

Chapter 1401: Deception

Situ Songhui finished smashing things and walked to the police. "I did everything alone. It has nothing to do with Tang Yue. She was deceived by me and agreed to invest in my business. Therefore, she's innocent of everything here. I'll go back with you to cooperate with the investigation."

Tang Yue's tense nerves relaxed slightly.

The auctioneers mocked and scolded Situ Songhui.

After Situ Songhui was taken away, everyone started to leave. However, those who had bought something at the previous auction also rushed toward Tang Yue, intending to ask her for an explanation.

Tang Yue looked at the mess in front of her and shot Su Bei a vicious look. Then, under the protection of her bodyguards, she hurriedly fled the scene.

Su Bei smiled and looked in the direction Tang Yue had fled. She could escape this scene, but could she escape everything?

The entire auction venue was now filled with fragments and debris. Compared to the previous exquisite scene, it was like a completely different world.

The reporters could not be bothered to stay in such a place. They took photos and left.

Only then did Su Bei walk out slowly. Occasionally, she would encounter a few auctioneers who looked at her gratefully and kindly.

However, these people had mocked Su Bei for what she did just now. They even hated Su Bei for stealing their chance to earn money.

Su Bei got in her car and drove to Feng Cheng's neighborhood.

When she knocked on the door and entered, Tang Xinru was seen drinking coffee.

"Thank you, Su Bei." Tang Xinru welcomed her in and poured her a cup of coffee. "I heard that Situ Songhui was taken away by the police?"

"He might not be able to escape this time," Su Bei said with a sigh. "Previously, he used the skills that his master taught him and the various imitation artifacts that his master left behind to make money. But later, he became even worse. He packaged these things as antiques and tried to earn even higher prices."

Tang Xinru continued, "What's even more detestable is that he didn't even let go of the various imitation antiques that Feng Cheng made for our production team for filming purposes. As soon as the filming ended, he sold them all to foreigners to earn a high price. He deserves to be punished for his evil deeds. He didn't expect that there would be borrowed authentic antiques mixed in with the imitation antiques we used on our film set. That authentic antique was recognized by a foreigner who bought it and planned to secretly bring it overseas. In the end, it was investigated at customs."

Su Bei nodded. "Because of this, they were targeted by the police. Even the imitations in their hands were suspected. In order to prove his innocence, Situ Songhui smashed his own imitations. But he definitely didn't expect that the batch of imitations he sold from the production team was mixed with real ones."

Su Bei's and Tang Xinru's phones rang at the same time.

It was a message from Feng Cheng. He was standing at the side and typing on the keyboard. [Master said back then that he taught us these techniques so that we could repair ancient artifacts and treat the treasures of human civilization well, not use them to make money.]

Su Bei smiled and looked up at him. "Do you like Doraemon?"

Feng Cheng replied: [I quite like Doraemon.]

Tang Xinru said, "Huh? Why was the topic suddenly changed?"

"Situ Songhui didn't make most of the imitations himself. He doesn't have the skill to make them so realistic. He took them from Feng Cheng. Feng Cheng likes Doraemon, so the things he replicates are imprinted with the image of Doraemon inside. Outsiders can't tell the authenticity of these things, but Feng Cheng probably even knows where every Doraemon is carved," Su Bei explained simply to Tang Xinru.

The items that appeared at Tang Yue's auction were all modern hand-made imitations. The news quickly trended.

The news of Su Bei smashing the vase on the spot also appeared on the trending searches.

A moment later, there was a violent reaction.

[Heavens, I didn't expect all the things Tang Yue sold to be fake. Didn't they publicize that they went to various parts of the country to look for antiques?]

[What a fraud. The publicity was spectacular, but the results were that everything was fake?]

[When Su Bei went on stage and smashed the vase, she was so cool! It seems that Su Bei already knew that they were fake. She even knew where Doraemon was.]

[It's obvious that these things were probably mass-produced. Su Bei reminded them that they were unrepentant as they actually intended to continue auctioning. If the police hadn't come, I wonder how much more money Tang Yue would have earned!]

[But why didn't Su Bei remind Tang Yue in private?]

[Is there any use in reminding her? Didn't you see that Tang Yue was still denying it at the scene? If it weren't for the fact that they were suspected of smuggling cultural relics, Tang Yue and Situ Songhui probably wouldn't have admitted to selling the handicrafts even now.]

[In that case, the smuggling of cultural relics isn't real, right? After all, they're replicas made by themselves. There's nothing wrong with selling them overseas to foreigners, is there?]

Just as everyone was discussing, someone exposed: [Situ Songhui did sell a real cultural relic to a foreigner! It's a thousand-year-old artifact! After that foreigner bought it, he wanted to smuggle it out, so he was arrested!]

[Damn, Situ Songhui is too much of a scammer. He sold the imitations he made to his countrymen and the good stuff to foreigners. Such a person is better off dead.]

[A precious cultural relic was ruined by this kind of person for money. My heart simply aches for those treasures that have gone through a thousand years of hardships.]

[Did you see the news? The batch that was sold off was originally a set of cultural relics that Tang Xinru commissioned for filming purposes. She borrowed real artifacts and asked a famous appraiser and jewelry restorer, Feng Cheng, to replicate them for filming. She didn't expect Situ Songhui to steal them all and sell them, causing this accident.]

[Oh my god, stealing goods to sell them and make a profit. Is Situ Songhui even human? Tang Yue must have a problem with her judgment to work with such a person, right?]

[The props for 'The Secret History of the Great Depression' are really too exquisite. Everything really looks like it was from that era. I'll give in to this publicity and wait for the TV show to start broadcasting.]

[Waiting for the broadcast.]

For a moment, things were buzzing.

At this moment, the few real artifacts had been recovered and sent back to their true owners.

Chapter 1402: Settling Scores With Her

The suspicions about Feng Cheng were naturally cleared. The few crew members who had wronged him previously even came to apologize to him after seeing the news.

On Tang Yue's side, Situ Songhui took responsibility for everything alone, saving Tang Yue from prosecution and criminal responsibility.

However, her losses this time were too great. Dozens of items were successfully auctioned off, but the owners changed their minds. Not only did they not want to directly refund the items, but the owners were also looking for lawyers to fight a lawsuit for the items that they won from Tang Yue's auctions in the past two years. They wanted to refund the items and recover their losses.

Tang Yue was in a terrible fix and faced a huge loss.

The good reputation that she had painstakingly built up was almost gone.

Contrary to her, Su Bei received a lot of good reviews this time.

The TV show that Tang Xinru had invested a lot in was also enjoying a wave of popularity and traffic because of this accidental publicity.

As an appraiser who had always been behind the scenes, Feng Cheng's reputation was also highlighted. He received the attention of the National Appraisal Committee and was invited to participate in various activities and join the expert committee.

His professional abilities were recognized, and his reputation gradually became prominent.

The Tang family naturally did not blame Tang Yue. After all, it was Situ Songhui who did it.

"You were also deceived by others. Business is business. You have to keep your eyes open and not be deceived by bad people," Lin Shulian said earnestly.

"I will, Mom. After suffering this loss, I'll learn my lesson. It's just that I really don't know what Su Bei was thinking. She could have just told me about this in private, but she just had to make it known in public and embarrass me. Just because I pointed out that she wasn't a member of the Tang family, she had to push me down?"

Lin Shulian was silent for a moment.

After a long while, she said, "Tang Yue, since Su Bei has already left the Tang family, let's forgive her. Let's forget about the past."

"Did you forget about what happened to your leg? She got you into this mess, but you want to just let it go?"

These words made Lin Shulian's expression change a few times. It was unbearable to be in a wheelchair for the rest of her life when she was only in her 50s.

Tang Jianming, who was standing at the side, said sternly, "Even if you can just let this matter slide, I can't! Shulian, no matter what, I have to make Su Bei explain it clearly! Such an evil creature shouldn't have been recognized in the first place. Look, it has caused us such a huge disaster! This matter can't be let go like this!"

Lin Shulian seemed reluctant, but she didn't insist when her husband said so.

Tang Yue secretly felt pleased. "Mom, rest well. I'll come over as soon as I'm free."

"Tang Yue, I'll have to rely on you in the future."

"Mom, I'm your daughter. It's only right that I take care of you." Tang Yue pushed her wheelchair. "Let's go out for a walk. You haven't basked in the sun in a long time. I'll accompany you out."

She wheeled Lin Shulian out. Many reporters managed to capture this scene.

As soon as these photos were released, Tang Yue's reputation was boosted despite the incident with Situ Songhui. No matter what, the incident with Situ Songhui had nothing to do with her. She was filial to her mother and did not leave her fiancé's side. Such a character was extremely rare. Even if someone wanted to reprimand her, they were really touched by her kindness.

When Su Bei saw these photos, she put down her phone and said, "Tang Yue really refuses to admit defeat no matter what."

"If she admits defeat, she won't be the unkillable cockroach that she is." Tang Xinru shook her head. "In the past, she liked to fight with me. After you came back, she probably realized that there was no point in fighting with me, so she changed her target. She really can't stand being wronged at all."

"She can't stand being wronged, so others have to suffer in her hands?" A cold smile appeared on Su Bei's lips. "She still wants to push the blame on me? It seems that it's time to settle the score with her."

"Just ask if you need my help."

Su Bei sent Gun Gun to the painting studio. Gun Gun was learning from a famous teacher in Jingdu City and had made great progress.

Today, because he was participating in a national painting competition, Su Bei specially made time to accompany him.

The teacher welcomed Gun Gun in and said with a smile, "Little Lu Gecheng is very talented in painting and is very spirited. We all think very highly of him. Mrs. Lu, I hope you can encourage Little Gecheng more at home."

Su Bei took off the mask she had been wearing and smiled. "I will. Thank you, Teacher."

"Y-You're... Su Bei?" The teacher was shocked. When she saw the familiar and beautiful face that was revealed after the young woman took off her mask, her eyes lit up. It was as if there was a ray of light shining on Su Bei's face. It was fair, tender, and beautiful.

"It's me. I'm Lu Gecheng's mother. Sorry to trouble you." There was no need for Su Bei to pretend in front of the teacher. Besides, she had already asked around. This painting class was very famous. The key was that many children of big shots were being taught here. The teacher was very good at keeping secrets.

"It's no trouble at all." The teacher was not a fan of Su Bei, but seeing such a big star, movie queen, and supermodel standing in front of her and speaking to her so gently and politely made her change her opinion of Su Bei.

Gun Gun looked up at Su Bei. "Bei Bei, there's a very kind aunt who's coming over to watch me draw today. You have to meet her later."

The teacher also said, "That's right, Su Bei. The teacher who will be coming later is a well-known painter. She was invited to come here before but she never did. It's because she likes Lu Gecheng that she made an exception and came today. When the time comes, I can introduce you to her."

"Okay, thank you, Teacher. I'm also very interested to meet her." Su Bei smiled politely.

Su Bei patted Gun Gun's head and reminded him to listen to his teacher. Then, she said to the teacher, "I'll wait for him outside. I'll leave Lu Gecheng to you."

The teacher quickly nodded and reached out to hold Gun Gun's hand. Only then did she snap out of her daze. No wonder Lu Gecheng was the best-looking child in the class. Every time, she couldn't help but favor him. It turned out that his mother was so good-looking. A son took after his mother. With such a good-looking mother, of course, her children would also be very good-looking.

Chapter 1403: Saved A Galaxy

Su Bei put on her mask and waited outside while making plans with Lu Heting.

Tonight, she planned to bring Da Bao and Gun Gun to see Lin Xiruo.

After spending time with Lin Xiruo, she felt at ease in the depths of her heart. Compared to before when she could not bear to introduce the two children, she felt that it was fine now.

[Yes, I'll pick you and Gun Gun up from the painting class later.] Lu Heting sent a message.

After confirming the time, Su Bei put down her phone and pulled down the brim of her hat. She was surrounded by parents. Although no one was paying attention to her, she didn't want to be recognized and cause trouble for Gun Gun and the academy.

As she was thinking, there was a slight commotion outside. Su Bei looked in the direction of the sound and saw a gentle-looking woman wearing a decent dark blue dress and a matching tassel shawl. She was surrounded by several staff members as she walked in.

It was Lin Xiruo.

When Su Bei saw her, she stood up. Lin Xiruo's gaze immediately shifted to Su Bei. Others might not be able to recognize Su Bei's disguise, but when a mother looked at her daughter, she could tell at a glance.

She walked quickly toward Su Bei, her expression turning into a doting smile. After taking a few steps, she turned back to gesture to the staff members, clearly asking them to give her a few minutes first.

The staff members stopped in their tracks. Lin Xiruo walked up to Su Bei.

"Mom, why are you here?" Su Bei asked softly as she sat down with her.

"There's a competition at the academy here today. I was invited. I didn't want to come at first. It's just a children's competition, but there's a child I especially like. The last time we met, I promised him I would come. Even if he's a child, I can't break my promise, right?"

When Su Bei heard her words, she thought for a moment and understood. "Is the little kid you're talking about called Lu Gecheng?"

"Yes." Lin Xiruo looked at her strangely. "How did you know?"

"Because he's Lu Heting's son," Su Bei said mischievously.

“He’s the son Lu Heting brought home previously but doesn’t know who gave birth to him?” Lin Xiruo’s expression turned solemn. “Your father had wanted to ask you about it a few times, but he was afraid that you would be unhappy, so he didn’t ask... How do you treat that child? Can you accept it?”

Lin Xiruo actually had many things to ask Su Bei and talk to her about. Perhaps if she really opened her heart, she would not be able to finish chatting even after 10 days and 10 nights.

She wanted to know everything about her daughter’s upbringing.

However, she also knew that her daughter had grown up and she had not done her duty as a mother. There were some things that she could not say casually.

At this point, though, she really could not feel at ease if she did not ask.

Pursing her lips, she whispered, “Mom, I gave birth to that child.”

“Ah!” Lin Xiruo sighed when she heard Su Bei’s words.

Immediately, she understood many things. The huge rock that had been lying on her heart was immediately lifted when she heard that. She immediately felt much more relaxed.

Although she did not understand the details of their relationship, she only needed to think of Lu Gecheng’s obedient and cute appearance to know that he was growing up in a loving family.

Her impression of Lu Heting instantly improved.

Seeing that the expression on her face went from one of complete worry to relaxed because of her, Su Bei felt warm and touched. She said softly, “Lu Gecheng is actually a twin. He also has an older brother called Da Bao, and his real name is Su Zhuoqian.”

“Ah!” Lin Xiruo sighed again. This time, she was even more relaxed and happy. It turned out that her daughter already had children.

It seemed that her relationship with Lu Heting was indeed very stable. If she could obtain happiness, Lin Xiruo did not have to worry about anything.

She held Su Bei’s hand and felt sorry for her. “As your parents, we didn’t do anything for you. We were too negligent.”

“There was an accident. It’s not your fault.” Su Bei could understand. She had lost Gun Gun before, and she knew that as a parent, everything did not come easy.

“Teacher Lin, the competition has already begun. Please...” A staff member came forward and urged softly.

“I’ll be back soon. Wait for me.” Lin Xiruo stood up and followed the staff in.

Su Bei remembered that the teacher had just said that the person who was coming today was a famous painter from abroad. It was Lin Xiruo?

No wonder Gun Gun had always been talented in painting. It turned out that he had inherited it from Lin Xiruo.

Lin Xiruo entered the classroom. Gun Gun waved his little hands enthusiastically and greeted her with a smile.

Lin Xiruo had always liked him very much. This time, when she saw him again after learning that he was Su Bei's son, the smile on her face became even gentler. She carefully examined Gun Gun. He was round and especially cute. Perhaps Su Bei was also like this when she was young. She was so obedient that it made one want to dote on her.

Su Bei stood outside and looked at the scene in front of her. For a moment, she felt like she was in a dream.

The results of the preliminary round were not out yet, but when Gun Gun ran out, he was already very excited. "Aunt praised me again. She even said that I'm especially good."

"Because our Gun Gun is really amazing," Su Bei replied with a smile.

Gun Gun's cheeks were red with excitement. "Then I'll definitely be better in the future!"

"Of course!" Su Bei agreed without hesitation. Her heart almost melted by his cute little voice.

"Because my Bei Bei and Daddy are great, so am I."

Lin Xiruo still had something to deal with.

Su Bei took Gun Gun to the parking lot to wait for Lu Heting. With such a cute baby by her side, she felt as though all her worries had gone away.

After a while, Lu Heting drove over and stopped silently in front of Su Bei.

Da Bao was sitting in the car. When he saw Su Bei and Gun Gun, his eyes lit up. He turned sideways and pulled Gun Gun, who was climbing into the car.

Su Bei sat in the front row and looked at her three boys. She tilted her head and looked at Lu Heting with a sweet smile on her lips.

"What are you so happy about?" Lu Heting's expression was gentle.

"Do you think I saved a galaxy in my previous life to have such a good husband and two good sons?" Su Bei smiled, her delicate face flushing.

Lu Heting's handsome features were also filled with joy. His voice was a little charming as he nodded at her. "Then I might have saved an extragalactic galaxy."

Su Bei pursed her lips. The man's handsome features looked even more extraordinary to her.

Chapter 1404: A Father's Status Depends On His Son, A Husband's Wealth Depends On His Wife

"An extragalactic galaxy is bigger than the Milky Way!" Gun Gun said from the backseat.

"Yeah, but they're not competing to see which is bigger." Da Bao seemed to know all about it.

Embarrassed by her two sons, Su Bei reached for the mineral water, opened it, and took a sip to moisten her throat.

Gun Gun didn't know what they were talking about. He asked, "So are we going to see Grandpa, Grandma, and Uncle tonight?"

"There's also Great-grandmother and other relatives," Su Bei said. After Old Madam Lin and the others knew about the existence of the two children, how could they resist meeting them? Since Lin Xiruo was living in the Lin family now, Su Bei couldn't really refuse.

"Then why haven't we met before?" Gun Gun asked curiously.

Da Bao explained, "Because you've always lived with Daddy before, and we didn't have such a chance. At that time, Daddy and Xiao Bei weren't together yet. Do you understand?"

"Then why didn't Daddy and Bei Bei get together earlier? I was so pitiful before. I was unhappy without Bei Bei," Gungun said and made a gesture of wiping his tears.

Su Bei's heart was touched. She said softly, "It was my fault in the past. We'll be together forever in the future."

"Together forever!" Gun Gun was so happy!

Lu Heting reached out his hand and covered the back of Su Bei's hand. His gaze was gentle and firm. He had never blamed her for anything in the past. In the future, he would protect her and the two little guys in the backseat better.

When Da Bao and Gun Gun appeared in the Lin family, Old Madam Lin's wrinkled face immediately relaxed. She stood up and said in a loving tone, "Ah, come to Great-grandma! Sigh..."

For a moment, she was too happy to speak coherently.

Lin Hancheng, who had always been serious, also had a smile on his square face.

Da Bao introduced himself, "My name is Su Zhuoqian. Xiao Bei and Daddy call me Da Bao."

"I'm Lu Gecheng. Everyone calls me Gun Gun. Because I'm a little chubby." Gun Gun smiled.

"Great-grandmother, Granduncle, Grandaunt, Aunt, Uncle." The two munchkins were good at greeting people. They remembered everyone after looking around.

One was smart and sensible, while the other was lively and cute. Everyone smiled, and the entire living room was filled with joy.

Only He Jiang was not too happy. His heart ached for his daughter's suffering. She had to be a mother at a young age and give birth to Lu Heting's children. She could not reveal her identity outside and had to appear as Lu Bei every time.

He grunted and sat silent as if the excitement in the living room had nothing to do with him.

"Grandpa!" Gun Gun ran over. "I'm Gun Gun. Grandpa, aren't you happy?"

Children were the most simple and direct. To them, blood ties were even more obvious.

Because he knew that they were his family, he was simply unguarded.

He Jiang's expression could not remain crestfallen anymore. He reached out and picked him up. His usually cold face could not help but smile.

The entire family laughed. He Jiang coughed lightly and glanced at He Xuyan. "Why are you still laughing? Look at Su Bei and then at you. When can you catch up to Su Bei?"

He Xuyan: "..."

His daughter did everything right. His son was even wrong to smile.

Gun Gun looked up at Lin Xiruo, blinked, and said in confusion, "Aunt?"

"Be good. I'm Grandma. I'm your mommy's mother." Lin Xiruo bent down, her gaze gentle and loving. The love she didn't manage to give Su Bei when she was young seemed to be directed to Da Bao and Gun Gun now.

"But you're so young, Aunt." Gun Gun's big eyes were full of doubt.

He made them all laugh again.

This time, the Lin and He families treated Lu Heting much better than before.

Lu Heting touched the tip of his nose. As expected, he had to take advantage of his sons.

After dinner.

In the study.

Lin Hancheng, He Jiang, He Xuyan, and Lu Heting sat together and discussed something.

Thanks to Lu Heting's sons, the three of them accepted Lu Heting's participation.

"We can't let Su Bei suffer unjustly for the Tang family's matter. As for the other matters, the evidence is already conclusive. We should deal with the matter now!" He Jiang's thick eyebrows were filled with determination as he made the final decision!

By the time Lu Heting and Su Bei got back, both kids were so tired they fell asleep.

Su Bei looked at them, and her heart skipped a beat.

She tilted her head and asked Lu Heting, "What did Dad and the others say?"

"Thanks to my sons, I managed to sit with them. Dad said that since it's your matter, you can leave it to us," Lu Heting said calmly. The smile on his face widened. "It seems that I'll have to bask in my sons' glory in the future."

Su Bei smiled brightly. "A father's status depends on his son!"

"Yes, and a husband's wealth depends on his wife," Lu Heting concluded seriously.

That was true. Without Su Bei, could he have gone to the He and Lin families?

Su Bei's shoulders trembled with laughter, but the man tilted his head to kiss her.

Lin Shulian's matter had indeed intensified. Although she did not settle the score with Su Bei openly, many rumors had already spread.

There were all kinds of people who said that Su Bei was an ungrateful person.

If this continued, Su Bei's reputation would definitely be greatly affected.

Qiao Mei was also a little worried. "Su Bei, what do you think about this matter?"

"Sister Mei, I already have an idea. It's impossible for the dirty water that was poured on me to drown me."

"So how do you want to handle it?"

Su Bei explained briefly.

Qiao Mei couldn't help but laugh. "Indeed, Mr. Lu is truly capable. It looks like my position isn't stable enough. I can't even compare to half of Mr. Lu's ability."

"Sister Qiao Mei, are you still teasing me? I need you to help me take care of my work. You can't push the responsibility to Heting."

"Alright, alright. I'll go get the script for you. Leave the rest to Mr. Lu."

Lin Shulian had surgery on her leg and was about to be discharged.

On the day they were discharged from the hospital, Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei naturally couldn't remain idly by. They came to pick up Lin Shulian with Du Jinghao early in the morning.

Du Jinghao could walk now, but there were still aftereffects. When he walked, he would limp a little. Although it was not a big problem, it was still very difficult for young people to accept.

When Ou Huanwei saw Lin Shulian, she hurriedly took a few steps forward and said, "In-law, it's good that you're better. Jinghao and I are also here to pick you up."

"The ward is still being cleaned up. Let's wait a little longer. You guys are so considerate. I've been sick for so long, and you guys often come to visit me. This time, you even came to pick me up from the hospital."

Chapter 1405: Treated You Well

"Isn't that what I should do?" Ou Huanwei said with a smile. "This is also what Jinghao should do as your son-in-law."

Lin Shulian smiled happily.

Tang Yue packed her things and came forward. "Mom, let's go."

“Wait.” Tang Jianming stopped her.

“Su Bei has made such a huge mistake. How can we just ignore it and let it go? I’ve already called her. Today, I’m going to ask her clearly in front of everyone! If she really did it, the law won’t forgive her!” Tang Jianming’s tone was very serious, and he looked abnormally angry.

He didn’t have much feelings for Su Bei to begin with. Besides, Su Bei was no longer a member of the Tang family. Why should he give her face?

When Ou Huanwei heard this, she agreed and said, “That’s right. Shulian’s leg injury is inseparable from Su Bei. How can we give up the matter so easily? Also, our Jinghao was also made like this by a fan of Su Bei’s! But the police said that this matter had nothing to do with Su Bei, so they only punished that fan and didn’t find trouble with Su Bei at all! I think the people outside are really blinded!”

Tang Jianming said, “That makes sense. Su Bei has to bear the responsibility! Otherwise, how can she be an idol and a role model for teenagers?”

“Yes, we have to pursue it!” Ou Huanwei felt even more strongly about Su Bei because of her son. When she heard that Su Bei was coming, she was eager to fight.

She reached out and pulled Tang Yue back. “To be honest, Tang Yue is different. Those wild children outside are always unpresentable, unlike Tang Yue. She’s filial to her mother, gentle to outsiders, and deeply affectionate to Jinghao. It’s really our Du family’s blessing to have her join our family.”

Tang Yue was overjoyed, but she maintained a humble expression. “Aunt, you flatter me.”

Tang Yue’s expression darkened slightly. Then, she smiled and said, “Grandpa still likes Su Bei so much. I wonder how disappointed he’ll be when he confirms Su Bei’s actions.”

“A woman like Su Bei who’s from the entertainment industry only knows how to please others and seek benefits. I despise such a woman the most!” Ou Huanwei snorted in disdain.

Then, the door creaked open and Su Bei and Old Master Tang walked in.

Du Jinghao subconsciously glanced at Su Bei. Then, he remembered the agreement and stood farther away from Su Bei. He glanced at Su Bei. Originally, he thought that his feelings for Su Bei had faded, but when he saw her in person, he couldn’t help but feel his emotions surge a little.

“Grandpa!” Tang Yue stood up and went forward to support Old Master Tang. “Why are you here with Su Bei?”

“Your father has something to ask Su Bei, so I came to listen.” Old Master Tang sat down and said, “Jianming, ask away!”

Tang Jianming was usually quiet, but this time, he was indeed furious. His tone also became sharp. “Su Bei, won’t you admit that the supplement you gave to Shulian, which she has been taking during this period, was laced with antibiotics, causing her joints to have issues? Now, it's just her knee joint. After this, the other joints in her body will also have problems. It'll cause unbearable pain and even lesions! To think that our Tang family treated you well before this. I didn't expect you to be such a person! If you don't make things clear today, the police and prison will be waiting for you!"

His voice was stern. In an instant, the entire ward fell silent. Tang Yue's gaze landed on Su Bei's face.

Su Bei was not affected by his attitude. There was no fear on her face. Instead, she was calm as she asked, "So you mean to say that it was the supplement I sent over that caused your wife's health problems?"

"The doctor has tested it. Are you still going to deny it?"

Su Bei looked up and said coldly, "Is there no other reason?"

"It's just that supplement! What else have you got to say?"

At the side, Old Master Tang slowly said, "I bought that supplement."

"What..." Tang Jianming was stunned.

Tang Yue was obviously unhappy, but she still said in an understanding tone, "Grandpa, I know you love Su Bei very much, but you can't take the blame for her. This isn't a small matter, Grandpa. Su Bei, you have to take responsibility for your own actions. Don't let Grandpa take the blame for you."

Old Master Tang said solemnly, "Although I didn't do it personally, my assistant went to buy it. I've even found the video of him buying the supplement. He bought it at a big mall, so there'll be surveillance footage."

The assistant took a few steps forward and clicked on the video in his hand. It was the surveillance footage of him buying the supplement that day.

The supplements shown were undoubtedly the ones Lin Shulian had been taking.

Tang Yue's expression changed rapidly.

Lin Shulian didn't know what to say either. She looked at Su Bei.

"Mrs. Tang, I'm deeply sorry about your condition. I'm also sorry that I didn't come to see you on your birthday. I was too busy, so I asked Grandpa to help buy a birthday gift for you. I've never touched the supplement from the very beginning. In fact, I didn't even know what the gift was until I saw the video."

Seeing that it was not convenient for Tang Yue to say anything, Ou Huanwei said on her behalf, "There's nothing wrong with the process of the assistant buying it, but who knows what happened in between? We don't know your relationship with the assistant!"

These words were so convincing that Tang Jianming, who had already calmed down, became suspicious again. He said, "Su Bei, how do you explain this?"

"Are you trying to make it seem as though there's something going on between me and the assistant? Aren't you thinking too much? So you think that I bribed the assistant and tampered with the supplement? What's the benefit of me doing this? Just because I'm not a member of the Tang family or Lin Shulian's daughter, you want to frame me? What can I get out of doing such a harmful thing anyway?" Su Bei asked.

Her words were loud and clear, sounding in everyone's ears one by one.

Tang Yue said faintly, "You need to prove that you didn't tamper with the supplement. What's the use of saying anything else? You can't judge a book by its cover. A person can't completely understand another person, so there's naturally no way to guess what you're thinking. Therefore, let's not talk about these illusory things and just talk about evidence."

Chapter 1406: Why Did You Do This?

When Su Bei heard this, a faint smile appeared on her face. "Since you mentioned evidence, Assistant, please tell Miss Tang the evidence."

The assistant took two steps forward and said, "After buying the supplement at the mall, I bought other things according to the old man's request and went to a nearby place to do some work. Therefore, I didn't take the supplements with me after buying them. I handed them to the mall staff to be packed and sent to the Tang family. The process of packing and delivery was recorded by surveillance cameras.

"After the items arrived at the Tang family, Madam personally opened them."

After saying that, he retreated to Old Master Tang's side.

Su Bei continued and asked calmly, "So, are you going to cast your suspicions on the mall this time and ask the staff to cooperate with the investigation?"

Tang Jianming was speechless for a moment. No matter how stupid he was, he knew that it was impossible for him to find trouble with the mall. If he found out that nothing had happened, he would have caused a lot of trouble for the Tang family's business over nothing.

Tang Yue secretly clenched her fists. 'Su Bei is so cunning! She didn't even touch the supplement she bought.'

"After that, I never went to the Tang family again, nor did I come into contact with any of the family members. I'm sure you all know this very well, right?" Su Bei looked from Tang Jianming to Lin Shulian, then to Tang Yue.

Tang Jianming gulped. He had checked the servants at home. They had all been in the Tang family for many years and had no motive. Moreover, they had not been anywhere during this time. They wouldn't have been able to get their hands on those antibiotics.

It was precisely because those people had been eliminated from the list of suspicious people that they targeted Su Bei.

But now, the evidence Su Bei had produced...

Tang Yue's smile became forced. "Since the matter has been concluded for the time being, I think we should continue to investigate..."

She didn't expect that to be the case with the supplement. Continuing the investigation would only put her at a disadvantage.

The only solution was to wait for time to play this down.

Tang Jianming seemed to have no choice. When he heard Tang Yue's words, he almost agreed.

At this moment, Su Bei spoke again, "Don't you think it's too unfair to Mrs. Tang if things pass like this? From what I know, Tang Yue herself has a good chance of getting her hands on those antibiotics."

"Su Bei, you're slandering me!" Tang Yue immediately retorted. "How could I harm my mother? Everyone knows that my relationship with my mother is very good. How could I do such a thing? Besides, you can check my health insurance records and the purchase records of various drugs. If you find out that I bought such drugs, I'm willing to be punished!"

Lin Shulian also defended her. "Su Bei, if you can prove your innocence, I'll believe you. But you can't possibly say that Tang Yue did such a thing."

Naturally, the others did not believe her either.

"It's true that I can't produce a record of you buying drugs. But Tang Yue, you've bought simple pharmaceutical equipment before, and you also studied chemistry when you were in university. You didn't buy the antibiotics, but you bought many other drugs to treat diabetes. No one in the Tang family has diabetes, but this drug to treat diabetes can be refined into antibiotics through some methods. Tang Yue, am I wrong?"

She enunciated every word.

Tang Yue looked obviously flustered.

She gritted her teeth. "I didn't do it. You're lying!"

"The record of the purchase of pharmaceutical equipment is here." Su Bei held up the information in her hand. "This pharmaceutical equipment is rarely sold to individuals or used by anyone. Do I need to remind you of that?"

Tang Yue was about to explain when Old Master Tang roared, "Tang Yue, is what Su Bei said the truth?"

"Grandpa, I really didn't..." Tang Yue shook her head, but her expression had long lost its composure. Even her words of defense were pale.

Tang Jianming grabbed the information from Su Bei's hand and looked at it. He saw that the buyer's name on the document was Tang Yue and the address of the delivery was the small apartment where Tang Yue lived. Now, it was clear whether or not she made antibiotics with the equipment!

Su Bei did not fake it!

His expression changed drastically. "Tang Yue, how else are you going to explain this?!"

Lin Shulian's expression also turned extremely ugly, and her eyes were red. "Tang Yue, tell me what happened."

“I really didn’t do it, Mom. Su Bei is setting me up. She’s doing it on purpose...”

“Miss Tang, I’ve already helped you to call the police. The police have already gone to your apartment to investigate. I believe the police can naturally judge if I’m setting you up or not. Whether it’s a death or an injury in your own family, it never had anything to do with me. You didn’t want to call the police, and no one forced you to either. But since you got me involved, I naturally don’t dare to suffer such infamy and stigma.”

“Su Bei, you!” Tang Jianming felt guilty at this moment. He knew that this matter was most likely related to Tang Yue. She was his only daughter, so he was still hesitant.

“I’m just doing what I have to do. What? I have to be publicly slandered and can’t even ask the police for help?”

Ou Huanwei was also very disappointed in Tang Yue. She really did not expect her filial piety to be just an illusion.

However, the Tang family hadn’t really done anything inexcusable to Su Bei, yet the woman brought up an injury or death in the family. She really couldn’t stand it.

It was just inconvenient for her to say more.

Lin Shulian’s face was filled with distress. She was originally from the Lin family, so her bearing and temperament were not bad. It was just that this leg injury incident had made her more distressed and less radiant than usual.

Now that she heard these pieces of information, her eyes were even more dull and lifeless.

Her tone was thick with confusion and disappointment. “You’re my own daughter, Tang Yue. Why did you do this?”

“Why? Tell me why!” Tang Jianming also hated her to the core and reached out to slap her.

Tang Yue held her flushed cheek. Her expression was no longer as understanding and gentle as usual. It had become vicious and resentful. “Why? You tell me why. I might as well tell you that I’ve wanted to do this since I was very, very young! I’ve always wanted to break your and Dad’s legs so that you wouldn’t be able to go out of the house. That way, you can’t dote on other children, and you can only dote on me. I’ll be filial to you and take care of you!”

“Tang Yue, you...” When Lin Shulian heard this, she was furious and clutched her chest uncomfortably.

Chapter 1407: Creepy

“My parents can only belong to me and love me! No one can snatch you away, and no one can take away your love for me! You can only be mine! But it’s not enough that you already had me as your daughter. You actually wanted to have another child to snatch the love that belongs to me. Have you ever thought about my feelings?”

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian were really shocked. "You're usually a little arrogant, but we never expected you to think like this. Even if we had other children, we'd still love you!"

"But that love is no longer enough. It's already discounted! It's useless! From the moment your second child was born, I've been thinking about killing her! Even if I couldn't kill her, I had to get her away! You guys can only belong to me! You have to be mine alone! But you two still want to give your kindness and love to others! Even if Su Bei isn't your daughter now, you still have hopes of retaining a close relationship with her!"

"No! I can't allow even that! Look, your leg is injured. Only your biological daughter, which is me, has been here to serve you. Did Su Bei ever come to visit you? No, not at all! She couldn't even be bothered to buy a birthday gift herself. She's just patronizing you!

"Only me. I'm the only one who really loves you. I've never left your side even when something went wrong! See, Mom, I'm the only one who's true to you. I'm the only one who's really filial to you.

"One daughter is enough, isn't it?"

Tang Yue's words were full of emotion. Her face was twisted. Her words sounded like they contained genuine mother-daughter feelings, but they were chilling.

Lin Shulian's face and lips were trembling violently. She did not dare to look at her unfamiliar daughter.

On the side, Ou Huanwei also felt that something was amiss. Du Jinghao frowned deeply. He recalled that Tang Yue had said the same thing beside his bed. She said that she would never leave him and she was the only one who treated him sincerely.

Some words were usually touching to hear.

But at this moment, they felt a little creepy and scary.

"Why? Why? Why can't you understand my needs and worry about my feelings? Why are you asking me why now?" Tang Yue also looked puzzled as if this was really her biggest problem. "Mom, Dad, why? Why did you have to have a second child? Why did you have to acknowledge Su Bei? Why can't you hate Su Bei more now that she's not a member of the Tang family and slap her in the face?"

Her questions were asked, but no one could answer her.

She looked as if she had gone mad. Su Bei looked at her and withdrew her gaze indifferently. It turned out that Tang Yue had gone mad. To do such a thing was already beyond the comprehension of ordinary people, but in her logic, it was completely plausible.

Tang Yue put on a smile and stepped forward to shake Lin Shulian's hand.

Lin Shulian instinctively wanted to pull her hand away, but Tang Yue held on tightly and said gently, "Mom, don't worry. I'll definitely take good care of you. In the future, no matter if there's something wrong with your leg or your hand, I won't leave you! Don't worry, Mom. You're my only mother and I'm your only daughter. I'll always take care of you in the future, okay?"

When Tang Jianming heard these words, he felt extremely uncomfortable. He was terrified and disgusted. He never expected that this was his biological daughter.

Du Jinghao also looked away. When he recalled that Tang Yue had also said the same words to him, he frowned and felt especially uncomfortable.

When Old Master Tang saw this scene, his expression became more and more serious.

Tang Yue's emotions and attitude were clearly a little crazy, making it difficult for people to adjust to it. However, the various things she did in the past had already revealed some clues. It was just that her family never interfered.

He said in an old voice, "Jianming, accompany Tang Yue and get her a good psychiatrist. As for what she's done..."

Tang Jianming gritted his teeth and said, "I will. However, I can only hand such a daughter over to the police. Otherwise..."

Lin Shulian's face was also filled with disappointment and fear. She never expected her daughter to do such a thing.

She wanted to speak up for Tang Yue, but she could not.

Tang Yue was still lost in her emotions, her face twisted and feverish.

Su Bei looked away at the scene in front of her, not wanting to look at it anymore.

Du Jinghao, on the other hand, looked at Su Bei. When Ou Huanwei saw this, she was afraid that her son's feelings for Su Bei would revive. She immediately said, "I think Tang Yue has been in a bad mood because of Su Bei's return to the Tang family. After all, it's not all her fault."

Su Bei heard the implication in her words and asked, "She's not to blame, so are you saying I'm still responsible? Then can you please tell me what my role in this is?"

Su Bei's rude attitude angered Ou Huanwei. Even if she did not choose Tang Yue as her daughter-in-law, she would not choose Su Bei!

She immediately said, "If it weren't for your appearance and existence that dealt a huge blow to Tang Yue, she probably wouldn't have done such a thing. Do you dare to say that you're from the Tang family? Do you dare to say that you don't have any thoughts of being the eldest daughter of the Tang family? You could just accept it after the Tang family admitted their mistake in acknowledging the wrong person?"

Su Bei sneered. "You'll soon find out who was wrong."

"I don't need you to remind me. As this is about the Tang family, I have no right to say anything about it. But do you dare to say that Jinghao's leg has nothing to do with you? He was injured by your fan at your event! If it weren't for Jinghao's kindness, I would've blown this matter up long ago. Do you think a person like you deserves to have fans and organize an event? I'm afraid even your own fans are similar to you—vicious and unaware!"

At the thought that her son's leg was injured and he could not walk properly, Ou Huanwei could not breathe. She stared at Su Bei and glared fiercely as if she wanted to pierce her with her eyes!

"Since we're here today, let's settle this matter as well." A cold glint flashed across Su Bei's beautiful eyes.

Ou Huanwei was not afraid of her. She only cared about the hatred in her heart. "So be it. Do you think I'm afraid of you? I'm just afraid you'll shirk responsibility!"

"Mom, this has nothing to do with Su Bei. Let's go!" Du Jinghao looked at Su Bei guiltily, pulled his mother's arm, and wanted to take her away.

Chapter 1408: Never Leaving

"Why should we leave?! We have to get to the bottom of this today!" Ou Huanwei shook off Du Jinghao's hand.

Unfortunately, his injured leg made it inconvenient for him now. If Ou Huanwei did not follow him, he could not use force.

Su Bei reached out and stopped Du Jinghao. "Mr. Du, you don't have to leave or worry about hurting me. After all, this matter has nothing to do with me."

"Listen! Listen to what you're saying! You still have the cheek to say that it has nothing to do with you? The person who hurt Jinghao is your fan! Do you not acknowledge such a fan now?"

Su Bei said unhurriedly, "Firstly, he's not a fan of mine. I don't have such a fan. Secondly, he's Tang Yue's admirer. He came to my event that day just to avenge Tang Yue and cause trouble for me.

"Not everything can be pushed to Tang Yue. Yes, Tang Yue did do something wrong, but that's not a reason for you to shirk responsibility!"

"Well, you can look at what he said and what he did at that time!"

Su Bei clicked on a video, and the man's voice sounded. "I know Tang Yue because I've always been pursuing her, but she has never been moved by me at all.

"I also know that the gap between us is too great, but I always swore that I could catch up and give her a better life.

"During this period, I've been following her often. There were even a few times when I drove unreasonably and planned to hurt Du Jinghao. Jealousy blinded me, so I hated Du Jinghao very much.

"She knows all these things, but she didn't say a word about it to me.

"The first time she contacted me was because she had made many mistakes in her fight against Su Bei. She was in a bad mood and complained a lot to me.

"That day, I went to Su Bei's event venue to make things difficult for her. If any fans were injured at her event, no matter how Su Bei defended herself, the outside world would still blame her.

“However, I didn’t expect Tang Yue to tell me not to do anything irrational at the critical moment and not to cause trouble at Su Bei’s event.

“I listened to her advice. After all, I was also afraid of Su Bei’s bodyguards. However, it was Tang Yue who told me that she was with Du Jinghao. It triggered me, and I lost my mind. I found Du Jinghao in the crowd and injured his leg.”

These were things that this person had never said in the previous interrogation sessions. He had previously insisted that he was Su Bei’s fan, which was why Ou Huanwei hated Su Bei so much.

Now that she heard this, she looked skeptically at Tang Yue.

Although Tang Yue was crazy, she was unwilling to make more enemies. “I don’t know about this. I don’t know at all. Su Bei’s fans are trying to come up with an excuse for her. Are they going to implicate me?”

Ou Huanwei would rather believe Tang Yue. “Su Bei, this is all one-sided. Why didn’t he say these things before and only now?”

“Why? Then let him answer for himself!”

Su Bei clicked on the video and the same man was heard saying, “Because I always believed that Tang Yue had feelings for me. I didn’t want to cause her trouble and was unwilling to say these things before, Besides, she really didn’t encourage me to do anything.

“But now, I know that she and Du Jinghao are about to get married. When I found out, I knew that I had no hope at all. It turned out that I had never had any hope. She had never seriously considered me.

“Therefore, why can’t I tell the truth now? It’s what it should be. Anyway, I was the one who injured Du Jinghao. I don’t regret this! I almost injured him when I was driving previously. I only hate that I didn’t kill him previously.

“However, it’s fortunate that I didn’t kill him. I think even if Du Jinghao died, Tang Yue wouldn’t look me in the eye, right?”

After the video finished playing, Su Bei put away her phone and put it in her bag. She said calmly, “Mrs. Du, you’re a smart person. I’m sure you don’t believe everything I and this person said. But it’s not difficult to find out if this person is related to Tang Yue, right?”

Ou Huanwei finally believed her.

She had never suspected Tang Yue before, so there was nothing to investigate.

However, once she became suspicious and her intelligence returned, she could guess the basics when she connected everything together.

Her body was trembling. It turned out that this fanatical admirer of Tang Yue had made plans to kill Du Jinghao.

No wonder Du Jinghao almost got into a car accident a few times. If she checked the surveillance video of the accident scene now, she would probably be able to tell if the person had really targeted Du Jinghao!

She glared at Tang Yue. “Tang Yue, you know this person. You also knew that he wanted to hit Jinghao with his car previously, right? You clearly knew that this person intended to hurt Du Jinghao and had a criminal record. Not only did you not tell us, but you also didn’t remind Jinghao. You even deliberately let them appear on the same occasion when Jinghao’s life was under threat. What are your intentions?”

Du Guoshou couldn’t help but rush forward and slap Tang Yue a few times.

Tang Yue’s face was swollen from the slaps. She reached out to touch her face. Tang Jianming did not go forward to help. Lin Shulian’s legs were not good, so she could only watch helplessly.

Du Jinghao looked at Tang Yue with resentment. He originally thought that it was just an accident, but who knew that Tang Yue already knew about such a risk...

“Tang Yue, do you have a heart?” Ou Huanwei cried and accused. “I trusted you so much before and listened to you. I sincerely hoped that you would marry into the Du family. Is this how you repay us? Did you want Jinghao’s leg to be broken, just like your mother? Do you want him to rely on you alone in the future and never leave you?”

As soon as she said this, Du Guoshou and Du Jinghao recalled what Tang Yue had said to Lin Shulian just now. A chill flashed through their bodies, and even their hearts turned cold.

If these thoughts had always existed in Tang Yue’s heart, then although Tang Yue did not directly do anything to Du Jinghao’s leg that night, she was not completely innocent either!

Tang Yue slowly raised her eyes, which were filled with malice, resentment, and indignation. She said, “Now that things have come to this, I have nothing to say. Anyway, none of you stand on my side. All of you only care about Su Bei and never take me seriously. Unfortunately, the person taking care of you when you’re lying in the hospital bed will always be me, not Su Bei!”

Chapter 1409: Regret

Ou Huanwei was so angry that she wanted to tear Tang Yue apart. “You b*tch! It’s all my fault for being blind and liking you! Jing Hao and I have never been disloyal to you. We’ve never done anything to let you down! You’re ambitious and crazy. How could you do such a thing?!”

“Ha, you were never disloyal to me? You didn’t do anything to let me down? Who was the one whose eyes froze and who couldn’t walk anymore the moment they laid eyes on Su Bei? Who was the one who only took a fancy to the title of the Tang family’s daughter? Do you think I don’t know your real thoughts?” Tang Yue shouted uncontrollably.

Du Jinghao did not participate in their argument. He lowered his head with a cold expression and did not speak.

Perhaps Tang Yue was right. He only chose her because he had never forgotten the beautiful figure he had seen.

Ou Huanwei really regretted it. It was a pity that the person her son had taken a fancy to back then was Su Bei. She felt that Su Bei was not good enough and could not compare to Tang Yue, so she tried her best to matchmake Tang Yue and her son.

After the kidney donation incident, Du Jinghao suggested breaking off the engagement. She was the one who salvaged the situation and forced her son not to break off the engagement.

All of this caused the current situation!

She had mistaken Tang Yue's shamelessness for kindness!

Ou Huanwei was heartbroken and regretful! She looked at Su Bei, who was obviously different from Tang Yue, the woman who had lost her mind and given up!

She had carefully made her choice, but she only ended up causing trouble!

Su Bei narrowed her eyes and refused to look at this scene. All of this had nothing to do with her. She had never taken the initiative to provoke anyone, but if someone insisted on taking advantage of her, she would not hesitate to return the favor!

"Shut up!" Old Master Tang shouted and stopped everyone.

After all, Ou Huanwei did not dare to offend the old man, so she could only stop.

Old Master Tang was also mentally and physically exhausted. "I didn't do my job well as an elder and caused you so much trouble. The Tang family will definitely give the Du family an explanation! You can go back first! I guarantee this with my reputation."

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei knew that this was the only way.

But even if they got an explanation or a huge amount of compensation, so what?

Their son's legs would be disabled forever!

They could only reluctantly leave first. Among them, Ou Huanwei was the most devastated. When she went out, she staggered.

Du Jinghao glanced at Su Bei and saw that her beautiful face was full of confidence. He knew that he shouldn't care about all this. Su Bei naturally had her ways. No one could bully her here.

After the Du family left, only Lin Shulian's desperate cries could be heard in the ward.

Tang Yue sat on her knees, limp as mud. Everything was over for her.

Not just her career, but her image in the minds of her entire family, their love, and everything else.

Her reputation was ruined. She had lost everything.

Why?! She had tried so hard to hold on to everything, but everything was blown away with the wind!

"Su Bei, it's been hard on you. Everything has been made clear now. I apologize on behalf of Tang Yue." Old Master Tang's face was filled with wrinkles, and he looked abnormally old.

Su Bei held him. "Grandpa, you're not the one at fault. You don't have to do this."

"Then go home first. I'll discipline Tang Yue well and give you an explanation after this."

Su Bei shook her head slightly and said, "I still have something to settle."

“What else is there?” Old Master Tang asked reluctantly.

Tang Yue stared at her with red, venomous eyes. Her voice was hoarse and unpleasant. “Why? You’ve chased me out of the Tang family. Now, you’re here to cause trouble and replace me?”

“No, this has nothing to do with you.” Su Bei didn’t even look at Tang Yue.

Old Master Tang and Lin Shulian were surprised.

Su Bei slowly walked toward Lin Shulian and said, “Mrs. Tang, I have a few questions for you.”

Although Su Bei was not very close to Lin Shulian, she still respected her. Now that she was addressing her like this, Lin Shulian was very surprised. She raised her tired eyes and looked at Su Bei strangely.

“Lin Shulian, when you and Lin Xiruo gave birth, what happened to your child?” Su Bei asked directly.

Old Master Tang and Tang Jianming were both stunned. What kind of question was Su Bei suddenly asking?

Lin Shulian’s eyes flickered. She was obviously trying to avoid Su Bei’s gaze.

Su Bei’s gaze was too sharp and cold at this moment. There was not much emotion in it, but it was shocking. Lin Shulian could not avoid it at all.

“Why aren’t you answering me? Where’s your child?” Su Bei asked directly again.

“My child... I brought my child home. But Tang Yue lost her. You all know about this.”

“The child you carried home and lost... Was it really your own child?”

Lin Shulian’s eyes became even more flustered. “Su Bei, what are you talking about? I don’t understand anything. Besides, this is all from a long time ago. How old were you then? What do you know?”

“Since you’ve forgotten or lost your memory and don’t know much about what happened back then, let me tell you.” Su Bei’s cold voice echoed throughout the ward.

Lin Shulian subconsciously lowered her head.

“Back then, you didn’t have a good relationship with the Lin family. However, because you took care of Old Master Lin for several years, Lin Xiruo’s impression of you changed. She felt that you were just burdened by your mother’s identity and had a good nature. Therefore, she chose to get along well with you and the two of you even gave birth together.

“However, there was a huge problem with the child you gave birth to. You discovered this earlier than the doctor, so you took your child to the nursery and swapped it with Lin Xiruo’s child. Your child died in Lin Xiruo’s arms, while you took Lin Xiruo’s child away and brought her home. When the child was almost two years old, Tang Yue brought her out and abandoned her.”

When Tang Jianming heard this, he asked in confusion, “Shulian, is what Su Bei said true? Why did you take Lin Xiruo’s child away? Was it so that... you could get more inheritance?”

It was no wonder that Tang Jianming believed Su Bei's words immediately. It was because from the moment Su Bei entered the house today, every word and sentence she said contained flawless logic. Everything she said was proven to be true in the end.

Chapter 1410: He Jiang and Lin Xiruo's Daughter

Moreover, many things didn't make sense. If what Su Bei said was true, it would confirm a lot of things that didn't make sense before.

Lin Shulian lowered her head, then raised her eyes firmly. "How can that be? Su Bei, you're too good at joking. Why would I do such a thing?"

"No? Then why am I Lin Xiruo's daughter? Can you explain this?"

"You're Lin Xiruo's daughter?" Tang Jianming looked at Su Bei in surprise. "You're He Jiang and Lin Xiruo's daughter?"

"Are you surprised? The photo in my hand when I was young is clearly identical to the photo of the little girl in your house, but I'm not your daughter. I'm Lin Xiruo and He Jiang's daughter. I spent time in your house from when I was a baby to when I was nearly two years old, but my bloodline doesn't match yours. If this isn't your doing, Lin Shulian, who else could be the one responsible for it?"

Lin Shulian defended herself anxiously. "No, no, Hubby, believe me..."

Su Bei watched her coldly. "When you acknowledged me before, you were very agitated, but you usually don't have any mother-daughter feelings for me. I always thought that it was just because we never lived together, so there were no feelings. Now, these things are very easy to explain."

"Su Bei, I really didn't know about this. If there was such a mistake, it could have been caused by the nurse. She might've accidentally swapped the babies. Why do you insist that I'm the one who did it?" Lin Shulian was on the verge of tears and tried to explain weakly.

"Because you've always known that I don't have your bloodline. When you acknowledged me and brought me home, you deliberately avoided checking my DNA and insisted that I was your daughter. When Tang Yue tricked me into donating my kidney, you would rather distance yourself from her and persuade her not to have me donate my kidney. All of this is because you already knew in your heart that I'm not your biological daughter!" Su Bei pointed out.

Lin Shulian cried, "I just felt sorry for you..."

"No, you don't feel too sorry for me. You probably just want another child to fight for Old Master Lin's inheritance."

"No, that's not true. I really didn't..."

Tang Jianming's mind was a mess as he looked at Lin Shulian indifferently.

Old Master Tang was also shocked by this sudden news. He frowned and listened to Su Bei.

Su Bei's tone was filled with helplessness. "At that time, we also suspected that the nurse or doctor had made a mistake, so we searched the hospital where you and Lin Xiruo gave birth back then. We didn't miss any clues and asked everyone repeatedly. Finally, we found a clue."

As she finished speaking, footsteps sounded outside the door. Her bodyguard entered with a middle-aged woman in her 60s.

The woman was already a little old. When she saw Lin Shulian, her eyes suddenly looked like she had seen a familiar person. She said, "Mrs. Tang, do you remember me?"

"Who are you? I don't remember you! No, I don't know you. I don't know you at all!" Lin Shulian shook her head and said loudly.

"But I remember you," the woman said bitterly. "Even though it's been over 20 years since the incident, I still remember you. You're still so young and have taken good care of yourself, but do you remember that child of yours?"

"What on earth are you talking about? I don't know you. Don't talk nonsense!"

Old Master Tang stopped Lin Shulian and said to that person, "What exactly happened? Tell me!"

"More than 20 years ago, I was a nurse in a hospital. At that time, I was in charge of taking care of Mrs. Tang. On the night Mrs. Tang gave birth, I was taking care of her all around the clock. That night, after the child was born, Mrs. Tang was carrying her. After midnight, I realized that something was wrong with the child and wanted to report it to the doctor. It seemed that the child's condition was very serious and dangerous.

"However, at that time, Mrs. Tang refused. She gave me a sum of money and said that since the child had such a big problem, it was better to leave it at that so that the child would not suffer if he could not be cured. She hoped that I wouldn't tell anyone. She also said that I didn't have to continue to take care of her.

"At that time, the sum of money she offered was really a lot. It was enough for me to live comfortably. I took the money and thought about the child's condition. It wasn't my business if the child's parents chose not to treat the child.

"I was afraid that she would go back on her word, and I was even more afraid that she would take back the money, so I left that night.

"However, within two days, I heard that Mrs. Tang's child was fine. On the other hand, Lin Xiruo's child, who was delivered on that same night, had died of a very serious illness. The symptoms of that illness happened to be the symptoms of Mrs. Tang's child.

"I was terrified. After all, I had to take responsibility for this. I didn't know what was going on internally, so I didn't dare ask or say anything.

"However, there was a clear thought in my heart. I knew that Mrs. Tang might have done something to swap her child with someone else's. However, without any evidence, who would believe me? Moreover, the Tang family was a rich and powerful family. I couldn't be sure and didn't dare to say anything.

“But when Lin Xiruo looked for me and asked about the situation back then, I chose to tell her what I knew. Perhaps my guess wasn’t completely correct, but I couldn’t continue to hide it.

“I’ll leave it to you to judge the truth.”

The woman told them everything she knew.

Old Master Tang and Tang Jianming were both shocked.

However, Lin Shulian refused to admit it. “You’re lying and blaming me for something I didn’t do. Because of my background, the Lin family doesn’t like me very much, so they arranged for you to push the crime on me! How can you do this? I lost my daughter! Why are you doing this to me?”

“I didn’t lie. I took care of you back then. As the nurse closest to you, I knew everything about you.”

“So you’re relying on that to convict me?” Lin Shulian asked.

The nurse kept shaking her head. “I’m just telling the truth. It’s not up to me to decide if you’ll be convicted of your crime or not. I wouldn’t dare say anything.”

At that moment, there was another knock on the door. A group of bodyguards escorted an old woman with white hair. She was accompanied by two people in their 50s. The man was tall and straight. The years had carved a few marks on his face, but they did not diminish his elegance. They made him look calm and reserved. Meanwhile, the woman was gentle and beautiful. She was calm and composed. She wore a long dress that made her look outstanding.

Lin Shulian’s gaze landed on the old woman. Her eyes darted around for a moment before she quickly looked away.
