

Chapter 311: Thank You for Letting Me Wait

“Gun Gun, you painted this yourself? It’s amazing! Have you seen Brother Da Bao before?” Su Bei’s eyes welled up with tears when she thought that the two children would never be alone in the future.

“I’ve never seen him before. But Daddy said Brother Da Bao looks like him and Bei Bei, so I could guess what he looked like. But the Brother Da Bao I drew is not even half as handsome as the real Brother Da Bao,” Gun Gun said in a childish voice. His words were as sweet as honey.

Da Bao previously decided to tolerate Gun Gun for Su Bei’s sake.

Now that he met Da Bao, he realized that although he was childish, he was still cute enough to be his brother.

“Thank you.” Da Bao took the painting from Gun Gun.

Gun Gun jumped up happily. “Brother Da Bao, you have a nice voice! Can you live with me in the future?”

“Gun Gun has a brother now! And he’s the super handsome, cool, and cute Brother Da Bao!”

The corners of Da Bao’s mouth curved into a faint smile. It was only normal to like good-looking children, let alone such cute children.

Aunt Chen was packing her things at the side. When she saw Da Bao’s face, she was so surprised that she wanted to immediately tell the old master, the old lady, and the madam about the good news .

She had raised Lu Heting single-handedly. Of course, she could tell at a glance that this child was Lu Heting’s.

She really did not expect that Lu Heting’s wife, who had not appeared in five years, would bring such a handsome young master home.

However, when she thought of Lu Heting’s instructions, she had to hold back the urge to announce it to the Lu family.

Lu Heting stood aside with a smile in his eyes.

The woman he loved deeply had brought back his son.

‘Su Bei, thank you for letting me wait.

‘It was best to wait. It was an expectation that required a long time and with no ending.

‘But I’m getting closer and closer to this goal every day. It’s a never-ending desire that won’t be fulfilled or destroyed.

‘Every new joy found was encouragement, not a complete satisfaction.’

When Su Bei saw him standing there, she asked in surprise, “Don’t you have to work today?”

“Lu Weijian is abroad. I’m on leave,” Lu Heting lied without changing his expression.

Of course, he had to welcome his son back in person. Why did he have to work?

Su Bei smiled brightly. "That's great. I only work in the afternoon. I'll cook in the afternoon, so I'll go get groceries now."

Aunt Chen was about to say that she would go alone when Lu Heting picked up the car keys and said, "I'll go with you."

Da Bao said sensibly, "Go ahead. I'll take care of Gun Gun."

"Thank you, my baby." Su Bei kissed him on the forehead.

Gun Gun jumped up. "Gun Gun wants it too! Gun Gun wants it too!"

Su Bei kissed Gun Gun on the forehead.

"Daddy wants it too! Daddy wants it too!" Gun Gun immediately helped Lu Heting get some benefits as well. He remembered every word that Lu Heting had said last time. Only when he made Bei Bei feel the warmth of a family would she let them, father and son, stay by her side.

Gun Gun must extend a helping hand so that they can stay with Bei Bei!!

A kiss was the best show of warmth for a family.

Lu Heting bent over cooperatively and leaned toward Su Bei. He stared at her red lips while looking straight into her eyes.

The man's eyes were steady and focused on Su Bei, making her blush.

Gun Gun stared at her eagerly. Su Bei had no choice but to approach Lu Heting and kiss him on the forehead.

Su Bei and Lu Heting arrived at a big supermarket.

As soon as the two of them appeared, they attracted everyone's attention.

Lu Heting, who was 1.88 meters tall, stood tall and straight. His tailored clothes wrapped his strong body nicely, and his well-defined facial features were perfect.

Su Bei, on the other hand, had a perfect supermodel figure. Even though her pair of thick glasses covered most of her face, the rest of it could still be seen.

She was not particularly famous, but she did not want to cause trouble, so she wore glasses before going out.

"What a perfect match! They are really eye-catching."

"He must be a celebrity, right? Otherwise, how can he be so handsome?"

“Even a star can’t compare to his temperament and character. What’s more, their compatibility is enviable.”

Lu Heting’s lips curved into a smile as he glanced sideways at the woman beside him.

Su Bei lowered her head and tried to hide her face with her long hair.

She pushed the shopping cart forward, while Lu Heting followed her with a smile.

...

The two of them went back home soon after buying the groceries.

Da Bao and Gun Gun sat on the sofa. Gun Gun was very enthusiastic and talkative, introducing his toys and snacks to Da Bao.

Da Bao listened patiently.

Gun Gun cherished his toys and snacks very much. Even so, he still divided all the things into two piles and pushed one pile to Da Bao. “Brother Da Bao, I’ll give this to you!”

“Thank you, but I don’t need it...” Da Bao glanced at the things. He did not like to play with toy cars or eat snacks.

Rather than play with these childish things, his time would be better spent meditating.

After thinking for a while, Gun Gun thought that Da Bao felt that there were too little things in the pile. He fiddled with his toys and snacks, facing a dilemma. Finally, he said in a firm voice, “Then I’ll give them all to you.”

With a conflicted expression on his face, Gun Gun stopped looking at the his beloved things. He was about to give them all to Da Bao, so he stretched out his fingers and covered his eyes.

Da Bao was surprised. This little boy was really honest.

Was he really Lu Heting’s son?

Meow, meow, meow? Da Bao was now suspicious about Gun Gun’s genes.

However, his personality was quite similar to Su Xiaobei’s. Maybe those who looked cute would also have a cute personality and would not have any scheming thoughts.

Da Bao said, “Forget it. I’ll just take the half from earlier. You can keep the other half. I’m too lazy to manage so many things.”

Gun Gun immediately put down his hands and said happily, “Okay, okay. Brother Da Bao, you’re right. Let’s each take half! Brother Da Bao, you’re the best!”

Da Bao was speechless.

He was the one who gave him the gift, but he was thanking Da Bao for it. This was like counting the money after selling oneself.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that Da Bao would be able to abduct ten children if they were all as naive as Gun Gun.

"I'll go to the kitchen. You can accompany them to watch TV for a while." Su Bei gave the three of them a chance to get along.

This would also be their normal day to day in the future.

Chapter 313: Spoiled

Lu Heting, who was standing at the side, calmly rolled up the sleeves of his long white shirt. He walked to Su Bei and said, "Let me help you wash the crayfish."

However, when he picked up the crayfish, he had no idea how to wash it.

He also did not know which direction the kitchen door of Lu Hu International opened in.

"Forget it. I'll wash the vegetables instead."

However, Lu Heting was helpless again in front of a whole plate of cabbage, tomatoes, and bitter gourd.

"No, it's okay. You can go and accompany the kids. Go and accompany your son," Su Bei said, shooing him away.

"Aunt Chen, please accompany them," Lu Heting said. He would rather accompany his wife.

Aunt Chen understood what he meant. She immediately went out to accompany the little masters, leaving the couple alone in the kitchen..

Although Lu Heting did not know how to wash these vegetables, he still clumsily offered to help. Whether he could help his wife or not was one thing, but his attitude was most important.

Besides, today was his son's first time back home. Lu Heting really wanted to do well and gain a good impression in his son's heart.

He regretted never having learned to cook. Otherwise, he could cook for Da Bao today.

He had not been around to raise Da Bao in these past few years, so he was feeling a little guilty about it.

Su Bei did not expect a man like Lu Heting would have so many concerns. She simply let him deal with the pile of vegetables.

A luxurious car appeared downstairs.

Mrs. Lu got out of the car and took off her sunglasses.

Mrs. Lu had not forgotten about her son's warning back then. Even though she came here to ask for an explanation, she still remembered that her son had not revealed his real identity yet.

Today, she was dressed in a simple outfit. She was carrying a handbag from an unknown brand. The car she chose to drive over was also the most simple car that the Lu family could find.

She looked around the neighborhood and found that it was indeed a little too modest. Out of all the Lu family's real estate, they did not have such an ordinary house.

She could not help but shake her head. She had really spoiled her son, which was now giving her trouble.

If the woman really had a child outside of the Lu family, how could she be worthy of her son?

“Madam, this is the place,” the assistant said to Mrs. Lu.

“You can wait outside,” Mrs. Lu said.

She walked into the building and entered the elevator.

Everything here was too simple for her.

The decorations here were very common despite this being a prosperous area in Jingdu City that many people hoped to reside in. The schools here were very good as well. Su Bei only bought a place here after taking into consideration Da Bao’s education.

Lu Heting was happily washing the vegetables for his wife when he heard the doorbell ring. He went to the door before Aunt Chen did.

Maybe his intuition was warning him, so he felt an unknown pressure.

Lu Heting opened the door and saw his mother’s familiar but serious-looking face.

“Mom, why are you here?” Lu Heting frowned slightly. He was not ready to welcome his mother yet.

Su Bei must not be ready either.

Mrs. Lu felt really sorry for her son. She looked at him up and down, only to see that he was wearing an apron with his sleeves rolled up. It seemed that he was helping in the kitchen.

Her son was born with a silver spoon in his mouth!

Chapter 314: The Genes of the Lu Family

As the head of Lu Group, Lu Heting was one of the elites in S Country. At this moment, he was helping a woman cook in the kitchen.

Nevermind this, but this woman might even have a child with another man.

As Lu Heting’s mother, how could she not be distressed, anxious, and worried?

“Son, I came to tell you something,” Mrs. Lu said anxiously.

Before Lu Heting could say anything, Gun Gun spotted his grandmother and greeted happily, “Grandma!”

He held Da Bao’s hand and ran toward the door.

Da Bao was a cold and aloof boy. Of course, he would not just jump about. The two of them ended up pushing and pulling. It took them some time to reach Mrs. Lu.

At Gun Gun’s yell, Mrs. Lu noticed Da Bao.

As long as Da Bao was around, it would be difficult for others not to notice him. He had a cool temperament and was very handsome and cute. With such an appearance at such a young age, he was indeed very eye-catching.

In Mrs. Lu's eyes, he looked exactly the same as Lu Heting. She was instantly attracted to him.

No one knew what Lu Heting looked like as a child more than Mrs. Lu. Da Bao looked just like Lu Heting.

They did not look exactly the same, but their temperament, personality, and aloof appearance were exactly the same.

Da Bao turned his head to look at Gun Gun helplessly. Mrs. Lu was even more shocked. Was this not the little boy her assistant had taken a photo of? It was obvious that he was her biological grandson.

Su Bei did not give birth to another man's child! It was Lu Heting's child!

Mrs. Lu's eyes lit up with excitement.

Finally, Da Bao and Gun Gun were in front of her.

Mrs. Lu could not hold back her emotions anymore. She bent over and looked at Da Bao, asking in a trembling voice, "Little boy, what's your name?"

"Da Bao." Da Bao observed her. Actually, he did not need to analyze her to know her identity as Gun Gun had already told him.

After observing for a while, he found that Lu Heting looked somewhat similar to her. He must be her grandmother.

He said flatly, "Hello, Grandma."

He greeted her.

Mrs. Lu was overjoyed. "Oh, my dear grandson, Da Bao! You're so polite. Here, let me give you—"

She touched all over her body but could not find anything to give to Da Bao. After all, she had dressed too plainly today, and the bag she brought with her today was not her usual one. Hence, she took off the jade bracelet on her wrist and stuffed it into Da Bao's hand. "This is for you, Da Bao. I like you a lot. Da Bao, take it."

Lu Heting was a little helpless. What kind of a meeting gift did his mother give Da Bao?

Da Bao was also helpless. He realized that everyone in the Lu family, except for Lu Heting, was so much like Gun Gun. Upon opening their mouths, they would be so excited. They also liked to give gifts to people. In the game, Lu Weijian had already prepared the best equipment for Da Bao.

At this moment, he did not doubt Gun Gun's genes anymore.

Mrs. Lu also realized that her gift was not suitable for Da Bao. She smiled awkwardly and said, "Well, give this to your mother. I'll give you something better next time."

"I thank you on behalf of Xiao Bei," Da Bao replied politely.

Chapter 315: The More I Look at You, the More I Like You

Da Bao liked whoever liked Xiao Bei. He looked at Mrs. Lu with warmth in his eyes.

Mrs. Lu could not stop smiling.

It was such a joyous occasion. This grandson who appeared out of thin air looked exactly like her son. Any grandmother who wished to have a grandson would be fond of Da Bao.

Aunt Chen stood aside and looked at Mrs. Lu guiltily.

Mrs. Lu took a deep look at Aunt Chen. She could not believe that Aunt Chen had helped her son hide such big news from her. She did not even come back to report it to her.

Su Bei was busy stir-frying the fresh crayfish in the kitchen just now. Now that she was done frying, she put some water in it and let it simmer before coming out.

Was there a guest?

Why were Lu Heting, Da Bao, and Gun Gun all gathered around her?

When Su Bei came out of the kitchen, her hair was a little messy. As soon as she saw Mrs. Lu, she realized that the woman looked a little similar to Lu Heting. Her intuition told her that something bad was going to happen... Was she going to meet her in-laws?

Gun Gun said enthusiastically, "Grandma, this is Bei Bei. Bei Bei, Grandma is here to see us."

"Mom, this is Su Bei. Su Bei, this is my mother." Although Gun Gun had already introduced her, Lu Heting introduced her again solemnly.

"Hello, Mom... Oh, no. Hello, Auntie," Su Bei said casually. When she realized that she had said the wrong things, she quickly changed her words.

However, it did not seem right to change it.

Fortunately, Mrs. Lu was already very satisfied with Da Bao. She smiled and put the jade bracelet in Su Bei's hand. "Call me Mom, young lady."

Su Bei was a little stunned. As her own family situation was not good, she had completely forgotten to think about Lu Heting's parents and family.

It was indeed a little awkward for them to meet so suddenly.

Lu Heting helped her put on the bracelet and said in a low voice, "I'm sorry, Su Bei. I came here so suddenly that I didn't have time to tell you..."

"It's okay. I bought a lot of groceries anyway," Su Bei said in a relaxed tone and soon regained her composure.

This was Da Bao's grandmother. She would definitely dote on him in the future. Su Bei was happy to have someone else love her son.

Lu Heting then invited Mrs. Lu to sit down.

Mrs. Lu looked around the house. The decorations were new and made the place feel comfortable. She did not know if it was the work of Su Bei or her son.

Now that she was no longer angry as compared to when she first arrived, she liked everything she saw. Especially Da Bao. Why was he so handsome?

Da Bao was cold and distant. It was difficult for him to get close to Mrs. Lu.

However, this was exactly how Lu Heting was like when he was a child. Mrs. Lu was already used to it. The more she looked at Da Bao, the more she liked him.

Soon, Su Bei put all the dishes on the table and asked everyone to eat.

"I'm sorry, Mom. I didn't know you were coming today, so I didn't get to prepare much," Su Bei said politely.

"This is good." Mrs. Lu sat down and asked Da Bao and Gun Gun to sit beside her.

Su Bei nodded and passed the chopsticks to everyone. Gun Gun asked curiously, "Grandma, what are you doing here today?"

Su Bei really wanted to know that too.

Was she here to see Da Bao? Did she have any doubts about his identity?

Lu Heting coughed lightly and reminded his mother.

Chapter 316: I'll Support You

He could feel that his mother had been very unfriendly when she first came. It was not until she saw Da Bao that her mood became better.

No matter what, he would not let his mother's appearance pressure Su Bei.

Hearing her son's reminder, Mrs. Lu hurriedly said, "Actually, I'm just here to see you. And..."

When she saw Da Bao, she really wanted her son and his family to move back home. This neighborhood looked too ordinary. It must be uncomfortable to stay here.

However, when she recalled her son's soft cough earlier, she could not bring herself to say it.

"And what?" Gun Gun raised his head and asked.

Of course, Mrs. Lu could not say it out loud. If she did, would she not be exposing her son's secret?

Su Bei did not want to pry, so she just ate.

Lu Heting answered, "Actually, Mom is here because she wants to give you some support. You don't want to stay in Qian Yu Entertainment Company anymore, right? Mom said she can help you with the penalty fee."

Lu Heting had wanted to talk about it for a long time, but there was never a good opportunity. Besides, Su Bei did not want to go to Di Xing Media Company.

Taking advantage of his mother's arrival, Lu Heting wanted to solve the problem.

"Huh?" Su Bei raised her head and said, "It's alright. The penalty for breach of contract will cost a lot of money. I'll figure it out myself. Thank you, Mom."

Mrs. Lu also found it a little strange. Did her son not refuse to let his identity be known? Why did he suddenly mention giving Su Bei such a big sum of money?

Lu Heting continued to make up stories without changing his expression. "Su Bei, our house was demolished previously and the compensation fee has just been banked into my account. Mom heard that you wanted to terminate the contract, so she came here today to see if you need anything."

Mrs. Lu immediately chimed in, "Oh, that's right. Our old house was demolished. Haha! I didn't expect it to be demolished. Su Bei, how much do you need?"

Obviously, Mrs. Lu was not as good at lying as her son, so her lies did not sound natural at all.

Even so, it was Su Bei's first time seeing her. She did not know much about Mrs. Lu's personality, so she did not sense anything wrong.

Although Mrs. Lu was dressed in rather simple attire, her clothes were of good quality. She must be from a wealthy family.

Su Bei was surprised. "What a coincidence! Where do you live now?"

"I have a place to stay," Mrs. Lu said hurriedly.

"As you know, Su Bei, they're from Jingdu City. They have a lot of houses," Lu Heting said calmly.

Su Bei thought about it and realized that it made sense. Many of the older generation in Jingdu City had their own houses. Many families had two to three houses. If their house was demolished, the amount of compensation they received was often as high as eight figures.

When she was in the United States, there had been a trainee from Jingdu City as well. On the day she received the compensation fee after her house was demolished, she resigned from her job and flew back. She said that she wanted to enjoy life and never work hard again.

From this, it could be understood how much money they received from the company that demolished their houses.

Since it had already come to this point and Mrs. Lu really liked Da Bao, she did not mind spending some money on Su Bei.

She took out a card from her bag and said, "There's ten million yuan in here. You can let me know if it's enough."

Su Bei took it with both hands and bowed solemnly. "Thank you, Mom."

Then, she turned around and went to her room.

Mrs. Lu was a little uncomfortable receiving such a simple thank you.

Chapter 317: You're Rich Enough to Make Me Impressed

However, when she looked at her son's eyes and then at Da Bao, she thought that it was worth it. After all, she was not doing it for this woman. She was doing it for her son and grandson.

Soon, Su Bei came over with an IOU in her hand. "Mom, this is an IOU. I've written it, signed it, and there's a copy of my ID card as well. It's all here. I'll return you the money in two months the soonest and five months the latest."

"Why are you being so polite? It's Heting's money anyway. Just take it." Mrs. Lu was a little surprised.

At first, she thought that Su Bei had no qualms about accepting a large amount of money and took her husband's money for granted.

She did not expect her to be such an upright person.

Mrs. Lu had a whole new level of respect for her.

"How can I simply accept the money? I can't do that."

"This is really Heting's money. The house that was demolished was also bought by him years ago. As his mother, I didn't contribute much."

Indeed, she had not helped her son much with Lu Group, so she was speaking honestly.

"You can just give the IOU to Heting. Such a large amount of money can also be pre-marriage money. I haven't received the money for a commercial yet. I'll take on other jobs too. I should be able to return the money to you soon. You're already helping me solve my problem by lending me such a large amount of money. Thank you so much." Su Bei was very confident in her earning capability.

Since Su Bei insisted on giving her the IOU, Mrs. Lu had to accept it.

Su Bei was very grateful to Lu Heting and Mrs. Lu for lending her such a large sum of money without any hesitation.

Su Bei understood that if Lu Heting had not praised her in front of Mrs. Lu, she would not have taken out the money directly.

Actually, Lu Heting did not want to lend her the money. He just wanted to give it to her directly.

It was a pity that Su Bei refused to accept the money, so he had no choice but to let the matter be.

Mrs. Lu was very satisfied with this meal. Not only did she get a grandson she had always dreamed of having but she also got a daughter-in-law who was better than she expected. When she left, her footsteps were light.

Lu Heting and Su Bei saw her out.

After she left, Su Bei heaved a long sigh of relief.

Noticing that she was feeling pressured, Lu Heting lowered his eyes and said, "I'm sorry, Su Bei. I haven't even had a proper conversation with you before my mom came here."

"It's okay. It's only natural for her to come to see you and our child. Besides, she has done me such a big favor." Su Bei waved the bank card in her hand.

Mrs. Lu had already given the IOU to Lu Heting.

He pinched it helplessly.

Looking at the IOU, Su Bei sighed. "Lu Heting, I didn't expect you to be so rich. I'm impressed."

Lu Heting suddenly felt nervous, as if he was afraid that her next words would be about disliking the rich.

However, Su Bei suddenly smiled and said happily, "That means Da Bao and Gun Gun can live better lives in the future!"

Hearing this, Lu Heting finally relaxed.

He looked at Su Bei and said, "Actually, there's no need for us to draw such a distinguished line for our finances. No matter where the money comes from, it's still our shared property, right?"

Su Bei did not want him to waste his feelings on her, so she just smiled and said, "Really? Hahahaha. But husband and wife have to properly settle these matters. I'm going to clean up the table now, so I won't chat with you anymore."

Chapter 318: Can I Sleep with You?

Lu Heting's eyes darkened.

He did not need to worry anymore.

She was Da Bao's mother and his wife for life. He had plenty of time and patience to wait for her to truly accept him.

Gun Gun's love for Da Bao was second only to Su Bei's.

All afternoon, Gun Gun had stayed by Da Bao's side.

Although Da Bao occasionally looked at him with contempt, Gun Gun still followed him obediently.

Sometimes, Da Bao would play some games on the computer or do complex coding that Gun Gun could not understand.

Even so, Gun Gun still sat beside him and watched him with great interest.

"Can you understand this?" Da Bao glanced at Gun Gun.

"I don't understand it." Gun Gun shook his head and waved his chubby little arms.

Da Bao looked away. "Then why are you still looking at it?"

"Because you're handsome, Brother Da Bao," Gun Gun replied seriously.

Da Bao coughed lightly. Why was this little boy so much like Su Xiaobei?

Sure enough, it was because Su Xiaobei had taken care of him for a little while, so she had already influenced him.

Before going to bed at night.

Su Bei tidied up the third room for Da Bao.

The advantage of this house was that every room was big. There was a space in each room that could be used as a study area.

Now that everything had been arranged, it seemed just right.

Da Bao himself found a towel and a set of pajamas, wanting to shower.

It was rare for Gun Gun to take the initiative to go to his room and shower. Once he was done, he picked up his doll and ran toward Da Bao's room.

When Su Bei looked around the house, she would see Gun Gun's figure running everywhere. She could not help smiling.

His short legs did not allow him to run very fast, but he seemed to run into her heart every time.

Then, she heard Gun Gun shouting from the room, "Brother Da Bao, can I sleep with you?"

Lu Heting stood up and looked at his son lovingly. 'Good boy, there's a chance that I can marry Su Bei again.'

If Gun Gun and Da Bao shared a room, did that mean that he could finally stay in the same room as Su Bei?

Su Bei was drinking milk when she suddenly spat it out. Did Gun Gun want to sleep with Da Bao? Then she and Lu Heting would not have a good excuse to not share a bed.

Then the things that would happen next would be very dangerous, right?

She really did not want to be intimate with Lu Heting anymore in case he got sad and missed her in the future.

Da Bao looked at Gun Gun helplessly. "I'm used to sleeping alone."

The expression on Gun Gun's face cracked as he frowned.

The light in Lu Heting's eyes dimmed.

Holding the glass of milk in her hand, Su Bei casually took a sip of it. How could she forget that Da Bao had always been independent and did not like to share a bed with others?

"But Brother Da Bao, Gun Gun wants to sleep with you. Can I? Brother... Brother..." Gun Gun tugged on the corner of Da Bao's shirt.

Da Bao wanted to refuse. He had never been a soft-hearted person, and he did not have the habit of being considerate to outsiders.

However, when he saw Gun Gun's expression, he felt a little sorry for him.

This little boy was really capable. He could always melt his heart.

Lu Heting admired his son's ability.

Su Bei hoped that her son would be more determined.

For a moment, the four of them were in a deadlock.

...

Could she still sleep tonight?

Chapter 319: Obviously Left Out

Gun Gun tugged on the hem of Da Bao's shirt. Lu Heting, who was standing at the side, displayed his aura that was strong and obscure.

Su Bei sipped on the milk.

After a long time, Da Bao agreed. "Just this once. It won't happen again."

"Okay! Okay! I can sleep with Brother Da Bao tonight! He's so nice!"

Su Bei choked on her milk and coughed several times.

Lu Heting's eyes were burning with flames.

As for Da Bao, he had a deep suspicion that Gun Gun did not understand the meaning of 'won't happen again.' Rather, Gun Gun simply chose not to understand the meaning of the phrase.

Clenching his fists, Lu Heting coughed lightly and said, "Okay then, go to bed early."

He was very relieved to let his elder son take care of his younger son.

However, Da Bao felt a little wronged.

Even so, he would look for another opportunity to make up for the grievances he was facing this time.

Maybe in a few days, he could pack up everything in his bedroom and move back to the master bedroom, replacing Gun Gun.

His clothes could be hung side by side with Su Bei's. The other half of Su Bei's bed would also be reserved for him.

Da Bao held Gun Gun's hand and said, "Let's sleep with Xiao Bei."

What?

Da Bao's words shattered Lu Heting's hopes into pieces.

Lu Heting thought that he had misheard him.

He looked at Da Bao in confusion.

Da Bao said matter-of-factly, "He's so young. I don't have the experience of taking care of children. It's better if we sleep with Xiao Bei."

Besides, if he slept with Xiao Bei, he would feel more comfortable. If he could not take Gun Gun's presence anymore in the middle of the night, Xiao Bei could be his buffer.

Su Bei smacked her forehead. What did Da Bao mean by taking care of a child? He was only a few days older than Gun Gun, right?

However, she thought that Da Bao's suggestion made sense.

"Let's go, then. Let's have an early rest. You're not allowed to play or sleep at night. Otherwise, a big bad wolf will come and catch you." Su Bei held Da Bao's and Gun Gun's hands while walking into her room.

Gun Gun followed Su Bei happily.

Lu Heting was left alone on this cold night.

After settling the two little munchkins down, Su Bei lowered her head and kissed each of their faces.

Looking at their obedient sleeping faces, a gentle and loving look appeared in her eyes.

She closed the door and walked out. Sitting on the sofa was a sulky man.

For a moment, Su Bei did not know how to comfort him. It seemed that he was being neglected.

Gun Gun used to stick to Su Bei, but he would also stick to him.

After Da Bao appeared, Gun Gun started sticking to him. Most of the time, he would ignore Su Bei and Lu Heting.

"Ahem, do you want some tea?" Su Bei asked.

Lu Heting stood up and said, "Why don't I sleep with them? You're tired, so you should have a good rest. You can sleep in my room."

"That's not necessary. Don't be angry at Gun Gun. Kids like to be with their friends. You have more common topics with someone of the same age." Although Da Bao did not seem to have any common topics with Gun Gun.

Lu Heting felt even more aggrieved. It seemed that she did not understand what he was upset about.

Seeing that he was fine, Su Bei smiled and said, "Go to bed early. I'll make a few work calls."

"It's already nine o'clock. Why are you so busy?" Lu Heting raised his wrist and looked at the time.

Chapter 320: Thank You for Appearing in My Life

"Many companies have guessed that I'll be terminating my contract with Qian Yu Entertainment Company, so some have approached me to discuss about a contract. I have to reply to them." Sitting on the sofa, Su Bei took out her phone.

Lu Heting sat down and asked, "Do you need my help?"

"That's not necessary. I'll be rejecting them. I just want to do it gently and politely. It's not a big deal."

"You won't choose a new company?" Lu Heting asked.

She did not have a strong foundation, and neither did she have any experience setting up an agency of her own. Why would she not sign on to a company?

What was her plan for her career?

Su Bei smiled. "That's right. I plan to take on short-term projects like walking on the runway or shooting commercials for brands. I don't plan to take up any long-term projects for the time being."

"Why?" Lu Heting immediately asked.

There was a hint of nervousness in his voice, as if she was ready to leave S Country and go back to the United States at any time.

Why? Su Bei suddenly thought of her illness.

When she was in the United States, the assistant doctor had personally told her that the treatment was having very little effect on her condition. There was no cure for her illness yet.

If she wanted to undergo chemotherapy, she would have to stay in the hospital for a long time. If she lost all her hair, she would not be able to do anything then. She might not even be able to survive.

Hence, she had given up long ago.

Of course, she would not choose to sign on to a new company now.

She just wanted to save more money for Da Bao and Gun Gun.

This was the reason.

However, she would not tell Lu Heting or Da Bao this. When the time came, they would naturally come to realize that suffering for a short while was better than prolonged pain.

She smiled, saying, "Because I want to make more money, enjoy life, and take up less responsibilities for the company. I'm tired, so I want to be lazy."

Lu Heting found this reason acceptable.

He said in a low and tolerant voice, "You should rest more if you're tired. Our family doesn't lack money. We won't treat you unfairly."

"I'm relieved to know that you can support the kids. Thank you, Lu Heting," Su Bei said with a bright smile.

"I should be the one thanking you. Thank you for bringing Da Bao back." 'Thank you for being in my life.'

Su Bei quickly made a few phone calls and refused the offers from these companies.

These companies felt a little regretful, but since Su Bei did not have such plans in mind, they could only accept her choice.

Actually, Su Bei was also feeling a little regretful. Each of these companies had their own strengths, and she liked one of them very much.

Unfortunately, she did not have the ability to sign such a long contract.

Back in her room, Su Bei sorted out the work that Song Ruinian had given her.

She took all the photos that were required.

Wei Lan and Lu Weijian's remuneration had already been clearly stated in the contract. Some of the remuneration would be sent to Qian Yu Entertainment Company, while the rest would be directly transferred to Su Bei's account.

She did not need to take on any new jobs.

The next morning, she went straight to the company with the card that Mrs. Lu had given her, intending to ask Song Ruinian to cancel her contract.

When Su Bei arrived, Du Luo happened to be sending Su Huixian to the company.

When his car stopped, he saw Su Bei walking over. He subconsciously looked at her.

Su Bei had not driven today. Instead, she took the subway and walked over leisurely with her bag.

She was dressed casually in a white T-shirt, shorts, and sandals.
