

Chapter 711: Settling It With Hotpot?

“Why can’t I come? As the second male lead of Two Phoenixes, what’s wrong with me coming to visit a colleague?” Lin Yu said matter-of-factly. He sat down beside Su Bei’s bed and held her hand. “Dislocated arm? How is it now? Are you feeling better?”

Lu Heting slapped him away mercilessly.

Lin Yu retracted his hand angrily. Su Bei quickly said, “I’m fine. I can be discharged tomorrow.”

She gave him a puzzled look. “You’re the second male lead? Why don’t I know about it? When did this happen?”

“Director Guo Feng thinks highly of me and has been trying his best to have me join the cast. I was too lazy to join at first, but seeing his sincerity and after reading about the second male lead’s character, I decided to join.”

“You just wanted to come back for hotpot, right?” Su Bei looked like she had seen through everything.

Lin Yu’s heart skipped a beat. “How did you know? No, how did you know that Director Guo Feng promised me that he would bring me to the new restaurant that one can’t dine in even if one lines up?”

Su Bei really did not want to talk to him anymore. It was indeed for hotpot.

What sincerity? What reading about the second male lead’s character? None of them were as tempting as hotpot, right?

‘If you want to eat, just say so. Why do you have to come up with so many dignified reasons?’

“Speaking of which, how could the production team be so careless that they ended up hurting you?” Lin Yu looked at Su Bei with a little heartache.

“It’s not the production team’s fault,” Lu Heting replied. He had already looked through all the information while Su Bei was asleep.

“So it’s your problem? Is this how you’ve been taking care of Su Bei after she was handed to you?” Lin Yu looked at Lu Heting unhappily. “If that’s the case, you might as well return her to us. Hmph.”

“Lin Stone, it has nothing to do with Lu Heting!” Su Bei stopped him from continuing.

Lin Yu glanced at Lu Heting. “Su Bei is being scolded so badly online, but you’re just here feeding her? Can you solve the problem or not? If you can’t, I’ll do it!”

Lu Heting asked coldly, “Are you going to settle it with hotpot?”

“...” Lin Yu was silent.

Su Bei smiled proudly. Lu Heting also knew how to use this point to attack Lin Yu!

“Lu Hang,” Lu Heting called out his name.

"I'm here. Is there anything I can help you with? Lu... Lu Heting?" It was tough for Lu Heting to address Mr. Lu by his full name but he had no choice. After all, Mr. Lu needed to act like a normal person in front of Young Madam.

Therefore, Lu Hang could only pretend to be Lu Heting's colleague. Acting in front of Mr. Lu was really a test of his acting skills.

Lin Yu looked at Lu Hang in surprise. He and Lu Heting were just colleagues? Was there something wrong with the hotpot he ate, or was there something wrong with the way he entered?

"Please help me contact the media and tell them that Su Bei has something to clarify. It'll be held tomorrow when Su Bei is discharged." Lu Heting tried his best to speak to Lu Hang in a gentle voice.

Lu Hang started to panic when he heard that. He was indeed only qualified to be an assistant. When he heard Mr. Lu give out orders coldly, he would still be in a good mood. When he heard Mr. Lu speak to him so politely, Lu Hang felt really uncomfortable.

Lu Hang wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes. He was indeed destined to just be an assistant!

"I'll send some information and contact details to your WeChat later. Sorry to trouble you," Lu Heting added.

Lu Hang quickly nodded. "O-Okay.. I'll do my best to help."

Chapter 712: The Ten Times Su Bei Hurt Fang Yourong

Lu Hang was drenched in sweat after barely dealing with everything.

It was indeed not easy being an actor!

Lu Hang's acting was not bad, so Su Bei did not notice any problems. She only felt that the pair of colleagues were helping each other and were quite friendly.

"You've already prepared something to clarify things for me? I even told Brother Yue Ze to find some time to come over and go through the documents with me."

Lu Heting nodded. "Didn't you say that you'll let me be your temporary manager for the next two months? I'll take care of your matters."

"Lu Heting, you're really amazing!" Su Bei felt that her husband was really an all-rounder. He could do anything and everything.

Lin Yu was going to slip away. It had only been a few days since he last met her but Su Bei had already completely fallen for that man's tricks. He didn't want to see any more PDA.

"Lin Stone, where are you going?" Su Bei noticed that he was leaving.

"I'm going to find someone to eat hotpot with." After all, it was frustrating to watch their PDA.

Su Bei shrugged. "Alright, then."

“With Lu Heting around, do you still have the heart to care about me?” Lin Yu walked away resentfully.

Su Bei looked away. “Lu Heting, what information do you have? Do you want me to take a look?”

“No need. Just lie down and rest. No matter who did this to you, they won’t escape so easily.” Lu Heting had finished reading the information and was prepared.

Su Bei patted the bed. “Since you have nothing else to do, you should quickly go to sleep.”

“I’ll just sit next to you.” Lu Heting’s eyes darkened. The hospital bed was too small for him...

“I told you to come up, so come up.” Su Bei reached out to pull him back. “How can you rest well while sitting? I want you to come lay with me and we’ll video call Da Bao to reassure the two children.”

Lu Heting could only follow the woman’s request and get on the bed. Su Bei got closer to him, took out her phone, and called Da Bao’s WeChat number.

Lu Heting then realized that the two of them didn’t occupy much space together.

That night, the internet was still abuzz with rumors about Su Bei hurting Fang Yourong.

One by one, the news spread like wildfire.

A post titled ‘The Ten Times Su Bei Hurt Fang Yourong’ compiled all the matters between Su Bei and Fang Yourong. It was published on the internet for people to read. The number of readers had reached tens of millions.

The delivery company’s staff also saw that Fang Yourong was seriously injured and that Su Bei was being accused. Out of righteous indignation, they used the internal system to investigate the delivery information of the package that caused Fang Yourong’s allergy.

He took a screenshot and posted it online. “The person who sent the package was indeed Su Bei! At most, I won’t work for this company anymore. I choose to expose her evil deeds! She triggered Fang Yourong’s allergy and caused her to fall off a cliff and get injured! I really can’t imagine that a beautiful woman would be so vicious!”

Everyone immediately went to look at the screenshot from the delivery company’s internal system. When they saw Su Bei’s name, they were all agitated.

“Anyway, this is all I have to say. I’ll firmly boycott Su Bei’s movie!”

“As someone with a conscience, I also object to Su Bei’s actions.”

“I really like Su Bei, but if she hurt Fang Yourong, the education I’ve received over the years tells me that I shouldn’t be supporting such a criminal.”

Many people felt conflicted.. They liked Su Bei but also had a conscience.

Chapter 713: I Was So Frustrated

Therefore, when they heard from the media that Su Bei would hold a press conference when she was discharged the next day, everyone waited for an explanation and an outcome.

The next morning, Su Bei could be discharged after having breakfast.

In the main hall of the hospital, her appearance caused a sensation among the reporters who had been waiting there for a long time.

Immediately, the reporters gathered around, all wanting to get first-hand information.

At this moment, Director Guo Feng and Xiao Bai arrived at the scene under Lu Heting's notice.

Su Bei said to the reporters, "Don't worry, I'll answer all your questions."

Director Guo Feng and Xiao Bai rushed to Su Bei's side to protect her.

Lu Heting was always there, protecting Su Bei as a bodyguard.

"However, this is the hospital. Please do not interfere with the activities of other patients and their families. Let's go to the hospital's conference hall," Su Bei said and took the lead to walk over.

The reporters couldn't wait to find out the truth.

Su Bei stood on stage and greeted everyone before saying, "Everyone knows that many things have happened between me and Fang Yourong during this period. So today, I will explain everything here.

"First of all, Director Guo Feng will explain the matter about me wanting to steal the female lead role from Fang Yourong."

No one expected such an opening. They could only look at Director Guo Feng now.

Director Guo Feng stood up and said, "From the start of my preparations for this movie, Su Bei was one of the female leads that I was considering. Everyone knows that I previously worked with Su Bei for a commercial before. In the commercial, Su Bei's appearance in ancient costume fascinated me and I grew to admire her very much. This script could be said to be tailored for Su Bei."

The reporters couldn't help but be surprised because they really didn't expect Director Guo Feng to write the script with Su Bei in mind. At that time, not to mention in the film industry, Su Bei wasn't even famous in the modeling industry yet, right?

"I know that everyone is surprised. Even Su Bei herself had hesitations. I tried to contact Su Bei several times to act in the movie, but she rejected me each time. It was only when Two Phoenixes started filming that I looked for Su Bei again and sent her the script.

"Who knew that when I got the contract ready, she chose the role of Ni Huang. I was so frustrated."

Director Guo Feng suddenly said something that made the reporters laugh.

Immediately after, Director Guo Feng showed the contract he had prepared for Su Bei at that time. She was clearly offered the role of the female lead. The official stamp was clearly stamped on it, and the date was also very clear. It was before the filming began.

Director Guo Feng said, "This matter can't prove anything else, but it can at least prove one thing. That is, Su Bei didn't harm anyone because she wanted the female lead role. She had the right to choose whatever role she wanted for this movie. Back then, she rejected the female lead role and chose to be the second female lead. If she really wanted to be the female lead, why did she reject me back then?"

The reporters couldn't help but nod their heads. Director Guo Feng's words had indeed proved that Su Bei would not harm others because she wanted to be the female lead.

"Then what about Fang Yourong's allergic reaction? I don't know if you've seen the news on the internet, but the internal staff has already come out to accuse Su Bei of sending the package!"

Chapter 714: Prove Su Bei's Innocence

Su Bei stood up and calmly said, "Yes, I did send that package to Fang Yourong."

The reporters were in an uproar. "Then, did you put catkins inside?"

"Did you know that Fang Yourong is allergic to catkins?"

"Did you know that severe allergies can cause suffocation or even death?"

Su Bei said loudly, "There weren't any catkins in the package at all. They were just documents. I have a video as proof."

There was a screen in the conference room of the hospital, and the contents were already prepared.

As the big screen started up, a scene appeared in front of everyone.

When Su Bei sent the package, she had sent it to the community's delivery room, so there was a surveillance video of it.

Everyone could clearly see her taking out sheets of paper from her bag and placing them on the guard's desk. After making a call, she picked them up again and handed them to the courier.

The courier placed the documents in the envelope and sealed them in front of Su Bei.

Throughout the whole process, Su Bei did not touch the envelope. As the papers were thin, it was impossible for Su Bei to place anything on it, let alone something like catkins that would easily be carried off by the wind.

Through the surveillance video, everyone could clearly see that the package was the one Fang Yourong received.

The video could prove Su Bei's innocence!

The reporters all nodded. So it wasn't Su Bei who did it. She didn't do anything that triggered Fang Yourong's allergies.

"Su Bei, you and Fang Yourong are in the same production team. What did you send her that you couldn't directly give it to her and chose to send it to her through express delivery instead?" asked a reporter.

Su Bei was silent for a while before she said, "This matter is a long story. I originally didn't want to announce Fang Yourong's condition to the public. However, this matter involves everything related to me. I have to tell the story here.

"Nearly a year ago, I underwent a stomach examination in America. The doctor told me that I had gastric cancer, so I came back to the country and planned my future as I walked on the runway.

"However, the doctor later told me that it was a misdiagnosis. Someone used my information to do the examination. The patient with gastric cancer was that lady who used my information, not me. This was the surveillance video of the hospital. A lady used my information to go for the examination, causing the hospital to mistake us.

"Because the hospital could only contact me and not the lady, the hospital told me to ask the lady to return for treatment if I ever met her.

"After I joined the cast, I thought that Fang Yourong was very similar to the lady in the surveillance video I had seen in the hospital, so I wanted to remind her about her condition out of goodwill. However, it's not easy to talk about such things, so I chose to send her the medical record instead. If she was the lady, she would know the situation immediately after seeing the report and quickly go for a check-up.

"If she wasn't, then I could avoid embarrassing myself.

"To prove the authenticity of my words, you can take a look at this medical record and the photos I took from the hospital's surveillance cameras. "

Su Bei's speech was a little long, but the reporters understood.

They immediately looked at the medical record and the photos. It was very easy to verify whether the medical record was real or not.. A knowledgeable reporter would not be fooled by fake news.

Chapter 715: Su Bei Was Wrong

As soon as the photos were revealed on the screen, someone recognized the woman. "Isn't that Fang Yourong?"

"Yes, I recognize her too. Fang Yourong used to be plumper, but she's much thinner now."

"In other words, Fang Yourong secretly used Su Bei's information for an examination in that American hospital?"

"Then, the person who has gastric cancer is Fang Yourong? So it was reasonable for Su Bei to send the documents to her. There's nothing wrong with it!"

"And when Su Bei sent it, there was no way it could contain catkins. I just saw her holding the documents and shaking them a few times."

"The truth is out. Su Bei didn't cause Fang Yourong's allergic reaction!"

A reporter immediately looked at Su Bei and asked, "Su Bei, is it true that Fang Yourong has gastric cancer? What happened when you guys fell off the cliff together?"

Su Bei said to the reporter, "It's true that Fang Yourong is suffering from gastric cancer. I'm sorry, Fang Yourong. I have no choice but to announce your condition. Because you once used my name for an examination, I spent nearly a year worrying about my health. It's also because the American doctors have been waiting for you to go back for a follow-up examination. The American doctors said that if you go over quickly, there's still a chance of recovery. They've already found a new treatment method.

"Therefore, I hope that you won't hide your illness. Don't avoid it anymore."

It was indeed unreasonable to announce someone else's illness, but the reporters could understand Su Bei's feelings. Moreover, Fang Yourong had used Su Bei's identity to do the examination. It seemed like she didn't want her personal information to be known.

Su Bei's actions were understandable.

Su Bei's voice was a little heavy. "I also have the truth about the cliff. This is a video. You guys can watch it."

It turned out that when Su Bei and Fang Yourong were filming that scene, Fang Yourong removed the wires from her body and jumped down with Su Bei in her arms.

She planned to drag Su Bei along even if she had to die.

However, she didn't expect that the cliff wasn't too high. Moreover, it was a scenic area and the ground was filled with flowers and plants. The plants cushioned their fall, causing Su Bei to only suffer light injuries.

Coincidentally, someone was taking photos in the scenic area. He happened to capture Fang Yourong undoing her wires, hugging Su Bei, and jumping off the cliff.

Before Su Bei could react in time, she thought that something had happened to Fang Yourong and even reached out to hug her, wanting to reduce the impact.

That was why Su Bei's arm was dislocated.

After the video was released, the truth was clearly displayed in front of everyone.

"Su Bei didn't harm Fang Yourong. Fang Yourong took the wires off herself!"

"Su Bei even protected Fang Yourong!"

"But Fang Yourong fainted! If she wasn't seriously injured, why would she faint?"

"That's because her gastric cancer has already caused her body to deteriorate. I suggested that she stay in the hospital for treatment, but she secretly went out to film. She fainted because she was exhausted. She didn't get injured from falling off the cliff!" Dr. Hu walked past the crowd and stood up to face everyone.

He bowed to everyone and said, "Fang Yourong fell off the cliff but wasn't injured from the impact.. Everyone is wrong about Su Bei."

Chapter 716: I'm With You

Since Dr. Hu had the medical report as evidence, what was there to doubt?

Now, everything was clear!

The reporters were boiling with excitement and had many questions to ask Su Bei.

However, Su Bei had already turned around and left under the escort of her bodyguard.

She no longer needed to defend herself.

Director Guo Feng and Xiao Bai followed behind Su Bei excitedly. Director Guo Feng said, "Su Bei, your manager, Yue Ze, is pretty good. He could even find such strong evidence for you. He really has super strong execution skills and excellent integration ability."

Su Bei smiled and said, "Director Guo Feng, it wasn't Brother Yue Ze who found the evidence for me. It's someone else."

"Who?" Director Guo Feng was really curious. Even Xiao Bai was eagerly waiting to find out who it was.

Su Bei glanced at Lu Heting, who was following her quietly with a mask on. The love in his eyes was indescribable.

However, she could not tell everyone about it.

This feeling of having to hold it in was really uncomfortable.

She also wanted to tell everyone that Lu Heting was the best husband in the world and the best man in the world.

Forget it, forget it. It was good enough that he knew about it. There was no need for him to be followed by reporters.

Director Guo Feng nodded. "Got it. I'm sorry to have brought it up."

"I'll go back first." Su Bei said goodbye to Director Guo Feng and Xiao Bai.

Lu Heting helped Su Bei into the car.

Xiao Bai looked at his back in surprise. "Isn't that... Isn't that..."

Was it the man who stayed in Su Bei's room the last time they were filming a snow scene in the north?

"What is it?" Director Guo Feng asked.

"Nothing, nothing." Xiao Bai hurriedly shook her head.

Su Bei got into Lu Heting's car, hugged him, and kissed him hard.

Lu Heting's face lit up with joy. He looked like a gentle and kind person.

"I really want everyone to know that I'm with you." Su Bei smiled. Her eyes were like a sea of stars.

"Me too." Lu Heting kissed her back.

Su Bei secretly swore that she had to become stronger and have the ability to shield him from the wind and rain before letting the world know of his existence.

Now, she still needed Lu Heting's constant protection. She really couldn't risk it.

#Su Bei forcefully disclosed Fang Yourong's condition without permission.#

After this topic started trending, it quickly reached the top.

Those who clicked on this topic were initially full of anger and wanted to scold Su Bei.

However, after reading the relevant reports, they changed their minds and sympathized with Su Bei.

"Oh my God, what kind of immoral plot is this? Su Bei was actually diagnosed with late-stage gastric cancer? And it's Fang Yourong's fault?"

"How scary! Just what kind of mental pressure did Su Bei have to bear previously? No wonder she refused to take on long-term work and did not have any plans for her career."

"Yes, yes, yes. I remember she announced that she wanted to leave the entertainment industry. I think she went back to America after that."

"I'm grateful to the American doctors for figuring out Su Bei's misdiagnosis in time."

Everyone continued to read and realized that Su Bei's press conference proved something very important. She had not sent anything to harm anyone!

In order to prove their innocence, the express delivery company also released all the surveillance footage to prove that the package had never been opened since it was sealed in front of Su Bei.

Chapter 717: Dragging Su Bei Down With Her

From sorting to transport, everything was done according to the standard procedures.

"The package Su Bei sent was delivered to a crew member. There's no possibility of it being opened before that! We don't want to prove anything else. We just want to prove our innocence to our industry and our employees!" The official Weibo of the express delivery company said. "If Ms. Fang Yourong really got hurt because of this incident, we're willing to cooperate with police investigation!"

The express delivery company's attitude was very firm and clear. In an instant, the person everyone was scolding became Fang Yourong.

"Could this be a self-directed act?"

"I think so. Since she's going to die anyway, she decided to drag someone down with her before she died."

"To be honest, I really sympathize with Fang Yourong because of her gastric cancer. However, the things she did make others unable to sympathize with her."

“Did you see the video? Fang Yourong injured herself, and Su Bei dislocated her arm to protect her!”

Those who scolded Su Bei before now changed their words.

Those who stood on Fang Yourong’s side earlier had their faces slapped swollen.

No one could question Su Bei anymore. Even those who had criticized her for not accepting long-term work changed their opinion of her after knowing that she was misdiagnosed.

The pressure was all on Fang Yourong.

She stole Su Bei’s information, framed her, and wanted Su Bei to die with her because of her illness. All sorts of things had been dug out.

In Fang Yourong’s ward, she was hugging her head and her face was sallow. In a short period of time, she had lost a lot of weight.

With her current state, the company would definitely not protect her anymore. The production team was also considering terminating their contract with her because she was not fit for filming.

Only her assistant was by her side.

In just a short while, her fortune came to an end and began to wither away.

Only now did she feel hatred and regret. If she had used her real information to go for the examination, found out the problem, and immediately treated her illness, would things be completely different now?

If she hadn’t been so against Su Bei at the start where even one word from Su Bei made her fly into a rage, would the outcome be better?

“Sister Yourong, take some medicine. The doctor said you can’t go on like this,” the assistant advised.

Fang Yourong was not in the mood to take medicine. Her heart had long been tortured by regret and was completely numb.

The assistant did not expect Su Bei to approach Fang Yourong with good intentions.

Fang Yourong had too many experiences in this social circle and was too guarded. That was why things had gotten to this stage.

“That package...” Fang Yourong thought of the catkins in the package.

Since it wasn’t Su Bei or the delivery company, it must be... her junior, Zhou Yao, whom she had always trusted!

Zhou Yao!

Right then, Zhou Yao appeared with a bouquet of flowers.

When Fang Yourong saw her, she jumped off the bed and wanted to go over to strangle her to death.

However, her body could not take it anymore and she fell to the ground.

Zhou Yao took two steps back. Seeing Fang Yourong's frightening expression, she could not help but say, "Sister Yourong, you should get up and rest."

Fang Yourong said coldly, "You came to see me?"

"That's right. I came to visit you. You've always been guiding me. Now that you're in this state, of course, I have to visit you.." Zhou Yao smiled and said, "I even brought your favorite flowers."

Chapter 718: Ruined Overnight

"You even brought reporters with you," Fang Yourong said. "You want to let them know that you're here to visit your senior. When I'm down and out, you're showing your concern toward me. You want to let this beautiful and kind deed known by the outside world."

After being exposed, Zhou Yao did not refute her. Instead, she laughed heartily. "That's right, I want to build this kind of reputation for myself. After all, the company is about to give me all your resources. Your commercials, movies, and TV shows will all be mine. Sister Yourong, you can leave without any worries."

Fang Yourong said hatefully, "Zhou Yao, I've treated you well. Why are you treating me like this? Why did you put catkins into my package? If I had known about my illness, the sooner I treated it, the higher the chances of recovery!"

"Is that so? Then why don't you reflect on yourself? It's your nature to be paranoid, arrogant, and superior! If you had listened to Su Bei earlier, would this have happened? Did you ever think about how righteous you were when you scolded me? The heavens have eyes. Retribution has finally come. Furthermore, there's no room for a comeback."

Zhou Yao's harsh words echoed in the ward.

"Is that why you changed the contents of the package Su Bei gave me?" Fang Yourong asked sharply.

Zhou Yao did not respond directly but said, "Sister Yourong, being angry is not good for your recovery. You should rest well."

With that, she turned and walked out.

Fang Yourong really wanted to tear her apart.

The police were investigating the package, but it was difficult to convict anyone.

Even if there was an outcome, it wouldn't affect Zhou Yao too much. After all, catkins weren't something that could kill.

But did Zhou Yao really think that because Fang Yourong was about to die, there would be no way for her to deal with her?

Fang Yourong still had the video of her climbing into a certain director's bed!

Soon, Fang Yourong sold the video to the paparazzi at a high price.

This video caused a huge stir on the internet. It was too explosive and eye-catching.

Zhou Yao immediately looked for her backer. They spent a huge sum of money to delete the video and would then cover up this matter with other news.

Unexpectedly, before she could delete it, the video was pinned on Weibo. Lu Heting would definitely not keep such a dangerous person around to create trouble for Su Bei. He could make use of this incident to settle her directly.

Criticisms engulfed Zhou Yao completely. No matter how she struggled, it was useless.

Zhou Yao, who was already waiting to receive all of Fang Yourong's resources, lost her reputation overnight. She was kicked out of the company after her contract was terminated and she had to compensate for breach of contract. There was no hope for her to make a comeback.

Seeing Zhou Yao's news online, Su Bei guessed that Fang Yourong was behind it.

No one could hold on to such a piece of shocking news until now unless it was the person closest to Zhou Yao.

Coincidentally, Fang Yourong was her best friend.

"This means that Zhou Yao was the one who put catkins in the package. Zhou Yao might have wanted to create a misunderstanding between Fang Yourong and me, or she just wanted Fang Yourong to have an allergic reaction. No matter what, she didn't have good intentions," Su Bei said.

Lu Heting narrowed his eyes. "This woman is indeed the source of all the trouble. She deserves what's happening to her now."

Su Bei said, "Luckily, I don't have to work with them anymore. How scary."

Lu Heting reached out and hugged her.

Fang Yourong sat on the bed, her expression frozen.

The news of her stomach examination in America was exposed. Naturally, the news of her plastic surgery was also exposed.

Even though she was seriously ill, she still received a lot of criticism.

The fans who once loved her were now no longer supporting her.

The sound of a ringing phone woke her up.

Someone was calling her?

She picked it up and realized that the call was from America.. However, the other party spoke in S Country's language.

Chapter 719: Worth Me Spending Time Against You

“Miss Fang, this is the hospital in America. You came here for an examination once before. The doctor advised you to come back for treatment. Medicine is advanced now and there are new improvements every day. As long as you don’t give up, there’s still hope.”

“Why do you have my number?”

The other party pondered for a moment before saying, “Su Bei gave it to me.”

Fang Yourong suddenly laughed out loud. Su Bei gave it to them.

Hahahaha. She didn’t know why she was laughing. She just couldn’t control herself.

She hung up the phone and called Su Bei. “Su Bei, do you think you’re very great? Do you think you’re very noble? I nearly destroyed your life yet you still gave my phone number to the hospital?”

Su Bei received the call and calmly said, “I’m not that great and I don’t want to be noble. You wanted to destroy me, and I hate you more than you think. Anyway, you’re already so sick while I can still live for a long time. I just convinced myself not to be calculative with you.

“Besides, the police will still have to deal with your matter, no? Do you think you’re worth my time dealing with you?”

After Su Bei said that, she hung up the phone. She did not feel that she was cruel, nor did she feel that she was powerful. Fang Yourong’s illness and her current situation were all caused by herself.

Su Bei only knew one thing, and that was to have a clear conscience.

In the end, Fang Yourong still went to America. She was arrogant and determined. If there was still hope, she had to grasp it.

Su Bei admired her for this.

However, after Fang Yourong left, Lu Heting arranged for someone to keep an eye on her. It was fine if her condition wasn’t looking good, but as long as there were signs of improvement, what awaited her would be imprisonment.

Besides, given the current situation, her freedom was already restricted. Other than the American hospital, she could not go anywhere else. Her whereabouts were also monitored by S Country’s police.

Although she was still alive, she was just a walking corpse.

This was the price she had to pay for making the wrong decisions from the start!

In the hospital, Dr. Hu was watching over his daughter.

His daughter needed an organ transplant, but there was no chance. As a doctor and father, he was very worried.

His daughter looked tired and upset.

“Xiaoxiao, I’m sorry. I didn’t fulfill my promise to you and didn’t invite Fang Yourong to visit you.” Dr. Hu felt very guilty.

Xiaoxiao looked at him. “It’s okay. I don’t like her anymore anyway. Don’t you know about the latest news?”

Dr. Hu heaved a sigh of relief. “Then, do you want anything else?”

“I really like Su Bei now. I started liking her when I saw her walking on stage. When I saw a video of her audition last time, I was so infatuated with her. At that time, I changed my mind and decided to be Su Bei’s fan for the rest of my life! No matter what happens to her, I’ll never stop supporting her!” Xiaoxiao suddenly became spirited.

Dr. Hu did not expect that things would turn out like this. To think that he had even hurt Su Bei in order to get Fang Yourong to see his daughter.

Now, he really didn’t have it in him to look for Su Bei. Moreover, she was so busy, so why would she come to see his daughter?

Just as Dr. Hu was feeling troubled, someone knocked on the door of the ward.

Dr. Hu wiped his tears. “Please come in.”

The door opened and Su Bei walked in. She was dressed in beautiful sportswear and had her hair tied up in a beautiful bun.

“Su Bei!” Xiaoxiao’s scream almost overturned the roof!

“Shh!” Su Bei placed her finger on her lips.

Xiaoxiao quickly stopped screaming. Su Bei sat down and Xiaoxiao rubbed her eyes. “Am I dreaming? Is it true? Have I gone to heaven?”

“No.” Su Bei smiled gently and reached out to touch her head. “What are you saying? You’re alive and well.”

“How did you get here? Why did you come? Did my dream come true?” Xiaoxiao cried in joy.

Su Bei glanced at Dr. Hu and gently said to the little girl, “Your father invited me. He loves you very much and his heart aches for you.”

Xiaoxiao looked at her father as tears streamed down her face.

Dr. Hu could not help but tear up.

Su Bei accompanied Xiaoxiao for a while before leaving.. The little girl’s mood was instantly restored and she was brimming with joy.

Chapter 720: She’s A Jinx

Dr. Hu had not seen his daughter so happy in a long time.

After Su Bei walked out and was about to get in the car, Dr. Hu caught up to her. “Miss Su Bei!”

Su Bei turned around.

Dr. Hu rubbed his hands as tears welled up in his eyes. “Miss Su Bei, thank you so much.”

Su Bei only smiled. She was not a saint, but as a mother, she could not bear to see her child suffer. Hence, she could empathize with Dr. Hu.

“Miss Su Bei, you’ve brought us good luck. I just received a call that there’s an organ for Xiaoxiao and she can undergo a transplant... There’s hope for her to recover.”

“Congratulations.” Su Bei was happy for him, but her expression remained neutral.

Su Bei got in the car and left. Dr. Hu looked in the direction she left and suddenly thought of the word ‘idol’. He said sincerely, “Su Bei, you deserve the identity and title of an idol.”

...

After Fang Yourong’s matter was resolved, the production team was supposed to start filming again.

However, this was not what Tang Yue wanted to see.

Not only was Su Bei unscathed, but her fame and popularity had also risen. The doubts about her acting skills on the internet had also disappeared.

Tang Yue did not expect Su Bei to be able to turn the situation around.

However, to completely turn things around? It wasn’t that easy!

Soon, rumors about Su Bei spread in the outside world, saying that she was a jinx who caused trouble wherever she went.

“It’s not that I want to say this, but don’t you think it’s weird? From the start of the filming of Two Phoenixes, everything was fine until Su Bei joined the cast. Then, there were suddenly so many problems. How many things have happened? Fang Yourong is sick now and it’s impossible for her to recover, right? Zhou Yao was exposed for no reason, and I heard that she lost her mind after her contract was terminated. Also...”

“Previous poster, don’t scare me. Why does this sound so supernatural?”

“Looking at Su Bei’s popularity, there must be something wrong with it. Every time someone else falls, Su Bei becomes even more popular. Don’t you think she sucks up all the good luck of others?”

“Wow, so scary...”

It was very easy for such rumors to spread.

Some people tried to look into her previous competitors and realized that quite a number of them had been knocked down. Among Su Huixian, Sun Man, Hao Jiali, and others, as well as those rich second-generation heirs or big shots who were involved in scandals with her, none of them had a good ending.

There were even rumors going around. "Even if Su Bei becomes popular in this movie, the investors probably won't be able to make much money. All their luck has been sucked away by Su Bei alone."

"Terrifying. I feel like I need to get away from her, too."

"Would I still dare to watch her movie, then? I don't have much good luck to begin with. I'm scared."

All of a sudden, Su Bei went from being famous to someone with an eerie supernatural ability. It made people feel reverence and fear.

Sheng Tang Entertainment was not the only investor in Two Phoenixes. The investors who heard the rumor gathered together and held a meeting. They all felt that Su Bei was indeed a jinx.

Not only was there a long delay in filming but a lot of the budget was also wasted. Now that they were facing the issue of changing the female lead, they had to spend a lot more money.

If something were to happen in the future, they would lose everything.

Hence, they collectively approached Tang Yue and requested for Su Bei to be replaced. Otherwise, they would withdraw their investment.

Tang Yue could only accompany an investor with the surname Liu to meet Old Master Tang.
