

Chapter 591: A War Without Smoke

Su Bei's assistant, Xiao Bai, was also keeping an eye on a few large fan bases to prevent Tang Yue from doing anything.

It wasn't long before the announcement of the top ten models for this year.

On stage, the host invited two important guests to present the award.

These two guests were both supermodels who had long achieved success and fame. Although they gradually faded out of the modeling industry, they were still legends in the modeling industry.

The two supermodels went on stage and smiled. "As everyone knows, the Top Ten Model Awards is a prestigious ranking in our industry. This ranking was jointly chosen by the public and the judges. It's a publicly acknowledged ranking.

"The models who receive this honor are the most popular models of the year and the most outstanding ones.

"Being able to receive this honor will also greatly increase their status on the international stage.

"Let's announce the top ten models of this year! The rankings are in no particular order!"

"Qin Huan!"

"Minwen!"

"Liu Lulu!"

"..."

"..."

The atmosphere became tense after the first seven names were announced.

Even though Su Huixian knew that she could no longer win the award, she still harbored some hope.

Hao Jiali, on the other hand, felt that she had a high chance of winning. She and Su Bei were of different ranks. If Su Bei could enter, she could too. If Su Bei could not obtain this honor, she still had the chance!

Su Bei, on the other hand, was calm. She left everything to fate. She had already done her best. Everything else was beyond her control.

At that moment, Yue Ze said to Tang Xinru in a low voice, "Tang Yue really reached out to marketing accounts and exposed the news that Su Bei is a member of the Tang family. Furthermore, in the contents of the leak, she specifically emphasized that in order to make up for the debt he owes Su Bei, the old master of the Tang family used a lot of money to get Su Bei the award.

"It's even said that the few endorsements that Su Bei previously announced are also due to Old Master Tang.

“If all this are published, Su Bei’s award will lose its value and will be questioned...”

Tang Xinru sighed softly. “In order to defeat me, she doesn’t hesitate to attack her own sister?”

She did not expect that Tang Yue’s target was not her but Su Bei instead.

Tang Yue was unwilling to have a younger sister like Su Bei in the Tang family. She wanted to snatch her parents’ love, as well as all the resources and benefits that originally belonged to her.

“Stop all news from being released. Get someone to keep an eye on Tang Yue. We can’t let her have the chance to contact the media tonight,” Tang Xinru ordered.

Yue Ze was originally very calm, but when he glanced at his phone, he suddenly panicked. “President Tang, our people lost Tang Yue.”

“What? Hurry up and find her,” Tang Xinru stood up and said.

Su Bei sat in the front row and listened to the announcements. Although she did not know what would happen next, she could see from the corners of her eyes that there were suddenly a few empty seats where the managers and executives sat.

Although it did not get anyone’s attention, how could Su Bei not figure out what was going on?

Hao Jiali took a glance as well and was secretly pleased with herself. As expected, Tang Yue had started her attack. This war without smoke would not end so quickly.

She knew that regardless of whether Su Bei won the award or not, it would not end well for her.

Chapter 592: Deal Su Bei A Damaging Blow

Su Huixian also saw the different expressions on the two’s faces. She did not know what they were fighting about. Regardless, she hoped that Su Bei would lose badly.

She cheered Hao Jiali on in her heart.

At this moment, Tang Yue had already arrived backstage of the event and found the person in charge, Meng Fei.

When Meng Fei saw Tang Yue, he hurriedly smiled and said, “Oh, Little President Tang! What brings you here? Your presence brings light to my humble event!”

“I want to go on stage later and give a speech. Just two minutes, okay?”

“Little President Tang, what’s the matter?” Meng Fei was naturally willing to give her some time on stage. As long as the other party could afford the price and as long as she stepped out with an artist to speak a few sentences, the audience would be excited as well. With these benefits, why not?

However, what exactly was she up to?

After all, this was a live broadcast. If something went wrong, no one could bear the responsibility.

Tang Yue smiled and said, "Don't you trust me, Producer Meng? What do you think I'll do on stage? It has something to do with the Tang family. Don't worry, I won't make things difficult for you. I'll even triple your viewership ratings!"

Meng Fei guessed that she would announce an important decision in the company. Such a decision could indeed double the viewership ratings without breaking the law.

He was already convinced, so he smiled and said, "Little President Tang, it's not impossible..."

"This number." Tang Yue raised a finger.

Meng Fei was all smiles as he said, "However, you can't do it for too long. Two minutes, at most. Which artist do you want to go on stage with? There are a few new models, and a model who's been doing well as a father. If you want to attract more attention, there's also a female model who has successfully transitioned her career and won the Best Actress Award... However, the prices are all different."

Tang Yue secretly called him a sly old fox! She asked, "Who can ensure that I get the most attention when I get on stage?"

"The model who's a good father figure. We're going to show a video of his son when the time comes. That little guy has a bunch of mom fans right now."

"Alright, him then," Tang Yue said.

Meng Fei was about to agree when his phone suddenly rang.

He wanted to decline, but when he saw the name on it, he could not help but stand up straight.

He quickly said, "Little President Tang, I need to take this call."

Tang Yue waved him off nonchalantly.

She only wanted to prepare her speech and deal Su Bei a damaging blow.

Later when Su Bei was scolded by the entire internet for using money to win awards and relying on her family for getting resources, she would have no evidence to clear her name.

At that time, Su Bei would have the most irreconcilable conflict with the elders of the Tang family. She would hate the elders of the Tang family as they were the ones who caused her the criticisms and disasters.

On the other hand, the elders would only think that she was insensible to acknowledge them in such a high-profile setting. After all, as the elders of the Tang family, they had already been trying their best to make it up to Su Bei. However, in truth, everything was Tang Yue's scheme.

Although the elders of the Tang family started Sheng Tang Entertainment, they were not very familiar with the rules of the entertainment circle. They did not know what the consequences of their actions would be.

By then, the conflict between the two sides would reach an irreconcilable state.

Chapter 593: This Investment

Meng Fei walked to the side and looked at the name on the phone. He picked up the call excitedly and said respectfully, "Mr. Weijian! What can I do for you?"

He really didn't expect Lu Weijian to call him. Everyone in the industry wanted to bootlick him!

"I'll give you an eight-digit and a fixed amount of sponsorship. You can't accept any other sponsorships tonight and can't let anyone unrelated go on stage. Can you do that?"

Meng Fei was so excited that his fingers were trembling!

That number was close to 100 million!

Compared to the millions that Tang Yue was offering him, it was like comparing a watermelon to a sesame seed.

A golden light flashed before Meng Fei's eyes. He had to seize this golden opportunity!

"Yes, yes, I can do that! I'll definitely do it!"

"Don't accept anything from Sheng Tang. If you mess it up, you'll be the one to face the consequences!"

"I won't mess it up, I'll definitely do it perfectly! If I mess it up, I'll chop off my head and deliver it to your doorstep!" Meng Fei hurriedly bowed his head and said. Since he was able to work together with Lu Corporation, even if he had to sacrifice his life, he had to do everything well.

As for Tang Yue and Sheng Tang, forget about them! If Mr. Weijian were to invest in him in the future, he did not need to have any more worries.

Meng Fei walked back happily. Tang Yue, who was deep in thought, did not pay attention to what he was saying over the phone. Thinking that he was happy to receive her money, she said, "Producer Meng, make the arrangements!"

"I'm sorry, Little President Tang. We won't be able to work together this time. To tell you the truth, I've received a big investment. The investor has made it clear that he won't accept any unauthorized person to go on stage! Please leave!"

"How big of an investment is it? I'll give the same amount to you right away!" Tang Yue was furious. Who was it who dared to ruin her plans midway?!

"Not much, almost 100 million." Meng Fei's meaning could not be clearer. If she could afford it, he might choose to work with her instead.

Of course, if Tang Yue were to really give that money to him, he would still have to ask Mr. Weijian for permission first!

However, Tang Yue could not afford such a large sum of money!

As expected, Tang Yue fell silent when she heard the price of nearly 100 million yuan.

Although the Tang family was rich, they didn't dare to burn their money like this. Moreover, she couldn't make a decision like this alone regardless of whether it was regarding Sheng Tang or Tang Group.

How could she take out so much money in one go?

Seeing her expression, Meng Fei knew what she was thinking. If she couldn't afford it, there was nothing he could do. Besides, even if she could afford it, Mr. Weijian was still above her. Even if she wanted to give the money to him, it may not be possible either.

Tang Yue was so angry that she turned around and left! She was not that stupid to lose so much money for Su Bei!

Meng Fei shrugged his shoulders. "Who can be richer than Lu Corporation when it comes to money? With this investment, why would I need to work with Sheng Tang?"

Tang Yue walked out of the room. It did not matter if she could not go on stage. As long as the marketing accounts were in control later, the effect would still be sensational.

Besides, she could even accept interviews from reporters and openly admit that her sister had returned home. What a touching topic that would be.

Wasn't a topic like this worth a thesis-like article?

This was what Tang Yue thought, but before she could walk far, two men in black blocked her path.

Chapter 594: Too Many Scandals

"Who are you and what do you want?" Tang Yue was not afraid. At this kind of occasion, these people would not do anything.

"President Tang invites you over."

Tang Yue was brought to a secluded place where Tang Xinru was waiting for her.

"President Tang, she's here."

Tang Yue was no longer afraid. It was just Tang Xinru. What could she do to her?

Tang Xinru turned around and fixed her wise gaze on Tang Yue as she said calmly, "Put away your tricks tonight."

"I don't know what you mean."

"You know what I mean. There's no point in doing what you want to do under such circumstances," Tang Xinru said. "Don't tell me you want Grandpa to know your intentions?"

Tang Yue's expression changed slightly.

Her family might not know what kind of criticisms Su Bei would receive if she publicly acknowledged Su Bei, but Tang Xinru had been in the circle for a long time and knew her cousin's hidden intentions.

If Tang Xinru fanned the flames in front of Grandpa, she would be the one to suffer.

Tang Yue said unhappily, "Cousin, this is our family's matter. Aren't you meddling in?"

Tang Xinru glanced at her. "Su Bei is under me. No one can touch her."

Her attitude was firm. Tang Yue also knew that her cousin was indeed willing to risk her life to protect the artists under her. Hence, the artists under her were all extremely loyal. This was also the main reason why Tang Yue could not snatch management rights of the entire Sheng Tang even after all these years.

After saying this, Tang Xinru turned around and left, taking the two bodyguards in black with her.

Clearly, she was very confident in herself. If Tang Yue had any sense, she should seriously reconsider things.

Tang Xinru had just walked out when the ninth model's name was announced on stage. Su Bei's name had yet to be called out!

However, the moment she sat down, the two supermodel presenters on stage finally shouted the name that she had been looking forward to hearing for a long time. "Su Bei!"

Tang Xinru's expression relaxed.

The top ten models of the year were announced and all ten models went on stage.

Hao Jiali and Su Huixian both did not make it. One of them was hardworking but could not shine bright enough, while the other was embroiled in too many scandals that could not be forgotten.

When Su Bei heard her name, she was slightly happy, but she immediately calmed down. Everything that happened in the past half a year seemed to appear in front of her eyes. She thought about how she came back from America to entrust Da Bao to the man, but not only did she not entrust Da Bao to anyone, she even gained a huge gain!

Furthermore, her relationship with Lu Heting had improved by leaps and bounds. She had also received the greatest support from Sheng Tang. It was also because Lu Heting spared no effort in helping her that she was able to get to where she was now.

She had done her part as a model and did her work as best as she could. However, it was because Lu Heting and the rest had shielded her from the attacks from all directions that she had an easier time.

She was safe and sound because someone was helping her to face the darkness in front of her.

She went on stage. She managed to stand out even among the models with her long legs that made her look exceptionally tall. Her eyes were bright, and her face was the size of a palm. Her facial features were well-proportioned. Her face did not look like a supermodel's but the aura she gave off was the most fitting.

Chapter 595: Su Bei Is Too Famous

The moment she received the trophy and card, she looked at the corner where Lu Heting was. She kissed the card, leaving a lipstick mark on it. She believed that he would understand.

Lu Heting saw the woman standing on the stage like a shining star. He only had eyes for her.

When he saw her action, he could not help but cough lightly. His Adam's apple moved as he reached out to gently tug at his bow tie.

The bow tie was made from the same fabric as Su Bei's dress, which made his eyes darken.

Su Bei waved in that direction. As Tang Xinru and Yue Ze were sitting in that direction as well, nobody suspected a thing. They all thought she was waving to the people in her company. Immediately, a camera shifted to Sheng Tang's people.

Although Hao Jiali was wondering what Tang Yue would do to Su Bei, she still smiled when the camera turned to her.

She was very depressed that she was not selected as one of the top ten models, but she could not show it.

Su Huixian clenched her fists tightly.

Su Bei waved her hand. She wore a small ring on her pinky finger. It was very shiny and immediately attracted many people's attention.

Naturally, Lu Heting saw it too. He reached out and gently turned his own ring. If not for the fact that he was afraid of causing trouble for her, he really wanted her to wear her wedding ring on stage when receiving the award.

However, he was already satisfied with the pinky ring and bow tie.

The emcee walked in front of Su Bei and said with a smile, "Su Bei, do you know that your fans were a big contributing factor to your selection in this Top Ten Model Awards? The rankings are jointly chosen by the fans and judges. You came in first place in the fans' vote. Do you have anything to say to them?"

"Thank you. I'll continue to work hard," Su Bei said simply and sincerely while revealing a smile.

Moved by her smile, the audience burst into applause.

The fans watching the live broadcast also cheered for her. Su Bei was really too good-looking. If she didn't become famous, it would be unforgivable.

The emcee smiled and said, "We have a segment tonight. We'll choose someone among the fans who voted for you and they'll get your card. You'll do the honors for this segment."

Su Bei did not think that there would be such a segment. She looked at the card in her hand and could not help but reveal an innocent smile. Her lipstick mark was on it. She wanted to give this card to her husband.

Because of her smile, everyone laughed kindly. As they had seen her kiss the card, they found it even more interesting.

Especially her fans, who acted like they were celebrating New Year's. "Is this really happening! Lady Luck, please give me your power!"

"I want the card from the goddess!"

"No, I want to become the card in her hand and accept her kiss."

"Wow, it's not in vain that I had many of my friends and family vote for Su Bei. My chances are much higher. Hahahaha, I'm impressed with my own wit!"

In the past, there was indeed no such segment during the Top Ten Model Awards.

However, this year, the organizers had seen Su Bei's influence on the internet and the number of fans she had. Her influence made this segment possible.

Chapter 596: It Must Be A Conspiracy

Moreover, in this segment, only Su Bei would do the lucky draw. For the sake of ratings and good reviews, the organizers had a myriad of tricks up their sleeves. They were going all out!

They even secretly thanked the older judges and Jiang Hong for not eliminating Su Bei. Otherwise, they would probably be scolded to death and their viewership ratings would be halved.

Since the emcee had already spoken, Su Bei could only agree. She placed her hand on the button as per the emcee's request and waited for the emcee to call out before pressing the button.

On the screen, there were various accounts that had voted for Su Bei.

Lu Heting sat up straight and looked at the results on the stage. More than a million people had voted for Su Bei. It was hard to say who would be chosen. It could be said that everyone stood a small chance.

Could it be him? Like the other fans, he appeared calm, but he was actually not. He was anticipating the result.

There was no need to beat about the bush. He simply wanted the card with her lipstick mark on it.

"Actually, I want it too!" Lu Weijian, who was sitting at home and watching the live broadcast with his legs crossed, told the two munchkins.

He had used his main and other accounts to vote for his sister-in-law!

If he could win the card, he would give it to his big brother. By then, he would be able to raise any conditions he wanted! It was perfect!

Da Bao crossed his arms. "I want it to, but it doesn't matter."

He already had many of Su Bei's real kisses, so this card was just alright.

Gun Gun raised his hands. "I want it too, I want it too, I want it too!"

Lu Weijian looked at Gun Gun with resentment. "The number of kisses you've gotten on your little face can circle the Earth twice, okay?"

Gun Gun rubbed his own face. Thinking back to how Bei Bei would kiss him every day, he instantly felt a surge of happiness. He nodded heavily. "Right, right, right. When Bei Bei comes home, I want a kiss."

Just as everyone was eagerly anticipating, Su Bei pressed the button.

On the big screen, a Weibo name was displayed. "Shell 001!"

The emcee said excitedly, "Congratulations to the user called Shell 001. You've been chosen by Su Bei. You'll receive this unique card from Su Bei! Please contact us to receive your award!"

Su Bei smiled sweetly. "Thank you."

If she had known earlier, she would not have kissed the card so casually. It was a little weird to give away the card with her lipstick mark on it.

The live-stream comments were filled with envy.

[There are millions of people voting for Su Bei and someone actually got my goddess's kiss just like that. I'm crying!]

[Please auction it!]

[Please resell!]

[Please...]

Instantly, everyone followed the account Shell 001.

"Sigh, I have more than 50 accounts, but I didn't get it!" Lu Weijian sighed and slammed the table. "A conspiracy! It must be a conspiracy! I refuse to accept this!"

Da Bao looked at him sympathetically and reached out to adjust his little bow tie. It was the same style as the dress Su Bei was wearing tonight!

Even at home, he and Su Bei were together in spirit.

Chapter 597: The PDA From A Couple Match Made In Heaven

Gun Gun was a little disappointed, but when he thought about how Bei Bei would be coming home soon, his mood lifted once more. He picked up the durian cake Su Bei had made for him and ate while leisurely looking at Bei Bei on the screen. At the same time, he pulled on his beloved bow tie.

The three of them were all wearing bow ties, but Lu Weijian's neck was empty... Alright, he turned around to think about something else.

"Shell 001?" Lu Weijian thought about the user who won Su Bei's card and found it familiar, but he couldn't remember where he had seen it before.

All of a sudden, a thought flashed through his mind and he slapped his forehead. "Oh my God, isn't this the account that my brother asked me to help him register? Is this even possible? Is the organizer cheating, or are my brother and sister-in-law a match made in heaven?"

Very soon, he confirmed that they were a match made in heaven. It could not have been faked because the organizers did not even know of his brother's existence. Even when he called the person-in-charge cum producer, Meng Fei, it turned out it was his brother who arranged for them to use his name.

Big Brother didn't like to do those things!

With Sister-in-law's personality, she would not bother with these tricks.

Weijian burped. As a single person, he was being exposed to too much PDA.

Su Bei got off the stage and went backstage. Xiao Bai followed her and said excitedly, "Congratulations, Su Bei! President Tang and Brother Yue Ze are so happy!"

"Where's Little President Tang?" Su Bei asked. She had yet to solve this hidden problem and could not be completely at ease.

"Little President Tang has already left. I heard that she has something urgent to attend to."

Hearing Xiao Bai's words, Su Bei knew that Tang Yue would not play any tricks tonight. Perhaps she had tried to make a move but her attempts were stopped.

Xiao Bai took out a paper box and said, "Didn't you choose a lucky fan just now? You're supposed to give them the card in your hand. The other party has already provided the address and the organizer asked me to send it over."

"Okay, here you go." Su Bei thought for a while and took out another card. It was prepared by the production team as a spare in case of emergencies. She signed her name on it seriously.

Then, she checked the Weibo of this Shell 001 and realized that although the person had voted for her, they had only posted photos of Lu Bei. Was this person a fan of Lu Bei?

As she couldn't give him the card she left her lipstick mark on, Su Bei was a little apologetic. Hence, she told Xiao Bai, "Prepare a few photos of Lu Bei and the doll that Lu Bei endorsed for the game last time. Quickly give them to this fan."

Xiao Bai smiled. "Then I have to prepare a big box. I'll get it done immediately!"

The event was still going on, but they were only announcing small awards. Su Bei did not go out again and sat backstage with the other models to wait for the event to end.

Hao Jiali sat uneasily in front of the stage, waiting for Tang Yue to make things difficult for Su Bei.

Unfortunately, by the time the awards ceremony ended, there was no response from Tang Yue and Jian Ping had not sent any messages.

Hao Jiali scrolled through her Weibo, and everything was peaceful.

Didn't they say that when Su Bei received the award, they would release the dirt on her? Didn't they say that they would teach Su Bei a lesson?

They were all liars!

Chapter 598: I Don't Know, It Isn't Me

However, the event was over now. Hao Jiali had to stand up and follow the crowd out of the venue.

Su Huixian didn't wait for Hao Jiali to retaliate. She had no choice but to leave as well.

At this moment, someone raised their voice and said, "Wow, look! Just type Su Bei's name on Weibo..."

Hao Jiali and Su Huixian took out their phones excitedly and opened Weibo.

It was here! It was here! The time had finally come!

The two of them opened Weibo at the same time and quickly typed Su Bei's name. They waited for negative news to be displayed in front of them. They were waiting to watch her fall from the top to the ground.

The two of them pressed 'search' almost at the same time. Then, on the screen in front of them, shiny red hearts appeared. They seemed to be celebrating Su Bei with great enthusiasm.

Everyone was discussing. "Wow, is this the special effects that Weibo gave Su Bei? They really put in so much effort! None of the other models who won the award have it!"

"Didn't you see? It's said on Weibo that it's not a privilege given to Su Bei by Weibo. Su Bei's fans did it using a program. It's too beautiful. I'm envious of having such fans."

"I'm envious too. They're such great fans! Why don't I have such good fans?"

Hao Jiali and Su Huixian angrily put down their phones. What great fans? They must be blind that they were fans of a woman like Su Bei!

Such things were a waste of public resources.

However, Da Bao, Su Bei's biggest fan, said that the special effects could only be seen by typing Su Bei's name. It was meant for Su Bei and those who liked her. Why would anti-fans type Su Bei's name into the search bar anyway? Wasting public resources? What a joke!

Lu Weijian also picked up his phone and typed Su Bei's name. He laughed. "Such PDA. As expected of my brother, he can even think of such a romantic method. This is really awesome. I want to plagiarize this method for when I pick up girls."

He would have to ask his brother how this was done. No, he would ask his brother to transfer it to him.

He happily came to that decision.

He took out his phone and called Lu Heting. "Brother, what's the program you used to make that red heart on Weibo? Teach me, or simply give it to me."

"What?" Lu Heting didn't understand.

"On Weibo, the one that appears the moment Su Bei's name is typed..."

Lu Heting moved his phone away from his ear and opened Weibo to type Su Bei's name.

After that, his screen was filled with eye-catching images of hearts. It was indeed well done, but it had nothing to do with Lu Heting.

He picked up the phone again. "I don't know, it isn't me."

"How could it not be you? Who else would have so much free time? No... I mean, who else could be so talented?" Weijian changed his words halfway.

He jumped down from the sofa excitedly and saw Da Bao calmly operating a program on his phone. Lu Weijian took a closer look. This was the one!

It was not Big Brother, but Da Bao!

"I've already found who it is! Brother, so it really isn't you! It turns out it's..." Lu Weijian put down his phone and hugged Da Bao's thigh. "Da Bao, can you let Uncle use this?"

"..." Da Bao was speechless.

Chapter 599: Half The Credit

"Master, can you lend the program to me?"

"..." Da Bao merely stared at him.

"Brother, can I call you Brother?" If Weijian had a tail, it would have started wagging.

Da Bao crossed his arms. "So, do you have a target?"

"Target?" Lu Weijian slapped his head. That's right, he had no target at all. Who should he chase?

He was really muddle-headed. It was all because his grandparents kept urging him to quickly find a girl to bring home that he was muddle-headed.

Lu Weijian waved his hand in embarrassment. "Forget it, forget it. There's no need. You can play by yourself, Brother!"

Although Lu Heting had already put away his phone, he remembered Lu Weijian's words and immediately understood that Da Bao must have made that program for Su Bei.

Da Bao had inherited almost all of his genes in this aspect. That was great!

After Su Bei left backstage, she was interviewed by a few reporters.

After that, Tang Xinru and Yue Ze walked forward with smiles on their faces. "Congratulations, you were really dazzling tonight."

"It's also because of your hard work." Su Bei smiled. She was not only referring to the matter involving Tang Yue.

Tang Xinru looked at her cousin and smiled. After such a long time together, she realized that Su Bei and Tang Yue were really different.

Although they had the same competitive spirit, Su Bei's successes were all earned through her own hard work. She was unlike Tang Yue, who always made things difficult in private. Su Bei's honest and open ways made Tang Xinru admire her.

"If there's nothing else, I'll get going first."

Tang Xinru smiled. "Go ahead. I'll handle the rest."

Su Bei had already changed into a set of clothes that were more comfortable to move around in. She ran out and went straight to the Bentley in the corner, getting into Lu Heting's car.

The man looked at her with a gentle smile in his eyes. His cold face was less fierce now. The bow tie looked warm and dazzling under the dim yellow light.

Once Su Bei got into the car, he reached out and held her hand.

At the same time, Lu Heting took off his jacket and placed it over Su Bei's shoulders.

It was cold outside, and Su Bei's hands were cold. Lu Heting held her hands and brought them to his lips.

This action was enough to melt Su Bei's heart.

"I brought you a gift." Su Bei pulled out his palm and took out the card from his bag. "This is for you! You have half the credit for my win tonight!"

Lu Heting reached out to take the card and realized that it was the card she had kissed on the stage. He put it away carefully. "But this is for the fan you picked out. Isn't it a little inappropriate?"

"When I kissed it, I was thinking of giving it to you as a gift later. I totally did not expect the organizer to add this lucky draw event at the last minute. So, I gave the fan a spare card and asked Xiao Bai to give them other stuff as well. I hope that person won't mind."

"They won't." Lu Heting didn't tell her that the Weibo account she picked was his.

"How do you know?"

"As your fan, that person will be understanding of you no matter what you do. Besides, you're giving them so many other things. They'll be satisfied."

Su Bei nodded. "I hope that's the case."

Chapter 600: Already Immune

After Su Bei won the Top Ten Model Awards in Country S, coupled with the many endorsement deals she had recently announced, her work schedule was extremely packed.

Following that, Stars' Top 10 Supermodel Rankings Of The Year was released.

Stars' Top 10 Supermodel Rankings Of The Year did not go through a public selection process nor did the fans have to vote. It was a professional organization. The comprehensive evaluation was based on the number of endorsement deals, quality of endorsement deals, runway appearances, influence, and so on. This ranking never gave out awards but only released a list every year.

Even so, this was a very prestigious ranking. Every year, the top ten on the rankings were recognized by everyone as the world's top ten supermodels.

Stars' supermodel ranking was the most highly-regarded in the entire world. Not to mention the top ten but being able to enter the top 100 was already an amazing feat. For oriental models, being able to enter the top 100 was already a great honor.

For ordinary supermodels, the rise and fall of the top 100 in Stars' ranking was also crucial. It reflected the work situation of this supermodel during this year.

However, after the rankings were released, everyone discovered that Su Bei's name had steadily landed in seventh place.

In other words, Su Bei had entered the top ten. She was the only supermodel in S Country and the only Asian supermodel in the top ten!

The credibility of Stars' supermodel ranking was irrefutable!

Su Bei suddenly became the most promising and valuable supermodel in S Country.

Everyone quickly reviewed her achievements in the past year and realized that she had done many things in the East and also West. Abroad, she was the ambassador for Dream Jewelry and walked a fashion show that was recognized to be on the pinnacle of the industry. In the country, she was on the cover of 'Vogue', won the title of 'Vogue Goddess', and walked a show for YS wristwatch.

Tang Xinru called. "Su Bei, congratulations! Even if Tang Yue still wants to publicly acknowledge you as part of the Tang family, it'll be useless. With Stars' ranking acknowledging you, no one will dare to doubt your ability."

Yue Ze and Lv Shan also called.

The petty tricks that Tang Yue had in mind were also abruptly halted.

However, the Tang family did not appear or come to look for her in private... Su Bei held her phone and fell into deep thought.

"What are you thinking about?" Lu Heting sat down beside her.

"The Tang family didn't come looking for me. Although I didn't expect much, I feel like there's more to this than meets the eye."

Lu Heting only knew that the elders of the Tang family were secretly testing Su Bei's character. He despised such methods but was unwilling to hurt Su Bei by telling her the truth.

He comforted her in a soft voice, saying, "Maybe it's because the Tang family is a big family with many people, so we'll have to wait for a while."

"That's true. Forget it, I won't dwell on it. I haven't even checked the Tang family's information. It doesn't matter if they want to look for me or they don't want to." After all, she had been hurt by people whom she called her family before, so she was already immune to it.

She didn't yearn for her biological parents. Therefore, she neither paid attention to the Tang family nor searched for their background.
