

Chapter 561: Where's The Evidence?

"I'll never forget how they took over my mother's place and forced her to die for their benefit.

"Just based on Su Huixian's age alone, it's enough to prove that Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin were the ones having an affair. They had an affair behind my mother's back for many years and gave birth to Su Huixian. Now, they're pushing all the blame on my mother. Just because the deceased can't speak about or complain about their grievances, they think they can throw all the blame on her!"

Su Bei's words made everyone around fall silent.

However, Su Xingfu had clearly come prepared. He did not bat an eyelid as he bitterly asked, "Su Bei, you've been in the entertainment industry for a long time and have learned how to make up stories. Do you have any evidence for the stories you made up? I admit that you deserve sympathy, but sympathy is not a reason for you to slander me and your stepmother."

The reporters also nodded. "Yeah, Su Bei, where's your evidence?"

"Show us the evidence!"

Just when everyone thought that Su Bei would not be able to produce any evidence, Su Bei unexpectedly took a document from Yue Ze's hands and projected it onto the big screen!

Su Xingfu, Qiu Minxuan, and Su Huixian were stunned for a moment. They did not expect her to get any sort of information!

How was that possible? Su Huixian's face turned pale. She never expected Su Bei to get her hand on this.

Qiu Minxuan quickly held onto Su Huixian. What was going on? Where did Su Bei find the information? Su Huixian had used a lot of connections to help Su Xingfu and couldn't find any information on the matter. She thought that all evidence was long gone, but something still existed?

Impossible!

At that moment, Su Huixian wanted to snatch the information but she could not move.

They didn't know when but there were suddenly more people around them. They seemed to be blocking their movements, causing them to be unable to leave or advance.

Su Bei beckoned to everyone and pointed at the information on the big screen. "As you can see from this information, the office changed Su Huixian's age more than ten years ago. After Su Huixian was brought back, Xu Zhiqin helped her change the information on her official documents. Back then, the process of changing personal information was not as strict as it is now. Xu Zhiqin managed to get it done after spending some money."

Everything they did was traceable. They thought nobody could find proof of their actions, but although the office had changed locations and much of the information was not recorded on the internet back then, one could still find evidence and go through past records if one went to the information hall!

"This document is officially recognized. If you don't believe me, you can head to the office to verify it." "

How could anyone not believe that such a thing was issued by the national authorities? It had a legal effect. If outsiders copied it, it would be illegal.

It just required a simple check to confirm if this was true.

The reporters immediately started discussing. "In that case, Su Huixian isn't 22 years old but 26 years old? No wonder her nasolabial folds are so deep. I even believed her when she said she was born like that. F*ck, it turns out it's because she's old."

"This is too scary. Does this mean that Su Xingfu was already cheating with Xu Zhiqin for several years and gave birth to Su Huixian, which caused Chen Xiuzhu to commit suicide due to her unstable emotions?"

"Yet Su Xingfu really dared to say all those things! Jerk!"

"What a jerk! He cheated on his wife but accused her of cheating on him. He doesn't know what's good for him!"

Chapter 562: Adopted

"Su Bei is really pitiful to have such a father."

"That's right. No wonder Su Bei never participated in events with Su Huixian. With such a father and 'sister', why would she stand on the same stage as Su Huixian?"

Su Xingfu's face turned black as he was scolded. He shouted, "Even if I'm in the wrong, Su Bei is still not my biological daughter! At most, my first wife and I are in the wrong! The fault doesn't lie with me alone!"

"That's true. But if you weren't such a jerk, your first wife, Chen Xiuzhu, wouldn't have cheated on you. She must have been too disappointed in you."

"That's right, that's right. If you want to say who's more at fault, it's still you."

Hearing the reporters' discussions and Su Xingfu's argument, Su Bei pressed her hands down. "Everyone, my mother did not have an affair. What Su Xingfu said is not true."

"Su Bei, do you mean that the DNA report was faked by Su Xingfu? If that's the case, he's really such a scumbag. He even tried to scam his own daughter."

A look of pain flashed across Su Bei's eyes. "I'm indeed not Su Xingfu's daughter. But my mother did not cheat. Back then, they adopted me."

Amidst the surprised discussions of the reporters, Su Bei took out an adoption certificate and placed it in front of everyone.

This was also a legal document issued by the national authorities. It could not be casually copied. It could be checked and tracked.

At that moment, Su Xingfu's face turned pale. He could no longer stand steadily.

However, no one reached out to help him. In fact, they looked at him with contempt.

Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan had to support each other to regain their balance.

Su Bei said calmly, "Back then, my mother, Chen Xiuzhu, miscarried not long after she got pregnant due to her poor health. The doctor said that she had to recuperate before she could continue trying to conceive. However, my mother was eager to have a child, so she went to the orphanage and adopted me. She brought me back to the Su family and treated me like her own daughter.

"My mother never cheated on me or did anything to let down her family. I was adopted. Isn't it normal for my DNA to be different from Su Xingfu's?"

"Su Xingfu, in order to cover up the fact that you and Xu Zhiqin had an affair, which caused your first wife harm, and to cover up the fact that Su Huixian is the daughter of a mistress, you spent so much effort to frame me and my deceased mother. Do you still have a conscience? Can you sleep well at night? Do you dream about my mother?"

Su Xingfu's face was pale as sweat dripped down his forehead. He went out for wool only to come home shorn. At this moment, his reputation had plummeted.

Su Bei looked at him and did not sympathize with him at all. Instead, she felt carefree. "Su Xingfu, after my mother passed away, you despised me for being a burden. You also despised me for always causing trouble with Xu Zhiqin and Su Huixian, so you sent me to the orphanage again and again. You made me go back and forth to the orphanage several times. I stayed there for several years.

"However, you were afraid that the people around you would criticize you, so you still brought me back to the Su family a few times to prevent others from gossiping.

"You're not my biological father, so I never expected you to treat me well or dote on me. It's understandable for you to be biased toward Su Huixian. I didn't want to keep fighting with them, so I went to America."

Chapter 563: Can't Get Rid Of It Forever

"When I came back, I had no intention to have any more contact with you. I didn't even step into the Su family. I followed the letter my mother wrote to me before she died, listened to her last words, and tried my best to forget about the grudges. I tried my best not to fight. I didn't let you affect my mood. I did my best.

"Even when you and Su Huixian bullied me every step of the way and caused trouble for me, I never did anything to you. I only did what I had to do to protect myself.

"It's a pity that my mother's kindness was misplaced. She really shouldn't have shown you any mercy. Because you're not worth it! You don't deserve her love and respect.

"For your own personal gain, you tried to ruin my deceased mother's reputation in public. You disregarded her reputation and made all the slanderous remarks you could think of to clear your name.

"As her beloved daughter, I'll never let you get away with this!

"Did you think that I wouldn't be able to find proof that you changed Su Huixian's age because so many years had passed? Did you think I wouldn't be able to apply for a new certificate after you burned my original adoption certificate?"

“The entire family clearly knows that I was adopted, yet all of you slandered my mother for having an affair and saying that I’m the product of her affair. Did all of you really think that everyone would be fooled by you like idiots? Even though I was young back then, it doesn’t mean that I don’t remember anything and don’t know about your dirty tricks! It doesn’t mean that I’m like my mother who can’t speak anymore and will let myself be bullied by all of you!

“Although justice may be absent, it’ll never be late!”

Su Bei’s words were powerful.

It was just a painful complaint, but everyone could hear the power behind the speech!

The reporters looked at her with admiration. It turned out that not only did Su Bei have a beautiful appearance, but she also had superb skills. She could even handle such matters with ease. Chen Xiuzhu had raised such a daughter. She could rest in peace in the afterlife.

Su Xingfu stood in the crowd with his back hunched. He never thought that he would be beaten like this in his life.

The chatter around him pierced his ears like needles. The accusations were more than he had ever heard in his life.

Su Bei raised the evidence in her hands and said, “Su Xingfu, Xu Zhiqin, my mother committed suicide back then so I can’t hold you responsible. However, even though you didn’t kill her, she died because of you. The sins on your bodies will never be erased! You will forever be burdened with such sins.”

Madam Wang, who was arguing with Su Bei earlier, saw that the situation was not right and turned to run away.

However, she was caught by the bodyguards hidden among the reporters.

She arrived in front of Su Bei. Without waiting for Su Bei to speak, she said in a panic, “Forget about my matter. Let’s not talk about the past. I’ll let bygones be bygones. Let me leave.”

“Let bygones be bygones? Do you really think I’m that easy to fool?” Su Bei asked. The light in her eyes was cold and could inflict harm.

No one could hurt the people she cared about!

“I’m sorry, I shouldn’t have said such things. Please let me leave.” Madam Wang wanted to escape but was held tightly by the bodyguards.

Su Bei parted her red lips and said to Madam Wang without any emotion in her eyes, “Wang Xuelan, 53 years old this year. She started washing feet in a spa when she was 16. Until now, she has had 12 miscarriages recorded in the hospital but she has never married. Where’s her husband? How did my mother get involved?”

Chapter 564: Slander

Wang Xuelan's profession, private matters, and other scandals were all exposed by Su Bei. She was basically stripped off of her disguise.

Su Bei's words were light and powerful. She raised his eyebrows and looked at Wang Xuelan. "Although my mother has passed away, you can't slander her like this! Wang Xuelan, do you understand what slander is?"

"I have nothing to do with all this. I don't know anything. I only took Xu Zhiqin's money. I really don't know anything. Please let me go... Su Bei, I beg you. Please let me go..." Wang Xuelan could not take it anymore and spilled everything out. "I really don't know anything. Xu Zhiqin asked me to do it..."

"Brother Yue Ze, please help me call the police to deal with Wang Xuelan," Su Bei said.

Yue Ze was prepared and had already called the police.

The policemen outside the door walked over and grabbed Wang Xuelan.

Meanwhile, Xu Zhiqin was still waiting in the hotel without knowing anything.

That night, Su Xingfu had booked many tables in the hotel and invited many guests. He wanted to give Xu Zhiqin the status of his first wife and completely get rid of her label as a mistress.

Even though the fact that Xu Zhiqin was the third party was eventually forgotten by most and only a few people knew about it, they were afraid that it would spread and be used by someone to hurt Su Huixian's career.

The guests had all arrived and Xu Zhiqin was eagerly greeting them.

"Congratulations, Mrs. Su. Mr. Su really dotes on you. You managed to hold such a grand wedding after the past 20-something years! You're so lucky. We really envy you."

"No, no. It's all thanks to you guys. Thank you for coming. Please come in and take a seat." Xu Zhiqin was welcoming the guests warmly.

"I really envy you, Mrs. Su. Your husband loves you so much, and your daughter is successful in her career. Not only that, but your son-in-law is so handsome and rich. He's a winner in life."

Xu Zhiqin was even happier now. Although she spoke humbly, she actually had the same thoughts. She truly had everything now.

Only Su Bei was the remaining obstacle.

Tonight, Su Xingfu was going to settle everything. By then, Su Bei would no longer be a threat and would not affect Su Huixian either.

Furthermore, Su Bei might even be forced out of the entertainment industry tonight. This made Xu Zhiqin even more radiant and happy.

Actually, some people who were familiar with her knew that she was a mistress, but since it was none of their business, no one would expose her.

Everyone treated each other well. Who would expose her?

Xu Zhiqin had already arranged for a few waiters to keep an eye on the developments in Su Bei's press conference. If not for the fact that she was the host for tonight, she would have gone over herself to watch things unfold.

Although she was well-prepared, she was still a little worried. After all, Su Bei was not easy to deal with. Su Huixian had suffered under her hands several times, so Xu Zhiqin did not dare to let her guard down.

She calculated something in her heart. Su Bei probably wouldn't remember that Su Huixian had changed her age.. She was still so young back then, so how could she remember what had happened? Furthermore, the office had moved.

Chapter 565: Compromising Materials

As for the adoption? Since the certificate was burnt and the orphanage had shut down, there was no way for Su Bei to investigate.

Anyway, Xu Zhiqin had checked everything herself and found nothing.

When Xu Zhiqin saw that one of the waiters whom she arranged to go over had returned, she quickly asked, "How is it? Is everything okay? What happened to Su Bei?"

"Su Bei is crying really hard. Everyone is scolding her. She's kneeling on the ground and crying. If it weren't for her agent protecting her, the video would have been published and gone viral," the waiter said.

When he went over to look, there were too many people and he could not squeeze to the front. He had no idea what was actually happening over there.

When he was about to squeeze through the crowd, Lu Heting's men stopped him and fed him lies that were the complete opposite of the truth.

The waiter had his own job to do, and there were too many people there, so he gave up on squeezing into the crowd. Hence, he just told Xu Zhiqin the news he heard.

Lu Heting had everything under control. He would let Xu Zhiqin be smug for a while longer. All the blame would fall on her later.

Xu Zhiqin clapped her hands. "That's great! Su Bei finally..."

She saw the strange look in the waiter's eyes and quickly stopped talking. "When are Su Xingfu and Huixian coming back?"

"Perhaps they want to stick around to watch the good show. They should be back soon."

"Got it. You can go now." Xu Zhiqin's face was flushed. She felt that she had become younger by a few years, and her footsteps had become lighter.

Du Luo also came to attend the ceremony.

He was thin and handsome, attracting a lot of attention the moment he walked in. Xu Zhiqin quickly welcomed him. "Du Luo, you're finally here. Hey, why aren't your parents here?"

Seeing that Du Changwei and Sun Jingping did not come, Xu Zhiqin was a little unhappy. In fact, although this big show was to clear her and Su Huixian's name, the main purpose was to do it in front of Du Changwei and Sun Jingping.

The Du family was richer and more powerful than the Su family. Xu Zhiqin wanted to gain the Du family's approval so that Su Huixian's marriage could be held as soon as possible.

Du Luo smiled and said, "They're busy today, so they specially asked me to pass this gift to you, Auntie. I hope you won't take their absence to heart."

Du Changwei and Sun Jingping had indeed always looked down on Xu Zhiqin's status as a mistress. They had always been rather cold toward Du Luo's marriage to Su Huixian.

However, they did not know about Su Huixian changing her age, nor did they know about the farce that happened tonight. They only wanted to get everything over with.

Xu Zhiqin took the gift. "You're too kind. Your parents are so busy and hardworking. They're really worthy of being role models for the younger generation. No wonder the Du family has been developing so steadily."

"Auntie, where's Huixian?" Du Luo asked.

Xu Zhiqin smiled and said, "Su Bei seems to be an event next door. Huixian and her father are there to support her. No matter how willful Su Bei is or how bad she is, she's still a member of our Su family. We can't just ignore her completely."

Upon hearing that Su Bei was here, Du Luo immediately recalled that during this period of time, Su Bei has gotten involved in plenty of scandals. The scandals involved Jiang Hong and Director Gibson. There was also a woman who stepped forward to criticize Su Bei's mother.

He immediately became worried. He didn't know how Su Bei was handling the matter. If they were not handled properly, she would be dragged through the mud and it would be hard to turn the situation around.

Chapter 566: How Shameless Can You Be?

He immediately said, "Auntie, I'll go take a look first."

"Okay, okay. You can go over first." Xu Zhiqin couldn't wait for him to go over and take a look. It would be best if he could see all of Su Bei's scandals. That way, she wouldn't have to say anything to him.

It would also allow Du Luo to completely give up on Su Bei and marry Huixian sooner.

Xu Zhiqin looked at Du Luo's back with satisfaction until he disappeared. Then, she turned around and went to greet the guests. "Don't be so formal, everyone. Just make yourself comfortable. Mrs. Li, you like to drink Maojian tea. I'll get someone to brew you a good Xinyang Maojian tea. Mrs. Zhang, this year's Biluochun tea has good color and has a good taste. Try it... And this snow sprout was gifted by my son-in-law, Du Luo. It's a top-notch product that can't be bought outside."

"I'm envious of you once again, Mrs. Su. Your son-in-law is even more filial than one's own son. In the words of the youth, you must have saved the world in your past life, hahahaha..."

Du Luo came to the hall where Su Bei was attending the event. It was already packed with people, and the entire hall was filled with reporters.

Worried, he kept pushing forward and finally reached the front row where he saw Su Bei.

Su Xingfu was also there. He stood dejectedly in the crowd. His head was lowered as he was surrounded by the crowd. The reporters were pointing at him while Su Bei stood proudly with her head slightly raised.

Du Luo was originally worried that Su Bei would suffer, but seeing this scene, it was obvious that not only was Su Bei not suffering, but she also seemed to be blaming her father?

He pushed the reporters aside and took a few steps to stand in front of Su Xingfu. He protected him and said to Su Bei, "Su Bei, what are you doing? He's your biological father! How can you use the despicable methods of the entertainment industry when treating your own father?"

Before Su Bei could speak, the reporters took the initiative to defend her. "You're wrong. Su Xingfu was clearly the one using the despicable means of the entertainment industry to deal with Su Bei. Su Bei was clearly adopted, and as her adoptive father, he knew about it. However, he brought out a DNA test report and publicly announced that Su Bei was the product of her mother's affair. How could there be such a father in the world?"

"That's right. You're a person who doesn't know how to distinguish between right and wrong. You just came here yet you immediately said that Su Bei is in the wrong. How shameless can you be? Could it be that the entire Su family is like this?"

"Perhaps the rumors of Su Bei having an affair with Jiang Hong and Director Gibson were all caused by this father. He's truly a unworthy father! He's a useless husband too!"

Just as Du Luo was about to defend him, the reporters started talking about how Su Xingfu slandered Su Bei, how Xu Zhiqin paid someone to slander Su Bei, and how Su Huixian changed her age to hide the fact that she was a mistress' daughter.

Du Luo's expression became especially complicated after hearing their words.

It turned out it was true that the Su family really treated Su Bei like this. They actually treated Su Bei like this...

He had always thought that Su Bei was too willful, which led to her estranged relationship with her family. However, the truth was that she had always suffered grievances and hardships because the Su family never once treated her as their family.

As for Su Huixian, she was not completely unaware of these things. She came to the Su family when she was eight and changed her age to three. It was impossible for her not to have any impression of such matters.

Chapter 567: No Advice

Du Luo looked at Su Huixian, his gaze filled with doubt, suspicion, disbelief, and shattered fragments of trust.

Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan were standing together in the crowd, supporting each other. Su Huixian's exquisite makeup was ruined, and her gentle expression was contorted now. She looked around, trying to find an opening to escape.

"Su Huixian is here!" someone shouted.

The reporters who did not notice her previously all looked over now. When they saw Su Huixian, they all gathered around her. "Su Huixian, do you know anything about changing your age?"

"Su Huixian, your information says that you're 22 years old and one year younger than Su Bei. But in reality, you're already 27 years old, right?"

"Your father slandered Su Bei's mother for having an affair, but in reality, your mother interfered in someone else's family and gave birth to you, causing Su Bei's mother to commit suicide. What do you think about this?"

Qiu Minxuan shielded Su Huixian and shouted, "Everyone, make way! This has nothing to do with Huixian. We have nothing to say! Please make way!"

Su Huixian refused to answer. She bit her lip tightly as though if she did not answer, these questions would not have an effect.

This was the most embarrassing moment she experienced since she was young. Before Xu Zhiqin brought her to the Su family back then, her neighbors and classmates all knew her as a mistress' daughter.

She had no friends and was despised wherever she went. Other parents did not want their children to play with her either. It was as though if they were around her, their children would become mistresses' children as well. It was as if she was a creature that could infect others.

After returning to the Su family, the prejudices against her dissipated. She and her mother worked hard for many years before finally managing to make those gossip gradually disappear. Apart from the Du family, who secretly despised them, no one else took this matter seriously.

However, all these nightmarish memories surfaced again, following her like a shadow.

"Su Huixian, how old are you?"

"Su Huixian, what do you have to say about teaming up with your mother to hurt Su Bei?"

"Your father took out evidence to slander Su Bei. Are you aware about this?"

The sharp questions pierced into her ears one by one, making her dizzy. Her asthma started to act up, and she opened her mouth wide to take in deep breaths of air.

"Du Luo, help me..." She extended her hand toward Du Luo and groaned as she collapsed.

Qiu Minxuan shouted anxiously, "Everyone, move away! Huixian's asthma is acting up!"

The reporters finally gave way.

Du Luo had no choice but to step forward to support Su Huixian.

Su Xingfu's high blood pressure was acting up too and he had no energy to spare to help his daughter. He could not even take care of himself now. He sat on the chair and panted heavily.

Su Bei saw this farce and said to Yue Ze, "Brother Yue Ze, let's go."

She did not want to look at the Su family anymore. This family did not deserve her sympathy.

Director Gibson heaved a sigh of relief and went forward to say, "Su Bei, although I didn't really understand what you were talking about, it's great that you're fine now. Otherwise, I'd have to find someone to reshoot the commercial!"

Chapter 568: Revealing Her Weakness

"I'm fine. All the supposed dirty laundry of mine that others wanted to air has been proven to be a conspiracy that they plotted with ulterior motives."

Director Gibson was especially happy. All that mattered was that Su Bei was fine. Otherwise, it would be such a pity. He had spent so much effort editing the commercial and was really very satisfied with the end product.

"Director Gibson, it seems like you still have a flight to catch?" Su Bei reminded with a smile.

"Oh my God, I have to go now. See you next time!" Director Gibson left hurriedly with his assistant.

Su Bei could not help but laugh as she looked in his direction.

"Let's go," said Yue Ze. He protected Su Bei and walked through the crowd.

At that moment, the reporters were more interested in interviewing Su Xingfu and Su Huixian, so no one stopped Su Bei.

Su Bei went out and saw Lu Heting's Bentley parked not far away.

Yue Ze looked up and smiled. "You go ahead. Xiao Bai, get in the car with me."

A few reporters followed Yue Ze's vehicle, thinking that they could interview Su Bei. After the remaining reporters went off to follow Yue Ze's car, Su Bei was safe.

Hence, no one saw Su Bei running toward Lu Heting's car.

Even though Lu Heting didn't show his face, he had deployed his bodyguards and monitored everything that went on in the venue. He didn't want any accidents to happen.

When Su Bei opened the door and got in, his tense nerves finally relaxed. He reached out to pull her into his arms and rested his chin on the top of her head.

He already knew about Su Bei's situation in the Su family when Su Bei asked him to investigate the matter and get information.

He clearly knew every detail that was exposed earlier and knew that she won this time as she got to clear her name.

However, the feeling of worry and heartache did not decrease at all.

His heart ached for all the things that she previously experienced when she was young. Her family, for the sake of benefits, ignored the facts and insisted on ruining her reputation.

She already had enough power to protect herself, yet those people still dared to cause her harm. One could imagine the terrible things she experienced at home when she was young. Even though she was the young miss of the Su family, in reality, she was often humiliated and suspected. She was even sent to the orphanage a few times and became a frequent visitor there.

“Bei Bei.” There was a hint of pain in Lu Heting’s deep voice as he hugged her tightly. It was as if this was the only way to protect her from harm.

“I’m fine now, hubby.” Su Bei’s voice was no longer as high and excited as before. It had become soft. In front of him, she could remove all her armor and reveal her weakness.

Lu Heting whispered, “Let’s go home.”

When they reached home, Da Bao and Gun Gun were already fast asleep. Aunt Chen handed over a lunch box and said with a smile, “This is a rice ball personally made by Gun Gun during home economics class. He said that I must give it to you.”

It was a small rice ball that was made to look like a rabbit and had the word ‘Bei Bei’ written on it. It was a little ugly and the words looked a little clumsy, but it still made Su Bei’s eyes fill with tears.

She did not shed a single tear when she was slandered, nor did she shed a tear when she was criticized in public. She became even more determined when facing the loss of her family that she could not even call a family.

However, she could not hold back her tears when she looked at the rice ball...

She grabbed the rice ball and took a big bite of it. Her cheeks puffed up as she handed the rest to Lu Heting. She mumbled, “Hubby, you too...”

Chapter 569: Yes, She Has A Home

Lu Heting took her hand and took a bite of the rice ball.

After Su Bei finished showering, she could not fall asleep. She stood on the balcony with a cup of milk in her hands and looked up at the starry sky. She thought of her mother, Chen Xiuzhu. Her mother had given her all her love and warmth during their short time together...

She had tried her best to protect her mother’s reputation and follow her last words.

The stars in the sky twinkled. If Chen Xiuzhu knew about these things, she would probably feel gratified, right?

Lu Heting stepped forward and hugged her from behind, breathing in the fragrance of her hair.

Su Bei naturally leaned against his chest. Lu Heting whispered in her ear, “Bei Bei, you have a home right here.”

Su Bei’s heart slowly filled up. Yes, she had a home...

Although Su Bei had left, the commotion at the event venue had yet to die down.

Su Huixian and Su Xingfu both had old ailments. Qiu Minxuan was busy looking for medicine while the others were making urgent calls.

Meanwhile, Xu Zhiqin was still greeting guests. They were supposed to serve dinner long ago, but there was still no news from Su Xingfu. She was very anxious.

Actually, the guests were also very anxious. A wedding banquet like this was already a waste of time. Moreover, it was already past dinner time, yet they had yet to eat. Everyone was starving.

“Mrs. Su, is Mr. Su back yet?” someone asked.

Xu Zhiqin was indeed quite worried about the situation over there. She would look around from time to time as well. Every time she asked the waiters she had arranged to come back and report to her, they would say that the situation over there was good. They told her that there was no need to worry at all.

Finally, one of the waiters returned again.

“How are things? Where are Huixian and her father?”

“They’ve come back from the event...” the waiter said.

Before he could finish, Xu Zhiqin smiled and said, “Sorry for the long wait, everyone. I’ve wasted so much of your time today. Let’s start now.”

“Great, this is really great!”

“Congratulations, Mrs. Su!”

The waiter wanted to remind Xu Zhiqin something but she was already holding a glass of wine and was about to give a toast to everyone. She had dressed up glamorously tonight, and now, she was even more radiant with her smile. As long as her husband and daughter were by her side, her life was complete.

Furthermore, their victory against Su Bei and Su Huixian becoming one of the top ten models this year were secured.

The waiter reminded, “Mrs. Su, actually...”

“Actually what? If you have anything to say, just say it out loud!” Xu Zhiqin said loudly. The events tonight were all good things anyway. There was nothing that they could not say.

The waiter finally said loudly, “Actually, Mr. Su and Miss Su were brought to the police for questioning for slandering Su Bei. However, their illnesses acted up, so they were sent to the hospital.”

“What? What did you say? Say that again?”

“They went to the hospital. Mrs. Su, you should go over there!”

Xu Zhiqin’s face darkened. “What happened?”

“Su Bei is Mr. Su’s adopted daughter, but Mr. Su accused her mother of having an affair. Su Bei brought out solid evidence! She even had evidence that Miss Su Huixian previously changed her age. Mrs. Su...”

Xu Zhiqin’s head was buzzing, and she felt as if she was seeing stars. She could barely stand straight.

Chapter 570: Feeling Disdainful

Someone came forward to support Xu Zhiqin and said, “Quick, send her to the hospital!”

They immediately called for an ambulance and someone helped Mrs. Su over.

The remaining guests weren’t interested in eating anymore and grabbed the waiter to ask about the situation.

The waiter finally understood the situation clearly now and told the guests about what had happened in detail.

Many of the guests present were old acquaintances of the Su family. In other words, they knew quite a bit about the Su family’s matters. Many also knew that Su Huixian was not that young when she was brought to the Su family’s home.

However, many years had passed since the incident and they were old acquaintances. Therefore, very few people mentioned the fact that Su Huixian was the daughter of a mistress. Why did Su Xingfu bring up the past again and slander Su Bei? He was just looking for trouble!

No one understood what their family was doing. Only the Su family knew that their intentions this time was to distort the truth and gain the advantage of public opinion. They wanted to suppress Su Bei and promote Su Huixian so that the Du family would willingly accept the marriage arrangements.

However, what was fake could not be real, and what was real could not be fake. Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin schemed all they could, but they could not turn what was fake into the truth. Su Bei would never allow them to bully her like before.

Some people silently pondered over this. They felt that Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin had gone too far. Even if Su Bei wasn’t their biological daughter, she was still the daughter they had adopted back then. On legal papers, she was their daughter. How could they disregard kinship like this?

No one was saying anything about this family, but they could not help but feel contempt in their hearts.

The reporters followed the members of the Su family to the hospital. The family of three was receiving treatment.

Du Luo had no choice but to wait there for them to wake up.

Du Changwei and Sun Jingping had already called Du Luo several times to urge him to go home.

“Du Luo, what are you still doing over there? Didn’t you see what happened? Everyone on the internet is scolding that family. What are you still waiting for? I regret letting you choose Su Huixian instead of Su Bei. Look at Su Bei now and look at Su Huixian. Our Du family really can’t afford to lose our reputation like this.

“Fortunately, your dad and I didn’t attend that horrible wedding tonight. Otherwise, we would have been utterly embarrassed. Come back earlier. Don’t stay out for too long. Don’t let these things affect the Du family’s business!”

On the internet, the news released by the reporters caused a huge commotion among the fans and onlookers.

#Announcement! Dream Jewelry has chosen Su Bei for their commercial!#

#Dream Jewelry’s commercial, wonderful and refreshing!#

#Director Gibson met up with Su Bei to talk about Dream Jewelry. The commercial has been released. Quickly watch it.#

The collaboration between Su Bei and Dream Jewelry was indeed very eye-catching. In addition, Su Bei performed very well in the commercial. She easily attracted a large number of people who were in admiration when they watched her commercial.

“So beautiful!”

“Beautiful!”

“Cute!”

“I want this diamond ring too!”

“I want a girlfriend like Su Bei!”

No one said anything else.

Immediately after, Director Gibson personally wrote an explanation regarding the incident with Jiang Hong to prove his and Su Bei’s innocence.
