

Chapter 521: We're Here To Mourn

"I can't do much for Su Bei. She's only 23 years old. She's supposed to be living her best years, but she... I still remember the first time I met her. I deliberately made things difficult for her and suppressed her. But in the end, we became friends. She was the one who showed me that people could truly be kind. She was also the one who made me understand what persistence and hard work are. I thought that I could work with her for the rest of my life. I can't help but feel sad after losing such a friend." Lv Shan lowered her head.

Yue Ze handed her a tissue.

Lv Shan's hands were trembling. She took the tissue, but she had difficulty controlling her emotions.

Yue Ze gently held her hand. Lv Shan obviously didn't notice his intimate actions, because at this moment, her mind was elsewhere.

Yue Ze held her hand for a while before letting go. Then, he drove toward Su Bei's house.

Su Bei was still busy in the kitchen with Lu Heting by her side. Occasionally, he would help her take some things and pass her the ingredients as well.

Sometimes when he handed her something, he would hug her from behind without letting go.

When Su Bei heard the doorbell ring, she pushed him away and said, "Hubby, open the door."

Lu Heting reluctantly let go of her and walked toward the door.

When he opened the door, he saw Yue Ze and Lv Shan standing outside. They were both dressed in black, and their faces were full of sadness and regret.

Lu Heting frowned slightly. "What is it?"

"We're here to mourn..." Yue Ze said as he took off his glasses and bowed.

Lv Shan's eyes were red. Obviously, she had been crying.

"It was a misdiagnosis!" Lu Heting immediately understood what they were going on about and interrupted.

Needless to say, he had already guessed that this must be Lu Weijian's doing as well. Only he was so talkative.

Lu Weijian, who was sleeping at home, sneezed twice. When he flipped over, he couldn't go back to sleep anymore. He seemed to have a bad premonition.

Yue Ze and Lv Shan's grief was still written all over their faces. "What?"

"If you're referring to Su Bei, her gastric cancer was a misdiagnosis. She went for another examination and received a report," Lu Heting said. Although he didn't want to see Su Bei suffer, he still contacted another hospital for a second diagnosis.

Lv Shan's face relaxed. "I knew Su Bei would be fine!"

Yue Ze immediately looked embarrassed. He put on his glasses and said apologetically, "I'm sorry. I misunderstood. When I called yesterday, I heard that Su Bei..."

"It's okay," Lu Heting said.

Yue Ze recalled the man's voice on the phone yesterday. He didn't know who it was, but the man was crying so hard that his words were unclear. It was really embarrassing.

Far away in the Lu family's house, Lu Weijian sneezed again.

"Who is it?" Su Bei asked from the kitchen.

Yue Ze and Lv Shan looked at each other and took off their heavy black coats at the same time. When Su Bei saw them, she smiled and said, "Come in and have a seat. I'm making breakfast. Let's eat together."

"No, thanks. We're just here to see you." Lv Shan looked at Su Bei's face carefully. She didn't have any makeup products on her face as she had just woken up.. Her hair was casually tied up, and her skin was so delicate that it almost looked fragile. With such a complexion, how could she have gastric cancer?

Chapter 522: Extremely Happy

"Brother Yue, I was just about to look for you. If I come back to work now, will I still have a place in Sheng Tang?" Su Bei had been thinking about this. If Tang Xinru and Yue Ze still wanted her, she definitely would not ask to leave Sheng Tang.

"Of course," Yue Ze replied without hesitation. "You can join us anytime you want."

"It's a deal, then. I'll call you when the time comes," Su Bei said with a smile.

Yue Ze and Lv Shan left soon after.

When they got downstairs, Lv Shan's expression returned to normal. Yue Ze apologized, "I'm sorry. I made a mistake."

"Then come with me to eat something. I haven't eaten anything since you called me yesterday," Lv Shan said with a smile.

"Let's go. I'm hungry too," Yue Ze said happily.

After breakfast, Lu Heting sent the two munchkins to school. When he got home, he took out all the carbonated drinks and yogurt from the fridge. He threw them into the trash can.

"Young Master, let me do this." Aunt Chen, who had already arrived, rushed forward to help.

“Aunt Chen, don’t buy these things for the time being. Also, don’t buy too many chilies.” Lu Heting was still slowly tidying up the things in an orderly manner.

Su Bei watched from the side as Lu Heting ruthlessly threw the bottle of coke into the trash can.

She would be in a bad mood without her coke.

Lu Heting handed the garbage bag to Aunt Chen, walked up to Su Bei, and rubbed her hair. “You can’t eat ice cream for the time being as well.”

“Okay.” Su Bei’s mood plummeted.

“At the very least, you have to wait until you finish the medicine for your stomach ulcer and there are no major problems in your follow-up examination. Then, you can eat cold food again.” Lu Heting held her head in his arms. “I’m really scared. I’m scared that something will happen to you and you’ll leave me. You can’t make any more mistakes in the future, okay?”

His voice was low and husky. Even now, he still felt a lingering fear in his heart.

Su Bei could sense his emotions. Feeling sorry for him, she said, “Then I’ll stop eating those things. I won’t drink coke anymore.”

It was just a bottle of coke. Compared to Lu Heting, she would rather have him.

Hence, she had to take good care of her body in order to love him better.

Lu Heting laughed and whispered, “Really?”

“I mean what I say!” Su Bei believed that she had the willpower to do it. Besides, there were many more things that made her happier than coke.

Lu Heting patted her head and smiled happily. He knew that she was thinking about him, so he was so happy.

When Lu Heting went to the company, Lu Hang couldn’t believe his eyes when he saw the man smiling at him from afar.

Rubbing his eyes, Lu Hang finally believed that this smiling man was his boss.

It seemed that the sun had risen from the west today. To be honest, he had been working for Lu Heting for more than ten years. He was used to Lu Heting’s cold face and alienation. Only when the young madam was around did he seem to smile a little, but most of the time, he looked like he had lost a lot of money. Lu Hang had never seen him smile so brightly like he was now.

Chapter 523: Helping Others

“Mister... Mr. Lu...” Lu Hang ran forward to greet Lu Heting.

“Make arrangements for today’s work,” Lu Heting said kindly and generously.

“Okay, Mr. Lu.” Lu Hang forced himself to calm down and rushed to Lu Weijian during break time.

“Mr. Lu came to work today with a big smile on his face. What should I do?” Lu Hang asked nervously.

Lu Weijian was also in a good mood. He crossed his legs and whistled. Seeing him like this, Lu Hang stopped in his tracks. Did something good happen to the Lu family?

Lu Weijian patted him on the shoulder and said, “Go on, experience the power of Bei Bei.”

“So Mr. and Mrs. Lu are...”

“I can’t tell you exactly what’s going on, but Bei Bei is definitely going to shine brightly,” Lu Weijian said proudly.

Lu Hang had no choice but to leave.

Today, the top executives of Lu Group came to the top floor for a meeting. They soon arrived at the top floor of the company, and only these people in Lu Group were qualified to meet Lu Heting.

They were all trembling in fear and feeling nervous. They didn’t even dare to talk to each other. They were reciting the contents that they would be reporting later and thinking of the possible questions Lu Heting would ask. They were uncertain how difficult and tough the meeting later would be.

However, as soon as the door to the meeting room was opened, they saw Lu Heting reading some work materials with a smile on his face. They had never seen such a smile on his cold and defined face before. It made him look so handsome, but it also made them worry. They wondered if his abnormality was part of a challenge.

With their hearts in their mouths, the senior executives took their seats in an orderly manner.

Su Bei went to Sheng Tang Entertainment Company.

Yue Ze had already told Tang Xinru about Su Bei’s matter.

Tang Xinru looked relieved and asked, “Have you arranged a time to meet Su Bei?”

“Not yet,” Yue Ze replied, “I believe she’ll contact us soon.”

The woman sitting on the side spoke up at this moment, “Perhaps when she recovers, she won’t think of coming here anymore.”

Yue Ze glanced at her. This woman’s name was Tang Yue, and she was the other vice-president of Sheng Tang Entertainment Company. She was Tang Xinru’s cousin, and they were rivals. The things that they competed for included but were not limited to work, company authority, family property, subordinates, and even men.

“Su Bei is not that kind of person,” Tang Xinru said firmly, “I believe she’ll make the right choice.”

She knew all too well that Tang Yue was also very interested in Su Bei. She had been reading Su Bei’s information in private but could not find anything useful.

Tang Xinru didn't understand why her cousin wanted to compete with her in this aspect. It was beneficial for both parties for Su Bei to stay in Sheng Tang. There was no need to make such a clear distinction, right?

"It's not a matter of morality when it comes to fame and fortune." Tang Yue had a smile on her face, but her words were not pleasing to the ears. "With Su Bei's popularity, there are countless people who want to poach her to their company. Now that she has recovered, she can go anywhere she wants. How would Sheng Tang be her only choice? I previously told you that you would be doing all the hard work for another company by offering her the three-month-long contract. Now, another company will reap the benefits."

Chapter 524: Su Bei Is Not From The Su Family

Tang Xinru was already used to the fact that Tang Yue would always contradict her, so she didn't say anything else to defend Su Bei. Everything would be known soon, so there was no need for her to say anything more.

Tang Yue stood up lazily and said, "Just wait, then. I hope you'll have the patience to keep waiting."

Just then, someone knocked on the door.

Tang Xinru pinched the space between her eyebrows and said, "Please come in."

The door was pushed open. Everyone thought that it was just an ordinary employee, so they didn't pay much attention to the person.

However, they didn't expect to see Su Bei's delicate face that was full of smiles. She walked in, walked up to Tang Xinru, and said with a smile, "President Tang, I'm back!"

"Su Bei, the position of president hasn't been determined yet. My cousin and I are both Vice President Tang," Tang Yue reminded her with a smile on her face.

Su Bei turned around and looked at her. She recognized that this woman was Tang Yue, the person Yue Ze had told her about in private. It was their first time meeting.

She smiled at her. "Hello, Vice President Tang."

Tang Yue smiled and asked, "Su Bei, what are you doing here?"

Su Bei looked at Tang Xinru and said, "President Tang, I want to stay in Sheng Tang. Sheng Tang gave me a chance before this, so I want to continue working hard for you."

The trace of exhaustion on Tang Xinru's face immediately disappeared. She glanced at Tang Yue sharply before replying to Su Bei.

Tang Yue was indeed disappointed, but she didn't show it on her face.

Tang Xinru smiled and said, "Okay, let's talk about the details of the contract. Su Bei, please have a seat. Tang Yue, we're going to talk about work. Please excuse us for a while."

Tang Yue stood up, made a casual gesture, and walked out.

Yue Ze then took out the contract he had prepared for Su Bei and handed them each a copy.

As soon as Tang Yue left the office, she saw her mother walking toward her.

Tang Yue's mother was Lin Shulian. She had a dignified hairstyle and was dressed elegantly. However, she looked a little haggard and anxious.

As soon as she saw Tang Yue, she held her hand and asked, "How is it? Have you look into Su Bei's matters?"

"I've looked into her, but there's no news yet. It won't be that soon," Tang Yue said.

"Then hurry up. You don't need to check her blood type or any other information. You just need to know if she's from the Su family," Lin Shulian said, "If she's not, then she's most likely"

When Tang Yue heard this, a trace of displeasure appeared on her face. Ever since Su Bei entered Sheng Tang and her mother accidentally saw her photo, she had been thinking about Su Bei constantly. She wanted to know about Su Bei, so her mother got her to verify Su Bei's personal details.

Su Bei worked for Tang Xinru, so she didn't want to have anything to do with her.

She had always been perfunctory with her mother.

The photo showed a young Lin Shulian who looked somewhat similar to Su Bei. However, Su Bei was more beautiful and vibrant, while Lin Shulian looked more feminine.

In the photo, the girl in Lin Shulian's arms was smiling happily. She had a pair of big dark eyes that seemed to talk. Even though the photo was old, one could still see her liveliness.

Chapter 525: Half-hearted

Tang Yue took the photo and said, "Okay, okay. You should head back first. I'll verify the information. Don't interfere and go to Su Bei directly. She works for Tang Xinru now. If you act recklessly, things won't be easy to deal with. She'll think that you're trying to steal Su Bei away."

Lin Shulian reminded her again and again, "Go and investigate it quickly. You know as well that this matter has a lot to do with you, so don't let your guard down..."

After reading the contract given by Yue Ze, Su Bei saw that there was nothing wrong with it. She smiled and said, "President Tang, Brother Yue, I'll sign it."

She quickly signed her name on the contract.

Tang Xinru smiled and said, "Okay, I'll arrange for you to get back to work. The annual Top Ten Model Awards will be held soon. I'll sign you up. If you're selected, it'll be good for your international ranking and be the biggest help to your career. Also, Lv Shan is on leave due to her pregnancy. Yue Ze will arrange a new assistant for you.”

“I’ll ask Xiao Bai to come over.”

Yue Ze brought Xiao Bai over. She had a baby face and looked very cute.

As soon as Xiao Bai saw Su Bei, she stepped forward and said, “Su Bei, I’m a big fan of yours. I’ll do my best to work with you.”

Yue Ze explained, “Xiao Bai has worked for me for two years. She’s someone trustworthy. Su Bei, this time, we’ll arrange your schedule according to the normal work pattern.”

“I’m fine with that.” Su Bei had already thought it through. This was her favorite job. Besides, she had to support her husband and her two sons, so she had to work hard.

Yue Ze briefly explained to her, “There were two jobs before this. One is the cover of the new edition of Beauty Magazine, and the other is a fashion show. When we thought you weren’t coming back, I gave one of the jobs to Hao Jiali and another to a newcomer. If you want, I can help you get the jobs back.”

“Forget it. I don’t need the things that have already been given away.” Su Bei flipped through the pages. She could get a lot of jobs, so she didn’t want to take back what he had already given away.

“Okay, but you can change your mind anytime before tomorrow,” Yue Ze said.

He handed a business card to Su Bei and said, “If you want to buy some clothes, you can go to the mall and contact this shop to customize the clothes for you. They’re a long-time partner of Sheng Tang. They’ll accept all orders from our artists.”

“Is this the benefit of signing a long-term contract?” Su Bei reached out and took it.

“You can say that.” Yue Ze smiled.

After signing up for the Top Ten Model Awards, Su Bei caused a small uproar.

There was a lot of criticism from the modeling industry about her return after a short absence.

She was one of the most competitive models this year. Many models were relieved that she was leaving the industry. They felt that they had one less competitor.

However, she came back without telling anyone and also signed up for the awards out of the blue. This made many people feel that they had been fooled and deceived. The cake was only so big. Her sudden return to take a slice of it made many people unhappy and angry.

Su Huixian was so angry that she smashed the glass in her hand.

Qiu Minxuan hurriedly asked her assistant to clean the floor. She then comforted Su Huixian. “Huixian, it’s okay. Su Bei does her job half-heartedly.. She won’t last long, so she might not even be able to make it to the actual selection for the awards.”

Chapter 526: Give Me Back What’s Mine

“She’s really willful and manipulates everyone. I’ve been in the modeling industry for almost five years, but I’ve never been selected as one of the top ten models of the year. This year, I have the highest chance of winning. This will also allow me to successfully become a supermodel on the world stage. Su Bei just looks down on me, right?” Su Huixian said angrily.

Another important reason why Su Huixian was angry was that Su Bei’s existence would remind those forgetful fans and the public that she had made so many stupid mistakes this year.

Su Bei was like a mirror that only reflected Su Huixian’s ugly side.

“The judges have to select the ten most excellent models. They have to evaluate the value of the models’ careers this year. In the past few months, Su Bei has only participated in short-term work. She doesn’t have any career aspirations at all. Now that she has quit and made a comeback, she’ll just be seen as a joke. The judges will definitely hate her. Don’t worry, she won’t be able to get the honor of being selected.” Qiu Minxuan analyzed the situation seriously.

Even so, Su Huixian knew that she should make preparations.

At the same time, Hao Jiali was even more annoyed than Su Huixian.

She was also trying her best to be selected as one of the top ten models of the year. Now that Su Bei had made her return, her chances of getting selected were lower.

Besides, with Tang Xinru’s support for Su Bei, Sheng Tang would spend more resources on her, while Hao Jiali would lose her resources and attention.

“Sister Ping, did Su Bei sign a short-term or long-term contract this time around?” Hao Jiali asked.

“It’s a five-year contract.” Jian Ping had already heard about it. “Five years. Obviously, she came prepared. Tang Xinru will try her best to make her famous. But Tang Xinru can’t be so biased, right? As the vice-president, she must treat all her artists somewhat fairly. Don’t worry. What Yue Ze can get for Su Bei, I can get for you too.”

“So what if Tang Xinru gives all the resources to her? I got the job for Dream Jewelry on my own efforts, didn’t I? And I also got the front cover of Beauty’s new magazine.” Hao Jiali was very confident in herself. “Even though Su Bei is back, I’m confident that I can defeat her this time.”

Of course, Jian Ping also hoped that Hao Jiali could win this time around because it also meant that she would be defeating Yue Ze and replacing him as Sheng Tang’s most valued agent.

When Su Bei came out of Tang Xinru’s office, she ran into Hao Jiali.

Hao Jiali looked at Su Bei up and down before saying with a smile, “You’re back? But even if you are back, it doesn’t mean that you can compete with me. Even though just half a month has passed, this industry is different from when you left.”

“Really?” Su Bei smiled. “Let’s wait and see, then.”

“Su Bei, Sheng Tang is not yours alone. How can you compare yourself to me?” Hao Jiali sneered.

Su Bei shook her head slightly and laughed. "I've never once had the intention of competing with you. But if you really want to compete, I don't mind."

As soon as she walked out, she called Yue Ze. "Brother Yue, you said that I was the original choice for the cover of Beauty magazine."

"Have you thought it through?" Yue Ze asked with a smile.

"It's supposed to be mine, so I should take it. I'd like to be on the cover of a magazine too."

"Okay, I'll make the arrangements. As for the other job..."

Chapter 527: Money Can't Conceal It

"We can forget about that. There's no hurry," Su Bei said with a smile. She heard that the job had been given to a newcomer, so there was no need for her to take that one back.

She put away her phone and got into the car while in a good mood. It was still early, so Gun Gun and Da Bao were not out of school yet.

She remembered that Yue Ze had given her a name card for a shop in a mall that customized clothes.

Indeed, it had been a long time since Su Bei last had her clothes customized. Now that winter was coming, she really needed to buy some clothes for herself.

When she arrived at the mall, Su Bei was dressed in simple clothes so that no one would be able to recognize her. She walked in.

She then came to the shop Yue Ze had told her about. The staff and the store manager welcomed her and measured her size.

"These are the clothes that are readily available in our shop. Miss Su, you can browse through them. If you don't see anything you like, you can also opt for custom-made pieces. But we have to be cautious when it comes to copyright issues. We can't imitate other designers' works."

Su Bei chose a few simple and elegant clothes. These clothes should be enough for her day-to-day work.

"You can come and get your clothes in three days."

"Okay," Su Bei agreed.

She casually walked out of the shop. She intended to continue shopping. In order to save money previously, she had restrained herself too much. It had been a long time since she bought anything freely.

She excitedly went straight to the boutique, but when she was still making her way over, her attention was caught by shops selling men's and children's clothes.

She was planning to buy something for herself, but she couldn't hold herself back. She would run toward shops that sold men's clothes and watches. Her straying gaze would also land on shops selling children's items.

After walking around for a while, Su Bei lost all interest in shopping for herself.

Why were men's and children's clothes so beautiful and exquisite? She really wanted to buy all of them!

Well, forget it. She could buy things for herself another time. She would look at these first.

When she went to the men's watch shop, she carefully browsed through the selection. She remembered that after she gave a watch to Lu Heting, he had never taken it off. He had been wearing it all the time. It was almost time to buy him a new one.

Su Bei lowered her head and chose a watch after a long time. She held it and looked at it carefully for a while. Thinking of what Lu Heting would look like when he put on this watch, she couldn't help but feel happy.

"Gorgeous, you're buying a watch? Shall I give you some recommendations?"

When Su Bei heard a man's voice, she raised her head and looked at him. The man in front of her had the corners of his eyes raised, and he was stroking his chin. He was wearing branded clothes all over his body, but his temperament was not something that could be hidden with branded clothes. No amount of money could conceal his wretched aura.

"No thanks." Su Bei looked away.

The man was not dissatisfied. He had been looking at Su Bei since she entered the shop. Although she had put on some makeup so that no one would recognize that she was a supermodel, she didn't deliberately hide her beautiful features. Hence, his eyes had never moved away from her.

Su Bei had politely refused him, but he kept following her around the shop.

This made Su Bei very unhappy. However, this was a public setting, so she had no reason to drive him away.

After choosing a watch, Su Bei wasn't in the mood to shop anymore.. She took it to the checkout counter.

Chapter 528: I Don't Have Enough Money To Buy Anything

The man continued to follow Su Bei and stood next to her. He wasn't doing anything, but one could see from his eyes that he was constantly looking for an opportunity to make a move. It was obvious that he was used to preying on women. In a shop like this, he could hope to find good-looking women, but many were hard to win over.

However, he would sometimes succeed, so he believed that Su Bei wouldn't be able to remain firm and would regret her refusal just now.

Su Bei handed the watch to the cashier and handed him a card.

The cashier swiped the card with a smile and told her, "Miss, I'm sorry. Your card balance is not enough."

"I'm sorry. Please wait for a moment." It was only then that Su Bei remembered she had transferred all her money to Lu Heting's card before she went to the United States. That card, along with the PIN code, was in the drawer of his room.

She only kept enough money with her to travel to the United States for a few days. After all, she didn't think she would be coming back alive.

Now, she only had a few thousand yuan on her card. She could afford to ride a bus or buy some groceries, but she couldn't afford to make big purchases.

"Gorgeous, let me help you pay. It's just a watch, isn't it?" The rich second-generation heir handed her his card with a confident smile on his face. However, his demeanor was too perverted, so his smile made others uncomfortable.

"No, thank you." Su Bei's tone was a little stiff. What was wrong with this man? Did he not understand human language?

With a determined smile, the rich second-generation heir said, "I don't mind buying a few more for you, beautiful."

He didn't mind spending more money on her.

Su Bei gave him a cold look. The rich second-generation heir took a few steps back, but he didn't stop there. It seemed that he was waiting to see what Su Bei would do next.

Su Bei took out her phone and dialed Lu Heting's number.

At this moment, Lu Heting was still in the middle of a meeting with the company's senior executives.

After staying in the United States for more than ten days, he had a lot of work to handle. Now that he was back, he had to deal with everything at once. Until now, the meeting hadn't ended yet.

As he was not satisfied with the report, his expression was no longer as warm as the spring breeze when he first arrived at the company today. He had returned to his usual cold and serious demeanor. He was like an iceberg, causing the atmosphere in the meeting room to freeze.

No one dared to breathe too loudly. They were all thinking about their own work, afraid that if they made a mistake in their report, Lu Heting would react violently.

His phone was on silent mode. When the call came, he immediately saw that it was from Su Bei.

The light from the screen was not too sudden. But when he saw the name on the screen, his focus was immediately drawn. His face was filled with warmth and tenderness.

He subconsciously swiped the screen of his phone and touched the speaker button.

"Hubby, I don't have enough money to buy anything..."

It was Su Bei's soft and tender voice. From her tone and words, it sounded as if it was only right for Lu Heting to give her money to spend.

Lu Heting immediately turned off the loudspeaker function, gestured for the meeting to stop, and strode out of the room.

All the senior executives heaved a sigh of relief. As soon as Lu Heting stood up and left, it was as if the dark clouds in the meeting room had lifted as well, allowing them to relax.

Chapter 529: Beautiful Women Were A Source Of Trouble

However, when they remembered the voice that sounded from Lu Heting's phone, everyone was confused. What was going on?

"Mr. Lu has a girlfriend? A wife?"

"Didn't he always have one? The one who has lived in the legends for five years, but no one has ever seen her!" Someone hinted with their eyes.

"Then what's going on? With Mr. Lu's status, shouldn't he have married a rich woman? Shouldn't she be able to stand shoulder to shoulder with him? Why did she ask him for money to buy things? What the hell is going on?"

"Is he a sugar daddy? How can he do such a thing?"

Everyone had a lot of doubts in their hearts. Obviously, no one approved of the wife chosen by their boss.

It was just that since Lu Weijian was still sitting there, no one dared to say anything more.

Lu Weijian, on the other hand, sat up in shock. Was Bei Bei asking Lu Heting for money? Did she know about Lu Heting's identity? Or did she just want him to pay the bill?

But no matter what, it was a good thing. It meant that Bei Bei and his brother's relationship had improved.

He knew it. When he saw Lu Heting and Bei Bei before this, he had always felt that something was wrong between them. They were husband and wife, but they didn't have the intimacy and codependency that ordinary couples had. After coming back from the United States, they started to show signs of that.

Could it be that their relationship had been taken to the next level after going to the United States?

The more Lu Weijian thought about it, the more he felt that his thoughts made sense. He hurriedly looked outside. Lu Heting was holding his phone. Even the sight of his back made one able to sense his tenderness.

"Can you transfer some money to me? I transferred all my money to your card before this and it's in your drawer. I'm not sure if you've seen it?"

When Lu Heting heard her words, he knew that she made all these arrangements because of her supposed gastric cancer.

Every time he thought of the pain she had to bear, he couldn't help but feel sorry for her. She had taken on so much, but he hadn't done much.

"Which mall are you in?"

Su Bei told him the name of the shopping mall and asked, "Is it inconvenient to transfer the money? Forget it, then. I'll just buy it next time."

"I'll be right there. Wait for me," Lu Heting said.

Although he could transfer the money to her right now, nothing was more important than accompanying her.

After hanging up the phone, Lu Heting returned to the meeting room and said, "That's all for today. Meeting dismissed."

The senior executives looked at each other in confusion. Was it over just like that? It was such a joyous occasion since they didn't have to face Lu Heting anymore.

Although they were relieved, they still felt a little depressed at the thought that Lu Heting was keeping a lover by his side.

Since ancient times, beautiful women had always been a source of trouble. Even a country wouldn't be able to withstand a woman's charms, let alone a company.

"She's just his lover. He'll get sick of her in a few days. After all, he's a man." Someone comforted the rest.

The senior executives of the company, who were mainly made up of men, nodded in unison when they heard this. They all understood what it meant to be a man.

Lu Weijian really wanted to knock their heads and tell them that his brother was not a playboy. He already had two children.

Chapter 530: Impressive But Useless

In the mall.

When the rich man heard Su Bei on the phone, he couldn't help laughing.

She had thought that Su Bei was a noblewoman, but it turned out that she was just a woman who would ask a man for money when she was broke.

How could she refuse him time and again? He really wanted to see what kind of man she could find to pay the bill for her.

The cashier and the sales assistants still smiled at Su Bei, but in their hearts, they were looking down on her. Just now when they saw that she had refused a rich second-generation heir so righteously, they thought that she had some dignity. They thought she was different from other women who would go weak in the knees at the sight of money. But now, it seemed that she was nothing special.

Su Bei looked at the door. She didn't know when Lu Heting would arrive.

Would she be delaying his work?

When she was still thinking about this, she saw Lu Heting's tall figure appear in front of her.

"Hubby!" Su Bei waved at him.

The cashier, the sales assistants, and the rich second-generation heir all looked in the direction where they heard Su Bei's voice. They thought that they would see a pot-bellied old man, but they didn't expect to see that the man outside was tall, long-legged, and had facial features that were as outstanding as a sculpture. The aura he exuded was enough to make people tremble in fear.

He was no old man or big-bellied man. He was a handsome man who was walking over in an imposing manner.

Since he was here to see her, Lu Heting had taken off his suit and changed into the clothes she previously bought for him. He looked handsome and extraordinary at the same time.

Lu Heting was in a good mood when he heard Su Bei calling him "hubby" from a distance. A smile crept across his cold face, brushing away the alienation and indifference in his eyes.

The cashier and the sales assistants were dumbfounded. This man was so handsome!

Lu Heting strode toward her. Su Bei threw herself at him, and he pulled her into his arms as he gently stroked her hair. "Go ahead. I'll pay for it."

"Okay." Su Bei held his arm and walked in.

The two of them looked like a perfect match. The cashier and the sales assistants felt guilty and ashamed because they had misjudged Su Bei before. Hence, they hurriedly said, "I've already wrapped everything up. You can just swipe your card now."

Lu Heting took out his card without asking what it was.

The rich second-generation heir was shocked by Lu Heting's appearance and imposing manner, but he still gave him a once-over.

The watch that Lu Heting was wearing was the one Su Bei had given him before. It was only worth a few tens of thousands of yuan. The rich second-generation heir sneered. How could he compete with him when he was wearing such a watch?

Lu Heting's clothes were only worth a few hundred yuan as well. They were not worth mentioning at all. The rich second-generation heir looked at Lu Heting and Su Bei coldly.

After swiping his card, Lu Heting took the bag from Su Bei. Just as he was about to leave with her in his arms, he heard the rich second-generation heir say in a particularly condescending tone, "Tsk, tsk. I was wondering what kind of man you had asked to come over, but it turns out to just be a lowly man. As I said, you should come with me. I can buy you a few of these watches for you in one go."

After he finished speaking, Lu Heting glared at him and he felt as though an arrow was piercing through his heart.
