

Chapter 761: Lu Heting's Identity

However, he hid his strength and did not show it at all.

Old Master Tang had changed his opinion of Lu Heting a long time ago, but he couldn't say it out loud.

Tang Yue raised her wine glass and said with a smile, "Grandpa, no matter what, we have to thank Uncle Du for what happened today, right? It's all because Uncle gave us a chance to turn things around. He also allowed us to defeat the Ou family today!"

Du Guoshou quickly smiled and said, "Not at all, not at all. It's all thanks to Old Master's own abilities. Otherwise, how could we have settled today's matter? We should show our respect to Old Master!"

"We should thank both of you," Lin Shulian smiled and said.

Su Bei and Lu Heting also raised their glasses, but everyone just smiled at them and did not take them seriously.

Old Master Tang could tell that Lu Heting was trying to keep his identity a secret, so he didn't say anything.

Coincidentally, Lu Heting received a video call from Gun Gun.

He whispered a few words to Su Bei, apologized to everyone, picked up his phone, and left.

Su Bei could clearly feel everyone's attitude toward Lu Heting at the banquet. She was even more determined to work harder and earn more money in the future. She wanted to stand at the top of the industry and change everyone's opinion of him!

Seeing her slightly pursed lips, Lin Shulian looked at her kindly. "Su Bei, are you sure you're going to be with this man?"

Du Jinghao heard this question and looked up at Su Bei.

"Yeah. Is there a problem?" Su Bei asked.

"I just don't want you to suffer. Forget it. There's nothing much to talk about when it comes to dating. But when it comes to marriage, you have to be careful. Only when your families are compatible will you be happy," Lin Shulian said earnestly.

Although Ou Huanwei didn't want Su Bei to be with her son, now that Du Guoshou had made a contribution, she felt that she had the status and position to educate Su Bei. She said, "Su Bei, your mother is right. With your status, it's best to find a young master from a wealthy family. A man like your boyfriend is superficial. How can he give you a happy life in the future? I'll introduce you to a few men someday. I guarantee that they'll all be better than him."

"Thank you, but it's alright." Su Bei directly rejected.

However, Ou Huanwei was unwilling to give up. “To young girls like you, love is the most important thing. You only regret it after suffering a loss. However, it would be too late by then. Also, it’s time for you to let go of your profession.

“It’s better for young girls to be in a more professional line of work. It’s not becoming of ladies from noble families to show their faces outside all the time. Let’s not talk about anything else. Jinghao has a few friends who do business at home. I can introduce them to you—”

“Mom.” Du Jinghao frowned and interrupted her.

“I didn’t say anything wrong. I’m doing this for Su Bei’s own good. What’s there not to say? You can’t rely on love for a lifetime. Also, when those poor guys are middle-aged, they’ll easily abandon their wives and look for young women. This is also an open secret—”

1

“Aunt,” Su Bei interrupted her. “I don’t have any plans to date now. You don’t have to worry about me.”

“Aren’t you in love?” Ou Huanwei asked in disbelief...

Chapter 762: This Is The Feeling Of Being Loved

Su Bei smiled and tucked her thick hair behind her ear. She said neither gently nor forcefully, “That’s right. Lu Heting and I are going to get married and spend the rest of our lives together. We have no intention of dating anyone else.

“As for my profession, I don’t think there’s anything bad about it. We’re now in a highly civilized society. Women are no longer limited by the ancient times when they’re not allowed to leave their homes. They have their own choices and preferences. They can do whatever they want. This is the freedom that society and the country gave us.

“It’s our freedom to choose who we want to marry and build a relationship with.

“I won’t choose anyone else other than Lu Heting.”

Ou Huanwei pouted when she heard Su Bei. “If you’re with a poor man, you’ll suffer!”

“Aunt, you’re wrong. Lu Heting and I have both our hands and feet. We have legitimate careers and can earn enough money for us to spend. What else is there to be dissatisfied about? Must we have innumerable wealth before it can be called happiness? Can’t we be happy just by relying on our own incomes?”

“I don’t think I’m suffering living like this. On the contrary, I really enjoy my current life,” Su Bei replied calmly.

Ou Huanwei continued to pout, clearly disagreeing with Su Bei’s words.

Su Bei did not expect her to agree. However, she had to protect Lu Heting!

Especially when Lu Heting wasn't around!

This was her husband, so of course, she had to protect him!

Seeing Su Bei like this, Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian were worried.

Tang Yue, on the other hand, could not wait for Su Bei to stick to her own views. It was not strange for a woman who had never been beaten up by society to be so naive. However, after being beaten up so many times, Su Bei was still so naive. Tang Yue could only wish her good luck.

The light in Du Jinghao's eyes was extinguished bit by bit. Su Bei had such abundant feelings and protections for another man, but it was not for him.

Su Bei picked up her glass of red wine and asked Ou Huanwei with a smile, "Do you know how one lives to be 90 years old?"

"How?" Ou Huan Yi asked reflexively.

Su Bei curled her lips into a smile. "By not caring about other people's business. Aunt, let me give you a toast."

1

What she meant was that the meddlesome ones would die sooner and was secretly mocking Ou Huanwei for interfering too much.

Su Bei's bright smile forced Ou Huanwei to accept her toast.

Outside the door, Lu Heting had already finished his video call with Gun Gun. Hearing his woman defend him, he felt his heart soften.

This was the feeling of being loved. Su Bei loved him. There was no better experience.

Lu Heting walked in. Su Bei reached out to hold his hand and smiled gently. "You're back?"

"Yes." Lu Heting sat down calmly.

"Grandpa, since we've already finished dinner, how about Jinghao and I play a few rounds of chess with you?" Tang Yue asked with a smile.

Old Master Tang maintained the habits of many elderly people, and Tang Yue was very much to his liking.

She took this opportunity to pull Du Jinghao into her own camp and also beat Su Bei and Lu Heting.

Old Master Tang wanted to have Lu Heting stay and talk to him more to see if he was someone he could entrust Su Bei to..

Chapter 763: Why Don't We Have A Real Battle?

Even though he had already guessed that his identity wasn't simple, Old Master Tang wasn't someone who cared about family background and status. What was rare was one's character.

Tang Yue took out the chessboard and smiled. "Su Bei, do you know how to play?"

Su Bei shook her head. "I don't. You guys go ahead."

"That's too bad. Grandpa likes to play chess very much. If you know how to play it, you can spend more time with him," Tang Yue said with a smile. "Why don't Jinghao and I teach you? Jinghao is a professional. He has won several international competitions."

She kept mentioning Old Master Tang, wanting to imply that Su Bei did not know many things about him and was not filial.

Old Master Tang smiled and said, "Forget it. It's fine even if Su Bei doesn't know. Young people these days shouldn't be bored to death by these old antiques."

Du Jinghao looked at Su Bei expectantly.

Lu Heting actually knew from the start that this man had ideas toward Su Bei. He could also guess that the Tang family wanted to matchmake Du Jinghao and Su Bei.

That was why Su Bei brought him here today to directly reject these arrangements and plans.

However, Du Jinghao clearly had not given up. Every time Su Bei spoke, his eyes would brighten. Su Bei was clearly rejecting him, but he did not give up.

It looked like he had to do it himself.

Lu Heting tilted his head and looked at Su Bei. "Why don't you play a round with Grandpa?"

"But I don't know how to play. Do you?" Su Bei asked.

"I don't know how to play either," Lu Heting said seriously. "But why don't we let Mr. Du explain it to us?"

Seeing that he was interested, Su Bei nodded and said, "That's good. Once we learn, we can play with Grandpa."

When Du Jinghao heard that Su Bei wanted to learn, he was instantly interested. He nodded and said, "I can teach you guys."

Then, he explained the rules to Su Bei and Lu Heting in detail.

After a while, Lu Heting nodded. "I understand."

1

Before Du Jinghao could finish, he heard Lu Heting say that he knew how to do it. He was stunned for a moment and smiled. "Mr. Lu, you understand how to play it already?"

"I do," Lu Heting said calmly. There was no hint of joking in his cold features.

The other elders couldn't help but smile. "Heting, you learned this before, right?"

"No," Lu Heting answered truthfully.

Everyone laughed out loud. Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei thought to themselves, ‘This poor guy is really too much. Seeing that he’s being looked down upon, he wants to prove himself. It’s easy to learn chess, but it’s hard to master it. Even if he says he understands how to play it now, he’ll immediately be exposed. It’ll be really funny. How did Su Bei bring back such a boyfriend”

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian saw how arrogant Lu Heting was. They could not help but worry about Su Bei’s choice.

Only Old Master Tang calmly watched this scene. The man in front of him was unfathomable. Many things had already surpassed his imagination.

“Actually, chess is quite easy to learn.” Tang Yue seemed to agree with Lu Heting on the surface, but she was ruthlessly exposing him. “But mastering the rules is hard. It might not be as easy as it seems when you actually play it. Jinghao, what do you think?”

Ou Huanwei laughed. “We’ll know if that’s the case. Why don’t we have a real battle?”

Du Jinghao looked at Lu Heting with a burning gaze. “Mr. Lu, is that okay? Let’s play a round..”¹

Chapter 764: Do You Dare, Mr. Lu?!

“We can also have some prizes. Those who win will be rewarded. How about that?” Tang Yue deliberately wanted to make Du Jinghao look good. She wanted to make Su Bei look bad, so she fanned the flames.

Du Jinghao immediately said, “Sure, we can have a bet. Mr. Lu, what do you think about it?”

“Why don’t you tell me what you want to bet on?” Tang Yue asked with a smile.

Du Jinghao didn’t wait for Lu Heting to agree and said, “If I win, I want to date Su Bei.”

Everyone was shocked by his words. No one expected that Du Jinghao, who was silent the whole night, had actually been restraining his anger.

Ou Huanwei couldn’t help but exclaim, “Jinghao! How can you do this?”

She didn’t want her son to be with Su Bei.

Du Jinghao stared at Lu Heting. “Do you dare, Mr. Lu?”

The provocation was very strong.

Actually, with his rank, he was basically the champion in the entire country. It was unfair for him to challenge Lu Heting.

However, if he missed this opportunity, he would no longer have the chance to date Su Bei. Therefore, even if the conditions were not moral, he had to grab this chance.

'Tang Yue's face instantly turned hot. She had done everything she could for Du Jinghao's sake and to make him perform well in front of her grandfather so that he could suppress Lu Heting. Who knew that his bet was for Su Bei?

Everything seemed so ridiculous.

'Tang Yue was completely speechless.

"If you don't dare to, pretend that I didn't say anything." Du Jinghao narrowed his eyes. He was both disappointed and reluctant.

Su Bei did not expect this man to make such an outrageous request. Besides, Lu Heting had never played chess before.

Although she believed that he could do anything and if he said that he could do it, then he definitely could.

This bet... Su Bei looked at Lu Heting.

Lu Heting said calmly, "Su Bei is not a reward for a bet. I won't use her as a bet."

Old Master Tang was very satisfied with these words.

To Ou Huanwei, Lu Heting was admitting defeat. She smiled and said, "Then forget it. Our Jinghao is a master of chess. He even participated in the national championship. Even if he wins, it'd be unfair."

Lose? That was impossible.

Lu Heting looked at Du Jinghao and said, "There's no need for Su Bei to be the bet, then. Let's use ourselves as the bet. Whoever loses will not be able to see Su Bei again. If the loser ever meets Su Bei by chance, he has to avoid her!"

Heavens!

Everyone was shocked.

Old Master Tang stood up. Lu Heting's bet was too big.

The loser would have to stop seeing Su Bei and even avoid her. If Lu Heting lost, it meant that he would have to leave Su Bei forever!

He actually made such a bet just to get rid of a competitor.

He was overbearing!

Furthermore, Lu Heting had just learned how to play chess while Du Jinghao was already comparable to the national champion. Even if the two of them were evenly matched, no one could guarantee that Lu Heting would win.

Lu Heting's move was both impulsive and risky!

Ou Huanwei thought to herself, 'This Lu Heting really can't keep his cool. He just looks cocky? He really doesn't have any masculinity.'

‘What’s going on with Lu Heting?’ Tang Yue thought to herself. ‘Isn’t he being too reckless? He’s going to lose.. What if he loses? I can’t let Du Jinghao be with Su Bei!’

Chapter 765: I Admit Defeat!

She didn’t want Du Jinghao to accept the challenge because it was obvious that Lu Heting would lose.

Was Lu Heting trying to use this matter to get rid of Su Bei?

Du Jinghao didn’t expect Lu Heting to make such a big bet. After a moment of joy, he said, “Deal!”

No one believed that Lu Heting could do it.

Except for Old Master Tang and Su Bei.

Old Master Tang could see how far Lu Heting was willing to go for Su Bei. That was good too. He would just get rid of this love rival.

Su Bei looked up at him and reached out to pull his arm. “You can’t lose. Anyway, I won’t agree to not seeing you.”

Lu Heting rubbed her head gently and sat down in front of the chessboard.

Du Jinghao also sat down.

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei didn’t think that their son would lose. Lu Heting wouldn’t be better than Du Jinghao.

But now, they were all hoping that their son would lose.

After a while, a lot of black and white chess pieces were placed on the chessboard. Everyone’s gaze was on the board.

‘Tang Yue, Mr. Du, and Mrs. Du could understand the game a little at first, but gradually, they could not understand the complicated moves.

‘They were conflicted. They didn’t want Lu Heting to win, but they didn’t want Du Jinghao to lose either.

Meanwhile, Grandfather Tang was sipping his tea and looking at the board while stroking his beard. He nodded repeatedly.

Soon, Lu Heting made another move.

Du Jinghao frowned deeply, while Lu Heting’s expression was relaxed. Sometimes, he would grab Su Bei’s hand or eat a mouthful of fruit.

In the eyes of Tang Yue and the rest, this was the difference between a top student and a bad student. A good student would think hard because they knew that the questions were difficult, but a bad student could not understand them anyway, so they decided to just forgo everything. Happiness was the most important thing to them.

Du Jinghao's hands started to tremble, and his brows were knitted even tighter together. Finally, he put down the chess piece and said, "I admit defeat!"

"Thanks for letting me win," Lu Heting said politely.

Du Jinghao's face darkened. He could tell that Lu Heting still had some strength left. Even if he challenged Lu Heting again, he would lose terribly!

How did this man do it?

"How is this possible? How is this possible?" Ou Huanwei and Tang Yue were both shocked that Du Jinghao would say something like that!

Although they did not wish for him to win, he actually lost just like that. That was shocking enough!

Lu Heting was just a newbie. How did he crush this top expert?

Su Bei revealed a smile, as if saying 'I knew my husband could do it'.

Du Jinghao stood up with a hint of loneliness on his face. He looked deeply at Su Bei, picked up his jacket, stood up, and walked out.

"This... This..." Ou Huanwei could not believe that her son had been crushed.

Old Master Tang smiled, "It's common for young people to win and lose when they play. However, Heting is really quite good. Is this really your first time playing?"

"I've seen others play it before, but I only learned the rules today." Lu Heting nodded.

Old Master Tang was a little satisfied with him. With his memory and comprehension ability, it wasn't an exaggeration to call him a genius..

Chapter 766: Never

Old Master Tang sighed in his heart. With such a brain, how could Lu Heting be an ordinary person?

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei's expressions were a little ugly. Tang Yue's was even uglier. How despicable! They were actually taken advantage of by such a shabby guy.

Su Bei held Lu Heting's hand even tighter. It would be a lie to say that she was not nervous just now. Now, she still felt a lingering fear.

Not wanting to stay any longer, Su Bei bade farewell to everyone and left with Lu Heting.

The elders were still in disbelief.

Su Bei and Lu Heting walked out and turned around. With a kabedon movement, she trapped Lu Heting between the wall and her arm.

But damn it, Su Bei was already so tall yet she was still a head shorter than him. Her kabedon action immediately lost its imposing manner and only had a cool appearance.

'When Lu Heting saw these actions, he just found her adorable. He looked down and smiled gently at the woman's face.

“Next time, you’re not allowed to use me as a bet! Do you know how scared I was just now? Although I know my husband is omnipotent, there’s always a chance...”

Lu Heting pressed her head against his chest. “How can I bear to use you as a bet? I was betting on myself.”

“You can’t do that either! If you can’t see me anymore, what’s the difference between that and me not being able to see you?” Su Bei refused to give up. “Anyway, I won’t allow it next time!”

“Mm, no more,” Lu Heting said obediently.

“You’re not allowed to say anything like that. You’re not allowed to leave me, you’re not allowed to not see me, you’re not allowed to...” Su Bei said a long string of words in one breath. The overwhelming sense of insecurity in her heart just now made her want to vent.

Lu Heting nodded seriously and said lovingly, “Okay, okay. I won’t...”

Su Bei went on her tiptoes and kissed his lips, sealing these words between their lips.

Lu Heting hugged the woman in satisfaction. How could he bear to leave her?

With her around, his whole world was different.

‘When Lin Wenyu asked Su Bei to repair the jade bracelet, Su Bei sent a photo of it to Feng Cheng and almost forgot about it.

But one day, Feng Cheng replied: [Su Bei, the bracelet you mentioned should be able to be repaired, but it needs some raw materials.]

“What do you need? I’ll send it over.”

“We need the same or similar raw materials as the jade bracelet.”

This was difficult for Su Bei. Where could she get these things?

She immediately asked Lin Wenyu.

[I need to see if I have it,” Lin Wenyu said. “Su Bei, I’ve really troubled you. This bracelet means a lot to my mother. She thought for a long time about repairing it, but she couldn’t find anyone. If you can really repair it, I wonder how happy she’ll be.]

{I might not be able to help you. Don’t thank me yet.]

After Lin Wenyu searched around, she told Su Bei: {I’m really sorry. I can’t find any similar raw materials. However, I heard that someone recently got a batch of raw jade in the capital. I want to go there to take a look. Su Bei, can you and your friend accompany me there? Please.]

[Alright, I’ll go with you since I’m resting tomorrow. But I’ll have to ask my friend if he can go.]

Lin Wenyu sent a smiley face.. [That’s great! Thank you!]

Chapter 767: Found It Very Interesting

Su Bei asked Feng Cheng and didn't expect Feng Cheng to be very interested. He sent a few exclamation marks in succession. {I'll definitely go!!!}

He was so agitated that those who did not know would think that he was scolding someone.

The next day, Lin Wenyu came to look for Su Bei.

Su Bei came down with a bag of clothes and stuffed it into the car. "Take off your clothes."

"What do you want to do?" Lin Wenyu's face turned red as if she had heard something incredible.

"Didn't you say we're going to see the raw materials? I heard that the scene can be quite chaotic. It's obviously inconvenient for women like us to go," Su Bei said. "Since it's inconvenient, we'll change into male outfits."

Lin Wenyu realized that she was wrong, She thought

However, the blush on her face did not subside because she realized that she liked Su Bei. She did not reject or was against any intimate contact with her.

Wait, what was she thinking?

Su Bei handed the clothes to her and said, "I don't really know your size, so I can only roughly estimate it. I got you some male clothes from the crew. Try them first."

"Okay." Lin Wenyu took it. She was a little flustered because she hadn't worn it before.

She turned around to look at Su Bei. She had changed quickly. After putting on a wig, she looked exactly like a young and handsome man. Lin Wenyu's face was slightly red as if she had seen this appearance somewhere before.

Finally, she was enlightened. "Did you shoot a game commercial before? Are you the one called Lu Bei?"

"Yeah, you can tell?"

"So you were the one who played the role in that commercial! I was wondering why there was no news of Lu Bei in the entertainment industry. So it turns out to be you."

"Yes, it's me." Su Bei reached out to help her button up her shirt. "It's almost done. When you put on your hat, you'll be able to pass off as a guy."

Lin Wenyu was the daughter of a rich family. She usually followed the family rules strictly. She had always followed all kinds of rules.

She found today's events especially interesting, She was so excited that her face was red. She followed Su Bei and asked, "Where are we going now?"

"I got my manager to rent a car for me. After picking up my friend, I'll go to the place you mentioned."

Lin Wenyu found it even more interesting and quickly followed.

After getting the car, Su Bei sent Feng Cheng a WeChat message.

After Feng Cheng received it, he went downstairs and couldn't find Su Bei for a long time.

“Hey, over here!” Su Bei waved her hand and called out to Feng Cheng.

Feng Cheng opened his mouth in surprise and walked over. When he saw that it was really Su Bei, he got into the car. After he got into the car, he did not say anything and kept his mouth shut. He acted like a girl.

“So, where are we going today?” Su Bei asked.

Lin Wenyu said, “I asked a friend to ask around. In a raw stone trading center in the suburbs of the capital, we can buy good jade there to help my mother repair her jade bracelet. But I don’t know how to buy it or how to do it.”

“I’ve been there with a friend, but I’m not too familiar with this either.” Su Bei recalled that she had previously followed Feng Ze to this raw stone trading center. However, she did not participate in it, so they would have to rely on Feng Cheng this time.

Feng Cheng lowered his head and typed on his phone. After a while, Su Bei received a WeChat message from him.

“Wenyu, help me read it.” Su Bei was driving, so she handed her phone to Lin Wenyu..

Chapter 768: Come Alive

Lin Wenyu glanced at Feng Cheng through the rearview mirror. He was a nice guy. What a pity, he was a mute.

Uade is produced from raw stones. However, the stones in the raw stones trading center are not sold casually. People buy stones there through gambling. No one knows what’s inside the stones. Even the most advanced equipment can’t detect any good jade.

(Therefore, they’re all interested in gambling. Some people might be able to spend a small amount of money to buy raw stones that contain high-quality jade while others would spend a huge sum of money only to buy a lousy stone.

[This is how random it can be. Winning and losing is really up to your luck]

‘When it came to his own professional knowledge, Feng Cheng was confident.

After Lin Wenyu finished reading the message, she looked confused. “Then how are we going to buy it?”

Feng Cheng sent another message: [Depends on luck.]

Lin Wenyu read it out loud and said, “Does it really only depend on luck?”

She sighed softly. It was up to luck, huh? Anyway, this was the last resort. Her mother’s bracelet had been sent to many people, but they all said that it could not be repaired. Now that there was a chance, it was better than nothing.

If it weren’t for the fact that the bracelet was so important that she wanted to repair it, she wouldn’t have thought of buying raw materials to do it.

Feng Cheng sent another message: [The raw stones are all very expensive, easily costing hundreds of thousands of yuan per piece. There's a possibility there won't be anything when you open it or it's just a simple stone.]

Even Lin Wenyu, who was born into a prestigious family, couldn't help but click her tongue. Buying a stone for hundreds of thousands of dollars? It was no wonder that those people could easily fall into poverty.

"Then how are we going to buy it today?" Lin Wenyu asked. "What if we can't get any jade? What if we get a lot of jade but it may not be the same jade that can be used to repair my mom's bracelet?"

This was indeed a problem.

Su Bei wanted to ask this too.

Feng Cheng continued to send WeChat messages. [I'll try my best.]

Su Bei said, "Then we might have to go to the venue to take a look first."

Lin Wenyu took out a card and said, "How about this? I have one million yuan in this card. I'll use all my pocket money to buy it. We'll leave after spending it. Whatever happens, I'll accept my fate."

She never liked to spend money recklessly. Even though she was born into a wealthy family, she had her own bottom line.

Even though her family gave her a lot more pocket money, she only used some. When she was studying at university, she often worked part-time to earn money.

Therefore, her heart still ached when she took out this one million yuan.

Su Bei could tell that she was reluctant and said, "How about this? I'll pay 100,000 yuan and you'll pay 100,000 yuan. Let's not buy a big piece of raw stone and just do pick-up. If there's something in the stone, we'll split it evenly. If there's nothing, we'll go home."

"What's a pick-up?" Lin Wenyu asked curiously.

"You'll know when we get there." Su Bei revealed a smile. In the past, she had followed Feng Ze to the trading center. Because she was cautious, Su Bei did not buy anything. She just wanted to take a look.

Since she had such an opportunity today, she would go have some fun.

The moment the car arrived, Feng Cheng's entire body was glowing. He seemed to have come alive all of a sudden.

Chapter 769: Don't Be So Wishy-washy

Feng Cheng was like a shy girl just now, but now he had a confident glow on him.

The last time Su Bei saw him like this was when he was repairing the crack on Jia Shiyun's jade.

After parking the car, Su Bei and Lin Wenyu walked forward hand in hand. Feng Cheng quickly followed.

There were countless stalls in the entire trading center. Each stall displayed all sorts of raw materials, and many people were crowding around to watch.

Because the center didn't open for a long time every year, every time it opened, it would be packed. Everyone wanted to come here to search for gold.

Most of the people present were of a certain age. There were very few young people like Su Bei and the rest.

When they saw the intimate looks that Su Bei and Lin Wenyu exchanged, many people couldn't help but laugh softly. Clearly, they looked down on gay youths like them.

Lin Wenyu followed beside Su Bei and looked at the unassuming piles of stones in front of her. Seeing the price on them, she couldn't help but say, "This piece costs hundreds of thousands? That's too much!"

"It's not a lot at all. You haven't seen everything yet. Some of the prices here are even more exaggerated," Su Bei said softly.

"Have you been here before?"

"I've been here with other friends, but I didn't buy anything," Su Bei said.

Today, they would probably have to rely on Feng Cheng.

Feng Cheng followed behind them. His eyes were filled with light, and his expression was solemn as he observed everything very seriously.

Su Bei said to him, "We have 200,000 yuan. Since we'll be relying on you, you can buy whatever you want. If it doesn't result in anything, then forget it. If you get something, then the three of us will split it equally. Any objections to that, Wenyu?"

"Have no objections." Lin Wenyu nodded.

Su Bei did not think about what good things she could buy here. She just hoped they could repair Lin Wenyu's bracelet.

Feng Cheng shook his head vigorously to express his disagreement.

Su Bei looked down at her phone. The message said: [Even if I get something, I don't want it. I didn't pay for it.]

"But we're counting on you for this," Su Bei said, "Just treat it as my and Wenyu's investment in you."

"Yes, treat it as our investment." Lin Wenyu was also very straightforward.

[But I still owe you a lot...] Feng Cheng typed again.

Before he could finish, Su Bei interrupted him. "Don't be so wishy-washy."

Feng Cheng's face turned red and he could only agree to do as Su Bei said.

The three of them walked around to look at various stalls. However, it was obvious that they couldn't even buy the smallest piece with 200,000 yuan. Su Bei couldn't afford to pay for it in private as she was afraid of hurting Lin Wenyu's pride. Furthermore, buying stones was too risky so she couldn't spend too much either.

Feng Cheng looked at every stone piece by piece. From his eyes, it could be seen that he was very professional.

Su Bei recalled his previous craftsmanship and abilities. She believed that he could get the materials to repair the bracelet.

However... Before a stone was opened, even scientists with the most advanced instruments could not verify what was inside, How could a human's naked eye completely see through the stones?

If there was really a way to see what was inside the stone, it wouldn't be called stone gambling.

Su Bei tilted her head and said to Lin Wenyu, "If we see small stones that are cheap, we can buy them for fun and use them as decorations."

"Okay, that sounds like a plan." Lin Wenyu had fallen in love with Su Bei at first sight, so she had no objections to what she said..

Chapter 770: No Big Deal

However, even though the three of them were only here to play, many people still looked at them with disdain when they saw how young they were. "Young people should just go out and play. Don't join in on our fun here."

Soon, the three of them were pushed to the side.

The three of them could only go to a small booth. There were fewer people here, so there was room.

Because every stone was expensive, there were many people who looked at them but only a few people bought something.

A few people were gathered around a huge rock that weighed dozens of kilograms, staring at it.

Because there was a crack on the big rock, it revealed what looked like green jade inside. Many people were very interested in it.

'When Feng Cheng saw this stone, he also could not help moving forward.

Su Bei and Lin Wenyu followed him. When they saw that this stone actually cost 500,000, they couldn't help but be slightly speechless.

It was just a stone.

'The owner's surname was Wang, and he was saying loudly, "Look, there's already a bit of green in this stone. Who knows, it might be a large piece of jade and you'll become rich overnight. Although the price is expensive, if it's a good piece of jade, your profit will be a few hundred times more, right?"

500,000 is no big deal to big shots.”

His words clearly showed that he was trying to sell to the rich. The people around him only looked around and did not speak.

Feng Cheng went forward and carefully touched the stone. He looked at it carefully as if he really wanted to buy it.

Su Bei said in a low voice, “If you want it, I’ll buy it for you. Consider it your reward for helping me repair the jade the last time.”

Feng Cheng hurriedly shook his head.

‘As Feng Cheng had gone forward to take a look, other people also came over to take a closer look at this stone. A big-bellied man said, “500,000 yuan, I want it! If this stone really produces jade, then I’ll be rich. I’ll give it a try.”

‘When Boss Wang heard that, he laughed and said, “Sure, 500,000 yuan. Take it.”

A short man next to him took a few glances and finally said, “550,000. I want it.”

Betting on a stone can sometimes be used as a method to block others from getting the opportunity.

“600,000!” The fat man continued to bid.

Initially, no one was interested in the stone. However, because there were people bidding for it, its value increased exponentially. Boss Wang rubbed his hands happily. Naturally, the more people bid for the stone, the better.

Feng Cheng took a few glances and seemed a little reluctant.

Su Bei wanted to buy it for him, but he refused to accept it. He was practically penniless. Su Bei was concerned about his pride and did not say anything more.

The short man nudged Feng Cheng. “Poor kid, stay away from me. Don’t affect my fortune. 700,000 yuan, I’ll open this stone.”

Fatty shouted, “780,000, give it to me!”

Because of the high price, the people around gathered and looked at this scene excitedly. They were even more invested in this than buying a rock themselves.

In the end, the two of them bargained for a while before the fatty finally decided to buy the stone for 1.5 million.

The short man shook his head. It seemed that he was unwilling to fork out the money. He was also afraid that it was not worth it to buy a stone that could end up being a lousy one, so he withdrew from the bidding.

Boss Wang smiled and asked the fat man, “Sir, do you want to open it now or take it home?”
