

Chapter 601: I'll Miss You

Lu Heting knew that she had built a self-defense mechanism for herself after getting hurt once. It was precisely because she was afraid of being hurt again that she appeared to be indifferent.

His heart ached. He could only do his best to accompany Su Bei more.

Actually, the elders of the Tang Family had wanted to acknowledge Su Bei for a long time. It was just that Tang Yue had been making things difficult for them, causing all sorts of twists and turns.

As for Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian, how could they suspect that their most beloved daughter, Tang Yue, was capable of thinking up such schemes?

It had been decided that Su Bei would be on the cover of the new issue of Beauty Magazine. It just so happened that they had sent a notice to ask Su Bei to shoot it in the north. They would take some photos with the snow as the background.

The north of S Country had always been extremely cold. During winter, the temperature outside could be as low as -10 degrees Celsius. It was also because of this that it had the most unparalleled winter scenery.

Su Bei packed her winter coat in her suitcase. Lu Heting bought her the thickest down jacket and was packing it for her.

"I already have two suitcases. If you keep getting more things, I might end up with three," Su Bei reminded him in amusement as he kept stuffing things into the suitcase.

"Three isn't a lot. It's very cold over there. If there's an outdoor shoot, you must keep yourself warm." Lu Heting felt that this was not enough.

Su Bei put her hand into his pocket and said, "That's enough. I'll only be shooting for three days, at most. I don't need to change my coat every day."

"It won't be enough as long as you're not by my side. I can't go with you this time, so you have to prepare everything you need. Hats, coats, thermal clothes, and warm patches... I've put them all here. When you go out, don't ignore the cold temperature just for the sake of elegance."

Su Bei smiled. "Okay, Mommy Lu."

Lu Heting flicked her on the head. "Good girl, listen to me. Okay?"

"I definitely will!"

As it was nearing the end of the year, there were many things that Lu Heting had to handle so he could not accompany Su Bei there.

His mother was the only one in the Lu family, and his grandparents were getting on in years. He couldn't push all the work to them, and naturally, he couldn't push all the work to Lu Weijian either. He had an entertainment company and gaming company to manage. He was even busier than him at the end of the year.

Su Bei hugged his waist. "I'll miss you."

"Me too." Lu Heting buried his head in her shoulder and sniffed her hair. His thoughts seemed to have flown away.

Xiao Bai, Yue Ze, and another assistant were supposed to accompany Su Bei to the north.

However, Yue Ze had an official matter to attend to.

This time, Old Master Tang was also on the same plane as Su Bei. He had followed Su Bei here.

When Su Bei became one of the top ten models of the year, Old Master Tang could not help but want to acknowledge her.

It was Tang Xinru who seemingly unintentionally reminded him. "If you acknowledge Su Bei now, will the outside world think that you contributed to her award?"

"Of course not! The children of the Tang family never do such things!" After Old Master Tang violently rebutted, he immediately understood the meaning behind Tang Xinru's words. Therefore, he suppressed his desire to publicly acknowledge Su Bei. It also stopped Tang Yue from proceeding with her plots.

Even though he was anxious, he had to take it slow.

He just didn't know if Su Bei already knew of his existence.

Chapter 602: Do You Deserve To Be Guilty?

Old Master Tang was extremely nervous.

Su Bei, on the other hand, was completely unaware of the situation. She did not know that her grandfather existed, and her thoughts were all on work.

When they reached the north, Su Bei sat in the car and saw the white snow outside. It covered the entire land in pure white. She looked at it happily and seriously. The scenery was so beautiful. No wonder when a writer described a snow scene, they would use descriptions like 'thousands of miles of flying snow, turning the sky into a furnace that melted everything into silver.'

She quickly took a photo and sent it to Lu Heting, Da Bao, and Gun Gun. [Look, it's so beautiful!]

Then, she posted a picture of the snow scene on her WeChat Moments, writing: [The snow today is really beautiful!]

[Beautiful!] Lu Weijian maintained his image as a young master on WeChat.

Lu Heting said concisely: [Not as beautiful as you.]

Su Bei cupped her face and replied: [Not as beautiful as you either.]

Not long after they stayed in the hotel, everyone got ready and went for lunch.

Old Master Tang followed them into the hotel and quietly ate.

Actually, he had been observing Su Bei for a few days. Su Bei had a cheerful personality and had a good relationship with her staff. She was also very polite to people. Even if she took a small thing from a waiter, she would seriously thank them.

It was completely different from the unruly, arrogant, and resentful girl Tang Yue described.

This made Old Master Tang suspicious. He suppressed the urge in his heart and continued eating slowly.

Huang Zhixian, the photographer from Beauty, and his team were also staying in the hotel.

He had just sat down when he received a call from Jian Ping.

“Sister Ping, why are you so free to call me?” Huang Zhixian replied with a smile.

When Jian Ping confirmed that Hao Jiali was going to shoot the cover of Beauty Magazine, she had arranged for everything.

She insisted on having Huang Zhixian be the photographer because he was her distant cousin. When Hao Jiali was filming, he could then pay special attention to her.

“Su Bei stole Jiali’s job. How can I not be free?” Jian Ping said casually.

Huang Zhixian’s face turned cold. “That’s right. The cover this time should have belonged to your artist, but Su Bei snatched it away.”

“So... if Su Bei suffers during filming, doesn’t she deserve it?” Jian Ping asked with a smile.

Huang Zhixian understood what she meant. When it came to filming, especially when they were outstation, the photographer would have the final say. Since Su Bei had fallen into his hands, she naturally won’t be able to have it easy.

If Su Bei could not endure the hardships, then she could be replaced with Jian Ping, right?

After lunch, Yue Ze was busy with other things, so he entrusted Su Bei over to Xiao Bai and the other assistant.

After everyone got ready, the shooting began.

The outdoor shoot this time was to take photos of the snowy landscape and capture the beautiful winter scenery. It would be the cover for New Year’s.

Su Bei changed into a thin silver-white dress and walked out with her coat wrapped around her.

Xiao Bai hurriedly passed her a heat patch and said, “It’s a little cold outside. It’ll be difficult to take photos. You’ll have to work hard. But luckily, Brother Yue Ze has already communicated with the photographer before this. You only need to stay in the snow for ten minutes or so.. You’ll be fine after the shoot.”

Chapter 603: Can Only Panic

"It's okay, I'm mentally prepared." Su Bei curled her lips and looked calm. She was well aware of the various risks a model had to face.

Going along with the demands during a shoot was very common. Filming a summer scene in a short skirt in winter, wearing a thick coat in summer, and filming a winter scene in summer was all normal.

Xiao Bai walked out with Su Bei.

The temperature was below -10 degrees Celsius, and the air was freezing. It was fine in the warm room of the hotel, but when they were outdoors, if not for their hats and masks, their faces would have become frozen.

Xiao Bai quickly straightened her hat and accompanied Su Bei to the photographer, Huang Zhixian.

"We can start now!" Huang Zhixian said. "Su Bei, it's a little cold today. Hang in there."

"No problem, Mr. Huang." Su Bei made an 'okay' gesture.

Huang Zhixian picked up the camera, and the rest of the staff came forward to cooperate.

Su Bei took off her thick coat. She was only wearing a thin silver-white dress underneath, which exposed herself to the snow.

Even the others, who were wearing hats and masks, felt cold and they had to squint their eyes due to the wind. Su Bei was dressed so thinly, but she still had a smile on her face. Her expression did not change at all as she followed Huang Zhixian's instructions.

She displayed her most professional attitude and did not even change her expression. It was as if she was on a set and everything was done by props.

Old Master Tang watched from afar with a deep frown on his face. He never expected that it would be so difficult to be in this industry.

As he watched Su Bei suffer, his heart felt extremely terrible.

As if seeing what he was going to do, the driver standing at the side said, "Old Master, this is Miss Su Bei's job. If you go and interfere, they might have to reshoot."

Only then did Old Master Tang stop in his tracks and look into the distance. However, in his heart, he was certain that Su Bei and the person Tang Yue described were not the same!

If Su Bei could even endure this kind of hardship, why would she need Tang Yue to hint to her that she wanted her to win an award?

Moreover, she won the prestigious award in S Country with her own capabilities. Her capabilities and character were completely linked.

Before long, the shoot had already gone on for 15 minutes. Su Bei's lips had changed color. The weather was too cold, and her hair was covered in a thin layer of ice.

Xiao Bai hugged her clothes and said, "Mr. Huang, let's have Su Bei rest for a while. Let's rest before continuing."

“Why are you panicking? There are so many people here to take photos of her. Who’s going to be responsible if we waste time?”

“But everyone is fully clothed for the cold weather while Su Bei is the only one wearing a thin layer of clothing. If this goes on, she’ll freeze,” Xiao Bai said with heartache.

“The money she’s taking for this job is many times more than ours, young lady,” Huang Zhixian said, unmoved. “You’re just a small assistant with a salary of a few thousand yuan. Why should you feel bad for a supermodel who can earn millions in just two days?”

Xiao Bai felt that what he said made no sense. However, she could not refute it at the moment and could only grip her clothes anxiously.

Su Bei was feeling extremely cold. The weather in this place was really too cold. She thought that everything would be done in ten minutes.

Chapter 604: One More Time!

In fact, wearing so little would make one feel that time was especially long in such weather conditions. Su Bei could not even feel her own limbs anymore.

She heard the photographer call out to her, so she walked toward him, her steps heavy from the cold.

Huang Zhixian shouted at Su Bei, “Su Bei, slide down from the pile of snow over there. I want to take a photo depicting a southerner’s first New Year’s in the north. I want you to show a fearless and especially happy expression.”

Before Su Bei could walk over, she heard Huang Zhixian’s orders.

She blew on her palm. “Mr. Huang, can you let me rest for a while?”

She wasn’t tired, she was just too cold.

Huang Zhixian unhappily said, “So many people are waiting for you. Su Bei, time is precious. I still have to rush for the next session.”

Su Bei frowned slightly. It was obvious that Huang Zhixian had a motive.

Some of the people in the team were people who had benefited from Jian Ping before. They said, “That’s right. If we have to take a break after filming for just ten minutes, then we might as well not work at all. We’ll just serve you alone.”

“I didn’t expect the rumors to be true. Su Bei can’t even accept the intensity of such a job. I wonder how she got those honors.”

There were also a few people who sympathized with Su Bei. They were wearing thick clothes and standing in the snow. Although they were not cold, they were not warm either. What more Su Bei?

“Su Bei, start immediately! My camera won’t wait for anyone!” Huang Zhixian shouted and immediately turned on the camera.

Su Bei endured it and moved her limbs. She ran toward the pile of snow with heavy footsteps. Then, she slid down from the pile of snow.

She was freezing, but her face was filled with the joy and surprise she felt when she saw so much snow for the first time. She held the snow in her hands and rolled around in the snow, full of energy.

A full five minutes passed. It could be said that Su Bei's performance was impeccable. Her facial expressions were rich and her body movements were fluid. She had achieved what Huang Zhixian wanted.

Even Huang Zhixian felt that there was nothing to nitpick on when he looked at the photos taken and the video recorded. It was even better than what he had expected.

Xiao White heaved a sigh of relief. Su Bei could rest for a while now!

She was about to send the jacket over when Huang Zhixian shouted with a frown, "It's not perfect yet. Let's do it again!"

"Mr. Huang, if you keep going, Su Bei's hands and legs will be injured!" Xiao Bai shouted angrily. "Besides, we've already confirmed that the outdoor shoot will only last for ten minutes. Even if you want to take more photos, we're not in a hurry. Is it that difficult to let Su Bei warm up before we continue shooting?"

"The cover photo of Beauty Magazine has to be perfect. If you can't shoot it, you can leave. There are plenty of people who want to shoot it!" Huang Zhixian said loudly.

It would be best if she got frostbite. That way, Hao Jiali would be able to take over. That would be better for him.

Although the other staff members sympathized with Su Bei, they couldn't offend Huang Zhixian as it would affect their work.

Xiao Bai could not convince Huang Zhixian at all. The other assistant could not do anything either. They could not even interject, let alone help Xiao Bai.

"Nonsense! Is Beauty Magazine going to ruin its own reputation?" A vigorous old man's voice sounded.

Chapter 605: How Much Hardships Did You Suffer?

Everyone turned to look at the source of the voice, only to see an imposing old man walking over with his eyebrows raised in anger.

Everyone was stunned, not knowing who this elder was.

However, Huang Zhixian had been working in Beauty for a long time and was Jian Ping's cousin, so he immediately recognized him as Old Master Tang from Sheng Tang.

The old man didn't care about Sheng Tang Entertainment's business. The Tang family had other businesses, so not many people in the entertainment industry had seen him before. However, those who knew him knew that he was a very influential figure in the entertainment industry.

Seeing that Su Bei was cold, Old Master Tang angrily shouted at Xiao Bai, "Xiao Bai, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and get Su Bei a jacket to cover her up!"

"Yes, yes." Xiao Bai hugged her clothes and rushed toward Su Bei.

However, at this moment, a tall figure rushed past Xiao Bai and walked toward Su Bei.

His entire body exuded an aura that was even more terrifying than the biting cold enveloping them. It made people feel as if the snowstorm had become more serious. It was so cold that they couldn't help but shiver and tremble.

He was wearing a thick coat, a hat, and a mask. People could only see his tall figure but could not see his face clearly. Those who did not know would think that he was Su Bei's bodyguard.

No one knew that he was the most powerful person in Lu Group, Lu Heting.

He was worried about Su Bei coming to this freezing place alone to film. After Su Bei left, he quickly handled his work and finally settled the things that needed to be settled. Those that could be pushed back were pushed back. He forcefully freed up two days of his schedule so he could meet Su Bei here.

No matter how quickly he rushed over, he still arrived at the place half a day later than Su Bei.

When Lu Heting got out of the car, he happened to see Old Master Tang reprimanding Huang Zhixian. He didn't have to ask any questions. Just looking at Su Bei's thin dress while she was standing in the snow, he knew that Su Bei had suffered a lot!

He stepped forward and wrapped Su Bei in his arms. Her body was covered in tiny particles of ice, and she was almost frozen stiff. His heartache was just like the cold, piercing and biting.

He reached out his hands and rubbed her shoulders and back, getting her blood to circulate.

Su Bei's body started warming up and returning to normal. She looked up and saw Lu Heting's face clearly. She thought she was dreaming. "Lu Heting, why are you here?"

Lu Heting lowered his head and kissed her frozen lips, using his warmth to warm her up.

Xiao White wanted to send the jacket over, but when she saw this scene, she was shocked and didn't dare to go forward. She started working with Su Bei late and didn't know that Lu Heting and Su Bei were already married.

She quickly looked at the photography team and realized that the man's back was facing them. From their angle, they could not see what the man and Su Bei were doing.

Furthermore, Old Master Tang was already enraged. The people on the other side were no longer able to place their attention on Su Bei.

"Give it to me," Lu Heting said to Xiao Bai.

Xiao Bai quickly handed over a thick jacket, a heat patch, and a bottle of hot water.

Lu Heting put on the thick jacket for Su Bei and placed the heat patch in her hands before carrying her up horizontally and walking toward the hotel.

Chapter 606: A Change Of Clothes

As they walked past the photography team, Old Master Tang's voice was filled with anger, "Huang Zhixian, right? Is this the work attitude of Beauty? Is this your work attitude? If you do this, you'll be done for in this industry sooner or later!"

Huang Zhixian only wanted to help his cousin, Jian Ping, vent her anger. Moreover, he had received benefits from her, so it was only right for him to help her.

He muttered, "But Su Bei... She's just fine..."

"If anything happens to her, you won't be able to pay for it even if you have ten heads!" Old Master Tang said angrily. "You, take off your jacket and stand where Su Bei was just now. Stand there for 20 minutes and then roll around in the snow for no less than ten minutes!"

Huang Zhixian did not want to follow Old Master Tang's orders, but he knew that he could not afford to offend him. He was in the wrong in this matter. If others found out that he had deliberately taken benefits to mess with Su Bei, he would be done for.

He had no choice but to take off his coat and sweater, revealing the thermal wear underneath.

"Bring him a change of clothes!" Old Master Tang said angrily.

Huang Zhixian had a bitter expression on his face as he removed his jacket and sweater. The biting cold wind was about to freeze him, yet this old man still wanted him to change into something else? Wouldn't he freeze to death?

"Old Master Tang, don't..."

However, Old Master Tang's chauffeur had already retrieved a singlet.

Soon, Huang Zhixian changed into a singlet, a pair of pants, and a pair of shoes.

Actually, this was still better than Su Bei's because Su Bei was wearing a dress and dancing shoes earlier. The material of her clothes was even thinner than his.

Even so, Huang Zhixian's teeth were already chattering from the cold. Only now did he know that Su Bei was able to maintain her sweet smile under these conditions due to extreme dedication. Not everyone could do it.

When he sneezed, tears and snot immediately flowed out. He could not even maintain a calm expression, let alone pose.

The entire crew lowered their heads and did not say a word. They all knew that Huang Zhixian's actions were too much.

Old Master Tang was slightly appeased, but the chauffeur said, "Old Master, there's a thin dress here..."

Lu Heting had arranged for someone to bring it over. He got Lu Hang to deliver it to the chauffeur.

Lu Heting was satisfied with Old Master Tang's way of handling things and had already brought Su Bei to rest.

The driver was Old Master Tang's trusted aide and was well aware of Su Bei's identity as a member of the Tang family. Although he didn't know what that person meant by sending him a thin dress, he immediately remembered something. Wasn't Su Bei wearing a thin dress while standing in the snow earlier?

Huang Zhixian was wearing long pants, which was too easy for him! He quickly reminded Old Master Tang.

Old Master Tang immediately said, "Change!"

Huang Zhixian collapsed after changing into a thin dress.

It was not just a comical sight but Huang Zhixian was also extremely cold. He had only stood there for a few minutes, but his face had already turned blue from the cold winds. All the fat on his body seemed to have solidified, while the wind and snow had formed particles of ice on his body. His legs were starting to feel numb.

"Keep an eye on him. Tell him to get lost in the snow later." Old Master Tang arranged for a driver before heading to the hotel.

When he went over, he found Xiao Bai. "Where's Su Bei?"

"Su Bei is in the room. She's resting." Xiao Bai recognized him as the old grandpa who helped them out.. She was very grateful to him.

Chapter 607: Mr. Lu Said

However, Su Bei was carried into the room by a man and never came out of the room again. As an assistant, she could not reveal this to anyone.

This was regarding the reputation that an artist had painstakingly built.

However, that man looked quite handsome just from his figure. Who knew which popular handsome guy in the entertainment industry he was? She didn't expect Su Bei to settle down in a relationship so quickly.

Old Master Tang was eager to see Su Bei and said, "Let me see her."

"No!" Xiao Bai hurriedly said.

"Why not? I said I want to, so I will." Old Master Tang walked past her.

Xiao Bai thought that he was an investor and quickly pulled him aside. "Su Bei must be taking a shower and resting. It's not convenient for you to go now. Besides, who are you? If you go and look for Su Bei and the reporters catch you, you'll cause her trouble. Let me tell you, our Su Bei is someone who follows the rules. She doesn't accept requests to eat and drink together. At your age, you should have lots of children and grandchildren. It's better for you to go home. If you keep looking for female artists, it'll only bring trouble to both of you."

She didn't know Old Master Tang. She just didn't want him to see Su Bei.

If Su Bei had a scandal with a young man, it could be remedied. But if she were to be seen with such an old man... the consequences would be unimaginable.

When Old Master Tang heard such words, he couldn't help but laugh. Su Bei, this child, being able to maintain her purity in this circle had brightened his mood. His granddaughter was indeed awesome!

Thinking that Xiao Bai was right, Old Master Tang did not insist and said, "I'll leave you a number. When Su Bei wakes up, ask her to call me. I'm telling you, I'm not a bad person."

'Who can be sure?' Xiao White thought to herself. However, she could tell that this old man was very imposing. If he could even suppress someone like Huang Zhixian, his status must be quite high.

Therefore, she did not dare to neglect Old Master Tang's instructions to give Su Bei his phone number later.

Old Master Tang wrote down a string of numbers for her before leaving.

Xiao Bai looked outside and saw that Huang Zhixian was still rolling around in the snow. Looking at the snot and tears on his face, he was truly in a sorry state...

Xiao Bai then returned to her room in satisfaction and casually made herself a cup of coffee.

After Huang Zhixian rolled in the snow, he finally endured the cold for about the same amount of time as Su Bei. His hands and feet were numb from the cold, and he had lost all control of his facial expression.

One could imagine how difficult it must have been for Su Bei when he asked her to put on a look of joy just now.

"Hurry, hurry up and get me some clothes..." He was frozen like an ice popsicle.

However, before the person beside him could bring him some clothes, a bodyguard in black and wearing sunglasses walked over. He said, "Mr. Lu said to have you stand in the snow for another 20 minutes!"

"Mr. Lu..."

"The mysterious person in charge of Lu Corporation..."

"Oh my God, Mr. Lu was also involved in this matter..."

No one dared to doubt his identity.. Besides, everyone had watched him walk out of the hotel while accompanied by the hotel manager.

Chapter 608: Repeated Suspicions

"Mr. Lu doesn't like people who bully the weak," the bodyguard said coldly.

Huang Zhixian was shocked. He was done for this time. First, he was caught red-handed by Old Master Tang and now, it turned out that Mr. Lu had seen him too. His career was probably at its end.

If he chose to refuse to stand in the snow for 20 minutes more, his future would be ruined.

The crew standing around Huang Zhixian and those who were on good terms with Jian Ping all had lingering fears. It turned out that receiving money and deliberately causing trouble would really result in retribution.

Next time, they wouldn't dare to do it no matter how much money they were given.

After Lu Heting carried Su Bei back to her room, he placed her in a tub of hot water and quickly arranged for a doctor to come over.

Hearing a knock on the door, he wrapped Su Bei in his bathrobe and carried her into the room. He said in a low voice, "Let the doctor take a look at you."

"I feel much better now." Su Bei's cheeks were rosy.

"Be good. We still need to let the doctor take a look," Lu Heting said softly.

After the doctor entered, although he did not know Lu Heting's identity, he knew that he had been called over by a big shot. Not only did he not look around casually, but his expression was also solemn as he conducted a simple and detailed examination on Su Bei.

"It's alright, it's nothing too serious. She just needs to keep warm." The doctor gave a simple diagnosis.

"Are you sure?" It wasn't that Lu Heting didn't believe in doctors. It was just that Su Bei had just gone through a misdiagnosis last time, causing him to have repeated suspicions regarding doctors.

"I'm sure. She's better now. She just can't be left out in the cold anymore..." the doctor replied respectfully. The man in front of him had a cold aura that made him tremble in fear.

Su Bei helped the doctor out and tugged at Lu Heting's sleeve. "Okay, you can ask the doctor to leave now. I want to drink some hot coffee."

"Can she drink it?" Lu Heting asked the doctor.

"Of course, it's fine. It's totally fine," the doctor quickly said.

Only then did Lu Heting let the doctor leave. He pressed the hotel service button and got someone to bring Su Bei's favorite coffee.

Su Bei took a hot bath and drank a cup of hot coffee. She managed to recover her energy.

The heater was turned on, and she was wearing a thin sweater. She hugged a doll and sat beside Lu Heting. The man's stern and cold expression had not changed since he came over. It made her feel cold when she got close to him.

Su Bei subconsciously shivered. This was too terrifying.

Feeling the woman leaning on his shoulder, Lu Heting took his thick jacket off and placed it over her.

Su Bei immediately felt her body heat up and she was about to sweat.

Fine, she was the one who shivered earlier. She could only accept this burst of warmth.

Su Bei leaned against him and asked, "Why are you here? Didn't you say that you'd be especially busy?"

Lu Heting's expression softened a little as the woman talked to him. "I came to accompany you. I just didn't expect to see someone like Huang Zhixian bullying you."

Heartache flashed across his eyes. This time, he finally realized that her work was not as glamorous as it seemed on the surface. It was more about adapting to the harsh weather in the filming environment.. Of course, the main culprit this time was not the weather but Huang Zhixian.

Chapter 609: Very High Aesthetic Value

"It's alright now. I've filmed on snowy days in America before, so I'm actually quite used to it. It's not as tough as you think." Su Bei saw his long brows furrowing and comforted him.

However, her words didn't comfort Lu Heting. Instead, it made his heart ache even more.

He also knew that she only tolerated Huang Zhixian because she did not want to delay the work of the other staff. This woman might appear to be carefree and uninhibited on the surface, but deep down, she was filled with kindness. She was always thinking for others and would not easily cause trouble for others.

Su Bei extended her slender fingers and gently smoothed out his brows. "Don't frown. You don't look handsome anymore. Furthermore, it's just this once. Huang Zhixian must be on good terms with Jian Ping. Jian Ping's artist failed to get this job, so Huang Zhixian helped her to give me a hard time."

"This isn't as simple as that. This is bullying." Lu Heting rested his chin on her head.

"Then I'll wait for Beauty to give me an explanation." Su Bei snuggled into his arms, feeling content. It was nothing much. However, it felt good to have a man beside her and support her in everything that she did.'

Lu Heting stayed in the room with Su Bei throughout the afternoon and night.

Before Lu Hang could contact the editorial department of Beauty, Old Master Tang had already called them and scolded them. He questioned their working ethics.

The video of Su Bei rolling in the snow and the video of Xiao Bai requesting a break for Su Bei but was rejected was shown to Beauty, making the chief editor furious.

No matter which industry they were in, respecting each other was a basic rule. No one could use work to bully others.

Huang Zhixian was summoned back and punished severely.

As for the cover of the new issue of Beauty, as the photos were taken in the snow and Su Bei looked very spirited despite the cold environment, they had high aesthetic value. It was impressive that she could maintain her expression and keep her limbs flexible despite the freezing temperature.

The chief editor immediately decided to use the photos that had already been taken. Su Bei did not need to continue taking any more photos. In addition, the magazine would publish all the photos that Su Bei had taken this time. It would be considered as Beauty's apology to Su Bei' regarding this unfortunate incident that happened during their collaboration. It also expressed the chief editor's love for this series of photos.

When the news came, Su Bei was a little surprised. "The photos have been selected? We're not taking any more photos?"

"The chief editor personally agreed to it. They're a fan of the photos you took. I'm sorry, Su Bei. I was negligent, causing such a situation to happen." Yue Ze was apologetic. If he had been around during the shoot, things would have been much better. Huang Zhixian might not have dared to act so recklessly.

"It's okay. It's all in the past." Su Bei's tone was very relaxed.

When Lu Heting heard this, he was slightly satisfied with Beauty's solution. They were fair and reasonable.

No one in Beauty knew that they were almost on the verge of bankruptcy earlier. It was the chief editor's reasonable decision that saved the entire company.

Su Bei put away her phone and said to Lu Heting, "Beauty has made reasonable arrangements. You should be relieved now, right?"

"Mm." Lu Heting nodded.

"Then let's go look at the snow, make snowmen, and take photos in the snow, shall we? I don't have any other plans for the next few days but Brother Yue Ze booked this hotel room for two nights."

Chapter 610: A Familiar Voice

"Okay." Lu Heting ruffled the woman's hair. She was always so happy-go-lucky and didn't have any worries about the things that had already happened. She was always able to recollect herself very quickly, which made him want to spoil her even more.

Lu Heting had already arranged for everyone to be cleared away from the spot with the best scenery and snow outside the hotel. The surroundings were empty, and the rest of the tourists were far away.

Su Bei was in high spirits. She piled up a few snowmen, brushed a little snow onto Lu Heting's nose, and took many pictures of him.

"Let's take a picture together." Su Bei adjusted her phone and leaned on his shoulder, taking several selfies of the two of them.

In the photo, Lu Heting's expression was a little serious because he didn't like taking photos, but the love and adoration in his eyes were obvious.

Su Bei and Lu Heting happily returned to their hotel room.

At that moment, Xiao Bai ran over and knocked on the door.

Su Bei opened the door. Xiao Bai wanted to look into the room with a curious look but she felt embarrassed to do so.

Su Bei knew what she was thinking and could not help but smile. "What's up, Xiao Bai?"

"Su Bei, there was an old man yesterday. He left a number for you and asked you to call him."

"Who is he?"

"I don't know either, but from the looks of it, his status should be quite high. He was the one who helped you out with the incident with Huang Zhixian yesterday."

Su Bei had already heard from Lu Heting about someone else helping her out.

However, Lu Heting had forcefully brought her back to the hotel after that, so she didn't have the chance to see who it was who helped her out.

Su Bei took the phone number and said, "Okay, let me take it."

She closed the door and was holding the handwritten phone. "That's odd," she said. "Why would he want me to look for him? But it's only right that I thank him."

"Let's go see him," Lu Heting said, lowering his eyes to hide the worry in them.

He naturally knew that it was Old Master Tang, the old man who had always wanted to reunite with Su Bei but had been lingering around.

The Tang family's actions naturally made Lu Heting worried about the situation Su Bei would face when she returned to her family, not to mention the existence of Tang Yue.

However, it was Su Bei's family, after all. Her own family... Although she did not say it out loud, Lu Heting knew that she still had a longing for her family.

A person with an unhappy childhood would have to spend the rest of their life healing their trauma.

"Yeah, I'll call him right now and ask him to meet at the cafe in the hotel." Su Bei nodded.

The call went through and an old man's voice sounded from the other end. "Is this Su Bei?"

His voice carried obvious delight.

"Hello, you helped me out yesterday and even left me your number to call. Can we meet at the cafe in the hotel?"

"Of course." Old Master Tang agreed.

Su Bei put down the phone and said, "How strange. I find his voice a little familiar."

However, she couldn't recall where she had heard this voice before.

“I won’t go with you. I’ll wait for you at the side.” Lu Heting tidied her collar carefully. She was just going downstairs, but he still put on a thick cashmere jacket for her.

When he carried the woman back from the icy snow that day, her cold body had made his heart turn cold as well.
