

Chapter 981: I'll Arrange It

The last time, Su Huixian had faked her pregnancy to mess with Su Bei.

Su Bei would not lower her guard this time and give her a chance.

Hence, Su Bei had to figure out what Su Huixian wanted to do.

Lin Moli quickly sent Su Bei another message.

[Su Bei, do you know that Su Huixian actually booked an appointment for an abortion?!] Lin Moli sent her a WeChat message in surprise. [Let me tell you, in order to find out about this, I climbed over a wall and my head is all swollen now.]

[It's been hard on you, Moli.]

[No, no, no. I'm not here to complain. I think it's strange too. Didn't you tell me before that she really wanted to get pregnant and marry into the Du family? Why would she undergo an abortion this time?]

Su Bei thought for a moment and replied: [Don't you know that the Du family is going bankrupt?]

Lin Moli instantly jumped up. [This woman is really too scary! She doesn't even want the child after the Du family goes bankrupt? What exactly is she thinking?]

[She can complain to the variety show that she lost her child because of the taxing activities. That way, she can give the Du family an explanation and gradually distance herself from the Du family. In the end, she can even pretend to be pitiful and tell everyone that the child was gone because of my 'rekindled relationship' with Du Luo. I was the one who caused her to miscarry...] Su Bei could already imagine Su Huixian's plan. Her video incident was also something Su Huixian could use.

Fortunately, the video did not affect her much.

Su Huixian wanted to push the blame on Su Bei for both her fake and real pregnancies?

A faint smile hung on Su Bei's lips. Did Su Huixian really think that things would be so easy?

When Lin Moli heard Su Bei say this, she immediately understood. This was Su Huixian's scheme. Wasn't this woman too vicious?

[Then what should I do? I'll get someone to expose her and announce her matter!] Lin Moli said impatiently!

[No need. I'll arrange it.] Su Bei already had plans in her heart.

Su Huixian had indeed booked an appointment for an abortion.

Only Qiu Minxuan and she knew about this.

The Du family had already gone bankrupt. The child in her stomach was a sinful debt. She could not keep it anymore.

It was impossible for her to suffer with Du Luo.

At the thought that Sun Jingping had always looked down on her and was unwilling to let her join their family, she found an excuse and reason for her actions.

She was not letting the Du family down. They were the ones who forced her to this point!

“Huixian, have you thought it through?” Qiu Minxuan asked worriedly.

“I’ve thought about it. Just wait outside,” Su Huixian said. “In the recording for the variety show tomorrow, I’ll say that my stomach isn’t feeling well and later reveal that I had miscarried. Then, I’ll tell the variety show producers that I had no idea I was pregnant.”

Qiu Minxuan nodded. “That way, they won’t be able to force you to continue filming. They’ll even give you compensation. You’ll have the money to rest in peace.”

That was Su Huixian’s plan. Qiu Minxuan said, “The insurance company will compensate you with another sum of money. Don’t worry, I’ve already bought insurance.”

Su Huixian continued nodding.

Qiu Minxuan said, “The Du family will have nothing to say then. I’ll spread the news that you were so angry when you found out about Su Bei and Du Luo’s meeting that you miscarried...”

Chapter 982: Arriving At The Hospital Together

Su Huixian continued nodding.

Su Bei had already cleared her name and used the audio recording to prove that there was no private relationship between her and Du Luo.

However, Su Huixian’s miscarriage would definitely cause the public to mock and suppress Su Bei.

The public would not pursue the truth. They would only believe the deliberate guidance of the person who released the news.

Sometimes, a sentence or two would make them believe in everything. They would even happily attack the target.

People had always believed in what they wanted to believe.

After Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan sorted out the matter, they entered the operating theater.

Qiu Minxuan waited outside. Su Huixian maximized the benefits of both her fake and real pregnancies.

Qiu Minxuan was doing this for her own benefit. After this, when she received the money, she would no longer want to continue following Su Huixian.

She had already had enough of such days. Throughout her time as Su Huixian’s manager, her ability in business had not improved much. Instead, she was fussing over the benefits and losses of such things every day. She really had enough.

Su Huixian's strategy was to come up with schemes against others to bring benefits to herself... Qiu Minxuan did not know how long it would take for her to be successful.

However, if this matter was exposed, it would be a huge blow to her career.

At this moment, three groups of people arrived at the hospital.

The first wave was naturally the production team of the variety show.

They received an anonymous message that Su Huixian had miscarried and was undergoing surgery in the hospital. She was probably unable to participate in the recording tomorrow, so they immediately arranged for people to visit her to express their concern. They also wanted to discuss Su Huixian's schedule moving forth.

The second group of people was from the insurance company.

As an artist, Su Huixian had naturally bought a lot of insurance. The insurance company placed a lot of importance on her safety and health. When they heard that she had a miscarriage, they naturally came to investigate the reason and confirm the compensation.

The third group of people was from the Du family.

Sun Jingping suddenly heard about Su Huixian's pregnancy and recalled her fake pregnancy. She did not know what Su Huixian was up to.

However, regardless of whether it was real or fake, that child still belonged to the Du family, right?

Sun Jingping had long wanted a grandchild. If Su Huixian was really pregnant, she would naturally come over to visit.

Although she did not like Su Huixian and Su Huixian had caused a mess in the Du family, this was different. As long as it involved her grandchild, Sun Jingping would not let her guard down.

If Su Huixian really gave birth to a son for the Du family, she would consider forgiving Su Huixian.

When the three groups of people arrived at the hospital, they saw Qiu Minxuan waiting outside.

Qiu Minxuan, who was wearing a mask, was shocked. She and Su Huixian had done this very secretly. They were very careful every time they came to the hospital. How did they attract these people?

Moreover, today's matter was a secret that could not be revealed!

Qiu Minxuan wanted to hide, but Sun Jingping was the first to recognize her. She stopped her. "Qiu Minxuan, where are you going?"

"You got the wrong person." Qiu Minxuan dodged.

However, Sun Jingping grabbed her. "Qiu Minxuan, where's Huixian? Where is she? Is the child healthy? How are the test results? How is Huixian's condition now?"

Qiu Minxuan was even more shocked. Why did Sun Jingping even know about the child?

Chapter 983: Without Any Personal Emotions

“I don’t know. I don’t know anything about a child.” Qiu Minxuan hurriedly denied it.

“Don’t hide it from me. I know everything.” Sun Jingping had received Su Huixian’s pregnancy test results earlier today. “Huixian did do something wrong, but if she’s really pregnant, our Du family won’t be unreasonable. As for the child, we naturally want it.”

Qiu Minxuan was even more alarmed. At that moment, Su Huixian had been pushed into the operating theater for quite a while. The surgery was definitely underway.

She could not contact Su Huixian now.

However, Sun Jingping was aggressive.

Previously, Qiu Minxuan had always wanted to take the money and leave Su Huixian. Hence, she did not think of anything to say to Sun Jingping in a situation like this. Now, she could only be evasive.

“What exactly is going on?” Sun Jingping also became suspicious. She looked up and saw that it was the operating theater in front of her. She was even more suspicious.

Qiu Minxuan had to say, “I don’t know what’s going on either. When Huixian comes out, she’ll explain everything to you.”

As for the people from the variety show’s production team and the insurance company, they were all standing at the side. They were not as agitated as Sun Jingping. They just waited quietly.

They were just doing business without any personal emotions.

Sun Jingping was so angry that she snatched the bag from Qiu Minxuan’s hands. She tossed it to the floor and picked up a few hospital reports.

She took a few looks and could tell that the child Su Huixian was carrying was very healthy!

However, after flipping through a few more pages, she realized that Su Huixian was currently undergoing an abortion!

She knew without thinking that Su Huixian did not want this child!

What was this woman thinking?

Sun Jingping threw the things down and said angrily, “How can you do this? How can you do this? Huh?”

Qiu Minxuan was speechless.

At this moment, the door to the operating theater opened and Su Huixian was pushed out.

The doctor told her that the surgery had gone smoothly, but the effects of the anesthesia had not completely dissipated. Her thoughts were still unclear, but she knew in her heart that she had achieved what she wanted.

The production team’s compensation, the insurance company’s compensation, and a justified explanation for the Du family. Most importantly, she could accuse Su Bei for this ‘miscarriage.’

She felt much more relaxed. It was a pity that she could not marry Du Luo anymore, but it was also worth celebrating that she could get rid of the Du family and not be held back by them.

In the future, she would work hard and look for someone else.

Halfway through her beautiful dream, Sun Jingping suddenly rushed over and slapped her.

Su Huixian woke up immediately. When she saw the person in front of her, her blood surged. Her face flushed red, and she was no longer as sleepy as before.

“Aunt...” There was fear in Su Huixian’s voice.

“You still have the cheek to call me that? Tell me, why did you abort this child? Is it because this child is not Du Luo’s, or is it because you don’t like the Du family’s current situation, so you don’t want to have the Du family’s child?” Sun Jingping cursed angrily!

Su Huixian really did not expect Sun Jingping to come. She stammered for a while before saying, “There’s something wrong with the child. It can’t be saved. I didn’t tell you because I was afraid that you would be worried...”

She was used to telling lies, so she could lie as soon as she wanted to. This also scared Sun Jingping a little.

However, after just a while, Sun Jingping reacted and raised the report in her hand.

Chapter 984: Completely Ruined

“Are you kidding me? The report clearly says that the child was healthy!” Sun Jingping threw the report at Su Huixian’s face.

The doctor and nurses wanted to persuade Sun Jingping to leave. “Don’t make too much noise. It’ll affect the patient’s rest.”

Sun Jingping was angry. “My grandchild is gone. You’re asking me not to make a scene? I just want to ask her what she’s thinking.”

As she spoke, she started crying. Her heart ached for her grandchild who could’ve been brought into this world.

The doctors and nurses did not say anything else.

Su Huixian closed her eyes and did not say anything else.

The nurse finally pulled Sun Jingping aside.

Su Huixian was extremely vexed. She really did not expect Sun Jingping to know about her pregnancy.

Fortunately, others did not know. She could still hide it from them. She had to get Qiu Minxuan to calm Sun Jingping down first.

Before she could think about it, a calm voice sounded above her head. “Miss Su Huixian, hello. I’m here to visit you on behalf of the variety show.”

Su Huixian was shocked. She planned on collapsing during the recording tomorrow and faking having a miscarriage in exchange for sympathy and compensation.

Why were they here so soon?

“You’re not feeling well, so I hope you can rest more. The production team is very reasonable. We won’t rush you to come for the recording. We’ll temporarily get someone to replace you,” the other party said sincerely. “You don’t have to worry about this.”

Her words were polite, but the implication was clear. Su Huixian did not need to go for the recordings anymore. They would find someone else to replace her.

The strategy she came up with to be compensated was all for naught.

She would even need to compensate for the breach of contract.

As expected, the other party said, “Miss Su, you don’t have to worry too much about the rest of the matter. We’ll talk to your manager in detail. Due to your health, we’ll consider giving in when dealing with the breach of contract.”

What else could Su Huixian say?

She could not say anything!

Her plan had been completely ruined.

After the person left, the people from the insurance company came to her side. They said, “Miss Su, we’re employees of the insurance company. We were originally worried that you had encountered an accident, so we came to visit in advance. However, from the looks of it, this matter was of your choice.

“Since it’s your private matter, it’s not appropriate for us to talk too much. We’ll be leaving first, Miss Su.”

The other party left soon after.

Su Huixian widened her empty eyes and stared at the ceiling.

How could this be? She had arranged everything well. How did it become like this?

Just as her mind was blank, Du Luo and Sun Jingping came over.

Sun Jingping called Du Luo and told him about the matter. Only then did Du Luo rush to the hospital.

When he saw Su Huixian, he was shocked. He did not understand why she would abort their child.

“Su Huixian!” Du Luo gritted his teeth and shouted her name.

Su Huixian turned her head to look at him. At that moment, her heart was like ashes. All her plans were ruined. Everyone knew that she had aborted the healthy child in her stomach.

The thought of pushing the matter to Su Bei was completely destroyed.

Disbelief and disappointment were written in Du Luo’s eyes. “Why did you do this?”

“Why did I do this? You heard the audio recording Su Bei released, right? You asked your ex-girlfriend to get back together with you, yet you’re now asking me why I did this?”

Chapter 985: I Had No Choice

Du Luo lowered his head.

He did have lingering feelings for Su Bei, especially when he saw her increasingly beautiful face. It formed a sharp contrast with Su Huixian.

Su Huixian was no longer as gentle and considerate as before. She had become unreasonable and difficult to deal with.

He asked softly, “Were you planning to break up with me by aborting the child?”

“Yes, you forced me. You have Su Bei in your heart, so I had no choice.” Su Huixian did not tell the truth.

She did not dare to tell the truth. She did not dare to say that she despised the poor and loved the rich. Hence, even if they broke up, she had to occupy the moral high ground.

Du Luo gritted his teeth and said, “Alright. In that case, let’s end our engagement here.”

He was already disappointed that Su Huixian had aborted the child.

She faked her pregnancy the last time and this time, it was a real pregnancy. Even so, she took the initiative to abort it. He felt that he had endured enough.

“That’s all we can do,” said Su Huixian.

Finally, one thing was settled. She closed her eyes.

When Sun Jingping saw that her son had broken up with Su Huixian and her grandson was gone, she thought of how Su Huixian was not her ideal daughter-in-law. She happened to be at peace, so she pulled Du Luo along and left.

Su Huixian watched them leave without any reluctance.

She would have a new lease on life and could marry a rich man. She might have a good life in the future. She would not cling to Du Luo.

However, how did this happen? How did others know about her secret?

She had no idea that her every move was being monitored by Su Bei. Her schemes would never succeed.

Hence, she could not figure out why. She looked at Qiu Minxuan and asked, “Minxuan, was it you?”

“What? It’s not me! I don’t know anything. I didn’t do anything.” Qiu Minxuan hurriedly shook her head.

“But if it isn’t you, how else did they find out?” Su Huixian’s only suspect was her.

“I really didn’t do it. Huixian, believe me. Although I did have the thought of leaving after this, I really didn’t betray you...”

However, Su Huixian was certain that it was her. "It can't be anyone else except you! It's impossible for there to be someone else! You even thought of leaving? Haha, I really didn't expect you to betray me! Get lost!"

Qiu Minxuan had already endured enough. Seeing that Su Huixian was accusing her for no reason, she couldn't take it anymore. She said, "Huixian, whether you believe me or not, I didn't do anything. Forget it. It won't do me any good to be by your side anyway. I'll be leaving now. You're on your own!"

With that, she turned and left.

Su Bei received the news and sighed softly.

From the looks of it, Su Huixian was indeed not a threat.

Those three parties were naturally informed by Su Bei. This time, she attacked first and blocked Su Huixian in the hospital.

She was still kind enough not to inform the paparazzi.

Otherwise, how could Su Huixian have a good life?

However, after this incident with Su Huixian, how would other programs dare to hire her in the future? She would get pregnant at the drop of a hat and have problems with her schedule.

As for Su Huixian wanting to slander her? Su Bei smiled. With her lying on the hospital bed and her manager leaving, how would she try to slander her?

What a joke.

After dealing with Tang Yue and Su Huixian, Su Bei felt relaxed.

Now, she could go to Di Xing Media Company without any distractions.

Chapter 986: I'm Not Bankrupt

Su Bei did not reveal where Su Huixian lived.

However, that did not mean that others would not reveal it.

Too many people knew about Su Huixian's matter this time, and it was not like Qiu Minxuan was helping her keep it a secret either. Soon, the reporters and paparazzi knew that Su Huixian had a miscarriage and was hospitalized.

She was unmarried, after all. Although she had a fiancé and had gotten pregnant before, it would naturally attract the attention of the public.

Hence, many paparazzi went to the hospital to wait for her news, which annoyed her.

The public's comments about her were also harsh. Pregnancy before marriage was not a glorious thing.

Su Huixian's Weibo followers decreased at a visible rate as well.

She had no choice but to be discharged and go back home.

However, Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin had lost everything. They did not have the mood to take care of Su Huixian and basically ignored her.

Qian Yu Entertainment, which was the company Su Huixian was in, had received investments from Du Luo. Hence, the company directly terminated their contract with Su Huixian.

Su Huixian knew that she had embezzled Qian Yu Entertainment's money to invest. Now that she lost the money, she naturally could not hope to stay in the company.

Still, Qian Yu Entertainment did not pursue the matter, and she did not find the entire thing to be a pity either. Anyway, she had to cut ties with Du Luo.

Just the failure of her parents' investment was enough to annoy her. She did not want Du Luo's matter to bother her even more.

She had to save the money she still had.

Fortunately, there was a small company that was willing to accept her and sign her.

"Huixian, come to the company and pack your things." The person in charge of Qian Yu Entertainment called her.

Su Huixian did not have a manager or assistant with her, so she could only pack her things herself.

She endured the discomfort in her body and drove to Qian Yu Entertainment.

In front of her, a flashy sports car drove over from afar and stopped in front of Su Huixian.

Thinking of how she had once sat in such a car and enjoyed endless glory, Su Huixian felt very sad.

However, it was better for her to be like this now than to go bankrupt with Du Luo. She comforted herself and slowly calmed down.

She got out of the car, but unexpectedly, a figure walked out of the luxury sports car in front of her.

The figure was so familiar that Su Huixian could not help but say in surprise, "Du Luo?"

It was Du Luo who got out of the car. He took off his sunglasses and said, "It's me."

"Aren't you going bankrupt? Didn't the Du family already apply for a bankruptcy settlement?" Su Huixian said in surprise.

The car that Du Luo was driving was worth tens of millions. It did not look like a car that a bankrupt person could drive.

Normal people could not afford such a car.

Du Luo said indifferently, "I almost went bankrupt, but fortunately, my mother had set aside some money that was meant to be for my wife. Hence, the capital chain hasn't been completely severed yet. The Du family can still be revived."

When Su Huixian heard that, she nearly fainted.

Her face was as pale as paper as she clutched her bag tightly. How could this be? Du Luo had clearly said that he was going to go bankrupt. The news also said that the Du family was about to collapse.

This blow was somewhat unbearable for Su Huixian.

Du Luo said coldly, "Why? Are you very unhappy that I'm not bankrupt?"

"That's not what I meant. Du Luo..." Su Huixian wanted to find a reason for what she had done. She wanted to reconcile.

Chapter 987: This Was Her End

Her mind was filled with words, but she could not say anything.

She felt too uncomfortable.

Why was this world playing such a big joke on her?

Du Luo said, "We've already canceled the engagement. Let's part ways peacefully."

"Du Luo..." How could Su Huixian be willing? However, what could she do now? She had personally aborted her child!

Du Luo stopped in his tracks and said, "Go pack your things."

"Du Luo, there was really something wrong with that child. I'm not lying to you. I've never thought of breaking off the engagement either!" Su Huixian immediately said.

Du Luo looked at her calmly. "Is that so? You might not know this, but Qiu Minxuan has already become my assistant. She told me all your intentions when you were pregnant. You should know best what you were thinking then."

When he heard what Qiu Minxuan said back then, he had already given up all hope on Su Huixian.

Indeed, a small bankruptcy incident could test a woman's heart.

Back then, she was so gentle, sensible, and generous. She spoke softly and gently beside him, making Su Bei look arrogant and rude. It made him quickly fall for her.

However, everything was just for his money.

This broke his pride as a man.

From the beginning to the end, only Su Bei had seriously liked him.

However, he did not cherish her.

Du Luo got into his luxury car and drove away.

As for Su Huixian, she was dizzy. With a plop, she fell to the ground.

This was her end.

She had caused it to end this way.

"You'll be joining Di Xing Media Company. Have you thought of coming to my office to take a look?" Lu Heting received a call from Su Bei and asked gently.

"Sure. I've never been there before." Su Bei immediately smiled and said, "Can I come?"

"Of course, Mrs. Lu." A smile appeared on Lu Heting's lips. "Give me a call when you're downstairs. I'll get someone to go down and pick you up. I'm having a conference call now."

Su Bei quickly arrived at Lu Group.

When she stood at the front desk, she remembered that when she first came here and planned to see Lu Heting, she heard that if she wanted to see him, her appointment would take place at least a month later.

Now that she had appeared again, everything was completely different.

She could enter the president's exclusive elevator. When she heard that Lu Heting was having a conference call, she did not want to trouble him. Hence, when she arrived, she did not inform Lu Heting at all and just entered the elevator.

She was wearing the clothes of a delivery man. She had tied her long hair and hid it in her hat. She was wearing a uniform, so no one recognized her.

However, when she saw her enter the president's exclusive elevator, the receptionist could not help but say anxiously, "Hey, wait..."

The receptionist did not pay much attention to her arrival just now. After all, not everyone could access the president's exclusive elevator.

She only panicked when she saw Su Bei enter the elevator.

She quickly called the security department.

When the security guards on the top floor heard this, they were shocked. How could someone be so bold as to barge into the top floor of Lu Group?

"Try and guess who this kid is." Security Guard A asked Security Guard B.

"He's so bold. He's probably going to cause trouble," Security Officer B said as he adjusted his hat.

"Don't let your guard down!"

Chapter 988: The Mindset Of A Guest

Security Guard A gulped. "Ever since we came to work on the top floor, we've been sitting here every day. We don't have to do anything at all. This time, we have to perform well. We have to let the president know that we're valuable too!"

Security Guard B nodded in agreement.

To be honest, nothing had ever happened on this top floor. Mr. Lu also had his own personal bodyguards. They had worked here for a year or two but had never encountered any trouble. It really seemed a waste to keep them here. They were just afraid that one day, the company would think that they were useless and fire them.

With such an opportunity today, of course, they had to perform well!

Two security guards immediately stood at the elevator doors. They were waiting for that brat to come up and take him down!

Su Bei hummed softly in the elevator. This was not her first time in Lu Group, but her mood was completely different from before.

This time, she was here to take a look at her husband's workplace. She did not have the mindset of a cautious guest like before.

She pushed the brim of her hat with her hand. It was mainly because she did not want to expose her identity, so she had to disguise herself.

The elevator stopped at the top floor with a ding, and the doors opened in front of her.

Su Bei saw two security guards standing in front of her. She lowered the brim of her hat. Were they here to pick her up?

"Hello!" Su Bei waved.

The two security guards were stunned. They thought that the person would be a vicious man. They had already prepared their weapons, but it turned out to be a weak youth?

Also, why was this brat's skin so fair underneath his hat?

What was with this polite greeting?

Forget it. The two security guards did not have time to think carefully and immediately attacked Su Bei.

Biff, bang, thud! The sounds of smashing echoed throughout the empty top floor.

The executives of the office on the top floor were all alarmed.

Lu Heting ended the call and heard the commotion outside.

"Lu Hang, what's going on?"

"Just now, the front desk reported that a tall and thin young man entered your private elevator, so the security guards went to take him down." Lu Hang quickly said, "Isn't that person just making a fool of themselves by entering your private elevator? I'll go to the technical department immediately to see if the elevator is broken."

When Lu Heting heard this, he suddenly stood up and walked out quickly. He was too anxious and even overturned a chair.

Seeing that he was so anxious, Lu Hang hurriedly followed. What happened?

Lu Heting had previously input Su Bei's facial recognition into the system, so she could take his private elevator.

However, the others did not know her.

Were the security guards already in the midst of capturing her?

He was thinking about it and looking anxious. His footsteps did not stop as he walked toward the noisy area.

Those security guards were all boorish. If they really captured Su Bei, who knew what would happen to her?!

He did not dare to delay any longer and walked forward. His face was already covered in a layer of coldness.

The fight here attracted the attention of the higher-ups.

However, there were not many higher-ups on the top floor. Besides, someone had already informed the security guards downstairs to come up and reinforce them.

“Quick, quick! We can’t take it anymore! Call for help!”

Seeing Lu Heting walk over, everyone was shocked. “Mr. Lu!”

Lu Heting did not have the luxury of time to respond to them. He walked over and pulled Su Bei, who was wearing the uniform of a delivery man, to his side. He reached out to hold her hand.

Others might not be able to recognize her, but Lu Heting only needed to glance to know.

Chapter 989: Does It Hurt?

As for the security guards on the floor, they were still rolling around. Clearly, they had been beaten up by Su Bei.

Lu Heting relaxed a little. Fortunately, Su Bei was fine.

When everyone saw Lu Heting coming over and pulling the delivery man back. They were shocked. “Mr. Lu, we don’t know what this person is doing. He broke in here without permission...”

They saw Mr. Lu, who had a cold expression on his face, lower his head. Then, there was a rare look of gentleness on his face as he waved at the delivery man. “Does it hurt?”

Everyone froze like statues. What was going on?

How could they not understand Mr. Lu’s gentle tone and affectionate actions?

The two security guards felt even more terrified. Initially, they were already shocked that they could not stop this delivery man. They were afraid that they would be fired.

Now, Mr. Lu actually knew this delivery man?

They covered the spots where they were beaten up. Should they be glad that they did not stop him?

“It’s okay, it doesn’t hurt.” Su Bei shook her head. “If I had known that there were security guards here, I wouldn’t have entered the elevator so casually. I would have waited for you to pick me up.”

Everyone was even more surprised. This person was not just someone Mr. Lu knew. From his tone, he sounded very close to Mr. Lu.

Wait, was this person a guy or a girl?

The person Mr. Lu would personally pick up... Even if no one dared to guess aloud, they roughly knew who it was.

Amazing, amazing!

The two security guards were at a loss for words. Had they offended someone close to Mr. Lu?

They looked miserable. Were they going to be fired?

Would they have to leave Lu Group the moment they had the chance to perform?

A tragedy!

It was a tragedy!

However, they did not dare to beg Mr. Lu.

With their identities, how were they qualified? Moreover, they could not even defeat a young man with such a petite body. They did not have the face to beg to stay.

"Let's go to my office." Lu Heting held Su Bei's hand and led her into the office.

Everyone was speechless.

Their minds were filled with various thoughts. Mr. Lu actually liked men? No wonder he had not dated a woman for so many years! It turned out Mr. Lu had found someone to be a surrogate mother!

They seemed to have discovered something incredible!

"Wait, there's still the two of them. I'll apologize. I'm sorry," Su Bei quickly said to the two security guards. She did not think too much just now. When they attacked, she attacked back in order to protect herself.

"It's okay, it's okay. We're sorry. We're sorry..." The two security guards kept waving their hands. How would they dare to accept Su Bei's apology?

Lu Hang also recognized that this was Su Bei. These two security guards were blind. Fortunately, Su Bei was fine. Otherwise, even he would not be able to get away today.

Su Bei smiled and said, "You were just doing your jobs. I was rude and rash."

"No, we were the ones who were! We were too rude!"

"Lu Hang, let the two of them..." Lu Heting said.

Lu Heting was usually cold and had an imposing aura. As soon as he spoke, the others automatically held their breaths and listened to him.

Hearing him speak, the two security guards complained in their hearts. They were really doomed. Even if they were fired, they could not complain. It was their fault for not having good judgment and being inferior to others.

Chapter 990: Your Identity As The Madam

“It’s a good thing that they’re serious about their jobs, but their ability is really worrying. Let the two of them go for training!” After Lu Heting finished speaking, the two security guards looked as if they had been pardoned. They were so excited that tears welled up in their eyes!

Lu Heting had already brought Su Bei into his office.

Su Bei wanted to apologize again. “I’m sorry. I didn’t expect there to be security guards on your floor...”

“This is your place too, Mrs. Lu. Have you forgotten your identity as the madam?” The man’s voice carried a hint of blame.

Su Bei smiled softly.

Lu Heting reached out to take off her clothes. She was wearing the uniform of a delivery man and looked a little irksome.

Moreover, it might have previously been worn by a delivery man.

“No, no, no. It’s new.” Su Bei quickly covered herself. “Don’t mess with it.”

Lu Heting chuckled. “It’s good that it’s new.”

He stopped moving. “Do you like my office?”

His office was decorated very simply. It was in black, white, and gray. Although it was of good taste and style, it was still a little too dull and monotonous.

Su Bei looked around. This office was really big. It was probably even bigger than her three-bedroom apartment, right?

However, other than the bookshelf, the desk, and the sofa, as well as the coffee table, there was not a single plant here.

There was only a computer, documents, and a photo album on his table.

There were many people in his office, so he did not put any photos of Su Bei and Da Bao.

“Not bad.” Su Bei looked around. It was an office. These things were enough.

However, Lu Heting knew that she liked warm colors, green plants, and flowers.

It seemed that they would have to redecorate the place.

Even though she might not be here for long.

“Customer, please sign the delivery order.” Su Bei took out a lunch box from her clothes.

Seeing her suddenly take out the lunch box, Lu Heting could not help but laugh softly. He reached out to take it. It was warm rice balls and fragrant chicken soup.

“You specially made it?”

“Why do you think I’m wearing the clothes of a delivery man? I wanted to knock on your door and ask you to sign for it. Fortunately, it didn’t spill. Eat it while it’s hot! I heard from Lu Hang that you often miss your meals when you’re busy. That won’t do! Have you forgotten what happened to me back then?”

Lu Heting thought of her misdiagnosis back then and choked. He said, “Let’s eat together, then.”

As the two of them were eating, Su Bei’s phone rang.

She glanced at it. It was an unknown number.

Afraid that it might have to do with work, she clicked it open and pressed the speaker button.

Du Luo’s voice came from the other hand. “Su Bei, it’s me.”

Su Bei quickly glanced at Lu Heting. Seeing that his expression was normal, she could not remain calm anymore. When had she reached the stage where she could talk to Du Luo on the phone anytime?

“What’s the matter?” Her tone was very stiff.

“Su Bei, I really want to see you. I realized that I was wrong. I was really wrong!” Du Luo’s voice was a little hoarse and crazy.

He was driving a sports car and speeding along the road.

Everything Su Huixian had done and the fact that she only loved his money had dealt him a huge blow.

He suddenly realized who was the most important person to him and who was worthy of cherishing.

He wanted to make it up to her and get back together.

He wanted to see Su Bei!
