

Chapter 541: Getting Someone To Mediate

Su Bei secretly nodded her head. No wonder she felt a trace of familiarity when she saw him just now. She remembered that she had watched his runway videos before and studied his performance.

Director Gibson liked Su Bei very much and immediately said to Jiang Hong, “Old friend, let me introduce you to a talent with a lot of potential. This is the female lead of my commercial, Su Bei. She’s in the same profession as you were in the past. Come, let’s get to know each other. Let’s have a drink.”

“Nice to meet you, senior!” Su Bei politely stood up and shook hands with Jiang Hong. She then raised her glass and gave him a toast.

This was because he was one of the judges for this year’s Top Ten Model Awards. Although the organizing committee hadn’t announced it yet, he should avoid arousing suspicion and shouldn’t meet the models in private.

Even so, he felt that the person his old friend, Director Gibson, approved of wouldn’t be too bad.

Yue Ze and Su Bei did not take this to heart. Su Bei’s etiquette was impeccable when meeting her seniors at social events.

Furthermore, he and Su Bei both had their own work to attend to.

However, someone was secretly filming the scene outside the window.

The paparazzi used high-tech filming equipment to capture the images silently.

Very soon, Su Huixian, who was far away in Qian Yu Entertainment Company, received these images.

She had recently gotten people to take photos of Su Bei’s private life, but the paparazzi did not have any results even after a few days. This was because every time Su Bei went out, she would disguise herself—including the times she bought a watch and when she went to print a photo with Lu Heting.

As for where she lived, although it was still in the normal neighborhood, Lu Heting had already arranged for people to take care of the area. As long as any suspicious people approached, they would be notified of it. Lu Hang would also have the bodyguards immediately make a move. No random person was allowed to enter.

Not to mention, ever since Lu Heting moved in, the management of the building had been replaced. Currently, the management was basically working for Lu Heting.

The paparazzi Su Huixian had spent money on only had their first chance to take photos of Su Bei on this evening.

Qiu Minxuan took a look at the photos and said, "It must be a business dinner. Su Bei has her agent with her, and this foreigner also has an assistant. Wait, is this foreigner Director Gibson? Could it be that Su Bei has already passed the audition?"

It took her some time to recognize the man. Su Huixian did not participate in the audition last time. Instead, she arranged for two new models to go.

Su Huixian lowered her head and said, "Didn't Zhong Xiu say that Su Bei didn't have good results in the audition? Could it be that Su Bei is making a private deal to get the job? Also, isn't this man Jiang Hong?"

The paparazzi had been following Su Bei for a long time, but all the person got was useless information. It made Su Huixian feel unhappy.

After Qiu Minxuan picked up a phone call, she said, "Huixian, I've found out some concrete information. There are four judges for this year's Top Ten Model Awards. One of them is Jiang Hong! No wonder Su Bei was drinking with him tonight. It turns out that she and Yue Ze received the news beforehand and went to look for Jiang Hong to get in cahoots with each other!

"Should we look for him to do the same? However, rumors have it that Jiang Hong and his wife are very loving. He would never do anything inappropriate! I guess it means we can only spend money to look for him?"

Chapter 542: Violated The Rules By Meeting Each Other

"Since Su Bei has already gone to pull some strings, let's not do the same. Looking for the same person is useless, but the photos in my hands... are useful."

Qiu Minxuan laughed as well. "That's right. With these photos, how is Su Bei going to deny it? As for Jiang Hong, I'm afraid his reputation will be ruined as well, right? When that time comes, regardless of whether Su Bei has obtained the title of one of the top ten models or not, the fact that she slept with the judge and had an affair will never be forgotten. I'll choose the right photos to post."

"Brilliant plan! Minwen and Li Xuan were also strong contenders. It'd be good to let them tear Su Bei apart! This way, we can stay out of it." Qiu Minxuan felt that Su Huixian was getting smarter.

Su Huixian had suffered too much at Su Bei's hands, so she had no choice but to be more careful. At this critical moment, she did not want to be criticized again.

She did not want to give the Du family any more trouble.

If these compromising materials were used by outsiders, no matter how things turned out, she would not be the one affected. As for Su Bei, since she dared to seduce the judge, she had to bear the consequences!

If she still couldn't completely step on Su Bei this time, then she would have to use her last method! However, she wanted to avoid doing that because that method would very likely involve her.

The next day, the panel of judges for this year was announced. The four judges were all reputable people and could shoulder this big responsibility.

Three of the judges were older and highly respected in the industry. Jiang Hong was the youngest among all the judges. He was only in his early 40s, and this was his first time on the judging panel. However, he had the qualifications and was also the first supermodel of S Country. He was also currently on the committee, so it was no surprise that he was on the list.

After the organizing committee announced the list of judges, many were attracted to Jiang Hong because of his good looks.

He had already retired from the entertainment industry and only held a position in the organizing committee. He usually accompanied his wife and daughter. His Weibo was filled with photos of his wife and daughter. Therefore, when many fans came across his Weibo, they were attracted to his gentle personality. He gained a ton of new fans.

These days, there weren't many good men who were willing to cook for their wives and daughters, but Jiang Hong was one of them. On his Weibo, one could only see how peacefully he spent his time. There weren't any influences from the entertainment industry.

As such, his credibility improved further.

In an instant, Jiang Hong became even more popular than the currently active models.

In the photos, Su Bei and Jiang Hong were very close to each other as they talked about something. Then, they even smiled as they raised their glasses and clinked them together.

Although there weren't many intimate actions or any physical contact in the photos, their appearance at such a critical moment was problematic. A model who was up for the running and a judge shouldn't have met during this period as they would be deemed as having violated the rules.

Chapter 543: A Little Tough

At a time like this, Jiang Hong and Su Bei's meeting opened up a door of speculations. There was no need for a written statement and no need for marketing accounts to use sensational headlines to influence netizens. Everyone seemed to do their own thinking.

This was the power of photos and the power of human imagination.

Immediately, these photos caused a wave of rumors. The fake accounts, fans, and anti-fans came together and interpreted the photos in all sorts of ways.

[No wonder Su Bei announced her comeback at this time. It turns out it's because there's such a good thing waiting for her! I'll put it this way. If Su Bei can enter the top ten, the organizing committee can forget about holding any sort of selections in the future. They should just give everything to Su Bei!]

[This is too much. When our idol is working hard, Su Bei only needs to drink a glass of wine and shake someone's hand to get what others are desperately fighting for. I can't accept this.]

[Everyone, don't talk nonsense. This might not be what you think. Perhaps they were just interacting normally.]

[I agree with the person above. Doesn't everyone have the right to socialize?]

[Eat, drink, and interact in private? Who knows what kind of social interaction this is? Who knows if they later socialized in bed?]

[To think that I previously said Jiang Hong was a good man who loved his wife and children. Who would have thought that he would be such a scumbag? He was just showered with compliments, but he has now fallen into such a state?]

[It's unfair for Su Huixian, Minwen, Li Xuan, Hao Jiali, and all of Country S's models.]

Tang Xinru, Yue Ze, and Jian Ping were talking in the office.

"I heard that the list of judges is out. They're all fair and just judges. They're trustworthy. For what follows next, we should just go according to the normal workflow and do our jobs well. I believe in the decision of the judges," Tang Xinru said.

"Hao Jiali's work arrangements are alright, but..." said Jian Ping.

Jian Ping suddenly raised her brows and placed her phone on the table. "There seems to be something off with Su Bei's work arrangements?"

She was secretly delighted. She never thought that Yue Ze would make such a mistake. He brought Su Bei to meet a judge and was even filmed by someone. In order to defeat her, Yue Ze had resorted to such unscrupulous means?

Tang Xinru and Yue Ze's expressions changed. Obviously, this situation was unexpected.

Jian Ping knew that the things to follow would be a big test for Yue Ze. She sighed regretfully and stood up. "I'll go back to work. If you need my help, feel free to look for me."

Tang Xinru asked, "What's going on?"

"It was just an accident." Yue Ze explained what had happened that night.

"Contact Jiang Hong and clarify the matter immediately. However, it's a little tricky to deal with this clarification." Tang Xinru frowned.

The affairs between men and women were the most eye-catching and the most talked about. Even if the two of them stepped out to clarify the situation, outsiders would just be more suspicious. They needed absolute evidence to convince the public.

She looked at Yue Ze, who frowned and said, "I'm afraid we can only ask Director Gibson to verify this matter. However, he's boarding a plane in two hours. It'll be hard to coordinate this."

Chapter 544: Things Got Messier

“Try your best to keep him here. When the clarification is made, say that Su Bei has gotten Dream’s commercial.”

At this moment, Tang Xinru did not have the time to investigate who released such information. She could only solve the problem first.

Yue Ze immediately called Director Gibson.

At the same time, he called Jiang Hong as well.

There was a lot of controversy regarding Su Huixian and Su Bei. The other three judges did not like Su Bei’s work attitude.

“I heard that Su Bei has never had proper plans for her career. Every time she takes on a job, she’ll only look at the amount of money. The shorter and easier the work, the better for her. She rejects any job that requires a long-term commitment. I don’t think she’s worthy of this honor.”

“I agree. Not to mention, she previously wanted to leave the modeling industry for no reason and came back without a word. It’s obvious she treats her work as child’s play. With such an attitude and work style, I don’t think she should be a role model. Especially since she has always had a lot of scandals and is always trending on various hot searches. Everyone, don’t forget that she was also involved in the scandal of being a mistress.”

Jiang Hong had a different opinion. “I heard that Su Bei quit because of her health. Even during the ten days that she quit, she still participated in an audition for a commercial. To me, Su Bei’s performance is perfect. Her stage presence is very stable. The shows she participated in are good learning material for the younger generation and newcomers. Therefore, I want to give her this honor. As for the rumors, Su Bei has already clarified all of them.”

Jiang Hong had a different opinion. “I’ve already heard that Su Bei quit because of her health. Even during the ten days that she quit, she had a job in America and participated in the audition for the advertisement. To me, Su Bei’s performance was perfect. Her stage presence was very stable and she had a breakthrough. The shows she went through were worth learning from the younger generation and newcomers. Therefore, I want to give her this honor. As for the rumors, Su Bei has already completely clarified it.”

Everyone argued fiercely.

Just then, one of the older judges opened Weibo and showed the photos to everyone. “Jiang Hong, I remember that during the selection, the judges aren’t allowed to meet the models privately?”

The other two judges could not help but look at him, their eyes filled with doubt. It was as if these photos explained why Jiang Hong was fighting so hard for Su Bei and why he was standing against everyone.

Jiang Hong’s expression also changed slightly. He clearly didn’t expect someone to interpret a short meeting this way.

He blurted out, "Su Bei and I are not friends in private. That was the first time we met."

It wasn't that the three judges didn't believe him but the evidence was right in front of them. They were a little disappointed with this young judge. They didn't dare to casually make a decision on the matter of knowing a person for a long time.

Jiang Hong could see everyone's doubts and said, "Seniors, don't worry. I'll not bring dishonor to the organizing committee, nor will I let this award lose its credibility."

Jiang Hong walked out, and Yue Ze called. The two of them had a simple exchange.

Only then did Jiang Hong return to his senses. He suddenly recalled Su Bei's previous scandals and understood that this circle was much more chaotic than during his time.

This made him firmly believe in Su Bei and he wanted to give her this honor.

Chapter 545: Tolerated Enough

Getting involved in this situation allowed him, the judge, to properly experience what it meant to create trouble out of nothing and the lengths people would go to for their selfish desires.

However, could those groundless accusations really beat justice? Jiang Hong didn't believe it! This time, he wanted to see just what other tricks the other party had up their sleeves!

Su Bei soon saw what was happening online.

Yue Ze called her and told her not to panic or act rashly. The company had already contacted Director Gibson.

Su Bei was not panicking at all. As she had not done anything wrong, she was not afraid. There was nothing going on between her and Jiang Hong. If it weren't for her meeting with Director Gibson, this crisis would not have happened.

However, who took the photo? Could it be that the other party had been following her all along?

She immediately called Lu Heting.

Lu Heting also saw the news on Weibo and was about to call Su Bei when she called.

He picked it up, his voice steady and strong. "I saw the scandal. It'll be fine. Don't worry."

"Yeah, I just was thinking that if someone is really following me, will Da Bao and Gun Gun be exposed as well? I don't want the outside world to know about them and cause trouble for them. You have to be more careful and protect yourself as well," Su Bei reminded.

Lu Heting smiled, his eyes filled with tenderness and heartache. After such a huge incident, the first thing she thought of was his and the two children's safety, not about what would happen to her.

“Da Bao and Gun Gun are safe, so you don’t have to worry. I’m fine as well. Let’s talk about you. You had witnesses when you met Jiang Hong that night. Yue Ze should be able to come up with a good plan soon.”

“Do you suspect anyone?” Lu Heting asked in a deep voice. The pen in his hand broke into two pieces. No matter who it was, if they dared to do this to Su Bei, they would suffer the same fate as the pen in his hand.

Su Bei thought for a while. “Among the candidates for the Top Ten Model Awards, Su Huixian is the most likely to have gotten someone to follow me. Not only does she want to compete with me for the Top Ten Model Awards, but she has also always been at odds with me. If I made a mistake and made a fool of myself, the chances of her restoring her reputation are much higher. I’ve tolerated both her and her mother long enough... That mistress appeared and indirectly killed my mother. Back then, if it weren’t for my mother’s last words, telling me not to pursue them or fight them, I would’ve...”

When Lu Heting heard this, he knew that Su Bei’s mother must have been worried that she was too young at that time and was no match for Su Huixian and her mother. That was why she left those last words.

Su Bei’s had already tolerated that pair of mother and daughter enough.

“If they’re really behind this, I won’t tolerate their unscrupulous behaviors anymore.”

“What can I do?” Lu Heting’s voice became low because he felt sorry for Su Bei.

“If you have time, help me investigate something,” Su Bei said softly.

Su Bei was being questioned by the entire internet, and the judges naturally had some complaints about her.

They were waiting to see what kind of explanation Jiang Hong would make.. If the matter couldn’t be clarified, not only would Su Bei be unable to be selected but Jiang Hong would also be eliminated from the judges’ panel.

Chapter 546: Too Late

Su Bei went to the company. During the company meeting, everyone looked at her with disdain. Many models in the company were being questioned as well because of her.

It was no wonder that everyone was looking at her like that. Jian Ping helplessly said, “Su Bei was the one who got herself in trouble, but even the rest of our models are being questioned and suspected. A rotten apple spoils the entire basket. This is what the current situation is like. Yue Ze, what do you have to say about this?”

“We’ve already gotten hold of the evidence. We’ll clarify it tonight,” Yue Ze said calmly, “You’re also an agent. Do you rather believe in a marketing account than your own colleagues?”

Jian Ping was being questioned, but she still argued. “I do believe you, but what’s the use of that? Now, everyone is being dragged down along with you.”

“The selection isn’t over yet. We’ll definitely bring down the rumors. I hope that within the company, the rumors will stop.”

What Yue Ze meant was that Jian Ping’s questioning was just a foolish act.

After Jian Ping and Hao Jiali went out, Jian Ping said, “Su Bei wants to clarify the matter. Seeing how they’re so confident that they’ll get through this, I’m afraid they have proof. Damn it, how can they be so quick to act?”

In comparison, they would rather be implicated than have Su Bei clarify the scandal.

Hao Jiali’s chances of getting selected were not high if she were to go up against Su Bei.

Hao Jiali said, “Sister Ping, let’s first tell the models that Su Bei wants to clarify the matter. We’ll also tell them to hurry up if they have any tricks up their sleeves. Otherwise, it’ll be too late.”

The two of them could not lay their hands on Su Bei as they were from the same company, but it did not mean that the models from other companies could not.

Jian Ping smiled and immediately released the news that Yue Ze had yet to announce.

Su Huixian quickly received the news. “Yue Ze has already found evidence to clear Su Bei’s name?”

“Looking at this photo, there were indeed other people present that night. If Director Gibson came forward to clarify things for her, then things won’t go as we expected. Su Bei won’t suffer a blow.”

“Then spread the news that Su Bei is having an affair with Director Gibson.” Su Huixian made up her mind.

“But...” Qiu Minxuan wanted to remind Su Huixian that there was no need for her to continue offending the big shots in the industry over such a matter. In the future, if things were to get out of hand, she would be implicated as well.

However, Su Huixian did not listen to her advice. She wanted to deal Su Bei a heavy blow with this attack. She needed to take Su Bei down this time. “I told you to do it! Do you want her to remain lording over me? You may be willing to let that happen, but I’m not!”

Su Huixian called her mother, Xu Zhiqin. “Mom, do you still remember how Su Bei’s mother, Chen Xiuzhu, died? I hope you can bring this matter up again and make a big deal out of it.”

Xu Zhiqin was slightly taken aback. “If we make an issue out of Chen Xiuzhu’s matter, I’m worried...”

She was worried that her involvement in Su Xingfu and Chen Xiuzhu's relationship as a mistress would be exposed. That had always been a pain in her heart. Even the Du family still held a grudge against Su Huixian because of this matter.

She really did not want this matter to be exposed to the public and let her daughter be troubled over this

Chapter 547: Ingrate

"There's evidence regarding Chen Xiuzhu's matter, but what about you and Dad? Is there any evidence? No one has any evidence to prove that you wrecked someone else's family. Isn't that the end of the matter? All the Du family knows is just some rumors. This time, we have to prove to them in one fell swoop that you're not a mistress and I'm not a mistress' daughter. Mother, Su Bei is the one who's unbearable!" Su Huixian said through gritted teeth.

Xu Zhiqin thought about it and felt that it made sense.

Her daughter has always been looked down upon by the Du family. She could make use of this opportunity to clarify things with the Du family and let them know that Su Huixian was the legitimate daughter of the Su family. They were not to doubt her in the future!

Su Xingfu was silent for a while. "Do we really have to do this?"

"I don't want to do this either. I don't want to ruin Chen Xiuzhu's reputation after her death, and I don't want to hurt Su Bei. But you've seen it for yourself. Su Bei is really reckless. She's unscrupulous in her actions. Not only does she get criticized everywhere she goes, but she has even hurt Huixian. Hubby, Huixian is our biological daughter. Are you just going to watch as she gets hurt by Su Bei? Su Bei has long lost her dignity. Are you still going to let her bring shame to the Su family?"

Su Xingfu thought about it for a while. It was really not easy to make this decision because doing so would harm his ex-wife's reputation.

Xu Zhiqin was about to persuade him again when Su Huixian returned. Her eyes were slightly red as she forced a smile. "Dad, Mom."

"What's wrong? What happened?" Xu Zhiqin asked.

Su Xingfu was very touched. His daughter was under a lot of pressure from work, but when she returned home, she still cared about him.

He asked Qiu Minxuan beside Su Huixian, "Tell me, what exactly happened?"

"I..." Qiu Minxuan looked at Su Huixian, not daring to say anything.

"I told you to say it!" Su Xingfu shouted.

Qiu Minxuan then said, "Su Bei seems to have met Mr. Luo privately. Madam Du wishes to break off their engagement because she said that Huixian is the daughter of a mistress..."

She stammered because it was a lie, but Su Huixian had instructed her to say so. Hence, she could only do as she was told.

Sure enough, Su Xingfu slammed the table and angrily said, “Su Bei is really too insensitive! It’s no longer possible for her and Du Luo to be together. Why can’t she behave herself?!”

If something had happened in the past, he would have asked Su Bei how she was doing. But now, Su Bei and the Su family were estranged. Su Xingfu was no longer willing to keep in contact with Su Bei!

He was so angry that he was gasping for breath. He said to himself, “She’s indeed not my biological daughter. I really can’t treat her as my biological daughter. Even though I had painstakingly raised her for more than ten years, she is just an ingrate. She wasted my time and money. She even hurt my biological daughter! Forget it, forget it. Why should I care about her?”

“Dad, don’t be too angry. Have some tea first.” Su Huixian quickly picked up a cup of warm tea and handed it to him.

When Su Xingfu saw this, he made up his mind.

Chapter 548: Just Wait For Your Death

He was really regretful and frustrated. This daughter was so considerate and filial, far better than Su Bei who didn’t have a good temper. Why did he insist on being good to Su Bei back then and even show her so much concern?

He picked up the cup of tea and said, “Huixian, you don’t have to be afraid. The Du family won’t break off your engagement. If anyone dares to say that you’re the daughter of a mistress in the future, I’ll break their legs! Butler, send out invitations immediately. I want everyone to know that Zhiqin is my lawfully wedded wife! She married me and joined the Su family by following all the proper procedures.”

Xu Zhiqin smiled. She had been waiting for this moment a long time ago.

Both mother and daughter had wanted official statuses for a very long time. It was just that Su Xingfu had always felt bad for his first wife, so he rarely defended them. This time, after obtaining his approval, Su Bei’s reputation was about to be ruined.

Su Huixian secretly asked Xu Zhiqin, “Did you burn that thing?”

“I burned it long ago. I burned it myself,” Xu Zhiqin said.

That thing was the most important part of their plan. Only when that thing was gone could they do whatever they wanted.

Su Huixian was relieved. ‘Su Bei, just wait for your death!

The scandal between Su Bei and Jiang Hong had yet to be clarified when rumors about Su Bei and Director Gibson spread online.

The matter of Director Gibson holding auditions for a commercial for Dream was previously widely circulated. Su Bei happened to have withdrawn from the industry then, but photos of Su Bei and Director Gibson eating together were suddenly released at this moment.

This made all the models who participated in the audition but did not receive any notice feel extremely unhappy.

What happened to fair auditions? What happened to fair choices? They still lost to Su Bei who made dealings in private?

As a result, Su Bei's reputation plummeted. Even though she had turned the tables countless times in the past, now that she was encountering the same situation again, there were lots of people who did not know what the truth was.

[The person above, aren't you generalizing? You can't scold others just because of Su Bei alone, right? This is unfair to others.]

[Others can't talk about what Su Bei has done? Who was the one who had a meal with a judge? Who was the one who drank with the director at such a crucial moment? Su Bei is really one of a kind.]

[I have to say, the person above is right. Su Bei has really disappointed me this time!]

Then, another piece of news appeared.

A middle-aged woman with the surname Wang suddenly stepped forward and criticized Su Bei's mother. Many years ago, Su Bei's mother came in between her family and marriage, causing her relationship with her husband to fall apart. Even now, she was still deeply affected by the incident back then and could not leave her house with her head held high.

Many people asked: [Why are you talking about something that happened so many years ago now?]

[Is that true? But as far as we know, Su Bei's mother has been dead for many years.]

[Do you have any evidence? Why are you jumping out now? Don't you think that things now are messy enough?]

Madam Wang said openly: [The reason why I'm talking about something that happened so many years ago is because of what Su Bei is doing now. It reminds me of my pain when her mother wrecked my family. Most importantly, Su Bei must be the product of my husband's affair with her mother!]

Chapter 549: Showing Su Bei Her Place

[Back then, Su Bei's mother, Chen Xiuzhu, interfered in my marriage and caused me to have multiple miscarriages. I'm still all alone and childless. I'm sad and depressed. My husband can't forget about Su Bei's mother and mentioned her several times. Some time ago before he passed away, he even wanted to see Su Bei and leave our inheritance to her. Fortunately, I firmly stopped him.

[However, the recent news has evoked many painful memories for me and it's really torturous. I really didn't think that the daughter would end up the same as the mother. Chen Xiuzhu did such a thing back then, and now, Su Bei is following in her footsteps, destroying other people's families and disregarding everything for benefits!]

Many people were swayed by her sincere words. When they thought about Su Bei being in a relationship with two married men consecutively and how her mother was that sort of person, they sympathized with Miss Wang even more.

[So Su Bei is so successful in the entertainment industry because of what she learned from her mother. She spreads her legs wide open!]

[I understand why my idol isn't famous now. It's because she's too clean, so how can she snatch away Su Bei's resources?]

[That's right. Where's the evidence? You guys are really good at slandering Su Bei's deceased mother! Madam Wang, your husband has already passed away. You don't have a son or a daughter either. In that case, you're slandering Su Bei as the product of an affair without any evidence! Do you think you can say whatever you want without evidence?]

[I'm waiting for a good show. Selling popcorn and soda.jpg]

[To check whether Su Bei is the product of an affair, shouldn't the DNA test be done between her and Su Xingfu? Why should it be done between her and Madam Wang's husband?]

[Previous commenter, you've enlightened me. Now, we'll see what the Su family says!]

Of course, the Su family did not directly respond to the rumors in the entertainment industry. At present, there was no need for them to get involved.

Despite everything going on, Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin booked a hotel and invited guests to their wedding ceremony.

They had already been married for more than ten years but had never held a wedding before. They were suddenly holding a wedding this time around. This was truly something that made one's imagination run wild.

Was Su Xingfu trying to show that Madam Wang's claims were the truth?

Su Xingfu even said in public, "All these years, I didn't give Zhiqin a public wedding. I apologize to her and Huixian. They sacrificed a lot for the peace and unity of our family. Now, it's time to clear their names."

This proved that what Madam Wang said was true.

Someone immediately commented: [Let's analyze this. According to the current situation, Chen Xiuzhu must have cheated and given birth to Su Bei. Then, Su Xingfu couldn't take it anymore and got together with Xu Zhiqin. But because Chen Xiuzhu had already passed away, Su Xingfu didn't say anything bad about her. It's just because Su Bei is causing so much trouble now that even Su Xingfu couldn't help but step forward to clear his wife's name and show Su Bei her place!]

Everyone tried to dig out Su Bei's background.

However, because everything happened more than 20 years ago, most of the information from back then wasn't stored properly. Hence, no one could find anything.

Chapter 550: Need A Hug More

However, this did not stop everyone from poking into Su Bei's privacy.

Everyone was looking into everything that happened to her over the years.

However, her life in America went undiscovered. Lu Heting now understood that Feng Ze must have deliberately hidden the information about her life in America during those five years. It was because even when he tried searching, he only got limited information.

Everyone was searching for news about Su Bei but they only found some information about her work. As for her personal affairs such as her relationship with Lu Heting, Da Bao, and Gun Gun, they were all tightly protected by Lu Heting.

No one could bring trouble to Da Bao and Gun Gun, the two munchkins whom Su Bei cared about.

Du Changwei and Sun Jingping felt that this move by the Su family was unbelievable.

Du Changwei said, "Could it be that we've really wronged Huixian? She isn't the daughter of a mistress?"

"Whether she's the daughter of a mistress is no longer important to me now. The most important thing is that she faked her pregnancy to deceive Du Luo..." Sun Jingping was really disgusted by this matter.

However, since they were already engaged and Du Luo was loyal to Su Huixian, as his mother, she really could not do anything to stop him.

Du Changwei also recalled the incident at that time. "At the end of the day, this matter only shows that she loves Du Luo. If her mother really isn't a mistress, she should clarify it as soon as possible. I have no objections to this marriage as long as Su Huixian doesn't bring shame to the Du family and Du Luo."

Sun Jingping could only think of things this way.

Problems kept arising on Su Bei's side, which made Jian Ping and Hao Jiali very happy.

When Su Bei saw her mother, Chen Xiuzhu, being slandered on the internet, a cold glint flashed across her usually calm eyes.

She did not expect that Su Huixian and Xu Zhiqin would use such a method to slander her and her mother, implicating her family in the dirty struggles of the entertainment industry.

She could forget about the attacks directed at her but these people were not targeting those who had already passed away.

Bring it on, then. Su Bei had never feared cruel means.

It did not matter as long as the other party could afford the consequences.

As if knowing Su Bei's current mood, Lu Heting called. "Bei Bei, I've found what you want."

"Can you help me get it?" Su Bei asked.

"I'm already doing it." Lu Heting could hear the heaviness in the woman's voice.

Therefore, he had already pushed his work aside and rushed back. Now, he was on his way.

At a time like this, she might need a hug more than any evidence that could help her defeat her opponent.

In the evening, Su Bei was prepared to face everything.

She never liked making meaningless clarifications on Weibo. If she wanted to clarify something, she would do it in person!

Hence, Yue Ze chose the hotel where Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin were having their wedding ceremony for Su Bei to clarify things.

When he announced this, it was clear that the netizens who were enjoying the drama were all excited.

[Su Bei is going to clarify these scandals. I want to see how she's going to do it!]

[Is she really innocent? Yue Ze seems very determined.]

[I heard that Sheng Tang's public relations department has been mobilized. It seems that Su Bei really has the upper hand.]
