

Chapter 171 The Plan Was Ruined

“Meng Meng!” Wei Lan’s secretary came over with a glass of juice. Seeing the scene, she was so frightened that she threw the juice in her hand and rushed over.

The people who were shooting in the other swimming pool heard the commotion, so they also came and gathered around.

Luo Li stepped back from the crowd in surprise. Her face turned as pale as a sheet.

She didn’t expect that someone would jump into the swimming pool to save Meng Meng first. She had no intention of hurting the little girl. After pushing Meng Meng into the swimming pool, her plan was to save the little girl, then she would take a picture of herself while doing it. In this way, she could show her kindness and make Wei Lan notice her. And to show gratitude, Wei Lan would not remove her photos in the magazine.

As a late bloomer in the entertainment industry, she didn’t have many chances to cultivate. If she didn’t seize all the opportunities, she would soon lag behind those young models like Su Bei.

However, before she could even finish her plan, someone suddenly appeared and ruined it.

Instead of saving Meng Meng, she had created such a big commotion.

Luo Li looked at the woman who saved Meng Meng, and her eyes widened in surprise. The woman who saved Meng Meng was exactly Su Bei.

Su Bei again!

Why did it always have to be Su Bei?

Did Su Bei see her push Meng Meng into the water just now?

Luo Li hid in the crowd in fear. What if Su Bei saw what she did?

Su Bei used professional first-aid methods on Meng Meng, so soon enough, the little girl coughed and spat out a mouthful of water. When she woke up, she burst into tears.

Su Bei hugged her and comforted her, “It’s okay, baby. Don’t worry. It’s okay.”

Wei Lan ran over, passed through the crowd, and rushed to Meng Meng. She took Meng Meng from Su Bei’s arms and cried, “Meng Meng! My baby!”

She was so anxious and aching that she didn’t know what to say. She just held her daughter tightly.

“Editor-in-Chief, you’d better take Meng Meng to the hospital to check if she’s all right,” Su Bei reminded.

Everyone heard the sound of the ambulance from the outside. It so happened that someone called an ambulance while Su Bei was reviving Meng Meng.

Wei Lan was also worried about Meng Meng. So when she heard what Su Bei said, she immediately picked Meng Meng up and left.

People around started whispering to each other, "Fortunately, Su Bei is here. Otherwise, the consequences will be unimaginable."

"If she was a little later, the little girl would really be in danger."

"Su Bei is not only beautiful but also kind-hearted. She will be blessed."

Wei Lan heard all these words. It was Su Bei who saved Meng Meng. So when Meng Meng was okay, she would come to Su Bei and thank her.

The secretary was so frightened that her face turned blue. She followed behind Wei Lan and said in a trembling voice, "I'm sorry, Editor-in-Chief. I just went to get a glass of juice for Meng Meng. I didn't expect that... I'm really sorry."

Right now, Wei Lan didn't have time to know who was held accountable for what happened. She just wanted to ensure her daughter's health first. When she regained her sanity, she said, "Go and get my bag! Take it to the hospital."

The secretary hurried away, hoping to make up for her mistake.

Lin Yu walked towards Su Bei. He wanted to hold her hands, but he couldn't do it in front of so many people. So he just looked at her and asked her with his eyes, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine." Su Bei shook her head. In her heart, she felt so sorry for Meng Meng. Although the little girl was not seriously injured, she knew that this incident was traumatic for her.

Everyone's heart was also fluttering with fear. Fortunately, Meng Meng was fine. If anything bad happened to her, they would also be inflicted.

Chapte172 A Hidden Trouble

Fortunately, an hour later, everyone received a message from Wei Lan that Meng Meng was fine. She was just frightened and needed to rest for a few days.

Everyone was relieved.

Luo Li breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the little girl was fine.

Otherwise, her own life would be ruined.

Although Su Huixian didn't see the scene of the accident, she guessed that it was because of Luo Li.

She took a look at Luo Li with disappointment. 'Luo Li is so stupid. She came up with such a bad idea in order to get more chances.'

Su Huixian had thought that her instigation would make Luo Li come up with some good ways to trap Su Bei, but she didn't expect that Luo Li would use such a bad plan.

What a loser!

“Let’s continue our shooting! Su Bei, you can have a rest. Thank you for your hard work just now.” Kang Peng ordered and became more polite to Su Bei. He admired her in his heart. She was really a brave and decisive girl.

What was more, her first aid skills were quite professional. Otherwise, Meng Meng wouldn’t have been saved so soon.

Su Bei smiled and said, “No, thanks. Let’s continue. Lin Yu is also here. So I don’t want to waste your time.”

Just now, she had to wait for Lin Yu, who was chatting with Wei Lan, so she had the spare time to wait aside.

It was also because of this that she saw the situation in the swimming pool over there and saved Meng Meng in time.

However, she didn’t see that it was Luo Li who did it.

Luo Li’s face had been deathly pale all the time. She had just set up a camera and tried to take a picture of herself saving people. However, she didn’t expect that she only took a picture of herself pushing Meng Meng, but didn’t take a picture of saving Meng Meng.

She didn’t dare to keep the pictures. After deleting all the pictures from the camera, she took out the memory card and put it into her wallet.

Although she deleted all the pictures from her own camera, she didn’t know if others had seen or photographed her pushing Meng Meng.

Did Su Bei see that? Did anyone else take the photos?

According to the on-site feedback, no one should have photographed it. After all, no one looked abnormal until now, and no one said anything.

But Su Bei was a hidden trouble.

“Luo Li, do you want to have a rest or fix your makeup?” Kang Peng found that Luo Li looked terrible and she was not in a good state.

“Oh, okay, okay.” Luo Li hurried to fix her makeup, but her heart beat fast.

An assistant photographer said, “Hey, look! I took a good photo!”

Everyone rushed forward to surround him. Luo Li was about to suffocate. Did he take a picture that she pushed Meng Meng? She regretted her stupidity—no good would come of it.

“Wow, it’s very good! Let’s upload this picture to publicize Su Bei!”

It was not until Luo Li calmed herself down that she realized that they had taken the scene of the moment when Su Bei rescued Meng Meng. At this moment, the scene was really expressive. With one hand holding the drowning Meng Meng, Su Bei raised the girl out of the water. Su Bei's face was not beautiful in the picture, and even her face was a little distorted because of pushing and worry.

But the distortion also showed that she was seriously saving people and had never thought about her image at this moment.

Chapter 173 Exposure!

Without thinking twice, the assistant photographer uploaded the photo, praising Su Bei in his caption. He said that she was the best and most beautiful supermodel.

When Luo Li heard this, she was finally relieved. It seemed that none of them had taken a picture when she pushed Meng Meng to the swimming pool. The assistant photographer had only taken a picture when Su Bei was saving Meng Meng.

It turned out that everything she did was for Su Bei. While she got nothing, Su Bei gained countless likes and praises on the Internet.

Now, she was still worried that Su Bei might have seen her crime and would expose her in the end?

If Su Bei called the police or told Wei Lan that she had deliberately pushed Meng Meng, her reputation would be ruined.

Luo Li trembled all over. The consequences of her faulty plan were too much for her to think.

Her only way out now was to put all the blame on Su Bei.

Yes, she must find a way to do it. This was her only chance to turn the tables.

After thinking about it, Luo Li immediately contacted a Weibo marketing account and told them that she had big news.

Of course, the marketing account would never refuse such an opportunity. They accepted her news source.

Soon, the Weibo account released an article. "Exposure! To gain popularity, a supermodel staged an event of her saving a child and received tens of thousands of likes and compliments."

The picture attached to the article showed that Su Bei was holding Meng Meng in her hands. It was well photographed and very expressive. It looked so perfect that it seemed to be engineered.

The one who posted the photo highlighted all the details, trying to prove that the scene was definitely not captured candidly. It must have been done by Su Bei deliberately.

What was more, it seemed all too coincidental. How could there be a child in the shooting location? And why did the child fall into the water?

Besides, why was there only Su Bei at the scene? Where were the others?

Why did Su Bei happen to rescue the child? What were so many staff members doing there?

Unless this photo was taken on purpose, it was impossible to answer this series of questions.

Strange things were often the easiest to ferment. Besides, the article was written in a style that told a very engaging story. Soon, this sensational news spread quicker than the previous news about Su Bei saving the child.

The netizens were most interested in sensational news. Thus, they immediately shared the article crazily, mocking the supermodel. She had just become popular, but she soon had such big negative news.

The public ridiculed and questioned Su Bei harshly.

“She’s so unscrupulous. It seems that she will do anything for the sake of fame.”

“I think this Su Bei is pretty, but she has a bad heart. People say that you can never really know someone. I think it’s right.”

“How can Su Bei do this to a little child? Is she a reincarnation of a wicked witch?”

“I don’t want to see such a shameful artist appear in the public eye again. I suggest that people in the industry collectively resist such artists who harm children.”

Su Bei’s fans tried their best to speak for her, but their power was still very weak. They were far from being able to control such a sudden incident.

They tried their best to explain, but their words were only drowned in the curses of a large number of netizens.

Seeing the situation, Luo Li felt lucky that she had made the first move. While Su Bei was shooting, she had manipulated the public opinion.

After this, it would be difficult for Su Bei to put the blame on her. Not to mention that Su Bei had no evidence, who would believe Su Bei’s words?

Chapter 174 An Inferior Artist

Luo Li breathed a sigh of relief and thought to herself, ‘At that time, everyone would think that Su Bei just wants to clear her suspicion, so she casually accuses me. No one will believe her.’

After shooting, Su Huixian received the scandal soon.

Qiu Minxuan stood beside her and said, “Huixian, look at Su Bei. She is really a troublemaker. But what she does will eventually backfire. She could do anything for the sake of fame, but she would never end well.”

Su Huixian nodded gently with a very gentle smile on her face. It seemed that Su Bei was not able to clarify the matter. So Su Bei might not be able to be on the cover of Feng Shang this time.

Not to mention that Feng Shang didn’t like to hire inferior artists, if Su Bei really pushed the daughter of the editor in chief of Feng Shang into the water, Su Bei would lose all the trust of Wei Lan!

Su Huixian looked in the direction of Su Bei. Su Bei just finished the shooting. When Su Bei saw the news, she frowned tightly.

She didn't know that the assistant photographer had posted the photo of her saving people, nor did she know what had happened. What an unexpected affliction!

She didn't know anything about it, but she got a negative title in the shocking news.

The assistant photographer ran to Su Bei and said apologetically, "Su Bei, it was me who posted your photo, but I really didn't know what happened later. I'm sorry to cause you so much trouble."

"Did you take other photos?" Su Bei asked.

"Mr. Kang asked me to follow you and take some hidden scenes for you. So when the accident happened, I caught the picture of you saving people, but I didn't take any other photos." The assistant photographer said with guilt.

Because his attention was on Su Bei, he really didn't see anything else.

Su Bei knew that it must be the people in the studio who did it.

Today, journalists and paparazzi didn't come to the studio to take pictures. Everyone stayed in the studio for the shooting, and they even ordered takeout for lunch. If the marketing account could make such a big news and throw mud to her so quickly, it must have something to do with the people here!

No matter who it was, Su Bei must find the person out!

She turned to look at Su Huixian, who was looking at her with a relaxed and proud smile on her face. It seemed that Su Huixian and Su Bei were still good sisters.

It was not Su Huixian. At least, Su Huixian didn't do it in person. Su Bei remembered that when the accident happened, Su Huixian was shooting.

She then looked at Luo Li. She remembered that Luo Li was near Meng Meng when the accident happened.

"Su Bei, come to my office with me!" Wei Lan's voice came from behind, with an unpredictable serious expression on her face.

Turning around, Su Bei picked up a bath towel and wrapped it around her body. Then she went to Wei Lan's office.

Wei Lan sat down on the chair and said lightly, "Su Bei, what on earth have you done? I want to hear the truth!"

"Editor in chief, I did nothing but save Meng Meng." There was no sign of evasion in Su Bei's eyes.

"Meng Meng told me that she felt someone pushed her. Although she is just a child, I believe that she won't lie. Su Bei, tell me the truth now. I can give you another chance. Otherwise, I will call the police..." Wei Lan felt sorry for her daughter. She was also infuriated by the news on the Internet.

Chapter 175 Must Have Hidden Motives

At this moment, Wei Lan restrained her anger. She intended to be lenient and gave Su Bei a chance to confess for Lin Yu's sake.

She couldn't help but regret that she gave up the opportunity to take a vacation today and went to work. As a result, her daughter had an accident. If something bad happened to Meng Meng, she would regret it for the rest of her life.

Wei Lan looked at Su Bei coldly. If Su Bei was really guilty of the crime, she would make sure that Su Bei would never appear in the entertainment industry in the future, let alone make it to the front cover of Feng Shang.

Su Bei met Wei Lan's gaze. "Editor-in-chief, I understand how you feel. If something happens to the children, mothers would inevitably be so worried that it can mess up their thinking and judgment. But please, think about it. I've already been chosen to be on the front cover of Feng Shang. Besides, my partner is Lin Yu. It can be said that I'm the biggest winner in the entire studio. Do I have to do some tricks like hurting Meng Meng to get your gratitude and the public's attention?"

Wei Lan had become Feng Shang's editor-in-chief, so obviously, she was a smart woman.

As soon as she heard what Su Bei said, she suddenly became sober. Everyone had hidden motives for doing something. People might do bad things for their own gain. So what exactly did Su Bei have to achieve in doing this?

This time, Wei Lan's tone was not as cold as before, but she was still a little blunt when she said, "But still, this happened because of you. Su Bei, if someone hurt Meng Meng because that person wanted to frame you, you can't avoid the responsibility."

"Editor-in-chief, I've noticed that there are no surveillance cameras in the studio. This allowed someone to take advantage of it. When the accident happened, everyone was busy shooting, so no one paid attention to Meng Meng. But I remember that when Meng Meng had an accident, Luo Li was nearby, and a camera was set up not far away. Editor-in-chief, can we also ask Luo Li some questions?" Su Bei had already figured out the situation at the scene.

Her calmness was so contagious that it also made Wei Lan calm down. No matter what, Wei Lan had to find the culprit to get justice for her daughter.

"Okay, I'll ask Luo Li to come here." Wei Lan made the decision promptly.

She had no intention of calling the police yet. Although she subconsciously thought that Su Bei was still suspicious, she wanted to give Su Bei a chance for the sake of Lin Yu.

Of course, Su Bei was also aware of this. She knew that Lin Yu had been a big help for her, and even Wei Lan's tolerance was because of him.

'Lin Stone really deserves two hotpots,' she thought.

Before Luo Li came in, she tried her best to calm down. She couldn't show panic on her face.

Concealing her guilt, she asked, "Editor-in-chief, how is Meng Meng now?"

"Luo Li, you were there when the accident happened. What did you see?" Wei Lan cut to the chase.

"I... I didn't see anything. I was also shocked because it happened so suddenly." Actually, Luo Li wanted to say that she saw it with her own eyes when Su Bei pushed Meng Meng to the swimming pool. But if she said that, she would make too many lies. She didn't dare to continue making more mistakes because she was afraid that she couldn't rationalize her dishonesty anymore. So she simply chose to play dumb.

She thought that her reaction now could increase suspicions on Su Bei.

Wei Lan said lightly, "Then give me the memory card of your camera. Maybe it captured something, right?"

"I think my camera was not turned on at that time. But I can give you the memory card. Maybe you can find some clues." Luo Li quickly took out the memory card from her wallet and handed it to Wei Lan decisively.

The more straightforward she behaved, the less suspicious she would be.

Anyway, she had deleted all the contents of the memory card and formatted it. She even scratched it severely with the key just now.

Chapter176 What She Could Get Was Not Justice

Luo Li believed that it was impossible to restore the photos in this memory card, no matter how skilled the technician was.

So she put on a very relaxed smile and glanced out of the corner of her eye at Su Bei. The expression on her face seemed to be pronouncing Su Bei's complete failure.

Actually, she didn't have to deny that she had turned on the camera. There was no evidence to prove what she did, so Su Bei would always be the biggest suspect.

And Su Bei would also become a female artist mocked by the netizens.

Perhaps, today, she would witness the beginning of everyone's resistance to Su Bei.

"Well, you can go out first. I will let you know if there is any news," Wei Lan said after taking the memory card from Luo Li.

Luo Li glanced at Su Bei again before she turned around and walked out of the office. She thought that Su Bei couldn't appear on the front cover anymore because Wei Lan had suspected her.

She knew that she also couldn't appear on the front cover. But unlike Su Bei, at least, she could be featured on the inside pages.

Wei Lan checked the content of the memory card, but it was empty.

She immediately asked an elite from Feng Shang's technical department to come over and check if there was anything on the memory card.

It was difficult for her to believe Su Bei, but she never believed Luo Li either. She had been working in this industry for many years, and she learned to only believe in evidence.

Su Bei admired Wei Lan's character very much. Only a woman like Wei Lan, who knew how to deal with work rationally, could stay in this position for a long time.

Being emotional could only work on family matters, not on major issues at work.

She especially admired Wei Lan's love and care for Meng Meng. After such a big accident, many people would think that the little girl was just being delusional. But Wei Lan firmly believed in what Meng Meng said.

A mother like Wei Lan reminded Su Bei of her own mother. Her mother always believed in her unconditionally and loved her just like the way Wei Lan did to Meng Meng at the moment.

But the best mother in the world for her was no longer there. Reminiscing the past made her eyes suddenly become moist.

Wei Lan glanced at her and asked, "Do you feel guilty?"

"No." Trying to hold back her tears, Su Bei raised her head. She would never tell anyone about her family.

It seemed that she could only reveal her true feelings naturally in front of Lu Heting. And only in front of him could she reveal her deep desire for trust.

The elite technician stood up and said in a low voice, "Editor-in-chief, I'm sorry. It seems that this memory card has been scratched by a key. I have no idea what photos have been here, and I can't restore them."

"Okay, you can go out now." Wei Lan pinched her glabella. Was that all?

Su Bei also frowned. "The memory card has been scratched by a key?"

Actually, Wei Lan had started to side with Su Bei. The memory card that Luo Li gave her had too many problems. What on earth caused these problems?

However, if she imposed this matter on Luo Li without any evidence, what Su Bei could get was not justice but favor.

All of a sudden, Su Bei thought of someone. She said, "Editor-in-chief, if you don't mind, I know a very powerful elite. I can ask him to fix the memory card."

The person she had in mind was Da Bao. She didn't know if he could do it, but he was Feng Ze's student. Both Feng Ze and Lin Yu had already told her that he had a super talent and outstanding ability.

It was just that she didn't know much about technology, so she couldn't estimate his real strength.

Chapter 177 You Can Never Really Know Someone

"Su Bei, since this matter has nothing to do with you, I'd better call the police. Maybe they can fix this," Wei Lan said. But she wasn't sure if it was really the right thing to do.

They didn't have any evidence, so it would definitely take a long time to solve this issue. The police would have to spend a lot of time and energy dealing with it.

"Editor-in-chief, if you are worried that we might lose or tamper the memory card, I can guarantee on Su Bei's behalf." They heard Lin Yu's voice from the door.

He saw Luo Li went in and out. Then he also saw the technician from Feng Shang's technical department came in, so he guessed the general situation and knew what the problem was.

As Lin Yu walked in, he looked so tall and handsome, and his face was flawless. When he spoke softly, it was hard for others to refuse such a stunning beauty.

He smiled and said, "I also know that elite friend of Su Bei. You might as well let him try. If he can really recover the content of the memory card, you won't only give justice to Su Bei but also to Meng Meng."

Su Bei looked at Lin Yu, her true best friend, and thought, 'Lin Stone really deserves three hotpots.'

Wei Lan weighed the pros and cons for a long time before she finally agreed. She really wanted to give her daughter justice and find out who was the black sheep in the studio.

Such a person definitely didn't deserve to appear in their magazine.

Lin Yu walked towards Su Bei and said, "I just called Lin Moli to bring Da Bao here. I'll take the memory card out and give it to him. Just wait here."

"Okay," Su Bei agreed with a nod.

Actually, she also wanted to see how capable Da Bao was.

She believed that her son could do it.

Lin Yu took the memory card and walked out of the office. At this moment, all the people in the studio were either focused on their work or discussing Su Bei's matter. For the time being, no one was paying attention to him.

"Oh no! They said they loved me, and they wanted to be my children's mothers. But just a gossip has easily distracted their attention." Lin Yu sighed. His handsome face looked melancholic. "People say that you can never really know someone. I think it is right."

As soon as he walked out, Lin Moli opened the car door for him.

Da Bao sat in the back seat indifferently. He took the memory card from Lin Yu's hand and started the computer skillfully.

'Who has dared to frame Xiao Bei?' Da Bao thought to himself. As his fingers moved quickly on the keyboard, he was already cursing that person in his mind.

Who dared to bully Su Bei? That person must pay for what he or she had done.

Two minutes later, Lin Yu's phone rang, and a video was sent to his WeChat.

"Da Bao! You are really worthy of being Feng Ze's student!" Lin Yu's smooth jade-like face showed a proud look. "I'll treat you to hotpot ten times."

Ten hotpots? Da Bao glanced at him. "I don't like hotpot. It's your favorite, not mine."

Da Bao always had a light diet. Probably he had been following Lu Heting, although he had never met him.

It was okay for him to eat something spicy with Lin Yu and Su Bei occasionally. But he definitely couldn't have ten hotpots.

"Okay. But still, I'll treat you to a meal. You can choose whatever you want to eat. I'm going to find Su Bei first. She has received a lot of criticisms and negative comments. I have to save her."

Da Bao nodded and browsed the news on the webpage. Sure enough, the netizens were all deceived by someone. They were all accusing Su Bei.

He knew that Su Bei would never do those things, and she would definitely clear her name.

Chapter 178 Her Face Is As Beautiful as a Flower, but Her Heart Is As Vicious as a Snake

In the comment section, Da Bao saw a comment from a netizen named Bei Ke 001, "Su Bei is a kind and good woman. She won't do such a thing. I trust her."

Because this netizen didn't have any followers and had never posted a comment before, not many people liked his comment. Da Bao thought for a while, then pressed the like button for his righteous comment.

Lu Heting was on his way to the city.

In the afternoon, there was an important matter that he needed to deal with in the suburb. It was only at this moment that he discovered the scandal about Su Bei that already went viral.

He quickly typed in some words in the comment section to show support to Su Bei. Then he finished his work quickly and drove towards the studio in a rush.

However, the distance was too long, and the road was congested. Even if he changed his car into a motorcycle and tried to squeeze in between countless blocked cars, he still couldn't be there for Su Bei immediately.

When he called Su Bei, she told him that she was already dealing with it. The two of them were both in a hurry, so they didn't talk much.

Lin Yu pushed the door of the office open and walked in. Wei Lan looked very calm.

"It was recovered," he said, handing his phone over to her.

Su Bei had received the video from Da Bao and had already shown it to Wei Lan.

After watching it, Wei Lan calmed down again. Perhaps she knew what to do after knowing the truth. That was why she wasn't as angry and flustered as before.

"Let's go out together," she said to Su Bei with a trace of apology in her eyes.

Wei Lan, Su Bei, and Lin Yu walked into the studio. At this moment, everyone stopped working upon seeing them.

With a stern and indifferent look on her face, Wei Lan walked in front of everyone.

Since Su Bei had just finished shooting, she was only wrapped in a bath towel, and her hair was in disarray. Now that she followed behind Wei Lan, she looked a little embarrassed.

Because she thought of her mother just now and marveled at Da Bao's ability, she was a bit emotional. Her eyes were still red and even wet. It was as if she had cried after being scolded.

Lin Yu stood next to Su Bei. His handsome jade-like face was expressionless.

The crowd started whispering to each other. "It seems that the photo was really taken on purpose. What a vicious woman! How could she do such a thing?"

"Meng Meng is so cute. How could she have the heart to hurt the little girl?"

"Her face is as beautiful as a flower, but her heart is as vicious as a snake. That's Su Bei's true nature. She's horrible. I don't want to work with someone like her."

Luo Li felt relieved. She guessed that Wei Lan didn't find anything in her memory card and still suspected Su Bei just like the netizens on the Internet.

She could totally get rid of any suspicion now.

Su Huixian was also secretly pleased. She thought inwardly, 'Although Luo Li did something stupid, the result was a miracle. Su Bei couldn't turn the tables now.'

Standing in front of everyone, Wei Lan said lightly, "I'm sure everyone has known what happened today. I want to say something solemnly here.

Feng Shang is one of the most famous magazines in the country. What are the standards in choosing its partners? First, moral quality, and second, fame. What we hope to bring to our readers is positive energy, not false glitz.

Chapter179 Who the Hell Is the Evildoer?

Feng Shang welcomes any capable partners but refuses people who have evil intentions, especially a person who can use a little child as a tool to achieve her goal.

I want to let all of you know that I have already called the police. The evildoer will be severely punished by the law. Her name will also be permanently removed from Feng Shang."

Upon hearing Wei Lan's loud voice, everyone looked at Su Bei and shook their heads. They thought that she deserved such a punishment. No one would sympathize with a person like her.

Except for her beautiful face, her other attributes were not presentable.

Qiu Minxuan held Su Huixian's hand and said, "Congratulations, Huixian. Once the police take Su Bei away, you will be worthy of the title as a cover girl. You might even become Lin Yu's partner."

"Okay. If Feng Shang really allows me to be with Lin Yu on the front cover, please communicate with Zhuang Wenhao in case he feels down," Su Huixian said gently.

'Zhuang Wenhao, I'm really sorry this time. I can only make you stay on the back cover. I can't accompany you anymore,' she thought inwardly.

Qiu Minxuan nodded. The trace of excitement was apparent on her face.

However, Luo Li was a little surprised. Had Wei Lan really confirmed that it was Su Bei who committed the crime? How did she confirm it?

Luo Li had already inquired about the memory card. The elite technicians in the technical department were not able to restore its content. So she was sure that she wouldn't be implicated. She just didn't know why Su Bei was convicted.

Anyway, she didn't need to care as long as it had nothing to do with her.

Finally, everything was settled.

"Editor-in-chief, who the hell is the evildoer?" someone from the crowd who remained conscious and was not too tainted by the gossip asked loudly.

"The police have already arrived. See for yourself," Wei Lan said.

She did this on purpose to let everyone be vigilant. In Feng Shang, everyone must comply with professional and life ethics.

As soon as she finished speaking, the police came in.

Everyone thought it was unnecessary for that person to ask the question. Obviously, it was Su Bei who did it. What was the use of asking?

Judging from Su Bei's expression, they knew that she had something to do with it.

It was just a pity that such a beautiful face and long legs were all destroyed by her vicious heart. She was like a rotten apple. No matter how beautiful she looked, she couldn't resist the stench of her rotting bones.

Everyone watched the police walked in and approach——

They walked up to Luo Li and said, "Luo Li, you are suspected of murder, spreading rumors, and other crimes. Please come with us for interrogation and investigation."

Luo Li's eyes widened in surprise. She was dumbfounded for a moment. "No, it's not me. It's Su Bei! Why me? I didn't do anything. It was all Su Bei's fault. She's over there. You must have made a mistake. Go and catch her."

"Luo Li, please calm down. Just come with us. We are taking you away in accordance with the law. Please cooperate." The police were only doing their job, but they couldn't help feeling disgusted with Luo Li. Naturally, righteous policemen wouldn't treat a woman who could even hurt a little child for her own good nicely.

The crowd was in an uproar. "What? It's Luo Li? How can it be? It's supposed to be Su Bei, right? What is going on?"

Chapter 180 Does More Harm than Good

Su Huixian was also surprised. "How could it be Luo Li?"

She had witnessed how confident Luo Li was in winning. That was why she had no doubt that Luo Li would win this time.

But the reality slapped her hard across the face. Luo Li was defeated!

Wei Lan suddenly spoke again, "Everyone has a lot of doubts. I know that you won't believe everything you are seeing now without solid evidence. So I will let you see how the evildoer did it."

She then pressed the button on her phone, and the video that Da Bao had restored appeared on the screen behind her.

Luo Li's eyes widened in shock. The video showed the scene she had recorded.

Her initial plan was to record herself saving Meng Meng. If she accidentally recorded the scene when she pushed Meng Meng into the swimming pool, she could have enough time to edit it since it was her own camera.

But what had happened was not what she had expected. The one who saved Meng Meng was not her but Su Bei.

If she hadn't been so greedy and didn't try to slander Su Bei, she wouldn't have exposed so many flaws and become suspicious.

But it was too late to regret now.

Although the video on the big screen was not very clear, how she used her evil hand in pushing Meng Meng's back was accurately recorded.

After Meng Meng fell into the water, she didn't immediately jump down to save the little girl. Obviously, she was waiting for the right time to adjust the angle of her entry into the water. In that case, she could take a more wonderful picture.

It seemed that she didn't care about the consequences even though Meng Meng was struggling in the water.

Su Bei, who was about to change her clothes in the distance, had keenly noticed that Meng Meng had fallen into the water. Regardless of her image, she rushed into the water and lifted Meng Meng up without any hesitation.

It was self-evident who intended to use the child to earn gratitude and fame.

However, Su Bei, the heroine who didn't hesitate to save the child, had gotten all the ridicule.

When the crowd saw the video in front of them, they all boiled with rage. They were angry not only because Luo Li was vicious, but she also played tricks on them. Everyone was used as a tool to hurt Su Bei.

Those harsh words were like sharp arrows that pierced through Su Bei's heart. No wonder she looked very aggrieved while standing beside Wei Lan.

It turned out that everyone was used by Luo Li to hurt the kind and innocent Su Bei.

Luo Li, who had nothing else to say, was taken away by the police. Her legs were so weak that she could not even walk. She was only dragged forward.

The expression on Su Huixian's face also changed. She had lost the chance to appear on the front cover and become Lin Yu's partner. 'Luo Li is such a fool! She always does more harm than good. But fortunately, everything has nothing to do with me.'

Except for a few provocative words that I've said to her, the rest was her own plan. So she has to shoulder the burden alone.'

Wei Lan walked up to Su Bei and said in a low voice, "Su Bei, I'm sorry. And thank you so much. I can't imagine what kind of harm Meng Meng would have suffered if it weren't for you. I am not a good mother."

"Editor-in-chief, I did what I was supposed to do, and so did you," Su Bei said with a smile. As a mother, she could understand how Wei Lan felt. Wei Lan only loved Meng Meng very much.
