing to do with her.

Chapter 1338: A Real Liar! (1)

Zhang Shiping stood up and faced the doubts of the reporters. He first bowed heavily before slowly saying, "I'm sorry. I've let down my professional ethics. Tang Yue is indeed not sick."

Tang Yue smiled.

However, Zhang Shiping continued, "She's not sick, but it's not because of a misdiagnosis. It's because she was never sick and was just pretending to be sick."

"Doctor Zhang, you have to have a basis for your words!" Tang Yue's expression changed slightly. She could not figure out why Zhang Shiping had suddenly betrayed her.

"I don't know exactly why she pretended to be sick, but when she found me, she said that she wanted to disguise it as acute kidney disease. She asked me to give her a certificate and arrange a treatment plan," Zhang Shiping said in a pained tone. "She also asked me to prepare all the treatment conditions. I agreed to everything."

!!

Tang Yue sneered. "Doctor Zhang, are you going to justify your misdiagnosis now? Are you going to blame me for your own mistake? I hope you think about your family and yourself. Don't let anyone be disgraced with you."

She was reminding Dr. Zhang not to forget their agreement.

Zhang Shiping looked at Tang Yue and said, "Tang Yue, there's no need for me to lie. That's because I've recorded everything that we talked about. I was afraid that I wouldn't be able to explain it clearly later. Although I made a huge mistake in helping you pretend to be sick, I admit my mistake. I also hope that you can realize your mistake as soon as possible. I believe everyone will have their own judgment about whether it's right or wrong."

The reporters erupted.

The people watching the live broadcast were in an uproar.

Tang Yue's expression changed.

Dr. Zhang took out his phone and pressed the play button.

Tang Yue wanted to go forward and snatch it, but Zhang Shiping was protected by someone, so she could not go forward at all.

The person protecting Zhang Shiping was someone arranged by Lu Hang. When Tang Yue entered the operating theater, Lu Hang had already found Zhang Shiping and learned the entire process. He asked him to explain everything in public.

Therefore, Tang Yue could only watch as the conversation between her and Zhang Shiping played on Zhang Shiping's phone.

Tang Yue said, "Dr. Zhang, I hope you can arrange for my illness to be acute kidney failure, the kind that requires a kidney transplant. Then, I'll announce it to the public."

Zhang Shiping said, "But Miss Tang, your body is fine. There are no symptoms at all. Why are you doing this? Your family will be worried."

Tang Yue said, "I'll let you arrange it. There are some questions that you shouldn't ask. When the time comes, you just have to give me a set of complete and flawless medical records. I have my own arrangements. In addition, I need a medical document that states Su Bei's kidney is a match to mine."

Zhang Shiping said, "But forging medical records is against professional ethics. It's even more impossible for me to make medical documents for you that state someone else's kidney is a match to your kidney. I've never seen Su Bei before. I haven't even collected her blood samples. How can I make such documents?"

Tang Yue said, "Dr. Zhang, if I remember correctly, your son, Huang Tinghao, is a trainee at Sheng Tang Entertainment? He takes his mother's surname and has a promising future. However, because he's insensible, he injured the son of an investment big shot. Not only can he not continue to be a trainee, but he also has to face huge compensation and jail time."

Zhang Shiping asked, "You know all this?"

Tang Yue said, "Dr. Zhang, I know you only have one precious son. He's not even 20 years old and has a bright future ahead of him, but he's going to jail for a small matter. I'm sure you can't bear to see your son in such a situation, right? But it's not very difficult to resolve this matter. I just need you to help me do this task well. I can help you settle all your son's matters if you do this for me."

Dr. Zhang said, "Can you guarantee that?"

Tang Yue said, "Dr. Zhang, do you think I can't?"

Zhang Shiping was silent for a moment before saying, "Alright then. I'll help you do what you asked of me. I hope you can guarantee that nothing will happen to my son. He didn't hurt anyone because he was insensible but because he couldn't stand the sight of that big shot's son bullying other female trainees. It was a righteous act, not a provocation."

Tang Yue smiled. "Of course. We have a mutually beneficial relationship. If you help me do this well, I'll naturally help you settle your son's matters."

Zhang Shiping finished playing the recording on his phone. The reporters were agitated. "So Tang Yue's illness was all orchestrated by herself, right?"

Chapter 1339: A Real Liar! (2)

"So it's also a fact that she wanted Su Bei's kidney?"

"Su Bei has already entered the operating theater. Her healthy kidney might have already been removed. Tang Yue, what do you have to say about this?"

"Dr. Zhang, do you have any more inside information?"

Tang Yue covered her face with her hands, not wanting to be interviewed.

However, Zhang Shiping said guiltily, "I don't have any other insider information. That's all I know. I was too stupid and did something wrong. I shouldn't have agreed to Tang Yue and lied to everyone for her. I'm willing to bear the punishment I deserve and apologize to the public!"

!!

Everyone watching the live broadcast was furious after hearing the recording. Not to mention Su Bei's fans, even the netizens who usually supported Tang Yue could not stand it anymore.

[To think that we've been helping her persuade Su Bei to donate her kidney. I didn't expect her to be such a liar!]

[Tang Yue, you owe us all an explanation!]

[Why would you do that? Do you have any idea what the consequences could be?]

[She's really too shameless. How can such a person be so vicious and selfish?! We must make Tang Yue take responsibility!]

[How is Su Bei doing? I'm anxious! Please tell me about Su Bei's situation!]

The reporters also pointed the microphone at Tang Yue. "Tang Yue, why did you do this? Is there something going on?"

"Can you give everyone an explanation?"

Tang Yue dodged the reporters' questions. The noise and accusations seemed to engulf her.

She tried her best to escape, but she couldn't.

Amidst the siege, Old Master Tang walked past everyone and toward Tang Yue.

His expression was very grave, and he staggered a little. He walked up to Tang Yue and slapped her hard.

Tang Yue was in pain. She turned her face to the side, looking aggrieved and humiliated.

She had been doted on since she was young and had never suffered such grievances. But now, Old Master Tang had slapped her in front of everyone.

She looked at Old Master Tang in disbelief. "Grandpa, you hit me?"

"Yes, I'm hitting you!" Old Master Tang slapped her again.

His eyes were filled with shock, anger, heartache, and regret. His tone was trembling as he said, "I originally thought that you and Su Bei just had some small conflicts and they were all petty fights. You two didn't grow up together and didn't have a deep relationship. This was inevitable. But I really didn't expect you to be so vicious. You actually tricked Su Bei into giving you a kidney! What's the difference between you and a beast? What exactly is your heart made of? Tang Yue, I was really wrong about you! If anything happens to Su Bei, you won't have to live anymore!"

Every word he said hit Tang Yue's heart heavily.

The deep disappointment in his eyes pierced Tang Yue.

Tang Yue covered her face and said, "That's right, you're wrong about me. I did it on purpose to harm Su Bei. You guys didn't expect that, did you? But what about you guys? You're always talking about Su Bei. My parents had already given birth to me, so why did they have another child? Why did they give birth to another child who would take everything away from me?"

"When we were young, it was like that. You thought the world of Su Bei, and Su Bei was everything to you. It wasn't easy for me to get rid of her. Who knew that she didn't die? After she grew up, she even came running back! When she came back, you still loved her and doted on her all the same! You've never cared about my feelings!"

"I have to leave the good men to her. I have to give her good resources! I have to take care of her! If I hadn't deliberately pretended to be sick this time, I really wouldn't have known. You guys actually came to persuade me not to let Su Bei donate her kidney to me. You would rather let me fend for myself than see me doing well!"

"Why? Why? Why should I give in to her for everything? I'm the older sister. Should I? Must I make way for her?"

In his anger, Old Master Tang was in no mood to listen to her questions. He only heard her say the words 'It wasn't easy for me to get rid of her.' He was even angrier. "What did you say? You were the one who lost Su Bei when she was young?"

"That's right. So what if it was me? Because of her, Mom and Dad were always with her. You all kept saying that she was obedient and beautiful, but she took everything from me. Why couldn't I throw her away?"

"I was the one who got rid of her. Anyway, she was still young at the time and didn't know anything. She was so silly that she didn't even know to come back. Besides, it didn't matter if she was lost. After she went missing, wasn't everything in the house pretty good? Didn't our family do well? Didn't you think of Su Bei as a scourge? Without her, everything would have been fine. With her around, things ended up like this!"

Chapter 1340: A Real Liar! (3)

Old Master Tang couldn't stand it anymore and raised his hand.

Tang Yue said, "Go ahead and hit me. Just kill me. Anyway, you have Su Bei. That's enough for you. You don't need me."

The surrounding reporters and viewers watching the live broadcast were all stunned by Tang Yue. They had never seen such a view of the world. She had hurt her biological sister, yet she was so righteous about the mistake she made.

She had even tossed Su Bei out into the streets when she was young.

[No wonder Su Bei wanted to leave Sheng Tang Entertainment. I really didn't expect Tang Yue to be such a person. Su Bei must have sensed it long ago, so she couldn't stay any longer.]

!!

[Previously, people called Su Bei evil for being unwilling to donate her kidney to Tang Yue. Now, everyone must've seen what true evil is! She tossed her sister out into the streets at such a young age. Even now, she's still thinking of ways to harm her sister. Such a person is really terrifying!]

[The point is that she still takes everything for granted as if the whole world owes her something.]

[No matter what's going on with Tang Yue, I just want to know Su Bei's physical condition. Please tell us about Su Bei's condition.]

[Actually, Tang Yue is quite pitiful. If parents treat their children differently, it might really cause the child to have a psychological imbalance, right?]

[Is pity a reason to commit a crime? Besides, Su Bei wasn't in the Tang family for so many years. Didn't she already get what she wanted? What does it have to do with Su Bei?]

Amidst everyone's discussion, Tang Xinru walked forward. She went to the operating theater and did not see Su Bei. When she returned, she happened to hear Tang Yue's words.

She walked over and supported Old Master Tang. Her voice was gentle and strong. “Tang Yue, you have to speak and do things with a clear conscience. Ever since they found out that you were sick, be it your mother or grandfather, all of them weren’t able to sleep at night. They went everywhere to help you find a suitable kidney source. They went to all the major hospitals and donation agencies. They didn’t ignore you as you said.

“Perhaps it’s indeed difficult for them to be completely and absolutely fair sometimes, but think about it. What kind of person can be completely fair? They love Su Bei, and they love you. They’ve been doing their best.

“Your parents aren’t there today because they couldn’t see their two daughters suffer at the same time, but they asked a lot of their friends to look for the best imported drugs to ease your pain. Both you sisters are in different situations, and the way they love you isn’t exactly the same. You, on the other hand, constantly infinitely magnify others’ shortcomings and your own grievances while disregarding the effort of others. Ask yourself if what you’re doing is appropriate.”

“It’s none of your business!” Tang Yue was very resistant to Tang Xinru.

“Do you think I want to care about you? I’m just afraid that Grandpa will get angry with you and Su Bei will get into trouble because of you!” Tang Xinru was not polite at all.

Someone watching the live broadcast recognized Tang Xinru. [This must be Tang Xinru, the person who’s really in charge of the company at Sheng Tang Entertainment, right? What she said makes sense!]

[That’s right. As long as the parents don’t treat the two children unfairly, there’s actually no big problem. Tang Yue is really too extreme.]

[Tang Yue is already working at Sheng Tang Entertainment, and she has a lot of assets under her name, right? On the contrary, Su Bei is the one who is really working hard outside and relies on herself for everything. Moreover, when she was sick, Su Bei came to help. How can she be so shameless?]

[Tang Xinru is right. It’s impossible for the world to be fair, but no matter what, it’s not a reason for Tang Yue to deceive and harm others!]

[I just want to know Su Bei’s condition! Please tell me how she’s doing!]

Lu Tianqing was filming, but she was also watching the live broadcast. Seeing that Su Bei had yet to come out but Tang Yue was already exposed, she couldn’t help but shake her head secretly. “Tang Yue was exposed in the end. But it doesn’t matter. Su Bei’s kidney should have already been taken away by now. In this fight between sisters, the ultimate winner will only be me.”

And she did not even participate in the entire process. She did not have to spend any energy, but she could collect all the fruits of labor.

The comments had already gathered. [Su Bei! Su Bei! We have to know Su Bei’s situation!]

The reporters could not be bothered to criticize Tang Yue. They were also anxious to know about Su Bei’s situation as well.
