

Chapter 461: Friends More Important Than Family

“You can head back.” Lu Hang let Liang Hanwen go.

Liang Hanwen was helpless and disappointed. He could not swallow his pride and accept this.

He was also a reputable figure in the capital and had never yielded to anyone.

However, Mr. Lu had already said he would not see him anymore, so what else could he do?

However, what he did not know was that Mr. Lu refused to see him anymore. This meant that his life as a powerful big shot was about to come to an end.

Initially, Lu Heting wanted to use gentle means to resolve this conflict with Lv Shan.

However, the ignorant and fearless Zhang Baozhen had already set the flames of war on Su Bei. What awaited these two people would ultimately be a tragic end.

Su Bei was also scrolling through her phone and saw everything Zhang Baozhen said.

Although she was angry, she managed to stay mostly calm. In this circle, it was normal for one to be unjustly wronged.

It was not the first time Su Bei had encountered such dirty tricks being used.

“Leave this matter to me,” Lu Heting said to Su Bei.

Su Bei looked up at his dark eyes and nodded.

Although she did not know what method he was going to use to clear her name, she trusted him. She trusted that he would do his best to clear her name.

That was because he had not only given her trust and protection, but he was also her emotional support. He allowed her to live a new life, and at the same time, he helped her learn to trust others as well.

It was as if he knew everything about her and could protect her.

It was as if he was born with a kind of superpower. It did not seem like it came from being a chauffeur of Lu Group, nor was it something that could be learned from having such a position. It just felt like he was born powerful and resourceful.

“Lu Heting, you...” Su Bei was actually curious about how he managed to do all these things.

However, the words she wanted to say were a little difficult to formulate. She did not know where to start.

“Hm?” The man looked up at her unhurriedly. His hum had a nice ring to it.

Su Bei shook her head and changed the topic. “Zhang Baozhen is a socialite, and her husband, Liang Hanwen, is a big shot. That’s why she dares to disregard the law so fearlessly. I’m afraid that if we just rely on some evidence to clear my name, we might not succeed. We might even suffer from their retaliation.”

“You knew it was dangerous yet still rushed to help Lv Shan.” Lu Heting’s words were filled with affection.

Of course, he did not mind what Su Bei did. In the end, he would deal with all her problems for her because he did not want her to hurt herself.

“Because we’re friends.” Su Bei laughed softly. “Perhaps to others, friendships are not all that important. However, there was a time when my friends were more important than my own family.”

When she was in the orphanage and during the time she spent overseas, she did not have any friends. Hence, she had always been alone.

Lu Heting’s heart ached for her. He hugged her gently. He did not mind her saying this, but in the future, he would be her family who was more important than her friends.

After Su Bei went to rest, Lu Heting called Yue Ze.

Yue Ze came out of Lv Shan’s place, thinking that Lu Heting wanted to talk to him about Su Bei.

“I’ve seen Zhang Baozhen’s post on the internet bashing Su Bei,” Yue Ze said, “Currently, the fastest and most effective way is to reveal the evidence we have.”

Chapter 462: Choose To Fight Alongside Lu Heting

“Let’s meet and talk in more detail,” said Lu Heting.

Yue Ze actually did not like it when an artist’s family was involved in the artist’s work because unprofessional views and practices would affect their PR methods.

However, he could not reject Lu Heting’s request.

He agreed to meet Lu Heting immediately.

He was waiting for Lu Heting at Su Bei’s neighborhood.

When the man walked out of the elevator and walked toward Yue Ze, Yue Ze felt an indescribable sense of pressure.

Before this, he had never been alone with Lu Heting, especially when he went to save Su Bei and Lv Shan that night. As the police were present then, Yue Ze thought that the aura he felt from Lu Heting was because of the police nearby.

However, now that he was alone with him, Yue Ze finally confirmed that this man seemed to have an innate aura.

However, this did not mean that Yue Ze could accept Lu Heting interfering in Su Bei’s affairs.

“Yue Ze, I want to talk to you about Su Bei’s matter. For the time being, suppress the news. I want to investigate more about Liang Hanwen and release the evidence at one go.”

Lu Heting’s tone was naturally commanding.

However, Yue Ze disagreed. “Scandals will have a huge impact on female artists. If this drags on, it’ll only worsen the public’s negative view of Su Bei. We have evidence that Su Bei isn’t a mistress. Why not release the evidence immediately?”

“Because Zhang Baozhen and Liang Hanwen both have powerful backgrounds and families.”

Yue Ze had to admit that he was right.

Even if they quickly clarified that Su Bei was not a mistress, at best, it was only a temporary victory.

If the two of them continued to pressure Su Bei, as a mere artist, she would not be able to put up a fight.

Although Sheng Tang had always claimed to protect their female celebrities, would they bet on the future of the company to protect one of their female celebrities?

Yue Ze had also prepared for this. “I have a personal relationship with Zhang Baozhen and I have connections in the industry. After this matter, I’ll have a good talk with Zhang Baozhen and resolve this peacefully.”

“But you don’t have full confidence.” Lu Heting pointed out. “Even if you say you’re 99% confident, I won’t let Su Bei take a single risk.”

Yue Ze admitted that he was not very confident. Who would dare say that their plan would be 100% successful?

He could tell that Lu Heting wanted a foolproof plan. In fact, Lu Heting wanted not only to clear Su Bei’s name but also retaliate against the couple for bringing Su Bei harm.

Who exactly was this man in front of him? Where did his immense confidence and natural leadership skills come from?

This confused Yue Ze, who had seen countless people.

Yue Ze had no choice but to agree.

As Yue Ze drove away, he was still seriously thinking about the questions in his mind but could not find any answers.

Forget it. Since Lu Heting’s words made sense, as Su Bei’s manager, Yue Ze had the same interests as Su Bei and Lu Heting. This time, he would choose to fight alongside Lu Heting!

Su Bei did not respond to Zhang Baozhen’s post.

Sheng Tang and Yue Ze did not suppress the news nor did they respond.

Su Bei acted as if nothing had happened.

Chapter 463: Imitating Someone Will Bring About Worse Results

Zhang Baozhen, on the other hand, accepted an interview. She complained bitterly about her position as the legal wife and how she and her husband had decided to be a 'dual income, no kids' couple. It was not easy for her to maintain her family life, but the mistress kept posing hurdles to her every step of the way.

She even said that she had inquired about Su Bei's maternity check-up at the hospital.

Zhang Baozhen was indeed targeting Su Bei on purpose. Anyway, even if Su Bei brought out evidence that the mistress was Lv Shan and not herself, Zhang Baozhen was not afraid. At most, she would just say that she had accidentally gotten the wrong person.

At that time, the outside world would probably only sympathize with her, the official wife, and not lessen their hatred for Su Bei and Lv Shan.

Zhang Baozhen's interview caused even greater waves.

Countless reporters and paparazzi were frantically asking about Su Bei.

These two days, Su Bei reduced her workload and just rested at home.

Initially, Yue Ze was worried that the paparazzi would find out Su Bei's address. However, for some reason, the reporters and paparazzi did not manage to find out where Su Bei lived.

Of course, this was all because Lu Heting was too awesome. He had enforced the security measures in Su Bei's place a long time ago. No one would be given a chance to find out where their home was and intrude.

In order to obtain some evidence, Lv Shan had no choice but to go to the hospital to perform a DNA test. They would extract the amniotic fluid and do a DNA test to confirm that this child had nothing to do with Liang Hanwen.

Yue Ze accompanied Lv Shan to the hospital.

This procedure carried the risk of causing a miscarriage.

There was also a certain degree of humiliation for having to do this. After all, even though Lv Shan knew with certainty that the child she was carrying was her fiancé's, she had no choice but to undergo this procedure to give the public an explanation.

Lv Shan sat on the hospital bench. She wore a mask, revealing only her haggard eyes.

Her fiancé should have been here to accompany her for this procedure.

However, the couple had been in a cold war ever since they quarreled that day. He had not contacted Lv Shan at all and did not pick up her calls either.

What could be more cruel and chilling than this?

Yue Ze bought her a hot drink and stood by the side without saying anything.

Lv Shan endured her heartache and said, "Let's go. The earlier we check, the earlier we get the evidence."

Yue Ze nodded and reached out to support her.

After the examination, the doctor gave the results. The DNA test done on Lv Shan's child using the amniotic fluid showed that it was indeed her fiancé's child.

Seeing this expected result, Lv Shan could only smile bitterly without any joy.

"I'll go get the car. Wait for me here." Yue Ze kept the evidence and put it in his bag.

Lv Shan stood at the side, waiting for Yue Ze.

Zhang Baozhen had already been warned by the police for her abominable actions, so Lv Shan could freely go out and nobody was surrounding her.

However, that did not mean that no one noticed her.

Cai Anying was the one who spotted Lv Shan.

She was tall and wore flats. She carried a small bag and swaggered over to Lv Shan.

"Lv Shan, are you here for a prenatal check-up?" Cai Anying asked arrogantly the moment she saw Lv Shan.

She previously had a fight with Su Bei over resources and did not have a good impression of Lv Shan. Furthermore, Lv Shan was the former lover of her current lover. When she saw Lv Shan, it could be said that she was reminded of new and old grudges.

Lv Shan glanced at her. Her face, which resembled Su Bei's, was really disgusting.

Cai Anying was the perfect example of getting a worse outcome after trying to imitate someone!

Chapter 464: Trust His Ability

Cai Anying smiled and said, "It's just a child whose father is unknown. What's so good about going for a prenatal check-up? Some people are really experienced in being mistresses. You're keeping this child because you want to fight for the Liang family's assets in the future, right?"

Enraged, Lv Shan slapped Cai Anying.

Cai Anying was caught off guard, and she flew into a rage out of humiliation.

She was taller than Lv Shan, so she immediately jumped up and raised her hand to hit her.

If she did not teach Lv Shan a lesson today, her surname would not be Cai!

However, before she could hit her, Yue Ze grabbed her wrist.

Yue Ze, who was dressed like an elite, looked gentle and refined, but he was very strong. Cai Anying could not break free from his grasp.

“Miss Cai, have you forgotten your status and chosen to hit someone? What’s going on here?” Yue Ze questioned calmly.

Cai Anying pulled out her wrist and glared at Yue Ze.

Although she could not take this lying down, she had to admit that she could not cause trouble here with her identity.

If she was photographed, her career would suffer a huge blow. Lv Shan was not worth it!

She left.

Suddenly, Cai Anying felt a sharp pain on her nose and muttered to herself, “Oh no, I think there’s something wrong with my nose.”

She quickly touched it with her hand. In order to imitate Su Bei’s sharp nose, Cai Anying had spent a lot of effort to get it.

However, plastic surgery was still plastic surgery. Her nose could not withstand too much external force.

She hurriedly ran away.

Lv Shan did not feel any better after slapping Cai Anying.

She had always been in the middle of scandals. Although she was not criticized by the outside world, she always had to suffer from a lot of torture and pressure.

Su Bei had been home for the past two days, not paying any attention to this matter.

It was because Lu Heting had told her about his thoughts and plans. He said he would solve everything.

He would also seek Lu Weijian’s help to investigate the truth and clear her name.

Su Bei believed in his ability and that he would protect her.

Hence, she completely agreed with the solution he proposed.

For now, she only needed to accompany Da Bao and Gun Gun without worry. She would cook delicious food for them, play the piano with them, and draw with them. She was enjoying the rare free time she had this weekend.

At this moment, Su Bei received a call from Lin Yu, who was abroad.

“Su Bei, the hospital in America called to ask about your condition. How are things?”

“Which hospital?” Su Bei asked.

“The one you used to go to. They said that they haven’t been able to contact you, so they called me. The doctor informed you to go back for a check-up.”

Su Bei remembered that she had previously set Lin Yu’s number as her emergency contact at the hospital.

She had changed her number after returning to the country, so the other party could not contact her anymore.

That hospital was the one that diagnosed her with stomach cancer.

Hearing Lin Yu's words, Su Bei's heart skipped a beat.

Should she go back for another check-up?

"Su Bei, what's wrong? Don't keep quiet! Are you sick? Are you feeling unwell?"

Su Bei laughed. "No, it's a women's issue. I can't tell you about it."

"Really? Don't hide anything from me."

Chapter 465: You Need To Personally Come And Do A Check-up

"I'm not. I'll call the hospital myself," Su Bei said.

Lin Yu asked a few more questions but Su Bei remained firm, so he could only end the call.

Su Bei immediately found the hospital's number and called the attending doctor.

She wondered if her illness had worsened. Was the doctor looking for her to remind her to go back to the hospital?

"Miss Su, we need you to come to the hospital. We have to tell you something. Are you free now?"

"Can you tell me what's going on?" Su Bei asked.

"We really need you to personally come over for a check-up before we can come to a conclusion." The other party was very firm.

Su Bei's heart suddenly felt empty. Could it be that her illness had rapidly worsened?

Recently, her stomach hurt a lot. Sometimes, it was so painful that she could not fall asleep.

However, the doctor had told her that there was no way to treat her, so she had already completely given up hope.

Was the doctor going to tell her that her life was coming to an end?

Gun Gun gently approached her. "Bei Bei, why are you crying?"

"I'm not, the sand just entered my eyes." Su Bei quickly wiped away her tears and carried Gun Gun with a bright smile.

"Bei Bei, are you unhappy about something? Did Gun Gun make you sad?" Gun Gun said in a childish voice as he hugged Su Bei's neck. "Tell Gun Gun and Gun Gun will definitely be obedient. I'll be good and eat and sleep. I won't make Bei Bei unhappy."

"Me too." Da Bao stood at the side with a cold face.

However, there was an unconcealable concern for Su Bei in his eyes.

Su Bei hugged him and smiled happily. "Su Bei has nothing to be unhappy about. She has two of the most obedient sons in the world and the best husband in the world. She has so many outstanding friends and a bunch of big brothers and sisters who have always supported her. How could she not be happy? Su Bei's life is complete and happy. Being in this world is truly worth it!"

Lu Heting returned home and was slightly worried when he saw this.

When Su Bei faced work-related matters and the ups and downs of the entertainment industry, she rarely lost control of herself.

She already knew how they were going to deal with Zhang Baozhen's matter, so what was going on?

"Su Bei, tell me if there's anything, okay?"

Su Bei went up to him and said, "Lu Heting, when you're done with your work, accompany me to a trip to America. Just the two of us. Take it as you accompanying me, okay?"

"Of course." Seeing her bright smile, Lu Heting's worry faded a little.

The thought of traveling with her filled him with anticipation.

Su Bei's smile seemed genuine. Her disguise was truly good. She had never dared to reveal her feelings to Lu Heting, afraid that her feelings would hold him back and affect his future choices.

However, at the end of the day, she still could not help but want him by her side. She wanted to spend her last days with him.

She also wanted to treat him well and repay him for everything he had done...

Even though Su Bei had not responded to Zhang Baozhen, Zhang Baozhen continued to tag Su Bei on social media, trying to attract her attention.

Currently, the netizens were supporting Zhang Baozhen. After all, any woman would feel the same way when facing a mistress.

Mistresses were universally hated by everyone.

Chapter 466: Don't Be Merciful

"Could Su Bei really be a mistress? Is she feeling guilty and that's why she hasn't responded even after so long?"

"I pity Zhang Baozhen. She must be badly hurt that a socialite like her personally took matters into her own hand and dealt with a model."

"I'm afraid that Su Bei is really doomed this time!"

"Recently, Su Bei's activities have almost completely stopped. This is also a warning to those who are mistresses. They'll all be caught and done for sooner or later."

“Zhang Baozhen said that Su Bei is pregnant. Could Su Bei have gone for an abortion during this time?”

Looking at the opinions online, it was a rare moment that Su Huixian was happy.

Unexpectedly, Cai Anying’s appearance did not deal Su Bei a direct blow but it was a sneak attack, causing Su Bei to fall into a quagmire.

Qiu Minxuan said from the side, “Huixian, Su Bei hasn’t responded. I’m guessing Sheng Tang hasn’t thought about how to handle public relations.”

“But the mistress isn’t Su Bei, it’s Lv Shan. Su Bei has countless opportunities to turn things around. It all depends on how Liang Hanwen and Zhang Baozhen handle it. I hope the couple won’t be merciful.”

Su Huixian curled her lips. She knew that Zhang Baozhen was not a kind person. If Su Bei provoked her, she would probably suffer in this circle.

“Collect this information and let Du Luo take a look at it as well,” Su Huixian instructed Qiu Minxuan.

Qiu Minxuan agreed but felt that there was really no need to do so.

Su Bei had already left so long ago, so how could Du Luo still remember the past they shared? Doing such a thing would only make things worse.

Just when everyone was in an uproar, Yue Ze finally appeared.

He posted a message on Weibo. “At 8 p.m. tonight, we will be at Sheng Tang to hold a press conference. We’ll answer all of the questions regarding Su Bei.”

“Is Su Bei apologizing?”

“Will Zhang Baozhen be there?”

“What’s exactly going on with Su Bei’s pregnancy?”

“Will you clarify who the mistress is?”

Everyone was paying attention to Yue Ze’s Weibo post.

This was not only a matter of the fans’ concern but also the focus of everyone else.

The fans wanted things to be quickly clarified so they could use solid evidence to slap the faces of those people who were gossiping!

“We will clarify all these questions tonight. Please look forward to it.” Yue Ze made another post.

He used the word ‘clarify’!

Su Bei’s fans were so excited that they were rubbing their palms together. They had known from the start that Su Bei was innocent! Their Su Bei would never do anything to disappoint them.

It turned out that they were right!

The press conference at night was held in Sheng Tang.

At the scene, there were as many reporters as there were stars in the sky. Sheng Tang had never attracted so many reporters even when a top actress was facing a situation back then. This was enough to prove Su Bei's popularity, but at the same time, it could also be seen just how big the impact of this matter was.

Tang Xinru had already authorized Yue Ze to handle everything.

The information Lu Heting gathered was also handed to Yue Ze.

Lu Heting himself had quietly appeared in a corner. He was paying attention to the development of the situation.

There were countless bodyguards scattered in the dark around them. They only had one goal—to protect Su Bei from all directions. They could not afford any mishaps.

The reporters were already waiting in place. When the door to the main hall opened, Yue Ze and Lv Shan appeared at the same time while Su Bei was nowhere to be seen.

Chapter 467: Large-scale Drama Set

Although everyone was a little disappointed, they knew that Su Bei would not appear to face everyone for now.

Yue Ze stood on stage and said to the reporters below the stage, "Everyone, today, we will clarify everything that has happened to Su Bei. I hope to have everyone's full attention so that you won't miss a single detail."

The reporters naturally would give him their full attention.

No matter what Yue Ze said tonight, whether it was a clarification or an explanation, it would become the headlines for tomorrow morning's news. It would affect their bonuses and performance this year.

"Also, we've 'invited' Madam Zhang Baozhen to the venue today. There'll be an in-person explanation for everything."

The reporters immediately looked around but did not see Zhang Baozhen.

"Where's Zhang Baozhen?"

"When will she appear?"

The legal wife and the suspected mistress would be having a face-off. Such a large-scale drama set naturally made the reporters excited. A hundred possible headlines had already appeared in their minds.

"Madam Zhang is still on her way and will arrive soon," Yue Ze said calmly.

As Zhang Baozhen could not be bothered to show up, it took some tricks to 'invite' her.

This was handled by Lu Heting.

Yue Ze was even more impressed with this man and curious about him.

The reporters stopped looking for Zhang Baozhen and turned to Yue Ze, waiting for his explanation.

Yue Ze adjusted his gold-rimmed glasses and said, "First, let's talk about the claim that Su Bei beat up Madam Zhang Baozhen."

The reporters were overjoyed and listened attentively.

"Su Bei did slap Zhang Baozhen, but it can't be considered a beating," said Yue Ze.

"What? So Su Bei hit Zhang Baozhen? Did I hear wrongly?"

"It's rare for a mistress to be so arrogant."

"It's really big news! Su Bei has no one backing her now."

Yue Ze looked at the reporters coldly. "If you don't want to continue participating in tonight's press conference, you can leave. Otherwise, please don't voice out for the time being."

The reporters were hesitant to leave and immediately shut their mouths.

At the same time, Sheng Tang's security guards had already started to enter the scene. It seemed that if anyone dared to casually gossip about Su Bei, they would immediately ask the reporters to leave.

Everyone quietened down.

Yue Ze continued, "The reason why Su Bei hit Zhang Baozhen was because Zhang Baozhen forcefully brought Lv Shan away and wanted to abort the child in her stomach. That's right, Su Bei isn't a mistress, but neither is Lv Shan. However, Zhang Baozhen insisted on thinking that Lv Shan is one, so she wanted to abort the child in Lv Shan's stomach. She didn't hesitate to break the law and brought a group of people to kidnap Lv Shan from her home, sending her directly to the Zhang family's private hospital to force an abortion surgery on her.

"If Su Bei had not arrived in time to call the police and stop Zhang Baozhen from harming Lv Shan, the abortion would have been carried out.

"Let me ask a question. If Su Bei did this to protect her manager and an innocent fetus, even if it was a slip of the hand, it's understandable, isn't it?"

The reporters immediately replied, "If it's true, then it is indeed understandable."

"That's right. Isn't forcing an abortion on someone a beastly act?"

"She even kidnapped her and tried to force an abortion on her. Country S is a lawful country. We can't allow this to happen!"

The female reporters were particularly agitated. They viewed such behavior with critical eyes.

Chapter 468: We've All Wronged Her

Pregnancy and childbirth were a woman's own freedom. How could Lv Shan have tolerated another person's interference and coercion?

However, some reporters could not help but ask, "What about the evidence? You have no evidence, so how can we be sure that what you said is true and what Zhang Baozhen said is false?"

“Of course, there’s evidence. This is the surveillance footage of Lv Shan’s kidnapping incident.”

Yue Ze showed the video of Lv Shan being taken away by a few criminals in white coats at her home.

Such a scene made people shudder. If bad people pretended to be doctors to do bad things and hide their true motives, it would be a devastating blow to ordinary people and they would no longer feel safe.

Zhang Baozhen had wanted to get someone to destroy the surveillance footage, but unfortunately, she could not keep up with Lu Hang’s speed and it was taken away by him first.

What she thought had been destroyed was included in the other party’s set of evidence.

The video of Lv Shan in the hospital was taken by a nurse.

When she saw what was going on, she was very scared. She was afraid of being implicated and condemned by her conscience, so she filmed the scene.

It did not take Lu Hang long to learn that someone present had filmed the scene.

The video was shown to everyone. The doctor’s clear voice sounded.

“Mrs. Liang, this surgery requires the signature of the patient or her family members. If the patient doesn’t give her consent, we have no right to perform the surgery.”

“It’s fine as long as I say so. Just do it! I’ll bear the responsibility!” Zhang Baozhen said without hesitation!

At the most crucial moment, Su Bei kicked open the door and rushed in. She hit Zhang Baozhen and pushed the doctor, as well as the several men there, aside. She saved Lv Shan!

Her confident actions and domineering aura made the reporters feel as though they were watching an action movie!

At that moment, everyone had to admit that Yue Ze had taken out solid evidence to prove why Su Bei hit Zhang Baozhen.

Previously, Zhang Baozhen had only posted a photo of Su Bei hitting her. There was no explanation, and everyone was immediately misled. They thought that Su Bei, the mistress, was bullying the legal wife.

Zhang Baozhen said that Su Bei had brought a group of people over to beat her up? Those people were all Zhang Baozhen’s people! Su Bei had barged in alone!

Luckily, police officers soon arrived, allowing Su Bei to get out of the situation unscathed.

Not only did Su Bei not beat up Zhang Baozhen but she was also the embodiment of justice, a hero-like existence.

“Su Bei did nothing wrong!”

“Su Bei’s actions were very heroic.”

“We’ve all wronged her.”

Lu Heting did not appear on the screen when they played the video. When Lu Hang got the evidence, he had already edited it.

This was Su Bei's arrangement. She had said solemnly, "Lu Heting is a normal man who won't be able to handle this circle. I don't want him to become the target of criticism, so edit him out of the footage."

When Lu Hang was editing the footage, he finally felt that Lu Heting's actions were all worth it! If Young Madam was willing to protect Mr. Lu like this, what more could he hope for?

Immediately, another reporter raised a question. "If that's the case, Su Bei did nothing wrong. She was just protecting her manager. But here comes the main question. Why did Zhang Baozhen target Lv Shan? Why did she force Lv Shan to undergo an abortion?"

Chapter 469: The Worst Person Is The Man

"Because Lv Shan is a mistress! She seduced Liang Hanwen and got Su Bei to protect her! Therefore, Su Bei isn't innocent either. She might even be Liang Hanwen's lover along with Lv Shan!" A voice sounded from the group of reporters.

This person must be on good terms with Zhang Baozhen. He was hiding among so many reporters.

His words naturally attracted everyone's attention.

"That makes sense. Zhang Baozhen is a socialite, not a common woman. She must have her reasons for doing this."

"That's right. What we saw just now only shows that Su Bei had a reason for hitting Zhao Baozhen, but it doesn't explain why she didn't cut ties with the mistress."

"Let's see how Yue Ze explains it."

At the same time, Zhang Baozhen had been 'invited' over by Lu Heting.

As soon as she walked in, she heard everyone discussing.

Zhang Baozhen was wearing luxurious clothes, and her hair was elegantly styled as well. She had taken such good care of her face that no sign of aging could be seen. However, she somehow looked haggard and pitiful.

The moment she entered, she said, "Everyone, I'm here. Today, I'll stand here and watch how you come up with evidence. I'll see how you try to bury this matter!"

The reporters immediately started snapping photos of her.

On the stage, Yue Ze stepped back. Lv Shan stood up and said, "I'm the one who's pregnant. I'm also the one who was involved with Liang Hanwen."

Everyone immediately went into an uproar. There really was a mistress!

"These are all the chat records from when I was dating Liang Hanwen four years ago. You can take a look at them. From my messages with him, you can see that I never knew about Zhang Baozhen's existence.

When Liang Hanwen and Zhang Baozhen broke the news of their marriage, I had already been dating Liang Hanwen for more than a year.

“I was completely unaware of Zhang Baozhen’s existence and their marriage. I’m sure the reporters who have been in this industry for a long time knew when news of Liang Hanwen and Zhang Baozhen’s marriage broke.

“I did have a relationship with Liang Hanwen, and I unknowingly became a mistress. In the four years after I broke up with him, I never contacted him again.”

The evidence she brought out showed that Liang Hanwen had pretended to be single. They even talked about marriage a few times, but Zhang Baozhen was never mentioned in their conversation for months.

It was not until Liang Hanwen and Zhang Baozhen’s marriage was exposed that the two of them started arguing on WeChat. Chat records of Lv Shan’s stern questioning were displayed as well.

The reporters also recalled that this couple was indeed secretive about their marriage in the beginning. They kept a low profile until a photo of them was leaked. Only then did they admit that they were married.

The timeline was exactly as Lv Shan had said.

In that case, Lv Shan was indeed a victim. She had given her heart away but was deceived by a married man. The happiness she yearned for turned out to be nothing in the end.

It turned out that the worst person in this whole debacle was the man involved! He enjoyed having many women around him, fooling around with both his wife and his mistress.

When the main wife and the “mistress” were at each other’s throats, he acted like a bystander. He tried to solve the problem simply and casually. He did not want to get himself into trouble. He would do anything to protect himself.

The mistress and the main wife were the victims here!

Zhang Baozhen sneered. “Who can be sure that you guys didn’t have any more contact with each other after that? I have the call records between my husband and you!”

Chapter 470: Took The Bullet For Me

She showed the call logs, but in the past four years, there had only been one call.

However, this was enough to establish the problem. What if they had secretly used other methods to contact each other?

Lv Shan laughed and said, “That’s great, then. I recorded your husband’s call when he called me that day. I thought it was necessary for me to record the first time he called me in the past four years. Everyone, you can listen to it.”

She pressed the play button on her phone.

Lv Shan's voice was heard. One sentence was particularly clear.

"Yes, but we have nothing to do with each other anymore. What reason do you have to be calling me?"

"I'm calling to advise you to abort the child. I don't want my wife to be overly suspicious and suspect that our past relationship has rekindled. What compensation do you want? Resources or money? You can name anything."

Liang Hanwen's voice was cold and merciless. It seemed that he was taking a very simple and violent approach in order to solve the problem.

Lv Shan rejected him.

The conversation made everyone think that the situation was unfair to Lv Shan. She had given her true feelings back then in exchange for the man's heartlessness four years later.

Hearing this, Zhang Baozhen felt a little uncomfortable.

This call was the final blow that broke her psychological defense. She thought that her husband and Lv Shan were still privately in contact with each other, but who knew that the contents of their conversation were actually like this?

Was this the husband she had tried so hard not to get snatched by a "mistress"?

Women were sometimes afraid that men were too sentimental. Other times, they were afraid that men were too heartless.

At this moment, Lv Shan had already long forgotten about her heartache. Her conviction was as firm as steel as she took out a DNA test report.

"Everyone, I can tell you with certainty that I have nothing to do with Liang Hanwen anymore. We already did a DNA test on the child I'm pregnant with using the baby's amniotic fluid. The child belongs to my fiancé.

"Having to take out this report made my heart ache. But I have to do it for myself and my unborn child. I have to prove my innocence to myself and my child. My private affairs have been shoved under the spotlight to be judged by everyone today. It has made me uncomfortable and also caused a huge waste of resources.

"But if I don't make things clear, my child will always be humiliated and questioned. They'll be treated with contempt and ridicule. This is my burden as a mother and half a public figure.

"I also want to tell everyone that from the beginning to the end, Su Bei was never involved in this matter. It was only me. Su Bei is just an artist and a friend who took the bullet for me.

"Madam Zhang Baozhen, these are the evidence I wanted to show you and the words I wanted you to hear to prove my innocence. However, you constantly refused to believe me. You kicked up a fuss and even implicated Su Bei.

"But Su Bei has never done anything you said, nor has she ever met with Mr. Liang Hanwen, much less has a relationship with him. I hope that you can solemnly apologize to Su Bei here."

The reporters immediately started discussing. "So Zhang Baozhen knew about these things from the start but she never believed Lv Shan and even dragged Su Bei down."

"It has nothing to do with Su Bei. Zhang Baozhen going against a mistress is understandable, but it's a little too much to involve an innocent child and Su Bei."

"It's all the man's fault, but the women were the ones who stepped out to tear each other apart. Tsk tsk tsk..."
