

33. O ice Sex?

Nandini Pov:-

I took his lower lip in my mouth and kissed with hunger, need, and desire. He climbed in my lap and pressed me inside the chair I smiled against his lips while tugged his hair to get his face nearer to me.

He got up from my lap and smiled, that am still- in- love -with -you - even- if -you- ignored -me for- day's- smile.

I smirked at him " Stil angry? Oh, I love your punishments they make me sore " I winked.

" I wanted you to hate my punishments be scared of them and here you are ready saying you want them. I don't want to give them to you anymore " he said with a glint of playfulness in his eyes. That playfulness makes me feel so buoyant and excited.

"Should I punish you instead ?"I said with the same level of playfulness, I half expected him to say no but to my surprise, he kissed me so ly and said, " Yes punish me I was so rude to you do whatever you want ".

I widened my eyes and looked at him " Okay come near me " I said huskily. He moved his legs fast oh wonders of people with the good height I thought. I took a seat in his O ice Blaze Executive Chair was comfortable and enough for two people.

I pulled him closer by holding his blue tie and kissed him on his jawline, he leaned on his desk while I stood near the chair and gave half wet kisses on his jaw from le to right and then right on his chin his hands were wrapped around my waist.

I pushed his hands away " OH NO MANIK YOUR PUNISHMENT IS NOT TO TOUCH ME WHILE I MAKE LOVE TO YOU ", He frowned upon on my words but didn't tell a thing with his nod I understood that he agreed.

OH, this was so good and exciting.

I untied the knots and untied his tie slowly with each kiss around his neck he held the desk to resist touching me I knew it by looking at his white nail tips. I had plans to drive him mad really mad with love.

Was it love? To love a person even when they do mistakes.

I unbuttoned his first button and kissed his throat then unbuttoned his second button while planting small kisses on his chest.

Oh, these buttons were annoying so I tore his shirt and all buttons flew and fell on marble floor he smirked at me " Impatient baby".

" Yes, Very baby ".

" Stop doing this " he whispered with a lace of frustration and lust in his voice before leaving me in shock with his next choice of words.
