

Chapter 971: File For Bankruptcy

But other than their daughter, who else could they rely on?

Su Huixian went upstairs and opened the item that Tang Yue gave her. It turned out to be a thin disc.

She switched on the computer and realized that it was a surveillance video. It was the time when Du Luo went to Sheng Tang Entertainment and met Su Bei.

There was no audio from the surveillance video, but she could see Du Luo and Su Bei talking for quite a while. Moreover, his eyes were filled with emotion as he sat next to Su Bei. He was very close to her!

Although she could not hear what they were saying, this scene stabbed at Su Huixian's heart. It turned out that they were hiding something from her. They were really having an affair behind her back. There was actually such a thing going on between them!

Du Luo had betrayed her first.

As though she had found an excuse and reason for her actions today, Su Huixian felt more relaxed. It was not that she looked down on the Du family for having no money now but that Du Luo did not value their relationship!

With that thought, Su Huixian gave Du Luo a call.

"Du Luo, are you alright now? I'm really sorry about what happened this time. I didn't expect things to turn out this way either..." Su Huixian apologized.

"I understand. No one would have expected something like this to happen." Du Luo knew that Su Huixian could not be blamed for this.

Su Huixian asked, "My parents have invested quite a bit of money. I never expected them to do the same. The Su family is facing a very difficult time now too."

When Du Luo heard her say that, he thought about what his mother had just said. Did Su Huixian really like him from the bottom of her heart? What did she mean by saying that it was difficult for the Su family too? Did she not want to help the Du family, or did she want the Du family to help them?

Just as he was feeling vexed, he heard Su Huixian ask, "Du Luo, how's the Du family now?"

Du Luo thought about his mother's words and said, "We might have to apply for bankruptcy tonight and make a formal statement tomorrow. I'm afraid it'll be a little difficult during this period of time. The villa we're currently staying in has already been mortgaged."

"Huh?" Su Huixian never expected the situation to be so terrible.

She was speechless for a long time. She could not bring herself to say that she would help him because she did not have much money at the moment and had to keep it for herself.

“But you don’t have to worry. My parents and I are thinking of a way. At most, we won’t live in such a big house. We’ll rent a small two-bedroom apartment for the time being and settle down first. We won’t travel by car either. Fortunately, public transportation is quite advanced now,” said Du Luo.

“Yes, yes.” Su Huixian could only reply perfunctorily. After hanging up, she felt afraid.

A two-bedroom unit? Wasn’t that smaller than the kitchen at home? Take the bus? Take the subway? How was she supposed to fit in with her designer heels and bags?

She subconsciously covered her stomach. She could not tell the Du family that she was pregnant. Otherwise, she would be entangled with them.

She had to get rid of the child.

However, how could she maximize the benefits? She had already done something like framing Su Bei while pretending to be pregnant. She could not repeat the same trick.

Right, there was a surveillance video of Du Luo and Su Bei meeting each other. She could sell it to the paparazzi and earn a sum of money. Now, every cent was very important to her.

Of course, it could also satisfy Tang Yue. Tang Yue probably had this intention when she gave the disc to her.

Chapter 972: How Is She Different From A Mistress?

What about the child?

Just as she was thinking, Qiu Minxuan called her and said, “Huixian, I’ve accepted a variety show for you. Although it’s a little tough, you’ll get paid. If you have no objections, I’ll sign the contract?”

Her tone was unfriendly. After losing so much money with Su Huixian, how could she be as gentle as usual?

She wanted to take on this variety show to make up for some losses.

Su Huixian knew that if she did not agree, Qiu Minxuan would probably leave her too.

If it were any other time, she wouldn’t mind. At most, she would just have to find someone else.

But now, she didn’t have the time or money to find a suitable person.

“Take it,” Su Huixian replied.

She then quickly came up with an idea. If she miscarried during the variety show, would the broadcasting station give her a huge compensation? It would be considered as though someone was paying for her child.

With this in mind, Su Huixian quickly made up her mind on what to do next.

The video of Su Bei and Du Luo meeting privately was soon exposed on the internet.

Immediately, there was a huge commotion. Su Bei met up with her ex-boyfriend? And this ex-boyfriend was now her future brother-in-law?

There was no audio in the footage, but the scene of the two of them sitting together and chatting was the truth. In addition, there was a problem with the angle of the surveillance video, so they looked very intimate.

Su Bei had quite a number of fans and anti-fans. When her anti-fans saw this video, they immediately had an excuse and commented: [No wonder Su Bei hasn't appeared in public recently. So, she went to meet her ex-boyfriend! But don't forget, her ex-boyfriend is already engaged. Su Bei's actions are no different from a mistress.]

[A good person doesn't look back on past mistakes. Looks like Su Bei isn't a good person either. Disdainful.jpg]

[Huh, I really didn't expect Su Bei to live like the person she hates the most.]

[The person above looks down on Su Bei but do you have any evidence? What's so great about surveillance footage? Who knows if it's real?]

[You're saying that the video means nothing? What other reason could Su Bei have for meeting her ex-boyfriend? The fans must be blind.]

[Su Bei would never do such a thing. I swear on my life!]

[Our Su Bei is definitely the best. She wouldn't do such a thing!]

The fans quickly quarreled, and it was impossible for Su Bei not to be affected by such matters.

Before Su Bei and Yue Ze could respond, Sheng Tang issued a public statement. [We object to all our artists violating morals and ethics. Sheng Tang will never protect those who have done wrong. Sheng Tang will apologize on behalf of Su Bei to all those affected by this matter. Later, we will announce the punishment measures for the artist involved.]

Initially, it was just a small matter that needed clearing up. However, Sheng Tang Entertainment's statement confirmed the speculation about Su Bei!

The anti-fans and passersby who heard the news all sneered. [Even the company doesn't trust Su Bei. It's obvious that this is true.]

Chapter 973: Taking Advantage

[What else do the braindead fans have to say? You guys are busy protecting your idol, but she has already been prosecuted by her own company! Stop struggling!]

[I will always believe in Su Bei. I believe that she would never do such a thing!]

[Sheng Tang Entertainment, if you can't give us a convincing reason, we'll forever resist unscrupulous companies like you!]

Tang Yue was the one who arranged for Sheng Tang Entertainment's statement. After she handed the footage to Su Huixian, she knew that Su Huixian would definitely use it to attack Su Bei.

Therefore, this statement was prepared long ago. Once the footage was out, the statement followed immediately and gave Su Bei the biggest blow, leaving her without any strength to retaliate.

In the entertainment industry, one had to be quick, accurate, and ruthless. This time, Tang Yue made sure to use the most effective method.

By the time Tang Xinru and Yue Ze saw it, the footage and the statement were already trending.

Furious, Tang Xinru approached Tang Yue. "What's with the statement? The footage was just released and we don't even know what's going on. Why were you so quick to release a statement?"

Tang Yue's face was filled with innocence. "Huh? Really? I'm not too sure what's going on either. Cousin, don't be angry. I'll get someone to withdraw the statement right now. Also, no matter who it was who released this statement, I'll punish them severely. That person doesn't care about the interests of the company's artists at all. Such a person doesn't deserve to stay in the company!"

Tang Xinru was furious. "What's the point of withdrawing it now? It's already been released. If we do so, it'll only attract more discussion!"

Moreover, even though she knew that Tang Yue was behind this, she did not want to push the blame to her now. It was not a good idea to entangle herself with Tang Yue now.

Tang Xinru really did not expect Tang Yue to be so reckless!

She had to discuss this matter with Old Master Tang and Su Bei. Otherwise, who knew what trouble it would cause?!

"What should I do now?" Tang Yue 'humbly' asked.

Tang Xinru knew that Tang Yue was just pretending to be good-natured

Tang Xinru came out of Tang Yue's office and told Yue Ze to contact Su Bei immediately.

"We have to think of a way to suppress this matter as soon as possible. Let's use the matter of Su Huixian's failed investment to suppress it! I'll think of another way," Tang Xinru said.

This matter probably had something to do with Su Huixian. It was reasonable to use Su Huixian's matter to suppress the negative news surrounding Su Bei.

Therefore, news of Su Huixian's investments was soon trending while Su Bei's matter died down.

When Su Huixian first invested, she was on the hot trending list a few times. During that investment banquet, she was also the first to be in the limelight.

She wasn't the one who invested the most money but she was the hottest topic on the search rankings back then and even built herself the image of an investment queen. She was also very enthusiastic about stepping on Su Bei. Now that the investment failed, she quickly became everyone's laughing stock.

The reality of this world was that if you succeeded, not many people would be happy for you.

But if you failed, you would attract countless people to spread the news and watch you make a fool of yourself.

The more sensational her marketing was previously, the greater the backlash she suffered this time.

On the contrary, those with discerning eyes could tell that Su Bei was the smart one. She did not follow the wind nor join in the fun. She quietly did her own things, but she was stepped on.

Chapter 974: It's Great To Have My Husband's Support

He had set up a special reminder on Weibo. As long as there was any news about Bei, he would be notified of it immediately.

He simply glanced at the footage and knew that Su Bei had no interest in this man. Su Bei was not someone who was good at hiding her emotions. Her love and passion were written in her eyes.

When she looked at Du Luo, her eyes were cold.

Therefore, Lu Heting was extremely unhappy with the comments online. Lu Hang saw the news and rushed in, waiting for his boss' order to erase all the comments on Weibo.

However, Lu Heting did not do so. Instead, he said, "Get Li Qisheng to make a contract for Su Bei. Sign Su Bei to Di Xing Media Company."

"Yes, Mr. Lu," Lu Hang replied immediately. He couldn't help but admire Lu Heting for his thoughtfulness.

Deleting all the discussions would not solve the root of the problem, but letting Su Bei sign with Di Xing Media Company would most likely shut all of them up!

Furthermore, doing it this way could allow Di Xing Media Company to endorse Su Bei's character. She definitely did not do such a thing! Otherwise, how could she enter the media company under Lu Group?

He had previously mentioned to Su Bei that he wanted her to leave Sheng Tang Entertainment and come to Di Xing Media Company, but she rejected him.

However, she still did not know his identity back then.

Su Bei had just seen the news online and talked to Yue Ze. When she saw Lu Heting's call, she immediately picked it up. "Hello, hubby!"

Lu Heting's mood was much better after hearing Su Bei's greeting. His affection was transmitted through the phone line to Su Bei's ear. "Do you want to come to Di Xing Media Company?"

"I was just about to call you and beg you to take me in. I can't stay in Sheng Tang anymore. Tang Yue is too scary. The impact of the footage is far smaller than the impact of her statement. She's too scheming." Su Bei had long considered leaving Sheng Tang. It was just that before, she did not want to let Tang Xinru and Yue Ze down. Now that Tang Yue was in this state, Tang Xinru probably wanted her to leave as well.

“Beg me? Do you really need to beg me for this kind of thing?” Lu Heting’s voice became a little hoarse as he recalled her usual gentleness and charm.

“Then I’ll shamelessly come?”

Su Bei nodded. “It’s great to have my husband’s support. However, I still have some things to do and can’t come over immediately. I’ll go to Di Xing Media Company after I’m done with the matters here.”

“Sure, whenever you like.” Lu Heting was not in a hurry.

Sheng Tang Entertainment was currently holding a meeting.

Tang Xinru and Tang Yue presided over the meeting.

The two of them had similar roles, and the things they managed were also similar.

It was not a good thing for a company to have two managers with similar rights. This would lead to many things that could not be finalized.

However, Old Master Tang did not want to be biased toward either of his two sons back then, so he treated his two granddaughters equally and allowed Tang Xinru and Tang Yue to be equal in the company.

The two of them were equally matched, which resulted in the current situation.

Chapter 975: Proving Her Innocence

The current situation wasn’t beneficial to the company’s development, but it wasn’t easy to change things.

He could only allow his two granddaughters to oppose each other.

When Su Bei came over, Tang Yue’s assistant stopped her and said, “There’s a high-level meeting inside. It’s not appropriate for you to go in now.”

“There’s nothing inappropriate about it. President Tang asked me to pick Su Bei up.” Tang Xinru’s assistant walked over and led Su Bei in.

Su Bei quickly reached the meeting room.

The higher-ups knew that Su Bei was also a member of the Tang family, so they had no objections about her arrival.

Su Bei sat on the side and calmly listened to everyone’s speech. She lowered her eyes and said nothing.

When the meeting was about to end, Tang Xinru said, “Tang Yue, Su Bei has something to tell you.”

Tang Yue casually glanced at Su Bei and said, "Yeah, go ahead."

Su Bei then looked up at Tang Yue and said, "Tang Yue, I hope that you can apologize to me regarding that false statement. At the same time, fire that employee who made the mistake."

The statement was released by Tang Yue's close aide, so she naturally could not fire him. Moreover, the close aide had to take the blame for her this time.

She smiled and said, "Su Bei, I also want to believe that you're innocent. But the footage is real, and we don't have any evidence to prove your innocence. There's nothing we can do about it, which is why the employees in the company issued that statement. We can't let the company bear infamy just because of you, right?"

In other words, she did not do anything wrong because Su Bei could not prove her innocence.

"Did you ask me beforehand whether I could prove my innocence?" Su Bei asked.

Tang Yue smiled. "I'm not responsible for such matters."

"Does that mean that if I can prove my innocence, the employee who made the statement will be fired?" Su Bei asked with a smile.

"Of course! Making a statement without knowing the truth is definitely a mistake that one needs to be held accountable for." Tang Yue was fearless because she believed that Su Bei would not be able to prove her innocence.

Before she finished his sentence, Su Bei had already taken out her phone and clicked on an audio recording.

In that audio, Du Luo and Su Bei's voices were clearly heard.

It turned out that on that day, Su Bei had recorded their conversation the moment Du Luo entered.

Being in the entertainment industry and facing someone with a sensitive identity like Du Luo, Su Bei naturally knew what would happen if someone with ulterior motives saw them together.

She had been on guard from the beginning.

Their voices were heard clearly. Everyone could tell that everything was Du Luo's wishful thinking. When he saw Su Bei in dire straits, he wanted to extend his kindness to her. He hoped that she could reconcile with him.

Du Luo's voice sounded—

"Su Bei, I think I like you more..."

Su Bei was speechless. "I don't like you. Mr. Du, don't you know that everything changed the moment you made your decision? No one will endlessly wait for you, okay? And I don't remember your phone number either. Since we're already broken up, let's just go back to being strangers, okay?"

Du Luo and Su Bei's words matched the shape of their mouths in the footage. There was no audio in the footage, but now that they were listening to the audio, everything matched up.

Chapter 976: Caused By A Provisional Employee

Su Bei then said a long sentence.

“Mr. Du, please don’t be too narrow-minded. Although there are people in this circle who aren’t innocent, there are also a lot of people who rely on their own hard work to succeed. Not every bright and beautiful woman you’ve seen follows the unspoken rules of the industry.

“A downtrodden good woman is equivalent to a good woman who didn’t accept the unspoken rules in the entertainment industry? Who taught you that? This is an insult to all the women who are talented and willing to work hard!

“Please avoid me the next time you see me, Mr. Du. I really don’t deserve your praise!”

The women in the crowd could not help but clap and cheer for Su Bei!

As women, they knew how difficult it was for women to be in the workforce. If they did not make any achievements, people would say that women should go home to take care of their husbands and children. If they had achievements, people would point at their noses and scold them, saying they only got to their position through dirty tactics.

Su Bei’s words to Du Luo really hit the nail on the head.

Tang Yue did not expect Su Bei to have such evidence. Her expression changed.

Su Bei raised her eyes and asked, “President Tang, I’ve already proven my innocence. I did meet up with Du Luo previously, but I never did anything like what you said in your statement. Shouldn’t you apologize to someone who has done something wrong?”

Tang Yue could only answer, “That employee is new and isn’t very familiar with how we do things. I’ll get him to apologize to you and won’t let him pass the probation period. It’s impossible for him to stay in Sheng Tang Entertainment.”

“The incident was caused by a provisional employee, right? I really admire Sheng Tang Entertainment. They actually handed the account of such a big entertainment company to a provisional employee. I wonder who will be so unlucky next time and have their reputation ruined by a provisional employee?” Su Bei’s words were filled with mockery, but her face was full of smiles. She was not in a rush at all. Instead, she was very relaxed.

Tang Yue could only admit that she had made a mistake. “I didn’t supervise things well, and I also failed in my duties. I’ll reorganize everything in the company later.”

However, the employees present already had some opinions about her. Anyone with a discerning eye would realize that a provisional employee could not have gained access to the company’s social media account. Tang Yue must have done this!

If Tang Yue even treated her biological sister and the most famous artist in Sheng Tang Entertainment like this, would the others be able to enjoy better treatment?

Everyone had to consider their own futures.

With this comparison, everyone's thoughts involuntarily turned to Tang Xinru. Tang Xinru did not boast, but she was always able to do things well and rarely caused trouble.

Everyone in the workplace had to support their family. Who would be willing to risk their position?!

This was also the reason why Su Bei came to the high-level meeting. If these people did not know what Tang Yue had done, Tang Yue would never have been taught a lesson!

Only by gradually handing Sheng Tang Entertainment over to Tang Xinru would it be prosperous.

Su Bei looked at Tang Yue with a smile and said, "It's good that you're willing to admit your mistake, President Tang. I hope that the company can continue to prosper in the future."

Chapter 977: What Do You Mean By This?

Tang Yue also understood why Su Bei came over. She knew all too well how serious the impact of Su Bei sowing discord would be on her reputation and reputation in the company.

Hence, she had to be very humble. "People inevitably make mistakes. It was indeed my mistake this time. I apologize, Su Bei."

"I'm sorry, but I won't accept your apology," Su Bei said with a smile.

"You!" Tang Yue had already given her a way out, yet she still refused to give in. This made Tang Yue very angry.

"Unless you tell me how the company's surveillance footage was released to outsiders? Could it be that it was done by a provisional employee again? If that's the case, our company's provisional employee is really bold. The management of the company is also 'great'." From the beginning to the end, Su Bei had a slight sneer on her face, but she still smiled sweetly, making it impossible for others to dislike her.

This question made everyone remember that the video about Su Bei and Du Luo was taken from the company's surveillance camera. It was leaked from the company.

It did not look like an accident. Instead, it looked like a trap.

Everyone did not dare to say anything, but they knew very well that Tang Yue's methods of suppressing her family were really despicable. That urgent statement seemed unprofessional, and the company did not do anything to protect the reputation of their celebrities either.

Tang Yue looked displeased but remained calm. "I'll get someone to investigate. I'll definitely seek justice for you."

"Thank you, President Tang. President Tang, I trust that you'll definitely be able to manage your subordinates well and give me an explanation. Thank you. I'll wait for the explanation, then." Su Bei thanked her sincerely.

/

Tang Yue was so infuriated, but she could only remain silent.

Su Bei continued to smile and say, "Actually, this matter has left a serious impact on my reputation. I really can't accept a mere apology."

"What do you want me to do to make you accept it?"

"I won't be acting in this current production anymore! President Tang, this is my farewell."

Tang Yue was instantly a little annoyed. "Su Bei, even if you're a member of the Tang family, you can't ignore the contract! If you stop acting, you'll have to pay the penalty for the breach of contract! You can't implicate another matter just because of one thing. Everyone is here, and I won't allow such a thing to happen!"

Moreover, there was another reason that she did not say it out loud. Su Bei's popularity was high. Even though her exposure was low now, with a little hype, she would regain her popularity.

How could Su Huixian shoulder the responsibility alone?

Moreover, even if Tang Yue did not admit it, she had to admit that Su Bei was indeed more beautiful than Su Huixian. If the most good-looking and popular actress in a movie was not acting in it anymore, what would happen to her investment?

Su Bei looked relaxed and happy as she smiled and said, "I don't think I need to compensate for the breach of contract, right? President Tang, you can take a look at my contract. I haven't signed it up until now."

Tang Yue immediately looked at her assistant.

Her assistant had already found Su Bei's contract and found that it was indeed not signed.

Previously, no one cared much about it. Moreover, Su Bei had already joined the team, so Tang Yue did not ask too much.

It was not easy for others to ask about it. After all, Su Bei was from the Tang family and someone Old Master Tang doted on very much.

Of course, it was also thanks to Tang Xinru. She had been helping Su Bei delay the contract matters and did not let her sign it.

"What do you mean by this?" Tang Yue then realized that Su Bei had never signed a contract for this movie at all.

Chapter 978: The Price Of Being Wrong

Su Bei looked at her with a smile and said calmly, "Filming a movie is very difficult. No one is willing to let their hard work go to waste. I read the script seriously and prepared for my scenes. However, President Tang, you got Su Huixian to act as the female lead. Can she handle it? I don't believe in her capability. That's why I've been wary of this movie from the beginning. President Tang, this is what you taught me."

Although everyone else felt that it was wrong for Su Bei to keep delaying the signing, they could also tell that Tang Yue was suppressing Su Bei.

Also, many people had indeed given their opinions about Su Huixian being the female lead. It was Tang Yue who suppressed these opinions and insisted on signing Su Huixian.

Hence, everyone was indeed dissatisfied with this movie.

It was reasonable for Su Bei to do this. Who would want to work with a woman who had bullied her and snatched her ex-boyfriend? Coupled with the video incident, wouldn't Su Bei be the only one taken advantage of?

"Alright, President Tang. The matter is settled. Goodbye." Su Bei's smile was exceptionally bright. She put down the blank contract and turned to leave.

She did not take Tang Yue seriously at all.

She even exposed Tang Yue's despicable behavior to the higher-ups.

These seeds of doubt about Tang Yue's character and ability would sooner or later take root in the hearts of the higher-ups and grow into a towering tree.

Tang Yue looked angrily in the direction where Su Bei had left. She turned to look at Tang Xinru. Tang Xinru knew all of this, yet she allowed it to happen and even helped Su Bei do it!

Tang Xinru raised her eyes and looked at Tang Yue. "Since the matter has been made clear, let's continue the meeting!"

Old Master Tang heard about it.

He nodded at his assistant and said, "Sheng Tang Entertainment indeed can't be managed by two people. One mountain can't accommodate two tigers. Sooner or later, the winner will be decided. However, as their grandfather, I can't be too biased toward anyone and can't make a decision. Now, it's good that Su Bei is the one who'll decide who's better."

The assistant was Old Master Tang's trusted aide and had been by his side for a long time. He naturally understood what he meant. He said, "There are indeed more people in the higher-ups who support President Tang Xinru now. Their trust toward President Tang Yue is gradually diminishing."

Old Master Tang thought of what she had done to Su Bei and snorted. "This is the price for doing something wrong!"

The assistant remained silent. Even if Old Master Tang did not say anything, justice would be served.

On the internet.

The audio recording of Su Bei and Du Luo's video had already been posted by a few bloggers Yue Ze had contacted. Captions were also added before it was posted to the public.

The content of this audio recording matched the muted video that was released previously. It was a perfect fit, so no one could doubt it.

Some netizens heard the recording and gradually understood that Su Bei was wronged. The video was just a way to deliberately slander Su Bei.

[I told you that Su Bei wouldn't do such a thing! She's so good. How could she do something that everyone despises?]

[Let me ask you, anti-fans. Does your face hurt after being slapped by this clarification? Where's your ability to slander others? Where's your dignity? If you're really so shameless, I dare you to slander Su Bei again!"]

Chapter 979: Let's Go Back To Being Strangers

['Since we're already broken up, let's just go back to being strangers.' Su Bei's words are powerful and resonant! Where are those rumormongers? Are you pretending to be dead now and pretending that you never existed?]

[The words that Su Bei said after that really made me tear up. I'm that girl who tries her best to dress up well. I clearly worked overtime until midnight every day and didn't rest throughout the year just to earn a good life for myself, but people think I relied on selling my body to get to where I am today just because I look good! Su Bei's words are really reasonable. I really want the entire world to know that we don't rely on others but ourselves!]

Some girls who did not like Su Bei before this were also full of goodwill toward her now because of her words.

How could it be that all women were never able to move on from their ex-boyfriends, especially if they had hurt them so badly? Was every woman a pet man could summon and order around as they pleased? With just a man's word, a woman had to do whatever was requested of her?

As for the women in the workplace, they could empathize with Su Bei. So, she would fall into dire straits after leaving a scumbag? She had to rely on others to be glamorous? Where did the person who said such things have the confidence to say these?

In an instant, the hashtags #SuBeiVoicesOut#, #GoBackToStrangersAfterBreakingUp#, and other hashtags were all trending.

It was because these were not only relevant to Su Bei. Many women in the world had also gone through this painful experience.

Just like this, Su Bei would completely clear her name from this terrible scandal.

As for Sheng Tang Entertainment, they were the first to come out and confirm Su Bei's scandal. Now, they were also being hounded by Su Bei's fans.

There were also fans who spontaneously wrote a long article titled 'Ten Questions for Sheng Tang Entertainment.' They asked Sheng Tang Entertainment what their intentions were in making those arrangements for Su Bei.

The fans could all see Su Bei's efforts, but they could also tell that Sheng Tang Entertainment was suppressing Su Bei. They wanted to know what role Sheng Tang Entertainment was playing.

Su Bei knew that it was all Tang Yue's fault and had nothing to do with Tang Xinru.

Hence, later on, she joined the fan club and greeted everyone.

[Really? I'm not dreaming, right?]

[Su Bei, you've suffered. Everyone will definitely support you!]

The fans in this group were all hardcore fans who had been around for a long time. The fan club had been maintained by Lv Shan since back then.

Although Lv Shan was not working with Su Bei now, she had been protecting Su Bei's reputation and interests as a fan.

[Sheng Tang Entertainment itself did no wrong. Only a few people from the company are in the wrong here. However, don't worry. I have plans for my future] Su Bei sent this simple message.

The fans all expressed their understanding, and Su Bei chatted with them a little more.

Everyone comforted her and even told her that no matter what she did or how she developed in the future, they would continue to support her!

Looking at the passionate words, Su Bei slightly curled her lips. She felt as though she had let go of a boulder in her heart.

Tang Yue's matter was resolved, but not Su Huixian.

Su Bei knew that Tang Yue was not the only one who was responsible for the video. Su Huixian had also done her part.

Moreover, Su Huixian had always wanted to harm others. Su Bei had never thought of letting her off so easily.

Chapter 980: There'll Definitely Be A Fight

Hence, Su Bei had asked Lin Moli to help her keep an eye on Su Huixian during this period of time.

Lin Moli liked to act, but she did not have a fixed job. She was a freelance worker. She would film when she had to. She would also often publish articles in magazines, newspapers, and Weibo. She would take photos of delicious food and beautiful scenery.

Although she was not that good at taking photos, she was still quite talented. After receiving Su Bei's invitation, she quickly tracked Su Huixian's movements.

Moreover, now that Su Huixian's investment had failed and the Su family was in a terrible state, the Du family no longer provided her with a special chauffeur. She did not have money and could not always change cars, so it was not difficult for Lin Moli to want to follow her.

Although Su Huixian was always careful, she was quickly captured by Lin Moli.

Su Bei was just reading the news on the internet when Lin Moli sent her a message. [Su Bei, do you know what I just took? I took a photo of Su Huixian going to the OB-GYN department! And this time, she even found a very good specialist to treat her!]

[She's pregnant?] Su Bei asked.

[That's what I thought too, so I sneaked in to take a look. As expected, she's pregnant! I really didn't expect her to be pregnant at this critical juncture. She has already caused the Du family to go bankrupt, but she's pregnant now. The heavens are really kind to her. If they know she's pregnant, the Du family probably won't blame her too much, right?] Lin Moli said.

Su Bei felt that things might not be so simple.

When she was investigating the video incident, she had looked into the Du family as well. They did not seem to know about Su Huixian's pregnancy.

She said simply to Lin Moli: [Continue tracking her for me. I want to know what she's up to.]

She quickly asked Yue Ze for more information.

Yue Ze told her, "Su Huixian has signed on for a variety TV show. This variety show has a lot of activities, and she participates in between the filming for the movie. It's confirmed that she's in that variety show. However, you're not filming that movie anymore, so no matter what, it won't affect you."

"Yes, it won't affect me. I just want to know more information about her."

"Is there anything you need help with?" Yue Ze asked, feeling sad. After this matter, Su Bei would not continue to stay in Sheng Tang Entertainment. His business relationship with Su Bei would probably come to an end.

He was really quite regretful. Su Bei was a good talent. In time, her development in the film industry would definitely be like her development in the modeling industry. She would stand at the peak.

However, he would not be the manager who accompanied her to the peak.

"There's nothing else for now, Brother Yue. If there's anything, I'll call you again," Su Bei said with a smile. She also felt a little regretful.

Actually, everything was good with Tang Xinru and Yue Ze.

However, the Tang family had Tang Yue, so Su Bei could not stay.

After Su Bei put down the phone, she thought about it carefully. Su Huixian was already pregnant, but she was also participating in a variety show.

She definitely knew that she was pregnant. Lin Moli had even taken her pregnancy test results.

She did not tell the Du family about this but chose to take on a variety show that required a lot of energy?
