

Chapter 621: Hubby, They're Calling You Old

Su Bei said in a low voice, "Okay then, your dad and I agree. However, we have to set a time. When that time comes, you have to come home, okay?"

"Okay." Da Bao agreed.

Su Bei hung up the phone and felt a little guilty toward Lu Heting. Although it was Da Bao's opinion, it was also because of what had happened to her that caused the current situation.

"Let's go." Lu Heting held her hand without saying anything else.

"Don't you have anything to say?" Su Bei caught up to him.

Lu Heting stopped in his tracks and lowered his eyes to look at her. "Should I say that I don't want Da Bao to stay? Or that he did something wrong? Da Bao is right. That's his freedom. I'm very glad that he values relationships so much. You were right back then too. There were so many friends who accompanied you. Now that I think about it, I don't have to worry too much about your past. These are the people you and Da Bao care about. I don't have the right to say anything."

Although he was jealous, he still had to respect her and Da Bao's choice.

Su Bei took a few steps to his side and held his arm. His words were so reasonable and affectionate that she didn't know what to say.

Lu Heting stroked her long chestnut hair. "Let's go."

She did not have to pick up Da Bao. She had to return home first.

She did not go back with Yue Ze and Xiao Bai.

After boarding the plane, Su Bei saw the situation on the internet.

Her invitations to the four major shows that she so painstakingly got were said to be because of an old man.

They said that the New Year's cover for Beauty Magazine was also snatched for her by the old man.

All the jobs she got were because of the old man.

Su Bei held her phone and looked at Lu Heting pitifully. "Hubby, they're calling you old."

Lu Heting reached out to hold her hand and led her to their seats. This was a first-class cabin, so every seat was huge.

"It's not up to them to say whether I'm old or not." Lu Heting planted a kiss on her lips.

He had witnessed Su Bei's hard work all this while. But in the outside world, this was what they were saying about it?

They were saying that she was an incompetent woman who relied on an old man to climb up the social ladder?

This time, Lu Heting would not let the culprit go.

Su Bei nestled in Lu Heting's arms as she continued to scroll through her phone. "It looks like Hao Jiali and Jian Ping did it. My recent results are a direct threat to them. I've already contacted Brother Yue Ze to find out who did it. If it's really Hao Jiali..."

It turned out that the woman had the same idea as him. They were both investigating the mastermind behind this.

This time, the culprit would not have it easy.

Lu Heting took the phone out of her hand and said in a low voice, "Don't look anymore. Filthy words hurt your eyes."

Su Bei looked at him with a smile and said, "No, everything I read are compliments about me."

Lu Heting hugged her and pressed her face against his handsome face. He was relieved and heartbroken that a woman could think like this and maintain a good attitude despite such a complicated situation.

Knowing that Su Bei had returned from America, the reporters already surrounded the entire airport.

Recently, she was a popular model and had the most scandals, so she naturally attracted countless attention..

Chapter 622: Are You Worthy Of Your Profession?

The reporters couldn't wait to take photos to verify their different guesses.

When they were about to get off the plane, Su Bei said to Lu Heting, "Let's split up. I'll meet up with Brother Yue Ze and Xiao Bai first."

After all, he wasn't from this circle. Su Bei didn't want him to be implicated. There were so many reporters outside. She had a lot of experience dealing with them, but Lu Heting shouldn't have to bear the responsibility.

"I'll go with you." Lu Heting was determined.

When she was not in danger, he was willing to be the unknown man behind her even if his name would not be known.

However, since she would be facing so many questions this time, he could not let go of her hand.

"But..."

"No buts. Let's go together." Lu Heting put on his cap and mask before wrapping her scarf around her.

In order not to bring trouble to Su Bei, he dressed himself up as a bodyguard.

When she needed a driver, he was her driver. When she needed a bodyguard, he was her bodyguard.

However, what he wanted to do the most was still be her husband.

When Lu Heting came out with Su Bei in his arms, the reporters outside swarmed over.

With Su Bei's impressive height, she was indeed unable to escape the sharp eyes of the reporters who came crashing over.

"Su Bei, I heard that your previous resources were obtained for you by someone behind the scenes. Is that true?"

"Why do you think you could get the resources for the four fashion weeks?"

"Can you explain why everyone is concerned about your personal problems?"

"Su Bei, over here..."

"Su Bei, look over here..."

The crowd was like a tide. It was so crowded that it was impossible to hear the reporters' questions clearly. However, the words with malicious intent and gossip were still very ear-piercing.

Lu Heting protected Su Bei and walked past the crowd of reporters.

However, the reporters did not let them off and continued to chase after them.

At this moment, a row of luxury cars stopped outside. A hale and hearty elderly man alighted from the car, followed by a row of bodyguards.

A reporter noticed the old man and immediately looked over.

Seeing that this old man had an extraordinary aura and had so many bodyguards with him, it was obvious that he was very rich. Someone immediately muttered, "Could this be Su Bei's backer?"

"Isn't he afraid of blinding the eyes of the crowd with such a grand display?"

"Could those revelations be true?!"

Someone was about to film the old man but was stopped by the bodyguards behind him.

The old man walked straight toward Su Bei.

This caused a huge commotion. "Oh my God, this can't be real, right? This is too explosive!"

"It's too bold, I can't accept it!"

"Su Bei's image in my heart is completely destroyed."

Someone immediately recognized this person as Old Master Tang from Tang Corporation and said in a low voice, "This is Old Master Tang. Strictly speaking, Sheng Tang Entertainment is also his family's property, so Su Bei is..."

"Could he be the biggest boss in the company?"

"What nonsense are you talking about?!" Old Master Tang pointed at the nearest reporter and snapped, "You're talking nonsense without any evidence. Are you worthy of your profession?"

The reporter took a few steps back, their face flushing red..

Chapter 623: She's My Granddaughter

After all, the other reporters did not want to offend an elder with so much power in the industry, so they stopped their inappropriate discussions.

However, this could not stop their wild imaginations.

Old Master Tang approached Su Bei and looked around.

There were many doubts in everyone's eyes.

Su Bei did not expect Old Master Tang to personally come and pick her up.

Old Master Tang then said to the crowd, "Everyone knows that Su Bei is not a member of the Su family. The previous scandal has clarified this point. Now, I want to tell everyone that Su Bei is a member of the Tang family and my granddaughter!"

When Old Master Tang said that, someone remembered something and said, "Oh, I remember. Many years ago, the Tang family lost a little girl. It was Old Master Tang's youngest granddaughter. Could Su Bei be the missing little girl?"

A few older reporters had an impression of this. "I remember now too. Back then, my editor-in-chief told me about it when I first entered the industry but the Tang Family never found this child. Have they found her now?"

Someone immediately took out his phone and said, "Look, these are the photos left behind by the Tang family and the photo taken by the Su family. The two little girls in the photos are really the same person!"

Old Master Tang waited for everyone to look for the evidence on their own before saying, "You're right. Back then, the Tang family lost our granddaughter, Su Bei. The little girl that our Tang family has been looking for for 20 years is Su Bei. The heavens took pity on us, and we finally found her. So, I'd like to ask how those false rumors were spread?"

The reporters' faces turned red. Old Master Tang was interrogating them. The little scandal had blown up, but the people responsible for it couldn't find any solid evidence.

Old Master Tang said loudly, "Su Bei is my biological granddaughter. I've only recently found out about it, but I haven't taken her home yet. I can tell you that the rumors about her are all untrue! Not only did Su Bei not rely on anyone to get her resources but she didn't even rely on me! Whether it's the four fashion shows or other jobs, she fought for them herself."

The reporters nodded their heads. They believed Old Master Tang's words.

Since Su Bei was a member of the Tang family, why would she need to rely on her body to climb up the ladder?

Even if the Tang family did help Su Bei get those resources, so what? Was it wrong for her family to help her fight for resources?

After knowing that Su Bei was a child of the Tang family, everyone seemed to be more cautious of their words and behavior. No matter how they looked at her now, she looked like a rich young lady. Even though she was also a rich young lady before, it was terrifying how people could be so easily influenced. They only believed in what they thought and not the truth.

“What rumors about an old man? I hope this is the last time I hear about them! As Su Bei’s grandfather, I don’t wish to see such unfounded gossip!” Old Master Tang was very protective of Su Bei.

The reporters immediately made way for them to leave..

Chapter 625: Breaking The Pact

He would bring her home one day.

As for the man beside her, Old Master Tang had never felt that it was so difficult to see through someone. It was not because of his disguise but because his aura and identity were too contradictory and complicated. It made Old Master Tang lose his ability to judge.

He only hoped that the man beside Su Bei would not have any problems with his character.

At this time, a document was placed on Zhao Xingtian’s desk.

It detailed how hardworking Hao Jiali was. Compared to Su Bei, she was indeed a hundred times more hardworking. Sometimes, she would even walk eight shows a day, take on many endorsements, and even attend many rehearsals.

However, at least six out of the eight shows she did were all shows involving WeChat, real estate, and so on. Shengtang Entertainment and other official entertainment companies did not allow their models who were on the rise in their careers to participate in these shows. This was because many WeChat models did not have the qualifications, and taking real estate jobs would obviously lower the standards of a model who could step onto the world stage.

Therefore, most of the jobs that Jian Ping and Hao Jiali took were actually not allowed by the company. The money they earned from there went into their own pockets.

S Country was very big, and there were many places in the country, so their activities would not appear in mainstream news. Hao Jiali wasn’t very popular, so Sheng Tang hadn’t found out what she and Jian Ping had been doing.

At this point, Zhao Xingtian slammed the table and rose to his feet. “Those scumbags! They use the company to boost their resources and earn extra money for their own wallets. Is this the kind of artist Sheng Tang has produced?”

Although he had his own flaws, he didn’t want to see his newly signed artist be like this.

For a man like him, it was normal for him to have double standards. He only hoped that his investment would be able to get the greatest returns. He didn't want the talents he spent money to support earning money that wouldn't go into his pockets.

It was Lu Heting who gave Zhao Xingtian the information he collected.

On the other side, Jian Ping and Hao Jiali arrived at Tang Yue's office as soon as they received the invitation for Milan Fashion Week.

Tang Yue passed the new contract to Jian Ping and said, "You can sign your renewal contract now."

"I'm sorry, President Tang. Jiali and I are not renewing our contracts."

"What?" Tang Yue slammed her hands on the table as she stood up. "Why? I worked so hard to get the Milan Fashion Week show for you guys, but now you're both breaking the contracts?"

"It's not like that, President Tang. Our contract has expired, so we're just choosing not to renew it. How can it be called breaking the contract? Besides, Jiali was the one who went to the interview to get Milan Fashion Week. You can't say that it's all because of you, right?" Jian Ping had found a new company, so she was fearless.

Moreover, after getting the contract for Milan Fashion Week, everything would basically be finalized and there wouldn't be any changes. That was why she dared to do this.

Jian Ping continued, "You should give the remaining resources to Su Bei! We don't need them."

"Do you think that Su Bei's resources were all given by me? Do you think all four fashion shows were given to Su Bei by me? Do you think I'm suppressing you guys because of her?"

Chapter 626: His Way Of Protecting Su Bei

Tang Yue was really angered to death. She had clearly been digging for resources for the two of them, but in the end, she did not get anything out of it and was even misunderstood.

In fact, it was because she had been too confident in the beginning that she asked Jian Ping and Hao Jiali to follow her while she would suppress Su Bei.

In the end, not only did Su Bei not get suppressed but she even soared higher. Meanwhile, Jian Ping and Hao Jiali thought that she was not doing her best.

It was impossible for her to explain to Jian Ping that she had tried her best but failed to achieve her goal. It was her own incompetence.

Jian Ping pushed the contracts back. "Anyway, President Tang, our fate has come to an end. Jiali and I will not renew our contracts."

Jian Ping and Hao Jiali then left Tang Yue's office.

They went straight to Xingtian Entertainment.

Today was the day they would sign the contracts with Zhao Xingtian. Logically speaking, Zhao Xingtian should have already handled the contracts and was just waiting for them to sign the papers.

However, Zhao Xingtian refused to see them. The other employees in the company didn't treat Jian Ping and Hao Jiali well either.

As for the minor models, they even showed their disdain against them.

Jian Ping panicked. She immediately called Zhao Xingtian but couldn't get through to him.

She glanced at Hao Jiali, who said, "Don't worry. I'll send him a WeChat message first. We talked about it last night."

"Contact him, then," Jian Ping said.

Although Hao Jiali said that they didn't need to worry, she was nervous. She was just comforting Jian Ping and herself.

She sent a message to Zhao Xingtian.

Zhao Xingtian replied directly: [I'm sorry, but you should stay in Sheng Tang. Our company can't afford a supermodel like you.]

[President Zhao, that's not what you said last night.] Hao Jiali panicked. The reason why she and Jian Ping fell out with Tang Yue before they signed their contracts was that Zhao Xingtian had promised her when they were in bed last night. He even said he would get her a lot of resources.

Now, Zhao Xingtian was actually going back on his word?

[Hao Jiali, don't you like to take on jobs from Weibo and in the real estate industry? We can't afford such a model. You and Jian Ping should develop on your own. We can part peacefully.] Zhao Xingtian was merciless.

After that, Hao Jiali sent another message only to discover that she had been blocked.

Jian Ping's face was pale too. The two of them wanted to cry but had no tears.

They had indeed taken many jobs as they only wanted money and did not think about fame. They secretly made a lot of money behind the company's back, but how were these things exposed at this time?

How did Zhao Xingtian find out?

Moreover, wasn't Su Bei also walking shows for money? Why could she do it? Why couldn't they?

They did not know the saying, 'If you don't want others to know, don't do it.'

They didn't want to know that even if Su Bei took on a show to earn quick money, she would never go against her and the company's bottom lines. She always took upright jobs and did not just accept any show to earn any money.

It was impossible for the two of them to go back to Sheng Tang now, nor did they have any evidence to sue Zhao Xingtian for breaching the contract. Hao Jiali had sacrificed her body and everything she had in exchange for such an ending.

This was Lu Heting's way of protecting Su Bei. No one could create something out of nothing and slander Su Bei's reputation.. Otherwise, they would die an ugly death.

Chapter 627: Beat Him To Death

As New Year's approached, Da Bao continued to stay in America.

After Su Bei's work came to an end, she went to the orphanage and sent many necessities as well as donated a large sum of money.

This was the orphanage she lived in for several years when she was young. It was also where she met Feng Ze and the others.

When she was overseas, she would send a sum of money back from time to time.

After leaving the orphanage, she walked as she did not drive over. She wanted to relive the feeling of running on this path when she was young.

As she walked, she felt someone following her.

Were they reporters or paparazzi?

Su Bei had put on a disguise before coming to the orphanage. Logically speaking, no one would be able to recognize her.

She was very experienced in getting rid of these people, so she immediately quickened her pace and walked forward.

However, the person behind her also quickened their pace. If she walked fast, so did the person. If she slowed down, so did the person.

She glanced over her shoulder. The man behind her was disheveled, and his clothes were ragged. He had his mouth open. He hurried after her, holding something in his hand and looking as if he wanted to speak to her.

As she was looking back, Su Bei was a few steps slower and that person caught up to her. He ran toward Su Bei.

Suddenly, a group of people rushed out from all directions. They pressed that person to the ground and beat him up. As they beat him up, they said, "It's him! He never learns his lesson. He's always sneaking around on this street, chasing girls whenever he sees them! Last time, my sister was also chased after by him!"

"He chased after my wife too! Beat him to death!"

"Kill him! Kill him!"

It turned out to be a perverted man who often took liberties with passersby. Since that was the case, Su Bei decided to ignore it. It was fortunate that she had met this group of people. Otherwise, something frightening might have happened.

However, when Su Bei turned to leave, she realized that the wretched man was holding something shiny. It looked familiar.

She reached out to touch her neck and realized that her necklace was missing.

She came to the orphanage after attending an event, so the necklace on her neck belonged to the company. Although it wasn't very expensive, it would be troublesome if she lost it. She would have to get Yue Ze to cover for her.

Could it be that the wretched man was following her not to harass her but to return the necklace to her?

"Stop fighting!" Su Bei quickly stopped them.

These people were especially heavy-handed. The person was about to faint.

Those people said to Su Bei, "Little girl, you have to be careful. It would've been hard for you if you had encountered a person like this alone."

"Why don't you call the police? If you fight like this, you'll beat him to death," Su Bei said with a frown.

Those people said, "We've reported it before, but it's a pity that this person's crimes are always not conclusive. It's useless even if we report it, but he'll appear again every few days."

"This kind of person will only be honest after being beaten up. The law can't restrain him."

Hearing that, it seemed like this person may not actually be a pervert who harasses girls after all?

Seeing that the man had been beaten up, the group of people said to Su Bei, "Be careful. We're leaving now."

As they didn't want to be punished, everyone dispersed.

That man was still holding the necklace in his hand, desperately wanting to hand it to Su Bei.

Su Bei reached out and took it. It was indeed her necklace. In that case, these people had really wronged him.. He was only following her to give her the necklace.

Chapter 628: Fainted From Hunger

Seeing Su Bei take the necklace, a smile appeared on the man's face. Then, he tilted his head and fainted.

"Hey!" Su Bei quickly reached out to check his breathing and found that he was still breathing. She breathed a sigh of relief and quickly called the emergency number.

When they reached the hospital, Su Bei did not leave.

She was involved in this matter, so she had to wait for this man to wake up.

After a while, the nurse walked in with a basin and a towel. She came out with some muddy dirty water.

After Su Bei went to pay, she saw a few nurses gathered together and discussing something in low voices. Some of the nurses were blushing with embarrassed looks on their faces.

“He’s so handsome.”

“Yeah, I’ve never seen someone like that before.”

“Let me see. It’s true!”

Seeing Su Bei, they dispersed and went to attend to other matters.

Su Bei pushed open the door and almost thought that she entered the wrong ward. After she exited and looked at the door number, she realized that she had not entered the wrong ward.

But where was that dirty, bloody, and wretched man? He was gone!

In his place was a handsome young man with fair and attractive facial features. He was lying on the hospital bed. From the scars on his face, one could tell that he was the man from before.

It was as if the nurse had brought in a basin of celestial water that changed the man’s appearance.

It turned out that the nurses earlier were gathered here to look at this handsome man.

The doctor said to Su Bei, “The good thing is that the patient’s wounds are all superficial and he did not injure his muscles and bones. He’ll recover after some rest.”

“But why did he faint?”

“Long-term malnutrition. Maybe... he fainted from hunger.” The doctor looked up at Su Bei. “Prepare some food for him.”

These days, there were actually people who fainted from hunger.

Su Bei did not expect that someone who was not knocked out by the beatings would actually faint from hunger.

She quickly went out to buy some food. Just then, the man woke up.

As soon as he woke up, he waved his hands at Su Bei with an anxious expression as if he was telling her something.

“Are you talking about the necklace?” Su Bei took out the necklace and held it in her palm. “You’ve already given it to me. I already took it from you before you fainted. Don’t worry.”

Hearing this, he calmed down and gulped.

Su Bei placed all the food in front of him and said, “Eat.”

He seemed to hesitate for a moment, but looking at Su Bei’s unfathomable smile, the doubts in his heart dissipated. He picked up the food and wolfed it down.

Su Bei thought of how she had misunderstood him and felt rather guilty about it. She got some water and handed it to him. Without any hesitation, the man drank it with large gulps. He choked on the water and coughed loudly.

“It’s all yours. Don’t panic.” Su Bei reassured him.

She walked a little farther away, not wanting to see him eat and leaving him with enough dignity.

Su Bei waited until he was almost full before returning. She walked to his side and said, “You were chasing me because you wanted to return the necklace to me, right?”

The man nodded.

“Then, those people who beat you up said that you chased their sisters and wives or something. It must be a misunderstanding, right? You wouldn’t do something like that.”

Su Bei did not have any evidence. It was just that this starving man had picked up her necklace but did not demand food. Instead, he even got beaten up just to give her back the necklace.. It showed that he was not a bad person.

Chapter 629: I Don’t Have A Home

Although her necklace was the company’s and not worth much, she would still have treated him to a few delicious meals for it.

The man was still in a daze. When he heard Su Bei’s words, his eyes suddenly turned red as if someone finally trusted him and understood him.

When he received the food just now, he only showed a little gratitude.

Only at this moment did he reveal his vulnerability, and his eyes turned moist.

He reached out to Su Bei.

Su Bei did not understand what he meant. He waved his hand anxiously and wanted to say something but could not.

Su Bei thought of the necklace and took it out again before handing it to him. The necklace was not in good shape as it had been knocked against, so there were a few faulty areas. The hooks were also worn out now. This was the reason why the necklace had fallen and also why Su Bei was not wearing it now.

After receiving the necklace, he quickly placed it on a nearby table. He picked up some tools that couldn’t really be called tools. It was a toothpick that was taken out of a fast food packaging. He quickly fiddled with the things.

Su Bei saw that he seemed to want to speak but did not know how to. She recalled that she had also suffered from aphasia back then.

At the time, she had lost count of the number of times she had been sent to the orphanage. Due to her father’s face and the discussions outside, Su Bei was unable to make a sound or speak.

The doctor said that she was suffering from a psychological disorder and needed to be nursed back to health.

Su Xingfu did not have the time to care about Su Bei, while Xu Zhiqin and Su Huixian hated her to the core. Almost no one in the Su family cared about her.

That was when Du Luo extended his hand to her and gave her warmth. It made her take a liking to him, and that was when she first experienced love.

It was also the reason why she firmly believed that she would not marry anyone other than him.

She thought that perhaps this man in front of her had also experienced something and found it hard to speak now.

Just as she was thinking about it, the man handed her the necklace again. Su Bei took it and looked at it. She could not help but be surprised. He had somehow managed to fix the damaged parts of the necklace.

There were no professional tools or items. He merely took some things that could be used and restored the necklace that was damaged.

Su Bei really did not know how he did it.

This was too amazing!

Thinking about this, Su Bei asked for a pen and paper from the nurse before placing them in front of him. "Do you know how to write? If you do, tell me where your family is. I'll help you contact them."

'I didn't chase those girls because I wanted to do something bad. It's because I saw that their accessories were damaged and about to fall off.' He wrote this sentence on the paper.

It was really similar to what Su Bei had thought, but there seemed to be something off with this man's mind. He was beaten up so many times because of such a small matter.

He then answered Su Bei's question and wrote: 'I don't have a home. I don't know where to go.'

His handwriting was neat and tidy. He looked like he was an educated man.

However, since he said that he had no home, that was probably the case.

Besides, some people had a home but it was no different from not having one..

Chapter 630: Su Bei Wants To Move Out?

"Then stay in the hospital for now. The doctor said you still need to recuperate for two more days," Su Bei said.

The man was clearly flustered. He was at a loss and wanted to hold her back, but he did not dare to reach out for fear of offending her.

His eyes were suddenly filled with helplessness and fear.

Su Bei had seen this look too many times. In the orphanage, almost every child had this look.

Even Lin Yu and Gu Xifeng, who were powerful enough to protect themselves, would occasionally show such a look.

She comforted him, saying, "It's okay. I'll come over and help you. Trust me, okay?"

He put down his uneasy hands, but the look in his eyes could not be erased.

Su Bei found the phone number of the property management in her neighborhood and called them, asking if there were any houses in the neighborhood that she could rent.

Apart from not knowing how to speak, the man in front of her looked fine. If he just had a speech disorder, he would recover quickly.

He seemed to have the ability to make a living for himself, but he urgently needed someone to help him.

When the property management received Su Bei's call, they did not dare to delay and asked, "Miss Su Bei, do you want to rent a house?"

"I'm going to rent it for a friend," Su Bei replied. She did not know where to rent a house at the moment, so she could only ask the property management.

The person from the property management said, "Please wait for a moment. We need to check it first. If there's any news, we'll call you back."

"Then I'll have to trouble you guys for this. Even if it's not our neighborhood, it's fine if it's nearby. Please help me check if there are any suitable ones."

"Okay, okay. We'll reply to you as soon as possible."

After the person from the property management hung up, they quickly called Lu Hang to report it to him.

Lu Hang didn't dare to delay and quickly reported it to Lu Heting.

He was a little hesitant. What was Young Madam trying to do by renting a new house? Could it be that she had a fight with Mr. Lu and was planning to move out? Was she renting a new house for Mr. Lu?

This fight was a little too extreme, no?

Lu Hang thought about it for a while and reported the news nervously.

Lu Heting was reading some documents when he heard Lu Hang's words. A trace of doubt appeared on his cold face.

Da Bao and Gun Gun had not been around for the past two days. It was not easy for him to move into the master bedroom. With the privilege of being the master of the house now, his quality of sleep for the past two nights was much better. Now, Su Bei suddenly wanted to rent another house. What was going on?

"Alright, I got it. You can leave now. I'll give you an answer in three minutes." Lu Heting pinched the space between his eyebrows. Did he not perform well enough, or did something go wrong?

If Su Bei knew what he was thinking, she would definitely protest. ‘You’re already doing so well, Mr. Lu!’

If he was any better, he would not be able to take it anymore!

Lu Hang could only go out skeptically.

Lu Heting decided to call his woman and ask about it.

Su Bei received Lu Heting’s call and sweetly called out, “Hubby!”

Her words melted Lu Heting’s heart, and his back relaxed. A gentle look appeared on his face, and he said softly, “When I passed by the property management, I heard that you’re looking for a house to rent?”

“Wow, you’re really well-informed. It’s only been a few minutes since I told them.”

Lu Heting cleared his throat. “I went to pay the property management fee.. They know me pretty well.”
