

Tales of Herding Gods Chapter 1226-1230

Chapter 1226 – Grand Arrival

Hu Mengdie's body swayed, and she finally fell to the ground.

"Son of Heaven Yin indeed has great abilities, even his disciples are so outstanding."

Qin Mu pulled back his sword with a grim expression. The reason why Hu Mengdie couldn't fight back in front of him wasn't because his cultivation was strong. In fact, Hu Mengdie's cultivation was still deeper than his.

He was able to kill Hu Mengdie because he had almost completely researched the paths, skills, and divine arts of Son of Heaven Yin's bloodline.

Furthermore, his attainments in the Dao of Reincarnation also caught up to Son of Heaven Yin. Even so, the lack of cultivation forced him to use dreams to attract Hu Mengdie, forcing her to use magic power to break the dream.

In the end, Hu Mengdie exhausted her cultivation and died under his sword.

'The Without Embroiling City that Hu Mengdie refined is also full of ideas. It's a pretty good treasure.'

.....

Qin Mu raised his hand, and Without Embroiling City flew up, transforming into another wooden stake. This wooden stake only had three hundred and sixty-five rings, so it should only be a branch on the Primordial Tree. To be refined to such an extent by Hu Mengdie was truly extraordinary.

Back then, Mother Earth had given Qin Mu a core of the Primordial Tree that had a length of fifty million rings. If he used a refinement method like Hu Mengdie, the power would be unimaginable!

"Just this point alone shows the power of the Primordial Tree. Celestial Venerable Xiao is unfathomable—"

He was even more wary of the abilities of the ten Celestial Venerables of the celestial heavens. Celestial Venerable Hao had risked his life to kill Mother Earth and Celestial Venerable Xiao to seize the Primordial Tree. These two people were probably top-notch existences among the ten Celestial Venerables!

Heavenly Lady Qiang's ability to retrieve the Grand Emperor's corporeal body was terrifying, but it was unknown if she could suppress them.

He walked forward. He had already comprehended the path of reincarnation. Even though it wasn't complete and the seventeenth celestial palace, the reincarnation celestial palace, wasn't completely constructed, it was still decided by his foundation.

His Dao of Reincarnation was even more complete than Son of Heaven Yin's. Son of Heaven Yin was able to cultivate the Reincarnation Celestial Palace because his talent were limited. He could only comprehend so much and hastily refined the celestial palace.

On the other hand, Qin Mu was striving for perfection, and his foundation was too good. If he wanted to refine it even more perfectly, it would be even harder to refine the Reincarnation Heavenly Palace.

"The main camp of the celestial heavens is almost here."

Qin Mu looked forward and saw the apparitions of god cities standing upright in the Great Void. Looking from the Great Void and Youdu, there was only gray, and he couldn't see any human figures. He could only see moving divine treasures of life and death.

The Life and Death Divine Treasure was the sixth great divine treasure of the human body. Anyone who opened it would be able to comprehend life and death and know how much lifespan they had left.

However, the opening of the Life and Death Divine Treasure to Youdu also resulted in a terrifying outcome. It could invade the Life and Death Divine Treasure of a person from Youdu and make them die mysteriously.

This was also why the celestial heavens was determined to get Youdu.

If they could control Youdu, no one in the world would be able to resist the celestial heavens!

The Great Void and Youdu were built by Qin Fengqing, and they also had a part of Youdu's characteristics. Thus, they could observe the Life and Death Divine Treasure of the gods, devils, and divine arts practitioners.

However, the Life and Death Divine Treasures of the great army of the celestial heavens were all sealed. Looking from the Great Void and Youdu, the runes were flickering, so they should have been set up by strong practitioners who were skilled in formations to guard against attacks from Youdu.

Other than that, the various killing formations in the god cities were overflowing with flames. Even in the Great Void and Youdu, they felt incomparably dangerous, making people shrink back at the sight of them.

'It's not easy for me to sneak into the city. I should walk closer and show myself. As Celestial Venerable Mu, Celestial Venerable Huo, Celestial Venerable Xu, and the rest won't kill me in front of the army.'

Qin Mu raised his feet and was about to walk forward when he suddenly saw cherry blossoms blooming in front of him. The grass grew and the orioles flew, and the entire world suddenly became alive, giving Youdu another color.

The cherry blossom forest was filled with song and dance, and the melody was melodious. There was also the sound of flowing water, and before Qin Mu could even see the scenery there, a clear pond appeared in front of his eyes. On the shore, there were numerous women playing the zither and singing.

In the pond, there were young women raising the pond water to reveal their fair arms, and their fingers were like white onions.

Qin Mu laughed and walked towards the cherry blossom forest.

He split the flowers and brushed the willows, entering this charming and gentle place.

After taking a few steps, he saw a few clothes hanging on the cherry blossom tree. They were as thin as cicada wings and as soft as silk.

Qin Mu stopped to take a look and continued forward. Suddenly, a shirt slid down from the tree and landed on his shoulder. Qin Mu took it off, and it was a white belly band.

He picked up the undergarment and sniffed it. There was a fragrance.

Qin Mu held the undergarment in his hand, and it curled up into a ball. It was so light that it seemed weightless.

He took another two steps forward, and the music became clearer. A few rows of houses with red tiles and white walls appeared in front of his eyes. There were also bamboo fences. They weren't tall and only reached his chest.

Inside the fence was a clear pond. Numerous women were frolicking by the pond. Some were running around barefoot and wearing wet shorts. Some were sitting by the pond playing the zither, some were hugging the pipa, some had flaming red lips, and they were holding grapes in their small mouths. They were pressing on the body of another white-clothed girl and feeding her grapes.

Meanwhile, the white clothes on the girl's body were already wet. She closed her eyes and took the grape from the mouth of the girl with red lips.

Qin Mu looked through the fence and saw that the pond was filled with red clothes. A woman slowly rose from the red clothes, revealing half of her body. She burst into laughter and said, "Why does the grand Celestial Venerable Mu only dare to look outside and not come in?"

The women beside the pool all turned their heads to look outside and said with a smile, "Celestial Venerable Mu is so famous, yet he's actually a lecher. He only dares to look and doesn't dare to enter."

Qin Mu laughed loudly. "Son of Heaven Yin really knows how to enjoy himself, to actually have so many beauties accompanying him. I think this ginkgo is probably going to come out of the fence."

Red clothes slowly rose from the pond like a blazing fire. The tip of the woman's foot tapped gently on the water surface, and her red dress coiled around her body. She landed on the throne beside the pond, and the other women rushed over, either lying on their sides or snuggling around her.

Qin Mu pushed open the fence and walked in. He visualized slightly, and the throne appeared on its own. He sat down beside the pool opposite the girls and said with a smile, "I'm not married yet, I wonder if Son of Heaven Yin can part with me?"

The woman in red raised her hand to cover her chest, but her clothes slid down her delicate legs, revealing a long and fair leg. She chuckled and said, "If Celestial Venerable Mu is interested in these vulgar women, feel free to choose. I wonder which one you like?"

Qin Mu raised his hand and pointed. The woman in red smiled and said, "I can't. I'm old and frail, and I'm the imperial concubine of the Netherworld Emperor. I can't enter the Celestial Venerable's eyes."

Qin Mu said with a smile, "Son of Qingqing's chant makes my heart flutter, but as the emperor's predecessor, I have remained silent until now. If Son of Heaven Yin doesn't give up, I can only get rid of him and take my wife by force."

The woman in red burst into laughter. Her jade-like fingers were like white onions, and she pointed over with a smile. "Celestial Venerable, you killed an important minister of the celestial heavens for a woman, so it's inevitable that you will be ruthlessly stabbed in the back. I don't want to be the person that makes Celestial Venerable carry the infamy."

She was separated from Qin Mu by a pond, but her jade finger came straight to the heart of Qin Mu's brows.

Qin Mu smiled and sat there without moving.

When the woman in red's fingertip was about to reach the eye in the heart of his brows, Qin Mu opened it.

The woman's slender fingers suddenly exploded and her flesh melted, leaving only a bone!

Imperial Concubine Yu Wu was shocked and furious. With a furious shout, she stood up, her red clothes like fire!

All around her, those dainty women also rose into the air and landed behind her. They were valiant, wielding all kinds of divine weapons with murderous intent as they stood upright in her celestial palace!

Qin Mu laughed loudly, and the throne beneath him crumbled into fine powder. "The three great things of a man—promotion, wealth, and a dead wife! It looks like Son of Heaven Yin is going to have a great celebration!"

Chapter 1227 – Yu Wufei

Imperial Concubine Yu pulled out her whip, and it transformed into a white dragon that swept towards Qin Mu. At the same time, the women in the celestial palace behind her also executed their divine weapons. In an instant, snow filled the sky, and the divine weapons in the snow had boundless power as they attacked from afar!

Boom—

Everything that Qin Mu stood on exploded. Yu Wufei's technique was peculiar. The reason why she brought these women along wasn't because she wanted to look good, but because her technique could merge the magic power of these women into one and increase her magic power!

She was originally on the Numinous Sky Realm. In addition, the cultivation of the women had already reached the Jade Capital Realm and Numinous Sky Realm, which allowed her magic power to close in on strong practitioners on Emperor's Throne!

Just now, she didn't execute her technique and took advantage of Qin Mu's young age. Furthermore, her cultivation realm wasn't high, so she planned to pierce Qin Mu with a finger and kill him. However, she didn't expect the vertical eye in the heart of Qin Mu's brows to explode her finger, leaving only her finger bone.

She was truly furious now and exploded with all her strength, not giving Qin Mu any chance to take advantage of her.

However, when this terrifying throbbing subsided, Yu Wufei looked around but didn't see Qin Mu.

"He escaped?"

Imperial Consort Yu Wufei suddenly shook the white dragon, and it coiled around her arm. She took a step forward and was about to see where Qin Mu had escaped to when a bright light shone down from the sky.

Yu Wufei suddenly raised her head and saw flames in the sky. That was the light from the third eye in the heart of Qin Mu's brows. When it shone down on her body, even she felt her soul wavering.

"Life and Death Book?"

Yu Wufei was astonished. The Life and Death Book was a treasure that Son of Heaven Yin had forged for the celestial heavens, and it was used to control the life and death of all living beings in the thousands of worlds. Anyone who was shone on by the Life and Death Book would have their name and image shown. If they were marked off, they could become immortal, and a brush could take their life!

However, the Life and Death Book was very hard to refine. Son of Heaven Yin had spent tens of thousands of years to only refine nine scrolls of the Life and Death Book, but Qin Mu didn't use the Life and Death Book to shine at them. Instead, he used his own eyes.

'His eyes are the Life and Death Book? Even Son of Heaven Yin didn't cultivate to this step. What exactly is the eye in the heart of his brows? Why is its power so strong?'

Yu Wufei hurriedly executed her technique to fight against the Life and Death Book, but she was still a step too late. In her celestial palace, two women of the Jade Capital Realm were lighted up by the light and their birth records were revoked. They died without a word!

Yu Wufei rose into the air, and the White Dragon Whip swept out. The long whip changed in mid-air, becoming bigger, longer, and thicker. The dragon roar was like rolling thunder as it rushed towards Qin Mu.

Qin Mu took the blow head on, but he didn't expect Yu Wufei's magic power to be so strong. The White Dragon Whip was also extraordinary. It was forged by a white dragon of the Numinous Sky Realm, and it had been refined by her for a long time. It changed according to her will, and when the whip came down, Qin Mu's palms were covered in blood from the white dragon's reverse scale.

This strike pulled Qin Mu down from the sky, and his body spun like a top, unable to stabilize.

Swoosh—

His legs stood on the ground, and the ground in a radius of a hundred miles suddenly warped. It was as if there was an invisible force that twisted all the rocks in the area into fried dough.

The twisted ground rose rapidly like a sharp awl piercing into the sky.

Qin Mu used this strange method to dissolve the spiral force coming from Yu Wufei's White Dragon Whip. He suddenly pointed at the heart of his brows, and the divine sword spun rapidly in front of him. The tip of the sword was like a drill.

“Opening Calamity Sword—”

The eye in the heart of Qin Mu's brows opened up, and Opening Calamity Sword flew towards Yu Wufei!

At the same time, a beam of divine light followed closely behind the sword!

Yu Wufei looked down from above, and the White Dragon Whip was several hundred miles long. It coiled around her body, appearing and disappearing unpredictably. The White Dragon Whip suddenly transformed into a spiral and didn't actively come into contact with Qin Mu's Opening Calamity Sword Light. Instead, it allowed the Opening Calamity Sword Light to enter the spiral.

When the Opening Calamity Sword reached the spiral of the White Dragon Whip, countless runes suddenly appeared on the scales of the white dragon and shone on the rapidly flowing sword light.

In the next instant, Opening Calamity Sword passed through the white dragon spirals and reached the heart of Yu Wufei's brows!

Yu Wufei raised her other palm and clamped down on the Opening Calamity Sword with her index and middle finger. She sneered, “The unbreakable Opening Calamity Sword was easily broken by me...”

Just as she said that, her charming face changed drastically. The beam of light that followed after Opening Calamity Sword instantly activated the power of the broken sword. Opening Calamity Sword light expanded again and stabbed into the heart of her brows!

Yu Wufei cried out in astonishment and hurriedly turned her head. The sword light sliced from the heart of her brows to her right temple and almost opened up her skull.

Yu Wufei was shocked and furious. The White Dragon Whip swept towards Qin Mu, and through the white dragon spirals, Yu Wufei could clearly see Qin Mu's every move.

The instant the White Dragon Whip swept towards Qin Mu, she saw him bowing towards her.

Yu Wufei felt a chill down her spine and knew that something was wrong.

This was Son of Heaven Yin's method!

Son of Heaven Yin hid a knife in his smile. When he bowed to others, he would usually worship the other party's soul to death. If the other party was careless, he would fall into the trap. If he bowed to him, his soul would split into pieces and die an unnatural death!

Qin Mu obviously had this ability as well.

Qin Mu kowtowed, and Yu Wufei instantly became muddle-headed. Her primordial spirit crackled, and an abnormally terrifying tearing force came from her three souls and seven spirits, almost tearing them apart!

Even though she could endure it, the goddess generals in her celestial palace might not be able to. After Qin Mu bowed to them, the three souls of five women of the Jade Capital Realm split open and their seven spirits shattered.

The other Numinous Sky Realm women guarded their primordial spirits, but their primordial spirits were also severely damaged.

Yu Wufei laughed from extreme anger and bowed through the white dragon spiral. A loud bang came from Qin Mu's body, and green smoke rose from his head like a pillar.

Yu Wufei was astonished. She had used Son of Heaven Yin's methods, yet she hadn't been able to worship Qin Mu to death. His incomparably strong primordial spirit had blocked this attack.

However, in the next moment, the spirals formed by the White Dragon Whip had already locked Qin Mu up tightly. He couldn't break free.

Yu Wufei sneered and took advantage of Qin Mu being locked up to kowtow to him over ten times.

"I don't believe you can block it every time!"

Boom boom boom—

Ten consecutive loud bangs rang out, and Qin Mu was worshiped by her until green smoke rose into the sky!

Even so, Imperial Concubine Yu Wu couldn't kill him.

Qin Mu struggled free from the White Dragon Whip, and Yu Wufei flew over to kill him. The White Dragon Whip lashed out, hit, shook, and even opened its mouth. Its dragon claws tore apart, and Qin Mu was unable to fly up. He could only step on the ground and retreat continuously. Sword lights crisscrossed and fought the White Dragon Whip with his sword.

One of them was in the air, and the other was on the ground. The White Dragon Whip was a hundred miles away, and it came and went like lightning. Qin Mu's sword light sliced through the void, leaving behind snow-white marks. In the center of the marks was a black line.

That was the mark left behind by his sword being too fast and slicing open the void.

In Imperial Concubine Yu Wu's celestial palace, even more attacks came crashing down. The various divine weapons of Mingdu were extremely peculiar. There was a memorial arch, a devil god's statue, a Soul Hooking Chain, a mountain of knives, and a sea of fire, all of which exhausted Qin Mu.

There was even a woman's divine weapon that was a red conch. The red conch flew up and hummed, erasing the souls of people and collecting their primordial spirits!

Qin Mu fought as he walked, and sword lights crisscrossed. He always managed to force the white dragon away at the most dangerous moments, but he had no time to defend against the divine weapons of the other women. He was beaten until his skin and flesh were split open.

In the Land of the Great Void, on the god city of the celestial heavens, numerous gods were patrolling the city walls to prevent sneak attacks.

On the other side, a god of the Heavenly Eye Race sat upright on the city tower. His eight arms were spread open, and on each of his eight palms grew a huge eyeball. It rolled around and surveyed the surroundings.

Suddenly, the expression of the god from the Heavenly Eye Race changed slightly, and he suddenly stood up. "There's a situation!"

Before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly saw a radius of a hundred miles in front of the divine city spinning and growing upwards frantically. In an instant, a spiral mountain range grew out from the ground!

Chapter 1228 – The Power Of The Domain

The celestial soldiers and generals on the city walls couldn't help being dumbstruck as they watched this scene.

The city gate guard immediately ordered a team of devil gods to leave the city to investigate.

Right at this moment, huge footprints appeared in front of the god city as though there was an invisible giant running. Not only that, but at the place where the giant was running, shocking cracks suddenly appeared in the sky that were dozens of miles long!

The devil god team was immediately torn apart, and they died mysteriously.

"Which demon dares to stir up trouble?" the city gate guard shouted sternly.

Boom!

The void trembled violently, and a mark in the shape of a dragon's head suddenly appeared. Following that, a huge palm print appeared, and it shook the divine city to the point that it could feel intense spatial fluctuations!

.....

Not only that, but the footprints seemed to be moving backward at a very fast speed, heading straight for the god city.

“What exactly are those footprints?”

The gods were terrified when they heard the gaze of the god from the Heavenly Eye Race piercing through the void and seeing Youdu. He shouted, “There are strong practitioners fighting in the Great Void and Youdu. Their battle power is extremely strong and can affect reality from Youdu! Everyone, be careful!”

Bang, bang, bang—

A series of spatial tremors came over. In front of the god city, fist imprints, knife marks, formation markings, and all kinds of markings appeared. He didn't know what was fighting in Youdu, but it actually had such a huge impact on reality!

Suddenly, Bai Yujing's voice came from the divine city. “Western Sect Army, listen up. Activate the protective formation. Kill anyone who barges in from Youdu!”

The soldiers received their orders and immediately activated the formation.

The protective formations of each god city were designed by the four great heavenly teachers, and their power was extraordinary. Even though they weren't the number one formation masters of the celestial heavens, their attainments in formations were also extraordinary.

If the enemies were truly strong practitioners that had come from Youdu, they would definitely fall into the formation they had designed and might even be killed in one go!

The gods and devils in the city let out sighs of relief. Bai Yujing climbed up the city tower and looked down from above. Her heart trembled slightly. ‘The strength of this person is no small matter! However, this should be the territory that Son of Heaven Yin is guarding. Why would someone enter his territory?’

Bai Yujing said solemnly, “Investigate the scenery of Youdu and report to me. I want to see which expert is fighting!”

The heavenly eyes of the army searched Youdu one after another.

Actually, there was no need to search. Qin Mu and Yu Wufei's battle scene was extremely grand and even affected reality, so it wasn't difficult to find them.

However, it was difficult to see their faces clearly.

The cultivation of these two people was strong, and they didn't want anyone to see their true faces. In addition, their speed was too fast, so even the Heavenly Eyes of the Western Sect couldn't see who they were.

Furthermore, there was something strange about Youdu's divine art. It was that one would forget their faces when they saw them.

Bai Yujing didn't receive any news from the heavenly eyes for a long time and was astonished. 'Could it be that pretty boy Son of Heaven Yin is trying to assassinate me again?'

At this moment, the land in front of the god city suddenly warped, and a boundless power came from the Great Void and Youdu. It changed the geography and caused the land to fly up. Yin and Yang qi spread out, and all kinds of strange power burst forth.

Next, countless stars appeared in the sky, and another Youdu appeared in the Great Void!

This power contained an extremely peculiar Great Dao aura that made Bai Yujing's heart skip a beat. "Domain! Someone is using their own Great Dao Domain!"

The Great Dao Domain was also known as the Dao Domain. The Grand Emperor's supreme consciousness realm and Founding Emperor's sword domain were both a kind of Dao Domain. To cultivate a Dao Domain, one needed a deep understanding and comprehension of the Dao, or even pioneering it.

In this world, there were very few people who had entered the path, but even fewer people had cultivated Dao Domain.

Bai Yujing had never seen Founding Emperor's sword realm, but she had heard that Founding Emperor had once attacked the celestial heavens with his sword and fought with Celestial Venerable Hao, almost splitting it apart!

On the other hand, one of the two people fighting in Youdu unleashed his Dao Domain. The Great Dao was boundless, and it gave people an extremely strange feeling. It was different from the sword realm, consciousness realm, and other famous domains.

This kind of Dao Domain contained a lot of Great Dao, making her heart tremble. She didn't know what kind of Dao Domain this person was.

She wanted to enter the Great Void and Youdu to take a look, but that was Son of Heaven Yin's territory. Even though Son of Heaven Yin was an official in the celestial heavens with her, they had a deep grudge, so she didn't dare to enter Son of Heaven Yin's territory easily.

In that Dao Domain, she could see a clear line. It should be another person stabbing his incomparably powerful magic power into the Dao Domain and charging straight at the expert in the center of the Dao Domain.

This person's cultivation was extremely strong. He had actually broken through the Dao Domain and even destroyed it.

Right at this moment, that Dao Domain suddenly became complete again, and it formed an encirclement around the person that had entered it!

“I’m afraid the other person won’t have much luck!”

Bai Yujing was intelligent and could see the situation. She thought to herself, ‘Is Son of Heaven Yin fighting with someone? He cultivated his Dao Domain? Impossible. Although this pretty boy’s abilities are high, his comprehension of the Great Dao isn’t that strong...’

Boom—

A crack suddenly appeared in that Dao Domain, and with a whoosh, the ground that was a thousand miles long was torn apart. Beautiful mountains and rivers rose from the two shores, and in the center was a deep canyon!

In the Great Void and Youdu, Yu Wufei barged into Qin Mu’s divine treasure realm and barged her way into the ancestral court. However, the next moment, all the power of the Great Dao in Qin Mu’s realm burst forth!

Yu Wufei instantly knew that something was wrong, and she executed her divine art to meet Qin Mu head-on.

Looking at the battle of divine arts from the Land of the Great Void, they could only see magnificent mountains and rivers that were thousands of miles long. However, what they saw here was abnormally terrifying.

Even though Yu Wufei was on the Numinous Sky Realm, facing an opponent that couldn’t be measured by conventional realms like Qin Mu, she still felt the great terror between life and death.

“However, my abilities are not limited to this!”

Just as Yu Wufei was about to mobilize all of her power, a vast consciousness rushed over. Even though Yu Wufei’s technique could mobilize the magic power of other gods, her consciousness couldn’t be compared to Heavenly Lord Han’s.

Han Tianjun could fuse with the consciousnesses of others and raise his own consciousness to the level that was comparable to Qin Mu’s, but Yu Wufei couldn’t.

Even though her cultivation was high, her understanding of Dao wasn’t high.

Meanwhile, Heavenly Lord Han was the number one in the celestial heavens’ formation path, and his comprehension of the Dao surpassed Yu Wufei by leaps and bounds.

The traditional system of divine treasures and celestial palaces focused on power and didn’t focus on comprehension of the path. As a result, the comprehension of the path of existences with higher cultivation realms might not be as good as those with lower cultivation realms.

Yu Wufei was muddle-headed from the impact of this Great Overarching Supreme Consciousness, and the magic power in her body went out of control. In the next moment, all of the power in Qin Mu's divine treasure realm burst forth. The power of the paths, skills, and skills of the 17 celestial palaces, Xuandu, Youdu, Yuandu, Heavenly Yin, and Four Extreme Heavens, accompanied Qin Mu's strike to strike Yu Wufei!

The moment he struck Yu Wufei, a bell suddenly rang.

Qin Mu's mind rumbled, and an indescribable force rushed over, causing his primordial spirit to fall into an endless stream.

"Dao of Reincarnation? This bell is very strong!"

Chapter 1229 – One Kill

Qin Mu executed the Reincarnation Celestial Palace, and the Dao of Reincarnation instantly freed him from the cycle of reincarnation, allowing him to recover.

On the other side, Yu Wufei tried her best to block this attack, but she still couldn't block it.

She was a great expert of the Numinous Sky Realm, and she had used all of her strength. However, Qin Mu had also used all of his strength in this strike. How terrifying was the power of the Dao in the realm of divine treasures?

Qin Mu rarely met an opponent that was on par with him. It was either the opponent's realm was much higher than his abilities were much weaker.

Yu Wufei's cultivation realm far surpassed Qin Mu's, and her magic power also surpassed his. However, because her comprehension of the Dao wasn't high, she cultivated the traditional system of divine treasures and celestial palaces. Even though she had the ability to kill Qin Mu, Qin Mu also had the ability to kill her.

However, Yu Wufei didn't know about Qin Mu's divine treasure realm and rushed in recklessly, losing the initiative.

Qin Mu's attack had mobilized all the power of the Great Dao in the divine treasure realm, and the first to hit Yu Wufei was the 49 Heavenly Daos.

The Heavenly Dao descended from the sky and transformed into forty-nine Heavenly Dao treasures!

The outline of the sky was like a battle and the heavenly secrets were like umbrellas. There were also the Heavenly Seals, Heavenly Fire, Heavenly Beggars, Heavenly Mysterious, Heavenly Sky, Heavenly Sky, Heavenly Sky, Heavenly Sun, Heavenly Yin. They were shaped like seals, crystals, fans, spoons, lids, cones, sundials, sun beads, and moon beads.

When these forty-nine Heavenly Dao treasures came crashing down, the celestial river connected, combining the power of the forty-nine Heavenly Dao into one. Its power was boundless!

Yu Wufei was fixed to the ground and was about to resist. However, the 36 Great Daos of the Primordial Realm overflowed and locked her legs. The Great Daos of Yuandu pierced through her skin like roots piercing through her body, firmly growing on the Primordial Realm's land.

Not only that, the 64 Great Daos of Youdu attacked and locked her primordial spirit, preventing it from escaping.

Not only that, but the Great Dao divine arts of the Four Extremities Heavens came roaring over from all directions.

Another Great Dao divine art from Heavenly Yin World invaded her primordial spirit, and with one strike, her three souls and seven spirits were almost shattered. Her soul was scattered, turning into black soul sand that spewed out from her eyes, ears, mouth, and nose.

This was not the most terrifying thing.

The power in Qin Mu's seventeen celestial palaces combined into one, and with the Overlord Body Three Elixir Technique, not only were there Great Overarching Supreme Consciousness divine arts, but also Qin Mu's reincarnation divine art and sword realm!

Meanwhile, the five great mines in the ancestral court were also trembling, and all of them had strange powers surging out.

Yu Wufei and the numerous female generals in her celestial palace revealed looks of despair. The divine arts, paths, and skills contained in Qin Mu's strike were things they had never seen or heard of before!

At that moment, they heard the bell ring.

The sound of the bell made Yu Wufei wild with joy and hope was born in her heart, "Chaojin has come to save me..."

She mobilized her cultivation with all her might, and the numerous female generals in the celestial palace revealed looks of astonishment. They could actually feel their power flowing away rapidly and being swallowed by Imperial Concubine Yu Wufei!

It was obvious that Imperial Concubine Yu Wu planned to swallow all of their power to protect her life and give herself a chance to survive, waiting for Son of Heaven Yin to save her.

They were all generals under Son of Heaven Yin and wanted to curse out loud, but they couldn't.

The power of the divine treasure realm burst forth and swallowed both them and Yu Wufei!

Terrifying tremors spread out in all directions, destroying the mountains and rivers along the way. These tremors even reached the celestial heavens' divine city in the Great Void. The great formation that protected the city moved in response, and incomparably majestic divine light rushed into the sky.

The sky was instantly filled with bright runes that were of all colors. All kinds of god language and devil language accompanied by loud and clear Dao voices reverberated endlessly!

Yu Wufei was severely injured by Qin Mu's attack and flew backward while bleeding. She crashed onto the ground and rolled a hundred miles away before finally stopping.

In her celestial palace, those female generals didn't have such good luck. Yu Wufei had taken away their cultivation, and as a result, they had died under the full-power strike of Qin Mu's divine art.

Yu Wufei finally stopped. She was covered in injuries and countless of her bones were broken. She wanted to struggle to get up, but she couldn't. At this moment, a pair of legs stopped in front of her.

"Chaojin..."

Yu Wufei raised her head full of hope, only to see the half-smile on Nine Yin's face.

Jiushang Yin looked into the distance and saw Qin Mu, who was still awe-inspiring a moment ago, lying on the ground. Even though he was still breathing, his eyes were lifeless.

This was the sign of falling into the endless cycle of reincarnation after being hit by the Reincarnation Bell.

The Reincarnation Bell might look like it was just the sound of a bell and didn't have the power to destroy heaven and earth, but the power of this bell was used on the soul. With the sound of the bell, the soul would fall into the cycle of reincarnation. In an instant, a hundred reincarnations would happen, and one might never be able to reincarnate!

Qin Mu's current symptoms clearly showed that his soul had already been reincarnated countless times and had long forgotten his previous abilities. He had become an idiot with only a body.

"I've disappointed Aunt."

Jiushang Yin lowered his head and chuckled. "Aunt, do you still remember how you seduced my father and threw my mother into the cold palace before secretly killing her?"

Yu Wufei felt a chill down her spine and struggled, "That was also your father's idea, it has nothing to do with me..."

Jiushang Yin grabbed the bell nose and smashed it down!

Bang—

A bell sound rang out, and Yu Wufei's body shattered into pieces, dying the wall of the bell red. Meanwhile, her primordial spirit was also shattered into fine powder. Even reincarnation couldn't do it.

Jiushang Yin picked up the bloody Reincarnation Bell and chuckled. "My father is charming and elegant. If you weren't beautiful, why would he fall in love with someone else? If you want to blame someone, don't blame my father. Blame yourself for being too beautiful. I won't blame my father, man..."

He lifted the Reincarnation Bell and walked towards Qin Mu, who was lying on the ground. He smiled and said, "I've waited for so long, and I've finally found the chance to make a contribution. Celestial Venerable Mu, my father wasn't wrong. You are indeed capable. I've been hiding nearby for so long, and I've finally found a chance to plot against you. Your luck has come to an end."

Clang—

He smacked the Reincarnation Bell with force and smashed it at Qin Mu again.

The bell rang, and Qin Mu's body trembled violently. His gaze became even more blank and lost.

Jiushang Yin inherited Son of Heaven Yin's caution and stood far away, striking the Reincarnation Bell with all his might. The bell rang again and vibrated several times.

Jiushang Yin finally felt at ease. He took a big step forward, and with a thought, he took out a divine knife. He rotated his palm gently, and the Reincarnation Bell transformed into a small bell that hung under his neck.

Jiushang Yin held a knife in one hand and lifted Qin Mu's neck with the other. Just as he was about to cut off Qin Mu's head to ask for credit, the vertical eye in the heart of Qin Mu's brows suddenly opened up, and he said with a smile, "Nephew, if it was your father, he would definitely chop me into pieces. Even then, he wouldn't be sure if I'm really dead. Nephew, you are still a little tender—"

Jiushang Yin's hair stood on end, but at that moment, a beam of light shot out from the vertical eye in the heart of Qin Mu's brows. It shot into the heart of Nine Yin's brows and out the back of his head.

That terrifying power exploded the head of Jiushang Yin and turned it into a bloody mist!

Chapter 1230 – Son Of Heaven Yin Attacks

Qin Mu laughed loudly and flicked his finger. A divine art from Heavenly Yin World entered Jiushang Yin's headless body.

Black soul sand instantly poured out from the neck of Nine Yin, and his soul was turned into black soul sand by Qin Mu's Heavenly Yin divine art.

Back then, when he learned the Life Transformation Mysterious Technique from Goddess of Heavenly Yin, he comprehended all kinds of sinister and vicious divine arts, which were very different from Goddess of Heavenly Yin's divine arts.

Now, it was just a small test.

Qin Mu stretched his hand out to grab the small bell hanging on the neck of Jiushang Yin. He had long sensed that there were still enemies hiding in the dark, so he didn't dare to attack with his full strength. If that enemy worked together with Yu Wufei, he would definitely be killed by them.

Now that Jiushang Yin wanted to take all the credit for himself and even killed Imperial Concubine Yu Wu, it gave him a chance.

Even if Jiushang Yin was the son of Son of Heaven Yin, even if he was a great expert of Numinous Sky Realm, even if he had a treasure like the Reincarnation Bell, he would definitely die in one strike at such a close distance!

He had seized this opportunity!

He had a chance of victory in a direct confrontation, but it was too small. After all, the Reincarnation Bell was extremely powerful, and he didn't know if it had any other abilities.

Jiushang Yin had executed the Reincarnation Bell to bombard his soul several times. He seemed to be calm in handling matters, but in reality, he trusted Son of Heaven Yin's divine weapon too much. If not for this Son of Heaven Yin's Dao formation treasure, he would have definitely smashed Qin Mu into pieces and crushed his soul and primordial spirit into pieces before coming forward.

As the son of Son of Heaven Yin and the crown prince of Mingdu, he naturally received the heart teachings of Son of Heaven Yin. No matter if it was in terms of cultivation, skills, or divine arts, he was much more outstanding than Hu Mengdie or Yu Wufei. In a head-on battle, Qin Mu's chances of winning weren't high. However, in a close-range sneak attack, Qin Mu had full confidence in taking his life!

Therefore, it could be said that Son of Heaven Yin's Reincarnation Bell had harmed his life.

The moment Qin Mu's finger was about to grab onto the Reincarnation Bell, the small bell suddenly floated up. The bell was only slightly bigger than his finger, but in the next instant, it had a radius of fifty to sixty yards. The mouth of the bell was facing Qin Mu.

Qin Mu's hair stood on end, and he hurriedly retreated. A loud bang rang out in his ears, and his clothes flew off in all directions like paper butterflies. Next, his skin exploded, and all the skin on his body was stripped off like paper butterflies!

Not only that, his muscles also turned into ashes in an instant, leaving only his bones!

"Son of Heaven Yin!"

Qin Mu's mind was blown, and only his bones were still crashing backward. Boom! His body left the Great Void and Youdu, appearing in front of the celestial heavens' pass.

The one controlling the Reincarnation Bell definitely wasn't Nine Yin. Even though Jiushang Yin was strong, they didn't have the power to crush Qin Mu in one strike.

This Reincarnation Bell was the treasure that Son of Heaven Yin had used to achieve his Dao. Son of Heaven Yin definitely wouldn't be at ease if Nine Yin came out to kill Qin Mu, so he would definitely split his attention to control the Reincarnation Bell.

He also didn't expect Qin Mu to break free from the devil voice of reincarnation, which resulted in his son being killed by Qin Mu in one strike.

If only his corporeal body had died, it would have been fine. Son of Heaven Yin's Mingdu Heavenly Gate could repair his corporeal body, and he wouldn't have controlled the Reincarnation Bell to kill Qin Mu.

However, Qin Mu was ruthless. He actually used the paths, skills, and divine arts of Heavenly Yin World to refine the souls of Nine Yin Supremacies into ashes. This truly angered him, and he didn't hesitate to do it himself!

Qin Mu's flesh and blood grew, and his corporeal body quickly recovered. Not only that, his clothes also recovered on their own.

However, just as he appeared in front of the divine city of the celestial heavens, he heard a world-shaking bell chime. The headless body of Nine Yin actually brought the Reincarnation Bell from the Great Void and Youdu to chase after him.

Qin Mu shouted, and his consciousness celestial palace leaped out from the back of his head. His supreme consciousness realm expanded, but in the next quarter of an hour, his consciousness realm turned into ashes. Even his consciousness celestial palace no longer existed!

“Divine Treasure Realm—”

Qin Mu's magic power burst forth, and his divine treasure realm bloomed with a hum. The headless Nine Yin raised the Reincarnation Bell with both hands, and the mouth of the bell faced Qin Mu.

Countless gorgeous runes appeared around the treasure of the Emperor's Throne. All kinds of Youdu, Heavenly Yin, and creation runes swirled furiously and evolved continuously!

A vast and boundless power emanated a fluctuation that made one's heart palpitate and despair. It revolved around the bell wall, and not only that, even more terrifying fluctuations overflowed from within the bell, causing space to tremble like butterfly markings.

Bang—

The bell rang, and the four poles of the divine treasure realm shattered. Xuandu was destroyed, Youdu disintegrated, the Primordial Tree was broken, the stars were extinguished, and the ancestral court was shattered like glass.

Qin Mu's celestial palaces broke into pieces and flew up. The primordial spirits in the celestial palaces were annihilated!

The power of this Emperor's Throne treasure was truly terrifying!

Qin Mu frantically mobilized his magic power and executed the unchanging divine art. However, in the next instant, the power of the Reincarnation Bell reached his body, and his clothes turned into ashes once again. His skin and flesh were all melted away!

Son of Heaven Yin had borrowed his son's corporeal body to execute this attack, and it was truly terrifying to the extreme. Even his bones flew up from the violent impact and were obliterated. The entire Spirit Embryo Divine Treasure realm was destroyed by Son of Heaven Yin's bell!

The bell rang for a long time before it died down. Not far away, countless gods and devils of the celestial heavens and soldiers of the Northern Sect Army had fallen from the city walls of the celestial heavens' divine city. Even though they had defensive formations, they were still severely injured from the tremors. They fell to the ground and vomited blood.

The waves raised by the bell also calmed down. Suddenly, there was a popping sound as an eyeball fell from the sky and rolled on the ground for a few rounds.

Suddenly, thin legs grew out of that eyeball, and it started to run.

"Not dead yet?"

Son of Heaven Yin's voice came from the bell, and his voice was filled with incomparable anger. Nine Yin's headless body flew up, and he raised the huge bell to head straight for the rapidly sprinting eyeball.

That eyeball bounced up and down at an extremely fast speed, growing taller as it ran. Soon, it grew a body, a head, and four limbs. The eyeball then appeared in the heart of that person's brows.

In this short moment, even Qin Mu's clothes returned to normal without any changes.

Jiushang Yin flew over and raised the huge bell. The mouth of the bell covered downwards, planning to cover Qin Mu within it to prevent him from escaping.

Suddenly, Qin Mu raised his brush and drew a door. He opened the door and entered, vanishing from under the bell.

The reincarnation bell vibrated, and the door shattered. The terrifying bell sound seemed to be spreading in the depths of space, and clanging sounds came from the depths of space, causing the space to continuously explode.

Jiushang Yin followed closely behind the bell, and a gate suddenly appeared on the city wall of the celestial heavens' divine city. Qin Mu pushed the gate open and rushed out. Behind him, a bell rang, and the city wall suddenly exploded, creating a huge hole!

Qin Mu raised his head and saw the mouth of the Reincarnation Bell. With a clang, he was sucked into the bell.

The arms of Jiushang Yin exerted force and pinned the huge bell to the ground. His headless body moved around the huge bell, and his arms flew as he smacked the wall of the bell repeatedly.

The Reincarnation Bell trembled, and a dull sound came from underground. The god city shook non-stop, and the celestial soldiers and generals in the city swayed from the tremors.

At this moment, Qin Mu had already reached the Great Void and Youdu. He went straight for the city wall that was collapsed by the Reincarnation Bell.
