

Tales of Herding Gods Chapter 1346-1350

Chapter 1346:

Earth count turned around to look at him as if he didn't understand what he meant. The two horns on his head were like a river of lava, burning with flames.

Qin Mu didn't panic in the slightest when faced with the gaze of this majestic being, he smiled. "Since we are allies, there shouldn't be some things that we shouldn't hide from our allies, right? The Heavenly Duke had his methods and jumped out of his shackles. "As the Master of Youdu and an existence on par with the Heavenly Duke, Earth count shouldn't have his own methods, right?"

Earth Count's primordial spirit was silent for a moment before asking, "You think I should have methods to protect myself?"

Qin Mu smiled. "It's not that I think, but you should. If you didn't, it would have surprised me."

Earth count was silent for a moment before saying, "I do."

Qin Mu's spirit trembled, and he looked at him with bright eyes, waiting for him to continue.

However, Earth count fell silent again and didn't continue.

Qin Mu's curiosity was aroused, so he probed, "What are Earth Count's methods?"

Earth count then continued, "I'm the same as Heavenly Duke, using methods that jump out of the restraints of Youdu's Great Dao."

Qin Mu waited for a moment, but Earth count didn't continue, he couldn't help becoming furious. "You... This god, why do you speak like a saw-mouth gourd? You can only pour out one seed at a time? Earth count, have you been with heavenly lord you for too long and become introverted?"

Earth count looked at him and said slowly, "You're really impatient. I get along very well with Saint King Ren, and we often sit together and drink tea and chat."

Qin Mu couldn't imagine that kind of situation.

The two saw-mouthed gourds were chatting together, and each of them was bobbing out word by word. How could they continue chatting?

“Follow me.”

Earth count’s primordial spirit walked into the palace, and Qin Mu’s curiosity was aroused again. He hurriedly followed him. In the palace, apothecary was still diagnosing heavenly venerate you. Heavenly venerate Yue saw them and immediately followed them. He whispered, “Heavenly venerate you’s injuries are very troublesome... Where are you guys going?”

Qin Mu whispered, and heavenly venerate Yue’s curiosity was piqued. “Earth Count’s divine arts are vast, so his methods must be incomparably astonishing.”

The two of them followed Earth count to the side of the magma pool in the palace. Earth count’s primordial spirit walked into the magma pool, and the two of them followed him in.

The magma wasn’t hot, and it didn’t look like magma. Instead, it looked like a strange liquid.

Qin Mu was bewildered. Earth count was a sacred being that was extremely unique. He didn’t have a corporeal body in the traditional sense. His body was made up of countless dead worlds and had no life force.

For people with corporeal bodies, it was very difficult to understand this kind of living body, yet earth count still existed.

In fact, it was the same for Heavenly Duke.

Heavenly Duke’s body was made up of countless suns and rays, so he didn’t have a corporeal body in the traditional sense.

Among the Dao Sheng ancient gods, these two were the most unique. The Other Dao Sheng ancient gods, such as consort Tian Yin and the Empress Sisters, all had corporeal bodies. Qin Mu had studied the corporeal bodies of consort Tian Yin and the Empress sisters very deeply and thoroughly.

They walked through the endless magma and came to earth count's body. The space suddenly became empty. Even though it was still endless darkness, they could see light everywhere. However, there were just too many of them.

Qin Mu opened the vertical eye in the heart of his brows and looked over. The scene he saw made him feel strange.

The light he saw was an endless amount of living beings surrounded by karmic fire. There were so many of them that they were countless more than the stars in the sky!

The places where the light was located were worlds. There were countless worlds. There were already many worlds in the Yuan world, but compared to the world he saw now, it was just a drop in the bucket.

What was even stranger was that the karmic fire of the living beings in these worlds was not stable. Wisps of karmic fire flew out from their bodies and flew into the darkness.

In the darkness, these flames of karma gathered together and formed a torrent of flames of karma.

The torrent of flames of karma was like a spider web that merged together in the darkness. It kept on merging until it came to the center of Earth Count's body.

The flames of karma were extremely dense there, and even Qin Mu's vision couldn't see through them!

The flames of karma there were shaped like a huge fireball, but also like a round egg made of flames of karma!

It was an egg of fire of karma that was nurturing life!

Heavenly venerate yue sized up the space in earth count's body and his gaze landed on the place where the fire of karma gathered. He couldn't help exclaiming in surprise.

Earth count asked, "Fellow Daoist Yue saw through it?"

Heavenly venerate Yue revealed a puzzled expression. "I did see some clues. You absorbed the fire of karma of all lives to nurture something. However, I saw no signs of life in that egg of fire of Karma!"

Qin Mu also looked over. His current eyesight couldn't see through the egg of karmic fire, so it was far inferior to heavenly venerate Yue's eyesight. However, he could still see something wrong.

Earth count had condensed all life's karmic fire, and all living beings had committed too many mistakes. The karmic fire burned the souls, and earth count took the mistakes of all living beings. He made the karmic fire not burn the souls of all living beings, but burn them in his own body.

This was the strange part. The earth count's body was Youdu, but at this moment, the Earth Count's true body was only left with an outer shell, and the inside was empty!

In other words, the earth count only had the outer layer of the continent as his skin, and the earth count's true body inside had disappeared without a trace. All that was left was this ball of Karmic Fire's Egg!

"I don't have a true body."

The earth count said, "I am using the karmic fire of all living things to forge a true body for me, in case I break away from the identity of an ancient god in the future and become an independent life form. The Great Dao of Youdu made me, but it also restricted me. Youdu gave me endless power and also restricted me here, preventing me from experiencing happiness, anger, sorrow, love, and hate. "I can't smell the fragrance, eat the delicious food, feel the touch, or feel the pain. I can't even feel the feelings of family, friendship, and love. "However..."

He was silent for a moment before saying, "I've felt it before."

Qin Mu's heart moved slightly, and he said in a low voice, "AH Chou."

"It's Ah Chou."

Earth count continued, "AH Chou has experienced things that I've never experienced before. He has his own emotions, emotions, love, hate, and hatred. Compared to him, I'm not even considered a life. I'm just a carrier of Youdu's Great Dao. It was Ah Chou who killed his way to heaven and not me. I envy him. I'm looking forward to a death."

Qin Mu and heavenly venerate Yue's hearts trembled as they looked at him in disbelief.

A hint of a smile appeared on Earth Count's stiff face. "You guys didn't hear wrongly. I Envy Ah Chou, looking forward to a death, looking forward to becoming Ah Chou. "This body forged by karma fire was prepared for AH Chou. I was waiting for Ah Chou's daughter to kill me, waiting for her to kill me and I would become Ah Chou. "At that time..."

His ugly face was filled with a gentle smile. "We are a family again. I'm a father, she's my daughter."

Heavenly venerate Yue fell silent.

Qin Mu couldn't help asking, "Will heavenly venerate Xu acknowledge you as a father? Earth count, you are using your life as a joke!"

Earth count lowered his head to look at him, and more and more human feelings appeared on his ugly and stiff face, he said, "Celestial Master Mu, you are not me, and you are not a father. You will never understand the throbbing in my heart when I became Ah Chou and when my daughter was born. Didn't you want to see my hidden methods? Look!"

He opened his palm and waved it gently.

Chapter 1347:

The ball of fire of Karma suddenly split apart. Its structure was like a cocoon, with layers upon layers of structure. Each layer of the cocoon of fire of Karma was branded with the runes of the Great Dao of Youdu, making it extremely beautiful.

The egg of fire of karma had a total of thirty-six layers of cocoons. The deeper one went, the more powerful the fire of Karma became.

When the last layer of the cocoon of fire of Karma was peeled open, Qin Mu and heavenly venerate Yue saw Earth Count Ah Chou.

Ah Chou was suppressed in Jade lock pass to endure the tempering of the endless karmic fire.

Ah Chou wasn't in the egg of karmic fire, but in Jade Lock Pass. However, the energy in the egg of karmic fire was flowing into his body without end!

Ah Chou had committed a heinous crime. His body was wrapped in the chains formed by the Great Dao of Youdu, but he had forcefully pulled Youdu to the heavenly court. He had massacred the heavenly court to avenge his family and fight for his daughter's life.

He had destroyed nearly half of the heavenly court and buried many ancient gods and demigods in his hands. He had even massacred the princes and grandchildren.

His crimes were heinous. Even if he was the reincarnation of the Earth count, he had to atone for his sins. He would forever perish in the seed of fire and endure the torment of the karmic fire.

Ah Chou was the earth count, but the earth count was not AH Chou. The Earth Count had to act fairly and could not play favorites, so the earth count suppressed Ah Chou.

However, earth count couldn't play favorites, so he still had his own selfish motives. He envied AH Chou and wanted to become him, so he used the flames of karma of all living things to create his true body.

"The sins of all living things shall be mine."

Earth count's expression was calm. "The day I die will be the day I jump out of the shackles."

Qin Mu frowned but didn't say anything.

Heavenly venerate moon frowned slightly and fell silent as well.

They were looking forward to Earth count becoming their ally and fighting side by side with them. The current tenth heavenly venerate was at his weakest.

Heavenly venerate vast had been heavily injured, heavenly venerate Xiao had been exiled, and supreme emperor was only left with a head. Even if concubine Gao Tian's injuries were healed, the threat wouldn't be great. Ancestral god King, Divine Emperor Langxuan, and Heavenly Concubine Yan were all injured, heavenly venerate fire and heavenly venerate void had yet to recover from their injuries.

Heavenly venerate Hong was the reincarnation of the Heavenly Duke, and heavenly venerate gong would most likely choose to remain neutral. The only one who could maintain her peak combat strength was madam Yuan Mu.

Now was the best time to attack the ten heavenly venerates. If Heavenly Duke Tu Bo raised his arm and called for help from heavenly venerate Yue, heavenly venerate Hong, and heavenly venerate you, as well as Eastern Emperor Azure Dragon, Western Emperor White Tiger, and northern Emperor Xuanwu's uprising., there were also founding Emperor Qin Ye and Lang Lang, the Divine King, who fought their way out of the great void. It could be said that the momentum of victory and defeat was leaning towards them.

However, Earth Count had the heart to seek death and wanted to get rid of his body of Great Dao.

This was something neither Qin Mu nor heavenly venerate Yue had expected.

"Earth count groomed Ah Chou, Heavenly Duke groomed heavenly venerate Hong. They should be tired of their bodies of Great Dao and want to borrow a great calamity to get rid of their current identity and obtain freedom."

Qin Mu and heavenly venerate Yue left Earth count's body while heavenly venerate Yue said to qin mu, "In other words, earth count and Heavenly Duke are actually allowing ten heavenly venerate to kill them."

Qin Mu nodded, "Now is indeed not the time to start a war,"he said softly. "If we start a war, Earth count and Heavenly Duke will be unable to leave Youdu and Xuan Du. They can only fight in their respective territories, and once they leave, their battle prowess will be greatly reduced. "Furthermore, even though our side has quite a lot of high-end battle prowess, the battle prowess of you, founding emperor, and Zang here is actually inferior to ten heavenly venerate."

Heavenly venerate Yue nodded in agreement.

She had been crippled for more than forty thousand years, heavenly venerate you had been in seclusion for a million years, and founding emperor had been hiding in carefree village for more than twenty thousand years. Even though she had never seen lang here before, her abilities shouldn't be that high.

Black Tortoise, White Tiger, and Green Dragon were all very strong in their respective territories, but once they left, their abilities would decline.

Not to mention Heavenly Duke of Earth count not wanting to fight, even if he did, the battle would be extremely difficult, and it was even possible that they would be completely wiped out!

Just heavenly venerate Xiao alone was enough to make heavenly venerate Yue, heavenly venerate you, and earth count unable to fight him even if they joined forces. If Qin Mu didn't use heavenly emperor absolute beginning's eggshell to deal with him, these three existences would probably suffer a great loss!

As for the three ancient gods and emperors, the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, and black tortoise, they were all trapped in their respective lairs and couldn't leave!

Founding Emperor and Lang Bao were also trapped in great void by heavenly venerate fire and heavenly venerate void.

"I realized that not many of our allies are actually on the same side as us."

Qin Mu's will was slightly depressed, "The reason why the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, and Black Tortoise are in an alliance with us is actually for their ancient god status and to regain their rule," he said in a low voice. "Heavenly Duke and Earth count are in an alliance with us in order to borrow our strength to protect their reincarnations so that they have the chance to jump out of the shackles of the Great Dao."

He said bitterly, "Lang zi is doing this for the future of the Creator. If we let her risk the danger of the creator being exterminated, or if the tenth heavenly venerate gives her a favorable condition, she will not hesitate to join the enemy. "Heavenly venerate Hong will not help us. The relationship between heavenly venerate gong and I is only an exchange of interests. When I am unable to give her benefits, she will stand on the side of the greater interests. There's even less need to mention Madam Yuan Mu. "What they want to pursue is different from what we want to pursue."

Heavenly venerate Yue stopped and smiled. "However, we already have the power to arm-wrestle with ten heavenly venerates, don't we?"

Qin Mu smiled and stopped as well. "That's right. Compared to eternal peace calamity back then, that deep sense of despair and helplessness is much better now."

The two of them took another step and walked out of Earth Count's palace, qin Mu said, "There aren't many ancient gods among our allies that we can count on. They can drag us down at any time, so we have to have our own strength!" "Yue, it's best for you and you to make a trip to eternal peace to learn the results of eternal peace's reform." "Even if we can't destroy the Divine Bridge, we can still have more divine arts."

Heavenly venerate Yue hesitated for a moment before nodding in agreement. "Now that there's no master in the origin world, the other heavenly venerates will definitely take advantage of the situation and enter. I'm afraid it will be very disadvantageous to eternal peace."

Qin Mu said indifferently, "Since we have the power to arm wrestle with tenth heavenly venerate, why not use it? Since there's no master in the origin world, it's time for us to show our power!"

Heavenly venerate Yue's heart trembled violently, and he probed, "What do you mean?"

"We have to use our power!"

Qin Mu was in high spirits and was in high spirits. "Heavenly Duke, Earth count, Black Tortoise, White Tiger, Azure Dragon, heavenly venerate you, and Yue'er, you will all go to the origin world and cut off the land to become a King!"

"We don't dare to completely fall out with tenth heavenly venerate, so does tenth heavenly venerate dare to completely fall out with us?"

He clenched his palm tightly, and his eyes lit up. "The era of the Dukes of the origin world contending for hegemony is about to come!"

In the Yuan world, even Xiao Tianquan from the Heavenly Court's Divine Investigator Camp, the Great Sun Star Lord's Golden Crow Army, and the Heavenly Eye Divine Clan's heavenly ear divine clan searched all over the Yuan world. They had almost turned the heavens upside down.

There was even Yin tianzi who heard about the changes in the Yuan world and rushed over from the great void under the orders of heavenly venerate hao. Many ghosts and gods appeared in the sky and flew across the sky with the life and death book in hand.

The Golden Light from the book of life and death shone and searched the entire world.

The various heavens in the origin world were greatly disturbed, but they did not dare to be angry or speak out. The Heavenly Court did not catch the thief, but they did plunder a lot of wealth.

The origin world was filled with undercurrents. There were rumors everywhere that the origin wood disappeared and the divine artifact, Heavenly Grandmaster Royal, disappeared because something bad happened to Heavenly Grandmaster Xiao. Now that the origin world was without an owner, the heavenly court sent so many saints to search for Heavenly Grandmaster Xiao's whereabouts.

There were also rumors that the celestial masters were eyeing the Yuan World covetously and wanted to take advantage of celestial master Xiao's disappearance to take a share.

Although it was a rumor, the truth was very high.

On this day, the western part of the Yuan world suddenly became extremely bright. Streaks of snow-white light descended from the sky like comets crashing into the ground, crashing into the Western Earth.

The palaces where the light fell grew rapidly under the light!

It was the divine metal growing on its own!

Chapter 1348:

Soon, many great halls of the Golden Iron God Palace appeared out of thin air!

In the sky, many goddesses of the White Tiger Celestial race descended from the sky along with the Golden Light, landing above the Golden Iron God City of the West Earth.

In the Yuan world, many ships were floating. Many heavenly soldiers and generals looked in the direction of the West Earth and sneered.

Dan Fenglai restrained the Golden Crow Army and looked at West Earth. He sneered, "West Emperor White Tiger wants to take advantage of the fact that the Yuan world has no master to interfere? She thinks too highly of herself!"

At this moment, the sky of West Earth became even brighter. A projection of an empress wearing a golden helmet descended and entered the Golden Iron Divine City!

When the projection of the Empress landed, the entire West Earth's metal clanged. Countless divine weapons of the gods resonated automatically and shook non-stop. It was as if they were about to fly out of their hands and worship the projection of the Empress!

The celestial beings of the Yuan world quickly suppressed their divine weapons. Dan Fenglai immediately flew up and prepared to inform the ancestor god King. Son of Heaven Yin also had thoughts of ordering someone to go to the Great Void to inform heavenly venerate Haotian, suddenly, the northern Earth's icy land was covered in dark clouds. Five bolts of lightning intersected with each other and countless bolts of lightning gathered within the five clouds.

Each cloud of lightning had a circumference of tens of thousands of miles. They whistled and revolved, and the lightning was extremely dense!

The lightning from the thunderclouds struck downwards. The lightning illuminated the darkness, and a monstrous river of water fell from the clouds. One after another, the gods of the Xuanwu race took advantage of the water and the lightning to descend from the sky.

These Xuanwu race people were good at building. One by one, great halls and divine palaces rose up from the ground, turning the place into a palace of ice and snow. Heaven and water surrounded it, and it was extremely spectacular.

Another projection of the Xuanwu two emperors descended from the sky, one turtle and one snake, suppressing the land.

Yin tianzi frowned deeply, he said in a low voice, "The projection of the Xuanwu two emperors descended on the Yuan World?" That was strange. These two old fellows were both sly old foxes, and they were pitifully cowardly. It was one thing for them to hide in the Arctic sky, but why were they so bold now? They even dared to step into the muddy waters of the Yuan World?"

Yin Tianzi's eyesight was much better than Dan Feng's. Dan Feng could not see through the secrets behind this, but Yin Tianzi immediately realized the crux of the matter.

"It's not that the two black tortoise monarchs have grown bolder, but someone is backing them up! Could it be that the heavenly Duke and Earth count are backing the four monarchs, causing them to have unrealistic fantasies?"

Just as Yin Tianzi thought of this, purple clouds suddenly filled the sky in the east. Divine Dragons flew and shuttled through the purple clouds. A large-scale Numinous Treasure Mountain descended from the sky and fell into the eastern sea, forming an island with a circumference of more than a thousand miles.

Following that, the projection of the Eastern Emperor Azure Dragon descended from the sky and sat on the Numinous Treasure Mountain. He closed his eyes and slept soundly.

Yin Tianzi's expression changed slightly as he looked towards the south. Only then did he remember that the southern Emperor Vermilion Bird was already dead. It was impossible for it to descend.

"Even though the three emperors appeared, their arms could not outrun their thighs..." he thought to himself.

Suddenly, the winds and clouds in the Sky stirred as the stars receded. Yin tianzi raised his head and revealed a shocked expression. He saw an endless amount of white light surging out from the heaven chart that enveloped the origin world. The light spread out like a white beard and became lower and lower, it grew larger and brighter!

Gradually, the light turned into the face of the Heavenly Duke and appeared in the sky!

More light surged over and turned into white clouds that stretched for tens of thousands of kilometers. Palaces formed on the clouds. The Heavenly Duke with white eyebrows, white beard, white hair, and white eyes descended from the heavenly map and landed in the Heavenly Palace above the sea of clouds. He settled down.

Yin Tianzi was dumbfounded, he was filled with fear. "The Heavenly Duke can't sit still anymore. These old fogeys are hanging themselves. They think they are dying too slowly! Even so, if this yuan world turns into the front line, it will definitely be us who suffer first in the Yuan world! Seeing that the situation is bad, we should escape. This is the way to save our lives..."

He waved his hand and opened the nether capital's heavenly gate. Just as he was about to escape, endless youdu demonic qi surged out from the ground below and dyed the center of the Yuan world, where the origin wood was, pitch black!

When Yin Tianzi opened the nether capital's Heavenly Gate, what he saw was not the Northern Heaven's nether capital, but the nether capital!

He stood in front of the nether capital's Heavenly Gate and saw the earth count. That incomparably majestic and imposing man stood within the nether capital. The divine melody was vast, and he was separating a part of his body and primordial spirit to descend into the Yuan world!

Yin tianzi lowered his head to look. That place had already become another little youdu. The Earth Count's avatar was spinning and rising slowly from the dark demonic qi. Two Ox horns pierced through the pitch-black demonic qi, like two curved yellow springs piercing through the sky, it pierced through the side of the Gate of Heaven of the nether capital and stood tall.

Yin tianzi saw that the lava in the two extremely thick horns flowed like a river around the two horns. The fear in his eyes turned into envy, but he immediately sobered up.

“The Earth Count Old Man is also here. He wants to die... he wants us to die first!”

Yin tianzi immediately put away the Heaven Gate of the nether capital and flew toward the nearest spiritual energy transfer bridge. Now that the Earth Count had cut off his way back to the nether capital, the best way was to return to the heaven from the spiritual energy transfer bridge.

While he was flying, he passed by the shadow left by the Heavenly Duke and suddenly saw a woman surrounded by divine light rising slowly from the Yin Sea.

“Empress Tian Yin!”

Yin tianzi shivered and hurriedly turned around. Empress Yin hated him to the bone. Now that this empress had mastered her divine ability and was an ancient god who had jumped out of the shackles of the Great Dao, her strength was astonishing. Yin tianzi really didn't want to meet her!

“Empress Yin has also run out. There must be a mastermind controlling the situation from the Shadows!”

Yin Tianzi flew quickly. At this moment, he saw the ruins of the Ten Thousand Mile Peach Forest. In the ruins, there was a graceful woman with two fingers holding a peach blossom. She bent down and inserted herself into the soil.

There was also a youth beside the woman. He was tall and had an extraordinary bearing. He bent down and blew at the peach blossom.

Immediately, countless tender buds of peach trees drilled out from the soil crazily. The tender buds spread in all directions like a plague. Soon, they covered the Ten Thousand Mile Ruins!

The young man used the creation divine ability and the peach trees grew rapidly. Soon, the peach trees grew and bloomed, bearing fruit!

The woman threw another guqin and it fell to the ground, turning into a palace.

The young man and the woman looked at each other and smiled, then walked in.

“Celestial Master Mu and Celestial Master Yue!”

Yin tianzi gasped, “It’s one thing for Celestial Master Yue to run away, but why did he dare to come back? And when did Celestial Master Mu Hook up with Celestial Master Yue?”

When he thought of this, he saw the tall youth walking out of the palace again. He held a divine bow in his hand and looked around. His gaze suddenly landed on Yin Tianzi, who was in the sky, and he immediately bent the bow.

Yin tianzi hurriedly ran away, but the tall youth couldn’t find any traces of him, so he could only keep the divine bow.

The woman walked out of the palace and asked, “Why did heavenly venerate mu draw the bow?”

“I think I saw Yin dynasty’s Hibiscus.”

The youth was Qin Mu and revealed a regretful expression. “It’s a pity that my eyesight hasn’t recovered to its peak state and I could barely see him before he ran away. He ran really fast!”

“If Yin Tianzi didn’t run fast, he would have been killed long ago,” heavenly venerate Yue said with a smile.

Qin Mu nodded in agreement and asked, “Heavenly venerate you still hasn’t sent his clone to descend?”

Heavenly venerate Yue said, “Don’t rush him, he’s very shy. After a period of time, he’ll secretly descend.”

The two of them returned to the palace, and qin mu said, “I wonder if founding emperor and Godly King Lang here will also have their clones descend. All we need now is them...”

As he was speaking, a sword light suddenly stabbed over from the void. That sword light was carefree sword, and it executed thirty-four sword moves in succession not far from the Peach Forest!

Qin Mu felt something and raised his head to look at the sword lights that illuminated the origin world. Founding Emperor didn't descend with his real body but had used carefree sword to descend into the origin world.

This carefree sword had carved thirty-four heavens in the sky not far away from the Peach Forest!

In the sword lights, the heavens appeared and were incomparably spectacular!

At that moment, the sky split open and creator after creator flew out. They came to the side of the thirty-four heavens left behind by founding emperor and the majestic creators visualized them.

The living beings of the origin world instantly saw the process of the creator creating the heavens. Countless people stared at the sword marks of carefree sword in the thirty-four heavens in a daze, and they slowly became reality!

At the same time, a vast and profound divine consciousness flew over from the void, accelerating the formation of the thirty-four heavens!

It was the divine consciousness of god King Lang!

'they came here through the Void Bridge!'

Qin Mu's heart stirred slightly as he looked at heavenly venerate Yue. The formation of the Void Bridge could be said to have a great relationship with heavenly venerate Yue. The three houses at the end of the bridge had come from heavenly venerate Yue's hands and connected to the dangerous lands in the universe.

The two of them looked around for a moment. Even though founding emperor and god King Lang Bao's cultivation was inferior to that of tenth heavenly venerate, the divine arts that could recreate the heavens were also something that tenth heavenly venerate couldn't reach.

It was enough to act as a deterrent.

Heavenly venerate Yue’s heart was surging with emotions. She hadn’t had such a feeling for a long time.

She had experienced two magnificent eras. The first era was the era of dragon and Han contending for hegemony. There were too many heroes and heroes in that era, and there were too many unforgettable people and deeds.

At that time, she assisted heavenly venerate Yun and built the Heavenly Court of the Heavenly Han dynasty with her own hands. She was full of ambition and did not even have any feelings for her children. She only had a goal that others thought was illusory and even laughable.

This goal was to let the human race live a better life. It was a simple and simple goal. She fought for hundreds of thousands of years until the day that heavenly venerate Yun died in battle.

After that, she became depressed and became a recluse.

Even during the wild and unrestrained era of Chi Ming, which lasted for hundreds of thousands of years, she never showed up. Instead, she lived alone in the memories of the past.

When the era of Chi Ming was destroyed, the human race suffered a blow that was close to destruction. She had to get out of the recluse state. People said that the hidden dragon should not be used, but her hidden dragon still came out of the abyss.

It was the same simple goal. In order to give the human race the right to survive and the right to pursue a better life.

On the way to save the human race, she met Ling Tianzun who had also come out.

Ling Tianzun had also gone into seclusion because of the death of Yun Tianzun. He went into hiding and disappeared. Faced with the great calamity of the human race, the two women actually made the same choice.

They looked at each other and smiled, opening up another new era, another great era that was equally magnificent.

The era of the upper emperor was established in the hands of these two women, becoming a glorious civilization that lasted for 300,000 years!

The era of the upper emperor became history because of Xiao Tianzun's betrayal, along with her disability and Ling Tianzun's assassination.

And now, there was a new era that made her rise to prominence. This era made her blood boil once again!

Who said that a daughter only had tenderness?

Her heroic spirit was intense, and the world-shaking achievements she had made were enough to shame countless men to death!

The two of them raised their heads to look, and suddenly, flames surged in the sky. Flames filled the sky above South Sea, and a woman in red descended from the flames. She sat in the lotus position, her red dress reaching the sky like the wings of a Vermillion Bird.

"The corporeal body of the southern Emperor!"

The corners of Qin Mu's eyes twitched violently. It was the corporeal body of the southern Emperor Vermilion Bird, which had descended into the sky above South Sea!

The southern Emperor Vermilion Bird had been killed by heavenly venerate fire. When Qin Mu had asked heavenly venerate fire in South Pole, heavenly venerate fire had already killed the southern emperor in her ancestral land. He had refined her dao and refined her corporeal body!

Now, heavenly venerate fire had released the corporeal body of the southern Emperor in order to intimidate him. It wasn't to intimidate ten heavenly venerates, but to intimidate heavenly venerate moon, Heavenly Duke, Earth count, and the other three emperors!

'heavenly venerate fire is indeed the person at the forefront when facing his own kind.'the light in Qin Mu's eyes dimmed.

Heavenly Venerate Fire released the corporeal body of southern Emperor Vermilion Bird to intimidate the origin world, and not long after, the intimidation of the ancestor god King followed. What the ancestor god King intimidated was the heavenly duke.

The weapon he used to intimidate the heavenly duke was a projection of a weapon. This weapon was not his Heavenly Dao Supreme Treasure. The Heavenly Dao Supreme Treasure had already been shattered. This time, the projection was of a sphere, an extremely complicated heavenly sphere.

Inside the heavenly sphere, the Heavenly Dao and the Great Dao of Youdu were actually perfectly fused.

When the Heavenly Duke avatar that lived on the cloud saw this, he praised, "The unfilial son is amazing. This is a treasure that can only be refined from the divine gold divine ore found in the ancestral court, right? Only the ancestral court's divine ore can perfectly fuse the Heavenly Dao and the Demonic Dao."

Following that, the intimidation of heavenly venerates such as Heavenly Concubine Yan, Heavenly Venerate Gong, Heavenly Concubine Qiang, heavenly venerate Xu, heavenly venerate Lang Xuan, and the other heavenly venerates descended. When the Heavenly Duke, Earth count, and the other ancient gods and Emperors saw these heavenly venerates' projections, their expressions changed slightly.

The projections of heavenly venerates such as Yan, Gong, Qiang, Xu, Lang, and Hong were almost all refined from the ancestral court's Divine Gold Divine Ore!

The minerals in the ancestral court contained wonderful energy. They could fuse the conflicting Great Dao into a weapon. Treasures that could not be refined by the ten heavenly venerates could be refined after obtaining the ancestral court's Divine Gold!

The Heavenly Duke's avatar sighed and pointed. The 49 Heavenly Dao in Xuan du turned into 49 supreme treasures. They were all refined from the ancestral court's divine gold. They hung high in Xuan du and intimidated the Yuan world!

The earth count in the Yuan world was deep in thought. He stomped on the ground and the earth shook. Youdu appeared. The sixty-four Great Dao of Youdu turned into sixty-four Supreme Treasures of the Demonic Dao. They similarly intimidated the Yuan world!

On the other side, East Emperor Azure Dragon activated the Numinous Treasure Mountain. In the sky above West Earth's Gold-iron Divine City, a huge golden horn suddenly descended from the sky. It let out a long, tooting sound and made one's blood boil. One could not wait to fight to the death!

The projection of the north emperor black tortoise saw this scene, the Black Emperor said to the martial emperor, "A few of our old brothers and sisters all have divine weapons. They were refined from the divine gold and treasures that we gathered when we left the ancestral court. "We were the only ones who were so poor that we used all of our belongings to build the azure glazed celestial pavilion. In the end, the azure glazed celestial pavilion was stolen by thieves."

The martial emperor said, "Don't speak. Pretend to be enigmatic so that we won't lose face."

The Xuan Emperor did not speak anymore. After a moment, he could not help but say, "Consort Tian Yin and heavenly venerate Yue don't have any world-protecting treasures. We Won't lose face..."

Before he could finish his words, consort Tian Yin took out a treasure. It was a funnel for all living things. It was also a treasure refined from divine gold that she had taken away from the ancestral court.

The Xuan Emperor hesitated for a moment and said, "Heavenly venerate Yue doesn't have any treasures..."

In the Peach Forest, heavenly venerate moon plucked the zither strings. Instantly, countless transparent sabers appeared in the sky above the peach forest. They were the sections of space that rotated slowly.

The Xuan Emperor Thought for a moment before saying to the martial emperor, "Heavenly venerate mu is much poorer than us. After all, he's young and has too little accumulation..."

The martial emperor resisted the urge to beat him up in front of others and said coldly, "Shut up!"

As he was speaking, Prince You Ming's divine ability suddenly transformed into a heavenly river and stepped on it to come here, he bowed and said, "Father... Your Majesty, Emperor Yanxiu has ordered me to send over a batch of divine gold from the ancestral court. He said that heavenly venerate mu has obtained many divine gold minerals in the ancestral court and has some surplus. Please refine some treasures for self-defense."

Otaku pig rushed to Suzhou on the high-speed train to do some business. He would take the high-speed train home in the afternoon or evening. He would try his best to find time to write and not delay the update!

Chapter 1350:

When Martial Emperor Xuan saw his son, he felt a little cordial, but he forced himself to endure it and took back the ancestral court divine gold God mine that Crown Prince You Ming had brought. "Heavenly venerate mu is thoughtful... how are you doing in Eternal Peace?" Martial Emperor asked Crown Prince You Ming lowered his head. "I'm doing very well in eternal peace and have met many new friends. They all treat me with sincerity and have never schemed against me. "However, Emperor Yanxiu felt that my paths, skills, and divine abilities were outdated and ordered me to go to Dao Wen Academy to learn. I was there to exchange paths, skills, and divine abilities with my new friends. They brought me with sincerity and were very happy."

Martial emperor relaxed and revealed a smile. "As long as you have a good life, I will be at ease."

"Even though my husband and wife have severed their relationship with you, you are still a junior, so I can't help but give you some instructions. When you do things, be careful. If others treat you with sincerity, you should return the favor with sincerity," Emperor Xuan said solemnly

Prince You Ming choked on his sobs and knelt down to acknowledge him.

Prince You Ming shed tears and got up to bid farewell.

Martial Emperor Xuan watched him leave and said, "My silly son is still studying. I can see that he is much more stable than before. He is no longer careless and doesn't have any shrewdness."

"His cultivation is much more vigorous than before. Looks like eternal peace has allowed him to grow."

The husband and wife looked at each other and smiled. "My Son is also a person with the aptitude of a heavenly venerate, but he doesn't have the wisdom of a heavenly venerate. However, with eternal peace backing him up, he might be able to survive."

The two of them examined the treasures that Emperor Yanxiu had sent over and couldn't help but be speechless. Emperor Yanxiu had sent over an extremely large number of treasures and his spending was huge. It was enough for them to refine a treasure that could suppress the fate of the North Pole.

"Heavenly venerate mu has struck it rich in the ancestral court."

The Xuan emperor muttered, "I heard that he used our azure glazed heaven pavilion to suppress the ancestral court. This kid is probably using these treasures to curry favor with us."

The martial emperor said, "Back then, he was also the one who saved you Ming and the Black Tortoise Heavenly Palace. There's no harm in him borrowing them."

At the same time, heavenly venerate Hao's deterrence came late.

Heavenly venerate vast's deterrence was a head that was like a planet. It was Supreme Emperor's head!

That head was one of the three remaining parts of Supreme Emperor's corporeal body!

Ever since Supreme Emperor had escaped, everything had gone wrong. In the battle with heavenly venerate vast, he had lost an arm and swallowed a head. After obtaining the primordial stone from Qin Mu, he had recovered his corporeal body, however, his head and new arm weren't as good as before.

After that, Supreme Emperor was besieged by the four great heavenly venerates in the ancestral court. He was dismembered by the four great heavenly venerates, and his corporeal body was sacrificed by the sacrificial altar hidden in the ancestral court, becoming nourishment for the strong practitioners of the prehistoric era.

Only one of his fists fell into the control of primordial Lord Earth Mother and was preserved.

The head that had fallen into Qin Mu's hands was only created from the primordial stone of vast heaven, so it couldn't be compared to the original head.

This head and the other arm of Supreme Emperor had fallen into heavenly venerate vast heaven's hands.

At that moment, heavenly venerate vast heaven had refined supreme emperor's head into a treasure and used it to intimidate the origin world. The pressure on the heavenly venerates, Earth Count Heavenly Duke, and the three ancient gods could be imagined!

Supreme Emperor was an existence that was on par with heavenly venerate great beginning. If his head was beheaded by heavenly venerate vast heaven, how powerful would his abilities be?

Once the Supreme Emperor's head appeared, all the treasures in the universe lost their color!

The Supreme Emperor's head opened his eyes. His two eyes were thousands of times brighter than the sunlight. His eyes buzzed as he scanned the heaven and earth of the origin world, illuminating the heavens of the origin world in all directions.

Even though it was rumored that heavenly venerate Haotian, the leader of the ten heavenly venerates, was not as powerful as before, his aura and power were still incomparable. The other heavenly venerates were inferior.

Suddenly, the gaze of the Supreme Emperor's head was fixed on a place of darkness, and he did not move his eyes away.

The fire of Karma was raging there, turning the land of a thousand miles into a vast wilderness. A person's primordial spirit appeared amidst the raging fire of karma. The chains locked onto the person's limbs, torturing him in the fire of karma. He roared ferociously.

That primordial spirit was the former Crown Prince of the Heavenly Court, Evil Emperor Xie Wuqi!

The paper boat of heavenly venerate you appeared faintly. Heavenly venerate you stood on the ghost boat, and his deterrence arrived quietly.

That was the evil emperor Xie Wuqi, one of the most powerful existences in the dragon and Han era. He had the bloodline of the Empress and the Heavenly Emperor. He had the aptitude of a heavenly venerate, but he was no match for his wisdom, Xie Wuqi, who had fought with the heavenly emperor for the throne and was forced into Youdu, who was suppressed in the Jade Lock Pass!

At this moment, there was another person beside Xie Wuqi. It was the current crown prince of the East Palace of the Heavenly Court, Ming Ya!

It was heavenly venerate Hao who controlled the head of the Great Emperor. He did not care about Xie Wuqi. Back then, he had instigated Xie Wuqi to rebel and used the heavenly emperor to get rid of his elder brother. Xie Wuqi had died for so many years, so there was nothing to worry about.

He only had eyes for the crown prince of Ming Ya.

Crown Prince Ming Ya was one of the few people who had the talent of a heavenly venerable. He captured Chi Xianyu at such a young age and forced her to submit to the Heavenly Court.

His talent was outstanding. He was the most talented person among the younger generation of the Heavenly Court, and he was also the younger brother of heavenly venerable hao.

However, in reality, Crown Prince Ming Ya was the son of heavenly venerable hao.

His son.

After the Heavenly Emperor died, heavenly venerable Haotian entered the heavenly emperor's physical body and once controlled this body to enter the harem. He did some ridiculous things.

The crown prince of Mingya was a product of absurdity. Heavenly venerable Haotian once wanted to execute this product of absurdity so that he would not leave a stain on himself, but he still endured it.

He liked the crown prince of Mingya very much. In name, they were brothers, but in reality, they were father and son. Heavenly venerable Haotian also took good care of him and gave him great expectations.

However, after the heavenly emperor's eggshell was stolen, crown prince Ming ya disappeared. He never expected to go to Youdu to meet Evil Emperor Xie Wuqi!

Now, Evil Emperor Xie Wuqi and crown prince Ming Ya were treated as a threat by heavenly venerable vast heaven and were invited out of Youdu.

They were used by heavenly venerable vast heaven to intimidate heavenly venerable vast heaven!

1

Heavenly venerable vast heaven controlled supreme emperor's head and moved his gaze away. Heavenly venerable vast heaven's deterrence was really too ruthless and had grabbed his sore spot.

"You, in the future, you will regret what you did today!"

In the Peach Forest, Qin Mu let out a long sigh of relief. The situation was still quite stable, and his plan to display his strength could be carried out thanks to the support of his allies.

Of course, this still depended on heavenly venerate you to inform West Emperor, East Emperor, and the rest. He also had to thank West Emperor White Tiger, who was a little demon who wanted to cause chaos in the world. He was the first to jump out and descend to the origin world in a hurry.

Without the West Emperor White Tiger, the East Emperor Azure Dragon and the North Emperor Black Tortoise would not have descended!

More importantly, the Heavenly Duke was a cunning old man. With the arrival of the three ancient gods, the heavenly Duke had no choice but to descend.

“The situation can be balanced for now. As long as we can ensure that we have the power to destroy each other, the heaven court will not touch the Yuan world for a while and the great void will be safe for now. “If heavenly venerate Xiao is trapped in the chaotic space for a day, the balance will be maintained for a day until he escapes from there.”

Qin Mu’s gaze flickered. His next goal was to rescue heavenly venerate ling!

He had to rescue heavenly venerate Ling before heavenly venerate Xiao escaped from the chaotic space!

If he rescued heavenly venerate ling, even if heavenly venerate Xiao escaped from the chaotic space, it wouldn’t have much of an impact on the overall situation.

Before that, he needed to raise his own abilities to ensure that when he rescued heavenly venerate ling, he would have the capital to fight against the Supreme Emperor who controlled the corporeal body of the Heavenly Emperor!

He was exhausted and had just returned from Suzhou! The fourth update would be updated later!
