

Chapter 501: Can't Bear To Let Her Down

At this moment, Lu Heting wanted to be childish. He wanted to be like a child who could not get his favorite toy and did not want anything else. He did not want to be reasonable.

It seemed as if the more determined he was, the more hope there was to salvage this situation.

Su Bei held his broad shoulders and comforted him in a low voice.

After a while, Lu Heting let go of her, handed her some clothes, and said, "It's almost time. Let's have breakfast first, then we'll go to the hospital."

While Su Bei was changing her clothes, he was packing up the things she would need in the hospital later. He was usually always clear-headed so he always knew what to do. This time, he was so distracted that he kept forgetting things.

Lu Heting forced himself to calm down. Now that Su Bei needed him, it was time for him to shoulder the burden of his family. He should not make her worry.

When she was done changing, he took her into his arms and opened the door.

Outside the door, several people were sitting or lying on the sofa. Seeing Su Bei and Lu Heting coming out, Lin Yu was the first to ask, "Su Bei, are you okay? Do you want to have hotpot for breakfast?"

Feng Feifei hit him hard on the head.

Su Bei did not expect to see all of them here. It seemed that all of them had dark circles under their eyes after not sleeping well the entire night.

"What are you all doing here? I'm fine now. You can go back and rest," Su Bei said with a bright smile.

Gu Xifeng walked up to her and put his hand on her forehead. "She's fine."

"I'm fine now. Little Third Brother, you should have all of them go back and rest." Su Bei smiled at him.

Lu Heting did not like it when Gu Xifeng touched Su Bei so casually. He pulled her to his side and said, "I'll bring Su Bei out to eat something. You guys can do whatever you want."

Lu Heting then took Su Bei out of the room.

"Boss, Boss..." Lin Yu walked up to Feng Ze and asked, "Aren't we going?"

"Boss would definitely want to go to the hospital." Hua Cuo picked up his bag and walked straight out.

Everyone followed her to the hospital.

Su Bei followed Lu Heting and asked, "What are we going to eat?"

"You said that Da Bao likes to eat the soy milk and fried dough sticks here." Lu Heting held her hand.

“Yes, so you’ll definitely like them too. I wanted to buy them for you yesterday morning, but everything was spilled,” Su Bei said regretfully.

It seemed that she no longer cared about what had happened yesterday.

Lu Heting could imagine that there would be no shortage of such incidents during her time spent with Feng Ze.

Feng Ze looked like a harmless man, but Lu Heting knew that he was not a simple man.

Lu Heting said in a warm voice, “Then I’ll eat more today.”

“Yes.” Su Bei nodded seriously. The morning sun shone through the window, casting a warm golden glow on her.

When the fried dough sticks and soy milk were served on the table, Su Bei suddenly remembered something and said, “I need to do a stomach check-up. I can’t eat anything.

Lu Heting had forgotten about this. He just remembered that Su Bei had suffered a lot yesterday and thought she needed to eat to restore her strength.

“You can eat. I’ll watch you eat.” Actually, Su Bei remembered from the start that she could not eat anything.

She was just afraid that Lu Heting would not want to eat without her, so she did not say it until now.

Lu Heting understood her intentions.. He could not bear to let her down, so he lowered his head and ate.

Chapter 502: His Heart Is Aching

After breakfast, Lu Heting and Su Bei went to the hospital for a check-up.

In order not to put too much pressure on Su Bei, Hua Cuo had already led Feng Ze and the others to the waiting area to rest.

The nurse who received Su Bei took her to a doctor named Craig, who was her previous attending physician.

“Doctor Craig, is there anything wrong with my condition?” Su Bei asked. “When I checked with you before, you said that there was no point in treating me.”

“I did say that before, but I asked you to come back because I want you to undergo another examination.”

“Has her condition changed?” Lu Heting asked.

Doctor Craig glanced at him. “Let’s do the check-up first.”

The doctor’s attitude made Su Bei nervous, but she was already mentally prepared. It was just a few more twists and turns, so she quickly calmed herself down.

However, Lu Heting pursed his thin lips tightly. His expression was solemn, and his eyes were exceptionally deep.

Su Bei reached out and held his hand, interlocking her fingers with his as she comforted him silently.

Lu Heting turned his head and held her in his arms, feeling sorry for her. He was the one who was supposed to be comforting her, but at this moment, it was Su Bei who was being considerate of his feelings.

What he could do was actually very limited.

Su Bei went in and did a series of detailed tests.

Lu Heting stood not far away from her. He saw that Su Bei would frown from time to time. He was unable to conceal his heartache. Every inch of his skin seemed to tremble at the sight of this. He felt sorry for her!

After the check-up, Su Bei did not have much energy left.

She had not eaten anything since yesterday, so her legs were weak.

Lu Heting hurriedly hugged her and sat her down.

At this time, a glass of hot milk was handed to her.

Lu Heting looked in the direction of the man's hand and saw that it was Feng Ze. He still looked calm, and his fringe covered his eyes.

He could not tell what this man was feeling, but the vibe he gave off was very obvious.

His heart ached just as much as Lu Heting's.

"The doctor said that you can eat now," Feng Ze reminded her.

Lu Heting took it, handed it to Su Bei, and said in a low voice, "Drink some."

"Thank you, Boss." Su Bei smiled weakly.

Hearing her thanks, Feng Ze's eyes darkened. Did she have to be so polite to him?

When Su Bei was almost done drinking the milk, Feng Ze turned around and left.

"What else do you want to eat?" Lu Heting asked in a low voice.

"I don't have much of an appetite. Let's talk about it later." Su Bei smiled at him. No matter what was going on, the bright smile on her face was still as charming and bright.

"Okay." Lu Heting's heart ached. There was nothing else he could do except hold her tightly.

A nurse came over and said, "Mr. Lu, Miss Su, Doctor Craig wants you to head into the consultation room."

Lu Heting carried Su Bei to the room.

He took good care of Su Bei throughout the whole process. He did not hide from the eyes of others at all. Since the people of the United States were more open-minded, they could understand why he was carrying Su Bei here and there. Several blonde and blue-eyed nurses were even envious.

In the consultation room sat the director of the hospital, the person in charge of the department, Doctor Craig, and his assistant.

Such a scene made Lu Heting's heart constrict, as if even the air had thinned out.

Chapter 503: Stabbed In The Chest

In the lounge.

Feng Ze had been supporting his forehead with one hand. Since he saved Su Bei last night, he had been maintaining this position except when he went to buy milk for her.

At this moment, the sky was bright and clear. Sunlight pierced through the white clouds, illuminating the land.

But where Feng Ze was, there was a dark cloud that separated him from the rest of the world.

"Lu Heting is taking Su Bei to the consultation room for the results of the examination. Should I get my brother to go along?" Feng Feifei was a little uncertain now.

"Why don't we just let him rest? He's too tired," Lin Yu said in a low voice.

Feng Feifei sighed. "My brother isn't too tired. He's just too heartbroken."

"Of course. Su Bei was almost met with danger last night, which was a stab in his heart. When she threw herself into Lu Heting's arms, it stabbed him again. Then, Lu Heting took out his marriage certificate, which was the third stab in his heart. The fourth stab was finding out that Su Bei has late-stage gastric cancer. He really is strong for surviving this long." Lin Yu did not know what to say anymore.

The only way he knew to comfort someone was by asking them if they wanted to eat hotpot. Feng Ze would definitely reject him.

Feng Feifei sighed and pinched Lin Yu's sleeve. "Let's go and listen to the results. I won't get my brother to go."

As soon as she finished speaking, Feng Ze stood up with a swish. He was like a dark cloud that dimmed the entire space.

Lin Yu immediately handed him a glass of water. "Boss, you should drink some water."

If he did not eat or drink, how could he compete with Lu Heting?

Feng Ze took the glass and seemed to have thought of something. His long and beautiful fingers exerted a little force. With a crack, the glass shattered on the floor. The water and his blood dripped to the floor.

"Boss!"

"Brother!"

Feng Ze strode toward the consultation room where Lu Heting and Su Bei were listening to the results of the examination.

Lin Yu shook his head and thought to himself, 'His close confidant attacked Su Bei, which crossed the boss' line. Thank God Su Bei is safe. Otherwise, all of us would've died.'

Lin Yu and Feng Feifei hurriedly followed Feng Ze.

Hua Cuo and Gu Xifeng followed as well.

Lu Heting and Su Bei had just stepped into the consultation room. While waiting for the results, Lu Heting could not hide his sadness and melancholy no matter what. He looked at the representatives and doctors with a gloomy look in his eyes.

Feng Ze and the others, who came in soon after, felt their hearts skip a beat when they saw the scene in front of them.

Feng Feifei pouted, tears welling up in her eyes.

Lin Yu was at a loss for words.

After they all came in, the medical staff led by the director of the hospital all stood up and bowed to them collectively. They said, "We're very sorry, Miss Su. We were careless before and misdiagnosed you."

The atmosphere suddenly changed.

There was a moment of silence.

The tension in the air gradually cracked and broke apart.

The atmosphere immediately lightened.

However, their doubts and worries still remained.

Lin Yu was the first to break the silence. "What do you mean? What misdiagnosis?"

...

Chapter 504: Talk Less If You Don't Know How To Speak

Doctor Craig bowed and said, "Miss Su isn't suffering from gastric cancer. It's just a stomach ulcer. She can just take medicine to treat it. Please accept our sincere apology."

Su Bei's eyes widened. "In other words, I don't have gastric cancer. I don't have one year left to live. I won't die, right?"

"Yes, I'm really sorry..." Doctor Craig said apologetically.

Feng Ze and Lu Heting's expressions suddenly relaxed. The dark clouds that shrouded Feng Ze dissipated with the wind, and the darkness in Lu Heting's eyes brightened.

At the same time, the two men had the urge to slap the doctor.

However, Su Bei rushed over and hugged him. "Thank you, Dr. Craig! Thank you so much!"

Doctor Craig had given the wrong diagnosis. He was prepared to take the blame from the patients and their families.

However, Su Bei's reaction was something he did not expect at all. He was also surprised for a moment. He felt grateful and guilty for her gratitude.

This was just the kind of woman Su Bei was. She was used to seeing the good side of things and people. She always treated others with a bright attitude.

If she was not sick, she could live with Da Bao, Gun Gun, and Lu Heting. Why would she be bothered by the misdiagnosis?

The person in charge of the department said, "Miss Su, you have a mild gastric condition. If you choose to seek treatment in our hospital in the future, the hospital will be responsible for your recovery. Everything will be free of charge. If you have other illnesses, we'll also..."

Lu Heting and Feng Ze glared at the person in charge at the same time. Other illnesses? Did they want Su Bei to have other illnesses? If they did not know how to talk, they should talk less!

The person in charge of the department was only saying this according to the agreed-upon procedure. He was so stunned by the two men's gazes that he immediately shut his mouth.

He hoped that Su Bei would stay healthy for a hundred years and never come to the hospital again. He really could not stand this pressure.

"Oh, okay. Thank you." Su Bei bowed. Her bright smile was even more beautiful than the winter trees outside. She thanked whoever she saw.

The person in charge of the department did not dare to say anything else that would provoke the two men. He chose his words carefully and said, "The hospital will also compensate you for the mental damage you've suffered."

"That's alright..." Su Bei was in a good mood.

Hua Cuo said, "At least they know their place. Otherwise, I'd sue them until they go bankrupt."

Su Bei ran back and gave Hua Cuo a big hug. "Fourth Sister, I'm fine. It was just a false alarm."

She also gave Feng Feifei a hug. "Feifei, I'll make delicious food for you in the future. But you're not allowed to deceive me!"

Lin Yu ran over and hugged Su Bei under Feng Ze and Lu Heting's murderous gazes. "You can have hotpot with me in the future. It's so good! Xiao Bei, you really scared me to death! As punishment, you can treat me to hotpot for a year."

"Okay, okay. It's fine even if it's ten years!"

Gu Xifeng was a calm man. He shook his head with a smile and looked at Su Bei.

“Little Third Brother, Boss, I’m really fine now.”

She did not hug Gu Xifeng and Feng Ze.

Gu Xifeng was alright with that, but Feng Ze lowered his eyes in disappointment and looked away.

Chapter 505: Room For Doubt

Su Bei let go of Lin Yu and hugged Lu Heting tightly. Could she finally love this man?

Could she also accept his love?

God really treated her well. He gave her such a good husband, who kept himself reserved for her for five years.

Lu Heting’s lips curved into a smile. He rested his chin on Su Bei’s head and let her embrace him.

“Boss...” Lin Yu turned his head and saw Feng Ze walking out of the consultation room.

Lin Yu also walked out, not wanting to see this scene in front of him.

Gu Xifeng walked over and patted her head. “Little Fifth Sister, since you’re fine now, I’ll take my leave first.”

“Go on with your work, Little Third Brother. I’ll come to see you next time.”

“Say hello to Da Bao for me.”

Hua Cuo reached out her hand, patted her red lips, and yawned elegantly. “I still have to handle an economic dispute with a multinational company. Bye, Su Bei.”

The crowd dispersed.

Lying in Lu Heting’s arms, Su Bei wrapped her arms around his neck and smiled gently. “Lu Heting, I want to kiss you.”

“Of course.” Lu Heting lowered his head and kissed her first.

The director and the person in charge of the department also left after seeing enough.

Lu Heting did not let go of her until he had kissed her enough. He had never held her in such a steady and peaceful way before.

He said to Doctor Craig, “Will there be any errors in the diagnosis this time?”

“No, Mr. Lu. We did a thorough check-up and consulted all the doctors in the hospital.”

Lu Heting snorted. “Your meticulousness still allows room for doubt.”

Doctor Craig could not refute. Previously, it was indeed their fault that Su Bei was misdiagnosed.

However, he also needed to defend himself. “Mr. Lu, Miss Su, please sit down. I’ll tell you in detail why I misdiagnosed your condition.”

He turned on his computer and played a video.

It was surveillance footage of Su Bei coming to the hospital several times for a check-up.

One time, a masked woman came over. While she was filling in the patient's information form, she stole a glance at Su Bei's personal information while Su Bei was not paying attention. Then, she filled in Su Bei's information on her form.

A few times when she took off her mask, an Asian face was revealed.

Later, she came to the consultation room to get the result. Since the nurse was not good at distinguishing Asian faces and the contents of her report were the same as Su Bei's, that woman was given Su Bei's medical report.

From this, it could be inferred that the medical report Su Bei took was that woman's.

"She used my information to fill out the form. No wonder a mistake was made."

Doctor Craig said, "Sometimes, we encounter such situations in our hospital. If patients don't need insurance and pay for their own expenses, we don't really look into their identities. Besides, this woman is also Asian. The medical staff saw the similar symptoms and tests, so we ended up making a mistake.

"I'm really sorry. The week she came to the hospital, I was on a trip to another city. It was another doctor who did the examination. When I got the report, I made a mistake."

Chapter 506: I Can See You

What Doctor Craig said was true, and Su Bei remembered it as well. When Doctor Craig was on leave, she decided to come to the hospital on another day.

She didn't expect such a mistake to happen.

"Miss Su, after we mixed up the two of your reports, the woman never showed up again. But you made repeated visits to inquire about your condition. We only found out about this when we were organizing and reviewing the data not long ago. When we checked the surveillance footage from back then, that was when we learned the truth."

Dr. Craig was full of apologies, even though it was not his fault that this mistake was made.

"But we didn't dare to jump to conclusions. To confirm which one of you has gastric cancer, we could only contact you to come for a follow-up examination. We didn't dare to tell you the details in the middle of the examination in case we gave you false hope. That's why we waited for the final result to come out before we told you the truth."

When Su Bei heard this, she understood everything. She said, "I understand. Thank you, Doctor Craig, for doing your job."

"It's just that the woman didn't leave her real personal information on the form. Now it seems that she's the patient with gastric cancer but we can't contact her. I hope she has gone to another hospital for a check-up and treatment. New treatment methods are available for her condition now. I hope they'll work for her."

Su Bei also felt sorry for this woman. When she decided to steal other people's information, she might not have thought so much about it. Perhaps when she received the diagnosis report and saw that her condition was not serious, she did not bother much about it anymore.

It seemed that she had missed a lot of opportunities.

"Miss Su, you and that woman are both Asians. If you happen to meet this woman in the future, please remind her of her condition," Doctor Craig said.

However, he also knew that there were billions of Asians in the world, so the chances of Su Bei meeting that woman were very small.

Su Bei also understood that, but she still took a photo of the woman. What if she ran into her? What if she did not know about her condition?

Doctor Craig specially brought out a few boxes of medicine and handed them to her. "I'm sorry for what happened this time. I hope your stomach ulcer will recover soon."

"I used to have a stomach ache every now and then. I would feel really uncomfortable. I thought it was because of gastric cancer... But it turns out that it's a combination of stomach ulcer and psychological factors." Su Bei was finally relieved.

Lu Heting carefully put the medicines into her bag.

After leaving the hospital, Su Bei was in a good mood.

Lu Heting had been holding her hand the whole time. When they went downstairs, he picked her up horizontally.

"I'm very healthy now. I don't need to be carried anymore."

"I need it," Lu Heting said in a low voice. He lowered his head and touched the tip of her nose.

Su Bei wrapped her arms around his neck and said, "Then you have to carry me back to the apartment, okay?"

"Okay."

"It's better to have you piggyback me. It's too tiring for you to carry me like this." Su Bei couldn't bear to see him suffer.

"I can see you if I carry you like this."

Su Bei smiled. "Okay, then. I like that I can see you too."

"You were willing to come back before, but you refused to get open your heart to me. Was it because you were sick?" Thinking about it now, Lu Heting understood everything.

She had a plan for her career, him, and Da Bao.

Fortunately, she had not chosen a new wife for him.

Chapter 507: Like A Melting Iceberg

Otherwise, Lu Heting might personally strangle the candidate she selected.

Su Bei shrank her head and said, "Yes. Doctor Craig said that I still had a year left to live. How would I dare to be together with you? I just wanted to hand Da Bao to you as soon as possible. Plus, there was Gun Gun too. I only thought about saving enough money for their education and living expenses to last them until they turned 18. I didn't dare to think about anything else."

When she was talking about these things now, her attitude was much better. She didn't have any worries at all.

Lu Heting, on the other hand, was very upset. Before this, he never knew why she was always avoiding him.

As her husband, he had been too careless.

Su Bei chuckled and said, "After eating, I'll shop till I drop. I've been working so hard to save up money recently. I haven't bought anything for myself in a long time."

"Of course."

"Also, I want to eat a lot of food. Hotpot, roast lamb kebabs, barbecue, and grilled fish..."

"We'll eat them all."

Lu Heting stopped in his tracks. "No, you can't eat those things until your stomach ulcer is healed."

"Okay. Then will you eat those foods with me afterward?"

"Yes."

"Lu Heting, you're so cold. You always respond with one word."

Lu Heting lowered his eyes and took a whiff of her scent. "Because I prefer doing other things."

Su Bei gave him a light punch and said, "When I get back, I'll call President Tang. From now on, I have to rethink my career path. I'll take on both short-term and long-term jobs from now on. Not only do I have to make money, but I also have to develop my career well. After all, I have sons and a husband to take care of."

"Don't work too hard. I can just eat less." Lu Heting looked at her. If she wanted to do something she liked, he would always support her and accompany her.

However, he didn't want her to feel too much pressure.

Su Bei smiled. "But I have two sons who are still growing up. As their mother, I must give them the best lives!"

Lu Heting smiled. She treated Gun Gun as her own son. It was her kindness that made him want to love her more.

"Do you want to come to Di Xing Media?"

It was an entertainment industry under Lu Group. If she joined them, she would be better looked after.

“I’ve thought about it before but I won’t go over. President Tang and Yue Ze treated me very well in the past. They even gave me a three-month contract period that allowed me to accumulate a large amount of wealth in a short time. If I were really sick, I would have had to owe them this favor even after death. Fortunately, I’m not sick. If I run away to another company as soon as I found out I’m healthy, how immoral would I be?”

Lu Heting nodded. “Okay.”

Su Bei was really hungry. Lu Heting saw a suitable restaurant on the way, so he put her down and went in with her. They ordered some food to fill her stomach.

Seeing that Su Bei was eating happily, the smile on Lu Heting’s face widened. His cold face melted like an iceberg.

“Have you been busy recently?” Su Bei asked with a smile.

“It’s fine.” Lu Heting was always busy with his work, but he didn’t mind stretching himself thin for her.

“If you’re not busy, can we stay for a real trip? I’ll be your guide. Let’s have fun for a few more days.”

Lu Heting’s eyes lit up. “That sounds like a good plan.”

The next few days were a rare time for Lu Heting and Su Bei to relax.

Su Bei was famous in S Country, so it was not convenient for her to go out.. Besides, her relationship with Lu Heting was still unstable then, so she could not appear in public with him without any worries.

Chapter 508: Take Little Fifth Sister Away

In this foreign country, they did not feel any burden at all. Besides, the misunderstanding about her diagnosis was resolved now, so they were in a good mood. Over the past few days, Lu Heting and Su Bei had a good time together.

She also took a day to visit Feng Feifei and Gu Xifeng.

Hua Cuo was too busy with the financial dispute case to take time off.

Feng Ze would not want to see his enemy, and Feng Ze’s enemy was Lin Yu’s enemy, so he refused to come. If his boss was not willing to go, then he would not go to support Lu Heting either. After all, he was a man of principles.

Feng Feifei was the most unprincipled one. She liked whoever Su Bei liked. Perhaps it was because she and Feng Ze were of different genders, so they thought differently as well.

Gu Xifeng was a calm man, and he was the kindest brother in the group. Since Lu Heting had saved Su Bei this time and showed his strength. Obviously, the man had already gained his recognition, so he accepted Su Bei’s invitation.

He was loyal to Feng Ze, but he would not reject a man who could make Su Bei happy.

He said to Lu Heting, “I’ll leave Little Fifth Sister to you. Take good care of her.”

"I will," Lu Heting said with a serious look on his face as if he was agreeing to something important.

"If you make Little Fifth Sister suffer, I'll take her away from you." Gu Xifeng's expression grew more serious. He always spoke in a serious tone and meant what he said.

Lu Heting nodded. "I won't give you such a chance."

He would always treat Su Bei well, so no one could take her away from him.

"Then, shall we have a drink?" Gu Xifeng raised his glass.

"Thank you, Third Brother." Lu Heting followed how Su Bei addressed him. He raised his glass and clinked it with Gu Xifeng's.

He knew that getting Gu Xifeng's approval was equivalent to getting the approval of Su Bei's entire family.

Feng Feifei raised her glass and said, "Okay, let's have a toast. Take good care of Su Bei, alright?"

"Okay."

Feng Feifei said to Su Bei, "My brother is injured. I'm afraid we won't be able to see you off when you leave."

"Is it serious?" Su Bei asked.

"The injury that day wasn't serious, but the injuries yesterday are serious." Feng Feifei shrugged.

That day, he crushed a glass in his hands and the shards pierced into his palm. Whereas the injuries he received yesterday were... because Su Bei had to leave whenever she appeared.

No one knew what was going on. Those wounds didn't seem to be self-inflicted because if that was the case, he wouldn't have been able to hurt certain parts of his body.

Hence, what Lin En said before was right. Su Bei's existence was the cause of Feng Ze's injuries, and they were all strange injuries.

Su Bei murmured, "How did he get hurt yesterday? Did Little Third Brother give him a check-up?"

Although Su Bei didn't have any feelings for Feng Ze, it was impossible for her not to worry. After all, they had known each other for more than ten years.

"Yes, he did. Don't worry, we'll take care of him. Don't blame yourself for not being able to see my brother. Anyway, he might be even more hurt if you go. We can relay your kind thoughts to him."

Su Bei also knew that it was not really appropriate for her to see Feng Ze. "Then I'll have to trouble you to take care of him."

Su Bei and Lu Heting returned to the apartment and were packing their things.

Lv Shan called.

“Su Bei, I heard that you went to the United States?”

“Yes. How about you? How’s your pregnancy?”

Chapter 509: Life Is Good

“I’m fine,” Lv Shan said with a smile, “Here’s the thing, I have an American friend who told me about an audition for an advertisement. He said that the brand is looking for a suitable supermodel to shoot an advertisement for their jewelry. I didn’t want to call you at first. After all, you’ve announced that you’ll be taking a break from work. But this brand can do wonders in increasing your value. That’s why I’m calling to ask for your opinion.”

“Sure!” Su Bei agreed without hesitation.

Although she wanted to go home, she couldn’t refuse such a good job.

Lv Shan was stunned. Didn’t she keep saying that she didn’t want to take on any more jobs earlier?

However, it was great that Su Bei was willing to accept this. Lv Shan laughed and said, “Okay, I’ll send you the information right away. My friend will help you reach out to the other party.”

Su Bei nodded. “Thank you, Lv Shan.”

After hanging up the phone, she realized that she hadn’t asked Lu Heting for his opinion yet.

She immediately turned to Lu Heting and said, “Lv Shan introduced a good job to me. I really want to take it. That way, I can buy more good things for you and our sons.”

Lu Heting said gently, “Okay, I’ll stay with you for one more day.”

“Lu Heting, you’re the best!” Su Bei kissed him on the cheek and held his arm. “I’ll cook something delicious for you later.”

“As long as it’s a job you like, I’ll support you unconditionally.”

Lu Heting lowered his eyes and looked at her with a smile. He liked to see her relaxed face because this was the real her.

He picked her up and asked, “But, don’t you have to call me something else by now?”

“Hubby!” Su Bei’s little face was hidden by her seaweed-like hair. The rays from the setting sun shone on her cheeks. “I’m going to the kitchen.”

She went to the kitchen and soon received the information regarding the audition from Lv Shan. She also got her friend to confirm the details.

Holding the phone in her hand, Su Bei felt the blood in her body surging. She could love the person she wanted to love and do what she wanted to do.

Life was so good!

She was about to put down her phone when Gun Gun called her.

Su Bei hurriedly answered the call. "Gun Gun!"

"Bei Bei!" Gun Gun's round face appeared on the screen. He hugged the screen and kissed Su Bei. "What time are you going to the airport tomorrow? I've already discussed it with Uncle. We'll go and pick you up."

Su Bei sighed before saying, "I haven't told you yet. Your daddy and I will only be back two days later. I received a new job offer at the last minute, so it'll take us a while longer. I'm sorry, little baby. Bei Bei won't be coming back as scheduled."

Gun Gun was obviously a little disappointed. He had never been separated from Su Bei for so long.

It had been more than ten days and he missed her terribly. Even when he was eating, he was not as happy as when she was around.

Su Bei couldn't bear to see him like this. Just as she was about to comfort him, he suddenly raised his eyes and said solemnly, "Daddy told me that a poet once said there's nothing more charming than professionalism. Bei Bei, go and do what you like."

Su Bei was so touched.. Gun Gun was incredibly considerate.

Chapter 510: Miss You Already

Lu Heting had also taught his son well. Even when he was so busy with work, he could still share poetic expressions with his son.

Da Bao's handsome face appeared on the screen as well. He said nonchalantly, "Go ahead, Xiao Bei. I'll take care of Gun Gun."

His cold voice was full of concern.

"My Da Bao is the best!" Su Bei kissed the screen.

"Me too! Me too!" Gun Gun tried to show his face to the screen.

"My baby Gun Gun is the best!" Su Bei thought of something and said, "I bought you new toys and they're in the closet. Da Bao, bring Gun Gun along to look for them."

Su Bei had bought those toys in advance and put them in the closet. She had been afraid that only Lu Heting would be able to go back. If the two children could not bear the news, then the toys could be used to temporarily console them.

Since she could go back now, she decided to let them have some fun first.

The next morning, Lu Heting sent Su Bei to the audition venue.

In the venue, the brand's name, Dream, was displayed in a large font.

Dream was a local brand in the United States. It had been decades since the company was founded, and their jewelry was popular around the world.

In particular, their diamonds were their bestsellers.

"I'm going in now. You don't have to accompany me." Su Bei was worried that there would be reporters everywhere, which would put too much pressure on Lu Heting. Besides, it was really boring to just sit there and wait.

"I'll wait for you outside." Indeed, Lu Heting did not like the environment inside.

When he got out of the car, several bold foreign models had already winked at him. His attention was only on Su Bei, but he could feel their gazes. It was easy to imagine how bold and enthusiastic these women were.

Su Bei gave him an address and said, "There's an amusement park over there. They don't have many fun things, but there's a shooting game that's pretty good. Also, you can buy a lot of snacks from S Country there. Just wait for me there."

Lu Heting couldn't help laughing at her straightforward arrangement. "Okay."

"Okay, I'll go in now. I'll call you when I come out." Su Bei reluctantly entered the venue and kept looking back.

She didn't expect that she would become like this when she was in a relationship. When she was in a relationship with Du Luo, she wasn't this clingy. She never felt reluctant to part with him.

However, as soon as she had to separate from Lu Heting, she felt that... she already missed him.

It was not until she disappeared from Lu Heting's sight that Su Bei strode in with the aura of a supermodel. In an instant, she changed from an obedient girlfriend to a cold woman.

Many models from S Country had rushed to the audition venue as well.

Zhong Xiu and Zhu Fenfen were discussing in low voices, "I don't know who the director will choose. I heard that this director is not strict, but he's very picky. He used to work in a jewelry company but he changed his career and became a director. He specializes in shooting advertisements for luxury brands. Every time he chooses a model, the standards are different. No one knows what to expect from him."

"That's right. But isn't it good that the standards are different each time?" Zhong Xiu looked around and said, "This way, everyone stands a chance. Otherwise, there won't be a need for us with so many local supermodels here."

Zhu Fenfen nodded. "We can't let Huixian down."
