

Tales of Herding Gods Chapter 767-770

Chapter 767: Old Schemer, Young Schemer

Lu Li and the rest looked at Son of Heaven Yin, and they gritted their teeth. However, they couldn't do anything.

"Old Schemer!"

They were only the governors that the celestial heavens had sent to be stationed in Youdu, whereas Son of Heaven Yin was a governor of the celestial heavens. He controlled Mingdu and was a strong practitioner on Emperor's Throne.

In terms of abilities, they, as the four provincial governors, couldn't wait to flatter him, much less have a falling out with him.

They had planned painstakingly and mobilized god knows how many big shots of Youdu to finally seize this Son of Youdu and refine him in the Slaughter Cauldron. Now Son of Heaven Yin had suddenly appeared and killed all of the Youdu big shots in two moves, he was just going to pluck the fruits of their labor without any effort at all!

Those Youdu big shots could be considered the direct line of descent from the four of them, and now, they were all uprooted.

Youdu big shots were usually the power of the celestial heavens, and they would land into Youdu after their deaths, becoming the subordinates of the four great provincial governors.

Even though they were on Emperor's Throne and Numinous Sky Realm, they were full of flaws after their deaths, and they had to rely on the four great provincial governors in order to survive. Youdu was still Earth Count's territory, after all, and other than them, there were also strong practitioners on Emperor's Throne and Numinous Sky from the enemy forces that had landed here after they died as well.

If they didn't want to be killed by these strong practitioners, they would have to submit to these four great provincial governors, borrowing the power of the celestial heavens to continue living in Youdu.

Thus, they were also very willing to be ordered around by the four great provincial governors. This was the situation when one gains glory, everyone gains glory, and when one suffers defeat, everyone suffers defeat. Therefore, they had all come gladly when Lu Li mobilized them to fight Son of Youdu.

When they huddled together, they could even fight Mingdu Son of Heaven Yin.

The power of the celestial heavens in Youdu and Mingdu had a rivalry, and this concerned huge benefits. No matter if it was Son of Heaven Yin or Lu Li and the rest, they all wanted to climb over the other.

Other than to create another Mingdu and restrain Earth Count, the reason why the celestial heavens wanted to station provincial governors in Youdu was because they were worried that Son of Heaven Yin would grow too big. They needed Lu Li and the rest to suppress Son of Heaven Yin.

That was why the celestial heavens was very willing to see Youdu and Mingdu fight each other.

And now, this kind of mutual holding back would end because after this battle, countless big shots of Youdu were dead and only the four great provincial governors would be left. When Son of Heaven Yin received Son of Youdu, he would be another Earth Count!

To bribe him to deal with Earth Count, the celestial heavens would definitely give him even more benefits. Lu Li and the rest could be said to have been completely defeated.

‘As expected of the old schemer that has lived from the Dragon Han Era until now. Rumors say that Son of Heaven Yin has never suffered any losses before!’

Lu Li and the rest were bleeding from their hearts.

Right at this moment, Son of Heaven Yin finally opened up the Slaughter Cauldron, and the Heavenly Net was grabbed up by him. Hissing sounds from leaking air came from inside as black-colored gas spewed out from the cauldron.

Lu Li and the rest felt nervous. The Slaughter Cauldron was an important treasure handed to them by the celestial heavens. Son of Heaven Yin still couldn’t move. If they activated this huge cauldron, could they refine Son of Heaven Yin to death?

However, there was also hesitation in their hearts. The crime of killing Son of Heaven Yin was no small matter. If the celestial heavens pursued this matter, the four of them might even die along with Son of Heaven Yin!

Suddenly, Lu Li saw the other hand of Son of Heaven Yin clutching a strange mudra skill. He clutched his middle finger, index finger, and ring finger into a fist while sticking up his thumb and his pinky finger.

The four of them felt apprehensive. That ghostly light that killed Yan Qianzhong and the rest appeared again to surround the four of them.

It was obvious that Son of Heaven Yin was long prepared. As long as they dared to activate the Slaughter Cauldron, they would definitely die under this strange divine weapon from Son of Heaven Yin before they could even kill him!

The four of them stared at that ghostly light and didn’t dare to move.

Son of Heaven Yin grabbed the Heavenly Net in his hands and stretched his head out to look at the cauldron. He said with a smile, “The power of Son of Youdu...”

A finger suddenly appeared from nowhere and tapped on the heart of Son of Heaven Yin’s brows right as he stretched his head to look into the cauldron.

“First form of Calamity Sword!”

Son of Heaven Yin was astonished. Lu Li and the rest were equally astonished. The power of Calamity Sword that was contained in that finger burst forth.

Son of Heaven Yin only felt his head being swept by a sword light. The snow-white sword light instantly pierced through his seven great divine treasures and rushed straight into the Southern Heavenly Gate along the divine bridge!

That sword light destroyed everything in the way and rushed forward along the ground of his celestial heavens. It passed by the Jade Pavilion and the Jade Pool, and it exploded the water surface of the Jade Pool. The water of the Jade Pool transformed into astonishing waves and rushed thirty thousand yards into the sky.

The sword light pierced through the God Execution Stage and stabbed into Jade Capital City. The city gate of Jade Capital City shattered under the sword light, and huge halls came crumbling down!

The sword light went straight for the Numinous Sky Hall!

Hmmm—

The snow-white light expanded in an instant and transformed to be incomparably thick. It rushed into the doors of the Numinous Sky Hall and went straight for the primordial spirit of Son of Heaven Yin that was on the Emperor’s Throne!

This sword might look slow, but it was actually extremely fast. Before Son of Heaven Yin’s primordial spirit could even react, the sword light was already pressing in on his eyelashes!

In his celestial palace, a world-shaking bang rang out. Terrifying waves swept in all directions with the Numinous Sky Hall being the center of impact. The palaces in Jade Capital City trembled, and one of the city gates in the four directions had been destroyed. The other three city gates got thrown into midair and landed somewhere.

That impact had overturned the Jade Pool and threw all of the water into the sky. The four heavenly gates from north, south, east, and west surged and rumbled while air currents burst forth like snow-white rings from the celestial palace at the center. The seven great divine treasures were also impacted, which resulted in mountains and rivers crumbling, the sun and moon being blown away, and the stars and constellations being messed up.

This was the sight in Son of Heaven Yin’s head, but to Lu Li and the rest outside, Son of Heaven Yin was stunned for a moment when this finger tapped on the heart of his brows.

Next, an arrow of blood spurted out from the back of his head.

The arrow of blood wasn’t long, and it flew six yards away.

Son of Heaven Yin hurriedly retreated, and he saw a three-headed and six-armed god jumping out of the cauldron. He spun his body furiously and transformed into a thousand-armed buddha. With endless sounds of beating, that spinning god landed countless fists on Son of Heaven Yin!

Son of Heaven Yin got struck high up into the sky, and sounds of bones breaking came from his body.

That three-headed and six-armed god was still spinning and getting closer to Son of Heaven Yin.

Every time he spun one-third a rotation, he would raise his arms up high. The vital qi flocked to his hand and transformed into long knives. When he spun one-third a rotation, the long knives would slash down in the wind!

He spun rapidly and he also moved quickly. Lu Li could only see knife light slicing down one after another like it was honed to perfection. Jade Lock Pass was lit up as the knife lights seemed to be connected with one another, merging into one!

The knife lights seemed to slice on the forehead of Son of Heaven Yin at literally the same time!

Lu Li and the rest could only see the wound on Son of Heaven Yin's forehead widening and becoming longer. She felt fear, and Xuan Ming cried out, "Son of Youdu isn't dead!"

"Son of Heaven Yin's head is about to be split apart!" Han Lei cried out.

Lu Li cried out, "Run—"

Jue Huang said, "There's also the Slaughter Cauldron and Heavenly Net!"

The four provincial governors hesitated for a moment, and when they turned their heads to look at the Slaughter Cauldron, they saw Qin Mu rushing out from the cauldron and going straight for Son of Heaven Yin. That Slaughter Cauldron actually followed him closely and ignored the four provincial governors.

After the four of them took on the responsibility of being the provincial governors of Youdu, they had been offering sacrifices to this cauldron day and night. They had even used their own blood to feed the Slaughter Cauldron, and only then were they able to refine the Slaughter Cauldron to their will. Only then was the Slaughter Cauldron able to change its size and refine all lives.

Yet now, the Slaughter Cauldron actually seemed to have rebelled and abandoned them, following Son of Youdu!

"Leave the cauldron!"

Lu Li cried out, "Leave this place immediately! If Son of Youdu kills Son of Heaven Yin, the next one he will kill is us!"

The four of them hurriedly escaped, and Jue Huang hurriedly said, "The Heavenly Net is still in Son of Heaven Yin's hands!"

“Leave it!”

Lu Li’s snake tail slithered, and she said flusteredly and exasperatedly, “Give them to the one with the surname Yin as burial gifts! Let us quickly leave this place and get as far away as possible!”

Xuan Ming chased after her and said, “Senior sister, can we still stay in Youdu? No matter if Son of Youdu can kill Son of Heaven Yin or not, he will remain in Youdu to locate us. Let us escape out of Youdu and return back to the celestial heavens to find reinforcements!”

Jue Huang and Han Lei nodded his head.

Lu Li said exasperatedly, “Now that we lost Youdu, we will only be escorted to the God Execution Stage to be executed when we return back to the celestial heavens, only an idiot would return back to the celestial heavens!”

The three provincial governors felt fear.

Lu Li said, “Earth Count won’t tolerate Son of Youdu messing around, so he won’t completely fall out with the celestial heavens. He will definitely exile Son of Youdu, so we can still survive by hiding in Youdu. Going to the celestial heavens is sending ourselves to death. We can’t report this to the celestial heavens, or we will all have to get beheaded on the God Execution Stage!”

The three provincial governors nodded their heads repeatedly.

Lu Li turned back to look and saw that ghostly light of Son of Heaven Yin chasing after Son of Youdu. It was obvious Son of Heaven Yin had already sobered up from being disoriented.

Emperor’s Throne was Emperor’s Throne after all. Anyone that could cultivate to Emperor’s Throne Realm was no ordinary person. They wouldn’t be killed that easily.

Moreover, Son of Heaven Yin was an old monster that had lived for a million years, he was an old schemer. Even though Qin Mu had schemed him, it was still a long distance away from claiming his life.

At the same time, that Mingdu Heavenly Gate was also spewing the sea of the netherworld out. The sea poured out grandiosely from Mingdu, and it looked like Son of Heaven Yin was really furious. He was planning to fight Son of Youdu and see who was better!

“Maybe we can take advantage and take the chance when both sides are injured to...”

Lu Li slowed her speed. She was about to stop and watch when the Slaughter Cauldron that was following behind Qin Mu flew forward. The devil qi in the cauldron poured out and swept the sea of the netherworld, swallowing up more than half of the sea in an instant!

Even that ghostly light that was flying towards Qin Mu got pulled in by the Slaughter Cauldron. It moved towards the inside of the cauldron involuntarily.

Lu Li felt her blood running cold, and she instantly increased her speed to escape again.

Behind them, violent waves swept over and threw the four great provincial governors high up into the air. The four of them quickly used this momentum to escape even faster.

Lu Li turned her head back again to see countless fists, palms, and fingers with the size of mountains appearing in front of Jade Lock Pass. They suddenly transformed into one move to bombard ruthlessly on Son of Heaven Yin's body.

Son of Heaven Yin got blown backward, and he crashed into Mingdu Heavenly Gate. He escaped from Youdu.

Meanwhile, that ghostly light from Son of Heaven Yin sought to survive, so it took the initiative to break off half of its body. The other half broke free from the Slaughter Cauldron and escaped back into Mingdu with Son of Heaven Yin.

That three-headed and six-armed god grabbed the door frame of Mingdu Heavenly Gate and tried to squeeze into Mingdu. He was truly ferocious.

"Good boy!"

Lu Li heard the loud and clear voice of a baby. "Stop hiding, come out quickly."

Boom—

Another terrifying pulse swept over, and Son of Youdu tumbled backward from the impact.

Meanwhile, Mingdu Heavenly Gate also became tattered from the grip of his six arms. The gate sank to the ground and vanished.

"Son of Heaven Yin's Mingdu Heavenly Gate doesn't seem to have the power in the legends, it doesn't seem as strong as it was in the legends."

Lu Li was slightly stunned. Son of Heaven Yin's Mingdu Heavenly Gate contained the power of creation, and it was extremely powerful. It could allow Son of Heaven Yin to revive after death and even transform and reincarnate. It was marvelous and mysterious.

This Mingdu Heavenly Gate seemed to only be an imitation that totally didn't have the power of an Emperor's Throne's supreme treasure.

She didn't know that Son of Heaven Yin's Mingdu Heavenly Gate got snatched by Di Yiyue and this current gate was merely a Mingdu Heavenly Gate that was reforged. It wasn't finished so it couldn't be compared to the previous one.

Just as she thought until here, she saw Son of Youdu crawling up and pouncing at where the gate had vanished. He smashed around, but he couldn't find Son of Heaven Yin. His three heads began to look around.

Lu Li was terrified. The four of them hurriedly stuck close to the land on Earth Count's body, and they concealed their bodies while whining secretly.

Hmmm—

His snow-white gaze was like a pillar of light as it swept by where they were at. The four provincial governors were extremely terrified. They used Youdu devil qi to hide their bodies and secretly escaped.

Rumble.

A gigantic three-headed and six-armed god landed on the ground and smashed until the ground trembled non-stop. Nine pillars of light swept in all directions and sliced apart the dim Youdu devil qi to look for their location.

"I need to see blood, these four provincial governors can't be forgiven!" Qin Mu's voice rang out.

The four provincial governors escaped in a panic, and they didn't dare to make a sound.

"Great Overarching Heavenly Stars!"

Suddenly, Qin Mu's voice rang out once more, and the four provincial governors raised their heads. They saw the sky full of stars, which shone brilliantly in all directions, turning the ground snow-white.

"Jump into the magma river of Earth Count!"

The four of them hurriedly jumped into the magma river, and just as they landed into the magma river, they saw a huge shadow flying past in the sky. That was a terrifying devil god that was borrowing starlight to search for their location.

Chapter 768: The Secret of Great Sun Sovereign

Qin Mu was like a devil king that was flying in the night sky. He surveyed his surroundings and searched for a long time, but he could never find the location of Lu Li and the rest. If he wanted to search everywhere, he would even have to take one to two years; moreover, Lu Li and the rest wouldn't wait at the same spot for him to come.

"Brother, I'm tired, I'm going back."

Qin Fengqing's interest died out, and he stopped moving after he said that.

Qin Mu was stunned. He instantly felt his strength fading furiously. Qin Fengqing had actually returned back to Qin word land and entered the seal on his own accord.

When Qin Fengqing returned to the seal, that Slaughter Cauldron also entered the heart of his brows and came to Qin word land along with Qin Fengqing!

Qin Mu immediately stopped searching for Lu Li and the rest. Without Qin Fengqing's power, he was still that divine arts practitioner on the Celestial Being Realm, so wouldn't he just be seeking death to look for Lu Li?

What made him felt strange was Qin Fengqing clearly disliked being sealed, so why did he take the initiative to enter the seal this time and even did so willingly?

He didn't use the willow leaf to seal his third eye. A strand of undying god consciousness flew into Qin word land, and he saw that huge baby counting the body parts of those strong practitioners he had hidden in the land excitedly. He was counting them systematically.

Qin Mu didn't know whether to laugh or cry. It was obvious Qin Fengqing had something to eat and that being sealed was a small matter. He was definitely unable to find such 'food that was rich with nutrients' outside.

'Glutton.'

Qin Mu couldn't help shaking his head. Returning to Youdu Jade Lock Pass this time, he was going to retrieve his paper boat. Without Qin Fengqing's help this time, he would probably have to spend over a dozen years to return back to the eye of Earth Count. Therefore, retrieving the boat would save him this amount of time.

He looked at Earth Count's Slaughter Cauldron. That cauldron was actually still following Qin Fengqing. Qin Fengqing was excited at having food, so he paid no attention to this cauldron.

'This cauldron swallowed half of the netherworld sea, and the sea is formed from the black soul sand. Son of Heaven Yin spent god knows how much effort just to create the sea to such a scale, and now his efforts have become futile.'

Qin Mu remembered the other half of the ghostly light which the Slaughter Cauldron had swallowed, and it was also a treasure Son of Heaven Yin had created, so it should be extraordinary as well. However, this Slaughter Cauldron had landed with Qin Fengqing, and it seemed to recognize Qin Fengqing and not Qin Mu as Earth Count.

'In that case, those faces in the cauldron shouldn't be calling me Ah Chou, they should be calling big brother Ah Chou...'

Just as he thought until here, the devil qi in the huge cauldron poured out, and the devil qi shrouded Qin Fengqing like darkness.

A face appeared in the devil qi, and it looked straight at the big-headed baby while speaking with a strange tone. "Ah Chou."

Qin Fengqing took a glance at this face and shook his head. "My little brother isn't here. Where have I counted to?"

"Ah Chou," said that face again.

“Little brother is not here! Annoying!” Qin Fengqing said angrily.

More and more faces appeared in the devil qi from the cauldron and called out to him. “Ah Chou.”

Qin Fengqing was furious, and he shouted, “I already said little brother is... Wait a minute, are you calling me?”

Those faces revealed smiles and nodded slowly. “Ah Chou.”

“I’m not ugly, little brother is ugly,” said Qin Fengqing.

Qin Mu heard this and sneered. “Having no self-knowledge as the big brother, I knew these faces weren’t calling me.”

The white-bearded elder that was transformed from Earth Count came out from nowhere and said, “Those faces are also calling you. Little fellow, your consciousness is also here too.”

He stretched a finger, and that strand of Qin Mu’s consciousness landed down involuntarily and transformed back into his original form.

Qin Mu looked around and saw Crimson Emperor’s consciousness hiding in Qin word land with a bird-headed god. They were currently looking over.

“That bird god looks slightly familiar...”

Qin Mu was slightly stunned, and he was in a daze. “I seem to have seen him in the Dragon Han Celestial Heavens, he seems to be that Great Sun Sovereign that got beaten up by Senior Brother Niu Sanduo...”

The clone of Heaven Duke said, “He is none other than Great Sun Sovereign, he has been dead for a long time. Little bird, Dao Friend Crimson Emperor, come over here. He has food now, so he won’t eat you!”

Crimson Emperor’s consciousness walked over, but Great Sun Sovereign still didn’t dare to come out. Qin Mu said with a smile, “Sun Sovereign, don’t worry, your speed is unrivaled in this world, my brother won’t be able to catch you.”

The big-headed baby threw Great Sun Sovereign a glance and said, “I can catch him, I just have to grab his wings, and he has no way left to run.”

Great Sun Sovereign hesitated for a moment and carefully walked out. He gave off a pose as though he was ready to escape anytime. “My wings got caught because I was careless for a second. If I’m ready, no one can catch me.”

Qin Mu asked, “How did Sun Sovereign die?”

Heaven Duke sneered and said, “Death from stupidity, he knows too much and talks too much, he killed himself with his own stupidity.”

Qin Mu was instantly interested and grew curious. "What does Great Sun Sovereign know? Why would you die because you know too much? Can Sun Sovereign elaborate on this?"

Great Sun Sovereign snorted and said, "I died because I talked too much. If I tell you, won't my soul die once more?"

Qin Mu said nicely, "Sun Sovereign, if you don't speak, your soul will definitely die once more, in the stomach of my big brother."

Great Sun Sovereign hesitated for a moment, and he looked towards Heaven Duke and Crimson Emperor. The white-bearded elder coughed repeatedly while Crimson Emperor raised his head to look at the sky.

"Heaven Duke..."

"Don't look at me, I'm also curious about how you died."

Heaven Duke shook his head and said, "During the middle period of the Dragon Han Era, the celestial heavens was covered by a net, so I couldn't see anything there. You are the head of the stars, and you control most of the gods in the celestial heavens, your understanding of the celestial heavens is even higher than mine. Even now, I still can't see anything in the celestial heavens."

Great Sun Sovereign hesitated, and he took a glance at the big-headed baby that was still counting. He braced himself and said, "I also don't know which secret caused my death, but I was killed by an arrow in my back during the battle to attack the celestial heavens that Celestial Venerable Yun established. I was in the vanguard, and I don't know who shot an arrow in my back. Next thing I knew, I was dead."

Everyone was silent.

Qin Mu coughed and said, "Sun Sovereign, in that case, which incident do you know that may have been the cause of your death?"

Great Sun Sovereign pondered and said, "It surely isn't the incident regarding Celestial Venerable Yu's death. Even though Celestial Venerable Yu's death created quite a huge commotion, and there are many rumors, I only said a few words, while everyone also said a few words. It shouldn't be the incident regarding the crown prince of the east palace. Even though I knew many pieces of inside information about Crown Prince Wuzhi's rebellion, I didn't tell many people about it. Could be the incident regarding the assassination of Celestial Empress? Or is it the tremendous change in the Jade Pool? Or was it Earth Count's massacre? It might be Earth Count's massacre, I know a lot of inside information. But it could also be about the time travel of the Feather Forest Guards. That's right, there's also the incident regarding Heaven Duke's reincarnation. There are also a lot of shenanigans about Heaven Duke's reincarnation..."

Qin Mu was dumbfounded. So many incidents actually happened in the Dragon Han Celestial Heavens?

When he had time travel to the first year of Dragon Han, he didn't stop for long. He didn't expect so many interesting things to have happened afterwards!

He wanted to listen to every incident Great Sun Sovereign had mentioned and get to the bottom of the story.

“Why doesn’t Great Sun Sovereign explain each incident to us clearly?”

His eyes sparkled. “Tell us one by one! Also, you should know who the current celestial emperor of the celestial heavens is, right?”

Great Sun Sovereign hesitated for a moment, and he took a glance at Heaven Duke. “About this, Heaven Duke’s reincarnation is involved as well, so I don’t really dare to say. Moreover, I died early, so I don’t know which side won...”

The clone of Heaven Duke gave a cough and said, “Little Boy Qin, Great Sun Sovereign knew too much and thus died. If you know too much, you will also die very quickly. You can go out now, Earth Count still wants to see you.”

He swept his sleeve, and the strand of Qin Mu’s consciousness got sent out. He could faintly hear Heaven Duke’s voice. “From today onwards, if he asks you about my reincarnation, if you dare to say, I won’t kill you, I will just torture you a little, torture until you beg for death. Now, tell me about the incident of the crown prince of the east palace...”

Qin Mu snorted and felt rather unhappy. ‘At most I don’t ask about Heaven Duke’s reincarnation, why did he have to chase me out?’

He came to the gates of Jade Lock Pass, and at this moment, there were two devil gods standing in front of the gate. When they saw him coming over, both of them shuddered and turned to flee.

Qin Mu hurriedly said, “Dao brothers, please stay! I’m not here to eat people, I’m just here to retrieve my boat! My paper boat is in the pass, please don’t close the gate.”

“Are you really not going to eat us?” That two devil gods opened a small gap in the gate and shivered as they hid behind the gate.

Qin Mu said with a smile, “When have I eaten anybody? Let me take this boat and go.”

Those two devil gods hurriedly slipped away. Qin Mu came to the city gate and saw a gap left behind.

When he came into the pass, he retrieved the paper boat he had docked beside the city gate. Looking towards the camp, he saw numerous gods lined up in ranks, and they waited in silence. They were afraid of him starting another massacre.

However, these gods were shivering, and their legs were wobbling. They didn’t have much of a strong aura.

Looking past the camp, Qin Mu didn’t see the tree man that was transformed from his father, Qin Hanzhen. He felt dejected.

“Farewell!” He bowed to the ground at the camp and didn’t rise after a long time.

The god army was stunned. Countless gods hurriedly returned his greeting, and they thought to themselves, "Son of Youdu is bowing to us? Is a sun going to rise in Youdu?"

Qin Mu got up and looked at the monument forest before turning around to leave.

His father and mother were here, and he suddenly felt at ease. He could finally put his long drifting heart down.

He walked out of the pass and sat on the bow of the small boat. The small boat floated up and floated over to the eye of Earth Count.

After a long time, that small boat came to the eye of Earth Count and sailed into the huge eye of light. The boat landed in front of the sacred hall.

Elder Messenger of Death didn't wait for him to come down the boat and began to scold him fiercely, "Celestial Venerable Mu, you are trouble! You stole my ship, barged into Jade Lock Pass, and killed so many gods..."

Qin Mu said, "I know I'm wrong. I'll bring Celestial Venerable Yu along with me."

Elder Messenger of Death was stunned. The script that he had prepared was suddenly useless, and it felt as stifling as landing a punch in the air.

Hellfire Earth Count walked out of the sacred hall and stood in front of the sacred hall. "He is a smart person, he knows what's happening."

Qin Mu said firmly, "Even though I'm dumb, I also know your intention just by hearing a little information. Earth Count let me go visit my mother and borrowed my hands to clean Youdu of the celestial heavens' power. He will then use my mistakes to make me bring Celestial Venerable Yu away, putting the blame on me one after another. Earth Count, don't worry, I won't reject any of these!"

Hellfire Earth Count looked at him, and the hellfire in his three eyes wavered. "It's hard on you. Your parents will live well here."

Qin Mu's heart trembled slightly.

Earth Count pushed Celestial Venerable Yu to him and said, "You can go now. After killing so many big shots of Youdu, it's not good for you to stay here for long. Official Sovereign, send him out."

Qin Mu blinked his eyes and suddenly smiled. "Earth Count, aren't you curious who is being suppressed in the Qin word land in the heart of my brows?"

In Qin word land, the expression of Heaven Duke changed drastically, and he was furious. "Little rascal, he's throwing my face away! This is bad, I'm going to be embarrassed in front of Earth Count!"

Chapter 769: Dragon Han Overlord Body

Earth Count looked at the heart of his brows and said, "Of course it's Son of Youdu that's in the heart of your brows, how would I not know when I'm the one who suppressed him personally. On this willow leaf, there is also the seal of Heaven Duke. You have met Heaven Duke, and he has helped you reseal Son of Youdu, am I right? However, what was weird was how you managed to control the strength of Son of Youdu..."

He originally didn't think about it in detail, but after thinking about it, it was quite an inconceivable thing for Qin Mu to be able to mobilize the power of Son of Youdu.

In Earth Count's eyes, Qin Mu would be assimilated by Son of Youdu sooner or later, and in the battle of Jade Lock Pass earlier, Qin Mu was able to release Son of Youdu's power and even reseal this power. This was indeed suspicious.

Qin Mu said with a smile, "Someone is naturally helping me."

Earth Count muttered to himself and said, "Let me go in and take a look to see which Dao friend it is."

He stood there without moving, and in Qin word land, lava suddenly started boiling from the ground and transforming into a lake of lava. The lava in the lake swirled, and a pair of horns of nine bends rose up from the lake. Next, it was the huge body of Lava Earth Count.

Lava Earth Count stopped swirling, and his huge body walked out of the lava lake. Lava flowed down continuously from Earth Count's body, igniting the ground.

The big-headed baby was currently stuffing his head into the Slaughter Cauldron to see if there was anything inside the cauldron. On the other hand, Crimson Emperor was beside Great Sun Sovereign, listening to him with keen interest. Meanwhile, Heaven Duke was hiding behind a mountain.

Lava Earth Count looked around, and he was astonished. He blinked his three eyes.

Qin word land was made from a land of darkness in his horn, which he had refined into a seal. He transformed it into a jade pendant. Afterward, Qin Fengqing tried to escape a few times, so he had no choice but to strengthen the seal, smacking this jade pendant into Qin Mu's third eye.

Even though the seal was created by him, he didn't expect this land would actually become so lively.

He raised his head to look at the sky, and three different styles of seal appeared among the markings in the sky. One was his Youdu seal, and one was the Buddhism seal from Brahma Buddha. There was also another one that was Xuandu seal.

"Brahma Buddha."

Earth Count looked at that buddha in the sky, and he nodded his head. Qin Mu had gone to the twenty heavens of Buddha Realm once, and his devil nature had lost control. He transformed half of Brahma Heaven into Youdu.

It was no surprise that there was Brahma Buddha's seal here.

He then looked at Great Sun Sovereign, and his gaze moved away from Great Sun Sovereign's body.

Great Sun Sovereign was long dead, and he must have just been seized here.

"Crimson Emperor."

His gaze landed on Crimson Emperor. "Crimson Emperor of the Crimson Light Era has found a small, deformed universe which avoided the light of Xuandu and the jurisdiction of Youdu. Even I can't find where Crimson Emperor is buried at. Never would I expect to see a Dao friend from the past here."

The consciousness of Crimson Emperor hurriedly greeted and said, "Dao brother, I used my body to mend that small, deformed universe and made it into the final resting place of my people. My soul has already scattered and died."

Lava Earth Count said, "When you used Undying God Consciousness to inform Light Emperor, I sensed the motion from your Undying God Consciousness."

He turned his head to look at Qin Fengqing, who pulled his head out from the Slaughter Cauldron. The big baby hid behind the cauldron and stuck his head out to look at him. He was like a cat preparing to pounce on its prey as he rubbed his hands nervously.

Lava Earth Count didn't pay him any attention and looked at the mountain of Qin word land. "Why does Xuandu Dao brother need to hide? I see you."

The white-bearded elder walked out from the back of the mountain and laughed. "Youdu Dao brother, I've been waiting for your arrival, you have indeed come! Now, this land can be said to have gathered the experts of the heaven and the earth!"

Lava Earth Count looked at him and never said a word.

Heaven Duke had a calm expression and looked as though he was an otherworldly sage that was very mysterious.

After a long time, Lava Earth Count's face gradually revealed a smile, and his smile widened more and more. This god that controlled Youdu finally couldn't help laughing. He laughed until he couldn't breathe, and his hands were on his knees.

Heaven Duke's face was black, and he asked coldly, "Have you laughed enough?"

Earth Count's laugh gradually lowered. He took another glance at him and couldn't help laughing again.

Right at this moment, the big-headed baby behind the cauldron rubbed his hands and feet before jumping up like a cat. He pounced onto Earth Count's back and said, "I caught you! Once I eat you, I can be Earth Count!"

Lava Earth Count hurriedly shook his body and tried to shake him off, but he couldn't shake him off no matter what. He was alarmed and hurriedly circulated his magic power. The land under him instantly melted and turned into lava.

Lava Earth Count sank down, but the big baby was still on his body, chewing on his head.

Lava Earth Count sank into the lava lake, but he realized he couldn't return to Youdu no matter what and got a little flustered. He had no choice but to rise from the ground, and he looked up at the sky.

Heaven Duke couldn't resist sighing and said, "Don't think about it, the willow leaf has been covered, we can only escape if we break the seal."

"It's not tasty."

That big-headed baby chopped Lava Earth Count into pieces and lost interest in him. He ran over to study the netherworld sea in the Slaughter Cauldron.

Earth Count pieced his body back together and stood up. "We can also escape by taking off the willow leaf from outside."

Heaven Duke was delighted and hurried him. "In that case, you can take it off!"

Lava Earth Count was silent.

Heaven Duke looked at him in doubt. Earth Count didn't say a word. After a long while, he finally said, "Dao friend, don't keep staring at me."

The clone of Heaven Duke hurried him. "Why aren't you taking the willow leaf off?"

Lava Earth Count was silent again before saying, "He has taken Official Sovereign's paper boat and reached the world of the living already."

The clone of Heaven Duke was dumbfounded, and he let out a shaky breath after a moment. "You have been tricked by that little brat. But it's fine, we can live well over here as well. Furthermore, there's also a lot of secrets we can listen to here. Other than being beaten up by that big-headed brat when he's angry, it's not so bad after all."

Lava Earth Count continued to stare at him. "You have many chances to leave. As long as he takes down the willow leaf, you can escape, so why do you keep staying here?"

Heaven Duke was silent.

"Xuandu isn't interesting."

He said, "The gods in Xuandu are basically the powers of the celestial heavens. My situation is much more miserable than yours. Therefore, I like it here better than Xuandu. Little bird, you were just talking about Celestial Empress' assassination, you haven't finished yet. Let us continue!"

Great Sun Sovereign looked at Earth Count before taking a glance at the big-headed baby. Heaven Duke smiled and said, "Now with Earth Count, we can be more daring. If Son of Youdu dares to eat you, we can work together and suppress him!"

Great Sun Sovereign was overjoyed.

Suddenly, they heard the sounds of wind coming over. Qin Fengqing was currently activating that Slaughter Cauldron and the dangerous might in the cauldron spread out. The sky nearly split apart while the mountains far away also became limp. They were almost destroyed by the dangerous might of the Slaughter Cauldron.

The buddha in the sky also got swayed from the dangerous might of the Slaughter Cauldron.

Everyone's faces turned white, and they all had a bad feeling.

"Son of Youdu is still growing. He will probably have the power of an Emperor's Throne soon, and he can even activate the dangerous might of the Slaughter Cauldron!"

Eternal Peace.

Qin Mu brought Celestial Venerable Yu to jump off the paper boat. He saw that it was already night in Eternal Peace. The city far away was lit up by lanterns.

"Celestial Venerable You, just send me up to here," said Qin Mu.

Elder Messenger of Death took a look at him and said, "I must record you scheming against Earth Count in your small booklet."

Qin Mu said with a smile, "Just do it, there's no difference anyway."

"You have nothing to lose."

Elder Messenger of Death shook his head and suddenly bowed to Celestial Venerable Yu. "Celestial Venerable Mu, take care of big brother." After he said that, the small boat sailed into the darkness and vanished.

Qin Mu saw him off before bringing Celestial Venerable Yu to Heavenly Saint Academy. He had his own motives for asking Elder Messenger of Death to send them to Heavenly Saint Academy.

Celestial Venerable Yu was a piece of white paper now. He understood nothing and knew nothing. Even his food and drinks had to be taken care of; therefore, he needed to teach him the most basic things. Furthermore, he couldn't teach him any divine arts, or else he would destroy this good sapling.

The best method was to teach him all kinds of basic runes and let him comprehend them himself.

Early the next morning, Qin Mu threw Celestial Venerable Yu into a primary school class and let him learn the runes of the four great spirit bodies and the five element stars. When it came to the second day, the teacher of the class led Celestial Venerable Yu back and said, "Cult Master, he has mastered everything, I can't teach him anymore. Furthermore, he even beat up the scholars of the primary school."

Qin Mu was dumbfounded. He tested Celestial Venerable Yu, and he had indeed learned all of the basic runes for Vermillion Bird, Black Tortoise, and the rest. He could even deduce many things just from the runes and created several kinds of divine arts. Even though they were rough, they weren't considered weak.

'Could he really be an overlord body?'

Qin Mu brought Celestial Venerable Yu to listen to Village Chief's lecture. What Village Chief was imparting was the most basic sword techniques. Celestial Venerable Yu used two days to master everything, and that made Village Chief break out in a cold sweat.

"Is he an overlord body?" asked Qin Mu.

Village Chief was in a daze. He hesitated and said, "Seems like it... Where did you get this kid from?"

"From a million years ago."

Village Chief was even more at a loss and muttered to himself, "The overlord body of a million years ago... Wait a moment, I'm feeling giddy..."

Qin Mu brought Celestial Venerable Yu to Butcher's class to learn his Heaven Knife Skills. Celestial Venerable also easily mastered them.

"Mu'er, this youth is much smarter than you." Butcher laughed.

Qin Mu snorted and was rather unhappy. He said, "I also used several days to learn the basic sword skills. However, it's very difficult to completely master them."

"He learns faster than you, and his comprehension is also higher than yours."

Butcher said, "He seems to be even faster than Xu Shenghua, that young fellow!"

Qin Mu had a black face, and he brought Celestial Venerable Yu to every class in Heavenly Saint Academy. Celestial Venerable Yu could quickly master every kind of technique. He even mastered the most difficult algebra class and creation class very quickly.

After three months, he had learned all of the basic runes and basic moves in Heavenly Saint Academy.

Dao Master Lin Xuan also heard there was an algebra genius in Heavenly Saint Academy, so he immediately hurried over from Dao Sect Academy. He wanted to bring Celestial Venerable Yu to Dao Sect to further study algebra but got chased off by Qin Mu.

Finally, Qin Mu threw Celestial Venerable Yu into the Floor of Heavenly Records, allowing him to browse any book inside. Another month passed, and Celestial Venerable Yu walked out of the Floor of Heavenly Records.

Qin Mu revealed a look of disbelief, and he cried out, "You finished learning them?"

Celestial Venerable Yu hung his head down in shame. "I finished reading, but I didn't learn, I feel that there are too many mistakes in those books..."

Qin Mu let out a shaky breath and composed himself. A strange thought appeared in his heart. 'Could I be the pseudo overlord body and he is then the true overlord body... It can't be, I need to bring him to meet Xu Shenghua!'

West Earth High Heavens Academy.

Xu Shenghua had a grim expression as he stared at Celestial Venerable Yu in front of him. He probed and asked, "Overlord body?"

Qin Mu nodded his head with difficulty and said bitterly, "He's even smarter than me..."

"No wonder I feel his aptitude and comprehension is close to mine."

Xu Shenghua praised and said, "Understanding the moment he learns anything! However, why does he look a little silly?"

Chapter 770: Mother Earth of Magnetism

High Heavens Academy was already right on track, and Qi Jiuyi had also been invited by Xu Shenghua from High Heavens to give lectures. With True Heaven Palace Master Xiong Xiyu and Hu Bugui, who had entered the martial path, as well as True Heaven Palace's Little Princess Xiong Qi'er, Formation Master He Yiyi, Poison Master Mu Yingxue, Sword Master Luo Yinyu, Liu family's mother and daughter Liu Ruyin and Liu Zhenqing, and the son of the young patriarch Ge Ke, West Earth High Heavens Academy could be said to be full of talents!

As the provincial governor dispatched over by the imperial court, Ling Yuxiu also had an honorary title in High Heavens Academy.

The most crucial part was still Martial Arts Heavenly Teacher teaching here for a period of time. However, he wasn't teaching the female disciples of West Earth. Instead, he was teaching martial arts to Qi Jiuyi, Xiong Xiyu, Luo Yinyu and the rest. Even Xu Shenghua, the grand chancellor, had also gone over to listen for some time.

"The dragon qilin was ridden away by Martial Arts Heavenly Teacher."

Xu Shenghua said, "Martial Arts Heavenly Teacher waited for you to return his bull for a few months, and in the end, you didn't return his bull. He was very angry and said that Woodcutter's family were all scammers, and so he rode the dragon qilin away."

Qin Mu was taking a stroll and admiring the scenery of High Heavens Academy while Celestial Venerable Yu got pulled away to listen to the classes. Qin Mu cried out in shock, "How could Fatty Dragon carry him? But it's good as well, Fatty Dragon can train his body by carrying Martial Arts Heavenly Teacher around."

Xu Shenghua stayed beside Qin Mu and asked, "Compared to this Lan Yutian, I feel that both of us are pseudo overlord bodies and that he is the real one. Where did you pick up this child from?"

"From a million years ago."

Qin Mu sighed and said, "He is no longer a child, he is already a million years old."

Xu Shenghua nodded his head. "So I see."

"Brother Xu, aren't you shocked?" Qin Mu examined his expression and asked bewilderedly.

Xu Shenghua said with a firm face, "I was already shocked."

Qin Mu couldn't stop examining his expression, and he still couldn't see any signs of astonishment. He shook his head and said, "I don't know what Jing Yan like about you. You might not have heard about Lan Yutian before and might not know about his achievements, but what if I tell you that he is the founder, the one that established the cultivation system of divine treasures and celestial palaces. You should reveal a look of astonishment now, right?"

Xu Shenghua's body trembled, but he still had the same expression. "The founder and the one who established the cultivation system of divine treasures and celestial palaces? So why doesn't he know anything and have to start learning from the beginning?"

Qin Mu told him about how he and Niu Sanduo had returned back to the first year of Dragon Han, all the way until he met Founding Emperor, Seven Celestial Venerables, as well as the Celestial Heavens Meeting and the Jade Pool Meeting. He and Founding Emperor even got conferred as Celestial Venerable Mu and Celestial Venerable Qin.

Xu Shenghua still had the same expression, and Qin Mu felt defeated.

"Actually, ever since I met the Seven Celestial Venerables, I've been thinking about a question."

Qin Mu said with a smile, "Do you know what the question is?"

Xu Shenghua pondered for a moment, and his eyes lit up. "Cult Master Qin, this would be an immense feat! You are thinking of reopening the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure and fixing the broken divine bridge of the people in Eternal Peace Empire, and also for those martial arts practitioners in Bullfighting World. Because of this, they could all have hope of cultivating to the god realm!"

Qin Mu said with a sigh, "Brother Xu is still the one that knows me the best. That's right, after meeting the Seven Celestial Venerables, I've been thinking about this question. The people of Eternal Peace are remaining survivors from Founding Emperor. Their divine bridges are broken, and the people of Bullfighting World are even more straightforward, having no divine bridges at all. No matter whether it's Martial Arts Heavenly Teacher's method or the Secrets of Magpie Bridge, they aren't truly solving the issue. Only by reopening the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure is there a solution."

Xu Shenghua said, "Celestial Venerable Yun opened the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure, so you are also trying to find a method to open up the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure and spread the method out, solving this issue once and for all."

Qin Mu nodded his head. "Everyone's divine treasures are inherited from their ancestors. Since their divine bridges are broken, we just have to open it up again. Even though not everyone can open it up, the number of people that can open it would be much higher than those that can cultivate the Secrets of Magpie Bridge!"

Xu Shenghua said, "In that case, did you consult Celestial Venerable Yun about how to open up the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure?"

Qin Mu shook his head. "When I returned to the first year of Dragon Han, I didn't manage to talk to him. He later died in the era of Dragon Han. However, since he was able to open up the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure, we can as well."

Xu Shenghua hesitated for a moment and said, "If you can open up the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure, you will be another Celestial Venerable Yun! However, your Divine Bridge Divine Treasure is complete, so how are you going to open it up?"

Qin Mu said with a smile, "I'm on the Celestial Being Realm, and I'm not far from the Life and Death Realm. I think after the Life and Death Realm, I can cripple my own Divine Bridge Divine Treasure and try to open up my own Divine Bridge Divine Treasure. However, you have said something wrong. I'm not another Celestial Venerable Yun. A million years ago, I was already Celestial Venerable Mu!"

Xu Shenghua muttered and said, "Your divine bridge is complete, and mine is broken, so maybe I should be the other Celestial Venerable Yun."

Qin Mu raised his eyebrows and said with a smile, "In that case, we can try to compete. Let's see who will be the first one to open the Life and Death Realm, cripple our Divine Bridge Divine Treasure, and reopening the divine bridge!"

Xu Shenghua smiled warmly. "Alright. When the time comes, I want you to personally admit that you are the beta."

Qin Mu laughed and said, "Don't you still need to research the magnetism divine art and Computation Canon of Supreme Molecule? Where do you have the time to research the Divine Bridge Divine Treasure? You are going to lose!"

Xu Shenghua said calmly, "You seem to be even busier than me, do you have the time?"

Both of them stared at each other and snorted.

Xu Shenghua said, "Granny Si brought the scholars of Heavenly Saint Academy to research the magnetism divine art in Supreme Emperor Heaven, and they already have quite some achievements. I also frequently go over to help her establish the basic runes of the magnetism divine arts. Now, Granny Si has already sorted out over one thousand and three hundred kinds of magnetism runes. However, I deduced that there are still about six hundred magnetism runes that haven't been discovered. After Lan Yutian learns the ultimate arts of my High Heavens Academy, why don't we go over to Supreme Emperor Heaven to take a look?"

After half a month, Celestial Venerable Yu mastered the basic runes of High Heavens Academy. Xu Shenghua packed his luggage and left together with Qin Mu.

Qin Mu always passed the responsibility to others, so after he sorted out a few magnetism equations, he threw them to Granny Si and Xu Shenghua, while he ran around.

Coming to Supreme Emperor Heaven this time, he saw numerous strange constructions, and those were pillars forged by black copper. The pillars were hollow, and there were all kinds of length and thickness. Some were like mountains that were thousands of yards tall, while some were as short as a foot.

Several hundred pillars stood upright at the abnormal points in the magnetic field, and there were the most abnormal points where Supreme Emperor Heaven and the Great Ruins crossed. There were about twenty to thirty pillars arranged there, and it looked rather magnificent.

At every abnormal point of the magnetic field, there were divine arts practitioners holding brush and paper as they surrounded the copper pillars to record down the data from the reaction of the magnetic field. The data was then sent to a god city in Supreme Emperor Heaven to be sorted out.

True God Pang Yu and Honored God Sang Ye were reconstructing Supreme Emperor Heaven, and they had constructed several god cities for people to live and reproduce in. To deduce the magnetism runes, Granny Si had also borrowed quite a number of divine arts practitioners from Supreme Emperor Heaven.

Supreme Emperor Heaven's algebra was originally very bad, but after the two worlds were connected, the divine arts practitioners of Supreme Emperor Heaven had come into Eternal Peace to learn algebra, so there were also quite a number of people that were skilled in calculations.

Qin Mu came to the city, and he saw Granny Si buried under a mountain of paper. There were also a hundred scholars sorting out the data from each abnormal point, and the calculation spirit weapons were clacking non-stop as they calculated.

On the wall was imprinted over a thousand marvelous runes. They twinkled and faintly gave off the power of magnetism.

"There's still one last rune."

Xu Shenghua looked at the imprints on the wall, and he exclaimed in astonishment, "Granny Si's speed is rather fast!"

Just as he said that, Granny Si's laughter suddenly rang out. "And it's done, I've calculated it!"

This beautiful woman leaped up and came to the front of the wall. Her vital qi poured out and transformed into the last rune, which she imprinted on the wall.

Qin Mu walked forward and examined the magnetism runes on the wall. He couldn't help being moved, and he praised, "Granny, your achievements and virtue are boundless for sorting out these one thousand and nine hundred runes!"

Only then did Granny Si noticed them. She cried out in surprise and delight, "When did Mu'er come? You haven't visited in quite a long while! You have forty percent credit for these runes, and the other sixty percent is split between Xu Shenghua and me. Xu Shenghua sorted out over one thousand equations for magnetism while I only did a few."

Xu Shenghua humbled himself and took a look at Qin Mu.

Qin Mu said with a smile, "I've deduced the initial few equations, and it is indeed well done to Brother Xu for continuing down my path."

Xu Shenghua gave a dull grunt.

Even though what Qin Mu said had the misgiving of praising himself, it was actually the truth.

It was Qin Mu who had discovered the marvel of magnetism and even wrote down a few basic equations for magnetism. He then pushed the mission of deducing the magnetism runes to them.

Qin Mu was the founder, and they were the ones that had perfected it; therefore, Qin Mu took up nearly half of the credit.

"Granny, now that the magnetism runes are sorted out, can you comprehend magnetism divine arts already?" asked Qin Mu.

"I can try!"

Granny Si was full of excitement and brought them out of the city. "I've been deducing magnetism runes, and I was roughly calculating the various divine arts. I've sorted out quite a number of magnetism divine arts, and when I deduced out the last rune, I naturally comprehended a great divine art which could perfectly fuse the one thousand and nine hundred runes."

Qin Mu knew she was an existence that had long entered the path with divine arts. After sorting all of the basic runes of magnetism, the great divine art that she comprehended would be rather extraordinary. They were full of anticipation.

Qin Mu, Xu Shenghua, and Celestial Venerable Yu followed behind Granny Si, while the other divine art practitioners of Supreme Emperor Heaven and scholars of Heavenly Saint Academy flew over.

True God Pang Yu, Honored God Sang Ye and the rest also heard the news, and they rushed over. There were divine arts practitioners and gods everywhere waiting for Granny Si to show off.

Granny Si stood on Supreme Emperor Heaven, and below her was the Great Ruins that was hanging perpendicularly.

"I haven't named this divine art of mine, but let me execute it first to open your horizons!"

She executed her divine art, and her vital qi was boundless. Granny Si had been a god for quite a long time, and her magic power was dense. Her divine art was exquisite, and as she executed her great divine art of magnetism, everyone in the sky suddenly came falling down like rain. They crashed onto the ground and couldn't move.

Qin Mu also got pressed down on the ground, and he felt as though there was a world pressing down on him. He was astonished.

True God Pang Yu also crawled up with difficulty, and his legs were shivering. He nearly couldn't stand up, and he felt fear in his heart. He hurriedly said, "Honored God Youyou, go softer with the power, be careful of squashing us to death!"

Granny Si turned her head, and only then did she notice them being squashed on the ground. She said with a smile, "My divine art is being executed at the Great Ruins, not at you guys. Once I release this divine art out, there won't be the divine power of magnetism pressing down on you guys anymore."

She smacked forward, and the divine light of magnetism burst forth. Billions of stars could be faintly seen swirling inside the divine art, and the divine light of magnetism connected the stars together as they interweaved with one another. The divine art pressed down on the Great Ruins with a rumble!

The Great Ruins below sank down three hundred yards while mountains and rivers far away rose from the ground. Mountain ranges poured out from underground and formed an unbroken chain of peaks!

Granny Si praised and said, "Truly a good divine art. You guys don't feel any pressure now, do you?"

Qin Mu and the rest felt the pressure lessening, and they hurriedly crawled up. Honored God Sang Ye said with a smile, "Honored God Youyou's magic power is truly exquisite, and your divine art is truly outstanding and powerful. However, you should be taking back your divine art now, right?"

The ground of the Great Ruins trembled as more and more mountains rose from the ground and expanded outwards.

Granny Si was puzzled and said, "I have already taken back my divine art... Eh, something is wrong!"

Qin Mu and the rest looked down at the Great Ruins, and they saw mountains moving rapidly away from them. The ground was expanding non-stop, and the closest mountain to them was already thousands of miles away now. The mountain was so far that the naked eye couldn't even see it!

At the same time, Qin Mu also saw the Surging River widening. It was becoming wider and wider while the current was becoming more and more rapid.

This huge river was three hundred yards wide before, and now every time they blinked, it was widening by three hundred yards!

"What is happening?"

Everyone was at a loss, and they stared at this sight in a daze.

The Great Ruins wasn't only expanding east and west, but it was also expanding north and south. Meanwhile, those mountains were also growing furiously and becoming bigger and bigger, taller and taller.

"This isn't what Granny Si's divine art can cause..."

Qin Mu's heart jumped, and he hurriedly flew up. He passed through the tunnel of Supreme Emperor Heaven and came to the opposite side of the Great Ruins. He also saw West Great Ruins expanding furiously.

And at the broken cliff of the Great Ruins, an even more astonishing sight appeared. The worlds flew out of the broken cliff and became bigger and bigger as they floated towards the sky.

Soon, layers of worlds were hidden among the cloud and mist in the sky.

Granny Si and the rest followed him to hurry over, and they looked at this sight in a daze.

World-shaking rumbles came from the broken cliff as the cliff ruptured continuously. The river water from the mountain cliff became more and more turbulent as an overflowing flood surged out violently from the worlds. It was as if the worlds suppressed here for the past four eras had all been completely released.

"Is this created by me?" Granny Si blinked her eyes and muttered.

"Affirmative."

Qin Mu looked at the broken cliff, which was still rising. A huge stone tablet was revealed, and the words on the stone tablet gradually became clearer and clearer. He looked at the writings on the stone tablet and croaked with a hoarse voice, "It is created by Granny Si. You sorted out all of the magnetism runes and used the magnetism divine art to awaken the terrifying existences buried here..."

There were a few ancient god writings written on the stone tablet, and Qin Mu had seen these kinds of god writings before. Those were the writings of the Dragon Han Celestial Heavens, and they were formed by god voices. They contained marvelous power.

However, the writings on the stone tablet seemed to be more ancient, and there were numerous changes that Qin Mu didn't recognize.

"... Mother, also primordial. I don't recognize the other two words."

Qin Mu tried to read for a moment and shook his head. "These writings are too ancient."

"Mother Earth Primordial Realm," Celestial Venerable Yu, who was beside him, suddenly spoke.
