

Chapter 301: Stolen Again?

As for Da Bao, he still had the tenderness of a child. He inevitably had some baby fat on him, and his eyes were not as sharp and clear as Lu Heting's.

But the expression and temperament of the child were very distinct. He was no different from Lu Heting.

Those who were not familiar with Lu Heting might not be able to tell, but Lu Weijian and Lu Heting could sense Da Bao's unique temperament at a glance.

"Brother, look! When did you do this?" Lu Weijian asked impolitely. How could his brother do such a thing to his sister-in-law? Was he not afraid that he would kneel on a durian?

"You can go out first," Lu Heting and Da Bao said at the same time.

Lu Weijian was stunned for a moment. One brother's aura was already powerful enough, let alone with two of them here. He quickly dodged the stifling scene and closed the door behind him.

However, he did not go far. He just squatted in front of the door, guarding the place to stop others from coming in.

In reality, he was just eavesdropping. This was his office. Who would come in?

Lu Heting narrowed his eyes slightly. What was wrong with this boy in front of him? He did not want an accident like Gun Gun to happen again.

The reason he had Gun Gun at that time was because his sperm was stolen after a physical examination in the hospital. He did not share any ambiguous relationship with another woman.

Had his sperm been stolen again?

Su Bei could accept Gun Gun, but that did not mean she would accept another child.

Lu Heting did not want to have another child that would pose a hurdle to their relationship.

Hence, Lu Heting asked coldly, "What's your name?"

It seemed that he was sure 'Da Bao' was just a nickname.

Sensing the hostility in his voice, Da Bao said calmly, "Why don't you tell me what's your name first?"

"My name is Lu Heting. Tell me, why did you attack our finance system? Did someone order you to do it?"

He also wanted to know why Da Bao approached Su Bei.

Da Bao shrugged. "I'm not interested in your finance system. I just wanted to know more about Lu Heting. I didn't find this name in your company's personnel system, so I started with the finance system."

Lu Heting was silent. As the person in charge of Lu Group and the person with the highest status in the company, his personal information naturally would not appear in the company's personnel system.

Besides, he was different from other entrepreneurs. He kept a low profile and rarely appeared in public. He let the outside world speculate about him while he rarely showed his face.

It was not surprising that very few people knew about him.

Even Su Bei, the daughter of the head of the Su family, thought that he was Lu Weijian's driver.

"You're very capable," Lu Heting commented objectively. At the child's age, he was already on par with him.

"Thank you. So you're the man I want to find." Da Bao looked him up and down.

The tall man in front of him did resemble him.

Lu Heting nodded and asked, "Do you understand now?"

"You look almost the same as what I imagined myself to look like when I grow up. I also know that judging from my genes, you won't be bad-looking either. And with my IQ, you shouldn't be stupid as well," Da Bao said confidently.

Chapter 302: Su Zhuoqian

It was the first time that Lu Heting was criticized like this. Da Bao's compliments did not make him feel good at all.

"But I want to know more about other things, such as your character and temperament. Well, from what I've seen, your relationship with Lu Weijian and the fact that you can easily come to the top floor of Lu Group means that you're still decent in other aspects. I've learned what I need to know," Da Bao said with a nod.

He was worried that Su Bei would not be able to find out the truth about Lu Heting, so he took the risk to personally look into him.

Who could have expected that the finance system of Lu Group would pose such a difficult hurdle?

Now that Da Bao was seeing Lu Heting face-to-face, the man earned extra brownie points in his heart.

After all, how could he harshly evaluate a person who looked exactly like him?

Lu Heting liked this smart child very much. However, if Da Bao also had the same background as Gun Gun, he might not be able to accept this child.

He bent over, looked into Da Bao's eyes, and said coldly, "Tell me your name and the person who told you to come here. Also, why did you approach Su Bei? Have you seen her in person?"

Da Bao raised his head and was calm when facing Lu Heting's serious gaze.

He said slowly, "My name is Su Zhuoqian, or you can call me Da Bao. Satisfied?"

His surname is Su? Lu Heting came to a realization, and if it was as if a guiding light was being shone on a dark path.

The answer popped up in his mind.

A hint of relief flashed across Lu Heting's face as he blurted out, "Are you Su Bei's son?"

This answer was far beyond Lu Heting's expectation. In the beginning, he had thought that Da Bao was just like Gun Gun, who had been snatched away without him knowing and raised by someone else.

However, some people, including himself, had sharp intuitions. Even if their minds were originally shrouded in thick fog, they only needed a small clue before they could connect the dots and get the answer.

"How do you know that?" Da Bao asked curiously. With just a few words and a name, this man accurately guessed it.

He knew very well that Su Bei had not told Lu Heting about his identity yet.

Da Bao's answer meant that he admitted to being Su Bei's son. Lu Heting did not know why he could be so certain of the answer. It was just a hunch he had.

It was because Da Bao looked so much like her, and his surname was Su.

In the five years she had been away, Su Bei had given birth to a son. She had given birth to their child.

It was no wonder Su Bei was trying so hard to find out if he had a new family and a woman he loved.

It turned out she had come back with her son!

That woman was so tight-lipped!

Lu Heting's obsidian eyes lit up. Su Bei had brought back a son.

This was the real reason why she came back. She wanted to reunite with the father of her child so that they could be a complete family.

His dark eyes widened, melting into a bright spring color.

Su Bei's child was his!

He quickly connected the dots. The child that Su Bei and Lin Yu had brought with them last time was Da Bao.

It was just that he had not seen Da Bao's face at the time. He was just making wild guesses then.

Afterward, when Da Bao was playing games, he used a voice changer. Lu Heting never thought that he would be a child.

Chapter 303: I Don't Like Being Kissed

When he pieced everything together, Lu Heting quickly understood what was going on.

Su Bei left five years ago and gave birth to Da Bao. This time, she came back with Da Bao to see him. However, due to various reasons, she had not revealed anything to him just yet.

No matter what, Su Bei had given birth to their child.

This thought overwhelmed Lu Heting's heart, making him so emotional that he could not say a word.

When he thought about how she had been suffering alone for the past five years, carrying their child and then raising him, he could not help but feel sorry for her.

Why had she not come back earlier?

Da Bao looked at Lu Heting who was like an ice sculpture when he came in earlier but was now grinning from ear to ear. He asked, "How did you know?"

After calming himself down, Lu Heting smiled. Looking at the child in front of him that belonged to Su Bei and him, he said in a low voice, "It was just my intuition. But there are many things that can prove it.

"Su Bei has been asking about my personal matters.

"You don't eat durians, do you? There are durians on the plate. You've been trying to endure the smell.

"Most importantly, you're right. You take after my appearance and intelligence, but you have the same scent as Su Bei."

Su Bei always had a faint fragrance on her. It was not the scent of any perfume, but her natural scent. And after getting close to Da Bao, Lu Heting realized that he had that scent as well.

A fleeting smile appeared on Da Bao's face. "Su Bei is very busy. She wants you to help her take care of me, even though I don't need it. Because of me, she wasted several years and wasn't able to pursue her dream.

"So, Lu Heting, let's reunite and let her focus on the career she's pursuing. "

Da Bao was as mature and steady as Lu Heting.

His love for Su Bei was exactly the same as Lu Heting's. He would support her and agree to do whatever she wanted. Besides protecting her, he would never burden her or disturb her.

Lu Heting reached out his hand to him.

Da Bao held his right hand tightly.

"Oh my God! He's really my sister-in-law's biological son! I'm so touched!" Tears welled up in Lu Weijian's eyes as he rushed in and hugged Da Bao, about to kiss him on the face.

Lu Heting quickly stopped him. He knew that his son did not like being kissed at all.

Besides, Lu Weijian was crying with snot dripping from his nose.

Lu Weijian did not kiss Da Bao, but he was still excited. "My dear boy, stay and work with me. We'll defeat those demons and monsters together. Lu Group has the best finance system. Not only does it manage its own finances, but it also provides financial security for most enterprises in Jingdu City. In other words, if you work here, you'll be protecting the safety of more than half of the people in S Country."

Da Bao's eyes lit up with interest.

"Also, my gaming club is one of the best in S Country. But not many players are better than you. In time, you can stand at the top. You can do anything you want as long as you're with me."

Da Bao's eyes lit up even more. He found both of these things very interesting, so his hands started to itch as well.

Chapter 304: It Doesn't Make Sense

Lu Heting looked at Da Bao with a loving gaze. "Da Bao, you're four years and three months old now. It's time for you to go to school. Don't listen to Lu Weijian's nonsense."

He could guess Da Bao's exact age after just a second. It was because he remembered the two hours he previously spent with Su Bei vividly. The moment was engraved in his bones and would never be forgotten.

"It's illogical." Da Bao's little face had the same calm expression as Lu Heting's. "One goes to school to learn things. If I already master these things now, wouldn't I be wasting my time by going to school?"

Lu Weijian clapped his hands. "That makes sense!"

It made more sense than what Lu Heting said.

However, Lu Heting's gaze made Lu Weijian take a few steps back.

Lu Heting lowered his head and looked at Da Bao. "The law in S Country states that children under the age of eight are completely incapacitated and have to rely on their legal guardians. What do you think?"

Frowning, Da Bao thought for a while before finally agreeing. "That's reasonable. I'll go to school."

Lu Weijian reached out his hand and tried to persuade him to stay. "My god, you're my god!"

Da Bao stood up and tidied his clothes. "I'm going to find Lin Moli. She's my mother's best friend. I live with her now. You don't have to see me off. Let's keep in touch."

Raising his phone, he turned around, pursed his thin lips, and walked out.

He already had Lu Weijian's phone number, so it would be easy for him to contact Lu Heting.

It was easy for Lu Heting to contact him as well. After all, Lu Heting had done some hacking to find out Da Bao's phone number.

Lu Heting watched him leave.

Although his eyes were calm, his heart was surging with emotions. He followed Da Bao into the elevator and stood next to him.

Da Bao raised his head and looked at him seriously. Then, he turned away and looked straight ahead.

No matter what, Lu Heting was still very satisfied. Even though he had only spent a short while with Da Bao, he was still in a good mood.

The father and son did not say anything else, but the tacit understanding amidst the silence made Lu Heting very satisfied.

When they arrived at the entrance, Da Bao waved his hand gently. "Goodbye."

He glanced at Lu Heting. Was this man not supposed to be as cold as him? Why was he smiling so widely now?

With such a personality, was Lu Heting still his father?

Even after seeing Da Bao off the building of Lu Group, Lu Heting never looked away.

Da Bao was his and Su Bei's son. When he recalled this, the joy in his heart surged endlessly.

Lu Weijian followed him and asked, "Brother, are you sure you don't want to personally fetch my nephew back? Can he go back alone?"

"When I was his age, I was already used to being alone. Since he's my son, he can definitely do it," Lu Heting said confidently.

"Then why can't Gun Gun do it?" Lu Weijian snorted.

Lu Heting was silent. Gun Gun was totally different from Da Bao.

Da Bao was the fruit of his and Su Bei's love. Whereas he had been helpless in regards to Gun Gun's existence.

At the thought of this, guilt flashed through his heart. He felt more and more sorry toward Su Bei and Da Bao.

Perhaps it was also because of Gun Gun that Su Bei did not tell him about Da Bao.

Chapter 305: You Must Apologize

At this moment, the person Lu Heting wanted to see the most was Su Bei.

His heart was filled with guilt, shame, and also endless joy. He had the urge to pull Su Bei into his arms but also punish her severely. How could she have hidden this from him for so long?

He took out his phone and dialed Su Bei's number.

As soon as it started ringing, he anxiously waited for her to pick up the call.

However, Su Bei did not answer the call. Even when the beeping tone sounded, he still had not heard her familiar sweet voice.

He called Da Bao twice, but his calls went unanswered. Even so, a smile appeared on his face as he thought of Da Bao's face that resembled his.

'Su Bei, how are we going to settle this score?'

At this moment, Su Bei was in Song Ruinian's office.

Song Ruinian apologized perfunctorily to the entire company for the unfair treatment toward Fang Shaocong and Su Bei. "It's all a misunderstanding. Su Bei, work hard in the future. The company will make sure to treat you well."

He could tell that Su Bei had a lot of potential. Over the past few days, she had attracted millions of fans and many were calling to ask about Su Bei's schedule.

Even Director Guo had openly asked Su Bei to shoot a movie. At this moment, Su Bei seemed to be glowing with wealth.

Song Ruinian lowered his head.

He hoped that he could reconcile with Su Bei and make a lot of money with her.

"Director Song, the person you should apologize to the most should be Lv Shan, right?" Su Bei smiled gently and looked at him calmly.

Song Ruinian smiled. "Let's not talk about her. Let's talk about the next collaborations."

"No, let's talk about Lv Shan first. Then we can talk about the collaborations," Su Bei replied with a smile. She looked gentle and determined.

"Su Bei, if you don't want these collaborations, there are many others in the company who want them." The threat in Song Ruinian's voice was clear. "Don't think that you're the only one who can get those endorsements and collaborations."

The smile on Su Bei's face remained. "It's okay. Actually, I'm happy to have some free time anyway. I want to have a good rest."

Song Ruinian's hand froze for a moment. Some of the endorsement deals had specifically asked for Su Bei. Song Ruinian had recommended many other female artists, including Su Huixian, to the other parties, but they were not interested.

He did not have many chips to suppress Su Bei now.

Su Bei sat there without moving, her eyes looking gentle but sharp.

Song Ruinian had no choice but to take out his phone and say, "I'll message her my apology."

He could not bring himself to apologize to an employee who had already resigned.

"Okay," Su Bei agreed.

She felt that the person the company owed an apology to the most was Lv Shan, not her. Lv Shan was forced her to resign because of a small matter. The company owed her an apology.

Song Ruinian had no choice but to send Lv Shan an apology message.

In order to please Su Bei, the cash cow, he had no choice but to tolerate it for the time being.

"Su Bei, these are our most recent collaborations. We'll pick some for you. You should make preparations." After sending the apology message, Song Ruinian handed the documents to Su Bei.

“I will.” Su Bei stood up with the documents in her arms.

Her phone rang, and she received a message from Da Bao.

Since Da Bao had met Lu Heting, he naturally needed to tell Su Bei the truth so that she could be mentally prepared.

He guessed that Lu Heting would come looking for Su Bei soon.

Su Bei heard the notification tone from her WeChat, but she was holding a bunch of things in her hands.

Chapter 306: No Better Gift Than This

She planned to check her WeChat after getting in the car.

After getting justice for Lv Shan, Su Bei happily walked toward her car.

As soon as she got to her car, a tall figure appeared in front of her. He reached out and pulled Su Bei into his arms.

Su Bei had already sensed that it was Lu Heting. His aura stood out from others. It was strong and sharp—the feeling that Su Bei was most familiar with. She did not need to look to know that it was Lu Heting.

Su Bei was surprised when he held her so tightly. Why was he here?

Besides, she could clearly feel an inexplicable aura coming from him. It felt stifling and complicated.

“Lu Heting?” Su Bei was being held so tightly that she could not breathe. “What are you doing?”

Lu Heting rested his chin on her head. He felt all kinds of emotions surging in him with her in his arms, but he did not know where to start.

Su Bei was carrying some things in her arms. Actually, she was not that close to his body because of the documents that were in between them.

She could still hear the thumping of a heart, though. She just did not know if it was his or hers.

“Lu Heting, what’s going on? Are things not going well at work? Or are you not feeling well?” Su Bei asked softly, her voice sounding gentle.

Lu Heting let go of her. Su Bei had just raised her head when she met his lowered eyes. Su Bei’s eyes were clear, while Lu Heting’s were full of surging waves.

“Su Bei, do you want to explain to me about Da Bao?” Lu Heting asked.

Su Bei was surprised. Her starry eyes widened slightly as a trace of disbelief flashed through them. Of course, she had never wanted to deliberately hide this from Lu Heting. It was only because Da Bao did not want to acknowledge him for the time being that she tried her best to respect him and give him more time to digest the fact.

Lu Heting knew the truth now, but how did he find out?

Su Bei did not know where to look. “Lu Heting, how did you find out?”

“Da Bao came looking for me. You shouldn’t blame him, though. He just told me his name and I guessed it from there,” Lu Heting said with hidden joy in his voice.

It could be said that Da Bao’s appearance explained a lot of things.

The knots in his heart that had been there for the past five years were undone one by one. His feelings for her had also become more certain. It was not because she had given birth to a son for him but because she had been willing to give birth to a son for him.

Even if it did not mean that she had feelings for him, it at least meant that she did not dislike him.

There was no better gift than this.

There was no better bond that could link the two of them together.

Su Bei touched her forehead. Da Bao! She should have known that he would definitely take action with how smart he was.

Yes, she had just received a message on WeChat. She hurriedly shoved the documents into Lu Heting’s hand and took out her phone to have a look. As expected, it was a message from Da Bao. He explained that he had gone to look for Lu Heting.

It was just that Su Bei did not have the time to look at it just now.

Su Bei raised her head and said, “I’m sorry. Actually, when I came back this time...”

Lowering his head, Lu Heting kissed her on the lips.

Su Bei was stunned. The words that she wanted to say became a jumbled mess. She could not organize her words properly, so she failed to speak.

The man’s breath smelled so good that it made her lose her resistance. She could clearly hear the sound of a pair of heartbeats. One was his, and the other was hers.

Lu Heting said, “Don’t talk. Just kiss me.”

Chapter 307: That’s My Duty

All of a sudden, Su Bei heard two clicks. It was the sound of a camera shutter.

With her years of experience as a model, she did not need to guess to know that she had been captured.

She instinctively pushed Lu Heting away.

Lu Heting also keenly noticed that someone had taken photos of them.

Before Lu Heting and Su Bei could calm down, the person next to them had already disappeared into the elevator.

Su Bei’s heart skipped a beat. She did not know who had taken their photos at such a moment.

“Oh no!” Su Bei said worriedly. “Let’s quickly get in the car.”

She held Lu Heting's hand and quickly got into her car. This was the underground parking lot of Qian Yu Entertainment Company, so the person who took the photos might be Su Huixian's people.

Lu Heting obediently followed her into the car, and she quickly drove away from this troublesome place.

"When we're out next time, you can't be so affectionate," Su Bei reminded him.

A trace of sadness flashed across Lu Heting's face.

She continued, "There are a lot of paparazzi and stalkers out there. If they find out who you are, they'll harass you and it'll affect your work. You're not in the entertainment industry, so you have no experience dealing with such things. It's better not to get involved in such trouble."

The sadness in Lu Heting's eyes disappeared with her words and was replaced with a smile.

It turned out that she was worried about him.

"Does that mean we can be affectionate elsewhere?" Lu Heting completely missed out the meaning of her words.

Su Bei was speechless.

How did she dig such a huge pit for herself?

Wait, what was wrong with Lu Heting? Did he not say that it did not matter who he got married to and marriage was just about making do with each other? If so, why was he behaving like this to her?

Su Bei tilted her head and stared at Lu Heting, but her fierce gaze was not lethal at all.

At this moment, Lu Heting really wanted to hug her again and talk to her about Da Bao.

He looked at Su Bei seriously and said in a low voice, "You didn't intend to tell me about Da Bao?"

"That's not it. Don't misunderstand me. Actually, I was willing to let Da Bao acknowledge you as his father. I just wanted to wait a little while longer so that we could find a timing where it would be more natural..."

Initially, Da Bao did not want to reunite with Lu Heting. However, Su Bei had to take the blame for it now. She did not want Lu Heting and Da Bao to have a gap in their relationship.

They were father and son. They would live together for many years. Besides, she would not be able to accompany them for long. Hence, she would take the blame for everything.

Lu Heting accepted her explanation.

He remembered that since the day she came back, she had been trying to pry into his personal life. He guessed that she must have investigated him well before she brought Da Bao back.

She was really cautious, but it was a good quality. Lu Heting had no complaints.

"Now, can you rest assured and let him live with me?" Lu Heting looked at her calmly.

Since things had already come to this, Su Bei naturally had nothing to worry about. She nodded and said, "But Lu Heting, Da Bao is a little cold. He doesn't easily get along with others. Please take that into consideration and try to bear with him."

After she was gone, she wondered if the father and son could get along well.

"He's my son. That's my duty." The corner of Lu Heting's mouth twitched.

Su Bei held the steering wheel tightly and did not bring up the other child.

Chapter 308: The Decision She Would Never Regret In Her Life

She remembered that she had gone through a lot of hardships to give birth to the two children. However, the doctor said that the other child had congenital heart disease. Shortly after she gave birth to the child, they took their last breath.

She had been heartbroken. However, when she thought of Da Bao, she suppressed her sadness and buried it deep in her heart. She mustered up her courage to raise him.

Su Bei did not plan to tell Lu Heting about this.

It was a pain she was hiding. She had not even told Da Bao about it, let alone Lu Heting. It would only make him worry.

She only wanted that child to live happily in heaven.

May there be no illnesses in heaven.

When they arrived at the neighborhood, Su Bei got out of the car. She was still shrouded in a faint layer of gloom.

When she stopped the car, Lu Heting reached out and held her right hand. Su Bei tried to pull her hand away, but his dry and warm palm held hers so tightly that she failed to do it.

For some reason, the pain in her heart was washed away by his grip.

She did not try to withdraw her hand again, so Lu Heting loosened his grip slightly.

"Su Bei, it's been hard on you. From now on, let me take care of you and your son," Lu Heting said firmly.

Su Bei's heart skipped a beat. Lu Heting was a really good man. He was serious, responsible, and warm. He was really a good candidate for a husband and a father. This time, she came back to hand Da Bao to him. This was the decision she did not regret the most in her life.

However, she could not give herself to him.

Her illness would only worsen with each passing year. It would be better if no one knew about it as they would not be as sad in the future.

"Thank you, Lu Heting." Su Bei smiled but did not answer him directly.

Lu Heting placed her fingers on his lips in a very gentle manner to show that he cherished her.

Tears almost welled up in Su Bei's eyes. The longer she was around this man, the more she felt that he was precious.

He may not hold a high status, nor did he make a lot of money, but his character and his respect for others made Su Bei feel cherished.

Even if she were to live an ordinary life with him, she would have a long life of romance and happiness.

Unfortunately, she did not have the luck to do so...

Afraid that she would cave in to his gentle touches, she hurriedly said with a smile, "Lu Heting, when are you going to do the paternity test with Da Bao?"

Lu Heting's heart sank a little. "Is it necessary? When you married me, it was your first time. I don't believe you would have done anything else in such a short time."

"Of course not. But after all, you're the one who will raise him, so it's best to get this straight." Su Bei's words really ruined the mood. She was deliberately ruining the mood.

What would happen if she continued to be with Lu Heting like this?

"Just by looking at Da Bao's face, I already have my confirmation," Lu Heting said firmly.

"Well, he's your son, so it's up to you. Actually, before I came back, I was really worried that you would not like him..." Su Bei was really relieved now.

Lu Heting was accepting of his son, and the son had so naturally gone to look for his father. As Da Bao's mother, she had not done much about it. She was overly worried about him before.

Lu Heting tilted his head and looked at her. "Su Bei, I do mind the child. I mind him very much."

Chapter 309: Caught On Camera

"Huh?" Su Bei was taken aback.

"I do mind it. Why did you leave me back then? Why didn't you bring Da Bao back to me earlier? I really mind it."

Su Bei heaved a sigh of relief. "Don't take it to heart anymore. I'm already back."

At that time, she was still too young to have feelings for anyone.

Deep down, Lu Heting knew this. Back then, she had just broken up with Du Luo, so she came to him.

It was still not too late now that she had come back.

As long as she was here, everything would be alright.

...

Mrs. Lu had always been worried about her son.

She had no idea what was going on with the woman her son married. Her heart was uneasy.

She still remembered that when the old lady was seriously ill, the doctors had said that her condition was worrisome. The old lady wanted to see her grandson get married, so the Lu family chose a woman of suitable age to marry Lu Heting.

In rich families, they had to marry someone of equal social status. Children of noble families had to have good looks, character, and ability.

However, on the day of their wedding, the woman did not show up. Hence, Lu Heting and Su Bei got married at the last minute.

That day, Lu Heting only brought back two marriage certificates. Su Bei never showed up.

The amazing thing was that the old lady was able to get better because of this matter. It was a blessing in disguise.

Now that Su Bei was came, Mrs. Lu had wanted to see her numerous times but she restrained herself from doing so.

Just then, someone knocked on the door.

“Come in,” Mrs. Lu said.

An assistant in a black suit walked in and said, “Madam, I’ve taken care of everything you asked me to do.”

He then handed a stack of documents to Mrs. Lu.

Mrs. Lu picked it up and flipped through it. She was calm at first, but gradually, she began to get angry.

She had asked someone to check on Su Bei’s whereabouts. Su Bei usually had a very normal routine. She just worked, went home, and helped Gun Gun. Although she had a few male friends, they were just normal friends.

However, when she looked deeper into it, she found out that she had a child who her best friend was raising.

No matter how the people arranged by Mrs. Lu tried to take photos of Lu Heting, they could never get a good shot of him. It was as if he had a special hiding mechanism. The photos they got of him were all of his back. In the photos with the best angle, one could only see his ears and chin.

“Is he really Su Bei’s son?” Mrs. Lu asked.

“Actually, we don’t know. After all, we don’t have any concrete evidence. But according to what we’ve occasionally overheard from their conversation, I think so,” the assistant explained hurriedly.

Actually, Mrs. Lu had asked them to follow Su Bei and track her movements for a long time.

At the beginning, they could not take any photos. When Lu Heting and Lu Weijian were around, they did not dare to take any photos. Mrs. Lu had also reminded them to avoid attracting their attention.

After persisting for a while, it was only in these two or three days that they finally took photos of the situation. Of course, Da Bao would have minded being photographed before. In the past few days, Da Bao had already acknowledged Lu Heting, so he did not mind being photographed by them.

It was only now that they could report to Mrs. Lu.

Mrs. Lu was furious at Su Bei for hiding such a thing.

Chapter 310: Super Compatible

Although she did not want to offend her son or destroy their relationship, she still decided to have a good chat with Su Bei and Lu Heting.

After all, the Lu family would definitely allow Su Bei to appear with an unknown child.

As a mother, she was absolutely protective of her son.

Su Bei arrived at Lin Moli's house early in the morning to pick up Da Bao.

Lin Moli was packing the things in her hands when she said with a smile, "Xiao Bei, you're here. What a coincidence! I have to work tomorrow and you and Da Bao have settled the matter. It's perfect!"

"Have you finished your work?" Su Bei felt happy for Lin Moli.

On second thought, she wondered if Da Bao had taken the initiative to reunite with Lu Heting because of this. Was it because he did not want to disrupt Lin Moli's life anymore?

If that was the case, then Lu Heting really had no position in her son's eyes.

"Yes, I'll be going to work very soon. I'll pass Da Bao back to you."

Su Bei smiled and said, "I'll treat you to lunch."

"Forget it. You'd better take Da Bao home. Don't make your husband wait for you. I'm also busy packing. We can have a meal another day."

"Okay." Seeing that she was busy, Su Bei decided not to disturb her. She got Da Bao's luggage and went into the car with him.

She asked Da Bao to sit in the backseat and fastened the seat belt for him. Actually, he did not like sitting in the safety seat as it made him look like a little boy.

Su Bei patted his head and said, "Okay, sit tight."

Da Bao nodded.

"By the way, Da Bao, Gun Gun is staying with Lu Heting. He's not as mature and sensible as you. You have to be more tolerant of him," Su Bei said softly and kissed him on the cheek.

"Yes." Da Bao nodded seriously.

It was just a little boy. He could handle it.

Although he did not like being kissed, his face lit up when she turned around.

When Su Bei brought Da Bao home, she took out her keys and opened the door. As soon as she opened the door, colorful streamers and balloons flew through the air. Gun Gun ran over with his short legs. "Welcome, Da Bao! I love you!"

He hugged Da Bao enthusiastically. "Bei Bei, Da Bao is so cute!"

Da Bao had a cold and aloof personality. However, when he was hugged so enthusiastically, a helpless smile appeared on his face. He raised his hands and did not know where to put them.

Initially, he had not looked forward to moving here. However, looking at the current situation, he felt that it was okay and was no longer as resistant to the idea. .

Gun Gun was half a head shorter than Da Bao. He raised his head and looked at Da Bao warmly.

These two brothers really seemed compatible with each other. Su Bei felt more assured about their future together.

Su Bei knew that Da Bao did not like to be close to outsiders, so she picked Gun Gun up and asked, "How did you know that Da Bao was coming back?"

Gun Gun said obediently, "Daddy said so. He said that we all have to welcome Brother Da Bao, so he specially prepared balloons and colorful streamers. Daddy likes Brother Da Bao a lot and so does Gun Gun. So Gun Gun even specially painted a picture for Brother Da Bao."

Gun Gun got out of Su Bei's arms and ran to get a painting. He unfolded it and showed it to Su Bei and Da Bao. "Do they look alike? Do they look alike?"

It had been drawn using a piece of lead. The portrait was really similar to Da Bao. In particular, Da Bao's expression was very good.

...

Well, it seemed that we really were compatible.
