

Chapter 751: Everything Should Have Belonged To Her

“Lu Heting, how can you be like this? You’re scamming me.” Su Bei looked at the Coke with dissatisfaction. This bottle of Coke was half the size of the one she gave him.” It’s even warm. Warm coke doesn’t taste as good, don’t you know that?”

Before she could finish her sentence, Lu Heting kissed her and poured a mouthful of cold Coke into her mouth. “I’ll give you some to satisfy your cravings.”

Su Bei’s face blushed with some heat.

Lu Heting looked at the obedient girl and said in a low voice, “You forgot about your stomach ache, huh?”

Everything else about Su Bei was good except for her stomach. The root of her illness when she was young had yet to be dealt with. Lu Heting didn’t know about it before, so he let her eat ice cream and drink Coke. But now, he couldn’t.

“Alright, then let me be a soulless Su Bei!” Su Bei tugged at her long hair and opened her Coke.

The man started the car seriously and drove forward with a smile.

Su Bei sipped on the warm Coke and complained, but her heart was so warm.

‘When they were halfway there, Su Bei felt that someone was following their car.

“Lu Heting, can you feel it?” Su Bei asked nervously.

She didn’t want the paparazzi to take photos of Lu Heting and bring trouble to his peaceful life.

“sit tight,” the man said, his voice steady.

Obviously, Lu Heting had noticed it before her, so the car kept accelerating to deliberately leave the person behind.

Su Bei suddenly said, “That car behind seems to be Tang Yue’s? What is she doing? Don’t drive so fast. Slow down, I want to see what she’s doing.”

Lu Heting slowed down.

In the car behind them were Tang Yue and Du Jinghao.

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei had accompanied Du Jinghao to the Tang Family home tonight to talk about the blind date.

Old Master Tang was overjoyed. After dinner, he asked Tang Yue to send Du Jinghao home, even though Du Jinghao drove his own car.

Tang Yue could tell that Du Jinghao was in low spirits the entire night because Su Bei was not around.

Su Bei, Su Bei! Everyone missed Su Bei and treated Su Bei as a treasure.

Tang Yue might not like Du Jinghao very much, but it was precisely because he liked Su Bei that she followed Old Master Tang's request to send Du Jinghao back. Everything that belonged to Su Bei belonged to her!

Coincidentally, Tang Yue saw Su Bei's car and saw a man driving it.

"It looks like Su Bei. I wonder if she's in trouble. Let's follow her and take a look," Tang Yue suggested.

Hence, Du Jinghao drove the car and followed closely behind Lu Heting's car.

Tang Yue pretended to sigh. "The entertainment industry is always complicated. I'm afraid that Su Bei won't be able to handle it. I'm also afraid that she'll go astray..."

Du Jinghao held the steering wheel tightly with both hands and followed the car without a word.

At this moment, Lu Heting had already recognized that the car belonged to Du Jinghao. Du Jinghao himself was not worthy of Lu Heting's attention, but Lu Heting knew everything about anyone who wanted to get close to Su Bei.

Du Jinghao was honored to be placed at the bottom of the list.

"Don't worry, it's Tang Yue and Du Jinghao," Lu Heting slowed down his car and said calmly to Su Bei.

Chapter 752: The Little Princess

Su Bei said doubtfully, "I don't know why they're following us. Didn't Grandpa arrange for them to go on a blind date?"

Lu Heting glanced at the silly girl. She really didn't know that Du Jinghao liked her.

It was good that she did not know. There would always be trouble if one knew.

Su Bei looked back and mumbled, "Don't tell me they're showing off their love to me? Lu Heting, stop the car. I want to see what they're going to do!"

"Okay." Lu Heting stopped. No matter what they wanted to do, he would not let Su Bei be troubled.

Tang Yue was just about to take out her phone to take a photo when the car in front stopped. This made her not dare to act rashly.

Su Bei alighted from the car and leaned against the car door. She could tell that Tang Yue was following her because she wanted to take photos of her. Could it be that she wanted to use this matter to defame her?

With that thought, Su Bei calmed down. She hooked her arms around Lu Heting's neck, stood on her tiptoes, and kissed him on the lips.

Lu Heting enjoyed it, but he didn't understand why the woman was so bold.

Looking at his suspicious gaze, Su Bei laughed. "Doesn't Tang Yue want to get dirt on me? I'll kiss you openly. Let's see how she's going to expose me! Does she really think that Grandpa won't care?"

It had to be said that Su Bei's prediction was correct. Tang Yue stopped when she kissed Lu Heting so openly because her schemes against Su Bei had always been hidden from the public.

Su Bei was so serious in providing Tang Yue her "compromising" materials, so it was useless for Tang Yue.

Du Jinghao's eyes widened in disbelief.

'Tang Yue whispered, "How could Su Bei do that?"

Du Jinghao turned the car around without any explanation and the car disappeared in front of Su Bei.

Su Bei could not help but laugh. If Tang Yue wanted to play, she would play with her. Unfortunately, Tang Yue was terrified.

Su Bei turned around and kissed Lu Heting again. "Anyway, I won't let anyone hurt you. Lu Heting, if Tang Yue wants to play, let's play with her openly."

Lu Heting hooked his arm around her waist. "As you wish."

Sure enough, Su Bei received Old Master Tang's call the next day, asking her to go home for dinner and meet a few friends.

Old Master Tang was really shocked. In his heart, Su Bei was still young and not suitable for dating, so he did not even urge her.

He had seen Du Jinghao's despondence. He had wanted to test his character before arranging for Tang Yue or Su Bei to go on a blind date with him. He did not expect Su Bei to already have a boyfriend.

"Who is it? Have you checked his background information?"

'Tang Yue said in a low voice, "We haven't found anything yet, but we managed to get some information from the people close to Su Bei. They say that man is..."

"What is it? Don't hesitate!"

"He's Lu Group's chauffeur," Tang Yue said in a low voice. "He's similar to an assistant."

She thought to herself that it was no wonder Su Bei was able to get an investment from Di Xing Media. Although Lu Heting's status as a chauffeur was low, it was still possible for him to occasionally persuade his boss to help him with something.

After all, the chauffeur would know his boss' secrets and was the closest person to him.

Old Master Tang was indeed dissatisfied. How could the little princess that he treasured be with a chauffeur? Just the thought of it was unbearable..

Chapter 753: Becoming A Big Joke

"I'm meeting Su Bei for a meal. Invite Du Jinghao and his family over," Old Master Tang said. There was no time to observe Du Jinghao anymore. He had to arrange for Su Bei and Du Jinghao to go on a blind date.

Tang Yue didn't expect such an outcome. She didn't think that Du Jinghao would accept Su Bei after seeing how close Su Bei and Lu Heting were.

Su Bei, on the other hand, was already with a chauffeur but needed to rush over for a blind date. It would probably become a huge joke.

Tang Yue immediately started making arrangements.

As Su Bei helped Lu Heting adjust his collar and tie, she said, "I shouldn't be asking you to meet Grandpa so early and take on the pressure of the family. But I heard that Grandpa wants me to go on a blind date, so no matter what, we have to make it public to our family."

"I believe Grandpa will let us be together," Lu Heting said confidently.

Su Bei, however, was a little worried. The Tang family was a noble family. Compared to the Su and Du families, they were much more powerful. Naturally, they had high standards.

Even though she felt that Lu Heting was the best man in the world, they wouldn't think so.

No matter what, this was bound to happen!

Su Bei said, "Yes, definitely. Anyway, I'm here."

Tang Yue arranged for everyone to eat on the top floor of a luxurious hotel.

That day, Old Master Tang, Tang Jianming, and Lin Shulian arrived early in the morning.

Du Guoshou brought Ou Huanwei and Du Jinghao over early.

Only Su Bei was late.

Both Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei liked Tang Yue, and their words were full of praise. "Tang Yue is really great. She's pretty and capable. Both she and her family are excellent. I wonder which family is lucky enough to have such a wife."

"Uncle, Aunt, you're flattering me. I only do what Grandpa tells me to do," Tang Yue said humbly.

"That's because Old Master Tang taught you well. Not only Tang Yue, but Xinru has also been taught to be sensible and courteous by Old Master Tang. She has also achieved great achievements in her career. No one can compare to Old Master Tang's teaching methods."

Old Master Tang chuckled. "Actually, Su Bei is not bad either."

Ou Huanwei's expression did not change, but from her tone, she did not seem to agree. "The children that Old Master Tang personally educated are still the best. The children beside Old Master Tang are the most knowledgeable and gentle."

She didn't even mention Su Bei.

Ou Huanwei said to Du Jinghao, "Hurry up and give the present to Grandpa Tang. Why are you in a daze?"

Du Jinghao presented the gift with both hands. "Grandpa Tang, this is a jade Buddha we found when we were abroad. It's specially made. I hope you can live a long and healthy life."

"Alright, alright." Old Master Tang smiled as he accepted the jade Buddha. From the moment he took it out, he could tell that the jade Buddha was extremely valuable. It probably cost at least 50 million.

What was rare was that the whole body was very transparent and the color was very good. It made people feel relaxed and happy just by looking at it. Their eyes also became clear.

Tang Yue smiled. "Grandpa, Jinghao is really considerate. Let's not talk about the price of this jade Buddha. What's rare is his sincerity. I know what you want the most is for the Tang family to be safe and sound."

"Yes, as long as the Tang family is doing well, I'm satisfied." Old Master Tang sighed..

Chapter 754: What's Wrong With Su Bei's Taste?

"Back when we were abroad, Jinghao had been looking for this piece of jade. But after he found it, it was already bought by a big shot. Jinghao persisted for a long time to get an appointment with that big shot before they managed to go out for a meal together and have a discussion." Ou Huanwei continued to talk about how Jinghao had found the jade. In short, it was extremely difficult. It was fascinating to listen to, and it showed how sincere the Du family was.

"Let me touch it." Lin Shulian reached out to take it. The moment she touched it, she knew that it was of good quality. She praised, "It's really not bad. The quality is very good. It feels warm to the touch. It's even better than all the other jade I've touched before."

Tang Jianming nodded silently. The Du family was indeed very sincere.

comment

Tang Yue put it down gently and placed it in the box. She smiled and said, "Once this gift is placed in the Tang family's home, all the gifts that I spent so much effort to get are going to lose out. I really don't want to put it next to the items that I displayed at the fair."

Her words made everyone laugh.

Du Jinghao sat silently by the side. Tang Yue suddenly changed the topic and asked, "Why isn't Su Bei here yet?"

"Is Su Bei coming?" He immediately sat up straight, and the gloom in his eyes turned bright.

"Of course, Su Bei is coming. It's a family banquet. She's also a child of the Tang family. How can she not come?" Tang Yue said with a smile.

Du Jinghao's mood improved a lot. Ou Huanwei was a little angry when he saw his son like this. Tang Yue was good at everything, but why was his son thinking about Su Bei, who had no upbringing at all?

How many women from the entertainment industry were any good?

Just then, Old Master Tang's assistant walked over and said, "Old Master Tang, Second Miss is here."

"Hurry up and invite her in!"

"She... She brought a friend with her." The assistant hesitated.

"What friend? Since it's someone Su Bei brought back, let's just eat together. It's alright to have another person join us," Old Master Tang said. "Have her come over."

The assistant hurried out and returned quickly, followed by Su Bei.

Grandpa Tang was about to greet her happily when he saw Lu Heting beside her.

Instantly, everyone's expressions changed slightly as their gazes fell on Su Bei and Lu Heting's tightly interlocked fingers.

Everyone looked at Lu Heting in unison. The man's appearance was impeccable. He was as perfect as a god that had descended to the mortal world. His aura made people feel oppressed.

If not for the fact that he was a chauffeur and an assistant, everyone would probably treat him as the president of a company.

But his clothes betrayed his true identity and income.

Because he was only wearing the clothes gifted by Su Bei. The wristwatch he was wearing was also gifted by Su Bei. They were all items worth tens of thousands of yuan. In front of these people of status, these prices were really nothing.

Ou Huanwei looked like she had predicted everything. Luckily, she had not let her son go on a blind date with Su Bei. Look at Su Bei's taste!

Du Jinghao's face was extremely grim.

Old Master Tang's jaw dropped in shock.

"Grandpa, Dad, Mom, Sister." Su Bei walked over with a calm expression on her fair face. She introduced calmly, "This is Lu Heting, my boyfriend."7

There was no mention of their marriage because Da Bao and Gun Gun still needed protection..

Chapter 755: A Few Thousand At Most

Anyway, there was no way she could run away from the fact that Lu Heting was her man. It was just a matter of announcing his identity.

Tang Yue didn't expect Su Bei to be so stupid as to bring him home.

She was really not afraid of losing her reputation by bringing a chauffeur to such an occasion!

Tang Yue smiled and said, "Su Bei, come sit with your friend."

Although the other elders did not say anything, they clearly looked down on him.

Even though Lu Heting was talented and had an outstanding figure, the entertainment industry did not lack such a man. How could the Tang and Du families look highly upon such a man?

Old Master Tang's expression changed as he said, "Have a seat."

"Thank you, Grandpa." Su Bei held Lu Heting's hand and sat down.

There was an awkward silence.

This silence was truly frightening.

"Oh, right. Grandpa, Heting has also prepared a gift for you." Su Bei offered with both hands.

Tang Yue helped Old Master Tang receive it and said with a smile, "It's a tie clip, and it looks pretty good. It just so happens that Grandpa is wearing a tie today, so it'll be useful."

'When they heard that it was a tie clip, the expressions on Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei's faces were indescribably vivid. They tried to hold back their laughter, but they couldn't bring themselves to laugh out loud. They were people of noble status, so it wasn't appropriate for them to ridicule their juniors.

Although Old Master Tang felt uncomfortable in his heart, he could only look on helplessly. Su Bei had found a poor man. He was afraid that she would suffer. He could not bring himself to smile.

However, since it was Su Bei who personally presented the gift to him, Old Master Tang could not refuse and could only let Tang Yue put it on for him.

The atmosphere was even worse.

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian thought of the gift that the Du family had given them. It was a jade Buddha worth tens of millions of yuan, while the gift that Lu Heting had given them seemed to be worth at most a few thousand yuan.

Not only was it not valuable, but the level of effort was also completely different.

Lin Shulian asked, "Su Bei, how long have you been with Mr. Lu?"

"More than five years," Su Bei replied with a smile.

It had been more than five years. This was even more heartbreaking.

How old was Su Bei five years ago?

Old Master Tang was even more dissatisfied with Lu Heting. He must have used his mature age to sweet-talk Su Bei into being with him.

Five years ago, Su Bei was still the young miss of the Su family. How did she fall for such a poor boy?

Tang Yue poked her sore spot. "Ah, I remember that you had an engagement with Du Luo more than five years ago, right?"

"What's wrong with being together after breaking the engagement?" Su Bei asked.

"It's nothing, I was just asking," Tang Yue said.

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei were even more determined not to let Du Jinghao and Su Bei go on a blind date.

Especially Ou Huanwei, She gave Du Jinghao a look and told him to be careful. Tang Yue was so much better than Su Bei, so he should put his thoughts away.

Du Jinghao looked at Su Bei and secretly sighed. She did not even mind the chauffeur, which showed that she was a determined girl who did not prioritize the rich. It was just that he was not that lucky.

Old Master Tang did not want to make things more awkward for Su Bei, so he changed the topic and started talking about family matters.

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei received the Tang family's business after exchanging just a few sentences..

Chapter 756: This Troublesome Matter

The Du couples intentions couldn't be more obvious. They wanted to talk about topics that Lu Heting wouldn't know anything about. They wanted to show how incapable and incompetent he was.

Su Bei tightly held his hand and gave him a few fruits. She slightly regretted bringing him here and being looked down upon.

However, seeing his calm and relaxed expression, Su Bei felt relieved. This was the good thing about her man. No matter where he was, he would not feel inferior because of others' opinions. He had always been open and magnanimous.

She whispered something to Lu Heting, who responded in a soft voice. For a moment, it was not the others who were isolating them but the harmonious couple crowding everyone else out.

As they were talking, Old Master Tang's assistant walked over and whispered into his ear.

Old Master Tang spoke a few words with his assistant. The assistant shook his head and looked troubled. It seemed that Tang Corporation was in trouble.

Seeing the deep frown on Grandfather Tang's face, Tang Yue asked, "Grandpa, what happened?"

"Sigh, we're having a family dinner today. Let's not talk about work." Old Master Tang laughed.

Du Guoshou took over the conversation with a smile. "Old Master, since this is a family dinner, there's no harm in bringing up the company's matters. Anyway, I still need your advice on my work."

Ou Huanwei chimed in, "That's right. The Tang family is in trouble, so we should share some of the burdens, whether it's business or family business. Isn't that human nature? If it's convenient for you, Grandpa, please tell us. We can come up with ideas with more people around. Since Jinghao is also here, let him get some training with us."

Old Master Tang then said, "Do you still remember the incident with the land on the west side of the city? We had already discussed it and were about to start construction, but it's a pity that we can't proceed now. I've made countless calls over the past few days and tried everything I could think of, but no.

matter what, I still can't get it done."

Even Old Master Tang said that. It was obvious how difficult this was.

"That would be a huge loss. The initial investment, the design plan, and the money spent in all aspects are innumerable. Moreover, the west side of the city has been the most important project in Tang Corporation in the past three years. If something goes wrong, the consequences would be unimaginable.."

Du Guoshou could not help but say.

Old Master Tang nodded, "That's right. But the Ou family suddenly made a move to steal this slice of cake. The higher-ups have agreed to it, but they haven't made the final decision yet. I think this situation is a little tricky. I'm afraid that they'll make the decision tonight."

Tang Yue chimed in, "It's precisely because of this matter that Grandpa has returned to manage the company. But things have been undecided. Grandpa hasn't been eating or sleeping well these past few days.

"[I] thought that we could have a good meal here today, but who knew that Grandpa would encounter such a troublesome matter."

This was not the only thing that bothered her. She glanced at Lu Heting, probably also referring to Su Bei bringing Lu Heting here.

Su Bei did not understand these things and did not reply. She just stopped talking to Lu Heting.

Moreover, even Old Master Tang had come out to handle this matter personally. This matter was really important. It might affect the entire Tang Corporation...

Chapter 757: This Is An Opportunity

For a moment, everyone was silent. It was clear that this matter was difficult to resolve.

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian no longer had that smile on their faces. They had spent more than ten days on this matter, but they still could not find a way to turn the situation around.

Tang Yue looked at her father. "Dad, do you have any way to resolve this matter?"

‘Tang Jianming said, “Let me make a call and see.”

He immediately made a few calls.

However, it was obvious that the calls he made were useless. The other parties would usually be very friendly but when it came to serious matters, they all said that they had no time.

‘Tang Jianming was now the main manager of Tang Corporation. If even he was like this, this matter would probably stop here.

Tang Yue’s face was filled with worry. If they could not get this piece of land, she did not know how much Tang Corporation’s shares would drop.

Since they had invested too much in the beginning, the shareholders would be unhappy and the entire family would be in turmoil.

She did not say these words in front of the Du family, but she already felt a sense of danger.

Ou Huanwei kept poking Du Guoshou’s arm, telling him to quickly think of a solution. If he could work together with Tang Corporation this time, the matter between Du Jinghao and Tang Yue would be settled.

Du Guoshou opened his mouth and said, “Old Master, I have a friend who has some connections up there. I can contact him to come over for a meal. However, I don’t dare to say that I’m 100% sure that it’ll work out.”

“Great, let’s make an appointment then,” Old Master Tang said immediately.

‘Tang Yue could not help but look at Du Guoshou. “Uncle, you’re so reliable.”

Du Guoshou made a few phone calls, and everyone stared at him, waiting for him to speak.

Du Guoshou was on the call for more than half an hour before it ended. Looking at his respectful attitude and expression, one could guess the identity of the other party.

After a long while, Du Guoshou put down the phone and said, ‘What a coincidence. I found out from a friend that Chief Liang, who’s in charge of this matter, is having a meal in this very restaurant. Although he’s not free, we can still go and meet him to fight for this chance. Old Master, no matter what, this is an opportunity!’

Elder Tang thought for a moment and said, “This is an opportunity.”

Everyone else was elated as well. Tang Yue raised her glass and made a toast to Du Guoshou. “Uncle, you’re really impressive to be able to settle such a matter! Let me give you a toast!”

“Haha, it’s all thanks to Old Master’s guidance that I’m able to get to where I am today,” Du Guoshou said with a smile. “Old Master, actually, we’re a family, so let’s not talk about these things. The Tang family’s matter is the Du family’s matter. Whether tonight’s matter is a success or not, I’ll do my best to help.”

Old Master Tang didn't look too worried since Du Guoshou said so. He picked up his glass and drank with everyone.

Because there was an opportunity, the atmosphere became much livelier. Both sides exchanged toasts.

Only Su Bei and Lu Heting, who were like invisible people, were not involved in their excitement.

"Here's to you, hubby. To our sons and to our future." Su Bei raised her glass and clinked it with Lu Heting's..

Chapter 758: Helpless

Lu Heting's lips curled up slightly. Su Bei always cared about his thoughts and emotions. That was enough. Lu Heting never cared about others.

Du Guoshou was overwhelmed by the compliments. As soon as he received a message from his friend, he immediately said to Old Master Tang, "Old Master, Chief Liang is here. Let's find a chance."

"Let's go," Old Master Tang stood up. He didn't expect that he would have to meet someone halfway.

However, for the sake of the Tang family and his many children, he was willing to go all out. What was dignity to him? It was the only way for the family to survive and develop.

He and Du Guoshou walked out quickly. As expected, they saw Chief Liang, who was the person in charge, walking toward the private room.

Old Master Tang had tried to contact him several times but to no avail. Now that he saw him, he was a little agitated and hurried over.

"Chief Liang!" Old Master Tang called out.

'When Chief Liang saw Old Master Tang, his expression was a little unnatural. He smiled and said, "Old Master Tang! What a coincidence to see you here! I should've gone to meet you, but look at me!"

He had a high status, but his words were warm. When he was promoted to a high position, he couldn't have done so without Old Master Tang's help. But now, he had a better future. The person Old Master Tang's competitor found was someone Chief Liang couldn't afford to offend, so he had to make a decision.

He was obviously about to decline when Old Master Tang smiled and said, "Chief Liang, why don't we sit down and have a cup of tea? We haven't seen each other for a long time, so let's have a chat?"

"I'm really sorry. I still have to have a meal with the higher-ups. Old Master Tang, we have to do it another day. Another day!" Chief Liang said and was about to leave.

Old Master Tang saw a high-ranking senior sitting inside the private room with his competitor, the Ou family.

From the looks of it, it was inevitable that the project on the west side of the city would be given to the Ou family. Even Chief Liang himself might not be able to make this decision. That was why he was avoiding Old Master Tang.

Old Master Tang was already lowering himself by stopping Chief Liang. If he continued to drag this on, it wouldn't fit his status.

Du Guoshou didn't expect such a situation, Although he had found the person, they didn't have the slightest opportunity. He said, "Chief Liang..."

This time, Chief Liang turned a deaf ear and walked into the private room, closing the door behind him.

"Old Master, we have really tried our best." Du Guoshou could not help much and felt ashamed.

But with the current situation, what other way could he think of?

Even Old Master Tang had already personally come to stop Chief Liang. What else could he do? Make a scene in the private room?

"Perhaps it's time for our Tang family to face this disaster." Old Master Tang sighed.

Du Guoshou said, "That's right. Who would have thought that the Ou family would actually be able to find such a high-ranking figure? Man proposes but God disposes. Old Master, you should relax a little."

However, how could Old Master Tang relax? He had invested half of the Tang family's business into this project!

If he messed up, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Old Master Tang had spent his entire life devising strategies and bringing the entire Tang family to the top of the capital. He had never expected to encounter such a huge crisis.

Chapter 759: That Look

From the looks of it, the decline of this large family had already begun.

Du Guoshou had to consider whether he should let his son continue to date someone from the Tang family.

"Old Master, why don't we go back first? If this opportunity doesn't work out, there'll be another opportunity," Du Guoshou said.

Old Master Tang and Du Guoshou left together.

After returning to the private room, everyone saw Old Master Tang's expression and knew that things weren't going well.

Tang Yue's expression was also a little ugly. This project was bound to be profitable, so the Tang family had invested all their efforts into it.

It was just that they didn't expect the Ou family to be so formidable. They intercepted them halfway and caught the Tang family off guard.

After tonight, everything would be settled.

There was another round of awkward silence in the room.

At this time, there was an unusually heavy atmosphere.

Su Bei wanted to comfort her grandfather but did not know where to start.

No one was in the mood to eat, but no one could say that they would leave.

Just as they were in a deadlock, an assistant rushed in and said to Old Master Tang, "Old Master Tang, the high-ranking leader in Chief Liang's private room said he wants to see you! His attitude is quite good!"

"Really?!" Everyone was overjoyed.

"Then why aren't we leaving yet?" Old Master Tang immediately stood up.

For a moment, hope returned to everyone, and everyone was happy again.

This was a very good signal. As long as the other party was willing to meet, it meant that they were halfway to success.

The man only invited Old Master Tang, so the others didn't follow him.

The assistant returned after a while.

'Tang Yue hurriedly asked, "How's the situation?"

"I don't know exactly what happened, but the leader in the room is even more influential than Chief Liang. When he saw Old Master Tang, he was very respectful. It looks like the matter will be settled soon," the assistant said. He had always been calm and steady. Since he said that, everyone was relieved.

Lin Shulian said, "This is all thanks to Brother Du. If Brother Du hadn't found out that Chief Liang was eating here, I'm afraid there wouldn't have been such a turn of events."

"That's right. Uncle is really amazing," Tang Yue said with a smile.

'Tang Jianming said to his assistant, "Go now. Get more information."

In the private room, the heavy atmosphere dissipated and everyone raised their glasses to toast Du Guoshou.

Ou Huanwei was also very happy. Now, their relationship with the Tang family was stable again.

'As soon as Old Master Tang entered the private room, he received a lot of attention.

The leader, who was even more high-ranking than Chief Liang, had treated him with respect and politeness, indicating that everything was negotiable.

Old Master Tang was really surprised. The other party's attitude was too obvious. Just now, when Chief Liang closed the door, he remembered that when this leader had looked at him, his expression was not really friendly.

However, this attitude

No matter what, Old Master Tang would seize this opportunity. Hence, he didn't probe further and buried his doubts deep in his heart.

In fact, this high-ranking leader had even asked the Ou family to leave. The Ou family had left unwillingly, and their faces had turned pale. This was because it had already been decided that the project for that piece of land on the west side of the city would be given to them, it was supposed to be finalized tonight..

Chapter 760: If I May Be So Bold

They really couldn't figure out what went wrong. The Tang family had suddenly turned the tables.

This was a matter that had been set in stone. But it had suddenly become like this... However, how could businessmen like them compare to the leaders of the upper echelons? The Ou family was unhappy, but they couldn't question the other party's decision. So, they were forced to leave.

The leader chatted happily with Old Master Tang with a smile. "Old Master Tang, this project belongs to the Tang family. I know the Tang family has invested a lot of time, manpower, and money for this project. No matter what, we can't let companies like yours suffer a blow. Don't worry, we'll do what we need to do."

Old Master Tang was filled with doubts, but he couldn't say a word.

That leader's gaze swept over Old Master Tang's tie a few times. The moment Chief Liang closed the door earlier, he had seen the tie clip on Old Master Tang's tie. The style and design were definitely unique. It must have been given to him by the person in charge of Lu Corporation.

The high-ranking leader had also seen similar items in a higher-level meeting.

There was a logo and a code name on the tie clip. A person who could have such a tie clip definitely had a close relationship with the mysterious person in charge.

Hence, he didn't dare to neglect Old Master Tang. He immediately asked someone to invite him over and make arrangements.

"Old Master, if I may be so bold, this tie clip..." the senior executive pretended to ask casually.

Old Master Tang's suspicions were dispelled. He had spotted the leader staring at his tie clip, but he never understood what it meant.

As soon as the leader asked, Old Master Tang quickly understood.

"This is a gift from a friend that my child brought home," Old Master Tang replied honestly.

The man's expression turned even brighter. This confirmed Old Master Tang's guess that the man was willing to meet him and treat him with respect because of the tie clip.

This tie clip was personally delivered by Su Bei. She had told him herself that it was from Lu Heting.

So, Lu Heting's identity... Old Master Tang didn't dare to make any wild guesses, but this leader's intentions were clear.

From the moment they first met until now when the leader decided to give them back the project, the other party's drastic change in attitude could only be explained by Lu Heting.

The leader laughed. "Old Master Tang, you're so lucky. Every child is so promising. Old Master Tang, please bring over the approval letter. It's good that we met each other today. We'll settle it today."

For the sake of Lu Corporation, he must handle the Tang family's matters well.

Old Master Tang was overjoyed and immediately asked his assistant to get it.

Soon, the matter was settled. The leader personally escorted Old Master Tang back to the private room.

Grandpa Tang came back. Tang Jianming and the others looked at him happily. "Dad, is everything settled?"

"It's settled. Everything went smoothly." As Old Master Tang said this, he looked at Lu Heting seriously.

It was obvious that the young man sitting next to Su Bei had an unfathomable identity that could affect the entire Tang Corporation!
