

Chapter 801 Giving Up Rest Is The Right Choice

Looking at the handwriting, although it was delicate and pretty, it was strong and firm. It obviously did not belong to a female. Hence, Su Bei went to consult someone about the Tang family's business?

Lu Heting silently thought that he shouldn't have dragged her to rest so early last night. Instead, he should have accompanied her to solve the proposal first.

That night, after dinner, Lu Heting picked up a pen and document. He said, "Su Bei, let's look at the proposal first."

"You want to go through it with me?" Su Bei hesitated.

"What, you don't trust my skills?" Lu Heting raised an eyebrow.

How could Su Bei not trust his standards?

As Lu Weijian's chauffeur, Lu Heting's skills far surpassed many assistants. His planning and management skills were top-notch.

She wondered how Lu Weijian would feel if he found out that she had stolen Lu Heting.

'I'm sorry, Mr. Weijian. I really didn't do it on purpose!'

Su Bei quickly shook her head. "Of course, I believe you!" However, didn't he always drag her to the bedroom to rest early as if he was afraid there wasn't enough time? Why did he have the time to look at the proposal with her today?

Even so, Su Bei already intended to go through the proposal. After all, going through the proposal was much easier than resting.

Lu Heting picked up a pen and sat down. Su Bei's peach blossom eyes grew more and more intent. If he didn't put in some effort, he would really lose his wife.

He sat down and said, "Since you trust me, we can discuss any future problems together."

"Of course. After all, this is our future." Su Bei smiled sweetly and tied her thick hair into a bun.

When she let her hair down, she was full of charm. When she tied her hair into a bun, she instantly became cute. She was an agile and energetic girl.

Lu Heting was satisfied with what he saw. "Let's begin, then."

Su Bei suddenly realized that there was a lot of ink on the proposal. It looked like Lu Heting had written on it.

Strange! Why did he write something and then try to erase it? Su Bei did not understand.

"Did you write this and draw over it?" Su Bei asked.

Lu Heting then realized that Su Bei had no idea that her proposal had been written on by someone else. What was going on?

“Let’s begin,” said Lu Heting.

Su Bei sat next to Lu Heting and listened to his detailed analysis of the proposal.

Lu Heting was indeed talented in this area. There were some things that Su Bei could not figure out. After his analysis, she was enlightened and her eyes shone brightly as she looked at the tip of Lu Heting’s pen.

In order to defeat that potential love rival, Lu Heting felt that giving up on rest was the right choice.

Due to the fact that she had to manage Jingbei Sheng Tang Square (later known as Jingbei Square), Old Master Tang gave Su Bei a lot of helpers. Su Bei was working on this and other stuff as well.

Other than that, she was also doing other things. Feng Cheng’s jade from the previous time produced many good pieces of jewelry.

Su Bei got quite a lot and gave them all to her friends in the circle.

This batch of jewelry was highly regarded in the small circle.

Chapter 802 Killing Two Birds With One Stone

From time to time, someone would call Su Bei to ask if she had any more jade products to sell. It could be seen how popular these things were.

Yue Ze also gave Su Bei a call and asked, “Su Bei, where did you get these things from? A friend actually called me and asked me to help them buy some jewelry. Do you still have any left?”

Su Bei saw that her plan was slowly starting to work and smiled. “They’re handmade by a designer. They might not be able to supply any more in a short period of time. When the time comes, invite your friend to Jingbei Square to buy them.”

Yue Ze recalled that Su Bei was currently handling the Tang family’s matters and asked, “Do you need help?”

“That’s not necessary,” Su Bei said. “I have people helping me.” Yue Ze thought of the man behind Su Bei and knew that he might not be of much help anyway.

Su Bei had already thought it through. She helped Feng Cheng register a studio called Ruyi, which specialized in his own handmade jade works as well as repairing high-end jewelry. At that time, the studio would be at Jingbei Square. Not only could it increase the flow of people in the square, but it could also provide Feng Cheng with a platform for his work. That way, it would be killing two birds with one stone.

On the other hand.

At a high-class social event, there were many guests present.

The men and women here all had noble statuses. Men in suits and elegant ladies were shuttling back and forth.

Many rich ladies and daughters of wealthy families appeared at the scene with red wine and champagne. Everyone chatted amiably with each other.

This was a banquet for political and business relations in the capital. On this sort of occasion, it had always been the heavy responsibility of various aristocratic families to interact with each other and privately communicate with each other.

Madam Lin and Lin Wenyu also appeared in the crowd.

Madam Lin's best friend, Madam Chen, appeared and greeted Madam Lin. She smiled and said, "Zufang, you're finally here. We've all been waiting for you. Please come in. That person came early." This close friend of hers, Madam Chen, was also a person of high status. However, she was slightly inferior to Madam Lin.

The woman she was referring to was the most prestigious lady in S Country, the wife of the president of S Country. Her appearance caused a small commotion but everyone quickly calmed down, not daring to talk about her anymore.

Although many people wanted to befriend her, they knew that it was impossible for them to disturb her with their status, so they could only listen.

"That person is here too?" Madam Lin really didn't expect to see Madam President so soon.

"Zufang, why aren't you wearing the jade bracelet Madam President gave you?" Madam Chen was shocked. "Where did the bracelet go?"

"Have you forgotten that I damaged the bangle in the car accident? I've looked for many people, but none of them managed to repair it." At this point, Madam Lin looked worried. "How could you be so careless?" Madam Chen was both concerned and worried. "Then what should we do now?"

Madam Lin fell into deep thought.

Her status was actually higher than many people here. If Madam President were not around, she would be the one with the highest status. Everyone would have to smile respectfully at her.

Chapter 803 Amazing

However, with Madam President around, she was indeed nothing. She would definitely fall behind.

That wasn't a big deal. Madam Lin wasn't a vain person, but the important point was that this Madam President had just taken over her position not too long ago. Madam Lin had only met her once. With her status, she definitely had to be friendly with this lady.

Last time, both parties had already met each other and exchanged greeting gifts.

Madam President had given a bangle to Madam Lin. Since she would be seeing her tonight, Madam Lin should have worn the bracelet. This was the most basic etiquette.

However, she was powerless in this situation.

Madam Chen said, "Let's see if we can buy the same one next time. I'm afraid it'll be too late today."

Madam Lin shook her head. "If I could have bought it earlier, why would I have waited until today? Where would I get the exact same bracelet?"

"Sigh, that's true. But I saw that Madam President is wearing the brooch that you gave her last time. It's a shame you broke the bracelet she gave you. This..." Madam Chen sighed.

Although this sort of thing was not considered a big deal, the relationship between the rich ladies was accumulated through countless small incidents. It would also affect the relationship between the two families.

The meaning of the relationships between women was not any less than men fighting for fame and fortune.

This time, it was truly an accident.

"Forget it. I'll do as I see fit. At most, I'll just tell her the truth." This was the only solution Madam Lin could think of.

When Lin Wenyu saw this, she recalled that Su Bei had already handed the bracelet to her. Furthermore, the bracelet was repaired very well and there were no signs of it ever having been repaired.

ds

However, due to the relationship between the Tang family and Su Bei, Lin Wenyu never dared to return the bracelet to Madam Lin.

She thought about it and said, "Mom, I actually brought the bracelet over today." "Silly child. Even if you brought it over, it won't be of much use. I can't possibly appear in front of everyone with a broken bracelet, right? Forget it. I believe Madam President isn't an unreasonable person. I'll tell her the whole story. I believe she won't take it to heart." Although Madam Lin said this, she knew that this wasn't the best solution.

"Mom, the bracelet has been repaired." Lin Wenyu took out the bracelet and handed it to Madam Lin.

Madam Lin took it over and took a look. She said in surprise, "This looks exactly the same as before when it wasn't damaged. How did you do it?"

Madam Chen hurriedly glanced over as well. "It really is! Let me see, let me see. This is really flawless...."

Lin Wenyu originally wanted to say Su Bei's name, but after thinking for a while, she didn't say it. She only said, "It was a friend of mine who helped me fix it."

"Your friend is really amazing!" Madam Lin was pleasantly surprised. She looked at the bracelet for a while and realized that it was exactly the same as before. She immediately put it on.

After that, she walked toward Madam President with Madam Chen.

Lin Wenyu followed her mother and walked over.

Madam President greeted Madam Lin happily when she saw her. With her sharp eyes, she saw that Madam Lin was still wearing the bracelet that she had given her and her gaze became even more satisfied.

She couldn't help but laugh and tease, "Madam Lin, you're too polite! Are you still wearing this bracelet?"

Chapter 804 Introduce Me

Madam Lin smiled and said, "This bracelet is beautiful and comfortable to wear. I've gotten used to it after wearing it for a few days, so I can't help but wear it all the time. Everyone says that jade is good for nurturing people, but when you send it to jade, it's really the best among the best. It's the most nourishing."

The two of them chatted happily.

From this conversation, the two sides were able to get closer to each other and understand their common direction of cooperation.

Madam President was busy, so she didn't stay for long before leaving. However, it was obvious that Madam Lin had left a good impression on her by wearing the bracelet.

Madam Lin's friends were all wealthy ladies from the capital city. Some of them heard that Madam Lin had damaged the bracelet during the car accident.

Now that they saw she was still wearing the bracelet, they couldn't help but ask curiously, "Madam Lin, didn't you break this bracelet? What happened? It's fixed just like that?" Madam Lin was in a good mood and happy to show off in front of everyone. She smiled and said, "That's right! It's all thanks to a friend of my daughter. They repaired this bracelet! Take a look and see, it's like brand new!"

Everyone was extremely curious and hurriedly looked at her outstretched hand. They held up her wrist and looked at the bracelet seriously.

"Oh my, it's exactly the same as how it was when it was brand new! I really didn't expect someone to be so capable to repair it to this extent."

"That's right. Once jade is damaged, it's very difficult to repair. Which craftsman has such skills?"

"Madam Lin, you've received a great blessing. The Lin family and Madam President are fated. Please introduce us to the craftsman."

Madam Lin was happy to mention her daughter on such an occasion. She smiled and said, "I'll have to ask my daughter, then. It's her friend. I really don't know who it is. Daughter, quickly come over and tell these aunts which craftsman repaired my bracelet." Lin Wenyu had no choice but to stand up and say with a smile, "This friend was just doing it for fun."

The rich ladies said at the same time, "Wenyu, don't hide these good things. I also have a diamond necklace that's old and broken. I can just throw it away, but this necklace was a gift my husband gave me when we got married, so I can't just throw it away. It would be great if someone could repair it." Another rich lady added, "That's right. Although we have a lot of good items and it doesn't matter if some are broken, there are a few things that we have sentiments for. It's inevitable that we won't be able to let them go after wearing them for a long time. It would be great if they can really be repaired.”

“That’s right. Wenyu, help us ask your friend. Just treat it as your friend doing us a favor. We won’t mistreat them.”

It was not convenient for Lin Wenyu to mention Su Bei’s name to everyone at this time.

However, since so many wealthy ladies wanted to know, it meant that there was a demand. When she left the banquet, she gave Su Bei a call and mentioned this matter.

Su Bei was trying to make Feng Cheng famous now and also increase her own mall’s popularity. She told her, “Wenyu, Feng Cheng and I have already set up a studio called Ruyi Studio. We’ll start providing repairing services later on. If anyone asks you, just tell them to come to Jingbei Square later on.”

Chapter 805 Serves Her Right

Lin Wenyu was also very happy. “Can I really tell them this?”

“Of course, there’s no problem. You’ve met Feng Cheng before. Anyway, he has to establish his foundation. So if there are any work opportunities, they can come and look for him.”

Lin Wenyu was overjoyed. When they got home that night, some rich ladies and daughters of wealthy families called to ask about it. She told them what she knew. “When the time comes, you can just go to Jingbei Square and look for Ruyi Studio.”

Everyone memorized the name.

When she got home, Madam Lin was very happy and told Lin Hancheng about this.

Lin Hancheng smiled and said, “It’s also her good fortune that our daughter has such a friend. She’s introverted, so it’s time for her to go out more often and mingle around.”

Lin Wenyu thought of Su Bei’s matter and hesitated for a while. She looked at Lin Hancheng and said, “Dad, are you responsible for the Tang family’s matters?”

Lin Hancheng looked at his daughter and said, “Children shouldn’t interfere with adults’ matters. I have my reasons.”

“But...” Lin Wenyu still wanted to defend Su

Bei.

However, Lin Hancheng didn’t want to talk anymore.

After Lin Hancheng left, Madam Lin pulled Lin Wenyu aside and said in a low voice, “You know that your father has always been against that woman. Don’t bother about him!

“Besides, Lin Shulian has a lot of problems to begin with. She harmed your grandfather and your aunt. How could your father and grandmother forgive her?

“She deserves it.”

“But you can’t implicate her children, right?” Lin Wenyu asked. “Every child is closely related to their parents’ fate and life. Having such a mother is their fate,” said Madam Lin. “If Lin Shulian is really considerate of her children, she shouldn’t have done those evil things back then.”

Lin Wenyu had a lot of things she wanted to say about Su Bei, but she couldn’t say anything else.

Madam Lin smiled and said, “Alright, this is a matter between adults. Don’t bother about it. Who is that friend of yours? If you have time, bring them home for dinner.”

Lin Wenyu could only vaguely agree, but how would she dare to bring Su Bei and Feng Cheng home for dinner?

While Su Bei was working hard on Jingbei Square, Tang Yue was also working hard on Central Square.

A mall with the best geographical location would naturally attract the attention of various businesses. Opening a shop in such a mall could be said to be beneficial without any risks. Tang Yue’s business started to develop very quickly. Every day, she would sign contracts with countless businesses that wanted to open up a shop in her shopping mall. Her hands were full from signing contracts and counting money.

The Jingbei Square that Su Bei was in charge of seemed to have no progress.

After all, which business would be willing to open their shop in a shopping mall in such a barren suburb?

It looked like Su Bei was facing a lot of pressure.

However, no one knew that the wealthy ladies in the capital, the daughters of wealthy families, and the socialites in the entertainment industry were all secretly asking about a small studio called Ruyi Studio. They wanted to buy the most high-quality, authentic, and design-oriented accessories.

They also wanted to repair all their valuable old accessories.

A small studio suddenly became famous overnight and became a sacred place that everyone wanted to visit.

However, up until now, Jingbei Square had not opened for business. Everyone could only suppress the urge in their hearts.

Chapter 806 We Can Eat Wherever You Want

However, many wealthy ladies had their eyes fixed on Jingbei Square. From time to time, they would arrange for their drivers to go there and take a look. Therefore, although Jingbei Square was not open for business yet and there were very few shops, many people noticed that there were always tons of luxury cars at the entrance of this mall. The people passing by were the butler of a certain family in the capital, the chauffeur of a certain rich lady, the assistant of a certain rich lady, and so on. Just what kind of magic was hidden in this mall that could attract so many people of such status?

News like this quickly spread among the clothing, jewelry, and food businesses. The news spread like wildfire, but everyone was being quiet about it. They were all trying to find out about such important information, but they were unwilling to share it with their competitors, so they hid whatever they found. For a moment, they were filled with the desire to set up a shop in this shopping mall that was like an isolated island in the suburbs.

Who wouldn't want to earn money from these wealthy ladies?

Many businesses called to say that they wanted to collaborate with Jingbei Square and open a shop in the mall. Currently, it was Old Master Tang's assistants, who were arranged to work under Su Bei during this period, handling these matters. All assistants who received such calls had to ask Su Bei for instructions. For a moment, Su Bei was extremely busy.

She felt that it was time to find someone to share the burden with.

Yue Ze could not do this. His main job was still talent management.

Lu Heting had it even worse. He had to work for Lu Weijian and was busy with the two munchkins, so he didn't have much time left. He was most suited for strategic guidance instead of dealing with such trivial matters.

The Tang family could not even be considered. Old Master Tang was very fair. If he gave something to her, he would give it to Tang Yue too. Su Bei did not want to ruin this fairness.

Therefore, the best way was to find a suitable general manager.

However, before Su Bei could find a suitable candidate, Lu Weijian called. "Sister Bei Bei, let's have a meal together. Bring your two munchkins and let's find a place to have a small gathering." "Mr. Weijian, I remember that today is your birthday?" Su Bei asked doubtfully. Shouldn't there be a grand banquet for Mr. Weijian's birthday? Or at the very least, he should be spending it with his family, right? Why would he want to ask her out?

Lu Weijian was pleasantly surprised. "Sister Bei Bei, you remember my birthday?"

"..." It wasn't that Su Bei remembered it but the news had already spread throughout Di Xing Media Company. Many celebrities were discussing in low voices how Mr. Weijian would be celebrating his birthday this year and whether he would come to the company. It was hard for Su Bei not to remember.

She smiled and said reluctantly, "Of course, I remember."

Lu Weijian said happily, "Then it's settled. Let's meet at noon. It's the weekend."

"I'll treat you to the meal, Mr. Weijian. You've helped us a lot recently. Treat this lunch as a token of our appreciation."

"Sure, sure. Don't waste your money. We can just eat anywhere," Lu Weijian said. He missed his two nephews so much. When Gun Gun Gun lived in Lu Hu International Villa, he could go visit anytime.

Now, Big Brother was protecting them too well. He had become a loner and had not seen his nephews for a long time. He even felt a little bored when he played his favorite game.

Su Bei put down the phone and quickly searched for high-end restaurants in the capital. Since she wanted to treat Lu Weijian to a meal, she naturally couldn't find a restaurant that was too shabby.

Chapter 807 I Don't Want To Hear Apologies

Finally, she managed to book a high-class private room in a restaurant that was decent.

It was only because they were having lunch at noon that they had the chance to book the restaurant. If it was nighttime, the restaurant was already fully booked.

After telling Lu Heting about this on WeChat, Su Bei went to film her scenes with satisfaction.

Lu Heting frowned slightly when he received the news. It was then that he remembered that Lu Weijian's birthday was coming up. Lu Weijian burst into tears. 'Brother, am I still your younger brother?'. Since Su Bei had already made the arrangements, Lu Heting naturally had no objections. It was good to have a virtuous wife. What more could a husband ask for when he had such a wife?

Hence, when everyone on the top floor of Lu Grup building saw their president, their lips curled up ever so slightly.

Did something good happen to Lu Group, or did they sign some big contract?

Soon, it was the weekend. Su Bei had scenes to shoot in the morning. She was done filming her scenes in the afternoon with Director Guo and applied for leave.

After filming ended, she went to the popular restaurant and planned to wait for Lu Heting and Lu Weijian. This was the way a host should treat their guests. Su Bei was still dressed simply. She wore jeans and shoes, looking youthful and pretty. When she reached the entrance of the restaurant, she unexpectedly bumped into Han Junting. Han Junting was Su Huixian's friend. Previously, when Su Bei was buying clothes, Han Junting had bumped into her once. That time, she mocked Su Bei but was immensely humiliated after.

However, at that time, even Su Bei didn't know why she was humiliated, let alone Han Junting herself. Therefore, Han Junting wasn't able to accept it.

When she saw Su Bei, she narrowed her eyes and revealed a superior smile. Without saying anything, she walked into the restaurant with Su Bei.

She was also here for lunch. She had invited a few friends, but she didn't make an appointment. In her opinion, she didn't need an appointment to eat at a restaurant like this. If she came directly, the restaurant would definitely free up a suitable room for her.

Su Bei didn't pay much attention to Han Junting's actions. After entering, she said to the waitress, "Hello, I've reserved a room on the top floor."

"Miss Su? I'll bring you up now," the waitress said with a smile.

Han Junting was talking to another waitress beside her and exclaimed, "Why are there no rooms? Why does she get a private room, then?"

As she said that, Han Junting pointed at Su Bei. Clearly, she was unhappy that Su Bei got a private room while she didn't.

Han Junting took out her black gold card and placed it on the table. "I'm a VIP customer in your restaurant. Don't I have the right to get a private room?"

“Sorry, Miss Han...”

“I don’t want to hear apologies. I want a table.” Han Junting gave Su Bei a sideways glance. Originally, she didn’t want to make an enemy out of Su Bei. The painful lesson from being humiliated in the mall was still fresh in her mind.

However, who knew that this restaurant would have her sit in the main hall but arrange a private room on the top floor for Su Bei? This was intolerable. Han Junting could not take this lying down.

The waitress who was about to lead Su Bei up stopped in her tracks. The two waitresses talked for a while and said to Su Bei, “Miss Su, why don’t you change your table to the one in the main hall? We can give you a 20% discount.”

Chapter 808 Follow The Rules

They all knew that they couldn’t offend a rich young lady like Han Junting, while Su Bei was just an artist. Recently, her exposure had been rather low.

As for the Tang family, Su Bei had never mentioned her identity as a member of the Tang family in public. The Tang family did not publicly announce it either. There was actually a limit to how many people knew that she was the eldest daughter of the Tang family.

Therefore, the waitress judged the situation with what she knew and felt that letting Su Bei change her table was the best choice. After all, they could not afford to offend the guests in the other private rooms.

Su Bei originally didn’t care about what Han Junting said. It had nothing to do with her.

Upon hearing the waitress’ words, Su Bei realized that the waitress was talking to her. Was she asking her to let Han Junting have the private room on the top floor?

Su Bei looked at the waitress with a smile that was not a smile and said lightly, “I made an appointment first. Why should I change it for someone else?”

When the waitress saw that her objection was not firm, she thought that Su Bei was not completely against it and said with a smile, “That’s why we’ll give you a 20% discount, Miss Su.”

This meant that with a 20% discount, Su Bei would obediently give up the private room.

Su Bei still had a smile on her face. It was impossible to tell how angry she was, but her words were firm. “I’m sorry, but I don’t want a 20% discount. I only want the private room that I booked.”

The service staff found it difficult to deal with her. On one side was Han Junting, who was a VIP, and on the other was Su Bei, who had an uncompromising attitude. They could only say, “Please wait a moment. I’ll ask for instructions.”

Su Bei had already given them enough patience. Seeing that they still wanted to ask for instructions, she was about to flare up when a young and upright man walked over. He asked, “What is it?”

“Assistant Manager Zhuo, the private room on the top floor has already been reserved. However, Miss Han is our VIP customer, so we wanted to ask Miss Su to change tables...” the waitress quickly said.

Assistant Manager Zhuo listened attentively and interrupted the waitress, "What's happening on Miss Su's side?"

"I made a reservation," Su Bei answered on her behalf. "I thought a reservation is meant for others to book a table. Is your restaurant's reservation system different from others?" The waitress knew that she was in the wrong. She opened her mouth but did not say anything. However, she knew in her heart that the reason why she did this was that she had judged others based on superficial factors.

Assistant Manager Zhuo immediately said, "I'm very sorry, Miss Su. We've already reserved your private room. We'll do as we're supposed to."

The waitress reminded him softly, "But Assistant Manager Zhuo, that's Miss Han..."

Han Junting raised her head with an arrogant expression on her face. She was as arrogant as a victorious rooster as she slammed her exclusive membership card on the table. "Assistant Manager Zhuo."

She thought that Assistant Manager Zhuo shouldn't be such an ungrateful person. How many times did the Han family spend in this restaurant every year? And how many times could Su Bei patronize them?

Assistant Manager Zhuo replied in neither a servile nor overbearing manner, "I'm sorry, Miss Han, but we do have a program that provides exclusive services to high-level VIP members. However, Miss Su has indeed made a reservation. Please go to our coffee room to have a cup of coffee first. A private room should be available in half an hour."

Assistant Manager Zhuo didn't change his mind because of Han Junting's identity. Instead, he did his best to serve everyone according to the rules.

Chapter 809 Apologize To Miss Han Immediately

"Does that mean that I'm useless as a VIP customer?" Han Junting asked.

Assistant Manager Zhuo said evenly, "Miss Han, we're simply doing things according to the rules. After all, Miss Su made a reservation first. Our restaurant's rule is that a guest's reservation is given priority. Of course, as a VIP customer, you'll also be given priority. Thus, we have already prepared a private lounge area for you to drink coffee. You can rest for a while and wait for a vacancy."

In other words, if Han Junting had made a reservation, this private room might have been hers. However, she felt that she was of noble status and didn't have that kind of self-awareness. She felt that if she came at any time, the restaurant should prepare a private room for her.

If they didn't do so, it would be an act of disrespect against her. The restaurant was expected to ignore other guests to welcome her.

After saying that, Assistant Manager Zhuo said to Su Bei, "Miss Su, please go upstairs."

Su Bei nodded and smiled as she followed Assistant Manager Zhuo.

However, Han Junting shouted, "Stop right there!"

Assistant Manager Zhuo had no choice but to stop in his tracks as he stared at Han Junting helplessly.

Han Junting whipped out her phone and waved it in the air. "Since you can't make the decision here, I've already sent a WeChat message to the general manager. Let's wait for him to come and help us settle this!" Her words were filled with arrogance as she looked at Su Bei with a high and mighty air as if asking with her eyes, 'What right do you have to get a private room here before I do?'

Han Junting could give in to anyone but Su Bei!

Assistant Manager Zhuo wanted to say something to resolve the situation, but before he could say anything, Han Junting's card was tossed onto his face. "You don't have to say anything. I don't want to say another word to you."

In other words, Assistant Manager Zhuo was not worthy.

Assistant Manager Zhuo's expression changed immediately. However, due to the nature of his work, he didn't flare up immediately and endured it.

Not long after, an older person walked over. When he saw Han Junting, he couldn't help but reveal a smile. He bowed again and bent his back to greet her. "Miss Han, you're here? To what do we owe this honor? Your presence has really brought light to our humble restaurant! What are you all still standing around for? Hurry up and make arrangements for Miss Han!"

"Manager Pang, I'm here but Assistant Manager Zhuo told me to wait for a private room. I was thinking that my VIP status was useless. I didn't expect it to be so useless," Han Junting said sourly.

Manager Pang had a round face and was chubby. He immediately squeezed out a smile. "How is that possible? Miss Han, you're our restaurant's guest. Why would we treat you like this? Zhuo Liping, tell us, what exactly happened?"

Assistant Manager Zhuo was about to speak when Manager Pang stopped him. "I know. No matter what, we can't let Miss Han suffer." As he spoke, he winked at Assistant Manager Zhuo, using his gaze to tell him, 'Do you know how much the Han family spends every year in the restaurant? The Han family always holds their business banquet in our restaurant. I don't care what the reason is, apologize to Miss Han now!'

"Manager Pang, do you want to disregard the rules of the restaurant now?" Assistant Manager Zhuo's expression turned slightly cold.

Chapter 810 Are Rules More Important Than Making Money?

"Are rules more important than making money? Who do you think you are? What is the identity of the person you're receiving here? In front of VIPs, a prior reservation is nothing. If this kind of thing happens again, I won't clean up your mess again!" Manager Pang was full of business knowledge.

Then, Manager Pang turned to Han Junting and said, "Our assistant manager is new here and doesn't know the rules. Please understand, Miss Han. Zhuo Liping, apologize to Miss Han!"

Manager Pang was completely focused on Han Junting and ignored Su Bei.

Su Bei was not in a hurry and calmly stood aside.

She had a calm expression on her face, and her lips were curled into a relaxed smile as she lazily looked at Manager Pang.

Han Junting raised her chin and stared at Zhuo Liping arrogantly. Didn't they refuse to be polite just now? Didn't they refuse to be servile and showed overbearing attitudes just now? At this moment, weren't they still going to apologize to her?

Assistant Manager Zhuo thought for a moment before taking off the name tag on his chest. "Manager Pang, I choose to resign."

"This... This..." Manager Pang was also shocked. He didn't expect Assistant Manager Zhuo to have such a bad temper.

Han Junting looked at Manager Pang and said, "Manager Pang, is this the standard of your restaurant? The customers are the gods. I haven't even treated myself as a god yet but you guys can't take it anymore. How am I going to spend money in your restaurant next time?"

Manager Pang shot a glare at Assistant Manager Zhuo, telling him to quickly put away his immature thoughts and regain his rationality.

Assistant Manager Zhuo stepped forward. Manager Pang was overjoyed. The man had finally thought things through. As long as he apologized to Han Junting, this matter wouldn't be so difficult to handle.

"Quick, apologize." Manager Pang urged him.

Assistant Manager Zhuo was neither servile nor overbearing as he said in a clear voice, "Customers are indeed gods. Our purpose of service is to do our best to satisfy all of the customers' requests and serve every customer well. However, this doesn't mean that there are no rules to follow. If we're always looking down on people, does this mean if we meet a customer with a higher status than Miss Han, we can chase you out?"

Han Junting originally thought that he was going to apologize and crossed her arms. If he was sincere, she would be magnanimous and let him off. Who knew that he would say such words? She said angrily, "You!"

"Since you're so rich, you should be like other wealthy nobles and book the special space on the top floor all year round so that you can come whenever." Assistant Manager Zhuo only calmly narrated the matter. "I believe that only a restaurant that emphasizes rules and principles can develop better. It's the same for a person."

After saying that, he apologized to Su Bei before leaving

"You... Manager Pang, Assistant Manager Zhuo is too much!" Han Junting was so angry that her face turned red. He actually mocked her for not being rich enough to book the space all year round!

Moreover, he even resigned in front of her! How did such a person become an assistant manager?! Su Bei helplessly held her forehead. She had to watch a big show just for a meal? She was not paying for this.

Manager Pang apologized profusely to Han Junting. The service staff reminded Manager Pang, "Manager Pang, several guests have already finished their meals and their tables have been vacated."
