

Poem

---

This time wear that short dress
Just smile and go confess Wake up early and go for a run
Just watch those TV series rerun
Or wake up late and drink a bed coffee Eat that really cheap food
Be the way you want to be messy yet alive
Just be grateful for you survive Click ugly selfies and go for a self date Stop hating those who hate you and think about what you ate Smile in all moods and make your own day
Put all those negative, suicidal and ex lovers thoughts far away
Go to a holy place and beg for peace of mind Or just wait for the fate that the creator has designed Stop worrying about the ignored texts, misunderstandings and problems
Just go and check those old photo albums
Dance without music and dance like you don't care Dance with those legs naked and bare Love yourself like you loved others and wanted to be loved Be your own heart's beloved Just let yourself study and get rich
At times you can do magic by being a witch Fall in love with those sounds of nature that make you feel life in earth At times you just need to take up a challenge and show few people your worth.
