

Chapter 531: Such Blind Confidence

Even the shareholders and senior executives of the company couldn't handle Lu Heting's glare, what more the rich second-generation heir? He took a few steps back in fear.

Lu Heting didn't take this kind of person seriously. But from what he said, it seemed he had harassed Su Bei just now.

Sensing the terrifying aura coming from Lu Heting, he was about to run away when Su Bei stopped him. "Wait!"

"W-What?" The rich man's breathing grew a little uneven.

"Do you want to leave after scolding my man?" Su Bei was not in the mood to argue with him. But he had looked down on Lu Heting, so he had offended Su Bei as well.

Others could scold her, but they couldn't scold the people she cared about.

He stammered, "What do you want, then?"

He told himself that he was not afraid. He just didn't want to stoop to her level.

Seeing that Su Bei was standing up for him, Lu Heting calmed down a little. Since he was a child, he had always been the most mature and steady one. He was the only one who protected others, while very few people protected him.

With Su Bei protecting him, he appeared less intimidating.

Seeing this, the rich second-generation heir also calmed down a little.

Su Bei said, "You can compete with me. If you win, I'll ask you to pay the bill for me and I'll call you brother. If you lose, you'll apologize to my man and crawl out of here until you reach the entrance of the mall. Okay?"

"Well, of course. What do you want to compete in?" Without Lu Heting's cold aura, the rich heir regained his confidence.

"Arm wrestling. Do you dare take on the challenge?" Su Bei raised her chin and asked.

"Fine. You think I'm afraid of you?" The rich second-generation heir rubbed his chin. He coveted Su Bei's figure, but he didn't think much of her strength at all. How could she compete with him? Haha, she was really blindly confident.

In his heart, he thought to himself, 'Is this woman looking for an excuse to give me a chance? Yes, she wants to be a wh*re, but she also wants to make herself look good. She's giving me a way out. Look at her thin arms and legs. How can she beat me? If she can't win, she has to call me brother. If she calls me brother, then...'

Lu Heting frowned slightly. It was not that he didn't trust Su Bei. She must have her own reason for doing this, but what if the man hurt her?

"Hubby, don't worry. It's okay." Su Bei smiled at him. She had been annoyed by this rich second-generation heir for a long time now. Just because he was rich, he used that to bully others. This was a fair society. Did he really think that he was a rich second-generation heir from ancient times who could do whatever he wanted?

Su Bei borrowed a pair of disposable gloves from a sales assistant and put them on. Obviously, she didn't want to have any unnecessary skin contact with this heir.

The cashier and the sales assistants were also amused. They hurriedly came to watch the show together. To be honest, they also hated this rich second-generation heir very much. He often hung out in this shop, and when he saw beautiful women, he would go up to them to seduce them. It was fine if the women were willing, but when the women were unwilling, he didn't let them reject him.

To be honest, he was just relying on his money. Most women had long been unable to tolerate his behavior and were hoping that someone could teach him a lesson.

The cashier and the sales assistants were both excited to meet this fearless Su Bei. Finally, someone could teach him a lesson!

Chapter 532: I Think You're Sick

However, looking at Su Bei's figure, everyone couldn't help but worry.

She was tall, but she was also thinner than ordinary people. She didn't look very strong. After all, this rich second-generation heir was a man. Compared to him, Su Bei didn't seem to have a chance of winning.

Everyone looked at Su Bei worriedly.

Lu Heting, on the other hand, remembered the last time she was taken away by Lin En and sent to Mexico. She managed to survive that ordeal in one piece.

After that incident, Lu Heting got someone to destroy the bar. He heard that two foreign men were seriously injured in the room Su Bei was locked up in. Hence, their injuries must have been Su Bei's doing.

Actually, after thinking about it for a while, he realized that Feng Ze and the others were not weak either. Hence, there was no reason for Su Bei to be weak.

Thinking of this, Lu Heting felt relieved. Su Bei would definitely not get injured.

Even if that rich second-generation heir had amazing power, at least he was still around and could step in.

Seeing that Su Bei had put on the gloves, the rich heir felt humiliated for a moment. His face flushed with anger. "What do you take me for?"

"I think you're sick. I don't want to touch you." Su Bei raised her chin and looked down at him.

The cashier and sales assistants agreed with Su Bei. They wanted to clap and praise Su Bei for her words, but they couldn't show their true thoughts.

He sat down and said, "Come on!"

He didn't believe that he couldn't defeat a woman.

"Let me make this clear first. If you get hurt, you'll have to bear the consequences," Su Bei said calmly as she sat down. As soon as she spoke, her bright eyes shone brightly. No one could tell that she was powerful at all. She just made others think that she was so beautiful that nothing could possibly compare to her beauty.

The rich second-generation heir was dazzled by the sight of her. "Of course, we'll each be responsible for our injuries. Besides, I'll go gentle on you."

It was just arm wrestling. How could she get hurt?

He reached out and clasped her hand.

Everyone was so nervous for Su Bei that they couldn't take their eyes off her.

Although Lu Heting knew that Su Bei was capable of winning this, he still narrowed his eyes. If that rich second-generation heir really hurt Su Bei, Lu Heting would finish him off!

When their hands were clasped together, there was a cracking sound as if someone's bones had broken.

"Miss, are you okay? Do you want me to call the ambulance for you?" One of the sales assistants covered her eyes while feeling her heart ache.

Su Bei stood up and said, "Thank you, Miss, but it's okay. Someone else might need it, though. You can ask him for his opinion."

The sales assistant removed her hands from her eyes, only to see that Su Bei had already stood up and had a relaxed expression on her face. Meanwhile, the rich second-generation heir was clutching his hand with a pained expression, his face covered in sweat.

It seemed that the sound of bones breaking had come from the hand of this rich second-generation heir.

At this moment, the sales assistant and cashier couldn't care less about their jobs anymore. They enthusiastically surrounded Su Bei and said, "You're so amazing. How did you do it? Can you teach us?"

Su Bei smiled. "Okay, I'll teach you!"

"It's so satisfying! We've always disliked men who threw money at women. Does he really think that all women in the world are money-minded?"

"That's awesome! You just did what I've always wanted to do!"

Lu Heting pulled Su Bei out of the crowd and held her in his arms. What was wrong with these women? Did they want to steal his wife?

Chapter 533: Who Did You Think It Was?

Su Bei had no choice but to turn around and say, "Remember, you need to crawl out of here till you reach the entrance of the mall. Do keep an eye on him for me to make sure he fulfills his end of the bet."

Lu Heting led her out of the shop while holding her hand. "Does it hurt?"

"It's okay. It doesn't hurt at all. He shouldn't have scolded you. He deserves it!"

Lu Heting rubbed her hand, feeling sorry for her. Although she was not injured, the sound of that man's bones breaking earlier was very loud. Obviously, she must have exerted quite a lot of strength.

Su Bei enjoyed his treatment and followed him to the car.

She took out the box and handed it to him. "Look at what I bought."

His smile reached his eyes, and Lu Heting opened the box. Inside was a dazzling watch that he liked very much.

"Help me put it on." Lu Heting took it out and put it in Su Bei's hand.

Su Bei took off his old watch and put the new one on him. "Do you like it?"

"Yes." Lu Heting lowered his head.

He liked her feelings for him more. He liked her so much.

After a long time, he let go of her and said, "And you have to take that card back. You need to have some emergency money with you. I'll give you this credit card too."

He had specially prepared a credit card with no limit for her. Due to his special arrangements, it was impossible for others to see that it was a limitless black gold card. This way, she didn't need to be restrained when she wanted to buy something.

"Okay. Anyway, what's yours is mine, and what's mine is yours." Su Bei took it happily.

Hearing this, Lu Heting was in an unbelievably good mood. He had finally gotten her recognition.

Did it mean that he had been worried about his identity for so long for nothing?

He watched as she turned her head and rummaged through her handbag. He held himself back. He had just confirmed their relationship. He couldn't rush things.

After rummaging through her handbag, Su Bei realized that she didn't bring her wallet.

"Forget it. Keep this credit card in your wallet first. Give it to me another day," Su Bei said and reached for his wallet.

Then, she suddenly thought of something and asked in a low voice, "Can I see your wallet?"

She previously saw a photo of a woman in his wallet, but she didn't know who it was. At that time, she was troubled by this thought. Although she eventually forgot about it, it wasn't completely forgotten.

Lu Heting didn't mind. He reached out and handed his wallet to her.

Su Bei closed her eyes and thought for a moment before opening the wallet.

She didn't dare to look at it directly. Instead, she opened her eyes just a crack and glanced at the photo in the wallet. Then, she opened her eyes completely. It was her!

It was the same photo she had taken with Lu Heting for their marriage certificate before she left back then. She looked young and tender in the photo.

"Oh, it's me." When Su Bei saw the photo, her heart softened.

"Who did you think it was?" Lu Heting held her in his arms, amused.

Su Bei didn't expect it to be her.

Had Lu Heting always kept her photo?

She looked up at Lu Heting seriously, as if she was looking for an answer.

Lowering his head, Lu Heting said in a low voice, "It's always been you. I've always been waiting for you."

Su Bei felt guilty for a long time. She was gone for five years. During that time, she didn't consider this man's thoughts or feelings at all.

Chapter 534: The Wait Is Worth It

She thought that he did not care about such matters, but it turned out he had been keeping them in his heart all this while. She thought that he fell in love with her because she had fallen in love with him first after she came back this time. Now, she knew that he had long ago fallen in love with her.

"Why are you so stupid?" Su Bei grabbed his collar. "Didn't you say that marriage is only for the union of two families and it doesn't matter who you marry? Didn't you get tired after waiting for so long?"

"But the wait is worth it, isn't it?" Lu Heting held her in his arms. He had gotten what he wanted, and he no longer needed to wait.

Su Bei leaned on his shoulder. Her heart ached for Lu Heting. She was the fool. She made him wait for her for five years. She didn't want to do such a stupid thing again. What if he was taken away by someone else?

"Lu Heting, give me a photo of you too. I want to put it in my purse."

It was a little silly, but it was the best way for Su Bei to make it up to him. She wanted to see him at all times.

Lu Heting immediately said solemnly, "Then I'll give it to you tomorrow."

"Okay, my husband is the best," Su Bei praised him and kissed him on the cheek.

Lu Heting's eyes were full of smiles and affection as he held her in his arms. The coldness in his body disappeared and was replaced by warmth.

Gun Gun and Da Bao had been sleeping in Su Bei's room for the past few nights. After learning that the gastric cancer was a misdiagnosis, the two munchkins seemed to be afraid that something bad would happen again. As soon as night fell, they would take the initiative to take a shower and go to bed early.

"Bei Bei, we'll wait for you!" Gun Gun shouted in a childish voice.

Su Bei was both happy and surprised. In the past, Da Bao had always been very independent. After he was born, he slept in his crib and later in the small room all by himself. He seldom slept with her. But these days, he had been sticking to her every day.

Her son was still the best! Su Bei's heart softened at once.

"I'll be there soon!" Su Bei kicked off her slippers and walked into the room. She smiled at Lu Heting and then closed the door cruelly.

The expression on Lu Heting's face changed several times, but he still restrained himself. After all, they were his wife and sons.

However, he still couldn't help feeling a little bitter. He had hoped that Da Bao, the mature and stable child, could influence Gun Gun so that he would sleep in his own bed.

He didn't expect that after this incident, Gun Gun didn't become like Da Bao but Da Bao became like Gun Gun instead.

With a sigh, he looked at the door of Su Bei's room with a trace of loneliness. After a while, he returned to his room.

When he remembered that Su Bei had asked him for a photo, it washed away the desolation in his heart.

This childish exchange of photos was regarded as a big deal by Lu Heting. He immediately took out his phone and planned to find a photo that reflected his temperament the most.

He opened the photo album and scrolled down. He didn't see any photos of himself on his phone. There were only photos of Su Bei and Lu Bei, as well as two photos of Gun Gun and Da Bao.

It was only then that he remembered he didn't like being in front of the camera. The photos he had from when he was a child were very limited as well.

He could only take a few photos at the last minute.

Chapter 535: It Was Very Worth It

Lu Heting adjusted his phone, aimed the camera at himself, and posed... Wait, why did he feel like he was gay when taking selfies like this? No wonder he never liked taking selfies.

Forget it. He didn't want to take the photos by himself. He would ask someone in the company to take them for him.

The next day, Lu Heting arrived at the company. Seeing that he was in a good mood, Lu Weijian went up to him and said fawningly, "Brother, what did my sister-in-law buy? Why did you have to go all the way there to pay the bill?"

Lu Heting didn't respond. It was too childish to show off the watch that his wife bought for him.

He raised his wrist and looked at the time. "It's already the start of working hours."

Lu Heting reminded Lu Weijian that it was already working hours, but he did not need to look at his watch to tell him that. Lu Weijian looked over and saw that Lu Heting had changed his watch. This watch was slightly better than the one he wore before, but not by much. It was only worth about 100,000 yuan.

It suddenly dawned on Lu Weijian. "My sister-in-law gave it to you?"

"Yes," Lu Heting replied proudly. He didn't want to show off, but he couldn't help wearing the gift that his wife had bought for him.

"My sister-in-law really knows how to choose a good gift! Although this watch is not very expensive, the style is very high-end and elegant. It suits an elite and successful man like you very well." Lu Weijian was indeed like Gun Gun as they both had a knack for showering one with compliments.

"You're right!" Lu Heting was in high spirits. He nodded in agreement. His wife was so good at choosing a gift and was especially thrifty. She managed to buy such a good watch for only 100,000 yuan. It was very worth it!"

Lu Weijian admitted defeat. It was rare for his brother to agree with him even once a year. But this time, he gained his brother's acknowledgment after he praised the watch his sister-in-law chose.

Lu Heting tossed his phone to Lu Weijian and said, "Help me take a photo."

"Okay!" Lu Weijian immediately adjusted the angle of the phone. "Brother, are you going to be in a financial magazine? You seldom take photos. If you're going to be in a magazine, let the professionals do it. Since you're finally willing to be in a financial magazine, let's make it grand. Don't take this matter too lightly."

"Just do it."

Lu Weijian scratched his head. "Then what kind of photos do you want? What style? What do you want them for?"

"Make it natural. I want to look handsome." Lu Heting didn't have any other requirements. As long as the photo was good enough for Su Bei.

"That's easy. With your face, looking handsome in photos is an easy feat. You'll look handsome in any photo." Lu Weijian was telling the truth. If Lu Heting ended up looking ugly in a photo, the photographer must be stupid.

How could he, Lu Weijian, not know how to take a few photos?

He took a lot of photos in one go. It was really satisfying. In the past, Lu Heting never liked taking photos. But now, Lu Heting took the initiative to have him take photos of him. To prove himself as a good photographer, Lu Weijian had to perform well!

Holding the phone in his hand, Lu Weijian rushed to Lu Heting and asked, “Brother, what do you think of these?”

Lu Heting flipped through the photos carefully and finally chose two.

“Brother, what are you going to do with them?” Lu Weijian scratched his head with curiosity. His brother wanting his photos to be taken was something he could not comprehend.

Chapter 536: Too Much Affection

Lu Heting didn't say anything, but his eyes were full of affection. He found Su Bei's phone and sent her the two photos he was most satisfied with.

Lu Weijian accidentally glanced at Lu Heting's phone, but he didn't see anything. He only caught a glimpse of Su Bei's WeChat account but already knew that this was an interaction brimming with affection.

Everything made sense now! It was because his sister-in-law wanted the photos!

He knew it! It was rare for Lu Heting to want to take a photo. How could he be so obedient at the mercy of others?

Su Bei was in the company. When she received the photos, she replied sincerely: ‘You look so cool. I have to think about which one to use. I'll print it out and show it to you later.’

“Su Bei.” Yue Ze walked over and said, “The chief editor of Beauty is here. Let's go see her.”

When the chief editor of Beauty arrived, Jian Ping and Hao Jiali also went over to welcome her, but they did not get to see her. When they heard that the chief editor had gone upstairs through another corridor, they hurried over. However, the chief editor had already been invited into the office by Yue Ze and Su Bei.

A trace of displeasure flashed across Jian Ping's face. “Is Yue Ze trying to steal my resources so openly?”

Tang Xinru's assistant walked over and invited Jian Ping and Hao Jiali to Tang Xinru's office.

Jian Ping and Hao Jiali didn't look happy, but they tried their best to hold themselves back and went into Tang Xinru's office.

“Jian Ping, Jiali, I know that you're waiting for Beauty's chief editor to make the final decision.”

“Yes, we've already talked to Beauty. They said that they like Jiali very much,” Jian Ping said. “But what's going on today? Why is the chief editor meeting with Yue Ze and Su Bei instead of us?”

Tang Xinru smiled apologetically and said, “I was about to explain this matter to you. Su Bei was the one initially chosen by Beauty. It's only because something happened to Su Bei that we passed this job to you. However, Beauty hasn't finalized anything on their end, so the job has gone back to Su Bei.”

After hearing Tang Xinru's explanation, Jian Ping and Hao Jiali looked at each other with dissatisfaction. However, they didn't dare to show it on their faces.

"Does that mean that my and Jiali's hard work was for nothing?" Jian Ping asked.

"Both Beauty and we have to come to a mutual agreement for these things. This isn't a matter that I can call the shots," Tang Xinru said seriously, "The company is fighting for new resources for Jiali. You can get prepared first."

When Jian Ping and Hao Jiali came out of Tang Xinru's office, their faces were utterly dark.

"Mutual agreement? Su Bei was the one initially chosen? Is she trying to coax children by saying these words?" Jian Ping was very dissatisfied with Tang Xinru's explanation.

Hao Jiali also looked displeased. "This cover would've been a great boost for my career. It'd help me get selected as one of the top ten models of the year. But as soon as Su Bei came back, she snatched it away from me. Is the company planning to only support Su Bei now? Tang Xinru is too biased!"

"I've told you before that Tang Xinru is not suitable to lead a company. She doesn't have a good eye for people. She doesn't know how to separate private interests from her work," Jian Ping said angrily.

However, it was not up to her to decide whether Tang Xinru could be a leader or not.

Besides, the reason why Sheng Tang was able to get to where it was now had everything to do with Tang Xinru's leadership ability.

Jian Ping was just criticizing her.

Chapter 537: Comparison

Jian Ping and Hao Jiali were very dissatisfied with what happened this time. They could only watch helplessly as Yue Ze and Su Bei sent off the chief editor of Beauty. It seemed that the issue of who would be on the cover of the magazine had been finalized. Both of them looked satisfied.

When Su Bei left the company in the afternoon, she ran into Hao Jiali again.

With her arms crossed, Hao Jiali stood in front of Su Bei and said, "Su Bei, the resources you got by pleasing Tang Xinru are really good. I've been working to get this job with Beauty for a long time, but you got it without any difficulty. I'm really not as good as you when it comes to dealing underneath the table."

"Well, I can only agree with you. You're indeed inferior to me." Su Bei smiled brightly.

Hao Jiali had thrown a heavy punch at Su Bei with her words but it only hit cotton in the end, which made her feel unhappy.

"Well, let's see how long you can rely on Tang Xinru!" Hao Jiali said and walked away.

Su Bei couldn't help but shake her head. No matter how she explained herself, Hao Jiali would never believe her anyway.

After Hao Jiali and Su Bei left, Tang Yue stood where she was and looked at Su Bei's back.

She said to her assistant, “Go and fight for Jian Ping and Hao Jiali. Have them join our side. Tang Xinru doesn’t know what’s good for her. Since she insists on supporting Su Bei, she’ll only suffer a backlash. If you want to compete with me for the president position, Tang Xinru, do you think you can do that by solely relying on Su Bei?”

The battle for the position of president of Sheng Tang had continued for five years. Both Tang Xinru and Tang Yue had their own victories and losses, but neither of them had an absolute chance of winning, so they were in a stalemate.

Fortunately, although they had internal strife, they had always managed Sheng Tang well and were regarded highly by others.

This time, more than 50 models had signed up for the Top Ten Model Awards. It was not easy to select ten of them.

Among them, seven models were publicly acknowledged to be capable. But for various reasons, they didn’t get the honors of being selected in the past year. Hence, it was likely that they would be selected this year. It was a foregone conclusion. The people in the industry as well as fans were convinced of this.

It was the remaining three spots that were more controversial.

Among the remaining candidates, there were at least five notable mentions—including Su Huixian, Su Bei, Hao Jiali, Minwen, and Li Xuan. All five of them had performed well this year, but none of them had the absolute advantage.

The marketing accounts had been promoting the polls since early in the morning. At the moment, these five people and some other candidates were being compared to each other.

In the polls, Su Huixian, Su Bei, and Hao Jiali seemed to be strong contenders.

Both Su Huixian and Hao Jiali had been in this industry for several years, so the public was familiar with them. Even if the public just knew their faces, it still gave them an advantage.

However, Su Huixian had a lot of scandals this year. It was fine if Su Bei was not in the picture, but now that they were both up for the running, everyone was reminded of her fake pregnancy incident as well as how she was humiliated by Su Bei several times.

Su Bei, Minwen, and Li Xuan were all newcomers. Su Bei, in particular, was the newest out of all. But she had attracted the most attention with all kinds of beautiful photos and wonderful performances.

Chapter 538: Handsome To Death

However, because she had only accepted short-term jobs before and had even announced her withdrawal from the modeling industry, many people criticized her for being unprofessional and treating her work as a joke. This controversy made her lose her absolute advantage.

Su Huixian said to Qiu Minxuan, “Hire some keyboard warriors for me. Make sure to suppress all the comments about my scandal and post more photos of me working seriously. And don’t show any mercy to Su Bei either.”

“I know. I’ve been working on it.”

Hao Jiali, Minwen, and Li Xuan didn’t stay idle either.

Everyone tried their best to compete for the limelight before the selection. It was because the judges had to consider how the public viewed the models as well.

They would never choose an unprofessional model with too many scandals.

After work, Su Bei went to the mall to print the photos Lu Heting sent her.

Yesterday when she went to the mall in a woman’s outfit, she attracted the attention of that rich second-generation heir and wasted a lot of time. So today, she chose to dress as a man and pretend to be Lu Bei in case she got into trouble again.

[Hubby, I’m waiting for you on the bench outside the shop I visited yesterday.] Su Bei sent him a message on WeChat.

The young sales assistants in the shop were in a good mood because that rich second-generation heir wasn’t around anymore.

As soon as they looked at the shop’s entrance, a handsome young man appeared.

“He’s so handsome! Look at his legs and waist! They’re perfect! I can definitely win him over!” a sales assistant exclaimed.

“Don’t let your imagination run wild. Such a handsome man usually belongs to another man. He has no fate with us.”

“Then tell me, what kind of man is worthy of him?”

“If one of them is bright and beautiful, then their partner must be calm, reserved, and mature. Oh my God, I can already write an 80,000-word novel!”

“Here’s your pen. Hurry up and write!”

Su Bei chatted with Lu Heting on WeChat. She didn’t seem to care about anything else.

When she received a message from Lu Heting, she hurriedly stood up and saw that he was already in front of her.

Su Bei stood up and held his arm. “Let’s go and print the photos.”

“Yes.” This was the first time Lu Heting had been with Su Bei while she was dressed in a man’s outfit. It was a strange and incredible feeling.

However, when he lowered her eyes to look at Su Bei, she didn’t deliberately show her imposing manner. Su Bei still had that smiling face of hers. It was cute, lovely, and obedient. Her red lips were full and moist.

Lu Heting reached out and tidied her loose shirt. Then, he held her face and looked at her short hair.

No matter what kind of makeup she wore, she looked so beautiful. He was satisfied and proud of her.

The sales assistants in the shop were all excited. Just now, there were only a few people watching the scene outside their shop, but now, the whole shop was watching.

“He really belongs to another man! I’m so jealous. But this eye candy is enough to last me for a hundred years.”

“Wait, don’t you all realize that he’s the man from yesterday?”

Chapter 539: These Jobs Were Offered Long Ago

“I just realized it! It’s the man who paid for the bill yesterday! It’s the husband of that beautiful woman!”

“What the f*ck? What drama is this? Yesterday, he paid the bill for the beautiful woman, and today, he’s accompanying a guy to the mall. Is this really true? Who has that beautiful woman’s phone number? I want to report it to her!”

While everyone was talking, Lu Heting lowered his head and kissed Su Bei on the lips.

The beautiful scene only made the young women in the shop even more excited.

“Can I still believe in love? Boo-hoo! Everything’s ruined now!”

“I have no faith in this world anymore.”

“My values are destroyed!”

“My eyes!”

Before the crowd could finish their wails, Lu Heting left the scene of chaos with Su Bei in his arms.

His protective attitude made everyone feel that their worldview had collapsed, but they had to acknowledge that the two made a beautiful scene... It was really contradictory.

Su Bei went to an automated printer and printed out Lu Heting’s photo.

“I’ll put this in my purse.”

“Alright.” Lu Heting caressed Su Bei’s hair. She was wearing a wig, so it didn’t feel as good as her real hair. Even so, it was better than nothing.

Many pairs of eyes were looking at them. Some of their gazes lingered on Su Bei for a long time. Lu Heting couldn’t stay in this mall anymore. It was safer to take her away.

After Su Bei got back to work, her schedule was not as relaxed as before.

Fortunately, Da Bao and Gun Gun had calmed down by now. The two munchkins seemed to have matured after experiencing life and death. Gun Gun, in particular, had grown closer to Su Bei now.

Su Bei and Hao Jiali were participating in an event in the company together.

During the event, the questions asked by the reporters were all related to the Top Ten Model Awards.

“Su Bei, Jiali, what do you think is the most important thing for a model?”

Hao Jiali immediately smiled and said, “I think it’s hard work and diligence. Only when you put your work first and work hard will you live up to the expectations of your fans and the audience.”

She glanced at Su Bei and said, “If a model is lazy, I don’t think she can become a good model even if she’s lucky. Don’t you think so, Su Bei?”

It was obvious that Hao Jiali’s words were directed at Su Bei. However, Su Bei was good at keeping her composure, so she maintained a smile on her face. She didn’t seem to be offended at all, and it was as if the two were old friends chatting.

In this industry, everyone was smart enough to keep their mouths shut in front of reporters.

“Yes, you’re right,” Su Bei agreed. Then, she added, “That’s why my schedule will be more packed from now on. I hope everyone will show your support for me.”

“Su Bei, why did you quit before? Why did you decide to come back to the industry? Can you tell the reporters?” Hao Jiali asked.

Su Bei smiled and said, “Modelling is the career I love most. I’m sorry for my temporary withdrawal. I hope everyone will pay more attention to my future work.”

Yue Ze stopped the reporters and directly slapped Hao Jiali in the face with his next words. “Su Bei will be participating in the shooting of the cover of the new Beauty magazine. She’ll also be participating in several big shows and activities of several brands. These are all the jobs that were offered to Su Bei long ago. The reason why she can’t quit is that everyone is cheering for her.. If she leaves, it’ll be a great regret for the modeling world.”

Chapter 540: Improve Her Status In The Country

After hearing what he said, Hao Jiali’s face slightly changed.

Yue Ze looked calm. Since Hao Jiali wanted to embarrass someone, he had to fulfil her wish. Did she really think that after Su Bei came back, she needed to “steal” Beauty?

“Does Su Bei already have so many jobs lined up for her?” The reporters paid close attention to her.

“Yes. Previously, Su Bei refused many of the jobs because she wasn’t feeling well. But now that she has recovered, we welcome all partners to discuss cooperation. As for Su Bei’s upcoming activities, we will announce her schedule soon and we hope to gain everyone’s attention,” Yue Ze explained in a few words.

With that, he managed to protect Su Bei and they left the scene after that.

Hao Jiali regained her composure. ‘Su Bei, are you really so hardworking?’

As soon as Su Bei and Yue Ze got in the car, Xiao Bai hurriedly handed him a phone. "Brother Yue, a director named Gibson called. He wants to see you tonight."

"Director Gibson? He's the director for Dream. Brother Yue, have you received his call?" Su Bei asked hurriedly.

"Yes, Dream has already decided to sign you for this jewelry commercial. If the response is good, you might even be promoted to be the ambassador of the Asia-Pacific region," Yue Ze said with a smile.

Su Bei let out a long sigh and said, "I thought that I didn't have a chance. After all, many famous supermodels in Europe and America went to the audition as well. Some of them were even actresses."

"I made contact with him long ago. It's just that I didn't tell you. After all, you've been offered a lot of jobs recently. Get ready for dinner with Director Gibson tonight."

A big smile appeared on Xiao Bai's doll-like face. "Su Bei, you're amazing. Dream is so famous for their jewelry. And every piece of theirs is so romantic and beautiful. When I get married in the future, I must wear their jewelry!"

Su Bei was also full of joy. Getting this commercial would not only increase her status in the country but also on the world stage.

It would also greatly boost her chances of getting selected as one of the top ten models of the year.

This good news came at the right time.

Yue Ze and Director Gibson had agreed to meet in a restaurant in the evening.

Yue Ze was there with Su Bei. Director Gibson and his assistant were already waiting for them. When Director Gibson saw Su Bei and Yue Ze, he still had that impeccable smile on his face. He stepped forward and hugged them. But this time, his smile was obviously more sincere than the last time.

Since Su Bei and Yue Ze both knew English, it was easy for them to communicate with each other.

While they were eating, a middle-aged man from S Country, who looked to be in his 40s, walked over. He was a gentleman, and when he saw Director Gibson, he patted his shoulder.

Director Gibson turned around and laughed. "What a coincidence to see you here, old friend. Come, let's have a drink according to the etiquette of S Country!"

"I didn't expect to see you here either. Long time no see, old friend!"

Yue Ze said to Su Bei, "What a coincidence to meet him here. This is Jiang Hong, a former model. He was the first supermodel in S Country a few years ago and has a lot of influence internationally. But he has retired."
