

Chapter 781: Visit Me Anytime

Su Bei closed her eyes. She made up her mind and lifted the cloth.

Something in front of her made her heart stop.

It was because it was too exquisite!

'The aqua-green jade was made into jewelry of different styles. The exquisite handiwork and design made it a visual feast.

It gave people the feeling that it was a dazzling lineup of jewelry, too much for the eyes to take in.

Su Bei thought of something and asked, "Did you make all these out of the jade you brought back from that day?"

Feng Cheng's eyes were bright, and he nodded a little embarrassedly.

"Feng Cheng! You're really a genius!" Su Bei praised from the bottom of her heart. "I was with a friend before and saw him buy raw stones, but he was just playing around and didn't know how to make them into jewelry. Your craftsmanship is really superb."

Feng Cheng put down the things and typed a message: [Those people wanted to spend a few million to buy this piece of jade, but if I sell it to them, it'll be wasted in their hands. By extracting the jade myself to make jewelry, I can save on costs and also make more out of it.]

Su Bei read it and said, "Yes, the better the craftsmanship and the more experienced one is, the better they can make use of the jade. It's rare that it's a complete piece of jade. Not everybody can be as lucky. To make the most out of it, one must have outstanding skills."

Feng Cheng's eyes lit up as he nodded. His face brightened up as he typed out another message: [These are all for you.]

Su Bei picked up a few random jewelry pieces. Some were earrings, while others could be embedded into rings. They were all incomparably exquisite. However, for things like jade, the color mattered a lot. These were more suitable for women of age and experience. Young women were not suitable to wear these.

Moreover, it was impossible for Su Bei to wear so much jewelry at once.

"How about this? If you don't mind, sell these. How about it? It's useless to keep so many." Su Bei asked for his opinion.

Feng Cheng thought for a while and continued to send WeChat messages. [Okay, but this requires you to open a studio or a company. Otherwise, it'll be considered a talentless operation.]

“Okay, I’ll settle this matter.” Su Bei saw that he had found something he liked to do, and his complexion was much better than before. His body had also recovered quite well, and he was willing to participate in this.

Feng Cheng was very interested in this, but his interest was entirely on the jade stone. He was immediately immersed in it and sat down. He picked up his professional tools and started to work on his stones.

‘When Su Bei was about to leave, he took out Lin Wenyu’s bracelet and asked Su Bei to bring it to Lin Wenyu.

Su Bei looked carefully and found that the bracelet, which was broken in one place previously, had been completely repaired.

‘The repair work was done exceedingly well. It was so green that it blended perfectly with the original jade. It was sparkling and translucent. Unexpectedly, even after Feng Cheng patched it up, there were no traces left behind at all. It looked as if it had just been made.

Feng Cheng’s craftsmanship and ability were evident.

After returning home, Su Bei sent Lv Shan a WeChat message. [I haven’t seen the baby yet. Is it convenient for me to visit him tonight?]

[Of course, it’s convenient. Visit me anytime.] Lv Shan quickly sent a smiley face.

[Then I come over tonight.] Coincidentally, Su Bei had gotten a small jade pendant from Feng Cheng. It was the perfect gift for a little kid..

Chapter 782: It’s Our Business

Lv Shan was very happy that Su Bei was coming over. She handed the child to the nanny and specially dressed herself up before waiting for Su Bei to come.

Just as she was thinking about it, the doorbell rang.

The nanny was about to answer the door when Lv Shan quickly said, “I open it myself.”

She excitedly opened the door and found that it was not Su Bei standing in front of her but a woman in her 60s.

Lv Shan was stunned for a moment before remembering that she had seen her photo on Yue Ze’s phone. She was Yue Ze’s mother.

“Hello, Aunt. Please come in!” This was the first time Lv Shan was meeting her mother-in-law.

Her attitude was polite, but her heart skipped a beat.

She knew in her heart that with her status, it was impossible for her to get the approval of the Yue family’s parents.

Yue Ze was trying his best to mediate, but it wasn’t going very well.

Sure enough, Mrs. Yue's attitude was very cold. She walked in and said, "Why did you move into my son's house?"

Lv Shan had always been renting a place, and it was inconvenient for her to continue renting after giving birth. Furthermore, her relationship with Yue Ze had stabilized, so she agreed with Yue Ze's arrangement.

However, Mrs. Yue asked her that as if Lv Shan was taking advantage of Yue Ze.

Lv Shan gave the nanny a look and told her to carry the child to the room. Then, she brought a cup of tea over and smiled. "I'm sorry, Aunt. I didn't pick you up when you came. You must inform me the next time you come. Yue Ze and I will pick you up at the airport."

She and Yue Ze were not married, but their relationship was stable. Hence, even though her attitude was respectful, she expressed her stance.

Hearing this, Mrs. Yue flew into a rage. "What do you mean by you and Yue Ze? Have I agreed to your relationship? You know very well what kind of person you are. Let's not bring up the fact that you were a mistress in the past. This child isn't even Yue Ze's. How can I agree to you two being together?"

Anyway, you have to move out today!

"Our Yue family will never allow a woman like you, who was pregnant before marriage and gave birth to a bastard, to join us!"

These words were extremely harsh. Lv Shan's sore spot was exposed and her expression turned extremely ugly.

After she had a child, she had no intention of getting into another relationship or even think about marriage. However, Yue Ze had moved her with his sincerity, so Lv Shan agreed to try and date him.

However, none of this could stop her mother-in-law from telling the truth. These were things Lv Shan least wanted to hear.

"aunt, I think our relationship is our own business..."

"What's your own business? Marrying and having children, which one of these shouldn't be our family's business? Yue Ze was raised by me, so I have the right to make decisions for his matters. Anyway, I definitely won't let him get together with a woman like you," Mrs. Yue said loudly and firmly.

Lv Shan wanted to continue but Mrs. Yue said, "I've already given you my ultimatum. If you know what's good for you, move out. Otherwise, I'll find a moving company and move everything out tomorrow."

Lv Shan was furious, but she had no choice when it came to Yue Ze's mother.

She was about to speak when there was a light knock on the door. Lv Shan opened the door with red eyes and saw Su Bei.

Su Bei saw her crying and asked, "What happened?"

"Nothing." Lv Shan quickly concealed her emotions...

Chapter 783: Even More Painful

However, Su Bei had already seen the angry Mrs. Yue sitting on the sofa. Su Bei guessed that this person was Yue Ze's mother.

The last time Lv Shan had given birth, Mrs. Yue called Yue Ze away because of her heart disease. Now that she had come personally, it seemed like she had ill intentions.

"Sorry, I didn't know you had visitors," Su Bei said quietly.

Mrs. Yue stood up, glanced at Su Bei, and left without saying anything.

"Did Brother Yue Ze's mother cause trouble for you? She doesn't agree with the relationship?"

Lv Shan nodded. "I knew it would be difficult but I only realized the severity now that I'm actually facing it."

Back then, when she gave birth alone, Lv Shan knew that Yue Ze's mother was the one behind it.

But now, when she came knocking on her door, the embarrassment was even more painful.

"I just know that I no longer have the right to love and be loved..." Lv Shan lowered her head, her eyes reddening. She was no longer as capable as she was at work.

In front of Su Bei, she openly revealed her vulnerability.

"How is that possible? Everyone has the right to love and be loved. You didn't do anything wrong. Furthermore, choosing to be with you was Brother Yue Ze's own decision. Who said that a woman can't start over and lead a happy life?" Su Bei saw Lv Shan crying and felt bad.

Lv Shan didn't want her to worry about her and said, "You haven't seen the child yet. Go take a look."

She got the nanny to carry the child out. The obedient child was no longer as wrinkled as before and had become fair and chubby.

Su Bei recalled how Da Bao looked back then and her heart warmed. She hugged him. "So cute."

"Yes, the child is very sensible and obedient. He rarely cries. He always just eats and sleeps." A blissful smile appeared on Lv Shan's face.

"This is a gift for you." Su Bei placed the item beside the baby.

She recalled that Da Bao was also like this back then. He was exceptionally sensible and obedient since he was born and rarely needed Su Bei to worry about him. It was as if he had unknowingly grown into his current self.

After Su Bei left Lv Shan's house, she thought of her child and felt warm inside.

But thinking about Lv Shan's situation, she sighed.

Perhaps she should help them.

For the next two days, she was busy filming, but she still thought about Lv Shan's matters.

'When Yue Ze came over to deliver the documents to her, it was obvious that there were dark circles under his gold-rimmed glasses.

It seemed that he was also deeply troubled by this matter.

According to Lv Shan, he was very determined to protect her. However, he could not stand his mother-in-law's constant crying and tantrums. As her son, he was also a little tired of dealing with her.

Su Bei took the documents and asked, "Are Sister Lv and the baby okay?"

"They're doing alright. It's just that during this period, I've neglected to manage your matters. I'm really sorry."

"It's fine. Anyway, I'm doing quite well on the production team. Xiao Bai is also very supportive. Also, you know that I have someone else helping me."

Yue Ze understood that the man behind her was much more capable than him. Was he really just a chauffeur?

"Oh, that's right. Brother Yue Ze, can you compile a list of information on your mother's personality, hobbies, and family matters for me?" Su Bei saw his expression change and quickly said, "I won't mess around. I just need to think of a way to help you and Sister Lv."

Chapter 784: Please Give Me A Reading As Well

Yue Ze thought about it. No matter what, he could not hurt his mother. Lv Shan was not in a position to fight with his mother. He had already tried everything, but he could not stop his mother from coming.

His father had been making phone calls every day from his hometown. He could no longer stop the two of them. Lv Shan had not even completed her postnatal recovery period. She had not been able to rest well.

Perhaps Su Bei's idea could really solve the problem from the source.

After a day, Su Bei received the documents that Yue Ze had specially sent over.

"If there's anything you need to ask me, just give me a call." Although Yue Ze didn't really believe that Su Bei could solve the problem, he still held great hope.

He had even threatened to sever ties with his mother, but she refused to budge and insisted that Lv Shan move out of his place.

Su Bei was Yue Ze's last hope.

"Okay, I will." After Su Bei finished filming, she held Lv Shan's mother-in-law's information and read it.

"Oh..." Lin Yu dragged out his last word and sat down beside her." No wonder you always pass in one go. So you're giving special treatment behind my back. Su Xiaobei, Su Xiaobei, you've learned your lesson."

Su Bei handed him a bottle of coke and continued looking down.

“What exactly are you looking at? Why are you so engrossed?” Lin Yu reached out and dragged her over. He wanted to see what she was looking at too.

He looked at it for a while and realized that it had nothing to do with acting.

‘What was the point of looking at the life of an old woman in her 60s?’

“Su Bei, what exactly are you doing?”

“shh, this is a secret!” Su Bei had learned about Mrs. Yue’s strengths and weaknesses. Although she was hesitant, it seemed she would have to make use of this information now.

“Lin Stone, do me a favor!” Su Bei pulled him over and ordered.

‘When Lin Yu heard that, he thought that there would be something fun for him to get involved in and he immediately agreed.

Su Bei called Lin Wenyu again and asked, “Didn’t you say that you work in the hospital? Can you do me a favor?”

“I’m just an intern. Which department’s specialist do you want to see? I’m not very good at this yet, so I can introduce you to my teacher,” Lin Wenyu said with some shame and frustration. Although Su Bei came to seek her help, she couldn’t help her. All these years of medical school had been wasted.

“There’s no need for so much trouble. You’re enough!” Su Bei said.

Lin Wenyu was immediately filled with confidence and hope. “Then tell me what to do.”

Lv Shan’s mother-in-law was renting a small house and ready to fight a long battle with her son.

Anyway, she would never allow a woman like Lv Shan to bring her child to their family.

In the morning, she was walking past a park to buy groceries at the market across the estate.

For the past few days, she always saw an old man with a sage-like aura sitting there. His eyes were narrowed as he mumbled something.

A young man was kneeling on the ground. He bowed with cupped hands and thanked, “Thank you, Great Immortal, for helping me resolve the bloody calamity. Great Immortal, you’re truly a deity in this world. In the future, I’ll worship you day and night! I’ll definitely kneel and worship you to show my sincerity!”

Mrs. Yue was tempted. Wasn’t there a disaster in her family? She had always believed in the words of divine beings and gods. In her hometown, she would frequently go to the temple for a few days to eat vegetarian meals and recite Buddhist prayers.

Without waiting for the young man to leave, Mrs. Yue impatiently stepped forward and said, “Great Immortal, please give me a reading as well.”

Chapter 785: The Secrets Of The Heavens Must Not Be Revealed

The young man was none other than Lin Yu. However, he had put on a little bit of makeup, so no one could tell that he was handsome at all. When he saw Mrs. Yue coming over, he immediately said, "Aunt, Great Immortal is really smart. Before this, my dad was sick and couldn't recover. It was Great Immortal who guided me to transfer my dad to a different hospital. It's the same illness and the same medicine. But my dad, who used to sit in a wheelchair, can now walk on his own!"

"Really? That's great." Mrs. Yue believed in such things. The more mysterious it was, the more she believed in it.

This was Su Bei's conclusion from the information Yue Ze had given her.

"But Great Immortal is just someone with good fate. It doesn't matter how much money is offered."

Mrs. Yue said anxiously, "Great Immortal, you have to help me! I'll kneel down and kowtow to you! You have to help me no matter what!"

"Since you and I aren't fated, I wouldn't give you a reading." Su Bei, who was disguised as Great Immortal, said. Her words were deep and unfathomable. Once she spoke, she carried the aura of an immortal. "But when you were 20 years old, you saved a cat. That cat had a spirit, and you did a great job, so I'm willing to make an exception and give you a reading this one time."

Save a cat? Mrs. Yue had already forgotten about it. Now that Great Immortal mentioned it, she remembered that it was true.

Yue Ze had heard about it once before. Since Su Bei wanted to dig deep into his family matters, he gave her this clue.

Mrs. Yue immediately felt that the Great Immortal was capable of knowing this piece of information. She immediately said, "Yes, yes. Great Immortal, please help me."

"I can help you, but from the looks of it, your glabella is dark, your white hair has increased, and your cheeks are turning yellow. Your son must be facing a disaster. Your son is in trouble. Has he been in poor health since he was young? Did he undergo surgery when he was 17?

He often fainted when he was 20 years old and gradually recovered after turning 21. Now, he was over 30 years old. Although he had recovered and had a successful career, his marriage did not go well.

"The condition of this son of yours isn't too good! "

Mrs. Yue nodded immediately. Lv Shan and her son had the intention of marrying into the Yue family. Wasn't this Yue Ze's misfortune? This was also the Yue family's misfortune! Great Immortal was really amazing. He could tell at a glance even though she did not say anything.

Furthermore, she even described all of the previous incidents accurately.

Su Bei said, "Has your son been suffering from headaches recently? Dizziness, dark eye circles, and fatigue?"

“Yes, yes, yes. That’s how it is. He’s troubled and restless.”

Su Bei understood in her heart that this was not truly the case. With a mother like her meddling and causing unrest in the household, how could Yue Ze not be in such a situation?

Su Bei said, “He might have a disease that’s difficult to resolve. In this world, only by finding the person who matches his birth characters can his calamity be resolved.”

“A compatible person? Please give me some pointers, Great Immortal.” Mrs. Yue was so scared that she wanted to kneel down.

“The secrets of the heavens must not be revealed!” Su Bei said, put away her things, and left.

Mrs. Yue was shocked out of her wits and immediately called Yue Ze. “Son, where are you?”

“At the hospital.”

“Ah? What’s wrong? Are you really sick?” Mrs. Yue felt as if a knife was being twisted in her heart. Wasn’t it all because of Lv Shan?

“No, it’s just a health check-up,” Yue Ze replied casually...

Chapter 786: Unclear

Mrs. Yue immediately expressed that she wanted to go over and rushed straight to the hospital.

In the end, she heard a young doctor say to Yue Ze, “This can either be a big or small matter. We still need to do further tests to confirm.”

Mrs. Yue’s legs went weak. “Doctor, what happened to my son?”

This doctor was Lin Wenyu. She said solemnly, “There’s a cyst in his body. I don’t know if it’s benign or malignant.”

“What does benign mean? What does malignant mean?”

“If it’s benign, it’s fine as long as it’s removed. If it’s malignant, it’s cancer,” Lin Wenyu said.

“Then what should we do? What should we do?”

Lin Wenyu couldn’t answer this question. She shook her head and left.

Mrs. Yue wanted to blame everything on Lv Shan, but seeing her son like this, she could not say anything.

This was her only son, and she had pinned all her hopes on him.

Now that her son was like this, what else could she say?

Yue Ze said, “Mom, I’ll send you back. Or you can stay at my place.”

“Where are you staying? I’m not staying there.” Mrs. Yue did not want to stay with Lv Shan.

“Lv Shan has already moved out.” Yue Ze sounded very sad.

“She really moved out? That’s great. No, I mean, I’ll move in to take care of you...” Mrs. Yue said quickly.

Yue Ze stood behind her and adjusted his glasses. In order to cooperate with Su Bei’s plan, Lv Shan moved away and Lin Wenyu also helped out with the hospital’s report. Now, it was up to his mother to believe it.

Based on his experience with his mother, she would believe him. After all, once one started to believe in superstitions, it would be as difficult to change that belief. It was as though it had already been ingrained in one’s mind.

The hospital’s medical report was still unclear, so they requested Yue Ze to continue with the examination.

Mrs. Yue was loitering around the park when the great immortal came again.

Su Bei sat down and said, “It’s not easy for me to help you with this matter. I’m afraid it won’t be easy for your son to find someone whose birth characters match with his.”

Mrs. Yue believed in these things without a doubt. However, where could she find such a compatible person?

She respectfully said, “Please give me a hint, Great Immortal.”

“What characters?”birth son’syour are

Mrs. Yue hurriedly reported it.

Su Bei pinched her fingers and said, “Your son is destined to be rich, successful in his career, and lead a noble life. However, there’s one thing. He has a steady personality but is slightly depressed. He’s physically strong but is easily prone to illnesses. He needs someone to keep him company. The person who’s destined to keep him company will have a child with her. I’m afraid it’ll be difficult for your son to succeed..”

Chapter 787 Help You Until The End

Mrs. Yue understood a little. Could this person be Lv Shan?

She did some calculations in her heart. Yue Ze had indeed been prone to falling sick and was weak from a young age. Although he had always been doing well in his studies and had a successful career, his body had always been a huge worry for her.

After Su Bei finished speaking, she stood up and was about to leave. When it came to things like this, she could not rush things too much. Only when the other party started being hasty could she highlight the mysterious nobility of her Great Immortal persona and make the other party more convinced of the truth of the matter.

Mrs. Yue hurriedly pulled her back, refusing to let her leave.

After that, Aunt Yue was skeptical and quickly called Yue Ze to ask for Lv Shan's birth characters. No matter what, this matter concerned her son, so she had to get to the bottom of it.

If marrying Lv Shan would really be beneficial to her son, as a mother... she would have to accept it no matter how difficult it was.

'Yue Ze was very confused and refused to give the information to her no matter what. His mother had to coax him for a long time before he gave it to her.

"Great Immortal, I beg you, please give me another reading," Mrs. Yue pleaded.

Su Bei could only sit down again. "Sigh, since I've already helped you, I'll help you until the end. Give it to me."

Mrs. Yue respectfully relayed the information she got from Yue Ze.

Su Bei counted with her fingers for a long time before saying, eight characters are quite compatible. This woman's luck is average, but fortunately, she has a tenacious nature and is a person who can bring prosperity to her husband. If she's fated to have a child, it can also help her to have good fortune in her later years.

However, her previous fate was bumpy, and now, she's being obstructed in all ways. She might face some trouble getting together with your son..."

Mrs. Yue fell into deep thought. Could she be the trouble Great Immortal was talking about?

Suddenly, a middle-aged man jumped out from the side and questioned, "Where did this elderly bastard come from? Is he cheating an elder of her money?"

Mrs. Yue quickly pulled him back. "Great Immortal doesn't accept money, nor does he lie."

"Heh heh, this is just a trick. When the time comes, he'll cheat you off your money. Besides, how can you ask such a person about marriage? It doesn't make any sense at all. Old woman, you're really muddle-headed. Why would you believe in lies?" The middle-aged man's Su Bei pointed at him and said, "You're so rude. You have a pile of debt to pay, yet you're meddling in other people's business."

When the middle-aged man heard this, he immediately kneeled down. "Great Immortal, you... How did you know that I have deb

'This middle-aged man was also played by Lin Yu in order to deepen Mrs. Yue's trust. As expected, when Mrs. Yue saw this, she prostrated herself before Su Bei and took the initiative to say, "There must be a reason behind the things passed down by our ancestors."

Su Bei ignored the middle-aged man and said to Mrs. Yue in agreement, "You're right. The things passed down by our ancestors make sense."

Besides, the way of yin and yang was similar to scientific principles. Think about it, weren't matching birth characters the equivalent of the three harmonious outlooks in the science field? If the three outlooks were compatible, wouldn't a person's mood be good? Once a person's mood was good, their body would be healthy and their career would be smooth, no?

Otherwise, would everything go wrong?

If one can't even stay at home, how would one have the time to take care of one's body and develop on

If someone else had said this to Mrs. Yue, she would definitely not believe it..

Chapter 788 I Contributed Too

But if Great Immortal said so, she would definitely believe him.

And these words sounded so reasonable.

"Think about it. In the past, was your son forced to study hard because of your high expectations? He didn't even have time to play. It made him depressed. Although he has become a genius now, how many times has his health been sacrificed during this period?" Su Bei continued to ask. She had to convince Mrs. Yue at one go.

Mrs. Yue slapped her leg. That was right. She had been controlling her son since he was young. That was why he had such a problem. Was it too much for her to continue caring so much?

o wonder when Yue Ze was together with Lv Shan in the past half a year, everything was smooth sailing for him. When Lv Shan moved away, his body started having problems. This was because he was in a bad mood.

After Su Bei finished speaking, she picked up her things and left. The 'middle-aged man' was still behind her, begging her to read his fortune.

Mrs. Yue felt extremely conflicted.

It was impossible for her to accept Lv Shan just like that.

But once she thought about her son's health and future, she had no choice but to grit her teeth. She closed her eyes and called Yue Ze. "Son, where does Lv Shan live?"

She wanted to fetch her back personally.

"Mom, we've already broken up. Are you still going to disturb her?" Yue Ze knew that Su Bei might have succeeded. Since this was the case, he would resist for now.

"I'm going to pick her up!" Mrs. Yue said. No matter how difficult it was, she had to try to accept Lv Shan. Her son was more important than anything else.

Mrs. Yue personally went to Lv Shan's place to fetch her and the child.

Even though her face didn't look good, she reached out to hug the boy and said, "Let's go back. I'll take care of you in the future."

Yue Ze finally looked relieved and went forward to hug Lv Shan.

Even though the methods used were not honorable, the outcome was still good.

After Mrs. Yue brought Lv Shan back, Yue Ze handed the new medical report. "My tumor is benign. The doctor said that it'll be fine after a small surgery."

This benign tumor really did exist, but under Su Bei's arrangement, Lin Wenyu exaggerated the problem in the hospital.

"Great Immortal is truly powerful!" Mrs. Yue hurriedly clasped her hands together and bowed toward the sky, thinking that her decision was correct.

At this point, she firmly believed in what the great immortal told her and accepted Lv Shan from the bottom of her heart.

Yue Ze sent a message to Su Bei in the WeChat group. [Thank you, Su Bei.]

[Treat me to hotpot. I contributed too!] Lin Yu was the first to jump out. [I acted out of friendship. Didn't I act well?]

Yue Ze adjusted his glasses. Was this the cold and aloof Lin Yu who had tens of millions of fans and young girls clamoring to marry him?

Is three meals enough?] Yue Ze shook his head and laughed.

How loyal! @ Yue Ze] Lin Yu gave him a thumbs up. [Next time you encounter such a fun situation, invite me! @ Su Bei.]

Su Bei: [I hope my friends won't encounter such a thing again.]

In order to further strengthen the effects, Su Bei disguised herself as the great immortal again the next day and continued to appear at that same spot. If Mrs. Yue still had any doubts, Su Bei could reassure her again.

Unexpectedly, Mrs. Yue was already certain that her son should be with Lv Shan and did not come again..

Chapter 789 Did You Encounter Some Difficulties In Your Life?

Su Bei secretly prayed that Mrs. Yue would not come again.

Just as she was thinking about this, she heard a cry from the front. "Oh no! Someone, come and help!

"An old lady fainted."

Su Bei quickly ran over to take a look. An old woman with a head full of silver-gray hair was lying on the ground. She looked familiar. It seemed that this old woman had been training in the park for the past few days.

"What happened?" Su Bei quickly asked.

Someone said, "I think she saw her taking medicine before she fainted. Did she have a heart attack or something? Quickly pick up the medicine and feed her another one."

"Have you called an ambulance?" Su Bei asked.

"T did, but it'll take a few minutes."

Because the onlookers were all old people who were doing their morning exercises, they could only watch from the sidelines even if they wanted to help.

Su Bei saw that the old woman lying on the ground had turned pale. Seeing that the medicine was only vitamins, she guessed that she must be choking on the pill. Heimlich maneuver could be used to get the medicine out.

The Heimlich maneuver was specifically targeted for when a foreign substance was stuck in one's throat.

Su Bei had specially learned it so she would know what to do if her children ever choked on something.

Sure enough, a moment later, the old woman spat it out and her face instantly recovered its rosy color.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Ah, this is great. I spat out the pill I took just now. It turns out that it was stuck in my throat earlier."

"Fortunately, this... This great sage is here. Otherwise, something bad would have happened."

The surrounding people saw Su Bei's current outfit and did not recognize her true identity.

Su Bei did not expose herself. Seeing that the old woman was feeling better, the crowd gave her some water to drink.

"If there's nothing else, I'll leave first." Su Bei did not want to cause more trouble and was about to leave.

"Wait," said the old woman.

Su Bei could only stay. The other onlookers were all old people who were busy training and buying groceries. They all scattered.

Only Su Bei and the old woman were left.

"Grandma, is there anything else? Do you need me to send you to the hospital?"

"That's not necessary." The old woman took Su Bei's hand and said, "Thank you so much for today. I've always been in good health, and these pills are all nutritional supplements. I've taken them every day for more than ten years. I didn't expect to get one stuck in my throat this morning. I'm too old and careless."

Su Bei also noticed that the vitamins were in big pills. She smiled and said, "Then you really have to be careful in the future. It's best to have someone by your side when you're taking these pills."

The old woman smiled. "It's all thanks to you."

"It's nothing. It's nothing."

The old woman held her hand. "Young man, you're not walking the righteous path and instead pretend to be a great sage every day. Did you encounter some difficulties in your life?"

'Oh no!' Su Bei muttered in her heart before remembering that she was still dressed as a great sage.

She did not meet Mrs. Yue today, but this old woman had exposed her. It was really unexpected.

Seeing that Su Bei did not respond, the old woman said, "I've been observing you for a few days. I just didn't expect you to be a girl. I have some money with me here. Take it and use it for emergencies. Don't do such things again."

Su Bei thought that the ruse she put on with her and Lin Yu was flawless. She didn't expect such an old woman to see through everything...

Chapter 790: Reminds Her Of Her Daughter

"Grandma, I'm not short of money and I'm not deceiving others." Su Bei definitely did not want to accept her money, so she was very honest. "I have my own reasons for pretending to be a great sage."

"Oh? Then tell me what it is."

The old woman looked rather noble. Although her hair was grayish silver, it could not hide the wisdom in her eyes.

She also seemed determined to repay Su Bei. If Su Bei had any difficulties, the old woman would definitely not sit by and do nothing.

Su Bei thought for a while. This old woman seemed to be someone of status, and it was easy for people to have a good impression of her. If she told her about it, she believed that she could keep it a secret.

Su Bei then told her everything about Mrs. Yue.

When the old woman heard this, she let out an 'oh' in surprise. She clearly did not expect that Su Bei was not pretending to be a great sage to cheat people of their money. She was just helping her friends.

"However, this is still a scam. Even if you can solve this problem for now, it won't last forever," the old woman said calmly.

Su Bei smiled. "Yes, but don't you think that the real problem is whether my two friends can really be together? As long as they're sincerely together, understand each other, take care of each other, and lead a good life together, Mrs. Yue's attitude won't be a big problem anymore.

"She's just a barrier in between my friends' marriage. After crossing this barrier, it's up to them to see how their lives will turn out.

"If they can really live happily, I believe that Mrs. Yue isn't the kind of mother who'll make her son suffer. '

The old woman was stunned. It was unexpected that although Su Bei seemed young, she could clearly analyze the situation.

She smiled and said, "Young lady, your words do contain some logic. However, shouldn't your male friend handle this matter himself?"

"When facing your own family, it's inevitable for you to be restrained. It's also inevitable for you to be more tolerant of your parents. This is human nature. I've checked. His mother isn't a bad person, but she's too superstitious. Therefore, it's not a big deal for me to lend a hand to my friend. Furthermore, Mrs. Yue is also very happy now, so why not?" Su Bei said logically.

She said softly, "Even if it's my son and he marries a woman with a child, I might feel uneasy. I might worry about whether he'd do well and whether he'd get hurt. I think that there are some things that we should look at from another perspective and put ourselves in the shoes of others."

"Child, what you said makes sense." The old woman nodded and said, "When a person becomes a mother and an elder, their roles change. Indeed, they can't help but think differently from young people. I just didn't expect you to have such thoughts at such a young age."

Su Bei smiled. Perhaps with Da Bao and Gun Gun, it was easier for her to consider things from a mother's perspective.

Su Bei did not know if it was inconvenient for the old woman to go home by herself. Hence, she said, "Grandma, let me help you hail a cab and send you home."

"Alright then." The old woman looked at Su Bei. "I feel like I've seen you somewhere before. You look familiar."

She reminded her of her daughter.

Su Bei guessed that she must have seen her in a TV commercial..
