

Tales of Herding Gods Chapter 756-760

Chapter 756: Brothers Combined

Those two devil gods looked each other in the eyes, and one of them said lazily, "You are here to visit your mother? Do you have your passport?"

Qin Mu shook his head. "I don't."

The other devil god looked around, and he lowered his voice. "Do you have any bling-bling?"

Qin Mu was puzzled. "What is bling-bling?"

"How are you so dense? Bling-bling means natural treasures, things that are worthy of looking at."

That devil god scolded, "This is a place that guards the great danger and great evil, but you don't have a passport or any valuable things to bribe us, do you really want to go in? Why don't you just be on your way?"

Qin Mu hurriedly smiled and said, "I have some treasures, how is this boat of Heavenly Saintly King Equal to Heaven? Can I use this boat to exchange for a chance to enter the pass?"

That devil god sneered and said, "What do need a boat for? We also can't leave this place..."

The other devil god had a slight change of expression when he saw this boat. He hurriedly stopped him and smiled apologetically to Qin Mu. "He's just joking with you, you can just go in."

"Are you tired of living!"

The voices from those two devil gods came from behind. "That's Benevolent Saintly King Equal to Heaven's boat! Has he ever lent his boat to others? This person named Qin Fengqing must be a trusted aide of Saintly King to have his boat. If you chase him away and he complains to Saintly King, you and I will be in trouble!"

"Brother is still the perceptive one, I was reckless. What relationship does this youth have with Saintly King? To be able to even borrow his ship, he must have quite a background."

"He's most likely a guest from the celestial heavens... Wait a minute, what was his name again? I had only thought of how to extort a sum from him and didn't hear clearly."

The two devil gods looked at each other in dismay. One of the devil gods braved himself and called Qin Mu back. "Hey you, please stop for a moment, what did you say your name was? Can you repeat it once more?"

Qin Mu turned his head back, and his smile was very radiant. "High gods, my name is Qin Mu Qin Fengqing."

The minds of the two gods were blown. They looked at him walking into Jade Lock Pass. At this moment, another two devil gods came to take over their shifts, and they shook their heads with a smile. "Someone has come to Jade Lock Pass, senior brothers, have you checked this person?"

Those two gods stood there dumbfounded. The devil gods that had come to take over frowned and could smell the foul smell of piss when they walked forward. They confirmed it with the water under their feet.

"Qin..."

One of them stuttered. "Qin, Qin. Qin... The one who must not be named is back!"

Their voice became incomparably resounding and sharp. "This is bad! The one who must not be named is back, and he has barged into Jade Lock Pass! Get ready! Get ready!"

"Quickly inform the gods everywhere! The one who must not be named is back to fetch his mother!"

In Jade Lock Pass, Qin Mu heard shouts coming from behind and was astonished. He looked back, and when the four devil gods saw him looking back, fear struck deep into their hearts. With a few thumps, the four devil gods fainted.

'The one that must not be named? Could it be me?'

Qin Mu was speechless and broke into laughter. He only shook his head after a moment and thought to himself, 'Twenty-two years ago? In that case, I'm twenty-two years old now. Village Chief said I'm twenty-two while granny said I'm twenty-one, now we finally have an answer, they don't have to fight anymore.'

"Hey, the four of you!"

He shouted and warned them out of kindness. "Are you guys not escaping? Are you perhaps waiting for me to eat?"

Those four devil gods that had fainted immediately flipped themselves up and vanished after transforming into four beams of devil light.

'My brother's ominous name is actually so powerful.'

Qin Mu sighed ruefully. The journey to Jade Lock Pass this time being abnormally smooth was also out of his expectations.

Beatings of drums came from the pass, and killing aura was in the air. He could immediately feel countless terrifying auras coming out from the pass, so it was obvious that quite a number of soldiers and cavalry were stationed there. They had tight security in case the existences guarded inside escaped.

Qin Mu composed himself and secretly took off the willow leaf covering the heart of his brows. He said with a low voice, "Brother, I'm here to visit mother..."

His eye sockets suddenly became red, and he revealed a warm smile. "You have met mother before, but I have never seen her before. Mother carried you and kissed you before, but she never carried nor kissed me. If it wasn't for your huge mistake, I wouldn't have been unable to meet father and mother..."

In the third eye on the heart of his brow, a big-headed, weird baby sat there and looked at the sky.

Heaven Duke and Crimson Emperor couldn't help becoming nervous. Heaven Duke's clone shouted, "Qin Feng... Qin Mu, what are you trying to do! Don't be reckless!"

Qin Mu's voice rang out, "Who doesn't want to be happy under their parents' knees when they are young? Who doesn't want to have parents to accompany them when they are young, but I didn't have the chance to. Brother, I'm here to see mother, you have to make it up to me. Today..."

His body trembled, and his voice was slightly hoarse. "I need to borrow your strength, brother! I can't control the devil nature, but you can. You can't control the divine art, but I can. Brother, Qin Fengqing, come out!"

The clone of Heaven Duke and the consciousness of Crimson Emperor scolded furiously, "Don't be reckless—"

Above the land, the sky trembled and Qin Mu's consciousness pierced the sky. "Brother, let us combine into one, let us go meet mother!"

The big-headed baby rushed into the sky and flew out.

"Don't—"

The clone of Heaven Duke and consciousness of Crimson Emperor flew out of the sky to suddenly see the seal strengthening. It was Qin Mu covering the willow leaf and sealing them in the Qin word seal.

Both of them landed on the ground, and they felt a chill in their hearts.

"Qin Mu this rascal, he can't control the devil nature at all, he can't control Qin Fengqing!"

The clone of Heaven Duke was angry, and he walked to and fro anxiously. He suddenly raised his head to look at the buddha in midair. He shouted in a hurry, "Old buddha, quickly wake up, something big is happening!"

The buddha was asleep and couldn't hear his words.

“This old buddha, is he here to suppress Qin Fengqing or to sleep?” The consciousness of Crimson Emperor was also in a fury.

Qin Mu’s body trembled, and his corporeal body expanded step by step, his arms starting to grow out. At the same time, another two necks grew out. He had six shoulders and six arms that were holding up three heads.

One of the heads suddenly transformed quickly and turned into that of a child. Qin Mu instantly felt an incomparably terrifying power flooding out!

That kind of power wasn’t from opening the celestial palaces. Raising one’s realm couldn’t provide such a power; this was the power of law, the law of Youdu. This was the power of heaven and earth, the power of Youdu’s Dao!

He was like an ancient god born from heaven and earth, like a half-god that had grown stronger as he grew. He had both the advantages of an ancient god and a half-god!

“Bad brother, let me control the power, and you can control the law!” That baby gave off a childish voice.

Qin Mu felt power pouring into his corporeal body like an ocean, and his body expanded once again. His muscles kept bulging, and all kinds of Youdu’s Great Dao transformed into countless information. The information flooded into his mind, allowing him to understand without any explanation.

The big-headed baby transformed by Qin Fengqing controlled the devil nature while he controlled the power and law.

He grew taller and taller until he reached the clouds. He was as tall as the mountains.

Chi—

Qin Mu tore down the willow leaf again, and in Qin word land now, Heaven Duke and Crimson Emperor could see the world outside. The seal had already become very thin, and Crimson Emperor tried to break through the seal. Heaven Duke’s clone shook his head and said, “Don’t bother trying to escape, you can’t. Qin Mu and Qin Fengqing have combined forces, and they have already completely mastered the power of Son of Youdu. The reason he opened up the seal is that, with the power he has now, he doesn’t have to be afraid of us meddling.”

Crimson Emperor’s consciousness flew into the sky, and he saw that the seal had indeed become incomparably thick. There was no possibility of breaking through.

“Just admit defeat.”

Heaven Duke sighed. “We can only hope Qin Mu is still rational and not controlled by his brother.”

In the pass, the army of gods guarding Jade Lock Pass gave off an austere aura, and they stood in the high tower. With bows and arrows in their hands and their sharp gazes, they waited strictly.

Thud, thud, thud.

Heavy footsteps rang out as the land and mountains shook. Beads of cold sweat rolled down the gods' forehead.

"Don't be afraid!"

A devil general was awe-inspiring and had an extraordinary manner. His cultivation was extremely high, and it was obvious he was the general here. He guarded this place under the orders of Earth Count, and he shouted, "Don't be afraid! Earth Count has sealed him for over twenty years. Even if he breaks through the seal now, he would at most have his abilities from twenty years ago. With the treasures that Earth Count has given us, we don't have to be scared of him!"

He shouted, "We, the army of Jade Lock Pass is never afraid of Son of Youdu! He is here, take him down!"

At this moment, he saw a three-headed and six-armed god walking over, and he was covered in Youdu markings. Those markings seemed to have transformed into the Great Dao of Youdu and marked themselves on the skin of this god!

He grew three heads. One was a child, and the other two were youths. Among these two heads, one had a cold and calm gaze while the other had a warm and fervent gaze.

That god general had a dazed look, and the corner of his eyes twitched violently. "We are finished, we are finished. When he didn't know divine arts, we could still fight, but now his attainments in Youdu divine arts are higher than any of us here... We are done for."

The three-headed and six-armed Qin Mu walked in front of the god camp and looked at those god soldiers.

Qin Fengqing turned his head around and licked his lips in excitement. "Bad brother, with your methods, you can completely devour here with one mouth! As long as you savor the taste of these delicious little things, you will yearn for them and come to love eating them. They are very refreshing!"

Qin Mu suddenly bowed and said solemnly, "I'm here to visit my mother, if you don't obstruct me, you won't die. May Dao brothers let me through."

That devil god general's body froze, and he had a coarse voice. "I'm guarding this place under Earth Count's command..."

Boom—

Qin Mu suddenly exploded and executed his martial path divine art in an instant. Return of Thousand Palms Beyond the Strange Peaks of Heavens was unleashed, and palms, fists, mudras, and fingers that were like mountains rained down in the surroundings. The ground and sky were shattered, and a huge abyss was created!

That devil god general looked at the abyss in front of the camp, and his eyes twitched furiously. The size of the abyss was exactly the same as the god camp!

Which also meant that if Qin Mu's attack had landed on them, he could have wiped out everyone straightaway!

"Son of Youdu, please—" That devil god general stretched out his hands.

Qin Mu walked two steps before stopping. Cold beads of sweat rolled down the devil god general's forehead. Qin Mu said, "I don't know the way, I need a guide, please."

That devil god general gritted his teeth and flew out of the camp. He said solemnly, "I will personally lead the way for Son of Youdu!"

Qin Mu expressed his thanks.

That devil god general braced himself to lead the way in front. He felt a gaze that kept staring at his neck, so he turned around secretly to take a look. He saw that chubby baby drooling as he stared at him.

"How fat and tender, hehe... Good brother, let me have a lick, I won't eat him, just a taste..."

In Youdu, incomparably ancient celestial palaces rumbled as incomparably powerful existences were waking up one by one.

"Son of Youdu is back again?"

"Back then it was Earth Count who made a decision to protect his life by exiling him, he still dares to return?"

"If we kill him this time, Earth Count would have nothing to say, right?"

"Go to Jade Lock Pass and take our revenge!"

Youdu, on the body of Earth Count, streaks of light flowed, and they brought along overflowing aura towards Jade Lock Pass. The entire Youdu became lively in this instant.

At the eye of Earth Count, Elder Messenger of Death looked at the ruckus below and felt the ancient auras. He felt uneasy and said, "Earth Count, should we interfere? I'm afraid Celestial Venerable Mu won't be able to block them."

"He is another Earth Count."

Earth Count's voice came from the hall. "How could an Earth Count without any restraint be unable to block them?"

Elder Messenger of Death's heart trembled slightly.

Chapter 757: Hellfire Virtue Monument

Earth Count without any restraints.

Elder Messenger of Death knew that Earth Count was a god born by heaven and earth. Much of his actions had to be restrained by the rules of Youdu, rules that couldn't be exceeded. Even his growth had to be included in the system of Youdu, and he couldn't break away from the rules of the Great Dao of Youdu.

He was the image of Youdu's Dao, and even though he had his own consciousness and thoughts, his actions couldn't break away from the categories from the Great Dao of Youdu.

"However, that little fellow that was born in Youdu is different. He is the first lifeform in Youdu that was born from the womb. He is different from Earth Count and also different from the imps, monsters, and Youdu devil gods that were naturally formed in Youdu."

Earth Count's voice came from the sacred hall, and Elder Messenger of Death turned back to take a look. Celestial Venerable Yu sat at the entrance of the hall and gnawed on his other half of the chicken.

"He is like me, blessed by the law of the Great Dao of Youdu when he was born. At that time, I even thought I was going to have a younger brother."

"I only knew it wasn't so afterward."

The third eye of Earth Count was shining brightly and sealed their words inside the eye so it wouldn't travel outside.

"The growth of that little fellow is astonishing, and because he is a lifeform after the beginning of heaven and earth, he is not under the control of the Great Dao of Youdu. He just eats whoever he wants, he just beats whoever he wants."

Even though Qin Fengqing stopped at no evil, Earth Count seemed to be enjoying it for some reason.

Qin Fengqing was like a small Earth Count. If he grew up, he would be a big Earth Count that would commit a whole lot of evil, thus Earth Count had no choice but to seal and suppress him, exiling him to the outside world.

"What's even stranger is that Qin Fengqing, who got suppressed and exiled, turned into Qin Mu. Qin Fengqing was initially not under the control of the Great Dao of Youdu, and when it comes to Qin Mu's side, he has completely broken away from the law of the Great Dao of Youdu, cultivating paths, skills, and divine arts that are outside of Youdu!"

Celestial Venerable Yu, who was currently eating chicken, looked out of the hall and saw that the god with bull horns and tiger head was revealing a weird expression. He was obviously puzzled at how Qin Mu was able to break away from the law of the Great Dao of Youdu.

"My seal turned him into an ordinary person who couldn't cultivate, yet a second consciousness was born from that body. He went through challenging experiences and somehow got by my seal and cultivated quite the achievements with a corporeal body that was impossible to cultivate with."

Earth Count said with a weird expression, "The first consciousness is Qin Fengqing was born from the devil nature of Youdu. He is like an ancient god, a half-god, and also a lifeform after the beginning. The second consciousness was Qin Mu, a lifeform after the beginning from the start to the end, yet he surprises me the most."

Under Qin Mu's ruckus, Qin Fengqing had also almost broken through Earth Count's seal several times. As a result, Earth Count had to come and fix things two to three times.

And because he understood, that was why the person with the greatest hope for Qin Mu Qin Fengqing was actually Earth Count.

He wanted to find a way to break out of his restraints from Qin Mu.

Him saying Qin Mu was an unrestrained Earth Count wasn't an over-exaggeration.

In Earth Count's eyes, Qin Fengqing and Qin Mu were the same person. They weren't brothers, even though to them they were older and younger brothers.

The younger brother felt that the older brother was full of evil, and the older brother felt the younger brother was full of naughty tricks.

"To break out of my restraint, I tried many ways, but they had all failed. This is my chance."

Earth Count's gaze was deep, and when Celestial Venerable Yu looked over, he felt that his three eyes were three abysses that couldn't be measured. Ripples would occasionally be formed.

Jade Lock Pass.

That devil god general led the three-headed and six-armed Qin Mu into the pass as beads of cold sweat kept dripping down his forehead. That was because he felt very uncomfortable from Qin Fengqing, who kept staring at his head and neck.

An image kept appearing in his mind, and that was the sight of this huge baby gnawing on his head.

"How do I call Dao brother?" One of Qin Mu's heads surveyed the surroundings, and the other head talked to him pleasantly.

"Youdu's Jade Lock Pass Left Soul Guardian Mo Qimi."

The eyes of that devil god general twitched, and he thought to himself, 'In the past, Son of Youdu didn't have this habit. In the past, he would just eat without saying anything. Now he has become polite, he would ask the name before he eats...'

"What is over there?" Qin Mu pointed at a black stone tablet and asked politely.

Left Soul Guardian Mo Qimi looked at the black stone tablet and said, "This is the Soul Suppression Monument, also known as Hellfire Virtue Monument. They are made from the teeth that fall off of Earth Count, and they are used to suppress the evil here. People with great virtues wouldn't be suppressed, but those with grave sins would suffer from the hellfire here. They can't release their magic power either, and the pain would multiply."

Qin Mu looked into the distance and saw that the Hellfire Virtue Monuments here were like a forest. There was one every three hundred yards, and there were many of them.

"Earth Count has so many teeth?"

He was stunned and whispered under his breath, "Could Earth Count's teeth have been broken off by someone?"

Qin Fengqing said excitedly, "Earth Count's teeth are black, my teeth are white! Look, look!"

He opened his mouth and revealed his mouth full of razor-sharp teeth that were gleaming with a cold glint. His gaze sparkled as he said, "Mo Qimi, come to me and take a closer look."

Left Soul Guardian Mo Qimi stumbled, and he brought him towards the forest formed by Hellfire Virtue Monuments. The number of stone tablets here was beyond Qin Mu's imagination, and he still hadn't walked to the end after so long.

'The stone tablets are in the tens of thousands, how many teeth must Earth Count have to forge so many stone tablets?'

Left Soul Guardian took a glance at Qin Mu and was astonished. He had originally thought that once this extremely evil existence entered the monument forest, he would be suppressed by Earth Count's Hellfire Virtue Monument. With hellfire on his body, he would be in excruciating pain.

Yet Qin Mu walked into the forest without anything happening at all. Furthermore, that big-headed baby was still sucking in the hellfire excitedly, and the hellfire came swooping over like noodles into his mouth. He smacked his lips in content.

'Does this guy have any weakness at all?' Fear crept up in his heart.

Suddenly, there was someone walking with difficulty in the monument forest in front, and it was a soul surrounded by hellfire. His face was distorted in the flames, and his mouth, eye sockets, and ears had all become black holes. He seemed to be crying out in pain.

"This is Heavenly King Yu An."

Left Soul Guardian said, "Heavenly King Yu An was a god from a million years ago. He was the general of the Dragon Han Celestial Heavens' Feathered Forest Guards, he was a god in charge of flight. He was originally a huge peacock born from heaven and earth, but because he liked to swallow half-gods and weak lifeforms, he could eat a million people with one mouth and thus, he committed a grave sin. That is why he is suppressed in Jade Lock Pass after his death, and why he has to walk in the monument forest day and night. He has already suffered the burn of the hellfire for a million years. He keeps walking in the forest, but no matter how many years he walks, he can never get out until the day his sins are completely exhausted. What will welcome him then shall be the engulf of Earth Count.” After he said that, he took a glance at Qin Mu.

Qin Mu said respectfully, “Earth Count is fair in his rewards and punishments, he is impartial. This matter is settled beautifully!”

Left Soul Guardian thought to himself, ‘You have done so much evil, so aren’t you scared?’

Of course, he didn’t dare to say this out directly.

He continued to walk forward, and they met another person. It was the primordial spirit of a half-god. He was carrying a mountain and walking in the hellfire. He got burned until he kept crying out in pain.

“This is Xie Wuqi, Crown Prince of the Dragon Han Celestial Heavens. He is a strong practitioner that has the bloodline of Celestial Emperor and Celestial Empress. When he grew to adulthood, his abilities were equivalent to a strong practitioner on Emperor’s Throne, thus he rebelled and tried to usurp the throne. After he died, he was suppressed here,” said Left Soul Guardian.

“Half-god, Emperor’s Throne?”

The big-headed baby instantly drooled like a waterfall and rubbed his hands in excitement. Qin Mu suddenly felt his body becoming shorter, and he saw himself crawling over towards Xie Wuqi as he planned to eat him.

“Brother, don’t be reckless! It’s more important to meet mother!”

The big baby sighed in pity and only then did Qin Mu recover control of his body.

They continued forward, and Left Guardian Mo Qimi said, “The deeper the gods are being suppressed at, the greater their sins are. From the past to the present, all great criminals are being suppressed here. No matter how evil or powerful they were when they were alive, they will still have to suffer here once they die!” After saying that, he took another glance at Qin Mu.

Qin Mu still didn’t notice anything.

“My mother has never committed any evil, so why is she suppressed at the deepest part of the monument forest?”

The big-headed baby was rather indignant, and he said angrily, “It’s all my fault, mother is not involved. Earth Count isn’t fair, if I catch him, I’ll eat him after plucking off his head and legs!”

Left Soul Guardian shuddered, and he thought to himself, ‘This guy is unreasonably cruel.’

They continued forward and saw more and more primordial spirits of strong practitioners that were suppressed here. No matter how remarkable they were when they were alive, they still had to suffer hellfire like ordinary people.

And this kind of torture seemed to have no end, and they didn’t know when they would be released.

'Is mother also going through such torture?' Qin Mu felt a pang of sorrow.

After passing by god knows how many Hellfire Virtue Monuments, they finally came to the center of the monument forest.

Over here, the monuments were densely packed with one every three to five steps. However, not many primordial spirits could be seen.

Qin Mu was puzzled, and he suddenly saw the black stone tablets forming a huge circle. This circle was about three thousand yards in radius, and there were still stone tablets forming layers and layers of hoops in the circle.

Looking at the center of the circle, there was a god with bull horns and a tiger head being shackled by black chains. Hellfire burned continuously around his body.

Qin Mu's expression changed drastically, and he looked at Left Soul Guardian. However, Mo Qimi didn't seem to see the god that was being suppressed and walked around it.

Qin Mu stretched out his hand to lift him up before asking pleasantly, "Lord Left Guardian, what is up with the Earth Count in the monument forest? Why is there an Earth Count suppressed here?"

"Don't be reckless!"

Left Soul Guardian cried out. "I would rather die and not say a word!"

Qin Mu threw him to the big-headed baby, and Qing Fengqing hugged him tightly. "Brother is so nice, I'm really going to eat, time to eat!"

"I'll say!"

Qin Mu hurriedly grabbed him back, and Qin Fengqing was furious. He raised his two fists and smacked ruthlessly at Qin Mu's head. "Bad brother! I'll beat you to death!"

"That is Earth Count's reincarnation."

Left Soul Guardian still hadn't recovered from his shock and quickly touched his head. He gave a sigh of relief when he realized his head was still attached. "During the early period of the Dragon Han Era, Earth Count reincarnated once, and this body was him who had reincarnated."

Qin Mu's face was all bruised, and he used creation divine arts to remove the bruises by improving his blood circulation. He asked curiously, "So why has Earth Count suppressed his reincarnation here?"

Left Soul Guardian said, "I was born during the High Emperor Era, how would I know these ancient matters?"

Qin Mu lifted him up again, and Left Soul Guardian hurriedly said, "I'll say! I'll just say everything, will that do?"

Qin Mu placed him down, and Left Soul Guardian hesitated for a moment. He looked around and said with a low voice, "So I've heard... I've heard rumors so it might not be real! Don't spread it out and don't say it's me who told you this!"

Qin Mu nodded his head repeatedly.

"I've heard that Earth Count reincarnated then because he wanted to find a way to improve himself and also allow his bloodline to be passed down. After he reincarnated, he still looked the same, but he had a body of flesh and blood. He then discovered he had seven emotions and six desires. But because he was ugly..."

Left Soul Guardian hesitated for a moment and asked pitifully, "You really won't spread it out?"

"Don't worry!"

Qin Mu patted his chest heavily and said, "If I spread it, I will be erased by heaven and earth! Quickly tell me!"

Qin Fengqing also got curious and hurried him. "So what happened after he was ugly?"

"Because he was ugly, he wasn't too welcome by people."

Left Soul Guardian gulped his saliva and plucked up his courage. "Everyone started to shout at him and viewed him as a demonic monster. There were also some ancient beings that knew he had reincarnated, and they knew it was a good time to get rid of him, so they laid their hands on him. Because of his own identity, Earth Count didn't retaliate. Then came the day when his wife and daughter were killed, and Earth Count's devil nature went berserk. He actually wasn't limited by the law of Youdu, and so he retaliated..."

He revealed a look of terror on his face, and his voice was hoarse. "I've heard many ancient gods died, and the half-gods that died were uncountable. After Earth Count returned, he suppressed his reincarnation and let his reincarnation suffer here..."

Chapter 758: Mother and Son

Qin Mu looked at Earth Count's reincarnation. He must have been an incomparably strong devil god during the Dragon Han Era, but the sins he carried caused him continuous suffering under the hellfire.

Earth Count was selfless, and even if he were the one who made a mistake, he wouldn't let himself off the hook.

However, one could see from this how many ancient gods and half-gods had died in Earth Count's hands, for the hellfire to burn for a million years and still be burning fiercely. Earth Count had used hundreds of Hellfire Virtue Monuments to suppress himself in hopes of washing away his sins.

"The reincarnated Earth Count must have been extremely furious, so furious that he broke through his shackles. Back then, he must have been completely controlled by the devil nature."

Qin Mu thought of his older brother and compared them. Earth Count who got controlled by his murderous intent was different from Qin Fengqing.

Qin Fengqing was like a vicious but ignorant child. Even though many people told Qin Mu that Qin Fengqing was controlled by his devil nature and only knew how to kill, Qin Mu still felt his brother wasn't controlled by the devil nature. He controlled the devil nature.

Comparing how the reincarnation of Earth Count had acted and how Qin Fengqing had acted, he could affirm this point even more.

“Walking slightly forward, that would be Qin Fengqing’s place of punishment.”

Qin Mu said with a smile, “Just a little bit more. Once we are there, I won’t force Dao brother to stay.”

Left Soul Guardian could only brace himself and continue walking forward. There were numerous Hellfire Virtue Monuments in front, and after walking three to five miles, the surroundings opened up into a clearing. There were green mountains, and small rivers flowing from the top to the bottom of the mountains—meandering passed fields of crops and into the lake.

Several hen dragons were currently running in the fields, and they chased after three-legged toads while clucking non-stop. Those hen dragons stood beside the shore and clucked angrily at the toads that floated up in the lake.

Qin Mu was stunned. This barren Youdu was supposed to have no greenery. Volcanoes, lava, and monsters were everywhere.

Yet over here, in the famous Jade Lock Pass, a forbidden ground that was supposed to suppress the evils, there was actually such green hills and clear waters. This was truly strange!

When he looked down the mountains, he saw a few households below, and there were women weaving in front of the door while farmer girls were gathering mulberry leaves to feed the silkworms.

There were also a few farmers harvesting vegetables.

This place didn’t look like Youdu. It didn’t look like a forbidden ground that was used to imprison serious criminals and instead, it looked like a peaceful small village in the Great Ruins.

“They don’t have hellfire on their bodies, and even if they do, they are long gone.”

Left Soul Guardian whispered, “Back then, when they barged into Youdu, they literally sent themselves into the trap. There were the four great provincial governors that the celestial heavens had stationed in Youdu, there were also other powers in ambush. After they barged in, they had to hide left and right. Within a few days’ time, you were born, and you got caught up by the pursuers from the celestial heavens. You should have some memory of what happened next, right?”

Qin Mu shook his head and said uncertainly, "My brother should remember, I wasn't born back then."

"Those that beat mother were all eaten up by me!" Qin Fengqing said ruthlessly.

"Back then, you were too ruthless, and you destroyed the army of the four great provincial governors that the celestial heavens had stationed in Youdu. The four of them suffered heavy injuries, and they still haven't recovered their vitality completely, even now."

Left Soul Guardian said, "These four great provincial governors are also not nice people. They have wide networks of friends in Youdu, and they invited the other big shots of Youdu. These big shots were either beaten, eaten, or killed, and this attracted numerous ancient beings. Then, the exact same thing happened again. At that time, Youdu was simply too lively. Numerous existences that didn't belong to Youdu also sneaked in and looked at this commotion. Because the entire incident was blown up way beyond proportion, Earth Count had no choice but to suppress you. Your mother took your place for the punishment and got sealed here. Qin Fengqing, go and reunite with your mother."

He paused and said, "But don't think of bringing her out. Back then, to protect you, Earth Count also spent quite some effort. Otherwise, you would already be dead. It wasn't as simple as letting your mother suffer in your place. Back then, those that sneaked into Youdu didn't simply come for the show, danger was actually lying all around."

Qin Mu was silent.

Over twenty years ago, there were indeed countless powerful existences that had went to look at the show. Based on what he knew, Brahma Buddha and Heaven Duke had both sent their clones.

And other than them, Son of Heaven Yin had also infiltrated Youdu.

This was still only what he knew. There must be even more that he didn't know!

"Furthermore, Earth Count didn't create trouble for your mother and you, so don't trouble Earth Count this time."

(B oxnovel.c om) Left Soul Guardian said, "Don't try to bring her away, she's very good here, and she will only be in more danger if she goes out. And also, be careful when you go out."

Qin Mu bowed and said, "Many thanks, Dao Brother!"

Qin Fengqing hesitated and said, "I won't eat you this time, but you better run faster the next time you see me. I won't eat you if I can't catch you. Remember, you must run faster!"

Left Soul Guardian smiled and turned to leave.

Qin Mu looked at the small village at the foot of the mountain, and his emotions couldn't calm down for a long, long time. He finally composed himself and took a step forward.

His body became smaller and smaller, and he transformed back into his normal size from an incomparably huge giant.

His footsteps sped up, and he suddenly stopped. Qin Fengqing wasn't willing to walk forward anymore.

Qin Mu was puzzled and asked with a soft voice, "Brother, didn't you want to meet mother the most?"

"She doesn't want to see me."

Qin Fengqing lowered his head and said bitterly, "It was her who put the jade pendant on me to seal me. I can still remember the fear in her eyes when she looked at me, I don't want her to feel scared. I'm going back into the seal, you can go meet her by yourself. Tell her I'm being sealed properly and can't come out, tell her not to be scared..."

Qin Mu had an indescribable feeling in his heart, and after, power faded away, and he sensed the other him in his body had vanished.

Qin Fengqing had returned back to Qin word land.

Qin Mu was in a daze. In Qin word land, that big-headed baby also sat on the ground in a daze.

After a moment, this baby crawled quickly to find Heaven Duke and Crimson Emperor to vent his anger.

Qin Mu composed himself and dispersed his three heads and six arms. He walked towards the small village.

He got closer and closer to the small village, and the village was in peace. The farmers in the fields straightened their backs, and they looked at him walking over in a daze.

Qin Mu smiled and nodded his head as a sign of goodwill.

Those farmers were somehow affected by his smile, and they also nodded their heads and smiled in return.

"How similar..."

A farmer muttered, "He looks so similar to King Zhen. Who is he?"

Qin Mu came to the village entrance, and the few village women that were feeding the silkworms saw him. They turned their heads to examine him, and their eyes sparkled. They were gods that had cultivated to Celestial Palace Realm, and even though they were wearing coarse and rough clothing, their beauty couldn't be hidden.

Qin Mu revealed a smile and said, "Big sisters, my name is Qin Fengqing, I'm from Carefree Village and ended up in the Great Ruins. My age this year is twenty-two, and I'm here to look for my mother."

Those village women were stunned, and the bamboo winnowing baskets fell to the ground, scattering the mulberry leaves on the floor.

The woman that was currently weaving in the village suddenly trembled, and she turned around.

Qin Mu saw her face, and it was the same face he had seen on his father Qin Hanzhen's ship. That was the face of his mother he had yearned for day and night.

On the treasure ship, he had seen an echo of history and that was what his parents had encountered when they drove the treasure ship from Carefree Village to the Great Ruins.

That was the first time he had seen his parents and knew he still had family in this world.

He could never forget that sight.

The woman in front of the spinning wheel stood up, and she looked at him helplessly. Even though she was dressed in coarse clothing, her bearing was still graceful and elegant. It was just that her mind was in a mess right now and she didn't know where to place her hands.

She stumbled over and looked at this youth at the village entrance. She knocked the frames that were holding up the gauze and got tripped by a water cauldron, almost falling down.

"Fengqing? Are you Fengqing?" she asked from afar.

"Mother."

Qin Mu knelt down and bowed his body to the ground. "Your child has returned."

A pair of warm yet trembling hands helped him up, and that pair of gentle eyes looked at him in agitation. Her voice trembled as she asked, "Are you Fengqing? I've always missed you..."

"Whenever I dream, I reproach myself when I see myself putting the jade pendant around your neck. I would always be jolted awake by nightmares of you dying outside, of you dying in the basket..."

"I've always missed you, and I'm always worried about you, I was worried you would encounter dangers outside..."

Qin Mu gave a warm smile and held her hands tightly. "Mother, I've come back in one piece."

"You're back." That woman choked on her tears and held onto his hands tightly. She wasn't willing to let go as she was afraid this was a dream. She was afraid of him fading away like a dream.

Several farmers walked over and looked at this pair of mother and son. Those few village women walked over and said with a soft voice, "Princess Consort Zhen, it's good that His Little Highness is back, there's no need to be sad."

"This is a happy occasion."

Another woman said with a smile, "I shall catch some frogs and slaughter some chickens, let us have a nice meal today! Oi, Left Assistant Minister, let us go catch frogs! Catch those few fish in the lake too!"

That Left Assistant Minister hurriedly said, "We can also harvest the vegetables at the village entrance, quickly prepare some!"

"There are also fruits in the mountains, I shall go grab a few plates of fruits!"

They quickly became busy, and Qin Mu's mother was still looking at him, afraid that she was dreaming. Qin Mu told her about his encounters in Disabled Elderly Village, about how he got chased by hen dragons, how he trained beside the Surging River.

He told her about all his fun times and scandals, overexaggerating certain parts and tried his best to cheer his mother up.

That woman listened quietly, and she suddenly burst into laughter. However, tears streaked down her cheeks.

"Where Ping'er?"

She asked, "Ping'er delivered you to the world of the living, so why isn't she with you?"

Qin Mu's expression dimmed, and he broke into a smile in the next instant. "Mother, let me tell you about the interesting things that happened to me in Eternal Peace."

"Your Aunt Ping'er has passed away, am I right?"

Qin Mu was silent. He then said bitterly, "Granny Si picked me up by the riverside and Aunt Ping'er's corpse was under the water, lifting me up. Then, she was swept away by the current. Afterward, I met her on the river surface, and I told her I was very well. Only then did she leave in peace... Mother, big brother also wants to meet you very much."

Chapter 759: Justice Is to Be Found Everywhere

"How did Mu Ping die?"

His mother still hadn't come back to her senses, and she was still sad about the death of Aunt Ping'er, so she didn't hear what Qin Mu had said.

Exactly what had happened during the time Mu Ping had brought Qin Mu out from Youdu and into the Great Ruins, Qin Mu had no idea at all. Granny Si and the rest also didn't know, and they only knew that the woman had already passed away when she sent Qin Mu to the riverside. She was relying on her remaining willpower to send Qin Mu to a safe place.

When Qin Mu met her again in Secret Waters Pass, she had turned into a female corpse under the water. Only when she heard Qin Mu telling her that he had grown up and that he was well, only then did her perseverance vanish. She sunk to the bottom of the river as she no longer had any worries.

From Youdu to the Great Ruins, Qin Mu was merely a two to three months old baby, and he didn't have any memory. Even though this journey wasn't too far, there must have been fights that no one knew and there must be people who had tried to seize or kill Qin Mu in places Earth Count couldn't see.

It was a pity Mu Ping could no longer describe what she had encountered back then.

"Mother, I will personally find Aunt Ping'er soul, and no matter where her soul is, I will invite her back."

Qin Mu revealed a smile and consoled his mother. "I have some abilities now, and I know a lot of people. Even if Aunt Ping'er's soul has dispersed, even if her soul is being suppressed, I can definitely save her. Mother, big brother is also here, he wants to meet you very much."

"Big brother?"

Princess Consort Zhen was puzzled, and she looked at Qin Mu with worry. Qin Mu said with a smile, "It's big brother. When we were born, it was big brother protecting mother in Youdu. Let me call him out."

Qin Mu's body suddenly stopped moving, and he stood there without moving.

"Fengqing?"

Princess Consort Zhen became worried, and she called out several times. "Fengqing! What happened to you?"

In Qin word land, the big-headed baby crossed his arms in front of his chest, and his head turned to one side while his chubby legs overlapped each other. "I'm not going! Mother is scared of me!"

Qin Mu circled to his face and said with a smile, "As the older brother, you are still throwing a tantrum like a little child. Stop messing around, haven't you wanted to see mother since a long time ago? This is a rare chance."

"I won't go!"

That big-headed baby turned his head to the other side. "Mother likes you more, she doesn't like me. I'm picked up, and you are her own! I'm not going!"

Crimson Emperor's consciousness said, "That fat kid, if you don't want to go you don't have to go, but can you first get down from my body? You have been sitting on me long enough!"

He was under the big baby's a, and he couldn't move with his face planted in the ground.

Not far away, the clone of Heaven Duke was hidden behind the mountains of Qin word land. He popped his head out to take a look.

Qin Mu said with a smile, "We are one, so why am I mother's and you are picked up? Stop messing around, go meet mother, she's worried sick. If you don't want to go, I'll be going."

That big-headed baby hurriedly got up and rushed out of the sky. "Fine!"

The consciousness of Crimson Emperor saw that he left so he hurriedly got up. He patted the dust from his body. There was actually no dust, but he was used to it.

On the other side, the clone of Heaven Duke hurriedly ran over, and he took a glance at Qin Mu. "You are done for, you are done for. You have released the great devil king out, now you can't reclaim your corporeal body! You are finished!"

Qin Mu said with a smile, "Heaven Duke, that's my older brother, we are one..."

The white-bearded old man stared with his eyes wide open. "Do you know that big-headed baby has learned bad? Who has he learned from? None other than you! After he goes out, he will definitely seal you inside and trap all of us here!"

Qin Mu's expression changed slightly. "My brother won't do that..."

Outside, Princess Consort Zhen was feeling uneasy. Suddenly, Qin Mu let out a shaky breath, and she saw her son's body popping and expanding. Qin Mu grew taller and taller. However, his age was regressing, and he slowly became a white and plump boy in front of her.

Qin Mu's clothes were treasures made by Yu Zhaoqing, which could become bigger as the body become bigger. However, when worn on this big fatty, they made him look chubby, and it was truly a funny sight.

Princess Consort Zhen had a blank look as she saw her son's transformation in a daze. She couldn't come back to her senses.

"Mother, please wait a moment!"

The fat boy took down the two taotie sacks, excited as he rummaged through them. Suddenly, his eyes lit up, and he took out a willow leaf to paste it on his head. He beamed and said, "Bad brother, now you can't come out!"

In Qin word land, Qin Mu was currently trying to fly out of this heaven and earth to seize back his body. Suddenly, the vein lines of the willow leaf appeared in the sky, and the rays around the buddha shone brightly. His aura connected with the willow leaf and sealed the heaven and earth.

Qin Mu was in a daze. "I... Brother..."

"You are done for!"

The white-haired elder said angrily, "You have guided him astray, you are done for, and we are done for!"

Qin Mu blinked his eyes, and his eyes were filled with helplessness.

Crimson Emperor grunted and said, "I feel this is better, at least this kid won't start beating us for no reason."

“Mother! I’m back!”

That big-headed baby clapped his chubby hands at Princess Consort Zhen and asked for a hug. However, he realized he was too huge and couldn’t hug his mother, so he hurriedly shrunk his size.

Princess Consort Zhen carried this baby that was only two to three months old, and this baby was the age when she had put the jade pendant around Qin Mu’s neck.

However, everything looked so preposterous.

She revealed a warm look on her face, and she felt that this was a blessing from heaven for allowing her to see her son when he was young again.

Right at this moment, Left Assistant Minister who had gone to catch chickens and frogs came back, and they looked at the baby in Princess Consort Zhen’s arms.

The big-headed baby saw them carrying fish and frogs, and he became excited. He jumped down from his mother’s embrace, and his arms and legs moved in unison as he crawled quickly towards them.

“Yummy!”

The baby grew larger and larger before grabbing Left Assistant Minister up. With his mouth open as huge as the sky, he was prepared to send Left Assistant Minister along with the chickens and frogs into his mouth.

Village women came back from outside with fruits and vegetables. They even caught a hen dragon, and they all looked at this sight in a daze.

“Cluck!” The hen dragon fainted.

Just as Left Assistant Minister was about to be eaten, Princess Consort Zhen’s gentle voice rang out. “Fengqing, no.”

The big-headed baby hesitated for a moment, and he looked at Left Assistant Minister who was already dumb as a wood chicken reluctantly. “We haven’t met for over twenty years, uncle has grown to be quite sturdy, you must definitely be very chewy... Aunt Juan’er, hug hug—”

He pounced into the embrace of a village woman. Aunt Juan’er hugged him, and her body was trembling.

The big-headed baby licked Aunt Juan’er face, and he gave a vicious gaze. Aunt Juan’er didn’t dare to move, and at this moment, the big-headed baby felt his body was light as he got carried by Princess Consort Zhen.

Qin Fengqing blinked his eyes cunningly, and he stuck his thumb in his mouth. He swung his short arms and legs around.

Princess Consort Zhen gave him a look of pity, and she kissed him on his head. She smiled at everyone who didn't dare to move. "Go prepare some dishes, it's a happy occasion that we, mother and son, are reunited."

Even though everyone there was a god, they were still fearful of this little overlord of Youdu. They went to cook in trepidation.

Princess Consort Zhen teased the baby in her arms, and they were full of smiles.

Not long later, the dishes were ready, but everyone didn't dare to sit and eat. They all stood and trembled at the side.

The big-headed baby took a glance, and everyone hurriedly sat down. The baby gave a smile again.

Princess Consort Zhen fed her son, and Qin Fengqing ate obediently. He was very happy. "There's no taste of soul, it's not too tasty, but whatever mother feeds me is delicious."

As they ate this meal, Princess Consort Zhen hugged him and hummed a nursery rhyme to coax him to sleep. This big-headed baby giggled and flailed his arms and legs around. He finally slept after some time passed.

Princess Consort Zhen gently touched her son's face, and she was entranced.

She hesitated over and over again, but she still placed her fingers on the willow leaf on his third eye.

Right at this moment, the baby in her arms opened his jet black eyes and looked at her.

"Mother, don't take it off."

That baby opened his eyes and gave off a pleading expression. He pouted and said with a sobbing tone in his voice, "Don't take it off. Fengqing misses mother, mother, don't take it off please..."

Princess Consort Zhen rocked her body and hummed a nursery rhyme. "Fengqing is mother's good baby, don't throw a tantrum, go to sleep..."

"Mother, don't take it off..."

Princess Consort Zhen took down the willow leaf, and that baby closed his eyes. Tears streaked down from the corners of his three eyes, and he turned his head around to say softly, "You don't like Fengqing, you only like younger brother..."

Princess Consort Zhen kissed him and said, "Mother loves you, I just don't want you to create more trouble. I hope you can live properly. You can't control yourself, but your brother can control himself... Mother just wishes both of you can live on..."

She hugged her baby and placed him on a small bed.

Qin Fengqing sighed and returned back to Qin word land in loneliness.

His body gradually grew up, and after a moment, Qin Mu opened his eyes and got up from the bed. He knelt down in front of Princess Consort Zhen's knees and placed his head gently on her knees.

The mother and son didn't speak a word.

Two days later, Princess Consort Zhen hurried and said, "Fengqing, you should go, this isn't a place you should stay long."

Qin Mu got up and revealed a smile. "Mother, I will be back. The next time I come back, I will bring mother away from here to enjoy life outside."

Princess Consort Zhen sent him to the village entrance. Qin Mu hesitated for a moment before saying softly, "I've seen father, he is still alive."

Princess Consort Zhen's body trembled, and she shook her head. "You don't have to lie to me, with such heavy injuries, it's impossible for him to be still alive..."

"Father is really still alive."

Qin Mu said with a firm tone and said solemnly, "I've seen him, he is right here in Youdu, he is still in that treasured ship that was carrying us. He is always looking for mother. He has turned into a tree man, and because of Saturn Sovereign, he has sworn to Earth Count. He said if he sees me, he will have to tell Saturn Sovereign the location of Carefree Village. When I reunited with him, he didn't open his eyes to look at me... However, he is really still alive."

Princess Consort Zhen was stunned.

"Mother, I want to know how I can go to Carefree Village."

Qin Mu hesitated for a moment. "I want to meet Founding Emperor."

Princess Consort Zhen was silent for a moment. "Don't go back."

Qin Mu was stunned, and he said loudly, "Why?"

Princess Consort Zhen shook her head. "Don't go back! I don't allow you to go back!"

Qin Mu was stunned.

"Mother, please stay."

At the village entrance, he turned and knelt down on the ground. He kowtowed three times heavily before getting up to leave.

Princess Consort Zhen looked at him walking into the monument forest. Qin Mu looked back, and he still saw her standing there.

Youdu's Jade Lock Pass Encampment.

At this moment, thousands of soldiers and cavalry were arranged orderly. They had an austere aura, and they were all staring at the Hellfire Virtue Monuments in the monument forest.

After a moment, Qin Mu walked out of the monument forest. Among the very powerful soldiers, Left Soul Guardian Mo Qimi sprinted over and stopped far away. He hugged his fist and greeted.

Qin Mu stopped and returned his greeting. "I didn't bring my mother out, I didn't trouble Left Guardian."

Qin Mu shook his head.

Left Soul Guardian said loudly, "Outside Jade Lock Pass, it is all your enemies, countless gods and devils, countless big shots of Youdu! Some of them are from the celestial heavens, they possess corporeal bodies, divine weapons, and remarkable abilities. Some are primordial spirits that were on the Numinous Sky and Emperor's Throne when they were alive. They were omnipotent, and after they died, they were also overlords of their territories! Once you go out of this pass, it will be a bloodbath!"

Qin Mu bowed and said, "Many thanks for your guidance."

Left Soul Guardian revealed a smile and said meaningfully, "Earth Count takes care of you very well, and he also takes care of your mother very well. To repay his favor, do you know what you should do?"

Qin Mu said solemnly, "Justice is to be found everywhere, it doesn't bend to power, and it doesn't concern benefits. To not be afraid of death and uphold justice is the bravery of a gentleman!"

Left Soul Guardian said solemnly as he raised his hand, "Open the gates—"

The majestic gates of the incomparably thick Youdu Jade Lock Pass slowly creaked open.

"Righteous One Qin, please—"

Left Soul Guardian shouted, "Beat the drums! Blow the horns! Send the righteous one off!"

Thud, thud, thud!

The drumbeats were like thunder.

Duuuuu, duuuuu—

The bugle horns rang out loudly. Qin Mu walked out of the pass among the beating of the drums and blowing of the horns. Behind him, black monuments stood tall like forest and hellfire was everywhere.

Chapter 760: Slaughter Cauldron, Heavenly Net

Outside Youdu Jade Lock Pass, a tattered flag rustled as it fluttered in the cold wind. This flag was too old and seemed to have been used in battle before. On it were traces of divine arts and burn marks left behind by flames.

On the flag, there were even rust-like bloodstains.

The one holding this flag was a four-armed devil god that was three hundred yards tall. The four incomparably thick arms held onto the pole of the flag, and his gaze was sharp and firm. He stared relentlessly at the gate of Jade Lock Pass.

Whoosh.

The huge flag split apart from the fierce and cold winds. Long strips of cloth fluttered backward in the sinister wind.

Where the strips of cloth floated by, majestic gods stood neatly in ranks. There wore tattered armor on their bodies and held broken god weapons and devil god weapons in their hands. They all stood quietly behind the huge flag.

The number of gods was simply too much. They stretched all the way into the horizon.

And in the center of the army, there was an imperial canopy with several huge holes. The canopy covered an area of dozens of miles, and under the canopy was a pole that was as thick as a pillar. Beside it was the throne formed from coiling dragon bones.

The wind was too harsh.

The gigantic existence sitting on the throne shook his scarlet red cape to prevent it from getting blown away by the cold wind. His face was pale, and he coughed heavily a few times.

“After Red Deity got injured by Son of Youdu then, you still have yet to recover?” A woman with the head of a snake and the body of a human slithered over to him, but she spoke with a manly voice.

The expression of that Red Deity didn't look too good, and he said indifferently, “Red Deity? I'm already dead, I don't deserve the title of Red Deity. This current Red Deity is Qi Xiayu, that girl. Just call me Yan Qianzhong.”

Lu Li smiled tenderly. “During the end period of the High Emperor Era, Red Deity fought with Qi Xiayu, it was honorable even in defeat. Even though Red Deity died, Qi Xiayu also had no choice but to surrender...”

Yan Qianzhong was very unhappy. “Scram.”

“Understood.”

Lu Li was full of smiles, and she walked over to another camp. That army of gods with boundless soldiers wasn't the full military power that had come this time. They were merely the army of gods under Yan Qianzhong.

Yan Qianzhong was originally the Red Deity of the old celestial heavens. During the end of the High Emperor Era, the old celestial heavens wanted to wipe out the High Emperor Celestial Heavens. Red Deity Yan Qianzhong faced off Qi Xiayu, and even though both of these Emperor's Throne were incomparably powerful, Qi Xiayu was still a little more skilled, and she managed to kill Yan Qianzhong.

However, Qi Xiayu was also severely injured because of this and got seized by the old celestial heavens. She was forced to surrender and become the new Southern Heaven Red Deity.

This was the story that Lu Li had brought up earlier.

Yan Qianzhong was originally Red Deity, and after he died, he landed in Youdu to be a Ghost Deity. However, he was far from the world of sensual pleasures. After becoming a ghost, he had lost all of his senses. Whatever he ate had no taste, and he couldn't smell the fragrance of the flowers. Even though he was riding roughshod over people, he still had to take orders from the celestial heavens; therefore, he was naturally unhappy.

Lu Li reminding him of that made him even more unhappy.

Lu Li came to the camp beside his, and she saw an incomparably gigantic god standing over there. His body was like boulders. She said with a smile, "Crown Prince Jiuxi, Son of Mother Earth, how are your injuries recovering?"

"Over the years, I have swallowed countless souls and have finally recovered."

That Boulder Giant Yan Jiuxi grinned and said, "Today's battle, I will definitely take Son of Youdu's head!"

The gods under him were all half-gods, and it was obvious he was a half-god overlord during the Dragon Han Era!

Lu Li said with a smile, "Crown Prince Jiuxi, we aren't trying to kill Son of Youdu this time, we are just seizing his fate and seizing his corporeal body."

Yan Jiuxi snorted, and his voice boomed like thunder. "Lu Li, don't think I don't know what you are planning. Back then, when you invited all of the gods in Youdu to campaign against Son of Youdu, you ended up losing our people and even suffering heavy injuries. Later, you gathered our power to create the divine weapon called God Suppression Heavenly Web and said you wanted to seize Son of Youdu for us to deal with him. However, after creating God Suppression Heavenly Web, you delayed making your move. Your ambition is high, and you are thinking of becoming another Earth Count!"

Lu Li nodded her head and agreed with everything he said. "I never got a chance in the world of the living, and God Suppression Heavenly Web might not be able to get rid of him."

She came to another camp and said with a smile, "Goddess Xuan Wuji!"

Goddess Wuji took a glance at her and said insipidly, "There's no need to talk anymore. Son of Youdu and I have a deep grudge, we can't coexist under the same heaven. However, Lu Li, you aren't a good person either. If it wasn't you who couldn't defeat Son of Youdu and called my son to help, would my son have been eaten by him?"

Lu Li said righteously, "Son of Youdu's sins are overflowing, and he is the supreme evil in Youdu. As His Majesty's martial concubine, you are known for your methods of martial battle. Wiping out the celestial heavens until death puts an end. Lu Li is always respectful to you, so why would I purposely let His Highness send himself to death?"

She came to another camp and bowed. "Great Sun Sovereign."

That was the three souls primordial spirit of a natural-born sacred god. Ancient gods had no seven spirits, they only had three souls.

Great Sun Sovereign of the current celestial heavens was a strong practitioner of the High Emperor Era. Meanwhile, this primordial spirit in Youdu was the real Great Sun Sovereign.

Great Sun Sovereign was like a huge bird that stood on three legs. His feathers were smooth along his body and weren't messy at all. "Provincial Governor, don't worry, we won't let Son of Youdu escape in this battle."

"Great Sun Sovereign's speed is unmatched in this world, you definitely can make him run out of places to escape to."

Lu Li continued to walk forward and paid her respects to the big shots of Youdu. Some of the big shots even transformed their corporeal bodies into celestial palaces while they sat on the Emperor's Thrones in the celestial palaces, looking awe-inspiring and impressive.

These big shots were strong practitioners on Emperor's Throne Realm and Numinous Sky Realm that had died in the past million years. There were some half-gods that had died even earlier and had died from old age before the cultivation of divine treasures and celestial palaces had even come out.

However, their battle power was also astonishing high. Even though they had no realm, their cultivation was no weaker than the strong practitioners on Numinous Sky and Emperor's Throne Realm.

Lu Li paid her respects all the way down and met a hundred big shots before coming to her own camp.

In this camp, there were only a hundred Youdu devil gods left and a few thousand monsters.

Attacking Fengdu the previous time, Elder Messenger of Death suddenly slipped away and caused her to have to throw down her army to escape back to Youdu. The rest were mostly slaughtered.

Jue Huang, Xuan Ming, and Han Lei came up. These hundred devil gods and thousands of monsters were the entire military power of the four great provincial governors.

Xuan Ming was full of worries, and he frowned. "There were also so many strong practitioners the last time, didn't they all get slaughtered miserably by him? Could we seize him this time?"

Lu Li was full of confidence, and she smiled. "It's different this time, those big shots were all full of confidence the previous time, and they thought they could defeat him. Solo fights were more common, and no one really ganged up on him, so they all suffered a disadvantage. Son of Youdu fought and escape, so it made it easier for him to execute his moves."

She couldn't resist smiling and said, "Now, those old things are more shameless. As long as we are stationed here and block Youdu Jade Lock Pass, he won't be able to escape. With so many strong practitioners on Numinous Sky and Emperor's Throne, his life is no longer in his hands! Furthermore..."

She looked towards the camp, the center of the camp. Numerous devil gods and monsters were guarding a huge divine weapon.

The shape of that divine weapon was like a huge cauldron, and its walls were imprinted with all kinds of runes, forming images of earth, water, wind, fire, mountains, rivers, lakes, and seas. There were also images of half-gods, dragon-headed humans, phoenix-headed humans, tiger-headed humans, et cetera.

On the walls inside of the cauldron were the sun, moon, and stars, while on the bottom of the cauldron were countless seals.

Lu Li said with a smile, "This cauldron will be the treasure to refine him. When Earth Count reincarnated, he refined this Slaughter Cauldron. He killed countless ancient gods and half-gods back then and managed to refine the strongest devil god weapon in Youdu! Youdu Slaughter Cauldron can trap him, but the most crucial thing is still this."

She took out a squarish lid, and the lid was imprinted with all kinds of round heaven and square earth.

In the round heaven was Xuandu and in the square earth was Youdu.

"As long as we take the chance when Son of Youdu starts to fight them and absorb him into the Youdu Slaughter Cauldron, he will be helpless once we cover it with God Suppression Heavenly Net!"

Right at this moment, the gates of Jade Lock Pass opened, and sounds of horns blared out. It was followed by the beating of drums that reverberated in their chests.

Countless gazes turned to look at the open gate, and they saw a god with three heads and six arms walking down calmly.

"Son of Youdu!"

Gods and devils from the camps gave off noisy chatters, and the austere aura that was pressing down on everyone earlier had now turned into fear that was spreading among the gods.

Fear.

Once, no one had paid any attention to Son of Youdu, but after that fierce battle twenty-two years ago, fighting from the horns of nine bends to the battlefield behind them, way too many existences that were important had died. They got swallowed by Son of Youdu, and their souls were digested!

Son of Youdu had erased countless powerful beings from this world completely!

His viciousness made even the fiercest devil god not dare to mention his name even though he was exiled twenty-two years ago!

Qin Mu walked step by step out of the city gate. Behind him, the thick and heavy gates of Jade Lock Pass slowly closed. Suddenly, his gaze looked into the camp, and he saw a god that looked like a tree man.

Qin Mu was stunned and the door shut with a rumble. Air currently rushed out.

“Brother, I seem to have seen father,” he said softly.

“Father?”

The big-headed baby beside his neck was still sulking, and he snorted. “Father must like you more, right? If father sees me and then he sees you, he will definitely hug and kiss you, he won’t kiss me. Father, you are so biased.”

Qin Mu burst into laughter, and he looked at the god formation in front. It was boundless and without end. Only tattered flags and ships could still be seen in the sky.

“Big brother, that divine art that you call ah ah ah, how do you execute it?” he asked with a smile.

The big-headed baby crossed his arms in front of him and sneered. “What ah ah ah?”

Qin Mu pondered for a moment and said, “It should be sss sss sss, like sucking in air to suck the souls and primordial spirits over, the divine art for swallowing. I saw tens of thousands of gods having only their shell left in one of Youdu’s celestial palaces, their primordial spirits must have been eaten by you.”

“You meant that?”

The big baby said with a smile, “You are so dumb, you can just suck in your breath.”

Qin Mu was stunned, and he cried out, “I can just suck in my breath? Have you never thought about the reason behind it? What paths do you use when you suck in a breath? What are the basic runes you use?”

The big-headed baby was in a daze.

Qin Mu sighed and said solemnly, “Big brother, your qualities are simply too good, as a result, raising your hands and legs is equivalent to divine arts. I’m inferior to you, so I have to figure out and comprehend any divine art. Thus, I like to figure out the reasons, figure out the paths, skills, and divine arts used, and also the basic runes. Youdu’s divine arts and the law of the Great Dao all lie in Youdu’s writing. You only know how to use, but don’t know the reason why.”

He walked forward, and his body grew taller and larger. He gave Qin Fengqing two arms to control while he controlled the other four arms.

He stretched his four arms out as though he was trying to hug heaven and earth. He said with a smile, "Big brother, take a look at the Youdu's divine arts I've comprehended."

On the most primitive land under Earth Count's feet, the thickest and darkest devil qi poured forward to him furiously. Flashes of lightning and peals of thunder could be seen and heard from the moving darkness.

"Die!"

An angry roar that was like the rumble of thunder came from a camp on the opposite side, and the primordial spirits of countless gods instantly flooded out with weapons in their hands. Countless divine arts lit up Jade Lock Pass, and after the light from the divine arts, it was countless divine weapons that still preserved their powers even though they were broken!

The big-headed baby became excited and was about to make his move when Qin Mu turned around. The mouth of his first face opened up, and the mysterious Youdu god language came from his mouth.

Whoosh—

Countless gods that were sprinting over suddenly started to roll like snow-white ocean sprays. The things that were rolling on the ground were actually countless snow-white skeletons. These gods that were already dead had also moved their corpses to Youdu, and their primordial spirit would reside in the corpse. Yet at this moment, the bodies of countless gods were rotting at an astonishing speed!

Because they were rushing, the skeletons just tumbled forward, and as a result, they formed a wave of white bones that stretched for several thousand miles.

Qin Mu's other face turned around, and he took in a deep breath. The previous face was still chanting, and countless primordial spirits from the white skeletons came flying back. Countless divine arts, god weapons, and devil god weapons lost control and kept exploding in midair. The broken weapons flew and landed down in all directions.

Those primordial spirits were in the tens of thousands, and they came pouring over without any control!

Qin Mu turned around. "Big brother, it's your turn!"

The big-headed baby was ineffably excited. He opened his mouth wide like a whale and completely swallowed tens of thousands of primordial spirits from gods!

Qin Mu turned around once again and raised his palm. Countless god weapons and devil god weapons froze in the sky.

He took a step forward, and the countless weapons in the sky also followed him to pressure the other side.
