

Chapter 581: Too Good

She didn't want Lu Heting to spend too much money, but as he was her husband, it was normal for him to spend a little on her.

However, she could not decide which one to choose. Every one of them looked so beautiful that it moved her heart.

Su Bei held the booklet and looked through it intently.

Lu Heting frowned. "You don't like any of them?"

They were all screened by him first and were chosen because they suited his taste. If Su Bei didn't like any of them, he would have to get a new batch of designers to redesign the jewelry.

"No, it's just that I like all of them very much. I can't decide which one is my favorite at the moment, so I can't choose," Su Bei said while scratching her head in frustration.

The tension in Lu Heting's heart disappeared. He suggested, "Then you can choose a few."

"Can I? Is it really okay to buy a few?" Su Bei asked with a smile.

"Sure. I'll make sure to get them for you."

Su Bei extended her finger. "This, this, this, and this..."

She picked out more than a dozen designs in one go, all of which she was thinking about just earlier. She really liked all the jewelry shown in the booklet. She did not know that among the general population, there were so many designers with such talent.

Even though the jewelry wasn't expensive, just the designs were enough to make one's heart sway.

"I'll find a pen and leave a mark on the ones I want in case you don't remember."

"I remember everything." Lu Heting took the booklet. "This, this, and this... 12 of them, right?"

Su Bei looked at the man with starry eyes. His memory was too heaven-defying!

Lu Heting closed the booklet. He had to remember everything about his wife.

...

Due to Tang Yue's interference, Su Bei did not find out about her identity. However, in the eyes of the Tang family, they had already formed a rather bad impression of her.

After all, Tang Yue was closer to the elders, so no one doubted her words.

However, Old Master Tang could not help but want to see Su Bei.

The year Su Bei was born, Old Master Tang just happened to experience the most painful change in his life. He lost his wife whom he loved for a long time and was hospitalized for treatment due to heart disease.

It was Su Bei's birth that had given him a dose of fortitude. He managed to come back from the gates of hell several times.

This caused him to have more fond feelings for Su Bei. In addition, when Su Bei was young, she was very cute and obedient. Even though Su Bei had only lived in the Tang family until she was two years old before she went missing, Old Master Tang's feelings for this granddaughter of his, compared to his other grandchildren, were very different.

Seeing that Su Bei had refused to return home for a long time, Old Master Tang was constantly worried.

If Su Bei really had a knot in her heart, he was willing to take the initiative to resolve the problem.

If Su Bei had been taught wrong by the Su family, he wanted to correct her behavior as soon as possible. When she returned to the Tang family, no one would be able to gossip anymore.

Although Old Master Tang seemed to have gone to the hospital to recuperate, he actually went to look for Su Bei behind the Tang family's back.

However, he did not appear as Old Master Tang. Instead, he pretended to be an ordinary old man. He carried his pigeon cage and strolled around, looking for an opportunity to approach Su Bei.

However, before he could approach Su Bei, his whereabouts were already known by Lu Heting.

Chapter 582: Detailed Information

"He's the head of Sheng Tang Entertainment Company, Old Master Tang?" Lu Heting felt that something was amiss after learning his identity.

After Sheng Tang Entertainment was established, Tang Xinru and Tang Yue were in charge of the company's matters.

It could be said that Sheng Tang Entertainment was a company that Old Master Tang had specially built for his two granddaughters. It was a company that was specially designed to help them achieve success.

Old Master Tang rarely managed company affairs, even during the years when Sheng Tang was at its peak.

What reason could Old Master Tang have to approach Su Bei?

Lu Heting said to Lu Hang, "Find out what happened to the Tang family recently. We need detailed information."

He would never give Old Master Tang the chance to hurt Su Bei.

Although Old Master Tang appeared around Su Bei, he never had a particularly good chance to interact with her.

After listening to Tang Yue's comments, he knew Su Bei was extremely against the Tang family and had no intention of returning. She even hoped that the Tang Family could use their power to obtain some personal benefits for her before she was willing to return.

Old Master Tang had always been an upright person who was against using power for personal gain... He didn't know how Su Bei would react when she saw him.

"I'm going to take a walk here. You can go back." Old Master Tang waved his hand to dismiss the chauffeur.

The driver was a little worried. "Your health..."

"What can happen to me? I'm fine! Go, go! Come back when I call you," Old Master Tang waved his hand and walked into the park.

The chauffeur could only leave first.

Su Bei was doing some activities nearby. Old Master Tang carried the pigeon cage and slowly walked around the park. He had thought about seeing Su Bei for a long while now, but his heart was not as calm as it should be.

As he pondered about Su Bei, Old Master Tang tripped over a stone and fell down.

The cage in his hand was also thrown to the ground, causing the pigeons inside to jump noisily.

One flew up and landed on a branch. It didn't fly down again.

Old Master Tang wanted to stand up, but he couldn't. It seemed that his leg was injured, so he couldn't stand up.

He quickly took out his phone and contacted the driver.

However, his phone had fallen out of his pocket a few meters away from him.

"Young man, help me..." Old Master Tang waved at the young man beside him for help.

However, the young man hesitated for a moment as if he was afraid that he would be scammed. He turned around and left.

Old Master Tang sighed. He thought about the news he had watched and understood the young man's behavior. In this world, there were indeed some old people who were scammers taking advantage of people's goodwill.

'Then I'll just crawl over. I can pick up the phone if I crawl over.'

He thought about how he had lived his whole life upright and strong. Now that he was old, he had encountered such a problem. Old Master Tang sighed repeatedly.

Just as he was thinking this, another young man arrived in front of him.

He was wearing a hoodie over his head.

He walked over and picked up Old Master Tang's phone. With a sneaky look on his face, he looked like he was about to run away.

"Put it down!" Old Master Tang was furious when he saw the young man.

What was wrong with youngsters these days? It was one thing for them not to be kind, but there were actually people who wanted to take advantage of the situation and steal his phone?

Chapter 583: You Actually Know Me?

The young man was wearing a mask. He walked to Old Master Tang without a word.

Old Master Tang was anxious. Could it be that this young man was going to take something out? Was this man going to take advantage of the fact that he was old, weak, and sick to attack him?

"Grandpa, shush!" A clear voice sounded from the mask. It was a female voice.

Old Master Tang fixed his gaze on her and saw a pair of familiar eyes. They were clear and exceptionally quick-witted. However, the mask covered her other facial features, making it difficult to tell who she was.

"Let me help you up first!" She held onto Old Master Tang. "I'll call the ambulance for you. Did you think I wanted to snatch your phone?"

She couldn't help but laugh. It was pleasant and clear as a wind chime.

Old Master Tang was convinced by her laughter and realized he was being petty.

He smiled and said, "Sigh, I fell down just now and couldn't help but overthink things. Little girl, thank you."

"You're welcome." She pulled the mask away, revealing her small and beautiful face. Her eyes looked like the first rays of the sun in winter, illuminating people with warmth.

"Su... Su Bei?" Only then did Old Master Tang see clearly that the woman in front of him was Su Bei.

No wonder he had mistaken her for a boy just now. After all, she was taller than most boys.

It was no wonder he found her eyes and voice familiar just now. It was just that he usually saw her on television. He just felt that she looked familiar and didn't dare to confirm it.

At that moment, Old Master Tang couldn't control his emotions. When he thought about how his granddaughter, whom he had missed for over 20 years, was now in front of him, tears welled up in his eyes.

Su Bei was very surprised to see him say her name. She then smiled happily. Her smile was bright and full of vitality. "Grandpa, you actually know me? Do you usually watch fashion shows? I thought only young people know me."

Seeing how happy she was, Old Master Tang wondered if Tang Yue had introduced him to her before. Even if she had seen the photo, she would probably have forgotten about it. After all, she still hated the entire Tang family.

He didn't dare to directly expose his identity, afraid that he would scare Su Bei away. He could only control the palpitating emotions in his heart and said with a smile, "I can be considered a fan of yours. I know a lot about you."

"Thank you, thank you." Su Bei was really happy to meet a senior fan like him and bowed to him.

Then, a crowd with phones and cameras ran forward. "Su Bei seems to have gone that way!"

"Let's hurry over!"

"Follow her!"

Su Bei quickly lowered her head and leaned against Old Master Tang's arm as if she was avoiding that group of people.

Old Master Tang finally understood why she had acted so sneakily when she picked up his phone.

It was purely because she was hiding from others and was planning to escape at any time. It caused him to have the misconception that she wanted to take advantage of the situation to snatch his phone and run away.

However, even though she was being followed, she still stayed and helped him sit down when she realized that he could not move his legs.

Chapter 584: Up To Fate

Old Master Tang did not know if Su Bei was intentionally helping him because of his true identity or if it was purely out of kindness.

If she did not know his identity, her actions were too precious.

"Shh." Su Bei made a shushing gesture again until the group of people had run far away. Then, she said, "I just finished attending an event and the paparazzi followed me. Then, with the help of my manager, I slipped out from the back door. Grandpa, I won't take your phone. If you like me, I can even give you an autograph."

Old Master Tang understood and chuckled. "It seems like it's my lucky day."

The two pigeons that had already escaped obediently returned to their cage. Su Bei brought the cage over and placed them in front of him, gently playing with the two extremely obedient pigeons.

"There's still one left." Old Master Tang quickly looked around.

Su Bei looked up and saw a pigeon perched on a tree.

These pigeons were all messenger pigeons and could understand their master's orders. Old Master Tang called out twice, but the pigeon didn't come down.

Su Bei looked carefully and said, "I think its leg is caught by a tree branch."

"Then I can only get someone to come and help."

"No need. I'll give it a try." Su Bei lightly grabbed the tree branch and jumped up to the pigeon.

She quickly removed the branch that was caught to the pigeon's leg. The pigeon regained its freedom and flew toward Old Master Tang.

Old Master Tang watched Su Bei's actions and couldn't help but tremble with fear. "Take it easy!"

"I'm fine." Su Bei's movements were light as she returned to Old Master Tang's side.

She also helped Old Master Tang check the injuries on his legs and found that they did not impact his bones. There were just scratches. It was just that the old man had difficulty getting up. Now that he had rested for a while, he could get up again.

"Grandpa, should I call your family to pick you up?" Su Bei asked.

In the short time that Old Master Tang had spent with Su Bei, he felt that she was completely different from the woman Tang Yue described. She was already a big star, yet she still helped others sincerely when they were in trouble.

Just her personality alone was commendable. Did she really hold a deep grudge against the Tang family?

"It's fine, I'll call them myself later," Old Master Tang said casually. "I saw you attending an event last time and you said you weren't from the Su family. Is that true?"

Su Bei smiled. "Grandpa, you've been watching the news in the entertainment industry? Actually, it's nothing much. I already knew about it, and I had made preparations to not be liked by the Su family. Therefore, it was no big deal to announce it."

"Have you thought about finding your real family?" Old Master Tang asked in a deep voice.

"It's up to fate. Besides, no one knows where they are." After being asked this question, Su Bei only thought for a short while before calmly replying.

In the past, she had thought of finding her biological family to make up for the kinship that she had lost for so many years.. However, after getting Da Bao and Gun Gun, she no longer thought much about this.

Chapter 585: Huge Information

Since she had no fate with her parents and was unable to get parental love, she would just focus on being a qualified mother to the children.

When Old Master Tang heard her reply, his heart skipped a beat. From Su Bei's words, why did he feel that she did not know the truth about the Tang family and her background? What exactly did Tang Yue say to her, then?

However, Su Bei's phone rang and she quickly picked it up. "Brother Yue Ze, yes, I've gotten rid of the paparazzi. Okay, I'll be right back."

She hung up the phone and said to Old Master Tang, "Grandpa, are you sure you can contact your family on your own? I still have something to do, so I have to leave."

"Sure, go ahead," Old Master Tang replied.

Although he really wanted to chat with Su Bei for a while more, he could not delay her work.

After Su Bei said goodbye to him, she walked away. Coincidentally, Old Master Tang's chauffeur had arrived and quickly walked to his side.

Seeing that his family had arrived, Su Bei left without any more thoughts.

"Old Master, are you alright?" The driver quickly made an emergency call.

"I'm fine. They're just small scratches. I'll just go back and apply some medicine." Old Master Tang watched Su Bei's figure leave. A smile appeared on his aged face. He was in a good mood.

Based on his short interaction with Su Bei, he knew she was not an arrogant girl. It did not seem that she harbored hatred and malice toward the family who accidentally lost her.

On the contrary, she appeared to be very calm and had good intentions. One could tell that she had a good heart.

Why would Tang Yue say those things, then? Old Master Tang did not doubt his other granddaughter much. He merely felt that there might be some misunderstanding between the youngsters.

After this, he might approach Su Bei a few more times.

...

Over here, Lu Heting quickly found out that Old Master Tang had met Su Bei.

As they were investigating why Old Master Tang would appear around Su Bei, Lu Heting naturally had some doubts after learning that Old Master Tang was taking the initiative.

"Mr. Lu, I've got everything you wanted." Lu Hang's voice interrupted Lu Heting's thoughts.

Lu Heting reached out to take the documents. Without hesitation, he flipped through them carefully, reading every detail.

Su Bei went missing from the Tang family when she was two years old...

He continued to read through the information and learned a lot from the documents.

When he was done, he reached out and pressed his forehead.

All of his doubts were confirmed at this moment.

Su Bei was the younger daughter of the Tang family who went missing long ago. She was not even two years old when they lost her. Since then, the Tang family had been searching for her. However, because the child's appearance had changed and the Tang family continued to use Su Bei's childhood photos to search for her, of course, they were never able to find her.

In addition, Su Bei did not remember much herself. She did not remember her home address or her parents' phone numbers. She could only stay in the orphanage where she was sent to by some kind people.

When she arrived at the orphanage, she only remembered her nickname. Soon after, the people at the orphanage changed her name and she lost contact with the Tang Family.

After Su Bei went to the orphanage, she was adopted by Chen Xiuzhu and brought back to the Su family because she was cute and smart.

Chapter 586: Extreme Disappointment

Su Bei had left the Tang family for more than 21 years.

It wasn't a secret that the Tang family had lost a child back then, and many people knew about it. Now that Su Bei had made an appearance, the entire family didn't mention anything. It was easy for Lu Hang to investigate this and it was a quick job too.

However, this matter wasn't publicized yet.

Therefore, everyone in the Tang family knew about it while only Su Bei was kept in the dark.

Lu Heting flipped through the information again and thought to himself, "Old Master Tang came to look for Su Bei in private and even disguised himself. Could it be that he wants to test Su Bei's character?"

Other than that, Lu Heting couldn't think of any other possibility.

At the thought of this, he frowned and slammed the documents on the table.

Lu Hang was scared out of his wits. "M-Mr. Lu, which part of the investigation isn't complete? I'll look into it again!"

"This doesn't have to do with you." Lu Heting lowered his hand.

Lu Hang quickly kept quiet and took a few steps back. He had gathered all the information himself and had a rough idea of the contents. Naturally, he knew that Mr. Lu was feeling sorry for Young Madam.

Lu Heting was very disappointed in the Tang Family.

Old Master Tang's test was really pretentious. So Su Bei could only be acknowledged as a member of their family if she passed their standards? If she did not meet their expectations, would her identity be erased?

When she went missing from the Tang family, she was not even two years old. She was at the age where she had just started walking! She ended up in that situation and suffered so much because the Tang family did not fulfill their duties as guardians. Su Bei didn't do anything wrong.

Moreover, she was the best woman in the world, yet she had to accept the moral judgment of this family.

The pain in Lu Heting's heart slowly rose and pierced his bones.

His heart ached for the woman, but this family was her biological family. It was a group of people that he couldn't do anything to...

"Push back all my work in the afternoon and evening," Lu Heting instructed Lu Hang.

...

After Su Bei was done with work, she went home early in the afternoon. Da Bao and Gun Gun had not returned yet. She quickly took off her high heels and changed into fluffy slippers before lying comfortably on the sofa.

How soft and comfortable!

"You're back?" Lu Heting's voice came from behind.

Su Bei jolted and sat up. "You're already off work?"

"Yeah." Lu Heting knew that her two activities today had ended, so he came to accompany her.

She touched her neck and moved slightly to the side.

The man immediately stretched out his warm palm and placed it on her neck, massaging her. His palm was warm and suitable for this weather. His strength was neither light nor heavy as he massaged her. She couldn't help but close her eyes.

Why was he so good at this? It was as if he had specially learned it before.

Seeing her closing her eyes, the man smiled.

"I heard you were followed by paparazzi today?" Lu Heting asked casually.

Su Bei narrowed her eyes and nodded. "Yes, I was. They're really scary and can't be classified as fans. However, I didn't let them succeed in their plans and escaped first.

"I even met an old grandpa in the park.. He was so funny. "

Chapter 587: My Beloved

"He dropped his phone and I helped him pick it up. Maybe he thought I was going to snatch his phone because I was wearing a hat and a mask. Luckily, we cleared up the misunderstanding in the end," Su Bei said. "Do you know what's the funniest thing? He's actually a fan of mine and recognized me at first glance! I never thought that I'd have a fan his age!"

Lu Heting's expression turned cold. As expected, Old Master Tang did not acknowledge Su Bei immediately. Instead, he tested Su Bei's character.

How was that family any different from the Su family?

He already had an answer in his heart, but he still asked, "Other than that, didn't he say anything else?"

"No. What else would he say?" Su Bei narrowed her eyes and could sense the chill on Lu Heting intensify.

When she opened her eyes, however, she saw that Lu Heting's expression was the same as usual.

Su Bei closed her eyes again.

Lu Heting's heart ached for the woman as he continued to massage her. She was lying comfortably on the sofa like a car being stroked. She was starting to feel drowsy.

Su Bei was not aware even when Lu Heting left her side.

When he returned, he was holding a large brocade box in his hand. He said to Su Bei, "Do you want to see your jewelry?"

"I do, I do!" Su Bei widened her eyes and nimbly sat up to take the box.

She hurriedly opened it. Inside were the 12 pieces of jewelry that she had a hard time choosing. There were necklaces, earrings, bracelets, and rings. Almost everything she could think of were inside.

"Wow!" Su Bei's eyes were dazzled. "They looked especially exquisite in the booklet. I didn't expect them to really look like this in real life..."

Yes, they were indeed real. Lu Heting immediately focused on the woman's expression.

She could not find the words to describe what she was seeing in front of her because 'exquisite' was not good enough of a word.

The pieces of jewelry were not only exquisite, but they also struck directly at one's heart, making one unable to help but smile. It was as if they were tailor-made for her.

"They're perfectly stunning!" Su Bei's finally summed up her feelings with these words. "Thank you, my beloved.

Lu Heting finally felt at ease.

It had been worth it to spend so much time and effort to prepare this. He also did not regret taking the time to choose the jewelry and diamonds.

Su Bei picked up the necklace and looked at it seriously. "Is this really just 1,000 to 2,000 yuan? It's actually better than the ones I saw at the Dream Jewelry audition?!"

It was hard to believe that such a good item could be bought at such a low price.

However, because she really didn't know much about jewelry, she couldn't tell the quality of these things.

Even though she could not, she just knew in her heart that she liked them a lot.

Previously, when she saw the jewelry from Dream Jewelry, her heart did not waver at all. Even though she knew that they were all exquisite and were even specially made for weddings, she did not feel anything or have an affinity with them. Even though she was the spokesperson, she had to be honest.

However, looking at the jewelry in her hands now, she adored each one of them even though she was not usually a fan of accessories. She was even thinking of what clothes to match them with.

Chapter 588: Not That Concerned

“The prices of diamonds and the like are not high now. There are many replicas too. It’s rare that you would like these things, so I had to get them for you.” Lu Heting coughed lightly.

He really didn’t want to lie to her, but he still ended up doing it.

“I like them very much. For the award ceremony, I’ll wear this ring. It won’t be too conspicuous, but it’s also very special because you gave it to me.” Su Bei put the ring on her finger.

“Okay.” Lu Heting smiled.

All he wanted was to make her happy. Everything he did would be worth it.

“Also, I have something to tell you.” Lu Heting deliberated over his words. “It’s about your family and background.”

Su Bei stopped and looked at Lu Heting in surprise. Had he found out something?

She had secretly asked around in the past but did not get any useful information, hence she gave up on looking into the matter.

“Actually, I didn’t intend to tell you when I found out. However, because of their special identities, you might be attacked in the dark if you’re not made aware.”

“So they’re...” Of course, Su Bei was curious.

“Your parents are Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian. Maybe you don’t have an impression of them...”

Su Bei had never heard of these two names before. Who were they?

Were they her parents? When she heard these two names, she was not as happy or excited as she previously thought she would be. It was as if she did not care much about them.

Perhaps because her family was already complete now, so she was a little indifferent toward these things.

“They’re also Tang Yue’s parents,” said Lu Heting.

“Oh...” When Su Bei heard this, she finally showed a reaction. “So I’m from the Tang family. That means Tang Xinru and I are cousins.”

She was not familiar with the rest of the Tang family and only had a deep impression of this cousin of hers.

“Lu Heting, where did you get the information? Is it accurate?” Su Bei could not believe that she was related to the higher-ups in the company.

Lu Heting didn’t have the heart to say that the Tang family already knew about it but had no intention of acknowledging her. He said calmly, “After the news that you’re not a member of the Su family was exposed, I did a lot of research. The Tang family lost a little girl back then and her age matches yours. Also, the photos of you and the little girl from the Tang family are almost identical.”

Su Bei felt that it was unreal, but since it was Lu Heting who got the information, she naturally knew that she could believe him. His investigations were always accurate.

However, she did not feel much joy in her heart. It was completely different from the anxiousness she felt when she was looking for answers back then.

“Does the Tang family... know?” Su Bei softly asked.

“I’m not sure.” If Lu Heting said that the family’s elders were testing her character, she would be hurt.

He had finally helped her find her family. At the very least, he didn’t want to ruin her ideas of what being a family meant.

For a moment, Su Bei fell into silence. She didn’t think too much about it. She was recalling the things that had happened in the Su family and the orphanage when she was young.

Feng Ze, Feng Feifei, Lin Yu, Gu Xifeng and Hua Cuo in the orphanage. She did not miss out on much. Her adopted mother from the Su family, Chen Xiuzhu, had also accompanied her for a short period of time.

Chapter 589: Someone With Ulterior Motives

The love and companionship she received from these people in her childhood and youth nourished Su Bei’s life after that.

Now that she had a family of her own, she started to miss those times.

Lu Heting reached out and covered the back of her hand as if he wanted to protect her.

Su Bei raised her eyes and smiled at him. “I know, I was only out of it for a moment. I just don’t know how to face this situation yet. But don’t worry. No matter what happens, I can handle it.”

“I’ll be by your side,” Lu Heting said solemnly. “Be sure not to let the Tang family acknowledge you during the award ceremony.”

He understood what she was thinking, and so did she.

If the Tang family did not acknowledge her even after a long time, that meant the biggest obstacle was Tang Yue.

If Su Bei was selected for the Top Ten Model Awards during the ceremony and Tang Yue suddenly announced Su Bei’s identity, even the most naive people would think that Su Bei had taken a shortcut to win the award. They would say it was because she was the daughter of the Tang family and the manipulation of the Tang family that she was able to win the award.

Public opinion was easily led astray. The truth would easily be buried in all kinds of lies.

Lu Heting and Su Bei would not watch this happen.

Su Bei’s own strength made her worthy of the award. If nothing went wrong, she would definitely win it.

They did not want to see the award be used by people with ulterior motives to stir trouble...

Therefore, they would use their abilities to read the other party’s minds and prepare countermeasures.

Of course, it would be best if Tang Yue did not play any tricks.

...

It was the day of the award ceremony.

That night, many stars gathered at the ceremony.

Although it was only a grand event in the modeling industry, there were still quite a few celebrities present as many models had changed their careers by becoming actors or singers. Their attendance made the entire venue sparkle.

On the stage, the emcee livened up the atmosphere. "Hao Jiali is walking over. She's one of the most hardworking models this year and is very dedicated to her work. She has participated in 90 fashion shows... Now..."

Everyone walked down the red carpet and went to the stage one by one to take pictures. Then, under the staff's guidance, they took their seats in the front row.

Hao Jiali's voice was very loud. She walked to the front and greeted everyone gracefully.

"Next up is Su Bei, the well-deserved new talent of this year! In the past few days, she has made several work announcements. She's the new spokesperson for Dream Jewelry, the front page cover of Beauty Magazine, as well as nabbed three endorsements and a big fashion show. She's very popular with fashion brands..."

When Su Bei appeared, the venue was immediately filled with screams.

She was wearing a short dress that revealed her signature long legs. She walked over elegantly and neatly. The red carpet was no challenge for her. Even though she was wearing high heels, it was not difficult at all.

She called out to the crowd and everyone screamed, "Su Bei! Su Bei, look here!"

"I love you, Su Bei!"

Su Bei's gaze swept across the crowd. Everyone felt as if she was looking at them with deep emotions.

Hao Jiali had already sat down and was talking to Jian Ping through WeChat. [Did Su Bei buy fans? Why is it so noisy at the scene?]

Chapter 590: Wanting To Work Hard

[It doesn't matter if she bought them or not. Anyway, it's best if she doesn't win the award tonight. If she does...] Jian Ping typed a line of words.

Hao Jiali kept her phone. She had already heard from Jian Ping that if Su Bei won the award tonight, Tang Yue would announce an explosive piece of news

It was said that this news would cause Su Bei's win to be questioned.

However, as Tang Yue was the vice president, she only revealed a small part of the information. Jian Ping and Hao Jiali could not get to the bottom of it, so they did not know what she was going to announce. Hence, they were extremely curious.

Now, Hao Jiali could only wait and see what Tang Yue would announce.

After Su Bei was done taking photos, she was led to a seat next to Hao Jiali by the emcee. As the two of them worked in the same company and were both popular candidates this year, they were seated together.

After a while, Su Huixian entered as well.

Despite being affected by so many things, she still insisted on coming. She did not want to lose her status, nor did she want to be forgotten by the audience.

Infamy was still fame no matter what. When she appeared, she caused a small ruckus.

There was no way she could wash away the fact that she was the daughter of a mistress now. Even so, she could not be bothered by it anymore. As long as there was attention, anything was better than staying at home.

To a certain extent, this was the law of survival that people in the entertainment industry relied on.

Her seat was next to Su Bei.

When she saw Su Bei, she greeted her with a smile as if nothing had happened.

In her heart, however, Su Huixian was filled with jealousy and hatred. She clenched her fists tightly. She had lost all her reputation while Su Bei was in the limelight, her fame far exceeding hers.

She wanted to see if the people who were suppressed by Su Bei previously would play a trick on her tonight. If there was a good show to watch, then she coming here while enduring the humiliation wouldn't be in vain.

Su Bei had only sat down for a while when Yue Ze came over and brought her a woolen jacket.

It was already winter. Although there was a heater in the venue, her hands were still cold.

"Thank you, Brother Yue Ze." Su Bei took the jacket.

"I'm just following orders. The jacket has been delivered, so my mission is completed." Yue Ze adjusted his glasses and smiled.

Su Bei knew that Lu Heting was the one who got him to send it over.

Lu Heting was in a corner, sitting in a row where no one important was sitting. The seat was farther back, so there were almost no cameras around.

Su Bei's heart ached for him. However, with her current status, she was not qualified to attend such events with her family. Therefore, she wanted to work hard and get into a higher position so that she could give him a proper status. That way, he could appear together with her.

As Su Bei was deep in thought, she didn't pay attention to anything else.

She then sent a WeChat message to Yue Ze. [Has Tang Yue made a move?]

Yue Ze replied honestly. [Not yet.]

Su Bei had already told Tang Xinru and Yue Ze what Lu Heting told her.

They were just as worried as Su Bei, so Tang Xinru was present today to watch Tang Yue's every move.

However, if Tang Yue wanted to expose something, Tang Xinru could not stop her completely. She could only get Yue Ze to contact many marketing accounts and public accounts.. As long as they had any news, they would immediately spend money to get them on their side.
