

Chapter 571: Definitely A Scumbag

Those who refused to believe the truth previously were all slapped in the face by the video that Jiang Hong's wife released.

[He really just went to celebrate his daughter's birthday that night. He only met Su Bei by chance!]

[Because someone wanted to defame Su Bei. Didn't Su Bei just announce that she would be shooting the commercial for Dream Jewelry? Others must not have liked her taking such a big slice of cake.]

"The other party slandered Su Bei and Jiang Hong, causing Jiang Hong's wife and daughter to suffer as well. This marketing account must be banned.]

[I suddenly remember something because I've been following Jiang Hong's Weibo account. Every year, he would bring his daughter to that same restaurant for her birthday. All the claims were really just slander."

In an instant, the anti-fans dispersed. Su Bei and Jiang Hong's Weibo accounts attracted quite a number of true fans who fiercely defended the two. Their names quickly reached the top of the trending list.

Then came the main event, which was the news about Su Huixian and Su Xingfu. The reporters present at the scene reported the entire sequence of events in full detail.

This matter attracted a lot of attention in the past. When the netizens heard there was explosive news, everyone couldn't wait to see what it was.

At that moment, everyone was in an uproar!

[F*ck, what a trashy father! As a husband, he's a scumbag. As a father, he's definitely a scumbag!]

[A mistress turning against the first wife? I've seen shameless people, but I've never seen someone as shameless as her.]

[My heart aches for Su Bei. She grew up in such an environment. It's so sad. Everyone, we should protect Su Bei.]

[As expected of Su Bei to be able to withstand this kind of pressure. I'll curse this family ten thousand times. Their shamelessness is next level!]

[Also, did you see the news? Su Huixian actually changed her age to make herself five years younger! Five years! What was she thinking? When Su Bei was young, how many times did her worldview shatter? It wasn't easy for her to grow up to be the person she is now.]

[Quickly break up with this family, Su Bei. We'll be your family. We'll always support you!]

[Su Bei did a good job. She's loyal and righteous. While protecting her deceased mother, she dealt a blow to these scumbags.]

[Su Huixian, get out of the entertainment industry! You're not fit to compete with Su Bei!]

[Everyone, don't scold Su Huixian. She wasn't involved in all this. She probably had no say regarding the things that happened when she was young. She's also a victim who was scammed by her parents.]

[What do you mean she didn't know? Didn't you see her at the scene? Do you still need to protect her like this?]

The internet was in an uproar. Lu Heting had already gotten someone to investigate. The photo of Jiang Hong and Gibson was sent by Li Xuan, who was also competing for the Top Ten Model Awards.

Of course, the person who took the photo was Su Huixian.

Su Huixian passed the photo to Minwen and Li Xuan's team.

Minwen's team did not make a move, but Li Xuan's team could not wait to send it out. They planned to blacklist Su Bei.

Who knew that the tables would turn?

Li Xuan's team quickly acted as if nothing had happened and went into hiding where they quietly observed the situation. They wanted to see if there was a chance to take advantage and reap the benefits.

However, since they had done such a thing, how could they pretend that nothing ever happened?

Chapter 572: I Won't Be Mistaken

Li Xuan's company was a very small one. The boss only had a few artists, including her. Apart from Li Xuan, no one else was popular.

Initially, the boss wanted to invest all his resources in Li Xuan alone. He wanted to wait until she became famous before helping others. Therefore, when she used such means this time, he did not have any qualms about it. Once she became famous, the entire company would be revived.

However, before the boss could wake up from his dream, their company was shut down! Because of a list of criminal charges such as embezzlement and bribery, they were shut down that night. The staff was dismissed and Li Xuan became a loner. On the same day, she was beaten up by a staff member who had long been unhappy with her, which resulted in a scar on her leg. She was unable to go on stage anymore.

This matter ended smoothly. Those who had hurt Su Bei could not escape.

Among those who had been watching this farce, the Tang family was one of them.

Tang Yue's father, Tang Jianming, and her mother, Lin Shulian, had been watching the whole time. When the curtains were drawn, the couple looked at each other with tears in their eyes.

Old Master Tang sat on the main seat of the sofa with Tang Yue, Tang Xinru, and Tang Xinru's parents standing on both sides.

Lin Shulian's hands trembled slightly as she took out her phone and said, "Look, they posted a photo of Su Bei when she was young. It's the child we lost when we were young. This is my daughter. I won't be mistaken."

Su Bei was adopted by Chen Xiuzhu in the orphanage when she was young. This meant that she was sent to the orphanage after she went missing. Everything made sense. Her poor daughter! She was only two years old when she went missing...

"I don't know how much hardship she suffered all these years outside. How pitiful!"

Tang Jianming held his crying wife.

Old Master Tang was sick recently but was especially happy after hearing about Su Bei's matter. He said that he would be discharged no matter what and came back to welcome his granddaughter home.

He pondered for a moment and said, "Since she's my granddaughter, I naturally have to bring her back. I can't leave her outside. But does Su Bei know about this?"

"No one has told her yet. She probably doesn't know," Tang Yue said. "After experiencing so many things, she must be very guarded. Why don't I go look for her first and tell her about this?"

"Alright. Go quickly. You must let Su Bei come home and acknowledge her roots. She has suffered a lot all these years. She should have been brought back long ago," Lin Shulian urged.

When they left the main residence, Tang Xinru walked out with her parents and said in a soft voice, "I really didn't expect Su Bei to be a member of our Tang family. When I first saw her, I had a good impression of her. It turns out that we share such a relationship."

Tang Xinru's mother, Cai Hua, frowned slightly. "Xinru, at such a critical moment in the competition for the company's rights, they suddenly want to bring back their daughter who just so happens to be a female artist who has a huge role in Sheng Tang. Don't you think it's too strange?"

"Su Bei is an artist you're doing your best to train. If they suddenly snatch her away, wouldn't your hard work be wasted? In the future, wouldn't they be able to take the position of president?"

Chapter 573: A Freak

Tang Xinru smiled and said, "Mom, aren't you overthinking it? Even if Tang Yue wanted to fight with me for the company's power, it's impossible that her whole family would casually acknowledge a daughter just for this, right? Moreover, everyone knows that her family lost their daughter back then. Now that Aunt and her family have found her, isn't it a happy thing? Didn't you see how happy Grandpa was that even his health recovered?"

"Don't think too much about it. Su Bei is a good person. I'm glad we found her. "

Cai Hua didn't say much. After all, it was their family's own matter to acknowledge their long-lost daughter and it was justified too.

Tang Yue returned to her room and unhurriedly turned on the tap to wash her hands. She really did not expect her little sister to still be alive.

Su Bei was only two years old when she was tossed outside and abandoned. She was later adopted and somehow became a famous supermodel.

Was she too soft-hearted back then? Should she have injured Su Bei before abandoning her outside?

As Tang Yue washed her hands, she stared at her reflection in the mirror. Yes, she had never denied that she was a freak. She'd been this way for as long as she could remember. She hated anyone who would fight with her for her parents' love and all other feelings.

Ever since she was young, she would use all her time and energy to stick to her parents, making them pay attention to her. If they looked at other children or gave them candy, she would cry and kick up a fuss for a few days. It would feel as if a piece of her heart had been dug out.

Sometimes, she even thought that if she broke her parents' legs, they would only be with her and stay at home with her. They wouldn't care about other children anymore... However, she was too young then and couldn't do certain things. She could only achieve her goal by crying.

At that time, her parents thought that she was still young, which explained why she was so clingy. They even treated it as a joke.

After Su Bei was born, her illness reached its peak. Seeing that her parents' attention was all on her little sister, Tang Yue would constantly cry and throw a tantrum. However, it was almost impossible for her parents to completely focus on her.

They had a newborn to take care of, so they would only coax her and accompany her a little. It was impossible for them to care about her like before.

Tang Yue knew then that crying and kicking up a fuss was useless. The only way was to make the child disappear. That way, she would be able to regain her parents' love.

Hence, she silently came up with a plan. She even started to treat her little sister very well.

One day, she finally found an opportunity. When her little sister was almost two years old, Tang Yue took her out to play. They walked farther and farther away until they reached a place that even she did not know. Then, she let go of Su Bei's hand and quickly hid. She watched her little sister cry and shout as she ran toward an even more unfamiliar place...

Then, she found a passerby to help her and successfully met up with her parents as she remembered their phone numbers.

By then, her little sister had already disappeared into the sea of people.

Tang Yue recalled the past and splashed water on her face.

It had been so long, so long that she had completely forgotten about this matter. Unexpectedly, it had never faded from her parents' hearts.

Chapter 574: Feelings Of Resistance

They had always loved that little girl and never once forgotten her. As long as there were any clues, they would do anything they could to search for her.

In the end, she still could not have her parents' love all to herself.

At the thought of this, Tang Yue's heart was in turmoil. She reached out and hit the tap heavily, causing water to splash all over the bathroom. The entire mirror was blurry now, and her face was reflected on it.

The incident with Su Bei caused a huge commotion and even her life experiences were revealed. It got her a lot of sympathy and caused her popularity to increase by more than ten times.

The judging panel finally had nothing to say. They abandoned their previous opinions of Su Bei and pretended that nothing had happened.

As for how the selection would turn out, it would all depend on the data and individual results. Once the official announcement of Dream Jewelry was released, Su Bei would gain a big advantage.

It was also because of the incident that Su Huixian was eliminated from the running. Even so, her fans said that she had nothing to do with the matter. Su Huixian also did an interview to express her regret for her parents' actions, making herself out to still be innocent. After all, she had not done anything.

According to her, she only appeared at the scene to stop her parents from hurting Su Bei. Furthermore, she had no power to stop them from changing her age.

Other than being mocked by the crowd, no one had any strong evidence to prove that she was in the wrong. However, the fact that she was the daughter of a mistress was already established and proven true.

Her reputation and the Su family's history were indeed terrible. It was normal that the judges eliminated her from the selection.

Moreover, they were in the midst of voting and her numbers had plummeted. Her elimination was inevitable.

From the moment she wanted to use those means to kick Su Bei out of the game, her defeat was already destined!

Due to this huge matter, Madam Lu came to visit Su Bei and her two grandsons.

However, she still had some complaints about Su Bei.

Lu Corporation had always kept a low profile, and Lu Weijian was the only one who kept a high profile. However, he was never out of line either. It just so happened that Su Bei had gotten herself involved in so many scandals in just a month.

It was unknown how much resources and ability her son had spent to successfully solve the issues. When she thought of how her son was spending all his energy on cleaning up Su Bei's mess, Madam Lu felt anxious.

Initially, when Su Bei withdrew from the industry previously, Madam Lu was very happy and planned to officially accept Su Bei. Now that this matter happened, her emotions grew even more conflicting.

She rang the doorbell.

Gun Gun was the one who opened the door. He ran with extra strength on his short legs. When he saw Madam Lu, he called out sweetly, "Grandma!"

Aunt Chen quickly wiped her hands and poured some tea. "Madam, you're here. Please have some tea."

"Where are they?" Madam Lu asked unhappily when she saw that there was only Gun Gun at home.

"Big Brother Da Bao went to attend a training class, and Daddy accompanied Bei Bei out," Gun Gun said obediently, "I'm at home alone. I'll wait for them to come back obediently."

Mrs.. Lu's heart ached. "What's going on? How could they leave my grandson alone at home?"

Chapter 575: I Don't Want To See Her!

Madam Lu initially thought that Su Bei was someone with a son herself, so she would adore Gun Gun as well. She did not expect that they would only bring Da Bao out and not care about Gun Gun at all, leaving him alone in this pigeon cage-sized room!

Madam Lu was furious. She wasn't angry at her son or Da Bao but Su Bei!

It was normal for her son to accompany Da Bao, but if her son did not bring Gun Gun along, it would be because of that woman's instigation. To think that the last time she came, she even expressed her goodwill to Su Bei, gave her gifts, and borrowed her money. Was this how Su Bei was treating her grandson in return?

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. Madam Lu hugged Gun Gun and said, "Gun Gun, do you miss your aunt?"

Gun Gun shook his head honestly. Even if Madam Lu did not bring it up, he really did not miss his aunt.

With Bei Bei around, he felt as if he already had the entire world. Why would he think of his aunt?

Madam Lu guided him patiently. "You'll be meeting your aunt again in two days. She said she bought the latest toys and the best snacks for you, Gun Gun."

"I don't want to go." Gun Gun shook his head. He only wanted to be together with Big Brother Da Bao and Bei Bei.

"But it's your scheduled appointment to see her, isn't it?" Madam Lu said. "Didn't you call her 'Mommy' last time? Don't you want to see your mommy?"

Gun Gun shook his head seriously. "Can I not go to see her? I don't want to see her!"

He resisted that woman from the bottom of his heart.

Madam Lu's heart ached. "Look at you. Apart from going to kindergarten, do you only stay in this small place every day? You're going to be locked up until you turn dumb. I'll tell your father that I want to bring you back to the old residence to live."

"I don't want to!" Gun Gun took a few steps back.

Just then, the door opened.

Lu Heting opened the door. Su Bei held Da Bao's little hand and said, "Since the training class you've been attending is very ordinary and can't teach you anything, let's cancel the classes. We'll talk about it again if there's a good teacher."

The moment the door opened, Gun Gun rushed over and hugged Su Bei's leg. He didn't want to go back to the old residence, nor did he want to see his aunt. All he wanted was Bei Bei.

"Baby, I bought you some freshly roasted chestnuts. Touch them. They're still warm." Su Bei stuffed the warm packet into his little hand.

Gun Gun's eyes instantly lit up. He happily held it up. It was really warm and felt so comfortable.

Su Bei waved another packet in her hand. "I bought some fresh durian to make you a durian cake too! Do you want to eat it?"

Madam Lu unhappily said, "Gun Gun's body is weak, so it's better to eat less outside food."

"Mom." Su Bei saw Madam Lu and quickly greeted her.

"You guys seem to be having a good time." Madam Lu seemed to be hinting at something. She saw Su Bei patting Gun Gun's head and coaxing him with some food bought from outside.

Su Bei was about to speak when Gun Gun hugged her leg. He then opened his arms, wanting Su Bei to hug him.

Su Bei reached out to hug him and he giggled. "Bei Bei, peel some chestnuts for me. They're my favorite."

Madam Lu choked.

Su Bei carried Gun Gun and held Da Bao's hand. They went to the sofa and gently peeled chestnuts. Da Bao and Gun Gun were talking about something. Gun Gun's round little face was full of smiles. He looked completely different from before.

Chapter 576: Try It Yourself

Lu Heting said to his mother, "Lu Gecheng's kindergarten did a physical examination on the students and got the hospital to distribute the reports to the parents. Su Bei and I went to the hospital to collect his report. We also went to check on Su Bei's stomach condition. Mom, with Lu Gecheng's low immunity, do you think it's suitable for him to go to places like the hospital where all kinds of patients come and go?"

He seemed to have seen through Madam Lu's thoughts. Every word hit Madam Lu straight in her heart.

Madam Lu glanced at her son in embarrassment.

Gun Gun suddenly said loudly, "I don't want to live in the old residence, and I don't want to live in someone else's house."

Lu Heting looked at Madam Lu with a serious expression. "Mom, forcing the child will only backfire."

"I..." Madam Lu was speechless. "I'm just here to take a look. I'm worried about the two children."

“Su Bei and I will take good care of our two sons.”

Madam Lu was originally full of reason, but everything before her eyes made her seem unreasonable instead.

Standing here, she seemed to be the outsider.

Madam Lu didn't look too good, and she was even more upset. Lu Heting didn't hold grudges and said calmly, “Mom, stay for dinner.”

“No need. I just remembered that I'm supposed to have a meal with a friend. You guys can go ahead.” She walked out nervously.

When Su Bei looked up, Madam Lu had already left.

“Where's Mom?” she asked.

“She's meeting a friend for dinner, so she had to hurry over.” Lu Heting sat down.

Su Bei finished peeling a hot chestnut and stuffed it into his mouth. She smiled and asked, “Is it delicious?”

“Try it yourself.” Lu Heting reached out to cover the two munchkins' eyes and kissed Su Bei's lips.

There was warmth in his mellow voice. He never ate snacks, but he thought that the chestnut tasted pretty good today.

Da Bao and Gun Gun: Who am I? Where am I? What happened to me?

Su Bei did not expect Tang Yue to look for her. Su Bei was making coffee in the office pantry. Tang Yue walked over and naturally picked up a cup. She poured herself a cup of coffee, the strong aroma wafting over.

“Su Bei, wait.” Tang Yue smiled. “Are you busy? If not, sit for a while.”

Compared to Tang Xinru, Su Bei did not like Tang Yue that much. Although Tang Yue always wore a smile and looked much friendlier than Tang Xinru, that smile was like a mask and was insincere.

However, Tang Yue was also the vice president of Sheng Tang. Su Bei could not reject her invitation.

Su Bei sat down. Her long, fluffy chestnut hair was not tied up and naturally fell on both sides of her shoulders, making her fair face look exceptionally petite.

She was exceptionally beautiful.

Tang Yue remembered that Su Bei was as beautiful as a porcelain doll even when she was young. Anyone who saw her would marvel at her beauty and good looks. When she was a little older, her nose was already straight and her eyes were round and big.

It was no wonder that her parents and grandfather favored her more when they were young.

Forget about her grandfather. Her grandfather had never belonged to her only as Uncle's family already had children.

However, what right did Su Bei have to fight with her for her parents' love?

"Little President Tang, may I ask why you're looking for me?" Su Bei smiled. Her small face was as bright as a flower and seemed to be able to warm even the winter sun.

Tang Yue and Tang Xinru were both vice presidents. Tang Yue did not like being called vice president, so Su Bei followed her example and called her Little President Tang.

Chapter 577: It's Only Right For Her To Blame Me

"Nothing much, I was just casually asking. Are you used to staying in Sheng Tang? Do you have any difficulties? If you need anything, you can tell me anytime."

Tang Yue showed great kindness, and Su Bei smiled. "Everything's fine. Thank you for your concern, Little President Tang."

"That's good. You can go on with your work now." Tang Yue smiled.

Su Bei was a little suspicious but did not show it on her face. Why was Tang Yue suddenly being so friendly to her?

Could it really be because of the dispute on who was going to be president? Was Tang Xinru trying to win her over?

If Tang Yue really had such thoughts, then she was gravely mistaken. Tang Xinru was Su Bei's benefactor, and Su Bei would never betray her to side with Tang Yue.

When Su Bei came out, she happened to meet Tang Xinru.

Tang Xinru looked at her cousin with a smile. She was prettier than everyone else in the Tang family. Even though she grew up in a family like the Su family, she still maintained the aura that a Tang family member should have.

"Su Bei, did Tang Yue look for you?" Tang Xinru asked with a faint smile. She wondered how Tang Yue and Su Bei were doing.

This was, after all, Tang Yue's family's matter. Even if Tang Xinru was a member of the Tang family, she was only a cousin, so it was inconvenient for her to talk to Su Bei about this in detail. She could only ask indirectly.

"Yeah, she did." Hearing Tang Xinru's words, Su Bei was even more certain that the two sisters were fighting for the position of president. She solemnly said, "President Tang, no matter what happens, you're still the person I signed with. Even if Tang Yue needs me, I still wish to work with you."

This was Su Bei's usual attitude toward work and friends.

Tang Xinru thought that she knew about her family background and smiled. "It's good that you think so."

Su Bei always felt that there was more to the two sisters' words, but she could only think about work matters now. She could not get involved in anything else.

When Tang Yue returned home, Old Master Tang, Tang Jianming, and Lin Shulian were all staring at her.

Lin Shulian, in particular, was extremely anxious. Her eyes were fixed on her. Without waiting for her daughter to change out of her shoes and sit down, she pulled her and asked, "Tang Yue, did you tell Su Bei? What did she say? When is she coming back for a meal? Is she moving back?"

"Mom, don't be so anxious. It won't be that soon." Tang Yue threw her bag on the sofa.

"Then what exactly did she say?"

Tang Yue seemed to be deliberating over her words. After a long while, she said, "She still holds a grudge against her family for losing her and for not being able to find her after so many years. She's very against all of this and even said that everyone is better off being strangers."

The face of Old Master Tang immediately faltered.

Lin Shulian was very disappointed. "How could this be? She's my daughter, my biological daughter. I..."

She lowered her head and wept.

"Mom, she just can't think straight. It'll be fine after some time. Give her more time and don't look for her anymore in the meantime," Tang Yue consoled.

"I just want her to come back as soon as possible and make up for all the years I owe her. Back then, it was because I didn't fulfill my duty as a mother that I lost her. It's natural for her to blame me." Lin Shulian cried.

Tang Jianming didn't feel good either. As a father, how was he not responsible for the loss of his child?

Chapter 578: Conflicting Emotions

Tang Yue tried to convince them otherwise.

Old Master Tang sighed and said, "Then let's give her some more time. One day, she'll come to understand."

"Yes, that's what I think as well. I'm afraid that if the rest of the family goes to look for her, it'll put more pressure on her and make her feel more conflicted." Tang Yue nodded.

Regarding Su Bei's matter, she did not have a complete plan. However, if she could delay it for even a day, then she would do so. At the very least, she could not let her family have a good impression of Su Bei. Everything had to be done slowly.

Tang Yue said to Old Master Tang, "Grandfather, the selection for the Top Ten Model Awards is in progress. You and those judges are old friends. Why don't you help Su Bei fight for it and let her win the award? This way, she can accept us sooner."

“How can I do that?” Old Master Tang immediately waved his hand and refused. “Whether it’s my other business or Sheng Tang, which was established for you and your cousin, I’ve never done such crooked things. Even if Su Bei is my granddaughter, she can’t take this path. She’s my granddaughter, so she’ll have no problem walking on her own path. Why would she need to resort to these means?”

Tang Yue immediately said in a low voice, “I’m sorry, Grandfather. I was wrong. I just wanted to try my best to improve your relationship.”

Lin Shulian asked softly, “Did Su Bei make that request?”

Tang Yue glanced at Old Master Tang, then at Tang Jianming. She did not respond, but her attitude implied that she was admitting it.

The entire house fell into an indescribable silence.

Could Su Bei really be such a person?

The elders did not dare to believe it. However, Su Bei had grown up in a family like the Su family, so it was inevitable that she would be influenced by that family. They had led Su Bei’s personality astray, causing her to be different from the Tang family.

Because of this, the elders’ mood was very gloomy. They wanted to acknowledge Su Bei, bring her back to the family, and educate her. They were anxious about this but they were afraid of hurting her. Their emotions were extremely contradictory. It was difficult to make a decision.

The next day, Lin Shulian made some snacks for Tang Yue to bring to Su Bei.

After Tang Yue left, she threw the snacks into the rubbish bin. When she reached the office, she sent a message to her mother: [Mom, Su Bei didn’t take them and even threw them into the rubbish bin. Why don’t you just take a rest during this time? Don’t tire yourself out.]

She then attached a photo of the snacks in the rubbish bin.

She would never allow anyone to compete for something that belonged to her!

Tang Yue put away her phone and walked up to Su Bei when she saw her. She smiled and said, “Su Bei, it’s almost time for the Top Ten Model Awards. How’s your preparation going?”

“With Brother Yue Ze and President Tang helping me prepare, everything should be fine.” Su Bei maintained her courteous and polite attitude.

“Actually, although Sheng Tang hasn’t been established for a long time, my grandfather and father’s company have a lot of connections. They can help Sheng Tang’s artists. It’s not difficult to win an award. It’s just a pity that they might not help you this time. After all, they don’t know much about you. And the fact that you previously signed a short-term contract and announced your withdrawal has made them afraid that their investment will go down the drain.

“However, as long as you stay in Sheng Tang and develop well, they’ll definitely help you out one day.. Awards won’t be out of your reach.”

Chapter 579: Who Doesn’t Know How To Say Things At Face Value?

In other words, the Tang family would not help Su Bei.

As everyone knew, some awards could be bought. Even if the selection was very strict, there were still loopholes.

It only depended on whether the other party was willing to help or not.

Tang Yue was attempting to sow discord between the Tang family and Su Bei. The day she succeeded in sowing discord between them would be the day Tang Yue revealed Su Bei's identity to her.

She needed many things, but she did not need a dispensable sister.

Su Bei curled his red lips into a smile. "Then I really have to thank them. When I entered this circle, I never thought of winning an award through this means. It's good to rely on my own strength to reach greater heights. That way, I'll be deserving of my attainments. I don't want anything that doesn't belong to me."

With that, she nodded and left.

Tang Yue looked at Su Bei's back view and lightly harrumphed. "Who doesn't know how to say things at face value? You don't want to rely on shady means to win an award? You just haven't gotten the chance to do so yet."

'Su Bei, I really hope that you'll always be this aloof.'

Before she had to attend the award ceremony, Su Bei went to the shop Yue Ze had told her about and got the custom-made clothes from before. She also went to get a custom-made gown.

The gown was a beautiful starry blue and was extremely dazzling. It was cinched at the waist and the hem reached her thighs, perfectly revealing Su Bei's long legs.

Ordinary evening gowns were rarely short. This was because a short gown was relatively difficult to control. Especially on a formal occasion, it was easy to appear lacking in dignity.

However, that was only relative.

After Su Bei changed into the gown, she stopped smiling and changed her expression. As her expression became more dignified, her gown and her entire person became different as well.

Who said short evening gowns were hard to control? Who said they weren't dignified enough?

The sales assistant was stunned. "No wonder you said the length doesn't matter! It really doesn't matter! You look good no matter what you wear!"

"It's also because you guys did a good job that it fits so well," Su Bei smiled and said, "Thank you."

The few sales assistants received many celebrities from Sheng Tang. Those who came would just take the clothes and leave. The more famous they were, the more temperamental they were. People like Su Bei, whose fame and temper was inversely proportional, were really rare. It made them feel flattered.

"Do you have any other requests?"

“Is there anything left of this fabric?”

“Yes, there is, but there’s only a little bit left.” The sales assistant came out with the remaining fabric. There really wasn’t much left, and it wasn’t appropriate to do anything with it, so they planned to throw it away.

Su Bei smiled, her eyes shining brightly. “Can you give it to me?”

“Of course. You can take it if you want, but you won’t be able to do much with it. If you want to do something with it, there’s a whole piece of good fabric over there. I can get you a whole piece anytime.”

“No, just this will do. Let me borrow your sewing machine.”

The staff brought her over.

Su Bei sat down, measured the fabric, cut it, and stepped on the sewing machine. Soon, a large bow tie and two small ones were sewn. They looked quite exquisite.

The sales assistant couldn’t help but laugh. “We really didn’t expect that. But they don’t seem compatible with your gown.”

Chapter 580: Don’t Wear It Every Day

These bow ties were perfect for Lu Heting, Da Bao, and Gun Gun!

After getting the clothes, Su Bei went to Lu Corporation’s parking lot early to wait for Lu Heting.

Lu Heting received her WeChat message. After sorting out his work, he passed the rest to Lu Hang and rushed downstairs.

When he saw the woman’s familiar car, his lips curled up and the warmth in his eyes chased away his coldness. He then strode toward her car.

“Lu Heting, get in the car!”

After he sat down, Su Bei fixed the bow tie in her hand onto his shirt and touched her chin. “It suits you quite well, huh?”

“What is this?” Lu Heting allowed her hands to stroke his neck.

“Ta-dah! Look at the bow tie I made for you.”

Lu Heting reached out to take it. This material was obviously not made for a bow tie but rather for a woman’s gown. However, the bow tie was rather exquisite-looking, and it didn’t look feminine when worn. Instead, it gave off a different vibe.

It turned out this woman had made it.

Lu Heting smiled and looked down. “Then I’ll wear it every day.”

“You don’t have to wear it every day. Just wear it on the night I attend the award ceremony. This bow tie is made from the leftover fabric of my gown. Aren’t you going to the ceremony with Mr. Weijian that day? That way, when I go on stage, our outfits will be matching.”

“Okay.” Lu Heting lowered his eyes and fastened the bow tie with his long fingers.

“I can’t bring you to public events for the time being, and I can’t introduce you to others, so I can only use this method. You don’t know how much I want to bring you out to show you off and let people know that I have such a good husband. But you know what the entertainment industry is like. I don’t want to bring you trouble, lest you get chased by reporters and have nowhere to hide.”

Lu Heting reached out to stroke his hair. He had the same thought. He didn’t want to cause her any trouble because of his identity.

“By the way, look at this. Is there anything you like?” Lu Heting handed over a booklet.

It was a very ordinary booklet. There were all sorts of jewelry, rings, and other accessories on it. The style of the items looked quite novel and especially pleasing to the eye. However, there were no price tags.

“You want to give me something?” Su Bei raised her eyebrows and smiled as she seriously flipped through the pages. The items shown all looked pretty classy.

Lu Heting had wanted to give her something for a long time, but because of his identity, it had always been difficult for him to choose something.

He had to find someone to carefully design the wedding ring as well. It hadn’t been made yet, but in regards to the accessories that could be worn on a daily basis, they could be chosen according to Su Bei’s preferences.

Lu Heting smiled. “Pick something.”

“They all look pretty good. I wonder how much they cost?” Su Bei casually asked, afraid that buying something from this booklet would increase his burden.

Even though she knew that he had ten million yuan in demolition fees, but if he really used that money to buy expensive jewelry, he wouldn’t be able to buy many anyway.

“700 or 800. Maybe 2,000. The expensive ones aren’t more than 10,000.” Lu Heting pointed at a few designs and explained.

Well, he had omitted a couple of zeros behind those numbers.

These were all handpicked from what the designer sent and then specially printed into an ordinary-looking booklet.

Su Bei thought that the prices were suitable and looked through the booklet seriously.
