

HEAVEN SENT 831

Chapter 831 Am I Not Your Good Friend?

There was a large patch of green vegetables and red fruits. It was a pleasing sight.

“Then I’ll go home and cook some hotpot!” When Lin Yu heard that there was hotpot, he almost couldn’t contain his saliva.

Su Bei reached out and pointed with her hand. “Look at the sign!”

“Minister Lin’s house. What does this mean?” Lin Yu read out the words on the sign.

“It means that this small piece of land has been reserved by Minister Lin’s family. There are people in charge of it. When it’s time for harvest, they’ll send the fresh produce to Minister Lin’s house,” Su Bei explained. “Minister Lin will give the people in charge a sum of money. These people in charge are farmers who live in the suburbs. They used to cultivate these lands, but they couldn’t earn money from the produce they farmed. However, now that there are people giving them money to farm, they’re naturally happy with this arrangement.

“As for those rich people, they have always placed importance on health. Some people especially grow vegetables for themselves. For their health, they’re willing to try anything.”

This was the project that Su Bei and Lu Heting had been working on at night. They had convinced the farmers to try using the land near them. Since the land was empty, someone was convinced and immediately plowed it.

Apart from targeting the wealthy, Su Bei and Lu Heting also went to a few noble schools and convinced the children there to adopt a plot of land.

Those children were pampered and never knew what wheat and chives were like. They didn’t even know where the rice they ate came from.

Their parents found out that there was such a place here. They could provide their children with fresh vegetables and fruits, and they could also teach them about the plants. Thus, they were very happy to book a plot of land.

Lin Yu looked at the signboards and realized that they all had names written on them. “In other words, these plots of land already have owners?”

“That’s right. Don’t you think that every time these people come over, it’ll bring more people to the mall?”

Lin Yu nodded. Su Bei’s move was really effective.

“So I won’t be able to eat anything cooked with the ingredients being planted here?” Lin Yu was instantly discouraged. “Am I still your good friend?”

“That one over there is Da Bao and Gun Gun’s. I’ll pick some corn for you later.”

Lin Yu immediately perked up. “Great! Su Bei, you’re still the best! But what a pity...”

“Corn can’t be used for hotpot!”

Su Bei brought Lin Yu to look at other places. Anyway, they were all things that could attract customers. They did not hire specialized workers, nor did they invest any funds. Basically, they turned waste into treasure and tried their best to make use of the original terrain structure and the farmers living in the suburbs to achieve their goals.

Lin Yu’s horizon was broadened.

At night, Su Bei also held a ribbon-cutting ceremony event.

Although it wasn’t as lively as Central Square, the people who came were all of different statuses, so there was a different charm to the venue.

In fact, some friends in the entertainment industry even came to support her.

The leaders were Han Feng and Rong Xiu.

Probably because they had questioned Su Bei’s acting skills during the shoot, the two of them prepared generous gifts and came forward while looking a little embarrassed. Rong Xiu smiled and said, “Su Bei, congratulations. The mall that you’re personally managing has opened.”

“Thank you. Please sit over there,” Su Bei smiled and said.

Han Feng wanted to say something, but after glancing at Su Bei, he did not speak.

Chapter 832 Can’t Last Long

The entire Jingbei Shopping Mall had a relaxed and comfortable atmosphere. There weren’t many people, but it didn’t seem desolate either.

Lin Yu couldn’t hold himself back and posted on Weibo: [It’s a pity that corn can’t be used for hotpot.]

[What is this place? It looks so comfortable. Doesn’t the corn look too good?] Someone immediately asked.

(Could it be that Prince Charming has gone to film a village film?) Another person made a guess.

Someone then started to explain. (This is a newly developed farm in the suburbs. You may not know this but everyone can go and claim a plot of land. You can also personally experience the joy of farming.)

[Farm? It’s still in the suburbs and is a little too far. Although I have a lot of time, the fare is quite expensive. I can’t bear to part with the money.]

[It’s not expensive at all. It only costs a total of ten yuan to travel here and back. Every day, the bus follows the schedule accordingly. We can eat the freshest vegetables there and also buy the most cost-effective goods! Luxury goods are available at discounts.] Those who had already gone shopping at the mall could not help but feel relieved.

[Ten yuan? Can we meet Lin Yu with ten yuan? If we can, even a hundred yuan is fine!]

[Hahahahaha! Let me tell you, not only did I meet Lin Yu but I also met Han Feng and Rong Xiu. Here's a photo of us!]

[It's real, it's real! What kind of godly place is this?!]

Immediately, many fans rushed over to this place.

Tang Yue picked up her phone and almost died laughing when she saw the news on Weibo.

"So this is Su Bei's publicity?" After Tang Yue laughed, her expression turned into one in between laughter and tears. "Getting people to farm in the suburbs? Then go to the mall to buy things? I can't believe it. Is there really anyone going?"

The assistant had actually already found out that not only were people going, but many rich people were there too. He didn't know what method Su Bei used.

According to the information he had gathered, even Madam Lin and Lin Wenyu had gone over.

However, the assistant did not dare to say it.

Today, he only dared to report the good news and not the bad so that Tang Yue would be happy.

Moreover, the assistant also felt that it would be useless for these rich people to go over there. What could Su Bei sell to them?

Hence, the assistant might as well not tell Tang Yue.

Lin Wenyu and Madam Lin had indeed gone to the mall over there.

Madam Lin originally didn't plan to go over. After all, it was the Tang family's mall and she didn't want to be involved.

However, Lin Wenyu told her the truth. "Your bracelet was repaired by Su Bei's friend previously, and his shop is opening today."

When Madam Lin heard this, she felt that it wasn't right for her to owe others. Hence, she decided that it wasn't a big deal for her to sneak around with Lin Wenyu.

However, after coming over, she realized that the construction here was different from what she had imagined. "Su Bei actually invested in so many buses. When will she be able to recoup the cost of transportation?"

Lin Wenyu didn't know either, so she shook her head.

"And these plots of land, how much manpower does she need?" Madam Lin was worried again.

Unlike her husband, Lin Hancheng, even though she hated Lin Shulian a little, she could not bear to hate Su Bei who was being implicated in all this. Especially when she saw that her daughter and Su Bei's relationship was so good, her worries came from her heart.

Lin Wenyu said, "No matter what, Su Bei will definitely have a way."

Madam Lin shook her head. She felt that this mall wouldn't last long.

Chapter 833 Come Up On Stage With Me

She walked around with Lin Wenyu and said, "Let's go to Ruyi Studio to buy something. Just treat it as though we're returning the favor we owe. Then we'll leave."

"Then can I go see Su Bei?" Lin Wenyu asked.

"Go quickly and come back quickly. Don't let your father know," exhorted Mrs. Lin.

Lin Wenyu quickly called Su Bei and ran to her side.

"Why are you here?" Su Bei asked in surprise when she saw her.

Lin Wenyu pretended to be angry. "Can't I come? It's me you're talking about. This is such a big business venture, yet you didn't invite me to come and take a look. I'm about to get angry."

Su Bei did not expect her to be a member of the Lin family. After all, there were too many people with the surname Lin. The reason why she did not invite her was that she felt that there was no need to make a big fuss about it. Even Lin Yu and the others had come of their own accord without her telling them to.

"Don't be angry. Since you're here, take a seat! If there's anything going on the next time, I'll make sure to let you know about it in advance."

"That's more like it." Lin Wenyu had just sat down when someone recognized her.

"Isn't that Miss Lin Wenyu? Am I seeing things?"

"No, no. I recognized her too."

Someone whispered, "I really didn't expect Lin Wenyu to come here. Do you think the Lin family invested in this?" "But don't the Lin and Tang families have no dealings with each other? Why would Lin Wenyu come to Su Bei's mall?"

"That's hard to say. There are no eternal enemies in the business world, only eternal benefits. Perhaps the Lin family still supports Su Bei."

Initially, these rich young ladies had all come for Feng Cheng's craftsmanship, but now, they had a whole new level of respect for this mall.

They thought that if they had the chance in the future, they would come here and shop more often. If they could bump into Lin Wenyu by chance, it would be good too.

The Lin family was one of the richest families in Jingdu City. What was wrong with befriending someone from the Lin family?

Lin Wenyu had only sat down for a while when many people came up to greet her and chat with her. Lin Wenyu was someone who didn't like socializing, and neither was she good at it. After sitting for a while, she felt uncomfortable and ran to look for Su Bei.

Su Bei was busy with the ribbon-cutting ceremony that would take place on the stage soon. When she saw her coming over, she smiled and asked, "What's wrong? Were you bored sitting there? I'll be done soon."

“I’m not bored. I just want to stay with you.” Lin Wenyu looked around and nudged her. “Is there anything I can help you with?”

Su Bei was preparing to go on stage and had already changed into a new set of clothes. Unlike Tang Yue, she did not have any intention of creating a professional image for herself and wore whatever she felt comfortable in. She changed into a long dress and did not have much makeup on. She had only applied some lipstick.

However, she looked very presentable.

“There’s nothing I need your help with. If you really want to be with me, then why don’t you come on stage with me?” Su Bei invited. Tonight, her long chestnut-colored curly hair was let down and she seemed to be in high spirits. She smiled at Lin Wenyu, and Lin Wenyu’s heart started to beat faster. She quickly nodded. Not to mention going on stage, she could do anything Su Bei wanted her to do!

Su Bei asked her to go to the stage with her to give a speech and attend the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The people below the stage were still guessing Lin Wenyu’s motive for coming over. They were all wondering if Su Bei’s mall could last long. Seeing Lin Wenyu and Su Bei going up together, everyone’s doubts were dispelled.

Chapter 834 Completely Shocked

The future of this mall could not be underestimated!

Perhaps the Lin family was involved.

Although it was rumored that the Lin family and the Tang family didn’t get along with each other, it seemed they still had a close relationship.

For a moment, there were fewer doubts surrounding Su Bei.

Lin Wenyu was very excited. After leaving the stage with Su Bei, she listened to the speech for a while before reluctantly leaving after Mrs. Lin’s endless stream of calls.

That night, Tang Yue was the first to return to the Tang family’s home. She told Old Master Tang about her achievements. “70% of the businesses had customers flocking to their stores today, and visitor flow reached its peak. Today, the business volume of the entire mall exceeded 20 million.”

This was a very good result. Even if it was a mature mall, the daily turnover would only be about 30 million.

Hence, Tang Yue was already very satisfied with this. From her tone, it was clear she was showing off.

Old Master Tang nodded his head in appreciation. “Although you did well today, you have to work harder in the future. Don’t let your good results get to your head. Keep it up.”

“I will, Grandpa,” Tang Yue said immediately.

Lin Shulian looked at her daughter and was very satisfied. “Yue Yue, you’re amazing. You’ve been very organized and stable since you were young.”

“Dad, Yue Yue did a good job with Central Square. Just leave it to her to handle in the future.”

“Alright, Tang Yue. I’ll leave this important task to you.” Old Master Tang smiled. Seeing his granddaughter getting more capable, he felt relieved.

Tang Yue smiled confidently. “Grandpa, I won’t let you down. Why isn’t Su Bei back yet?”

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian looked at each other. They were worried about Su Bei.

It was obvious that Su Bei’s performance did not seem to be good. There was not much news from her throughout the day, and they did not know what was going on over there.

Even Old Master Tang was very worried because he had asked around the whole day and found that even Lu Heting was not present at the mall. He didn’t know if Su Bei could handle it alone.

Initially, he thought that Lu Heting would help Su Bei. Now, it seemed that Lu Heting was staying out of it...

Old Master Tang did not have much hope for the shopping mall. Sigh, it was a lost cause from the beginning... Not to mention Lu Heting himself, even Lu Weijian wanted to go over but was stopped by him. This was a mall that Su Bei had spent a lot of effort on. He did not want to change the fun that she could originally have because of his interference.

Moreover, he believed that even if he didn’t interfere, Su Bei’s performance would definitely crush Tang Yue’s...

Therefore, there was no need to use any external force to influence the final outcome.

And reality proved that Lu Heting’s considerations were correct!

When it was about time, Su Bei returned to the Tang family.

To avoid embarrassing her, the elders did not take the initiative to ask her about the mall and only said, “Thank you for your hard work, Su Bei. Butler, get someone to bring some supper over for Su Bei.”

“No need. I came back after eating.” Su Bei put down her jacket and sat down next to Old Master Tang. She handed the sales figures of the day to him.

“It’s been hard on you, Su Bei.” Old Master Tang took it, unfolded it, and comforted her. “It’s good that you did your best. The outcome is not important. We all know that it’s not easy to manage that mall.”

However, when Old Master Tang saw the results, he couldn’t believe his eyes. He was completely shocked!

This number was something he had never dared to hope for, yet it actually appeared in front of him just like that. It was enough to completely suppress him and make him speechless for a long time!

Su Bei actually did it. She really did it, and the result was several times better than he had imagined!

Old Master Tang didn’t know how to react. It was too unbelievable.

Seeing this, Tang Yue thought to herself, "I wonder how bad Su Bei's results are. Grandpa doesn't even know what to say?"

Chapter 835 Surprise

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian were also worried. If Su Bei had to be compared to Tang Yue, it would be too tragic. They had already prepared words of comfort for Su Bei.

"Su Bei, success or failure means nothing. Moreover, you weren't born into the Tang family and didn't receive much guidance from your grandfather. Moreover, the situation with that piece of land is unfavorable. Everyone knows it in their hearts." Lin Shulian comforted her.

Tang Yue put on a thoughtful look on her face and said, "Mom is right. Don't be discouraged. At that time, you said you wanted to sign an agreement. Whether you can achieve results or not, you said you didn't want anything from the Tang family. I advised you not to put everything on the line, lest you regret it. Look at you now, you didn't listen to my advice. Now that the agreement has taken effect, you can't ask for anything from the Tang family and Grandpa anymore. With the mall in this state... In the future, won't you have to work harder to maintain your living standards?"

Her words were a reminder to everyone that Su Bei had already signed such an agreement. Since she wanted this mall, she could not ask for anything else. The whole family could not go back on their word either.

Lin Shulian said, "If you don't want to manage it anymore, then don't. I can still afford to raise my daughter. In the future, Su Bei should still have the right to come home and eat, right?" "Of course. There are so many people in the Tang family. Su Bei can come home for dinner. She can even bring her boyfriend back. As her elder sister, I welcome them back," Tang Yue said sincerely, but she knew how much she was gloating.

Of course, the Tang family did not lack food.

Seeing that Old Master Tang and Su Bei were unwilling to speak, Tang Yue could not help but ask, "Grandpa, how much is Su Bei's shopping mall's turnover today? It's okay, just say it. Everyone can accept it."

Su Bei was sitting next to Old Master Tang with a calm expression. There was not a look of frustration on her palm-sized face. Her red lips were slightly curled up, and her eyes were glittering. She seemed unaffected by today's events.

"It's eight..." Old Master Tang opened his mouth. He had yet to recover from his shock, so he stuttered a little.

"Eight million, right?" Tang Yue beat her to it. "Actually, it's really not bad to be able to achieve eight million. After all, Su Bei, you're a newbie and are limited by the geographical location of your mall. Dad, Mom, Grandpa, don't you think so?"

She seemed to be helping Su Bei get out of trouble, but her words emphasized the figure of eight million.

However, Tang Yue was still a little shocked in her heart. Her own turnover rate was only 20 million, while Su Bei's was eight million. This figure was not bad.

She thought that if it were her, she might not even be able to make eight million yuan if she had to manage a mall in the suburbs.

Su Bei's ability made her a little afraid.

"Not eight million," Old Master Tang replied.

Tang Yue was pleasantly surprised. Was it not eight million yuan but only 800,000?

She asked in surprise, "Grandpa, if it's not eight million, how much is it?"

If it was really only 800,000 yuan, then Su Bei would be the biggest joke in the world. She would probably become the laughing stock of the entire circle. Other better shops would be able to achieve this amount of revenue, but she, who managed a big shopping mall, only achieved this much.

Chapter 836 Is There A Problem?

How hilarious!

Tang Yue casually picked up her teacup and took a sip.

Old Master Tang then slowly said, "The Jingbei Shopping Mall that Su Bei manages... On the first day it opened, the turnover is 80 million."

Tang Yue had just taken a sip of tea and had yet to drink it when she heard these words. She spat it out. Her expression turned from red to white. "80 million?"

"It's 80 million yuan in S Country's currency!" Old Master Tang finally recovered from his shock.

Tang Jianming couldn't help but say, "Dad, is it really 80 million yuan? But for most big malls, it's already very outstanding if they can earn 30 to 40 million yuan a day! After all, Jingbei Square is in the suburbs. How could it be 80 million yuan? This result is enough to crush many outstanding malls in the capital!"

Tang Yue was also full of questions and could not hide the disappointment and shock on her face.

"It's indeed 80 million. You guys didn't hear wrongly. Su Bei did it." Old Master Tang handed the data to them.

Tang Yue's breathing became heavy, and she could not believe what she was seeing. She pretended to say casually, "Su Bei, is this true? I really have to congratulate you. How did you achieve such good results?"

She could hide her thoughts perfectly in front of her elders.

However, the sourness in her tone could not be concealed. Ordinary elders would not care about such small matters. Su Bei outperformed her. Even if she was a little jealous, it was normal.

Su Bei's eyes were bright and honest, giving off a bright and radiant feeling. She would not fall out with Tang Yue in front of her elders, so she said in a very innocent voice, "I just did it. It doesn't seem too difficult."

Tang Yue clenched her fists. Su Bei's results were quadruple of hers yet she said that it wasn't difficult. It was as if a top student had scored full marks and still had to say in front of a bad student, 'What's so difficult about that? Isn't it normal to score full marks?'

Tang Yue used to be the top student, but now, in front of Su Bei, she was reduced to a bad student. This psychological difference was extremely difficult to adapt to.

However, Lin Shulian was a little worried. "Su Bei, the data can't be faked. If it's faked, we won't be able to answer to the shareholders of Tang Corporation. If that happens, there will be chaos."

"Mom is right. Su Bei, your data must be accurate for the sake of Tang Corporation." Tang Yue immediately regained her confidence. She just felt that Su Bei's data was too good. After Lin Shulian's reminder, she felt that she had found the possible reason.

Su Bei pursed her lips and looked at Old Master Tang. "Grandpa, you know best. Do you think there's anything wrong with my data?"

"No! Absolutely not!" In his shock, Old Master Tang had already checked the data. There was definitely no mistake.

If this data was fake, then the person who made this data was definitely a genius-level finance officer—the kind who couldn't even be hired with 80 million yuan.

What was there to doubt about this data?

Tang Yue's face turned from white to green and then back to black.

It was actually real!

Chapter 837 As Expected

Tang Yue gritted her teeth and said with a smile, "Su Bei, I heard that you specially arranged buses to shuttle customers to the mall. Furthermore, each person is only charged ten yuan for a round trip. This isn't a good deal. According to what I know, the cost of a round trip can't even cover the driver's salary. If this goes on, how much will we end up losing?"

Old Master Tang also looked at Su Bei. He was worried about the future of the mall.

"Grandpa, I didn't lose anything from the transportation. In fact, I've already earned back my cost from the start of every operation and made tens of millions of profits from it," Su Bei explained to Old Master Tang.

"What... What's going on?" Tang Yue rolled her eyes inwardly. Su Bei was continuing to brag. Su Bei explained, "Because Jingbei Square is far away, if there's no suitable transportation, customers will definitely not come. Therefore, I found a vehicle company and bought a batch of buses. Because I bought a lot of buses, I agreed to a deal that the buses will advertise their brand. Hence I got them for 50% off."

"Aren't you still making a loss?" Tang Yue asked.

"I sold the buses to the drivers at a 30% discount of the original price and told them that they would take the route from the city to the mall every day. The fees from the customers would all be theirs. Thus, they immediately agreed. After that transaction, I earned quite a bit.

In this way, customers can take the buses. They're very willing to do so."

Old Master Tang stroked his beard and said, "That's great. You didn't have to spend much money to solve the problem of transportation. The drivers also bought suitable buses at a cheaper price than the market rate and solved their employment problem."

"Yeah, that's why they're all so motivated. When they're not shuttling customers, they can also pick up ordinary passengers." Su Bei smiled. "Not only do I not have to bear any transportation costs, but I also earned a small sum from this.

"In other words, it solved all the transport problems for customers in the city, helping them get to the suburbs."

Old Master Tang was very impressed. "This method is really not bad. Su Bei, you did well. Transportation is not only a problem for our business but also a sore point for many people. What you've done is also very beneficial!"

"I think this idea is really not bad." Tang Jianming was also proud of his outstanding daughter. He praised her without restraint. "Su Bei, you're great."

Tang Yue sat at the side in silence. Her heart felt as if it was being clawed by a cat, and she was in pain. However, she could not say another word.

Su Bei lazily ran her fingers through her hair. Her expression was still as calm as ever. "Since Grandpa has no complaints, then there's nothing to doubt, right? I'm tired. I'll head back first. See you next time."

The elders urged her to stay but Su Bei carried her bag and turned to leave.

There was a moment of silence in the room.

After a while, Old Master Tang's laughter could be heard. "Not bad, not bad. As expected of my granddaughter. Su Bei is even more outstanding than I imagined."

Chapter 838 Ungrateful

Tang Yue's expression darkened.

"Yue Yue, a temporary failure is nothing. You'll definitely be able to achieve the same in the future." Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian's comforting words, which they had thought about the entire night, were now said to Tang Yue instead of Su Bei.

Tang Yue barely managed to endure it before she could return to her room.

Reaching out, she knocked over everything on the dressing table!

Su Bei got the worst card but achieved the best results. How could she not be angry?

She finally managed to suppress her anger and opened her WeChat Moments. Everyone was still praising her for her performance tonight.

The fact that she had invited Liao Xintong won the praise of many people.

However, when she scrolled down, she realized that someone had posted something about Su Bei.

Su Bei's ribbon-cutting ceremony was done very stylishly. Tang Yue took a glance and realized that many of the people standing below the stage were prominent figures in the capital. Some wealthy ladies, daughters, and socialites who were well-known had attended.

There were even some who she had invited but they rejected her on the spot because they had something to do.

Then, Tang Yue saw a photo of Su Bei and Lin Wenyu standing together!

Her eyes turned red. Lin Wenyu actually went to support Su Bei!

Ever since Lin Shulian fell out with the Lin family, not only did the Lin family not have anything to do with the Tang family but they had even been trying to suppress them. This incident was all because of the Lin family!

Previously, when Tang Yue found out about the Lin family's power and influence, she took the initiative to approach them. However, apart from them rolling their eyes at her, she did not receive anything else.

Now, Su Bei was actually hanging out with Lin Wenyu!

No wonder so many people were supporting Su Bei. No wonder Su Bei's shopping mall could obtain so much support and such good results.

Tang Yue's eyes glowed with jealousy.

Lin Shulian came in with some soup and was shocked to see Tang Yue like that. "Yue Yue, what's wrong?"

"Mom, Su Bei has Lin Wenyu's support. No wonder she could suppress me." Lin Shulian was indeed shocked. "The Lin family likes her?"

She never thought that Su Bei would have such an opportunity. The Lin family hated her so much and could never forgive her. How did Su Bei win their favor?

"What happened?" Lin Shulian was very surprised.

Tang Yue didn't want to say much and waved her hand. "I don't know either. I only know that Lin Wenyu went to Su Bei's mall."

"Yue Yue, Su Bei is your younger sister. The two of you will always support each other in the future. Don't be so calculative. Both of you will be sharing everything in the future."

Tang Yue, however, did not think so. Tang Corporation had already lost many of its advantages after being suppressed so badly by the Lin family. Now that Su Bei was suppressing her, who knew what would happen in the future?

Just thinking about it made her feel terrible.

In Lu Heting's car.

Su Bei came in wrapped in a cold aura. The sky was a little cold, but the light in her eyes was enough to melt the ice and snow.

She held today's data in her hands.

Lu Heting hadn't asked about her achievements today. He had said that he would let her do whatever she wanted, so he really didn't interfere.

He trusted her to deal with it.

If she really couldn't do it, he had 10,000 plans to help her.

However, looking at her expressionless face, Lu Heting's heart still skipped a beat.

Chapter 839 More Valuable Than Anything Else

When Su Bei sat in the passenger seat, she gently sighed.

Lu Heting reached out to hold her hand and brought it to his lips.

"Can you guess how the business went today?" Su Bei tilted her head and asked. Her pair of smiling eyes carried a vague look, and the corners of her lips were slightly slanted.

Drner

"I didn't dare to pay attention to the news today, so I won't dare to make wild guesses."

"Just guess."

Lu Heting caught a hint of a smile and the sly look in her eyes. She was merely pretending to be calm. He immediately understood and smiled. "40 million?"

40 million was a very good figure for any shopping mall in the capital, let alone in the suburbs. Lu Heting had already made a bold guess.

Su Bei shook her head. "You even participated in the planning for me. Can't you be more accurate?"

It was not that Lu Heting was inaccurate but he had already guessed according to that.

However, Su Bei's performance this time was indeed too extraordinary.

"50 million?" Lu Heting raised the figure.

"This!" Su Bei raised her fingers and gave a shocking number.

Even Lu Heting was surprised. He knew the business situation in Jingdu City all too well. That was why he knew how precious this number was.

Su Bei thought he was shocked and could not help but laugh. "Half of the credit is yours."

“This turnover is too scary.”

Su Bei counted on her fingers and said, “Actually, I didn’t expect that the number would be this big. Most of the people who came to shop today have strong purchasing power. After this, it’ll steadily decline, but it should remain at a certain level.

“But basically, we have money now!”

She had earned more money than anyone else in the entertainment industry. More importantly, this was her own business. She had signed a contract with Old Master Tang, so it truly belonged to her and Lu Heting.

“We have money now.” Su Bei revealed a bright smile, and her eyes were bright too. “It’s enough for our family of four to live a better life. We don’t need to cater to anyone else or be pointed at.”

Lu Heting couldn’t help but laugh. In fact, he could have given her all of this with his income.

However, the joy of this was not something that could be replicated by him just giving her the money.

Su Bei enjoyed it. It was more important than anything else.

Lin Hancheng and Mrs. Lin sat in the living room, drinking tea and reading the newspaper.

Although people nowadays were used to watching the news on the internet, the older generation still maintained their traditional approach.

Lin Wenyu jogged in and stood in front of Lin Hancheng. “Dad, Mom!”

“Why did you go out so early in the morning?” Mrs. Lin rebuked. “You haven’t had breakfast yet, right? I’ll get the butler to prepare it for you.”

“There’s no need. I’ve eaten. I ate outside. I had steamed dumplings. They’re delicious. I bought some for you and Dad.”

Lin Wenyu sat beside her father and asked, “Dad, will you keep your promises?”

“Of course!” Lin Hancheng had a serious expression on his square face. His eyebrows were very thick, and his eyes seemed to have a sense of authority that made people fear him. “A man must keep his word! He’ll do whatever he promised his child!”

Mrs. Lin sat at the side and smiled. She drank her tea and looked at the father and daughter.

Chapter 840 Won’t Go Back On My Word

Lin Wenyu said, “I bet with you on Jingbei Square. Now that the results are out, you have to keep your word.”

“The results are out?” Lin Hancheng wouldn’t care about such a small matter, so he only remembered it now.

Lin Shulian and the Tang family were considered taboos in the Lin family. Lin Hancheng didn’t like to mention them, and Old Madam Lin was also taboo, so very few people mentioned them.

Mrs. Lin didn't know about her husband and daughter, but she could discuss them casually now.

She was the first to ask, "What do you think the Tang family is capable of?"

"Tang Yue's Central Square had a turnover of 20 million yuan yesterday. It's a good result," Lin Wenyu said.

Mrs. Lin pursed her lips in disapproval, and Lin Hancheng did not say anything either. Tang Yue's mall was in the city center. Anyone could achieve a mediocre result. It was no surprise.

"But guess what Su Bei's mall's turnover rate is?"

Mrs. Lin and Lin Hancheng shook their heads at the same time. One was too lazy to guess, while the other was disdainful. Anyway, how good could Lin Shulian's daughter be?

Lin Wenyu answered her own question, "Su Bei's turnover rate is even better than Tang Yue's! 80 million! She made 80 million in revenue!"

She pulled Lin Hancheng's arm. "Dad, you promised me. We can't make things difficult for Su Bei and her business anymore."

Lin Hancheng did not expect Su Bei to have such an ability. It was indeed surprising.

Mrs. Lin thought to herself that when Lin Wenyu went to the venue of the opening ceremony that day, she must have also helped Su Bei increase her sales. If her husband didn't ask about this matter, she wouldn't say anything either.

Although Lin Hancheng felt that Su Bei was still alright, in his opinion, this was just a small matter. It was not worth taking to heart.

He said calmly, "A good day may not necessarily mean a good future. After all, it's the suburbs. Just the issue of traffic alone is a big problem."

Lin Wenyu told Lin Hancheng about Su Bei's solution for that.

Lin Hancheng listened for a while and remained silent. He had to admit that Su Bei's idea was good and very useful.

However, he was not too optimistic about her future. Doing business did not depend on the results of a day or two. Long-term profits were the only way.

"Anyway, you can't go back on what you promised me."

"I won't go back on my word," Lin Hancheng promised. After all, his hatred for Su Bei was much smaller than Lin Shulian herself.

After Jingbei Square was officially opened for business, although business in the subsequent days had calmed down, it was always relatively stable.

The farmers in the suburbs planted natural fruits and vegetables. It changed the environment and increased their income.

On weekends, many people would choose to go to the suburbs for short trips. They would also drop by Jingbei Square, have a meal, and shop.

There was convenient and affordable transportation, as well as natural farms. These were extremely attractive to the people in the city. The shopping environment in Jingbei Square was also very comfortable, and it quickly became the new holy land in the eyes of the public.

Lin Hancheng no longer deliberately suppressed the development of this place. Those businessmen who had originally planned to build houses, residences, and other commercial centers here were all tempted to continue the construction when they saw that this place had become a new commercial center.
