

Chapter 791 Fate Is in Your Own Hands

It was not the first time that someone found her face familiar.

However, the old woman's feeling was not because she had previously watched a TV commercial Su Bei starred in.

Instead, she could find that long-awaited feeling when looking at Su Bei.

Su Bei accompanied her in the car and they had a simple conversation. The wrinkles on the old woman's face smoothed out. She even hoped the journey would be longer so she could spend more time with Su Bei.

They were about to reach their destination when the old woman got out of the car at a street junction. "This is it."

"Then I'll send you down." Su Bei thought that since she had already sent the old woman here, she should just send her to her doorstep.

"I'm an old woman but I still have some stamina. You youngsters have a lot of things to do, so I won't hold you up." The old woman thought for a while and asked, "Child, can you give me your phone number?"

Su Bei readily agreed and gave the old woman her number, but she did not leave her name. Perhaps the old woman would soon know her name.

"See you around," the old woman said with a grin. "By the way, there's no pin on that card. You can keep it for yourself to spend."

"What?" Su Bei did not understand what the old woman meant, but the old woman had already left.

Su Bei nodded and waved at her.

"Driver, please go to this address." Su Bei gave an address.

Then, she felt a bank card in her hand. Recalling the old woman's words, Su Bei quickly asked the driver to turn back. It turned out that the old woman had left the card with her. The meaning of her words was to tell her that the card she gave her did not have a pin.

The old woman was still worried about Su Bei, so she left the card with her. This was also considered to be a selfish move because of the familiar feeling she felt with Su Bei.

When Su Bei returned, the old woman had already disappeared and could no longer be found.

There were rows upon rows of buildings all around. It was impossible to tell where the old woman was.

Su Bei was secretly vexed. She only gave the old woman her number but did not ask for hers. There was no chance for her to return the card.

Holding such a bank card placed her in a difficult situation.

The old woman walked home slowly. Lin Hancheng and Lin Wenyu went forward to welcome her.

“Mom, Grandma!”

Lin Hancheng had a square face, appearing dignified and noble. He was also full of the aura of a middle-aged man who held a high position. He saw the old woman get out of a car, and in that car, there seemed to be someone who looked like a great sage. He couldn't help but frown.

“Mom, did you go to the temple?” Lin Hancheng asked. As an important member of S Country, he had never believed in the supernatural. Logically speaking, his mother would not believe in those things either. The Lin family relied on their own abilities to conquer the world since they were founded. They had always believed that fate was in their hands.

The only thing he was afraid of was that his mother would believe those things and be deceived.

The old woman was Old Madam Lin. She said kindly, “No, I don't believe in that either.”

As for the ‘great sage’, she had explained that she only did so because of her friends’ private matters. She asked Old Madam Lin not to tell anyone about it, lest it spread to Mrs. Yue and cause trouble for her friends in the future.

Seeing that his mother was unwilling to speak, Lin Hancheng was a little worried..

Chapter 792: Ulterior Motives

Lin Wenyu also looked a little worried. Grandma saw Su Bei? She wondered how she would treat Su Bei.

Did Grandma know that Su Bei was from the Tang family?

Nothing could happen. Otherwise, with the Lin family's hatred toward Lin Shulian, Su Bei would be implicated sooner or later.

Lin Hancheng turned around and arranged for people to immediately investigate that great sage's identity.

‘To think that someone in the capital city of S Country would engage in such feudal superstitions! Even if they didn't deceive the old madam, it's still a disaster if they're deceiving the elderly! Once we track down that organization that cheats the elderly, we must punish them severely!’ Lin Hancheng instructed his subordinate angrily.

Soon after, his subordinate quickly reported the news. "That great sage didn't cheat the old madam of her money and doesn't belong to any organization, but... that great sage's name is Su Bei."

His subordinate had yet to find out anything else, but Lin Hancheng was already furious!

Su Bei! He had long heard that the Tang family had recognized a daughter called Su Bei.

Initially, he did not intend to look into it.

However, he did not expect Su Bei to approach the old madam!

She must have ulterior motives, and it made Lin Hancheng so angry that his eyes turned red.

He recalled how Lin Shulian had stayed in the Lin family with that identity. The Lin family treated her with sincerity, but she was worse than a beast... Did she arrange for Su Bei to get close to the old madam?

Did she think that the Lin family had not been hurt enough?

Lin Hancheng punched the table.

The subordinate had never seen Lin Hancheng lose his temper like this. Even though he was a general, he was usually just serious. It was rare for him to be so angry.

The subordinate hurriedly said, "Then I'll continue to investigate..."

"There's no need to investigate!" Lin Hancheng had a lot of hatred for Lin Shulian, so since the matter was related to Su Bei, he already had his answer.

This answer was extremely unfavorable for both the Tang family and Su Bei!

Su Bei was unaware of all this.

That was because she had never paid attention to who Lin Shulian's mother was and what kind of family background she had.

She was filming her final scene in the production team.

After a whole day of filming, she received a call from Tang Xinru the moment she got her phone.

"Grandfather is sick? I'll be right there." Su Bei put down her phone and rushed to the hospital.

Great-uncle Tang Jiankang and his father Tang Jianming's family were all there. Old Master Tang was lying on the hospital bed. His mental state was not good.

"Cousin, is Grandpa alright? What did the doctor say?" Su Bei rushed over and asked.

Old Master Tang waved his hand. "Su Bei, come to me. I'm fine. I'm just old. My body isn't as healthy as when I was young."

"Grandpa, you're still young. How can you say that you're old?" Su Bei saw the love in his eyes and comforted him.

"With you guys around, I feel much better," Old Master Tang laughed.

“Grandfather, you still need to take care of your health. Why don’t you stay in the hospital for a while? That way, everyone can be at ease,” Tang Yue said immediately..

Chapter 793 Not Taking The Blame

Old Master Tang waved his hand. “I still have a lot of things to deal with at home. I have to go back now. Plus, I know my own body!” The crowd had no choice but to leave with the old man.

Su Bei followed them to the Tang residence.

Eldest Aunt Cai Hua muttered softly, “It’s all because of that jinx that so many things have been happening at home. What bad luck.”

Tang Xinru tugged on her sleeve. “Mom!”

Cai Hua couldn’t help but ask, “Did I say anything wrong? If it isn’t for her, how could this have happened?”

Tang Jiankang interrupted and said, “Don’t talk so much. Isn’t the most important thing now to solve the problem?” “How can we solve the problem? Who will solve it? Do you really think that it’s so easy to solve the problem? When the assets are distributed in the future, do you think you’ll be given extra shares? I think this kind of matter should be settled by whoever is responsible for it!”

Tang Yue could not help but say, “Alright, cut it out. Grandpa has his own plans.”

Su Bei was confused. She originally thought that Eldest Aunt and the rest were talking about her, but when she heard this, she felt that it did not seem like it. She looked at Tang Xinru and asked softly, “Cousin, what’s going on? Didn’t we just settle the project on the west side of the city? What’s going on with the company?”

Tang Xinru said in a low voice, “The Lin family made a move on our other projects. The two biggest projects of the Tang family now are Sheng Tang Central Square, which was built in the city center, and Jingbei Sheng Tang Square, which is located in the suburbs. They’re both very big shopping malls and are preparing to open for business soon. Jingbei Sheng Tang Square is a huge investment because the suburbs of Jingbei in the early days was planned to become the entire capital’s satellite city. It’s very worth investing in.

“But suddenly, the plan changed. They no longer plan to make it a satellite city. The construction of this suburb is about to stop. These shopping malls will become isolated. No one will go there to shop, so construction will definitely be halted.

“You’re saying that it was the Lin family that did it?” Su Bei was shocked. Lin Shulian’s Lin family?

“Other than them, no one else has that kind of power to interfere in such a big matter. No one has so much hatred for the Tang family. Could the Ou family compete with the Tang family for the project in the west of the city last time? It’s all because of the Lin family,” Tang Xinru told Su Bei.

“Alright, stop talking.” Old Master Tang cut her off. Clearly, he had heard everything she said.

Cai Hua said, "Dad, you can't be too biased. This matter is clearly targeted at Lin Shulian. If something really happens, we won't take the blame."

Tang Yue could not help but retort, "Back then, the Tang family benefited a lot by relying on my grandfather's family. Isn't it a little too much to say that about my mother now?" "Then what do you think we should do? We've invested so much money in Jingbei Sheng Tang Square, and it's been built well. Now that there's no investment plan in that district, do you think we should rely on our Tang family's shopping mall to dominate the entire area? We don't have that ability." Cai Hua made her stance clear.

Old Master Tang snapped. "I told you to stop arguing!" Only then did everyone quiet down. Su Bei also understood that this matter was the Lin family's scheme against the Tang family, and the root of it was Lin Shulian.

Chapter 794: Clean Up The Mess?

Old Master Tang said, "If there's a problem, solve it. Can arguing solve the problem?"

"Dad, how should we resolve this?" Cai Hua was obviously unconvinced, but her tone softened.

Lin Shulian walked out and said with tears in her eyes, "I've let everyone down. I didn't expect the Lin family to target me like this. Big Brother, Sister-in-law, I don't want to drag you down. Leave it to us to settle."

Cai Hua said aggressively, "Alright, you guys go and solve this problem about the mall. Leave the new project in the west of the city to us.

Isn't that fair?"

Tang Yue was infuriated. "It's not fair at all. How can the profits in the west of the city be divided like this?"

"What else can we do? Do you want us to clean up your mess? I haven't even fought with you for Sheng Tang Central Square," Cai Hua pouted and said.

Su Bei finally knew why Old Master Tang had a relapse. The whole family would nag endlessly over such matters. It was hard for Old Master Tang not to have a relapse.

She picked up a cup of warm tea and accompanied Old Master Tang. She was not interested in these matters nor did she want to be emotionally involved.

Cai Hua said, "Anyway, the project in the west of the city should be decided reasonably. You two sisters can split the Sheng Tang Central Square and Jingbei Sheng Tang Square."

The moment she spoke, she snatched away the big project. Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian were not in a position to fight for it.

Seeing that things had turned out this way, Tang Yue said, "Then I'll be in charge of the opening of Sheng Tang Central Square. Grandpa, this is all I can help you with."

Sheng Tang Central Square was located in the heart of the capital city, where every inch of land was worth its weight in gold. The investment was huge, and the construction was grand and magnificent. It occupied the most favorable position, and as expected, once it opened, business would be exceptionally booming.

As long as one was not a fool or had a screw loose, one would never incur losses in the business here!

As for Jingbei Sheng Tang Square, it was located in the suburbs. At first, it was the most promising place. However, now that the Lin family had interfered, it was like a pile of trash. Not only had the piece of treasure become waste, but it would also be a huge problem to clean up this mess.

Tang Xinru wanted to say something, but her career was focused on Sheng Tang Entertainment. She couldn't handle such a big mess like Jingbei Sheng Tang Square.

Therefore, she hesitated and could only look at Su Bei apologetically.

Now, only Jingbei Sheng Tang Square was left with no one to manage.

Old Master Tang saw that the few of them had already divided the two projects between themselves. The good one had been snatched and only the huge mess was left. He couldn't help but feel depressed. He had really gotten old. He couldn't even suppress his family anymore.

He waved his hand. "That's all for now. Go back."

Cai Hua could not wait to leave. Seeing that Tang Xinru still wanted to say something, she grabbed her hand. "Let's go!"

Tang Xinru had no choice but to leave with her parents.

Meanwhile, Lin Shulian said to Old Master Tang with tears in her eyes,

"Dad, I'm really sorry. It's all because of me..."

"Let's not talk about it anymore. You're all tired. Go and rest."

Tang Yue glanced at Su Bei and gently said to Lin Shulian, "Mom, don't be sad. I'll accompany you to rest."

"Su Bei, I've let the Tang family down. I've also let you down." Lin Shulian held Su Bei's hand. "I didn't expect the Lin family to do such a thing..."

Su Bei did not know what to say. After a while, Tang Yue persuaded Lin Shulian to leave..

Chapter 795 Have Su Bei Do It

She followed Old Master Tang to his study.

"Grandpa, what's going on with the Lin family?" Su Bei asked.

"Old Master Lin is the founding minister of S Country. Be it in the past or now, he's very famous in the capital. After Old Master Lin and Old Madam Lin got married, they had a son and a daughter. Their lives were very blissful.

“But many years ago, a maid working in the Lin family was pregnant with Old Master Lin’s child and gave birth to a daughter. That’s your mother, Lin Shulian.

“As the maid passed away shortly after giving birth, Old Madam Lin disregarded the past and raised Lin Shulian as her daughter. She did not mistreat her.

“After that, Old Master Lin was injured by a group of villains in an accident, causing him to be paralyzed. Lin Shulian served him every day until he passed away.

“However, not long after, the Lin family received evidence that your mother, Lin Shulian, was responsible for Old Master Lin’s injury. However, the evidence wasn’t sufficient. After some other matters, the Lin family and Lin Shulian completely turned against each other...” Old Master Tang told Su Bei everything in detail. Su Bei asked in surprise, “That means my mother is the daughter of the Lin family’s mistress?”

Although it was a little disrespectful to say that, that was Su Bei’s first thought and she even felt a little disgusted.

This reminded her of her unhappy experiences in the Su family.

Old Master Tang said in a low voice, “This is all in the past. I’ve never interfered in the grudges of the previous generation. Besides, these things would affect the next generation. So, I don’t have any opinions about your mother.

“However, your uncle, Lin Hancheng, has always harbored great hatred toward your mother. He would suppress her from time to time, causing the Tang family to rise and fall over the years. Therefore, I can understand why he has more complaints than your aunt’s family.”

“I see,” Su Bei replied softly.

“You shouldn’t be involved in this matter. You don’t have to care about the family matters. Just do your own thing,” Old Master Tang said lovingly. “I can still settle the matter about Jingbei Sheng Tang Square...” Before he could finish speaking, he coughed violently. It was obvious that his body was not in agreement with his inner thoughts.

“Grandpa!” Su Bei’s heart ached when she saw this. Everyone in the family had their own thoughts. Each of them could not wait to take the greatest advantage and snatch away the best project.

On the surface, Old Master Tang appeared dignified, but in reality, he was kind-hearted. He was understanding about most matters. How could he bear all of this with his body?

“I’m alright...” Old Master Tang patted her hand.

Tang Yue also rushed in. “Grandpa, are you alright?”

“I’m fine,” Old Master Tang replied. “Grandpa, with the state your health is in, you don’t have to worry about anything else,” Tang Yue said. “Why don’t we have Su Bei handle Jingbei Sheng Tang Square?”

“How is that possible?” Old Master Tang was shocked.

“Su Bei doesn’t have anything else to do anyway. Besides, we might not be able to make this project thrive. If Su Bei manages it, whatever result she attains will be something miraculous. It might even be effective, right?” Tang Yue said.

Actually, she had planned it very well. If she took the central square and Su Bei took the suburban square, it was obvious that she would benefit most out of it.

When it came to the matter of inheritance in the future, she would have an excuse. Didn’t Su Bei already take it to a square? What right did she have to receive other things?

Chapter 796 Is There Something Wrong With Her Brain?

It could be said that Tang Yue’s scheme was not a good one. Gradually, Old Master Tang could tell that she was full of schemes. She wanted to fight for more, but on the surface, she pretended not to care.

Only Su Bei did not fight for anything.

“What do you think? Su Bei, you should share the burden with Grandpa and the family. I chose the square in the city center because Mom’s health isn’t good and she needs someone to take care of her. Otherwise, I’d manage the square in Jingbei,” Tang Yue said in a dignified manner.

Su Bei looked at Old Master Tang and said, “Then, Grandpa, let me handle Jingbei Sheng Tang Square.”

“Su Bei...” Old Master Tang did not want her to take on such great pressure.

“I have a condition,” Su Bei said.

“Go ahead. We’ll try our best to satisfy you.” Tang Yue smiled as she looked at Su Bei. Su Bei brushed her thick hair to the side and smiled at Tang Yue. “If I succeed in reviving Jingbei Sheng Tang Square, it’ll be my own property. I don’t want anything else from the Tang family.” Tang Yue didn’t expect Su Bei to bring up such a condition. Was there something wrong with Su Bei’s brain? Was she stupid?

Of course, to Tang Yue, the sillier Su Bei was, the better! She said to Old Master Tang, “Grandpa, we can’t not give Su Bei anything. Su Bei, do you really only want this?”

“That’s all I want,” Su Bei said evenly. “And I want it written in a contract.”

She had thought about it. In order to protect Lu Heting and her two sons, she needed to have enough wealth. When she stood at the peak of the entertainment industry, she would encounter many problems that an artist could not solve.

With enough wealth, she would no longer have to fear anything.

Besides, with Lu Heting’s capabilities, he would definitely be able to help manage the mall in the suburbs. When that time came, she and Lu Heting would grow old side by side, facing each other and the world in a better way.

If the square was a success, her small family of four would have nothing to worry about anymore!

Tang Yue eagerly invited Old Master Tang’s assistant in to write down the contract. After the contract was written, the only thing Su Bei could get from the Tang family was this shabby shopping mall that no one wanted. Everything else had nothing to do with her.

Old Master Tang tried to convince Su Bei to give up on the idea several times, but Su Bei firmly raised her pen and wrote her name on the contract.

Su Bei kept the contract and left quietly.

Old Master Tang was filled with guilt, but he couldn't say anything else.

"Grandpa, I'll definitely do my best and not disappoint you," Tang Yue promised in front of Old Master Tang.

Old Master Tang only felt sorry for Su Bei. She already had enough pressure on her, yet she still had to bear all this...

However, the man behind her was someone who could go against the Lin family. Perhaps he would help her out of her predicament.

At night, when Lu Heting returned home, he saw Su Bei sitting at the desk. She was writing and drawing something. There was a huge pile of documents in front of her.

"Still reading the script?" Lu Heting walked over and bent down to her neck.

"No, it's about a newly built mall of the Tang family." Su Bei looked up at him. "I've encountered a problem, and I plan to solve it myself."

Lu Heting frowned imperceptibly. Was there no one left in the Tang family? Did Su Bei have to solve the problem herself?

Chapter 797 Let's Rest Together

Seeing Lu Heting's displeasure, Su Bei quickly explained, "Tang Yue passed this responsibility to me, but I really want to handle it myself. This way, when I have money in the future, I'll..."

She wanted to say that if she had money, she could take care of her sons while keeping Lu Heting from being bullied and looked down upon by those people. However, saying that would hurt Lu Heting's pride. She changed her words and said, "Anyway, I have money now. I can do whatever I want. No one can control me." "Is it because of me?" Lu Heting saw through her thoughts.

"Who said so? I'm doing it for myself." Su Bei denied.

Lu Heting sat down with her. For herself? If she really only wanted money, why would she work so hard?

"Tell me what happened."

Su Bei told Lu Heting about how the Lin family targeted the Tang family.

Lu Heting had no idea about this. He never cared about other people's family matters.

However, from what Su Bei said, if the powerful Lin family really wanted to make a move on the Tang family, their attacks would be too aggressive and difficult to stop.

Su Bei said, "So since this mall is basically abandoned by the Tang family anyway, I might be able to counterattack if I stay and handle this project."

“Grandpa allowed you to split these projects among yourselves. He indeed has his own considerations,” said Lu Heting. “The Lin family has been targeting the Tang family for a long time, so I’m afraid it will be difficult to stop them. However, if the projects are in the hands of the younger generation and the resources are scattered, the Lin family won’t have that much power to target you.”

“Yes, I think so too. The most important thing is that I actually already have some plans for this shopping mall. We can develop it together. If we work together, no one can gossip about us anymore.”

The image that Su Bei imagined was that she and Lu Heting would stand side by side in front of everyone to announce that they were a couple who fully supported each other.

“Don’t stay up too late.” Lu Heting ruffled her hair.

Hearing her arrangements and imagining the scene, Lu Heting’s heart fluttered. Standing next to her and telling the whole world about the two of them was something he had longed for a long time.

Su Bei looked up at him and said, “You should rest first. I’ll go over soon.”

“No, let’s go together.” Lu Heting reached out and pulled her over.

“Cough, cough...” Su Bei always felt that resting with him could not be called resting. Instead, it was tiring.

Hearing her cough, Lu Heting frowned slightly. He was a little worried. “You caught a cold? Looks like you really can’t be in the kitchen...” “Hey!” Su Bei quickly covered his mouth. “Let’s rest together. Don’t talk about anything else.”

Her face was red.

Lu Heting’s lips curved slightly as he held her hand.

When Su Bei fell asleep, Lu Heting got up to look at Da Bao and Gun Gun as usual. She wanted to see if the two kids had kicked off their blankets in their sleep.

At first, Su Bei was the one doing this, but in order to let her sleep more comfortably, Lu Heting took over the task.

Speaking of which, after Su Bei and Da Bao came back, Lu Heting had much more things to take care of than before.

However, everything made him happy and fulfilled.

Chapter 798 Can His Woman Accept It?

Back in the room, he reached out to turn off the desk lamp.

He found a news article in the newspaper Su Bei had just read.

A well-developed female artist had announced the news that she was married to a less popular male artist. This caused the male artist to be questioned, pressured, and attacked by fans. They scolded him for being a freeloader and even tried to pry into his privacy in private. They put all aspects of his life on the table for everyone to laugh at.

As a result, the male artist was diagnosed with depression and eventually attempted suicide.

The reporter who wrote the news article was at the hospital where the male artist was sent to. Currently, the male artist's life and death were unknown.

The news was from two days ago.

Su Bei had used the tip of her pen to poke many dots on the newspaper. She had probably read it carefully.

This incident might have affected her greatly, which was why she was so eager to make more plans for Lu Heting and their future together.

Was that why she took over the mall that no one in the Tang family wanted?

Lu Heting tidied up his things and turned off the table lamp. He returned to the bed and hugged the woman who was sleeping soundly. The woman turned around and found a comfortable position in his embrace before continuing to sleep.

Lu Heting was thinking about what he had just seen. Although the woman's intentions delighted him, the pressure she was under made his heart ache even more.

Perhaps, he really should find a time to tell her his true identity so as to prevent her from feeling anxious.

However, he could not simply tell her the truth after lying to her for so long.

Lu Heting was also worried. Would the woman be able to accept his unimaginable status? Would she be worried that the two of them weren't compatible? Would she feel pressured?

The moment he thought that she might leave, he couldn't help but think more about it.

It was rare for Mr. Lu to lose sleep that night.

The next morning, there were some dark circles around his eyes.

Although it did not affect his handsome and strong aura, Su Bei still noticed it immediately.

"Aunt Chen, please buy some black chicken and ginseng today. Make some chicken soup tonight," Su Bei reminded Aunt Chen.

As someone who had experienced it before, Aunt Chen understood what she meant. She smiled and said, "Yes, yes, I've already prepared them. I'll cook it tonight."

Speaking of which, ever since Lu Heting moved into the master bedroom, Aunt Chen had gotten more attentive with the recipes.

She had watched Young Master grow up. Now that he was living a blissful life, she naturally knew how to nourish Young Master and Young Madam.

"Su Bei, you and Sir are both busy. You should advise Sir to take care of his health," Aunt Chen kindly reminded.

Su Bei's face was so red that she didn't know what to do. She coughed lightly and regained her usual expression. "I know, Aunt Chen."

She had tried to persuade him, but he wouldn't listen.

Lu Heting came out of the master bedroom after changing his clothes. He frowned when he heard their conversation.

No man liked to hear such things. He looked at Aunt Chen and said calmly, "I worked overtime last night and had to deal with some work matters at the last minute. I only slept at four."

Chapter 799 I Feel It In My Heart

"Oh, oh..." Aunt Chen quickly said, "Sir, you've worked hard."

"We don't always work overtime." Lu Heting sat down. "Su Bei and I have always taken care of our bodies well."

Aunt Chen didn't dare to say anything else. Just now, she even advised Su Bei to have Lu Heting restrain himself... She knew that she was being too careless. Young Master's health was probably very good.

After Aunt Chen left, Lu Heting looked at Su Bei with some dissatisfaction. "Aunt Chen doesn't know my body, but do you not know either?"

"I... I saw that you didn't sleep well. It turns out it's because you were working overtime last night." Su Bei had indeed thought wrongly.

"Mrs. Lu, you're very concerned about my health and I know that. However, I can still hold on," Lu Heting said calmly.

Su Bei thought, 'I might not be able to hold on!

'I have to film during the day, and I have to look at the mall's proposal at night.'

How unreasonable!

Lu Heting rubbed Su Bei's hair. "You can drink Aunt Chen's black chicken ginseng soup."

Su Bei smiled sweetly.

When Su Bei went to the production team, she brought along the proposal for the project.

Seeing this, Lin Yu was very interested and quickly asked, "What are you doing now? Is there anything fun that I can participate in?"

"Here, take a look." Su Bei handed the things to him.

Lin Yu took the papers excitedly before putting them down with a sad face. "Why are you showing me this? I'm most afraid of this. Why are you reading this? Lu Heting is using you as free labor?"

"No, this is my family's matter. I just want to help a little," Su Bei said. "I'm not talking to you anymore. It's my turn to film." After Su Bei said that, she quickly went to do her makeup.

At this moment, someone exclaimed, "Wow! He looks like a god!"

“Oh God, am I still dreaming? Quick, pinch my face!”

Outside the filming set, a tall and slender man with handsome and cold features appeared. He was as bright as the moon.

His facial features were as exquisite as a woman's. The mole under the corner of his eye made his beauty even more alluring.

The crew had seen many beautiful and handsome men. Especially with Lin Yu hanging around here every day, everyone's standards for beauty were raised to a very high level.

However, the person in front of them easily captured their attention and eyes, making it impossible for them to look away.

“How can there be such a good-looking man?! Lin Yu, forgive me. I'm going to change sides. I'll go back to your side after he leaves.”

“Oh my God, could this be some newbie Director Guo found to act in the film?”

“Ahhh, you've worked hard to descend to the earth.”

There was a commotion all around, but the man turned a deaf ear to it. He strode to the production team.

His expression was cold as if he did not see or hear anything.

It was as though the commotion around him had nothing to do with him.

As a result, everyone stopped talking. It was as if saying a few words would sully his beauty.

Su Bei heard the discussion and did not take it seriously.

There were some staff members in the production team who would readily go chasing after stars. They would make such sounds when they saw anyone good-looking. She was already used to it.

Chapter 800 Not Su Bei's Handwriting

Only Lin Yu stood up. “B-Boss?”

‘Boss, can you not appear in such a place? You'll cause my fan count to drop drastically.’ Comparisons were odious. “Boss, why are you here?” Lin Yu hurried over to Feng Ze.

In front of this man, the cold and handsome Lin Yu seemed like a lackey. “I'm here to visit Da Bao,” Feng Ze said in a calm voice that reminded one of the skies above.

Lin Yu nodded. No wonder he was holding a small doll in his hand.

It turned out to be for Da Bao.

However, Da Bao did not seem to like dolls.

But who could say for sure? After all, Boss and Da Bao had been friends for a lifetime. Perhaps they were different when they were together.

Lin Yu quickly said, "Su Bei is over there. I'll call her over."

"No need." His calm tone stopped Lin Yu in his tracks.

Feng Ze only sat down and did not plan to see Su Bei. Every time she saw him, she would look like a little rabbit seeing a big bad wolf. There was a hint of fear in her eyes. Rather than seeing Su Bei like that, it was better not to see her at all.

He just had to look at her.

Lin Yu had a lot to say, so he sat down beside Feng Ze. "Boss, you should be more proactive. Didn't I tell you that many times? Why do you always come so late? If you don't take action soon, Su Bei will really be Lu Heting's."

Feng Ze gave him a cold look.

Lin Yu felt a chill run down his spine. Did he say something wrong? He didn't say anything wrong. Why was this man's gaze so scary?

Lu Heting was so scary, and so was Boss. What had he done wrong? Feng Ze picked up the documents for the proposal and frowned while going through them.

After that, he picked up his pen and wrote down a few comments.

When he was done, he calmly looked in the direction of where Su Bei was filming.

Meanwhile, the others all looked at this man at the same time. They wanted to know his identity, whether he would stay, and whether he would join the cast!

The makeup artist felt that she was about to burst with inspiration.

Su Bei was a little surprised. What was going on today? Why did it feel so weird? Why couldn't the crew film properly? What was with these people? Why were they all gathered in one place?

When Director Guo was finally satisfied, she was exhausted. She took the towel from Xiao Bai and started to wipe her sweat.

Lin Yu hurried forward. "Su Bei, come quickly, come quickly..."

"Why are you here?"

"Look who's here to see you!" Lin Yu had always been more proactive in this matter than Feng Ze himself. Anyway, he was a firm shipper of Lin Yu and Feng Ze. No one could stop him from making a move.

Su Bei looked in his direction. "Who is it?"

She didn't see anyone?

Lin Yu excitedly pointed at where Feng Ze had been sitting and was about to say something when he turned around. He saw that the seat was empty.

"Hey, hey..." Where did Boss go? Wasn't he there just now?

Su Bei picked up her proposal and smiled at him. "I'm done. Goodbye!"

When she got home, she placed the proposal on the desk and went to take a shower.

When Lu Heting returned, he flipped open the proposal and saw the handwriting that did not belong to Su Bei.
