

Chapter 961: You Didn't Receive It

"Hasn't Mom already agreed to raise money and have the Du family invest?" Du Luo asked.

It seemed that Sun Jingping had already informed him about the matter.

"But that's Mom's money and the Du family's money, not ours," Su Huixian said in an abnormally gentle manner. "Only after we invest and earn money on our own will it be considered our money. Du Luo, think about it. We can't always rely on our parents to get married, right?"

Du Luo was a man who liked gentle and weak women. With Su Huixian being gentle now, he found it hard to resist.

Su Huixian spoke so earnestly that her tears were about to fall. "I want to give birth to our child as soon as possible, but now that my career isn't improving, I don't dare to give up my job so easily. I'm afraid I won't be able to provide the best protection for my child in the future. You know as well that when I was young, I had no choice. I never thought that my mother would do those things.

"Actually, I've always felt sorry for Su Bei. If my career improves, I plan to make it up to Su Bei and return what I owe her."

Du Luo said emotionally, "Alright, I'll help you."

"Just take it that I'm borrowing the money from you. I'll write a loan slip for you." Su Huixian immediately wrote a loan slip and signed it. Then, she placed it on her lips and printed it. She looked at Du Luo gently. "Even if the money is ours in the future, I still don't want to spend your money now."

Du Luo could not stand this. He snatched the IOU and tore it. He said, "I'm a man. How can I let my woman suffer? Take the money. I'll take responsibility if anything happens."

Besides, he knew that it was impossible for a multinational corporation like Olez to get into trouble. His circle of friends had all invested as well.

This was a deal that was sure to be profitable. It could make money and it could also appease his woman's heart. Du Luo was willing to fork out the money for this.

Su Huixian hugged him. "Thank you, Du Luo. There's no man better than you in this world. After investing the money and earning the profit from it, I'll focus on our family and give birth to our children. I'll stay at home and take care of my husband and children."

Du Luo hugged her. For some reason, another face kept appearing in his mind. Was this kind of life really what he wanted?

No matter what Du Luo thought, Su Huixian had successfully achieved her goal.

She introduced Sun Jingping to the Ouyang couple, allowing Sun Jingping to invest a large sum of money.

She and Du Luo also took a large sum of money to invest.

However, she and Du Luo did not mention it to Sun Jingping. She did not dare to do so. Du Luo was also afraid that his mother would scold him, so the two of them kept it a secret for now.

She only wanted to tell Sun Jingping about this when she received the generous profits.

The large-scale cooperation and investment of Orlez caused a huge sensation.

After receiving so many investments and collaborations, they even held a banquet for these celebrities, bosses, and presidents.

Many people in the crew that Su Bei was currently in had received invitations.

Even Mai Lele made a small investment.

She held the invitation and asked, "Su Bei, aren't you going tonight?"

"I didn't get an invitation."

"You didn't receive it?! Didn't you invest?" Mai Lele was shocked.

"That's right. I can't fork out that money. Besides, I don't have much money."

Chapter 962: There Are So Many Green-eyed Monsters

Mai Lele smiled. "How could you not have much money?"

"Really!" Su Bei was telling the truth. Ever since she saw Lu Heting's bank account numbers, she had long given up on managing her own money.

What was the point of earning money to support her son and her husband? All these grand ambitions were crushed by the number in Lu Heting's account. In her current state, she could only earn money to buy flowers.

"Then forget it. I'll go myself."

"Investment is risky. Be careful." Su Bei reminded her.

Mai Lele smiled and said, "It's okay. I just invested my pocket money. If I really fail, I'll just buy two fewer bags. If I earn enough money, I'll treat you to good food."

Su Bei smiled. "Okay."

On the side, Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan were busy dressing up meticulously. As they had invested a lot, Su Huixian would definitely be in the limelight tonight.

When she heard Su Bei say that there were risks in investing, Qiu Minxuan first felt that it was unfair for Su Huixian and said, "If you can't get a grape, you say it's sour. She's probably such a person. What kind of mentality is this? It's fine if she doesn't have any money to invest, but she shouldn't curse others not to earn money."

Su Huixian was in a good mood. When she thought about how she was about to become a real rich lady, how her social status would rise, and how the Du family would rise to a new level, she could not help but smile. She said, "Sister Minxuan, why lower yourself to the level of a shortsighted person? We'll go ahead and earn our money. If others don't want to earn money, we can't force them to join us."

Xiao Bai, who was standing beside Su Bei, could not help but say, "It's not certain who will lose money. Don't cry when the time comes."

"Xiao Bai!" Su Bei called out to Xiao Bai. She wasn't afraid that Xiao Bai would offend Su Huixian.

It was because there were quite a lot of people in the production team who had invested. If Xiao Bai said something like that, she might incur the wrath of others.

Seeing that Su Bei was afraid, Qiu Minxuan couldn't help but laugh happily. "Sigh, you guys can only chat with Huixian now. When Huixian earns a lot of money from the investment and becomes a boss, she won't come to film anymore. When she sits in the office on the top floor, even if you guys want to talk to her, you might not be able to."

She spoke as though Su Huixian would definitely earn a lot of money from her investment.

Xiao Bai replied, "You're making it sound as if Olez is owned by you guys. If you want to act like a lady boss, only Madam Ouyang has the qualifications to do so."

"There are so many green-eyed monsters. They don't have the money to invest, so they're jealous of us making money," Qiu Minxuan said sarcastically.

"Alright, Sister Minxuan, help me do my hair. Don't lower yourself to that kind of person's level. It's a disgrace to your status." Su Huixian stopped her.

As many people in the production team had invested their money in Olez, they came to talk to Su Huixian.

Knowing that Su Huixian had invested the most, everyone followed her lead and gathered around her to talk. They looked forward to their future development. They thought about how they would continue investing or spending their money after earning big bucks.

Someone looked at Su Huixian enviously. "Huixian is still the best. She has a lot of money and is willing to invest. I'm sure she'll earn more than everyone else."

"That's right. It's a pity that we don't have such a good fiancé. He's willing to help so much and invest so much money. But then again, it's also because Huixian is worth the effort of others. Besides, Huixian herself is also worth a lot. The money her fiancé gives her is just icing on the cake. This is something that we can't even be envious of."

Chapter 963: How Many Were Real And How Many Were Fake?

Everyone surrounded Su Huixian excitedly and no one cared about Su Bei. After all, Su Bei was the person with the coldest attitude toward this investment. Since they were not on the same page, they could not be bothered to talk to Su Bei.

Su Huixian was flattered as she enjoyed the feeling of being worshiped by everyone.

She glanced at Su Bei, who was sitting on the side. There was only an assistant and a confused Mai Lele beside her. She was secretly pleased.

Su Bei sat aside and took out the script to read.

Mai Lele did not like to be with Su Huixian. When she saw Su Bei's script, she was surprised. "Su Bei, why are you reading this..."

Su Bei made a shushing gesture and said, "Don't you think that the production team is in a frenzy right now? Everyone is thinking of making a profit from this investment. Who still wants to film seriously? Is anyone still in the mood to study for their roles?"

Mai Lele had indeed sensed the atmosphere. She came to film purely because she enjoyed filming and the feeling of being immersed in a role.

Now, the production team didn't feel this way at all.

"Then I won't be going to the banquet tonight. Shall I read scripts with you?" asked Mai Lele.

Su Bei smiled. "It's up to you."

Su Bei was indeed looking at a script for another film. Ever since Su Huixian became the female lead, she had seriously considered quitting the production team.

Su Huixian had never been a serious person. Su Bei could not be bothered to be dragged down by her and let her take advantage of her popularity.

The reason why she hadn't mentioned it yet was that Feng Ze had invested in the other production. Su Bei wanted to wait until Feng Ze returned to the States before announcing this matter to the public.

She was really afraid of that man. That night when they drank together, she did not even dare to speak to him.

To Su Bei, it was a miracle that Da Bao could be so close to him.

Everyone surrounded Su Huixian like stars surrounding the moon and went out with her.

It had to be said that Su Huixian was truly capable. No matter where she went, she would become the center of attention, gaining unanimous attention.

However, how many of the friendships around her were real? How many were fake?

It was said that the banquet held that night was the most popular in the entire country. There were celebrities, big shots, and experts who were all cooperating with the film group this time.

That night, the female artists competed for attention, and all of them were extremely beautiful.

As Su Huixian had invested a lot of money and dressed up beautifully, coupled with the fact that Su Bei was not in attendance, Su Huixian finally got her wish fulfilled.

She managed to bribe a reporter and made it onto the hot search list. She got on the front page of various websites, newspapers, entertainment news, and financial news.

Her life was reaching new heights.

Su Bei, on the other hand, went home after reading the script. She bought bags of food and went home to cook delicious food for her husband and sons.

Even though Su Bei herself wasn't present, she was still being used as a stepping stone.

Su Huixian's life seemed to be boring without Su Bei.

That night, Su Huixian did not receive enough attention and even had to use various marketing accounts to compare her and Su Bei's development.

According to the comments, ever since Su Bei's short-lived success in the modeling industry, she had no achievements and gradually declined. Now, she could only rely on excessive photoshoots to hype up her popularity.

Chapter 964: Shouldn't Have Asked

On the other hand, Su Huixian had not only successfully entered the film industry but she had also taken on the role of the female lead. She was currently doing well in the investment field, and the more she did, the better.

It seemed that Su Huixian was far ahead of Su Bei.

Su Huixian was new in the film industry and had no one to step on. The only person she could step on was Su Bei.

The effects of her marketing tactics were pretty good. Everyone now knew that she was a small investor and a new star in the entertainment industry.

They all knew that Su Bei was indeed down and out. She wouldn't be able to hold out much longer. Her resources were no longer good. Other than her beauty, she had nothing else.

"Brother, do you really not care about this kind of behavior? This Su woman is really too much." Lu Weijian couldn't take it anymore. The waves of news articles had mushroomed up so suddenly.

"Don't worry about it. Help her hype the news up."

"Brother, you're wise and farsighted, but I can't guess what benefits you'll bring Sister-in-law by doing this."

Lu Heting looked up, his eyes bright. "Bei Bei made the request herself."

"..." Alright, he shouldn't have asked. He was just subjecting himself to their lovey-dovey acts.

It was indeed Su Bei's request. Anyway, the more one was praised, the worse it would be when one fell.

If she wanted to film quietly, someone had to stand in front of her to help her block the attacks. Su Huixian was her shield.

Not only did Su Huixian receive a lot of praise from her fans, but she also felt proud in front of Sun Jingping.

Compared to her previous hypocrisy, Sun Jingping sincerely praised Su Huixian this time. "In the end, our Huixian is still the best. No one can compare to her. My son's taste is really good!"

“Aunt, you’re flattering me!” Su Huixian smiled. “All of this is because of you. To be honest, if you hadn’t spent so much money this time, we wouldn’t have been able to earn anything even if we saw the opportunity to.”

“Once we make a profit, you and Du Luo can get married,” Sun Jingping said, “Actually, I intend to let the two of you get married right now. However, when I think about the investment, you’ll probably be busy. You won’t have the time to get married now, so I have to delay it slightly. But don’t worry. I’ll prepare it well. I’ll definitely arrange a beautiful wedding for you.”

“Thank you, Aunt!”

This time, Su Huixian finally obtained official recognition.

Sun Jingping compared Su Huixian to Su Bei. Although Su Bei had returned to the Tang family and had a high status, she was proud and arrogant. She was indeed not suitable for Du Luo. Someone like Su Huixian was more suitable.

Although Su Huixian was older, she was more sensible and knew how to flatter people. As long as she earned money from this investment, she would not be worse than Su Bei.

There was no better candidate for a daughter-in-law than Su Huixian.

What made Su Huixian even happier was the events of the next day. She had to go to the hospital for a check-up as she was not feeling well. The doctor told her, “Congratulations, you’re pregnant.”

“Really?” Su Huixian was overjoyed.

Previously, she had tried so hard to get pregnant with Du Luo’s child, but she could not get what she wanted at all. She had no choice but to fake her pregnancy in order to get engaged to Du Luo.

Now, she was really pregnant!

Investment, marriage, pregnancy... These were the three most important things!

Su Huixian looked at the doctor’s report excitedly.

Qiu Minxuan hurriedly reached out to support her and said, “Let’s quickly tell Mr. Du Luo! He’ll be very happy!”

Chapter 965: Financial Crisis

“Huixian, your hard work has finally come to an end. Let’s see what else Mr. Du Luo’s parents can say now!” Qiu Minxuan could not wait for Su Huixian to slap the Du family’s faces.

“Wait!” Su Huixian stopped her. “Don’t tell anyone for now.”

“Why? You’re pregnant and need to rest. You must tell others. It wasn’t easy for you to have this child. You can’t continue to work hard anymore,” Qiu Minxuan said.

“I’ve just accepted the role of the female lead but I need to rest? What will happen to my future development? What about my salary?” Su Huixian said. “How am I going to explain it to Tang Yue? Do you think she gave me the role of the female lead for my own good? It's all because she doesn't want to see Su Bei doing well and wants me to suppress her."

Qiu Minxuan said, "That's true. If we offend Tang Yue, we won't have an easy time in the future. But we've made investments now..."

Su Huixian thought about it for a while before saying, "We just invested the money, and it's not my money. Even if I earn some money soon, it might not be enough for me to take care of myself. I still have to seize every opportunity I have. I can't offend Tang Yue."

She said to Qiu Minxuan, "No matter what, Tang Yue was the one who helped me get involved in this investment. She didn't bring Su Bei along to meet Olez, which shows how much she values me. I must seize this opportunity."

She could not let her guard down at all. This time, she had to complete Tang Yue's arrangements and keep the child.

In order to continue filming, she wouldn't tell anyone about her pregnancy for now.

Tang Yue was indeed wary of Su Bei. She didn't want Su Bei to invest money in Olez to prevent herself from losing to Su Bei again.

Tang Yue was very satisfied that Su Bei did not invest.

However, many people did not expect that after three days, their investment in Olez would show results.

Just as this scene was about to unfold, a financial crisis erupted within Olez.

Actually, Lu Heting and Su Bei had long noticed the problem with Olez. Financial problems were not only present in their company but they had been there a long time ago.

However, as more and more people joined hands with Ouyang Ting, this problem was completely covered up by money.

However, a problem was a problem. If they did not solve it, no matter how many people cooperated or how much money was invested, it would only temporarily cover up the problem and not eliminate it.

No one could beat Olez when it was in its prime. Once it declined, it would collapse like a snow mountain.

The first news article Su Bei saw was that Hua Cuo had taken his lawyer and headed straight to Olez. This quickly aroused suspicion.

Su Bei called Hua Cuo.

Hua Cuo laughed through the phone. "Little Fifth Sister, I didn't misjudge you. I didn't see your name when everyone was investing. It's not convenient for me to divulge any information, but let me put it this way. Ouyang Ting has a large amount of investment money in America and didn't give any explanation to the outside world. I'm here on behalf of the creditor to pursue the debt."

"I knew it. When I saw the couple, I felt that something was wrong. So even though I met them, I didn't pursue the matter any further."

Hua Cuo smiled. "There are risks in investing. You need to be cautious when you enter the industry. Okay, I won't talk to you anymore. I have to get busy now."

Chapter 966: The Boss Ran Away

"Yeah, let's eat together after you're done with your work," Su Bei said.

"Okay," Hua Cuo replied before hanging up.

After Olez's problem was exposed, a chain reaction started. Even so, the investors were still hopeful that the problem would be resolved quickly.

However, the chain effect of this incident was huge. The first thing that came to mind was the stock market. The next day, the stock price of Olez plummeted.

The stock price of Olez plummeted, which exposed problems everywhere.

Countless debt collectors appeared at the entrance of Olez's huge company!

Olez had not paid workers their wages since two years ago.

It had been two years. The workers couldn't take it anymore and came to collect their debts.

If they could not even pay the most basic fees, one could imagine what the costs of other projects would be like.

In an instant, Olez, which was originally in the limelight, fell into a huge economic crisis.

The debt collectors came one after another, and questions were popping up everywhere.

In an instant, everyone was in a panic. More than half of the celebrities and big shots in the entertainment industry were affected.

Everyone was observing Olez's situation, hoping that Olez would be lucky. It was such a big company, and so many people had invested together. A starving camel was still bigger than a horse. How could Olez not recover from this setback?

The people led by Su Huixian were as anxious as ants on a hot pan, but there was nothing they could do.

Sun Jingping kept calling Su Huixian to ask about the situation, asking her to question Ouyang Ting.

However, Su Huixian and Ouyang Ting did not have any personal relations. They only got to know each other through Tang Yue.

Su Huixian had already called Tang Yue a few times when the problem had just arisen. How could she be so anxious and keep asking for answers?

Su Huixian could only bear all the pressure herself and had no choice but to appease Sun Jingping.

However, the worst thing finally happened. There was news that Ouyang Ting had left the country three days ago and was now missing.

No one was in charge of the entire Olez International Film Group. There were no statements or public relations.

Olez's situation was probably worse than everyone had imagined. And all their investments had probably gone down the drain.

Employees of the group also began to slack off or find other jobs due to the salaries and bonuses that they had yet to receive.

Olez was almost at a complete standstill.

When Su Bei saw this news, she put her phone aside. This result was within her and Lu Heting's expectations. When Hua Cuo revealed that little bit of information, Olez's bankruptcy was already destined.

She and Lu Heting had nothing to do with Olez, so they were just spectators watching the show.

Mai Lele ran all the way to Su Bei's side and sat down next to her. She said, "Su Bei, it looks like you were right. All of our investment in Olez has gone down the drain! The boss has run away too. I heard from my big brother's internal news that Ouyang Ting will probably not return to the country."

"Are you okay?" Su Bei remembered that she had invested in money before.

"I'm fine. Anyway, it's just pocket money. If it's gone, then I'll just eat fewer snacks and buy fewer bags." Mai Lele was not anxious at all.

Su Bei thought that some people were probably really anxious, though.

Chapter 967: The Du Family Is Going Bankrupt?

The entire crew was in no mood to work. In the past few days, everyone—the producer, director, main cast, and even some of the crew members—had been focused on Olez.

It was fine if they did not invest much, but those who invested with their lives were the ones whose eyes turned red.

Tang Yue was one of them.

She had invested a lot of money, and this crushing defeat made her very depressed.

Fortunately, Tang Corporation was still considered a large family and business. Her failure was still bearable. Old Master Tang did not say much and only casually asked, "Did Su Bei participate?"

Previously, Tang Yue had been trying her best to stop Su Bei from investing. She was afraid that Su Bei would earn a sum of money. Naturally, she had been asking around about Su Bei, so she knew that she wasn't involved.

However, in front of Old Master Tang, she couldn't speak. Firstly, she didn't want to appear as if she was constantly paying attention to Su Bei's movements. Secondly, she didn't want her bad investment to make her seem inferior to Su Bei.

Therefore, she could only say, "Grandpa, I haven't been paying attention to Su Bei's matter. I've been too busy recently. I've been handling my own work."

Old Master Tang looked at her. Tang Xinru, on the other hand, said, "Grandfather, I've asked Su Bei about it. I was afraid that she would accidentally invest and increase her burden. Fortunately, she didn't invest."

Tang Yue shot Tang Xinru a vicious glare. However, she had often thrown Tang Xinru under the bus in front of Old Master Tang. It was normal for Tang Xinru to make her unhappy now.

As expected, Old Master Tang was even more satisfied with Su Bei and said, "Su Bei is a clear-headed person."

With just one sentence, Tang Yue was at a disadvantage.

Although Old Master Tang helped her deal with her loss, she was afraid that he no longer looked forward to her abilities.

After Tang Yue walked out, she was extremely angry and thought to herself, 'This matter has blown up so much. Su Bei has money in her hands, but she didn't invest a single cent in Olez. It seems like she already knew that there was a problem with this company. She clearly knew that there was a problem but she didn't warn me at all and allowed me to lose money. She probably thinks of me as a joke now.'

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. Su Bei was really too sinister and cunning! Tang Yue pursed her red lips and could not suppress the anger in her heart.

Just then, Su Huixian came over. Her eyes were slightly swollen and red. Her heavy eye makeup could not hide her eyes that were clearly fresh from crying.

"President Tang." Su Huixian came forward.

Tang Yue felt frustrated at the sight of her. How many times had Su Huixian called to ask her about the matter?

Investing was a voluntary thing. Did she have to pay for Su Huixian's losses just because she connected her to the Ouyang couple?

"What are you doing here? I'm very busy right now."

Su Huixian really had no other choice. She said, "President Tang, I know you're very busy and I shouldn't be disturbing you, but my situation is really terrible. The Du family is about to go bankrupt..."

"The Du family is going bankrupt?" Tang Yue was shocked.

However, she soon realized that Du Jinghao and Du Luo's families weren't very close to each other. They had separated from each other a few years ago. Moreover, Du Jinghao's family hadn't developed locally for many years. They didn't take the same route as Du Luo's family. Now that Du Luo's family was going bankrupt, it had nothing to do with Du Jinghao.

At the thought of this, Tang Yue felt much calmer.

Chapter 968: Su Bei Is Too Much

Now, she only cared about settling the problem at hand. How could she care about other people's problems?

Seeing that she was interested in the topics, Su Huixian quickly said, "That's right. Because of this investment, Du Luo's mother had taken out a lot of money. He secretly took out a lot of his own money as well. I even used some of the money from Qian Yu Entertainment's account. I originally thought that after the investment succeeded, all of this wouldn't be a problem. But the problem now is that we invested too much. The Du family is struggling."

When she went to look for Sun Jingping and Du Luo in the morning, she mentioned this problem. When they calculated, they realized that the amount of money that they had invested was not as much as everyone knew. It was double or even triple the amount.

Currently, the Du family was facing a problem with their cash flow. They were on the verge of being unable to fork out any money. If this continued, their capital chain would break and they would really go bankrupt.

Tang Yue really did not expect the Du family to be so brainless. They did not even consider their own ability to bear the consequences before investing money recklessly.

Looking at Su Huixian, who was standing in front of her, she said, "I've also lost a lot of money. I don't have money to lend you. If you want money, you'll have to see if you can borrow some from Su Bei."

When Su Huixian thought of Su Bei, she realized that Su Bei had not participated in the investment this time. She was truly too much. She knew that it was a trap, but she did not stop her from jumping into it! Su Bei was probably gloating now!

But how could she control Su Bei now?

"Huixian, don't blame me for not helping you. I've lost so much money this time, and Su Bei is much more outstanding than me. It's also hard for me to maintain my position in the Tang family now. I only came out after being scolded," Tang Yue said with difficulty. "Otherwise, with our friendship, how could I not help you?"

Su Huixian was extremely disappointed, but she had already mentally prepared herself before coming.

Everyone was suffering a huge loss, not just her and the Du family. Everywhere she went, people would sigh and complain. Tang Yue was not the only one without the ability to help her. It was the same with other people too.

Su Huixian's eyes were empty. She had almost lost everything.

Just now, she was even given a tight slap by Sun Jingping. When Du Luo saw it, he was indifferent as well. This was because he was also immersed in the huge blow of the investment failure.

Now that even Tang Yue could not help her, she really had no way out.

Su Huixian stumbled into the car while Qiu Minxuan hurriedly asked, "What did President Tang say?"

"She has also lost everything. She has no money." Su Huixian's voice sounded like death.

Qiu Minxuan did not say anything else either. It seemed like the situation was very bad. She had invested many years of her savings into Olez. What should she do now?

With Su Huixian's defeat, all her years of hard work had gone down the drain.

The two of them remained silent as they sat in the car. The atmosphere was stifling.

After a while, Tang Yue's assistant rushed over and handed Su Huixian something. "President Tang said that this is for you. Take it."

It was a thin envelope. He did not know what it contained.

Su Huixian was too powerless to open it.

She didn't know what to do.

"To the Du family's company." Su Huixian finally found her voice and got the driver to drive.

While driving, she called Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin, intending to borrow some money to deal with the emergency.

Chapter 969: Why Did You...

The Su family was not as rich as the Du family, but they were still rich.

Unexpectedly, as soon as the call went through, Xu Zhiqin's cries could be heard. "Huixian, your father and I have to depend on you this time. Our years of savings have all gone down the drain this time..."

"Mom, what's wrong?"

"I invested in Olez, but the boss ran away!"

Su Huixian was shocked. "Why did you..."

"Wasn't everyone investing in Olez too? We saw on the news that you invested as well. We've been watching the news for the past two days. We just didn't want to disturb you. We only managed to find a channel to invest the money after begging your grandparents. Who knew..."

Su Huixian could no longer listen to Xu Zhiqin's nagging. She never expected that her actions would implicate two families.

If the investment was successful, both the Su and Du families would rise by a level.

But she had never thought about what would happen if the investment failed.

Now that it had really failed, how would she bear the consequences?

When she first did it, she never thought about the risks.

When the car arrived at the Du family's company, Su Huixian was dumbstruck and did not alight.

"Miss Su? Miss Su?" The driver reminded her.

Su Huixian came back to her senses and saw that there were more people asking for money at the entrance of the Du family's company. Du Luo was in the crowd.

It was now known that there was a problem with the Du family's capital chain. The suppliers had also seen the news and realized that Olez had run away. They had long seen the news that Su Huixian was the person who had invested the most this time (Actually, she wasn't the person who had invested the most but the news of her was the most hyped up. Hence, it gave people the impression that she had invested the most money this time). They were afraid that the Du family would run away with their money, so they rushed over to ask for money in advance.

Due to this, the Du family's funds were even tighter.

Du Luo's originally thin and handsome face was now full of stubble, looking haggard and scary. His eyes were red, and he was struggling to cope.

The driver sighed and said, "Sigh, since yesterday, people have been asking to be paid in advance. The company is in trouble now. I heard that Madam was so angry that she has been hospitalized. Sir and Young Master are also selling their properties to tide through this crisis. But this time, I'm afraid everything is done for. I'm afraid I'll have to find another job."

This driver was from the Du family and knew the Du family's situation very well. He often drove the members and would hear some insider news.

What he said was the truth. The Du family's situation was terrible.

Su Huixian was stunned. Initially, she wanted to tell Du Luo and Sun Jingping that she was pregnant so that they would lessen their hostility toward her and she would not be embroiled in this mess.

However, at that moment, she was scared and didn't dare to do it anymore...

The Su and Du families were both broke. How was she going to raise the child in her stomach? How would she dare have a child?

The life that she had envisioned for herself as the young madam of the Du family was to have countless nannies by her side. She would have someone to do everything for her. All she had to do was work a little and then go shopping for bags and new clothes at the mall. She would take care of her skin, do facial masks, and have afternoon tea with the wealthy heiresses to pass the time.

If she had no money, she would have to take care of the child herself. She would have to raise the child and serve her husband and parents...

She couldn't imagine such a life. She would go crazy.

"Drive! We're not staying here anymore!" Su Huixian practically shouted at the driver.

"Where are we going?" The driver was also surprised. They had just arrived but were about to leave.

Chapter 970: Could It Be Considered As Invalid?

Su Huixian said in a fluster, "I just remembered that I have something urgent to attend to. Let's go!"

She did not want to go anywhere, but she could not accept the current situation.

She had to think about whether she could accept such a life.

As for Du Luo, did she really love Du Luo?

Now that she thought about it carefully, that didn't seem to be the case.

Back then, she took a fancy to Du Luo and snatched Du Luo from Su Bei. Although it was mainly because she wanted to compete with Su Bei and show that she was better and more lovable than Su Bei, it was also because Du Luo represented a life that she yearned for.

The Du family's wealth and family background made her see a halo around Du Luo's head. It made marrying Du Luo her lifelong goal.

But now, everything good about Du Luo was gone. How could she marry him? Did she still have feelings for Du Luo?

She did, but it was definitely not enough for her to give birth to their child and live a tough life with him.

She fled.

Sun Jingping was furious as well. She hated Su Huixian to the core.

However, she had no choice. Now was not the time to have Su Huixian take responsibility. The company was more important.

Du Luo was busy dealing with company matters and was exhausted. When he got home, he was drained of all energy.

"Where's Huixian? Why isn't she here to help you?"

Only then did Du Luo recall that he had not seen Su Huixian for the past two days. There were very few phone calls and text messages from her too.

He still remembered the driver telling him that Su Huixian had come to the company once, but when they reached the door, she told him to drive away.

He wondered how she was doing now.

Sun Jingping complained, saying, "Your situation is so bad now, yet she's treating it as if nothing is going on. This is too much! We invested the money because of her! Now that something has happened, she's hiding far away. This won't do"

"She might be busy too," Du Luo explained on Su Huixian's behalf.

"I don't think she's busy. She just wants to avoid us after seeing that our money is gone! Du Luo, it's not that I want to say this, but back then, her mother was a mistress. It's not like she's not greedy for money. You'd better think about her true nature and see if she's really worthy of you."

Du Luo thought for a while and lowered his head without saying anything.

Sun Jingping continued, "Actually, our family's condition might not be that bad. I can gather some money and quickly take out another sum of money to tide through the current difficulties. As for Su Huixian, you should consider carefully if she's really worthy of you betting your whole life on."

Du Luo had actually thought about this before. He was biased toward Su Bei, so he had some thoughts about Su Huixian.

If Su Huixian really disliked him, did that mean that their engagement was invalid?

When Su Huixian returned home, Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin hugged her and cried. They said that they had lost all their savings and wanted her to quickly think of a way to get the Du family to fork out a sum of money for them so that they could tide over the crisis.

“The Du family?! The Du family has nothing now!” Su Huixian said angrily.

Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin were stunned. “How is that possible?”

“Did you think that they didn’t invest much?” Su Huixian retorted.

With that, she went back upstairs and locked herself in her room. Seeing that their daughter, who had always been generous, was treating them like this, Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin were both anxious and disappointed.
