

Chapter 1371: What Will Make You Sell?

The meeting place was still in the Tang family's house.

Lu Heting drove Su Bei over.

"Do you really not need me to go in with you?" He was worried about her.

"I'm afraid that if you go in with me, Tang Yue will give Jingbei Square to me directly. That scene won't be good." Su Bei was very relaxed.

Lu Heting wrapped his fingers in her natural chestnut hair and said in a low voice, "Then I'll wait for you outside. However, I won't let them make things difficult for you."

"I know. Wait for me to come back." Su Bei kissed him on the lips, turned around, opened the car door, and went in.

She went inside.

It was nighttime, and the lights were bright in the entire house. Tang Yue stood at the side while Old Master Tang and Tang Jianming sat on the sofa. Lin Shulian came forward and greeted, "Su Bei."

"Aunt, Grandpa, Uncle." She stepped inside.

"Have a seat, Su Bei," said Old Master Tang.

Tang Yue said calmly, "There's no need for too many pleasantries. The lawyers on both sides have already investigated the situation. Su Bei, why don't I start first?"

"Be my guest," she said coolly.

"I've seen your lawyer and read your financial report. In the past two years, Jingbei Square has indeed been profitable. Therefore, this proves that this is a place with great business potential. Therefore, Su Bei, you can't buy Jingbei Square at the price you paid back then. In other words, we won't sell Jingbei Square to you. I can only take over the business," Tang Yue came prepared and spoke confidently.

She held the neat file in her hand. She had read it carefully over the past two days.

It was because she had seen it that she was even more greedy for what she was about to get.

Since Jingbei Square was so profitable, she must get it!

It turned out that Grandpa had given Su Bei the best asset.

She had completely forgotten that Jingbei Square was just a barren land back then. It was Su Bei who made it become what it was now.

"Then what exactly will it take for you to sell it?" Su Bei ignored her other words and asked directly.

"I told you, I won't sell it no matter how much you give me." It was impossible for Tang Yue to not want such a piece of fat meat.

Su Bei nodded. "Then since Grandpa, Uncle, and Aunt are all here, I'll get straight to the point. If you want Jingbei Square, you have to give me money. Not only do you have to give me money, but you also have to compensate the employees. Are you willing to do so?"

"Naturally," Tang Yue said. "The reports are all here. I'll calculate them into money according to their value and pay you the sum."

"These are only on the surface. There are also the social relations of the entire mall, as well as good cooperation with the merchants. These are all valuable. However, Tang Yue, when the time comes, I'll take away everything that I've worked hard for. None of this is yours. I definitely won't leave them to you!"

Old Master Tang said, "Su Bei is right. She has put in a lot of effort over the years. Tang Yue, if you're willing, give the compensation to Su Bei and Jingbei Square is yours."

"Su Bei, I'll pay you according to the lawyer's calculations. How much do you want as compensation for the employees?" Tang Yue asked.

"There are a total of 235 employees in Jingbei Square. Back then, they worked day and night to make the square what it is today. When the time comes, their severance pay and the compensation that must be given to them is 200,000 yuan each, which totals up to 47 million yuan. The compensation for the 40 higher-ups will be 500,000 yuan each. This is another 20 million yuan, which brings the total to 67 million yuan." Su Bei listed everything one by one. "This part requires you to pay first. We'll talk about the others later."

Tang Yue's heart ached for the money, but at the thought that the profits of Jingbei Square would be huge in the future, such a sacrifice was necessary. If Su Bei's employees stayed, not only would they be an eyesore, but she would also be worried about using them.

These people had to be driven away.

Initially, she wanted to chase these people away after getting her hands on Jingbei Square. However, Su Bei had to resolve these people's problems first, so Tang Yue had to pay the money first.

Her lawyer reminded her, "Miss Tang, if you increase this budget, the risk will increase correspondingly. Please consider it carefully."

"There's no need to think about it. I've decided."

"But Miss Tang, the profits of the mall might not be as good as shown in the past budget report. Now that e-commerce is developing rapidly, we have to consider the risks," the lawyer reminded her again.

"Even Su Bei can manage the mall well. Do you think there'll be any problems when the mall is in my hands?" Tang Yue had never thought that she was inferior to others, especially to Su Bei. She was indignant at the lawyer's kind reminder and did not accept it at all.

The lawyer had nothing else to say.

Tang Yue did not want to offend him too much. She softened her tone and said, "Didn't you say that the Twin Towers Mall has always been well-run? Isn't that an important strategic location that Lu Group also thinks highly of?"

"Indeed. As long as Lu Group continues to own the Twin Towers, there'll definitely be no problems with future development," the lawyer said cautiously. This was also the conclusion reached by the entire financial team.

"Isn't that fine, then? As long as Lu Group continues to hold on to it, we won't lose out no matter what," Tang Yue said confidently.

The lawyer nodded in agreement.

Seeing that they had been whispering, Su Bei reminded them, "Do you want Jingbei Square or not? How long do you want to discuss it?"

"Of course!" Tang Yue said. "I'll transfer the promised 67 million yuan to your account. I also hope that you can appease your employees. If anything happens after that, it'll have nothing to do with me. Don't ask me to be responsible for any issues after that."

"Of course. But Miss Tang, after you pay this money, you can't have any regrets. I hope you don't find any reason to go back on your word. Even if you do, it's impossible for me to return this sum of money to you," Su Bei emphasized again.

How could Tang Yue go back on her word?

She had dreamed of getting Jingbei Square!

Now that she had finally found such an opportunity, even if she had to go back on her word, she would not.

Lin Shulian also said, "Yueyue, you have to think carefully. If you don't manage it well, it'll cause a huge loss."

Tang Yue's expression changed slightly. The few shopping malls under her name had suffered huge losses. However, she had always believed that it was not because of her management but because Old Master Tang had not given her the best location.

Displeased to hear her mother mention her embarrassing records, she did not reply.

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian had always just followed the arrangements of Old Master Tang and Tang Yue at home. The couple did not have much say.

Chapter 1372: Not A Good Deal

Seeing that Tang Yue did not speak, the couple stopped talking.

When no one said anything, Old Master Tang slowly said, "Since no one has any objections, Tang Yue, you can arrange it yourself."

Tang Yue asked the finance department to transfer the 67 million yuan to Su Bei's account.

"Did you get it?" Tang Yue asked.

Su Bei raised her phone and stood at the window. She looked at the man sitting in the car and called him. "Tang Yue has paid the compensation for the employees. Help me check if the money has been transferred. If it has, we'll have to sign the transfer agreement for the operation rights of Jingbei Square."

The person who received the call was Lu Heting. He smiled and said, "I've also made arrangements. Soon, I'll help you to get Jingbei Square in the simplest way."

Su Bei's smile was very bright. She put away her phone and said to Tang Yue, "Then let's sign the agreement. Don't forget, the compensation you have to pay me is 500 million."

"After you sign it, I'll quickly compensate you with 500 million yuan." Tang Yue did not feel the pinch at all. She could quickly earn the money back from Jingbei Square.

She reached out and waited for the lawyer to hand her the agreement.

However, a trace of nervousness suddenly appeared on her lawyer's face. He said in a low voice, "Miss Tang, something suddenly happened. I hope you can be understanding." A trace of impatience flashed across Tang Yue's face, but she could not ignore the lawyer's words.

She whispered, "What is it, exactly?"

"Lu Group has sold the Twin Towers Mall." Cold sweat appeared on the lawyer's forehead.

"What?" Tang Yue's voice rose uncontrollably.

"It's true. We just found out. Lu Heting was considering selling the Twin Towers Mall a few days ago, but the procedures were only completed tonight."

Tang Yue's expression cracked, and disappointment and worry spread slowly. She said to Su Bei, "Wait for me for a moment. I still have something to deal with."

"Then I'll have to trouble you to hurry up. Time is precious here. I can't wait too long," Su Bei said as she raised her wrist to look at the time. She seemed to be very tight on time.

Tang Yue immediately got the lawyer, financial officer, and the others to go to the balcony at the side. "What's going on with Lu Group?"

"As I just said, Lu Heting sold the Twin Towers Mall early this morning. It seems that he's not optimistic about the prospects of this area." The lawyer analyzed according to the available information.

The financial officer also nodded. "The reason why this area developed so quickly previously was that Lu Group invested in the Twin Towers Mall here. It can be seen that their plan was to develop in this area for a long time. But now, they suddenly sold it. There must be something fishy."

"Does Lu Group have financial problems?" Tang Yue's heart turned cold.

"They have no financial problems. Their share price is very stable."

Tang Yue gritted her teeth as her features contorted. "Does this mean that Lu Group is giving up on this development?"

"There must be something wrong with the development here. That's why they made such a decision. Lu Group has always been the trendsetter. If everyone follows them, they'll be able to reap the profits too. But if we go in the opposite direction of their development..." The lawyer was also telling the truth as he analyzed the current problem.

It was like gambling in a casino. Some people were very lucky. If you followed them, you could win a little no matter what.

If you followed the opposite, you would be gambling your life away.

The reason why Tang Yue was optimistic about Jingbei Square was not only because of the development of Jingbei Square itself, but also because of Lu Group's large-scale operation there in the past two years.

She found it difficult to decide.

The lawyer suddenly said, "In the location near that area, Lu Group sold a few more buildings in succession. This time, they sold office buildings."

Tang Yue's heart suddenly turned cold. Lu Group was no longer optimistic about that area.

Next, there would probably be many more people who would want to take action.

Once there was a lack of strong development progress, coupled with the location being so far away from the city center, Tang Yue would not only not be able to earn money, but she would also have to bear a huge loss if she bought over Jingbei Square now.

Not only that, but she also had to compensate Su Bei with 500 million...

No matter how she looked at it, it was a bad deal.

Tang Yue recalled that Su Bei was anxious to rush her to pay and sign the agreement. It seemed that she was very anxious to give Jingbei Square to her.

Could it be that Su Bei knew about Lu Corporation's plan and wanted to throw this hot potato out as soon as possible?

It must be! As she was in Di Xing Media Company, Su Bei knew more about Lu Group's movements than outsiders. She knew all of this, but she still set up a trap for her to buy Jingbei Square. She was really evil!

"What now, Miss Tang?" the lawyer asked.

"We're not buying it anymore," Tang Yue said through gritted teeth.

The lawyer nodded and said in a businesslike manner, "The current location of that mall is indeed high-risk."

Tang Yue pushed open the balcony door and walked back into the living room. Su Bei smiled faintly and said, "Miss Tang, you've been discussing this for a long time. Let's hurry up and sign the agreement. I still have something else to do."

Tang Yue thought to herself, 'Su Bei is simply a scheming b*tch. She clearly knows that there won't be any development in that area in the future, but she's still urging me to sign it. Hmph, I won't let you have your way.'

"Su Bei, I just discussed it with my lawyer. At the moment, I don't think Jingbei Square is suited to be developed by me, so..." Tang Yue pretended that nothing had happened.

Su Bei asked in surprise, "Miss Tang, are you not going to ask for Jingbei Square anymore? Why? We've already agreed, haven't we?"

Old Master Tang and Lin Shulian also looked at Tang Yue in surprise. Actually, they hoped that Tang Yue would not snatch anything from Su Bei. The Tang family already owed Su Bei a lot. Did they have to snatch everything from her?

This last mall was compensation for Su Bei.

"Yes, I don't plan to take it anymore. You can keep it for yourself," Tang Yue said. Although she was very unwilling, compared to the huge loss and the 500 million yuan she had to compensate Su Bei, she still chose to cut her losses in time and not fall for Su Bei's trick.

"But I just agreed to give you Jingbei Plaza," Su Bei reminded her.

However, the more Su Bei reminded her, the more Tang Yue felt that Su Bei wanted to give her the hot potato and let her bear the loss. Hence, she just felt that her decision was right.

It had to be said that this was the typical mentality of someone like her. She always used her own thoughts to judge others and felt that they were as bad as she was.

Chapter 1373: Vomit Blood Again

"Su Bei, I told you to keep it for yourself." Tang Yue raised her voice slightly, making it sound sharp.

Su Bei seemed a little reluctant and said, "But I just said that the 67 million yuan you gave won't be returned to you just because you changed your mind. These are things outside the agreement."

Only then did Tang Yue remember the 67 million.

Just thinking about it made her heart ache. Before Su Bei appeared, her business and investments were all profitable. She could be considered rich.

But ever since Su Bei appeared, she had almost lost all her money.

The 60 million loss felt like a knife cutting through her heart.

However, she could not take over Jingbei Square for a loss over such a small sum of money.

She controlled her emotions fiercely. “Forget it. We made a deal that I wouldn’t ask for the money back after giving it to you, so you can keep it.”

Su Bei put on a troubled expression. “Are you sure you don’t want Jingbei Square anymore?”

“I’ve already said that if you want to keep it, you can keep it. However, I can’t give it to you for free. I’ll sell it to you at the same price as when you wanted to buy it earlier. Just give me 50 million yuan.” Tang Yue completely compromised. Previously, Su Bei wanted to buy it at this price. She was even supposed to sign the paperwork with Old Master Tang that day, yet Tang Yue had interrupted them.

At that time, she firmly believed that the future of Jingbei Square was worth 150 million yuan. No matter what, she would not sell it to Su Bei at 50 million.

Now, she couldn’t wait for Su Bei to take Jingbei Square away.

Su Bei thought for a moment and said, “In that case, it’s settled. When Jingbei Square is mine, it’ll be mine from then on. It’s impossible for you to get it back.”

“In front of both lawyers, I’ll naturally keep my word,” Tang Yue said with a nod.

Su Bei said, “Okay, then let’s follow the agreement I drew up. Let’s sign it.”

Old Master Tang had originally planned to sell Jingbei Square to Su Bei at this price. Now that things had returned to normal, he naturally had no objections and signed the agreement.

Su Bei and Tang Yue also signed their names.

In this way, it was considered a deal.

Su Bei would also pay Tang Yue 50 million yuan.

However, the 50 million yuan that Su Bei had paid Tang Yue was more than the 67 million yuan she got from Tang Yue. In other words, if Su Bei had bought it back then, she would have had to pay 50 million of her own money.

This time, not only did she not spend any money, but she also earned more than 10 million yuan from Tang Yue.

At the thought of this, Tang Yue spat out a mouthful of blood. Her hand, which had put down the pen, kept trembling.

Not only did she spend a lot of effort, but she also spent so much money for no reason. It was equivalent to her spending money to give Jingbei Square to Su Bei!

If she had known this would happen, she wouldn’t have stopped Su Bei from signing the paperwork before this!

Just thinking about it made her chest feel stuffy!

Su Bei carefully put away the signed agreement into her bag and said, “Miss Tang, thank you for your generosity.”

Tang Yue wanted to vomit blood again.

Seeing that the outcome of the matter was still in line with expectations, Old Master Tang said, "Alright, this matter is considered settled. No one is allowed to mention it again in the future. Whether it's a loss, a win, or a loss, it's all up to you. We're all adults and have to be responsible for our choices."

Tang Yue said softly, "Mhm."

However, she didn't agree with Su Bei's comment. Of course, she wouldn't ask Su Bei to avoid Jingbei Square. Once Lu Group started to evacuate that area, the entire place would fall like dominoes. No one would be optimistic about that area anymore.

Within five years, Jingbei Square would definitely suffer a loss.

Whoever owned it was sure to have a headache.

She would just treat it as spending money to give Su Bei big trouble in the future.

Su Bei packed the agreement and stood up. "Grandpa, I'll leave first. I'll visit you again next time. Goodbye, everyone."

Tang Yue watched Su Bei leave. Lin Shulian asked, "What's going on? You said you wanted it before, but you don't want it anymore?"

"Even Lu Group doesn't want that piece of land, so what am I supposed to do with it?" Tang Yue said.

When Old Master Tang heard about Lu Group, he immediately thought of Lu Heting. Unlike the others, he and Tang Xinru knew that Lu Heting and Su Bei were really together.

In that case, was Lu Heting helping Su Bei behind the scenes?

Old Master Tang remained calm and did not say anything. He did not want to let Tang Yue down either. However, someone should really teach Tang Yue a lesson! Otherwise, the person who would suffer in the future would be her!

Lin Shulian was a little worried. "Lu Group doesn't want that land anymore? Why didn't you remind Su Bei?"

Tang Yue sneered in her heart. 'Do you want to make your own daughter suffer a loss, then?!

Lin Shulian knew that she was in the wrong. She lowered her head and stopped talking.

After Su Bei went out, she walked forward in the night, found Lu Heting's car, and got into the passenger seat.

"Well?" the man asked, his voice low and gentle.

"Yes, Tang Yue spent a sum of money and gave me Jingbei Square." Su Bei took out the agreement. "I didn't spend a single cent and even earned more than 10 million yuan from her."

Lu Heting chuckled. "This is the price she should pay."

From Tang Yue's point of view, Lu Heting had no intention of letting Su Bei have an easy time. After all, news of Su Bei not being of the Tang family's bloodline was already exposed and even appeared on the list of hot searches, yet he didn't do anything about it.

Naturally, the news of Lu Group selling the Twin Towers Mall was also deliberately spread to Tang Yue.

Lu Heting was clearly plotting against Tang Yue, yet she was stupid enough to fall for it. She couldn't wait to give Jingbei Square away and was even smug about it.

If someone offended Su Bei, Lu Heting would never let them off.

"However, if you really sell the Twin Towers Mall, others will follow suit and sell their businesses too. At that time, it might really affect the economy of that area," Su Bei reminded him.

"Why would I sell the Twin Towers Mall? The reason why the Twin Towers Mall is called this is that it has both your Jingbei Square and the mall under my name. If I sell mine, will I let yours be left alone there?" Lu Heting asked with a smile, his eyes shining.

"If it's not sold, then is it transferred?" Su Bei asked with a smile. She had guessed that Lu Heting would not be willing to sell the building just because of that name alone.

"Yes, it's been transferred. Do you want to see the transfer agreement?" Lu Heting asked with a smile. His deep gaze made people feel that there was some deep meaning hidden in it.

Chapter 1374: Inseparable

Su Bei seemed to grasp something. "Then let me see it."

She took the transfer agreement from him and flipped to a certain page. Her name intruded her sight.

"So ... the building was transferred to me?"

"I've known you for so long, but I rarely give you anything. You, on the other hand, have taken care of my food, clothes, and travel expenses. The reason why the Twin Towers Mall is called that is that they're an inseparable part of each other. Therefore, let them become one. In this way, they can be considered to be worthy of their name, huh?" Lu Heting's voice was steady and low, revealing his doting and domineering charm.

Su Bei looked at the two agreements. "So I didn't do anything today but have two shopping malls now?"

!!

"How could you say that you did nothing? You've done enough. Ever since you took over Jingbei Square, that area has changed because of you."

Su Bei solemnly put the two agreements together. The Twin Towers Mall had really become twin towers.

"However, the people outside won't know that you've given me the twin towers. If they think you've transferred your mall, this will still affect the market," Su Bei reminded him again.

She couldn't let her trivial matters affect the entire district.

Otherwise, it would really be a sin.

“At dawn, I’ll get someone to spread the news that I’ve transferred the twin towers to Lu Bei. How about that?” Lu Heting looked into her eyes with a smile and asked for her opinion.

Lu Bei was her, and she was Lu Bei. There was nothing wrong with that.

Su Bei smiled brightly. “That’s fine. Let Tang Yue be happy for the night. She’ll be crying tomorrow morning.”

It was because Lu Group was the economic weathervane.

After learning that Lu Group had sold the Twin Towers Mall, the outside world was indeed solemn. Many people were waiting solemnly. They did not know what had happened to this district and what would happen in the future.

However, it was already late at night. It was too late to buy or sell.

Even if someone wanted to sell anything, they would have to wait until daylight. It was impossible to do anything in just a few hours.

Many people stayed awake all night to wait for dawn.

Tang Yue was the only one who had a good sleep. In her dreams, she dreamed of Su Bei begging for food at the entrance of a street in ragged clothes. Her face was dark, and she no longer looked high and mighty. When she saw her, she even chased after her and asked for a coin.

Tang Yue woke up laughing in her sleep.

Those who had not slept received the news early in the morning. It turned out that Lu Heting had not sold the Twin Towers Mall. He had only transferred it to Lu Bei.

Cough! Everyone had a false alarm. If Lu Bei had it, didn’t that mean that Lu Heting still had it?

‘Doesn’t that mean there’s no movement?’

Everyone who was tense the entire night finally relaxed and went back to what they were doing. At the same time, they went to Weibo to talk about Lu Heting and Lu Bei’s PDA.

When Tang Yue got out of bed, she quickly heard about Lu Group’s news.

“It seems that everyone knows about Lu Group.” Tang Yue saw that many people were talking about this in the WeChat group.

She didn’t bother to go through the messages because she already had first-hand information.

She only wanted to go to Weibo to see how unclear the economic trend was this time. Perhaps she could even see the news of Su Bei suffering a huge loss.

She opened Weibo. Instantly, she saw Lu Heting and Lu Bei.

Although it had nothing to do with Su Bei, Tang Yue decided to take a look.

[Mr. Lu really dotes on him too much. He directly gave that mall to Lu Bei. This is really true love.]

[I’m so envious. Even at home, I still have to face a couple’s PDA.]

[I heard that it's because this building is called the Twin Towers Mall and is on par with Jingbei Square. Lu Bei was jealous and unhappy, so Mr. Lu gave this building to Lu Bei to appease him.]

[Boo-hoo, he truly spoils his lover!]

[Lu Bei must have saved the entire Milky Way in his previous life to deserve such a boyfriend!]

[I really want to exchange souls with Lu Bei. I just want Mr. Lu to look at me seriously and dotingly.]

[I also want to exchange souls with Lu Bei and enjoy the feeling of being handsome, rich, and doted on. My boyfriend is also extremely handsome!]

When Tang Yue saw this, she exploded. The building that Lu Heting sold was given to Lu Bei?

'He gave it to Lu Bei?'

She immediately scrolled down and saw that many people were indeed talking about this matter. They even said that the economic development in that area was the most stable. Now that Lu Bei had obtained the Twin Towers Mall, Lu Group would be holding on to that area for a long time.

In just one morning, the property prices there had increased by 20%!

Tang Yue was so angry that she threw her phone out!

Her eyes were red, and so was her face. She looked like a rabid wolf as she picked up the landline and called her lawyer. "Just how are you doing your work? How the hell did you mislead me with the news about Lu Group last night? Do you know that what you've made me lose this time is an amount you can never afford in your lifetime?"

Although the lawyer felt guilty, he did not lose his reason. "Miss Tang, I'm sorry. I didn't verify the information strictly, but at that time, we only knew part of the information. What I did was only remind you. I didn't actively influence your decision."

"You!" Tang Yue was speechless for a moment. Her hand that was holding the receiver kept trembling.

The lawyer was right. He had only reminded Tang Yue last night to avoid high risks.

Reminding clients was part of his job description.

It was impossible for him to directly find out who Lu Heting had sold the building to. Before this morning, it was a trade secret.

Moreover, the person who ultimately made the decision about whether Jingbei Square was bought over or not was not the lawyer.

As soon as Tang Yue was told about the piece of news, she couldn't wait to push the problem to Su Bei. She couldn't wait to verify it, afraid that Su Bei would also obtain this information and push the blame on her.

To put it bluntly, it was not the lawyer who had harmed her but her own greed and ruthlessness.

If she had thought a little longer and waited a little longer, she would not have failed so miserably.

However, it was precisely because Lu Heting and Su Bei had taken into consideration these characteristics of her personality that they knew that she would take the bait. They didn't have to worry about her waiting too long.

However, Tang Yue still did not know how powerful the person behind Su Bei was.

"Su Bei, you got lucky this time!" Tang Yue gritted her teeth and said fiercely.

Yes, she attributed everyone else's accomplishments to good luck, not their ability or character.

Chapter 1375: Why Not?

Tang Yue had lost more than 10 million yuan this time.

However, that wasn't what hurt her the most.

What really hurt her was that her mall continued to incur losses. Many businesses withdrew their shops from her mall, causing her huge losses.

Needless to say, Lu Heting was helping Su Bei vent her anger.

After this incident, Tang Yue was truly a little afraid. If she continued to lose money like this, she would really go bankrupt.

The resources she had obtained from Old Master Tang were about to be exhausted.

After all, she was not the only granddaughter of Old Master Tang. There was also Tang Xinru. Although Old Master Tang started living with Tang Jianming after the family split up a few years ago, it was impossible for Tang Yue to use up everything he had.

If this continued, Tang Yue would probably lose everything.

She pinned her hopes on Old Master Lin's inheritance and arranged for someone to ask around.

However, after the matter of Su Bei's bloodline the last time, Old Madam Lin was thrown into a fit of anger and had already planned to wait for a while before splitting the inheritance.

Tang Yue dared not rush her. She could only wait.

The Lin family.

Lin Xiruo opened the DNA test report He Xuyan had brought back again.

Her spirits collapsed when she saw what was on it. "How can it not be? Did you guys even check properly?"

Standing beside her was a man in his 50s. He had the same eyebrows as He Xuyan, and his brows were slightly stained with the vicissitudes of time, but it was still difficult to hide his natural elegance.

Lin Xiruo grabbed his hand. "Hubby, look, did they investigate seriously?"

“Xuyan, did you investigate properly? Did you really investigate it?” The man’s tone became serious, filled with doting love for Lin Xiruo.

A look of helplessness flashed across He Xuyan’s face. His mother was difficult to deal with. Once his wife-spoiling father appeared, she was even more difficult to deal with.

He said helplessly, “Dad, we checked everything properly. We’re sure it’s not a match.”

When He Jiang heard his son say that it wasn’t a match, he gently advised Lin Xiruo, “Our son has already said that he’s checked it carefully. There’s definitely no problem. Be good. If you can’t find the right person this time, you can find her the next time. Anyway, we have plenty of time.”

Lin Xiruo held the test report and sat down in a daze. “Why isn’t it a match? Why isn’t it?”

He Jiang glared at He Xuyan and turned to comfort his wife.

He Xuyan was innocent and helpless. What had he done wrong?

...

Tang Xinru contacted Su Bei and said that she wanted to borrow a batch of antique equipment for filming.

She knew that Su Bei had such a channel.

“What kind of style do you want? I’ll tell you when it’s done. You can get someone to pick it up.”

“I’ll send you the brief,” Tang Xinru said.

After receiving the drawings, Su Bei looked at them for a while and realized that this line of work was what Feng Cheng was very good at.

Although he was mainly doing jewelry restoration work now, he could still copy ancient artifacts.

After she received them, she sent them to Feng Cheng. [Can you help make these things?]

[What are they for?]

Su Bei knew that he was worried that others would do something bad with these things and cause problems.

[It’s for filming. Some period dramas are especially particular about the age and authenticity of the various items, so they specially customize them.]

Feng Cheng replied with a simple word: [Sure.]

Su Bei then relayed the matter to Tang Xinru.

“Thank you,” Tang Xinru replied with a smile.

In fact, Su Bei knew that Tang Xinru had tons of other people she could find to replicate ancient tools.

The reason she sought her out and deliberately asked her to do her a favor was that she did not want her to feel that she was in her debt.

Tang Xinru had been very willing to help Su Bei out this time, especially when it was revealed that Su Bei was not from the Tang family. Tang Xinru was the first person to speak up for Su Bei.

They were both from the Tang family, but Tang Xinru and Tang Yue were completely different.

...

On Lin Wenyu's side, she was busy with her work.

When she received He Xuyan's call, she could only reply very busily, "How's Aunt's mood?"

"My father is coaxing her. She should be fine."

"But a negative match means a negative match. We can't lie to her, can we?" Lin Wenyu said.

"Fortunately, Uncle came over. At least with him around, things will be much better."

She was on the phone when a colleague ran over and said, "Wenyu, the DNA report test you asked for has been done. I'll leave it here for you."

"When did I ask you to do a test report?" Lin Wenyu asked quickly, not bothering to hang up.

The other party patted her medicine box. "Didn't you put two sets of blood in the medicine box and then put a blank test sheet in it? When I saw it, I helped you do it."

"I see. Thank you." Lin Wenyu didn't expect her colleague to help her test Lin Xiruo and Su Bei's DNA.

However, since someone else had already kindly done it, she had no choice but to just let it be.

"Then I'll get back to work. I'll leave the report here for you to read."

Her colleague finished speaking and placed the report on her desk.

He Xuyan heard the person's voice on the other end of the line and said, "Then go ahead with your matters. I'll hang up first."

"I'm not very busy now. My colleague actually did a DNA test on Aunt and Su Bei. She just handed me the report," Lin Wenyu said. "Since she already did it, I'll reluctantly take a look..."

She took it and glanced at it casually before throwing it into the shredder.

Then, He Xuyan heard her scream loudly. "Ahhh? How did this happen? Cousin, help!"

"What's going on? What happened to you? Lin Wenyu?" He Xuyan was about to hang up when he heard a heart-wrenching voice on Lin Wenyu's end.

"The report shows... It shows that they're mother and daughter! Aunt and Su Bei are mother and daughter!" Lin Wenyu was stunned on the spot.

He Xuyan was also stunned. It took him a moment to think about something else. "Wait for me. I'll be right there!"

When He Xuyan rushed over, Lin Wenyu gave him half a report.

Yes, half of it. The bottom half had been shredded by the shredder. The top half was still intact.

Therefore, the line of words that showed that the two of them were mother and daughter could no longer be seen.

“Cousin, believe me, I really am not mistaken! That line of words really showed 100% confirmation! I can only blame myself for being too fast and the shredder for being so close. It was too late to pull it back...”
Lin Wenyu picked up the shreds.

Chapter 1376: Sparks

“I swear my eyes weren’t playing tricks on me,” Lin Wenyu swore to the heavens.

He Xuyan pursed his thin lips tightly. Su Bei’s beautiful face appeared in front of his eyes, and he was bewildered.

“Cousin? Cousin?” Lin Wenyu waved in front of his eyes. “Do you believe me?”

He Xuyan said, “Did your colleague leave any original documents?”

Lin Wenyu slapped her head. “I’m so stupid. I forgot that there’s still the original document. I’ll go get it from her now!”

She was so shocked that her mind had completely blanked out. After being reminded by He Xuyan, she immediately ran to look for her colleague.

Then, she hurried back with a freshly printed document and placed it in front of He Xuyan.

He Xuyan suppressed the throbbing in his heart and slowly turned the page.

The black bold print in front of him came clearly into view—‘supports the identification of a biological mother-daughter relationship between the two subjects.’

His eyes focused on the line. Then, he remembered how hard his mother had worked over the years and the stress she’d taken on.

When she wasn’t sick, she was the gentlest and most beautiful mother in the world. But every time she was sick, she was obsessed with finding her daughter and his sister.

This made He Xuyan troubled by this obsession all these years.

He remembered that when his mother first saw Su Bei, she had insisted on holding her hand and treating her like her daughter. In the beginning, he just thought that it was because of the panda hat on Su Bei’s head.

But now that he thought about it, it was his mother’s intuition at that time. She really recognized Su Bei.
Except...

He looked at the document in front of him and said, “Is this accurate?”

“It should be accurate. My medical kit only contained Aunt and Su Bei’s blood. I’m not from this department, so it’s impossible for me to touch other people’s blood. My colleague’s skills are quite trustworthy too," Lin Wenyu quickly said. She quite liked Su Bei. If Su Bei was really her aunt's daughter, wouldn't they be cousins?

They were also cousins when Su Bei was a member of the Tang family.

However, Su Bei was Lin Shulian's daughter. There was a big difference between Su Bei being Lin Shualian's daughter and Lin Xiruo's daughter.

"What are you worried about, Cousin? Aunt has found her daughter. Isn't that a good thing?"

He Xuyan closed the file and said evenly, "What if there's a mistake?"

Being looked at by He Xuyan's black eyes, Lin Wenyu was also stunned. "That's right. If I'm wrong, Aunt will definitely be hurt again. As for Su Bei, she has also experienced many gains and losses, so we can't be wrong this time. Otherwise, they'll both be hurt again. We have to make things accurate so that we can tell them with confidence."

That was what He Xuyan meant. "That's right. We have to be 100% sure before we can reveal this fact."

"But what should we do now? I just asked my colleagues. Aunt's and Su Bei's blood has been used up. At that time, we didn't draw much... It's fine to draw more blood from Aunt, but how can we get Su Bei's blood again?" Lin Wenyu was a little worried.

"I'll go." He Xuyan stood up.

Night fell.

The stage and lights had already been set up at a certain brand's event venue. In the bright lights, the people who came and went were in a hurry. They were waiting for the artist who would be on stage later.

In the dressing room.

Su Bei was getting the final touches done for her appearance under the makeup artist's inspection.

Because the lighting was very bright and harsh, the makeup artist had to add foundation and highlight for Su Bei even though her skin was already very good.

With her eyes closed, Su Bei let the makeup artist work on her.

There was a knock on the dressing room door.

"Come in," she said casually.

The door opened, and He Xuyan's slender figure appeared in the doorway, looking as cold as ever.

"Su Bei," He Xuyan greeted her first this time. "I came over to borrow some makeup items. Is that okay?"

Su Bei knew that a director like him didn't usually need to care too much about his appearance. He didn't have his own makeup artist, so she nodded. "Feel free to use them."

He Xuyan reached out and took Su Bei's comb. There was a lot of hair that had just fallen off. Anything that was a complete hair follicle could be used.

He casually took a few before picking up the brush and brushing it twice over his head.

Then, he handed a panda doll to Su Bei. "I saw this cute doll outside just now, so I got one for you."

Su Bei felt that he was acting strange today. He Xuyan was usually distant and proud. He rarely talked to anyone.

'And didn't he want to use makeup products? After just using a hairbrush, he doesn't want to use any makeup anymore?'

He Xuyan came over simply to get her hair. However, before he came, he specially went to buy a small doll.

Other than his mother, this was probably the first time he had specially bought a girl a gift.

Su Bei thought for a moment before taking it. "Thank you, Director He."

He Xuyan nodded and left.

Su Bei squeezed the panda for a moment, then hung it on her bag.

The makeup artist joked, saying, "Su Bei, Director He seems to be really pursuing you."

"No way!" Su Bei quickly denied it. "The previous rumors were already clarified to be a coincidence. As you saw today, a man like Director He doesn't usually wear makeup, so it's normal for him not to be prepared for an occasion like this."

Outside the door, when He Xuyan left, he bumped into Lu Heting. His cold eyes were like a bottomless cold pool. When he saw He Xuyan, he narrowed his eyes slightly.

He Xuyan had worked with Di Xing Media Company before and was familiar with Lu Heting. However, when he saw that Lu Heting was going to Su Bei's dressing room, he frowned slightly.

Lu Heting nodded slightly in greeting. However, when he saw that He Xuyan had come from Su Bei's dressing room, his eyes darkened.

He Xuyan nodded and strode away.

Lu Hang stood behind Lu Heting. Although he saw that the two men did not speak, he could clearly feel the sparks between the two of them. It was as if a casual touch would cause a huge explosion.

A small tremor ran through him.

When Lu Heting arrived at the door of Su Bei's dressing room, he heard the makeup artist say, "Su Bei, Director He seems to be really pursuing you."

Lu Hang couldn't help but shiver. Some people really didn't know the right things to say.

Fortunately, Su Bei's denial was very serious. Lu Hang felt the dangerous aura of the big shot in front of him lessen, and he heaved a sigh of relief.

“Go and find out why He Xuyan came over just now.” Lu Heting’s voice was cold.

Chapter 1377: Allowed To Be Jealous

Lu Hang quickly went over.

After the makeup artist left, Lu Heting came in.

“I’m done. After the event, I can go home.” Su Bei smiled.

Lu Heting’s gaze fell on her bag. There was a small panda doll hanging on it. She did not have it when she came.

It was obviously from He Xuyan.

Seeing that his gaze was on that, Su Bei said, “Are you looking at this? If you like it, I’ll give it to you.”

“It’s from He Xuyan?”

“Well, he came to borrow something, and he probably felt bad about it, so he left me a trinket. I couldn’t just say no, so I accepted it.”

“You like this?”

Su Bei nodded. “Pandas are so obedient. Who wouldn’t like them? Do you know that I can watch pandas all day at the zoo?”

Immediately, she noticed a trace of indifferent displeasure in the man’s eyes and sensed something. “Actually, I don’t like it that much anymore. This little doll isn’t exquisite enough. This one isn’t even neat. Forget it. I’ll give it to someone else later.”

Lu Heting bent down and hugged her. “Yes.”

“Are you jealous?” Su Bei hooked her arms around his neck. “I didn’t mean to take anything from him. I was just too embarrassed to reject him directly.”

“What about other people’s pursuits?”

“Of course, I have to refuse! Lu Heting, am I someone who can’t even figure out priorities?” Su Bei was a little anxious, and she sounded slightly depressed.

Lu Heting said seriously, “Sorry, I was just too jealous, so...”

“You’re allowed to be jealous, but you can’t be jealous over nothing.” A bright smile bloomed on her face.

Lu Heting let go of her, afraid that he would ruin her makeup. He was also afraid that he would kiss her and ruin her lipstick.

“Then I’ll go on stage now. Wait for me.” Su Bei lifted the hem of her dress and kissed him gently on the cheek.

After Su Bei left, Lu Hang called.

“Mr. Lu, after He Xuyan left this way, he didn’t go on stage but went to the hospital. I asked the makeup artist just now. He used Young Madam’s comb.”

‘Hospital? A hairbrush?’

‘Since he used her comb, then it could be that... He took Su Bei’s hair.’

The thoughts came together quickly, forming a possibility.

Lu Heting’s eyes turned cold. Was He Xuyan still investigating Su Bei’s background?

Didn’t they already confirm the last time that Su Bei wasn’t from the Tang family?

In the blink of an eye, he thought of another possibility—Lin Xiruo.

Lin Xiruo took Su Bei’s panda hat the last time, and Su Bei ultimately had to get her blood drawn. Lu Heting had been paying attention to this series of incidents.

Was the Lin family suspecting that Su Bei was Lin Xiruo’s daughter?

He Xuyan felt that Su Bei was his sister, so he gave her a doll?

It seemed that He Xuyan had some clues, so he approached his sister and tried to make her happy.

‘But I can’t allow even her brother to do that!’

Lu Heting took a photo of the panda doll and sent it to Lu Hang. “Buy a few of this.”

Lu Hang was a little surprised when he received the photo. The mission given by Mr. Lu this time was really too different. He had just followed He Xuyan, and now he was going to buy dolls?

However, it was all because Mr. Lu had a wife now.

Lu Hang did not dare to delay and immediately went to carry out the order.

Su Bei was going on stage today to promote a cosmetics product. There were many people below the stage, including enthusiastic fans, senior executives of the brand, and reporters.

Among the crowd were two other people. One was Tang Yue, and the other was Du Jinghao.

...

Half an hour ago.

Tang Yue received a WeChat message from Ou Huanwei, telling her that Du Jinghao would come to look for her and she should be prepared.

Tang Yue naturally understood what this meant. Ou Huanwei must have convinced Du Jinghao to look for her and discuss their marriage again.

Hence, she dressed up exquisitely and beautifully. Her beautiful hair was specially styled, and her makeup was also exquisite.

However, Du Jinghao only came over to tell her that he would not resume the engagement even after his mother's deliberate arrangements. He hoped that Tang Yue would understand and that the two of them would part on good terms.

Of course, Tang Yue could not understand!

There were too many things that she couldn't understand. She could understand a man not liking her, but she couldn't understand a man not liking her because of Su Bei!

Although Su Bei was no longer a member of the Tang family and would no longer have anything to do with them in the future, her grudge against her was already deep. How could Tang Yue let it go?

Su Bei was no longer a member of the Tang family, but everyone still cared about her. Everyone liked her, and everyone kept mentioning her. This made Tang Yue even more puzzled!

"Are you still unable to move on from Su Bei?" Tang Yue asked bluntly.

Du Jinghao rubbed his temples. He no longer knew how to explain.

"I admit that I did like Su Bei before, but after knowing that she already has someone else, I gave up on the idea. So can you not involve Su Bei in everything?"

"Then why is it still impossible between us?"

Du Jinghao pursed his lips tightly and remained silent. He could not directly say that he had seen through Tang Yue's character and was unwilling to spend the rest of his life with such a woman.

He was doing it to save some dignity for Tang Yue.

Today, he was really annoyed by his mother, so he wanted to explain things to Tang Yue.

However, some things were indeed difficult to say.

Seeing that he didn't speak, Tang Yue said, "Forget it. It's not impossible for us to part on good terms. Let's treat tonight as our last meeting. I heard that Su Bei has an event nearby. Let's go over and support her."

Du Jinghao naturally wouldn't refuse her simple request to attend an event together.

His original intention was to deal with this so that they could part on good terms. After that, there would be no enmity between them.

Hence, he entered the event venue with Tang Yue.

The scene was very lively. Tang Yue stood below the stage and looked at Su Bei from afar. She could only see a tiny figure, but she could clearly feel the love these people had for Su Bei.

When Su Bei held the microphone and said no more than a few words, the fans below the stage would wave the light sticks in their hands and shout loudly to express their enthusiasm.

The mood in the venue was high, and the calls for Su Bei's name were endless.

Tang Yue tilted her head to look at Du Jinghao.

Du Jinghao just casually looked in Su Bei's direction. He was very calm. In fact, he had already let go of his thoughts about Su Bei. He was only standing here because he was invited. His goal wasn't Su Bei.

However, in Tang Yue's eyes, this was a sign of him being too concerned about Su Bei and getting distracted by her.

Chapter 1378: Great Warmth

Her eyes flashed with intense jealousy.

Grandpa, Mom, Tang Xinru, and Du Jinghao were all protecting Su Bei like they were her crazy fans.

What right did Su Bei have to get all this? If she hadn't barged into her life, all of this would have been hers!

Tang Yue took out her phone, and there a line of words appeared on her screen. [Tang Yue, do you still want to lay a hand on Su Bei?]

Su Bei stood on the stage, which was surrounded by heavy bodyguards.

[Much more than usual.]

The person who sent these words was a fanatical admirer of Tang Yue. He had been crazy about Tang Yue for a while.

However, how could the arrogant Tang Yue fancy a man with no family background and passion?

Under normal circumstances, she would have ignored him, afraid that she would get involved with him.

However, after the suitor found out about her conflict with Su Bei, he took the initiative to talk to her and said that he wanted to help her teach Su Bei a lesson. Tang Yue had been in a bad mood recently, so she just let herself enjoy the thrill of being pursued.

Tang Yue looked at the stage again. How could it be easy to lay a hand on Su Bei? As far as she knew, Su Bei usually brought bodyguards with her when she went out. It seemed that those bodyguards were quite professional.

It would not be easy to cause trouble for Su Bei on the stage tonight.

She glanced at Du Jinghao beside her and suddenly thought of something. She sent a message: [Don't be impulsive and don't do anything stupid. There's no longer any conflict between me and Su Bei. I came to support her tonight. I hope you can take care of yourself. Alright, I'm on a date with my boyfriend now. Don't disturb me.]

She was taking a gamble by sending these words.

She was betting that the man who was too fanatical over her would be provoked into coming over to find trouble with Du Jinghao and then mess up the scene.

She had seen the man's madness before. He stalked her for a whole month just to send her a bouquet of flowers.

Sometimes, she was even afraid of him. If she hadn't been through so much lately, she wouldn't have given him the time of day.

Standing on the stage, Su Bei responded to the host's words and helped promote the brand. As the spokesperson for this cosmetics brand, it was her job to do so.

The fans below the stage were enthusiastically calling out her names, expressing their love for her. This feeling was also a source of great warmth.

Suddenly, the audience went out of control. People screamed and ran. For a moment, it was a mess.

There were at least a thousand fans present. Once chaos broke out, there would be a stampede and a disaster.

Seeing that the situation below the stage was abnormal, the bodyguards quickly came over to protect Su Bei. "Miss Su, let's go back backstage first."

However, Su Bei glanced at the audience. It was still in chaos. How could she leave on her own?

She picked up the microphone to speak. The bodyguard was afraid that something would happen and forced her to leave. He even took her microphone.

At this moment, Lu Heting appeared. He stood in front of the bodyguard and protected Su Bei.

Not every bodyguard knew Lu Heting, but they all sensed the powerful aura emanating from the man in front of them. They knew that this man was someone they couldn't afford to offend.

"I'll take care of Su Bei. Go to the center of the commotion immediately and make sure that no one is injured!" Lu Heting arranged in a deep voice.

Knowing that Su Bei was about to speak, Lu Heting took back the microphone, placed it in Su Bei's palm, and held it tightly.

The audience was still in chaos. The host was trying to maintain order, but it was obvious that no one took her words to heart.

"Fans, please don't panic!" Su Bei's voice filled the air with determination and concern. "Please look for the bodyguards who are wearing hats. Calmly walk over to them and line up."

There was supposed to be security below the stage, but they were obviously shorthanded.

After the bodyguards protecting Su Bei got off the stage, their manpower increased and they quickly controlled the situation at the center of the commotion.

When the other fans heard Su Bei's words, they calmed down and stopped running and screaming. They all found the bodyguards and lined up beside them.

Soon, the scene was no longer chaotic. Everyone lined up in an orderly manner. After they calmed down, everyone felt like there was peace again. The screams stopped, and no one was running around crazily anymore.

“Thank you all for your cooperation. You’re all the best.” Su Bei smiled faintly at how smoothly everything went.

Hearing her encouragement, the fans responded enthusiastically, “Su Bei, you’re the best.”

Several people were brought out of the center of the incident. The scene was stable, but the host and organizer were afraid that something else would happen, so they comforted everyone and ended the event.

Fortunately, there was no major commotion, and the brand did not lose anything.

After Su Bei got off the stage, the brand representative rushed over to thank her.

Lu Heting frowned. When the bodyguard who had been protecting Su Bei up until earlier came over, Lu Heting asked coldly, “What happened?”

“Someone made a scene out of the blue for some reason and injured someone offstage. A few fans were slightly injured. One is seriously injured and has a broken leg.”

Lu Heting frowned heavily. “Send them all to the hospital and pay for their treatment. I’ll bear all the subsequent expenses. Tell the media to suppress the matter.”

Although this matter had nothing to do with Su Bei, if something happened at her event, people would naturally attribute it to her.

Therefore, it was better to avoid trouble and suppress the matter from the beginning.

When Su Bei heard these words, she was very worried. “My fans are injured? What caused it?”

“We don’t know yet. It seems that one person suddenly lost control of his emotions and went over to beat up the injured party, which led to the incident,” the bodyguard said. “We’re in the midst of investigating it too.”

“Then let me know when you’re done. Oh, and make the arrangements. I’m going to visit my injured fan.”

Lu Heting didn’t object. Su Bei had always been very grateful to her fans for giving her the greatest love and support. She wanted to repay them. It was only right for her to visit the injured fan.

“Then please help me prepare some gifts,” Su Bei said.

As Lu Heting was by her side today, Qiao Mei and Xiao Bai didn’t come. The only person who could help was Lu Hang.

The group arrived at a nearby hospital.

The few injured fans only had a few scratches. After applying some medicine, they were discharged by the doctor.

A few people were still talking at once. “I don’t know what happened to that person, but he suddenly came over and hit us. Fortunately, he wasn’t targeting us.”

Chapter 1379: Fanatic Pursuer

"I got a bruise on my hand from falling on the ground."

"I hurt my forehead."

"I'm glad everyone's fine. We're so lucky."

"That's right. Otherwise, it would've caused too much trouble for Su Bei."

As they were talking, several people suddenly appeared in front of them.

The person in the lead was in a hurry. They wore a hat, sunglasses, and a mask.

They looked at the figure in surprise. Seeing that the figure was familiar, they could not help but stare.

As the newcomer approached, they removed their mask and sunglasses.

The fans were stunned for a moment before saying in surprise, "S-Su Bei?"

The face of the woman in front of them was even smaller than what they had seen on camera. She was exquisite and innocent. Her shallow smile was like the moon in the sky. They could not believe their eyes.

"It's me." Her voice was small and warm as she made a shushing motion.

The fans realized that they could not be too loud, and they could not disturb the others in the hospital. They automatically lowered their voices, but when they saw their idol standing in front of them in the flesh, they could only cover their mouths with their hands to control their joy.

Despite covering their mouths, their love for her still shone in their eyes.

Their love for her touched Su Bei.

She said softly, "I knew you were hurt, so I came to visit. How's everyone doing?"

"We're okay, we're all okay. We're all fine," a young boy said immediately.

"Especially when I see you. I've never been better," another boy chimed in immediately.

Everyone laughed a little shyly and especially happily. "I really didn't expect you to visit us in person."

"It's good that everyone is fine. These are small gifts for you." Su Bei distributed the gifts prepared by Lu Hang.

"Can I take a photo with you, Su Bei?" Another fan made a small request.

"Of course." Su Bei took a photo with them and then signed their names.

The few fans were so happy that they were about to faint.

These fans consisted of five boys and a girl. They all received Su Bei's gifts.

Su Bei looked at the girl and thought for a moment. She took the panda doll off her bag and handed it to her. "This is for you."

Su Bei actually liked this doll, but Lu Heting didn't like that it was from He Xuyan, so she didn't want to keep it.

It was great that she could give it to her fan.

"Wow, thank you so much!" The girl reached out to take it.

Lu Hang, who was at the side, hurriedly went forward to take it and said, "Miss Su, give this one to her."

He produced an identical doll.

Su Bei looked at the identical doll and then at Lu Heting. It turned out Lu Heting had bought a new one and replaced this old one?

The one she wanted to give away was the one Lu Heting had prepared?

Su Bei took Lu Heting's gift back and gave He Xuyan's gift to the girl.

Of course, the girl had no objections. It was given to her by Su Bei all the same. She was already about to die of happiness. How could she know that there was such a subtle difference?

Seeing that the girl received a doll, the boys smiled tolerantly.

"I've booked cabs for all of you. Go back early. Don't stay outside late at night. It's not safe," Su Bei reminded them.

"Okay, we'll listen to whatever you say." They reluctantly waved goodbye to Su Bei.

After Su Bei sent them off, she asked the bodyguard, "There's another seriously injured fan, right? Where are they?"

Actually, it didn't matter much if the fans were just lightly injured. Su Bei was most worried about the seriously injured one.

'I heard the fan even broke their leg.'

She felt particularly bad about what had happened. There must have been a security problem that led to the accident.

"The hospital wards and operating rooms are in another building in the hospital," the bodyguard said. "I heard the fan is already in surgery. The situation is still unclear."

"I'll go take a look. I can't leave until their surgery is over," Su Bei said.

She followed the bodyguards over. Although Lu Heting didn't appear with her, he didn't leave.

"That's the way." When they entered the building, the bodyguard gave Su Bei directions and took her with him.

When Su Bei walked over, she saw a few familiar faces.

Du Guoshou, Ou Huanwei, and Tang Yue were all there.

Su Bei frowned slightly and looked at the bodyguard. Did they go the wrong way?

She asked, "What's the fan's name?"

"His name is Du Jinghao. He's in surgery now."

"Du Jinghao?" Su Bei couldn't help but repeat. How could Du Jinghao be her fan? Why would he be at the venue?

Su Bei did not intend to argue with these people. She said, "Then let Sister Qiao Mei settle this fan's matter."

She expected it to be more complicated than that.

With that, she turned and walked away.

However, Ou Huanwei immediately saw Su Bei and shouted angrily, "Su Bei, you broke my son's leg and you're leaving just like that? Let me tell you, if anything happens to Jinghao, I won't let you off!"

She came forward to grab Su Bei, but the bodyguards had already swarmed around her and separated her from Su Bei.

"Lu Hang, settle the matter here," Lu Heting instructed in a low voice and left with Su Bei.

Lu Hang naturally knew how to resolve this.

Ou Huanwei and the others only saw a group of bodyguards surrounding Su Bei. They quickly walked away while protecting Su Bei, so she couldn't even reach them.

She was furious and asked Tang Yue, "What exactly happened?"

"I don't know what happened either. Jinghao and I went there to see Su Bei. Who knew that Su Bei's fans would suddenly cause trouble and hurt Jinghao?" Tang Yue shook her head and said.

Ou Huanwei cursed loudly at Su Bei's back. "What a pestilence! You're nothing, but you've made a mess of the Tang family and our family."

Tang Yue's eyes hid her pleasure, but what happened tonight was not entirely what she wanted.

She bet that her fanatical pursuer would mess up the entire venue after getting jealous of Du Jinghao.

However, she did not expect Su Bei's fans to be so orderly. Moreover, the bodyguards arrived quickly and did not give that person much chance to mess up the scene.

Now, there was no news about it on the internet, and Su Bei had no negative impact.

Also, Tang Yue did not expect that her fanatical pursuer would break Du Jinghao's leg.

However, wasn't this all for the better? If Du Jinghao's leg was broken, he wouldn't be able to pursue anyone else. Then, he could only be hers.

Chapter 1380: Haven't Broken Up?

Du Jinghao was pushed out. The doctor said regretfully, "I'm really sorry. The patient's leg nerves were injured. Even if he recovers, there'll be sequelae. But for now, he has to recuperate and ensure that there are as few after-effects as possible."

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei were so angry that their eyes turned red.

Tang Yue bent down and said gently to Du Jinghao, "Jinghao, don't worry. I'll always take care of you and stay by your side."

Du Jinghao's eyes flashed with surprise. He really did not expect Tang Yue to be so affectionate. Had he really been wrong?

...

Su Bei and Lu Heting got into the car. She was wondering what had happened tonight.

"So Du Jinghao and Tang Yue were both there. I don't think tonight's events are that simple," Su Bei said in a low voice with a frown.

"The bodyguards checked again just now. The person who caused trouble tonight is Tang Yue's admirer. He rushed out and hit Du Jinghao, causing a commotion. However, he denied that Tang Yue was involved and said that he was the one who did all of this himself. There's also a record of his conversation with Tang Yue." Lu Heting took out his phone and showed it to Su Bei.

Su Bei took a look. Tang Yue seemed to be quite kind and even advised him not to cause trouble.

But in the end, he still caused trouble.

No one would believe that it had nothing to do with Tang Yue.

However, there was no evidence that it was Tang Yue's doing.

Su Bei rubbed her eyebrows. "Fortunately, the other fans are fine. Du Jinghao isn't my fan either. I think he came to the venue today because of Tang Yue."

"I've already instructed the security team to keep an eye on Tang Yue in the future. They won't let her enter any event venues where you're carrying out your activities again."

"Mhm." Su Bei was a little tired and nodded gently.

Lu Heting pulled her into his arms so that she could rest for a moment.

...

On the other side of the hospital, He Xuyan also received the news of the commotion.

"Is Su Bei okay?"

"She's fine. I heard that only one of her fans is seriously injured. The others are just a little frightened at most. Speaking of which, Mr. He, since when did you care about Su Bei?" He Xuyan's best friend teased him.

"None of your business. Bye." He hung up.

On Lin Wenyu's side, she was asking her colleague for further DNA testing.

"That's good." Lin Wenyu heaved a sigh of relief.

He Xuyan held his phone and looked out the window. It was already late at night in the hospital, but there were still people coming and going.

He suddenly asked, "Is Su Bei still with Lu Heting?"

"What?" Lin Wenyu did not understand what he wanted to ask.

The last time He Xuyan accompanied Su Bei to the hospital, Lu Heting had shown their photos when he came over. He said that he was Su Bei's husband.

He Xuyan did not ask further about this matter.

However, rumors about Lu Heting and Lu Bei spread like wildfire after that.

Previously, He Xuyan was in no position to care.

But if Su Bei was really his sister... He Xuyan felt that he might kill someone.

"Isn't Lu Heting with Lu Bei? Hasn't he broken up with Su Bei yet?" There was a hidden danger in He Xuyan's tone.

The DNA test results weren't in yet, but he felt himself slipping into his role as an elder brother.

Something very definite in his gut warned him that the DNA test would be a match.

If he was an elder brother, then he would feel the urge to protect his little sister for the rest of her life.

He wasn't usually like this. He'd always been able to control his emotions.

But when it came to Su Bei... he couldn't help it.

When Lin Wenyu heard this, she snorted and said, "Don't you know that Lu Bei is Su Bei in men's clothes? Su Bei looks very handsome in men's clothes too. Previously, she even brought me to the raw stone market..."

Lin Wenyu had always known about this, so when the outside world was in an uproar, she was still secretly happy.

After just listening halfway through, He Xuyan relaxed a lot. So Lu Bei was Su Bei?

He coughed lightly. Lu Heting's life would be spared.

Lin Wenyu laughed. "You were worried about that? We still don't know what's going on with Su Bei and Aunt. There's still half an hour left. Let's wait."

Half an hour was not a long time. He Xuyan remained in the same position and stood there.

Lin Wenyu couldn't stand it anymore, so she ran over to look at the results. When the results didn't come out, she ran back. "It turns out that even if we've expedited the process, it'll still take so long. But we can't miss a single step, after all."

...

After Su Bei fell asleep, Lu Heting glanced at her sleeping face and got up to answer Lu Hang's call.

"The person who hit Du Jinghao insists that it has nothing to do with Tang Yue. He says that he was jealous of Du Jinghao, so he hit him. However, I think that Tang Yue actually had the intention of encouraging him to cause trouble on the spot. That person's emotions are very unstable. Tang Yue must know this."

"Deal with this person according to the procedure. We can't find evidence against Tang Yue now, but there'll be plenty of opportunities in the future," Lu Heting said.

Lu Hang understood what he meant. Since the person who hit Du Jinghao was emotionally unstable and was Tang Yue's admirer, what would he do when he was emotionally unstable again in the future?

Lu Heting could afford to wait.

He wanted to see if Tang Yue could afford it.

There were no mentions of this incident on the internet.

On Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei's side, they didn't know the truth of the matter and didn't think it had anything to do with Tang Yue. They just hated Su Bei a little more.

On the other hand, Tang Yue did not leave Du Jinghao when his leg was injured. This deepened the two elders' impression of her. They believed that their judgment back then was right. Choosing Tang Yue had been the right thing to do.

In the hospital, Lin Wenyu finally obtained the DNA test report from her colleague.

"Cousin! I got it!" Lin Wenyu ran over while panting.

"What are the results?"

"I haven't read the report yet. I'm a little... afraid to." Lin Wenyu had high hopes for this matter, so she was afraid of being disappointed.

She did not dare to open it casually.

"You do it." She held the file out to He Xuyan and motioned for him to open it.

He Xuyan took it. This report was just a further verification. The initial report had already been done.

He Xuyan had handled the collection of samples personally this time, so there was no problem with the authenticity and accuracy.

"Cousin, quickly open it." Lin Wenyu didn't dare to open it herself, but she was looking forward to the results. She looked at He Xuyan eagerly.
