Chapter 1481: Leave Everything To Me

“Huo Zhong, stop spouting nonsense. Hasn't Huo Ye been living with you and your mother all these years? Why? Are you going to distance yourself from your duties after enjoying your father's love and taking over the family business?”

“Pfft, Lu Weijian, you're Huo Ye's legitimate son. Your mother is Huo Ye's first wife! Everyone in the city knows that your mother and Huo Ye are married. You're the legitimate young master of the Huo family. No one can find fault with you if you're handed the family business!”

Old Master Huo finally caught his breath. “Do you think I'm dead?!”

Only then did Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong stop bickering. However, their eyes kept intersecting in midair, creating countless sparks.

“Lu Weijian, Huo Zhong, both of you are Huo Ye's sons, and Huo Ye is my only son. Now that so many things have happened to the Huo family, the collateral branches are all watching the Huo family. If you don't take this responsibility, the Huo family will be finished!”

Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong muttered in unison, “Then why don't you let your son come back?”

Old Master Huo choked and was furious again. Huo Ye was unreliable. It was not his first time finding out about it either.

In the past, he thought that young people were playful and would eventually restrain themselves as they grew older.

Now, he knew that some people couldn't change their nature.

Huo Ye was already old, but he was still a playboy. There were many women for him to play with outside, and he lived in the wild. He was even more open than some young people.

If the old master had known it would be like this back then... He wouldn't have sided with his son when Huo Ye and Lu Yaolan had just gotten married. In the end, their good family ended up in this state. However, it was too late for regrets now.

The butler produced a chart diagnosis and handed it to the men.

It clearly stated that Old Master Huo's body could not last much longer. A few days ago, he was critically ill in the hospital. Old Master Huo knew that he did not have much time left and was unwilling to spend any more time in the hospital, so he got discharged early and chose to stay at home to recuperate.

Seeing this, the atmosphere between Lu Weijian's and Huo Zhong's attitudes became better.

“I'm about to die. Can't any of you listen to my advice?” Old Master Huo asked.

Lu Weijian scratched his head. "It's not that I don't want to listen to your advice, but I have a lot of things to do in the Lu family. You can get Huo Zhong to take over the business. Besides, if my grandfather breaks my legs, will you compensate me?"

Old Master Huo recalled how he and Old Master Lu almost fought because of their children. He couldn't help but feel sad.

Huo Zhong also said, "In any case, I only like playing games and practicing martial arts. I'm not good at managing a business. If you want the Harris family to meet their deaths sooner and collapse earlier, leave everything to me. In any case, with my hand speed, I can do anything quickly. I'm afraid no one can compare to me when it comes to exhausting the family business."

1

Old Master Huo had looked into his two grandsons before. Neither of them was calm. In comparison, Lu Weijian had been with Lu Heting for a long time and had been influenced by him, so he was more suitable to take over the family business.

Huo Zhong was indeed not that suitable.

"Huo Zhong, you'll have something to inherit from the Huo family, but I still want Lu Weijian to be the one managing the entire Huo family," said Old Master Huo.

Lu Weijian was about to explode again. "Don't look for me. I'm not from the Huo family!"

"Weijian!" Lu Heting stopped him from continuing.

Old Master Huo said, "The Huo family has countless industries and hundreds of thousands of staff members. Now, those branch families who are fighting for power will do anything to achieve their goals. These industries and hundreds of thousands of workers will probably be destroyed in a day. Weijian, these people and industries need you. Huo Zhong can't take on such a big responsibility. Among the younger generation, I can only count on you and Huo Zhong."

He spoke earnestly and eagerly.

Lu Weijian couldn't accept it. He could only look at Lu Heting and Su Bei, hoping that they would help him out.

He kept blinking, trying to get them to say something.

Su Bei coughed lightly and said, "Heting, my fourth sister has always liked people who are responsible and career-minded. Why don't you introduce me to someone in a few days?"

1

"That's right. I have a list of names for her to choose from," Lu Heting replied seriously.

Lu Weijian's eyes lit up. "Grandpa, I agree. Leave the Huo family and our businesses to me! I'll definitely be a good leader! Even if I can't do a good job, I can ask my brother for help!"

Huo Zhong felt as if he had been pardoned. He took two steps back with a look of relief.

Old Master Huo's face lit up. "Butler, bring the documents. Let them both sign them."

Lu Weijian picked up a pen without reading the contents and signed his name.

Huo Zhong said reluctantly, "Didn't you say that there's nothing for me to do? Why do you still want me to sign?"

He took a few steps back and refused to sign. "Su Bei, be honest with me. Is there anything for me to do here? I won't agree! I won't sign!"

Su Bei smiled and said, "I was planning to give you a good beating after you signed it."

"Really? You're going to spar with me? Although I'm reluctant to sign this document..."

"If Grandpa wants you to sign it, just sign it. Don't talk so much nonsense." Lu Weijian pressed his hand down and forced him to sign his name.

The two of them bickered for a while before finally signing their names.

"Good, good. I'm relieved. Butler, bring them to complete the handover process."

The butler walked out with Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong. The two of them kicked each other as they walked.

Old Master Huo looked at Lu Heting and Su Bei and said tiredly, "I'm sorry for making a fool of myself. As a father, I didn't discipline my son well, which led to my two grandchildren having no feelings for me. Thank you for coming today, especially Su Bei... If it weren't for you, Weijian wouldn't have agreed to accept my family business. The Huo family is indebted to you."

"Grandpa Huo, I didn't do anything. Rest well. They still need your guidance."

Old Master Huo smiled. "You've already helped me a lot. Now, I'll be able to face the Huo family's ancestors."

Lu Heting said, "Grandpa Huo, how did you know that Su Bei's decision could affect them?"

Old Master Huo looked at Su Bei seriously. "I didn't, but I saw Su Bei in the hospital that day and knew that her decision could affect you. I could also tell that you would focus on Su Bei, so I decided to give it a try. I'm sorry, Heting. Apart from you, I really couldn't think of anyone else who could affect Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong. That's why I took the liberty to invite you here today..."

Chapter 1482: You Must Save Me

In the end, Su Bei became the deciding factor.

"Heting, Su Bei, the Huo family will really have to rely on you in the future. I know that my request is too rude. I used to feel guilty about Weijian and Huo Zhong, but now, I have to let them take on responsibilities that don't belong to them. However, I have to leave these family businesses to them because only the two of them... are the grandchildren I truly love. I hope you can help me with everything in the future!" Old Master Huo pleaded.

If he left, the Huo family would be in chaos. Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong would probably find it difficult to manage the businesses if they were alone. The person Old Master Huo valued the most was still Lu Heting.

However, Lu Heting was not related to him.

However, now that Lu Weijian had signed the paperwork, Old Master Huo knew that Lu Heting would not ignore the matter.

There was hope for the Huo family.

He stretched out his withered fingers. His ardent eyes were cloudy and dim, making it impossible to refuse.

When Lu Heting and Su Bei walked out, Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong also signed the documents and walked out.

Huo Zhong was still shouting, "Anyway, Lu Weijian, you signed the papers first. Don't rely on me to do all those things in the future. Handle those matters on your own."

"Did I force you to sign the papers? Didn't you agree to sign them too?"

The two of them argued until they saw Lu Heting and Su Bei.

Lu Weijian rushed over and said, "Brother, Sister Bei Bei, aren't I very career-minded and responsible? Sister Bei Bei, do you think your fourth sister will like someone like me? Do you think I'm a good match for her?"

"You're alright." Su Bei looked him up and down and thought for a moment. "Fourth Sister has met too many men with career and responsibility. I don't know what type of men she'll choose."

"Then can I be included in her list?"

Lu Heting answered on behalf of Su Bei, "I'll think about it."

"I only agreed because of what Sister Bei Bei said. Brother, you have to consider me! You have to!"

Lu Heting asked, "Did you really agree to Grandpa Huo because of that sentence?"

Lu Weijian felt a little guilty. Actually, it wasn't that he didn't want to manage the Huo family's businesses.

It was just that he had been bullied and looked down on by the Huo family since he was young. For a long time, he had been thinking of impressing the Huo family one day.

He was the most qualified to take charge of the entire Huo family. However, he could not explain it to Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu.

Hence, he agreed not only because of Su Bei's words but also because of the deepest impulse in his heart.

Thinking of the two elders of the Lu family, Lu Weijian jumped up. "Brother, what should I do? I've signed the papers. Will I be beaten to death by Grandpa and Grandma? You have to save me!"

"Alright, I'll help you hide it from Grandpa and Grandma for the time being. They've already retired. As long as we keep everyone's mouths shut, I'm sure we can hide it for at least a year and a half."

“Yes, my brother treats me the best. But... my game company and Nirvana Entertainment, especially Nirvana Entertainment, have just started. I have to abandon them now. Why am I such a scumbag?” Lu Weijian beat his chest and stomped his feet in regret. If he wanted to manage the Huo family’s businesses, he would definitely not be able to manage the game company and Nirvana Entertainment.

His eyes lit up as he grabbed Su Bei’s hand. “Sister Bei Bei, can I entrust these two companies to you? They’re my life’s work. I’m really worried about leaving them to others. Only you’re most suitable to manage them. Only you can lead them to glory again! Sister Bei Bei, you can’t just leave them in the lurch...”

Su Bei glanced at Lu Heting and nodded in agreement. “Okay, I can help you manage them for the time being. But when you can free up your hands in the future, you have to take them back.”

“Of course, of course. These two companies are my biological sons. How can a father not want his sons?”

Huo Zhong took out his phone and said, “Su Bei, what about sparring with me?”

Lu Heting looked at him deeply. “Are you sure you agreed to sign the paperwork because of Su Bei?”

Huo Zhong felt a little guilty under his gaze. Who wouldn’t want the huge assets of the Huo family? However, like Lu Weijian, he loved and hated the Huo family. His feelings were complicated. Without any opportunity, he couldn’t make up his mind to take over.

Su Bei’s words only gave them a way out.

“I’ve already signed them anyway. Su Bei should spar with me. One should never go back on one’s word!” Huo Zhong snorted.

Lu Weijian took the lead and stopped him. “You want to challenge my Sister Bei Bei? Why don’t you get past me first?”

“You?” Huo Zhong squinted at him. “I don’t even like you! How dare a nobody challenge me?”

“I’m a nobody? Have you heard of Team JJ? Do you know the reputation of the Invincible Swordsman?”

Su Bei looked at the two people in front of her and could not help but laugh. She looked at Lu Heting helplessly. These two people were older than Da Bao, but their minds were not even one-tenth as mature as Da Bao’s.

Lu Heting held Su Bei’s hand and walked straight out, ignoring the two of them.

The four of them were about to leave when the butler rushed over and said with a pained expression, “Mr. Lu, Mr. Weijian, Mr. Zhong, Miss Su, Old Master... He’s gone!”

Lu Weijian’s and Huo Zhong’s hands stopped in midair, and their expressions cracked.

Both of them were abandoned by the Huo family and hurt by their father, but deep down, they knew that they were also truly loved by their grandfather.

Lu Heting would take Lu Weijian to the park while avoiding Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu. He would meet Old Master Huo and receive his birthday gift. One time, he even received a little puppy.

When Huo Zhong was in the United States, he would also receive pocket money and a large pile of food from Old Master Huo.

His love came a little late, but it was not nonexistent.

Lu Weijian calmed down and said to the butler, "Arrange for a funeral!"

"Yes, Mr. Weijian," the butler said. "I'll do it now."

After saying that, he walked up to Lu Heting and Su Bei and said, "Old Master Lu died very peacefully and was very gratified. On behalf of Old Master Lu and the entire Huo family, I thank Mr. Lu and Miss Su."

"My condolences," Lu Heting said in a low voice.

Su Bei also said softly, "My condolences."

The two of them looked at each other and knew that no matter what the reason was, they could not ignore the Huo family's matters in the future.

Lu Weijian and Huo Zhong followed the butler into Old Master Huo's room. They were about to make arrangements for the funeral.

No matter how childish a person was, they would have to learn to grow up at a moment like this.

Old Master Lu soon received the news of Old Master Huo's death.

Chapter 1483: An Ordinary Man

He sighed and said, "I really didn't expect that after fighting for a lifetime, the old man would still be ahead of me. In the past, when I hated him, I wished he would die. Now that he's gone, I realized that I'm old too."

"Grandpa, my condolences." Lu Heting poured him tea.

"Did Weijian go to the funeral?" Old Master Lu asked.

"Yes. After all, they're grandfather and grandson," Lu Heting said.

It was rare for Old Master Lu not to be angry over this matter. He said understandingly, "It's only right for Weijian to be filial."

Without waiting for Lu Heting to nod, he said, "Tell Weijian to come back as soon as possible. I'm just letting him be now on account of that old man's death. Nevertheless, Weijian is a member of the Lu family. If he's thinking of staying with the Huo family, he should forget it!"

Lu Heting knew that this would be the case. He handed the teacup to Old Master Lu, signaling him to calm down.

Old Madam Lu also said, "Heting, tell Weijian that his grandfather and I don't allow him to interfere in the Huo family's matters! Otherwise, we'll break his legs!"

1

Lu Heting: "..."

Lu Weijian, who was preparing for the funeral, felt a chill in his legs, and his knees went weak.

...

The matter of Lu Weijian taking over the Huo family had already been determined. The truth could not be changed.

Therefore, Su Bei would definitely take over his game company and Nirvana Entertainment.

At night, Su Bei discussed with Lu Heting how she should manage his two companies.

"The game company is easy to deal with. There's a special team working on the development, listing, and maintenance of the game. Team JJ has always been managed by a team leader. After more than 10 years, everything has formed a mature system. There's no need to worry too much. The difficult part is Nirvana Entertainment. It has just started, and Mr. Weijian rarely leaves the employees there to their own devices. There are many things that haven't been perfected and standardized yet. We need to put in some effort for that," Su Bei analyzed.

"Then I'll get someone to take care of it." Lu Heting couldn't bear to have Su Bei work so hard.

"That won't do. After all, this is Mr. Weijian's own business. If I get you to interfere, it'll become the Lu family's business again. Since he's handed it to me, I have to return it to him, right?" Su Bei supported her chin and wrote on the paper with a pen. "I definitely can't manage Nirvana Entertainment with my identity. Otherwise, Grandpa and Grandma will definitely find out that something's wrong with Mr. Weijian's situation. They'll know that he's gone to the Huo family as soon as they investigate. Unfortunately, my identity as Lu Bei was exposed too early. Now that everyone knows that Lu Bei is me, Grandpa and Grandma will also find out if I use Lu Bei's identity to help him manage Nirvana Entertainment."

Lu Weijian had really handed a hot potato to her.

"I have a good idea." Su Bei put down her pen and smiled at Lu Heting.

Lu Heting's gaze was gentle. "What?"

"I can still disguise myself as a man. I can just give myself a new name. Since I could disguise myself as Lu Bei, I can also disguise myself as someone else. As long as I can hide it from Grandpa and Grandma, everything will be settled."

"No." Lu Heting disagreed.

"Why? Are you willing to watch Mr. Weijian's legs be broken by Grandpa and Grandma? If I don't do my best, Grandpa and Grandma will find out that Mr. Weijian has inherited the Huo family's businesses!"

Lu Heting reached out and stroked her soft hair. "When you pretended to be Lu Bei previously, too many people liked you. There was even a woman who said that she was pregnant with your child. It's too risky."

“Pfft!” Su Bei recalled the last time she was framed for getting a woman pregnant. She couldn’t help but laugh. “Then this time, I’ll pretend to be an ordinary man. There won’t be a problem, right?”

Lu Heting pondered for a moment and said, “Can someone like you... pretend to be ordinary?”

The woman was beautiful and flawless. At this moment, she did not have any makeup on after taking a shower. Even so, she seemed to be glowing, making people unable to take their eyes off her.

Lu Heting really doubted how ordinary she could be.

“If you don’t believe me, I’ll give it a try!” Su Bei immediately stood up and went to the dressing room in the bedroom.

Lu Heting waited for Su Bei to come out. He wanted to see how ordinary his woman would be.

Soon, Su Bei walked out. She was wearing ordinary men’s clothes. She had short hair, a flat nose, and eyes that were no longer as big as before. Her skin was slightly yellow... As expected, she looked ordinary.

“Isn’t this very ordinary?” When she spoke, it was no longer the voice of a bright young boy. Instead, it was as inconspicuous as a voice that could be heard on the streets at any time.

She looked inconspicuous, and her voice was also inconspicuous. Her style was just too general. She would not stand out in a crowd.

“So what’s the name of this ordinary man?” Lu Heting asked cooperatively.

“My surname is Su, and my first name is Lu.” After saying that, Su Bei couldn’t help but laugh. She rolled into Lu Heting’s arms.

Hearing her put the words ‘Su’ and ‘Lu’ together, the affection in Lu Heting’s eyes was so strong that it could not be dispelled.

A ringtone broke the warmth of the moment. Su Bei picked up the phone. “Mr. Qian? Oh, my friend hasn’t replied to me yet. I’ll call you again at a later time.”

On the other end of the line, Mr. Qian was extremely disappointed and reluctantly hung up.

Su Bei hung up the phone and said, “Mr. Qian is an agent for artists. Previously, he took a fancy to Gun Gun’s painting and wants Gun Gun to debut and hold an art exhibition. I rejected him.”

“But you weren’t very firm in your refusal just now?” Lu Heting had also heard about the auction that night. Later, he specially investigated Mr. Qian and knew that he had no ill intentions, so he threw this matter aside.

“Because he saw the painting I made by chance after that. Then, he recognized at a glance that Gun Gun’s and my paintings weren’t done by the same person. He even said that he wants to hold an art exhibition for me. I didn’t make things clear, so I told him that the painting was drawn by my friend so I could leave myself with a way out. Maybe since my mother is a painter, I really do have some talent in this?”

Su Bei smiled until her eyes formed crescents. "I think so too. But I haven't had time to think about what Mr. Qian said yet. I was just about to ask for your opinion."

"Life is short. Try your best to do what you want to do. It's good to succeed, but it's also a unique experience if you don't. Besides, I believe in you. You can do anything."

At this moment, Su Bei looked ordinary, but her smile was dazzling. Her bright appearance was his favorite. "Then I'll go for it. Coincidentally, I still have some paintings from before. I think I can hold an exhibition."

"Okay." Lu Heting nodded and stroked her hair.

Chapter 1484: Only Worthy Of Being A Maid

She was going to do what she liked. His mission was to try his best to ensure that there was no danger in her doing these things.

Lu Heting had already investigated Mr. Qian. Now, he just had to get someone to investigate in detail.

Su Bei did not hide the fact that she was going to Nirvana Entertainment under the alias of Su Lu from Qiao Mei and told her about it openly.

"So Mr. Weijian won't be coming to Di Xing Media Company anymore?"

"Di Xing Media Company has Li Qisheng and you. There's no problem with the overall direction of the company. It's different from Nirvana Entertainment. It's Mr. Weijian's private business and it has just started, so it needs to be watched over. I'm mainly hiding my alias, Su Lu, from Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu. That's why I'm only telling you this."

Qiao Mei had vaguely heard about the Lu family and naturally knew that the matter of Lu Weijian taking over the Huo family had to be kept a secret.

"Don't worry. My lips are sealed. I'll keep it a secret."

"I believe you. After all, this concerns the safety of Mr. Weijian's legs," Su Bei said. "It'll take him at least a year and a half to really shoulder the Huo family's business. At that time, even if Old Master Lu has any objections, I'm afraid he won't be able to do anything to Mr. Weijian."

Qiao Mei immediately felt the burden on her shoulders increase.

She took a call and said, "Mr. Qian is here again. He said that you agreed to see him. Shall I go with you?"

"It's alright. I've agreed to have an art exhibition. However, I told him that it was my friend, Su Lu, who did the painting!" Su Bei winked at Qiao Mei.

Qiao Mei immediately understood. "That works! Su Lu is a man. Since it's safe, you don't have to be burdened by your reputation as Su Bei if you want to hold an art exhibition. This way, you can really test your painting skills!"

That was exactly what Su Bei thought. Whether her works were good or bad, there would definitely be a lot of fans if she held an art exhibition under her original name. That would be meaningless.

With the status of a movie queen, not to mention holding an art exhibition, even if she brought toilet paper for others to see, there would probably be people deliberately praising it.

With this ordinary identity, her skills would be clear to see.

After changing her clothes, Su Bei became Su Lu. She met Mr. Qian in a cafe.

Mr. Qian's eyes were filled with eagerness. He stretched out his hand and said, "My name is Qian Gouhua. It's an honor to meet you, Mr. Su."

"Qian Gouhua?" Su Bei really did not expect him to have such a name.

"The name represents my parents' beautiful wish for me to earn lots of money" Mr. Qian was a little embarrassed.

"My name is Su Lu. My friend has already told me about your offer, Mr. Qian. I think I'm quite interested. We can consider working together."

Qian Guohua immediately revealed an even more fervent gaze. "Mr. Su, I really like your painting. It's great that you're giving me a chance! Then let's discuss the details of our cooperation!"

After a detailed discussion, Su Bei felt that Mr. Qian was indeed a little professional and kind, so she signed a contract with him.

However, although the contract was signed, it would take time to prepare for the art exhibition. It could not be done anytime soon.

Su Bei was not in a hurry. She would just let Mr. Qian go back and prepare while she rest at ease.

In the other hall, Fu Yujia was also preparing to sign a contract.

The assistant, Madam Fu, and Fu Xing were all present.

Madam Fu looked at her daughter with heartache. "You've managed artists overseas and worked in a management company before. You're very experienced. So why did you have to buy Sheng Tang Entertainment after you came back? I heard that Sheng Tang Entertainment is already in chaos."

"Mom, I've thought about it. Although Sheng Tang Entertainment is in chaos, its foundation is still there. I'm confident that I can do a good job in the company," Fu Yujia said.

"You might as well start a new company. At least it'll be clean and there won't be any mess that you have to clean up. I can't be bothered about anything else; I'm just afraid that you'll suffer in the future," Mrs. Fu complained.

Fu Yujia smiled. "How can that be, Mom? Although it's good to start a new company, it takes too long. It also takes time to nurture artists. I'm already familiar with the industry, so why should I start from scratch? Isn't it good to do it this way?"

As a top criminal lawyer, Fu Xing couldn't sit still anymore after being pulled over to handle his sister's contract. He couldn't help but complain, "Mom, don't you understand what she's thinking? Sheng Tang Entertainment is a place where Su Bei used to be. Who wouldn't think of Su Bei when one mentions Sheng Tang? When Yujia achieves results, as long as one mentions Sheng Tang's name, everyone will naturally compare her to Su Bei. If it's brought up a few more times, Yujia will be able to gain more admiration from the Lu family. After all, she just wants to say that Miss Fu is better than Su Bei and that Su Bei is only worthy of being a servant. She wants to make her name known to everyone."

Fu Yujia was exposed and said angrily, "What nonsense are you talking about? Mom, look at him!"

Madam Fu glared at her son. Fu Xing hurriedly picked up his coffee and drank it, avoiding his mother's murderous gaze.

Madam Fu said to Fu Yujia, "Your brother is right. You want to compete with Su Bei, don't you? If you want to compete, so be it. You shouldn't be afraid of her. It's just Su Bei. I thought she was from the Tang family before, but now, I realize that she's nothing. Even if she is from the Tang family, she's nothing in front of us."

2

Fu Xing almost spat out a mouthful of coffee. "Mom, you're wrong. If it were in the past when Lu Heting wasn't married, I could help Jia Jia however you wanted me to. I wouldn't care about my face at all. Now that he's married, although I can't be bothered with him anymore, it's a little immoral of you to encourage Yujia to snatch him away, right?"

1

"What do you mean by immoral? Didn't Jia Jia grow up with Lu Heting? When you kids were young, didn't our families talk about marriage? If you're going to accuse someone of being immoral, it's Su Bei. Everything follows the principle of first come, first served. How long has Su Bei known Lu Heting? How long has our Jia Jia known Lu Heting? Why are you siding with outsiders?"

1

"Okay, okay. You guys make sense. I'll shut up, okay?" Fu Xing put down his coffee cup helplessly. He would never be able to argue with his mother and sister's twisted logic.

It was as if they did not realize that it was impossible to change Lu Heting's decision. They felt that there was still hope.

If there was really hope, Lu Heting would not have casually chosen a photo from the stack of women's photos when he was about to get married back then. He would have considered Yujia.

Lu Heting was that kind of person. Benefits were benefits, while feelings were feelings. They were clearly distinguished, and he would not give anyone a chance to take advantage of him.

Chapter 1485: So Little Money?

Madam. Fu said to Fu Yujia, "Jia Jia, do whatever you want. I'll support you."

Supporting their daughter was one thing, but the Fu family hoped to work with the Lu family.

A big family naturally hoped that their son-in-law could match or even surpass their family.

Fu Yujia revealed an embarrassed smile. "Mom."

Fu Xing drank cup after cup of coffee and didn't say anything else.

They would not turn back until they hit a wall.

The Tang family's assistant who went out to fetch Tang Yue over had returned.

The current Tang Yue was no longer the Tang Yue of the past. Although she had put on heavy makeup, it could not hide her haggardness. Her eyes were bloodshot.

She sat down and said, "Miss Fu, if there's no problem with the contract, I can sign it right away."

"This is it. Take a look at it first. Let's not have any regrets. Please take a good look at it first. Don't regret it later." Fu Yujia asked her assistant to pass the document to her.

Tang Yue glanced at it, and her expression changed. "So little money?"

"Miss Tang, I'm paying according to the market price. Sheng Tang is no longer the same as before. No one is willing to do business with you. If I take over Sheng Tang, not only can I alleviate your urgent needs, but I can also revive Sheng Tang. I believe you understand this," Fu Yujia said.

Tang Yue's expression changed again.

After she fought with Su Bei, Lin Shulian's leg broke and Old Master Tang never bothered himself with her again after he was brought away by Tang Xinru.

Tang Jianming was out having fun every day and did not go home at all.

1

Old Master Tang even handed all the important businesses to Tang Xinru to take over. Tang Yue was in no position to object. Besides, even if he gave them to her, her reputation had long been ruined. The outside world would not be willing to have any sorts of cooperation with her.

In the end, the only company in her hands was Sheng Tang Entertainment.

All of this was because Lin Shulian did not argue with her about her broken leg.

However, Sheng Tang Entertainment was also affected by her reputation and could not continue.

The house where she and Lin Shulian lived was cold and gloomy like an extremely cold hell. Even the servants had resigned and left.

Selling Sheng Tang Entertainment was Tang Yue's last way of surviving.

Fu Yujia waited calmly for Tang Yue to agree. She crossed her arms and looked at her, certain that Tang Yue would make the final decision.

"I'll sign it," Tang Yue said. She picked up her pen and signed her name.

Fu Yujia smiled and said, "Miss Tang, you're indeed a straightforward person. The money will be transferred to your account soon. Let's work well together."

Tang Yue bit her lip and asked bitterly, "Can I know why you're buying this company? As far as I know, no one outside wants to have anything to do with me. They treat me like a ferocious beast. Miss Fu, why are you so straightforward?"

Fu Yujia said, "I just like the company's potential. That's all."

Tang Yue did not seem to believe it... Was there really nothing else?

Fu Yujia watched Tang Yue leave and could not help but feel smug. As an artist, Su Bei was just a pawn of capital. So what if she was a movie queen? So what if she was a top celebrity? As long as there was capital, it was still possible to take her down!

Only with money and capital could one control everything!

After Su Bei finished filming her scenes in the morning, Xiao Bai came over with drinks and clothes.

Su Bei took the water and took two sips. Seeing that the production team was in a mess, she asked, "What's going on over there?"

"There's an actress who has a few scenes to film today. She sprained her ankle just now, and we've already called an ambulance. However, her luck is really too bad. She spent a lot of effort auditioning for these few scenes. In the end, she sprained her ankle when she just joined the cast today. She definitely won't be able to shoot the rest of the scenes."

"Really?"

"Director Jiang has already gotten people to look for someone else. Look, the information is all here. Director Jiang even looked for Sister Qiao Mei, but Sister Qiao Mei said that there was no suitable person in Di Xing, so she rejected him. Director Jiang was so angry that he scolded her just now."

Seeing that Director Jiang was indeed stomping his feet, Su Bei stood in silence while thinking about the actress. Was she okay after spraining her ankle?

"I don't have any work this afternoon, and I have to go out for a while," Su Bei said. "Call me if there's anything going on."

"Are you going to Nirvana Entertainment?" Xiao Bai asked.

Su Bei had not hidden this from her.

"That's right. Where are the clothes you prepared for me?"

"Everything is ready. They're all here!" Xiao Bai quickly handed over the clothes.

Nirvana Entertainment.

Nirvana Entertainment, which had just been established, was now on the right track.

Lu Weijian had called and said that he wouldn't come again. He had passed the task of running the company to a friend, while he would control the overall situation behind the scenes.

This was like a blow that knocked everyone out.

Many people came to this company because of Lu Weijian. Now that Lu Weijian said he wouldn't be coming to the company anymore, everyone immediately started discussing.

"Is Mr. Weijian focusing on the game company again?"

"I guess so. I heard that there's going to be a world-class competition soon, and a new game has already entered the open beta stage. I'm afraid Mr. Weijian isn't available to manage all of us now."

"What should we do? If Mr. Weijian doesn't come to the company, how can we do anything?"

"Didn't Mr. Weijian say that he's assigned a friend to lead us? I believe that his friend must be a professional who has made achievements in the industry. Otherwise, he wouldn't be favored by Mr. Weijian."

"I hope so."

Amidst everyone's discussion, Su Bei walked in.

Because she looked so ordinary, no one even noticed her. They were still discussing enthusiastically.

"Everyone," Su Bei said.

Only then did everyone look at her. They saw that at some point, a young man had appeared in front of them. He was dressed in a fitting but very ordinary outfit. He had unassuming hair and ordinary facial features. There were plenty of such people on the streets.

Seeing that everyone's attention was on her, Su Bei said, "I'm Su Lu, and I was sent here by Mr. Weijian. I'll be in charge of everyone's work in the future. I hope to seek guidance from all of you."

"Su Lu?"

Someone immediately repeated the name. It was too ordinary. No one had heard of it before.

Initially, they thought that Lu Weijian would arrange for a professional to come over.

In the end, he arranged for this person to come over?

"So, Mr. Su, which companies have you worked in in the past?" the vice president asked unkindly.

Chapter 1486: Another Show

Of course, with Su Bei's identity, she did not have any resume or experience.

With a faint smile on her face, she had already cursed Lu Weijian countless times in her heart. He could have arranged for someone from Lu Group to come over, but he didn't want that. He could have found a real professional, but he didn't want to do that either.

He specially targeted her!

“I’ve never worked in this field before. I just pursued it as a hobby and learned from Mr. Weijian. This time, Weijian has entrusted me with the position of president. I plan to develop this new company well. I hope everyone has the same goal and that we’ll work hard for our future together.” Su Bei’s words were sincere.

However, everyone’s response was lazy and disdainful.

Even if Su Bei was a rich second-generation heir, everyone would be more convinced than they were now. At the very least, it meant that he was rich and had connections. However, he was ordinary. He did not have looks, experience, or money.

“Oh, then what should we do now?” The vice president was obviously not convinced and asked sarcastically.

“Now, everyone should focus on the work at hand. As for the artists, we’ll sign some newcomers and train them. Please buck up.”

“Train them? How? Money alone isn’t enough to train artists! President Su, aren’t you thinking too simply of the company?”

It was still the vice president who was speaking. Su Bei had already tolerated him several times. Seeing that he continued to be sarcastic, Su Bei asked, “Oh? Then what’s your opinion, Vice President Hu? Since I’m thinking too simply, you should know how to deal with the company’s matters better. How about this? In three days, please submit a detailed company planning report and an artist training report to me. It can’t be less than 30,000 words.”

“You!” President Hu was so angry that his face turned yellow.

“What about me? Vice President Hu, you don’t acknowledge my ability, yet you don’t want to give me any advice either. How about I give you my position, then?” Su Bei took out her phone and threw it on the table. “Call Mr. Weijian now! I can readily leave as it’s only been minutes since I took on my new role here.”

Vice President Hu was a talent recruited by Lu Weijian with a high salary. Lu Weijian respected him, so he thought highly of himself.

Initially, he thought that Lu Weijian would leave the company to him after he left, so he was full of anticipation.

Now that Su Lu had appeared out of thin air, he was naturally unhappy.

However, he was unwilling to lose this high-paying job that far exceeded the market. He said awkwardly, “Of course, I have to complete the tasks that you assign to me, President Su.”

At most, he could just write whatever he wanted. When the time came, Su Bei would have to take the blame alone.

Su Bei glanced at him and smiled. “Vice President Hu, write it well. You should ensure the report you come up with matches your position.”

Damn, he had to write it well.

Seeing that Vice President Hu was silent, Su Bei placed her hands on the table and said, "I'm someone appointed by Mr. Weijian. I'm now fully in charge of all the company's business. According to Mr. Weijian, I definitely can't leave. So if you think it's inappropriate, you can just leave. Those who still want to stay in the company, I hope that you can cooperate with me and achieve good results as soon as possible."

With Su Bei's current attire, she did not have much of an imposing aura, so no one was afraid of her.

However, her attitude toward Vice President Hu just now still made everyone feel a huge threat. She clearly did not look imposing, but she could make people afraid.

No one dared to not take their work seriously, nor did they want to write a report of tens of thousands of words. Their voices rang out, "Okay!"

"Since no one has any objections, shall we leave it at that?" Su Bei glanced at everyone.

No one dared to have any objections and naturally nodded immediately.

"Okay, meeting adjourned," Su Bei said.

When everyone was leaving, she stopped someone. "Chen Ce, wait a moment."

Chen Ce was just an ordinary manager and had not spoken with Su Bei just now. Seeing that Su Bei had asked him to stay, he could not help but worry. "Mr. Su?"

"Don't you have a female artist called Lin Tong?"

"Yes." Chen Ce looked at Su Bei suspiciously, not knowing what she was going to do.

"Let her audition for a role in Split, which Director Jiang Yaowen is filming. Although that role only has a few scenes, it matches Lin Tong's current status. I've seen her information. Her face is very suitable for the role. Here's the address and phone number."

Chen Ce was overjoyed. The way he looked at Su Bei immediately changed. "I'll make the arrangements now!"

Before Su Bei came, she had already understood the company's situation and naturally knew what was going on.

Previously, Lu Weijian had spent a lot of money to establish this company and poached many employees, including the vice president, managers, and artists. He was ambitious, so he poached them at a high price.

This was not a problem, but it caused these people to think highly of themselves and think that they were worth the price. Apart from Lu Weijian, no one else was convinced.

No wonder Lu Weijian refused to let others manage the company. No one could suppress such a group of people.

Lu Weijian probably asked her to manage it because she had Lu Heting behind her.

However, since Su Bei had already agreed to do it herself, she naturally could not rely on Lu Heting for everything. Otherwise, she might as well have let him do it earlier.

Fortunately, after beating down Vice President Hu, she finally managed to subdue these people a little.

Next, there would probably be another highlight.

After Fu Yujia bought Sheng Tang Entertainment, she went to the Lu family's mansion.

As they chatted, Old Madam Lu heard that she had bought Sheng Tang Entertainment. She couldn't help but think of Su Bei and asked, "Why did you buy that?"

"Grandma Lu, what's wrong with it?" Fu Yujia pretended to be curious.

"There's nothing bad about it, but Lin Shulian and Tang Yue of the Tang family are narrow-minded women. I'm afraid you'll suffer. Also..." She wanted to bring up Su Bei, but Su Bei had nothing to do with the Tang family now, so she didn't continue.

Fu Yujia said, "Ah, I haven't been to S Country for a long time, so I don't know much about the matters here. It's just that I saw that the price of this company was quite fair and reasonable, so I thought that it was a good idea to buy it. If I had known, I would have asked you about it first. I wouldn't have taken this detour."

"It's alright. The Tang family doesn't have the ability to do anything to you anyway."

"Yes, but thank you for your reminder, Grandma Lu. I'll be more careful in the future."

Chapter 1487: Don't Use Suspicion

Three days later, Vice President Hu handed over his two reports. The information was detailed and reasonable.

"President Su, what do you think?" Over the past two days, Vice President Hu had mobilized a large number of employees to write these two reports for him. Finally, he handed them over. He could not help but be a little arrogant.

Su Bei flipped through the reports for a while and said, "Not bad. So what about it?"

Vice President Hu smiled and said, "Not bad? President Su, I was personally hired by Mr. Weijian. I can take care of everything in the company. I also have detailed reports and arrangements for the future of the company. But you're only saying that my reports are not bad? President Su, why don't I take care of everything in the future? You can just come and patrol the company every other day."

These words were provocative, and the others present did not say anything.

Currently, no one knew anything about Su Lu, nor did they know how capable she was.

However, Vice President Hu was someone they had always known. They also knew that Lu Weijian had high hopes for him when he poached him at a high price.

In particular, Vice President Hu had made many achievements in other entertainment companies in the past and was quite famous in the industry.

Therefore, in the face of the battle between the two of them, no one seemed to be taking sides but, in fact, they were all biased toward Vice President Hu.

Su Bei was about to speak when her phone rang. She took a look and saw that it was Lu Weijian.

"I have to take this call," Su Bei said. She picked up the phone and walked out.

Vice President Hu sneered. "He can't answer my questions, so he's using the phone call as an excuse to avoid me. How could Mr. Weijian trust such a person?"

Seeing that Su Bei was deliberately avoiding him, everyone had the same thoughts.

At the moment, Su Bei was completely unable to convince the public. Only Chen Ce was slightly biased toward Su Bei. "President Su is quite capable. Lin Tong's audition for a role in Split was successful. This role was introduced by her."

"Chen Ce, you're too gullible. Lin Tong succeeded in the audition because of her acting skills, not because of Su Lu. I can give you information about auditions at any time..."

Chen Ce frowned. "That's not the case. Lin Tong just happens to be suitable for that role. That's the key to the success of the audition. It can be seen that President Su has some understanding of the company's artistes."

Vice President Hu looked at him. "You seem to have a good impression of Su Lu. Are you planning to work for him?"

"I'm just telling the truth." Chen Ce did not want to take sides and fall into endless internal strife. He did not defend President Su anymore.

"It's just a small contribution. How can it compare to Vice President Hu's contributions?" someone else immediately said.

"That's right. When Vice President Hu entered the industry, Su Lu was probably still drinking milk. How can he compare to Vice President Hu?"

Su Bei walked to the balcony and picked up the phone. Lu Weijian's voice sounded. "Sister Bei Bei, I've already started to deal with the Huo family's matter. My grandparents aren't suspecting anything, are they?"

"No, everything is fine."

"That's good, that's good. However, Huo Zhong is too sneaky. He leaves everything to me and hides to play games. If I see him, I'll definitely beat him up! I haven't played games for three days, yet he still has the cheek to play games."

1

Su Bei knew that the two of them would definitely quarrel over this matter.

She frowned slightly and said, "Did you poach many people from Nirvana Entertainment at a high price?"

"That's right. I got them all to come over one by one. Since I had to lay out the foundation, I definitely had to use the best materials."

"What if I fire some of them?"

"It's up to you. Anyway, I've already handed the company to you. You don't have to be cautious of anyone. You can fire anyone you want!"

Su Bei asked, "What about Vice President Hu?"

"Who's Vice President Hu?" Lu Weijian asked. "I've poached too many people that I can't remember all of them anymore. Do whatever you want! I'll go look for Huo Zhong!"

1

With that, he hung up.

Su Bei put away her phone. Of course, she knew that firing Vice President Hu now would not convince the public. She could only wait.

When she returned to the conference room, Vice President Hu was looking at her disdainfully. Su Bei smiled and said, "The meeting is adjourned today."

The person beside Vice President Hu immediately said, "President Hu, he's afraid of you!"

"That's right. A young boy who doesn't know anything actually dares to challenge President Hu. Isn't he afraid that his sharp tongue will poison him in the end?"

Instead of 'Vice President Hu', these people were now calling him 'President Hu.'

Seeing that Su Bei could not take charge, the others naturally knew that this young man would not be staying for long.

A few days later, at the entrance of Nirvana Entertainment.

On a calm day, a few wealthy ladies suddenly appeared with a group of bodyguards. There were reporters carrying cameras.

The leader of the rich ladies reached out and shouted, "Smash it!"

Immediately, the bodyguards rushed over and smashed the signboard at the door. The security guards could not deal with this situation at all and were quickly at a disadvantage.

The bodyguards rushed in, and soon, Nirvana Entertainment was in a mess.

The leader of the rich ladies was brimming with a strong aura. She waved her hand and said, "What kind of lousy company is this? How dare you indulge your own artistes when they're hooking up with rich men outside? This doesn't look like an entertainment company to me. It looks more like a den of prostitutes!"

The reporters immediately asked the rich lady in the lead, "Mrs. Cao, can you tell us in detail what happened?"

"Can't you see what's going on? This lousy company got their manager to bring artistes to seduce my husband and ask for money and things! Our husbands were just putting on a show and playing along. Logically speaking, even if they cling to us, we won't be at a disadvantage, right? That's why we couldn't be bothered to argue with them! Who knew that they were completely clueless and became even worse? They got more and more arrogant. They actually instigated our husbands to get a divorce! What smug b*tches! Fortunately, our husbands told me the situation directly and said that they wanted to cut ties with these women! My friends and I are here today just to see what sort of lousy company had nurtured such artistes!"

Mrs. Cao's words enlightened the reporters, and they nodded repeatedly.

Mrs. Cao played with her fingernails that had been painted and said, "Post the videos of this directly! I want to see what kind of company this is and what the president is thinking! Is he sending talents to the entertainment industry or to the beds of the rich?"

The reporters liked such explosive news to begin with. Mrs. Cao's special instructions were exactly what they wanted!

Chapter 1488: Diverting The Trouble

Needless to say, not only would this be exposing a big piece of news, but it would make headlines and trending searches too!

Mrs. Cao then left.

The rich lady behind her asked worriedly, "I heard that Lu Weijian is behind Nirvana Entertainment. If we do this, won't we offend him?"

"Lu Weijian? I've already asked around. Lu Weijian hasn't come to the company for a long time. He just gave the company to an unknown man to manage. Besides, if it's really Lu Weijian's company, do you think he would've done such a thing?"

The other rich ladies felt that her words made sense and nodded repeatedly. Most of their worries were gone.

Since Nirvana Entertainment had nothing to do with Lu Weijian, no matter how much trouble they caused, it wouldn't matter. Only the company would have a hard time.

Soon, an explosive piece of news appeared in all kinds of headlines. [So Nirvana Entertainment is a brothel? They specialize in sending talents to the beds of rich people.]

This piece of news exaggerated what Mrs. Cao had said today. The report pointed out that all the male and female artistes in Nirvana Entertainment had become tools of the company. For money and resources, they would do anything. As long as they met a rich person, they would rush forward shamelessly.

Those female artistes were even more unprincipled and unscrupulous. They encouraged those rich men to divorce their wives, wanting to destroy their families. They did all kinds of bad things, causing the rich men's wives to come knocking on their doors!

At the end of the article, there was a summary of Mrs. Cao's harsh accusations. It was extremely savage!

The topic of mistresses had always been a hot topic in society, and it was also a topic that women felt strongly about. Soon, this news quickly gained traction and there were hundreds of thousands of comments.

The Weibo account of Nirvana Entertainment, which not many people paid attention to previously, had already been flooded with hundreds of thousands of comments filled with curses.

[What kind of lousy company would do such a thing? Such a company should really get out of the entertainment industry!]

[It's simply a case of male thieves and female prostitutes. It's not like there aren't unspoken rules in the industry, but they do those things behind closed doors. This company openly supports their own artistes to do such a thing. They probably planned to do it from the beginning. After all, it's faster to earn money like this!]

[This company is simply a malignant tumor in the industry. I hope the relevant departments ban the company as soon as possible!]

[I'm begging it to be banned!]

[I want it to be banned too!]

[Me too!]

[It's a pity that one of my favorite artistes has just joined this company. What a scam!]

[Those rich ladies are really pitiful. It's not easy for all of them to take care of their husbands.]

[But it's illegal to trash someone else's company, right?]

[I don't care about it being illegal or not. I feel great seeing it happen! This is the way to deal with such a malignant tumor in the industry! It feels good!]

[I think so too. This is how it should be for shameless people! You can't talk reason with such people. Shameless people have to be dealt with shamelessly!]

All of a sudden, the nameless Nirvana Entertainment became famous.

Unfortunately, the company became famous for the wrong reasons.

Fu Yujia glanced at the news report, picked up the red wine, and took a sip. Satisfied, she asked, "Is the matter settled?"

Her assistant, Han Xu, nodded. "Yes, Mrs. Cao and the others went straight to Nirvana Entertainment and trashed the place. They even invited reporters to help. Meanwhile, Mr. Cao and the others stayed at home obediently. This matter might end just like that."

"That's right." Fu Yujia put down her glass of red wine and phone.

Han Xu said, "I heard that Mr. Weijian has shares in Nirvana Entertainment. Will we offend Mr. Weijian this time?"

"I've asked around. Lu Weijian no longer cares about that company and is letting it fend for itself. Otherwise, he wouldn't have handed the company to that ordinary man called Su something. Besides, I really have no other choice. Tang Yue is a scammer!"

At the mention of Tang Yue, Fu Yujia's expression changed.

Previously, she had thought that she would earn a lot by buying Sheng Tang Entertainment at a low price.

Unexpectedly, ever since Tang Yue fell into dire straits, all the companies and malls in her hands had been taken back by Old Master Tang and handed over to Tang Xinru. Tang Yue was only left with Sheng Tang Entertainment.

However, not many people were willing to work with her. Seeing that Sheng Tang Entertainment was on the verge of collapse, Tang Yue was crazy enough to get the managers to use their female artistes to seduce rich men and become mistresses.

Some female artistes hated her so much for making that request of them that they terminated their contracts and left. However, in fear that they would be implicated and their reputation would be affected, they did not say anything about it.

Other female artistes with mediocre qualifications or who could not find anywhere else to go were willing to be used by Tang Yue. They were really willing to be rich mistresses and live good lives.

These artistes also brought Sheng Tang Entertainment resources and money from the rich men they slept with. This allowed Sheng Tang Entertainment to struggle at death's door until it was bought by Fu Yujia.

After Fu Yujia took over Sheng Tang Entertainment, she found out about this situation and was so angry that her heart ached. She never expected Tang Yue to do such a terrible thing and leave her with such a huge mess.

1

She had no choice. She had already bought the company. Even if it was a mess, Fu Yujia could only clean it up herself.

However, after she bought over the company, Mrs. Cao and the others started fighting with their husbands. The matter was about to blow up.

Fu Yujia could only make a move first and get someone to spread the news to Mrs. Cao and the others that those artistes were from Nirvana Entertainment.

Mrs. Cao and the others did not know much about the mistress' situation to begin with. They got someone to ask around, and the information they obtained was that the artistes were from Nirvana Entertainment. Mr. Cao and the others did not want the matter to blow up. When the time came, it would be difficult to deal with it. Hence, they just returned home and cowardly hid there without caring about the situation outside.

This caused Mrs. Cao and the others to look for Nirvana Entertainment and attack them.

As for why Fu Yujia wanted to divert the trouble and push everything to Nirvana Entertainment...

Naturally, it was because one had to pick the weakest link.

Nirvana Entertainment was small, had no fame, and did not have any outstanding artistes. The president was Su Lu, a guy who did not stand out. Besides, there was endless internal strife in the company. Fu Yujia chose Nirvana because she was sure that they would not be able to fight back.

"Tang Yue is too much!" Han Xu chimed in. "Do you want me to get someone to teach her a lesson?"

"Forget it. There's always a chance to deal with her. Let's solve the company's problem first. Let's see if there's anything else we need to deal with," Fu Yujia said with a headache. "Check the company's situation carefully. I don't want to see such a thing happen again in the future."

Chapter 1489: If You Dare To Sue Me

Su Bei was nervously filming the scenes for Split.

She really didn't have time to catch up on gossip news.

When she was done filming, she went to change her clothes and saw a girl sitting at the side with tears in her eyes. She looked familiar.

"Lin Tong?" Su Bei recognized her. Wasn't she the female artist from Nirvana Entertainment who successfully auditioned for a role in Split?

"Sister Su Bei!" Lin Tong hurriedly stood up and wiped her tears. "I'm sorry, Sister Su Bei. Did I disturb you?"

"What's wrong?" Su Bei saw that her eyes were red and she looked aggrieved.

Lin Tong had not been in the industry for long and did not have any achievements. Now that she saw Su Bei talking to her, she could not help but feel flattered. However, how could she dare to talk about her grievances?

"It's okay, it's nothing," Lin Tong quickly said.

Su Bei looked at her. She didn't look fine at all.

She frowned slightly. The stage manager ran over and said, "Su Bei, why are you with Lin Tong?"

"What's wrong? We're colleagues. Why can't we be together?"

Su Bei's words warmed Lin Tong's heart. She was so approachable, but it was a pity that she...

The stage manager pulled her aside and said, "You still don't know about Nirvana Entertainment, right? The news has trended on Weibo several times today. Nirvana Entertainment publicly encouraged and supported their artists to be mistresses of rich men. The rich men's wives found out about it and caused a commotion by going over to Nirvana Entertainment and trashing the place. Although the artistes weren't named, everyone knows who they are. None of them will be able to escape!"

"So everyone is now bullying Lin Tong on set?" Su Bei frowned unhappily.

"Su Bei, this isn't bullying. The matter with Nirvana Entertainment has already progressed to this, and Lin Tong is from Nirvana. It's inevitable for everyone to gossip. I've already told everyone not to say anything. Unfortunately, I can't keep an eye on the hundreds of people in the production team at all times!"

Su Bei's expression darkened slightly, and her originally sweet face turned cold. "Please pay more attention to the production team. Lin Tong was chosen by Director Jiang. I don't want to see such a thing happen again in the future."

"I understand," the stage manager replied immediately.

Lin Tong was standing at the side and had vaguely heard their conversation. Her face flushed red.

She had no idea about the news on Nirvana Entertainment at all. She had never been a mistress or accompanied a rich man.

But now, everyone was saying that she came from a prostitution den. Some even gave her attitude in front of her. She really couldn't stand it, so she cried.

Seeing that Su Bei was speaking up for her, she quickly said, "I'm sorry, Sister Su Bei. I've caused you trouble."

"You didn't do such a thing, so you don't have to apologize. The ones who should apologize are those who bullied you without knowing the truth."

Lin Tong's body trembled. After the incident, even her parents called to ask her what was going on. They told her to terminate her contract immediately and go back to her hometown to find a new job. They didn't want her to stay in such a place to work.

Only Su Bei, a stranger, spoke up for her.

She was very touched, but she was not exactly happy. "Thank you, Sister Su Bei. Thank you for believing me. Nirvana Entertainment has already made a statement, but it was useless..."

It was not Lin Tong that Su Bei believed in but Lu Weijian.

Previously, when Nirvana Entertainment was established, Lu Weijian was the one who handled it. Moreover, she and Qiao Mei also made many decisions for the company. Even the name was decided by her and Qiao Mei.

If Nirvana Entertainment was Lu Weijian's biological son, then in a sense, the company was her godson. She had put in a lot of effort.

Now that someone was slandering her godson like this, would she believe it?

Su Bei immediately took out her phone and started browsing. Sure enough, there were many criticisms online.

Nirvana Entertainment made an announcement and issued a lawyer's letter to some of the people who had criticized them the most.

However, it was useless.

The lawyers' letters were even mocked by some fans who knew the industry. [Isn't it just a lawyer's letter? There's no legal effect at all! I can give you dozens of them a day. Do you believe me?]

[If you have the ability, go and sue Mrs. Cao, Nirvana Entertainment! If you dare to sue her, we'll believe you!]

However, Nirvana Entertainment did not sue those rich ladies.

It was not difficult to understand. Those wealthy ladies were all powerful and influential people. Nirvana Entertainment had yet to gain a firm foothold, so how could they sue such people? This was something that could only happen if they did not intend to remain in the industry.

Su Bei scrolled to the personal Weibo accounts of the artistes under Nirvana Entertainment. Sure enough, there were many comments filled with curses. Even the male artistes were not spared.

Lin Tong was also scolded badly. There were also many people who scolded Director Jiang as well.

[Director Jiang actually cast someone from Nirvana Entertainment. He must have fallen for Jiang Tong, huh?]

[I'm disappointed! It turns out that the director is just like all the other guys out there!]

[I'm boycotting the director from Split. Does anyone have any objections?]

[No objections! Of course, we have no objections!]

Nirvana Entertainment was really in a deep mess this time.

No wonder Lin Tong was sitting here crying.

"Sister Su Bei, the situation is very bad now. Do you think I should just leave the production team?" Lin Tong asked. "I don't want to cause trouble for everyone."

"Can you solve the problem by withdrawing?" Su Bei asked.

Lin Tong lowered her head. She was just a small-time artiste and could not do anything.

"You're only unsuitable for the role if Director Jiang says so. Since he didn't say anything, it means that you're fine. Next, what you have to do is film your parts well. Do you understand?" Su Bei said.

Lin Tong raised her head. Su Bei seemed to be shining brightly in front of her. Everything she said was like a stimulant that nourished her.

Lin Tong nodded heavily.

Su Bei naturally knew that in order to solve everything, she had to start from the source.

Only by clearing the grievances of Nirvana Entertainment would everything else be resolved. Otherwise, this mess would not only involve Nirvana Entertainment and Split.

She planned to go to Nirvana Entertainment.

In Nirvana Entertainment.

The statement and the lawyer's letters were released, but things did not improve at all.

If the outside world did not believe them, then nothing could be done. They could produce any strong evidence, so they could only let themselves be scolded.

"What should we do now? My artiste was supposed to act as the second female lead in a production but was suddenly rejected," an agent said.

"It's even worse on my side. The commercial was already filmed and almost completed. Now, they don't want to use it anymore. We didn't even get a single compensation." Another agent spread out his hands.

Chapter 1490: Might As Well Leave

"Me too. A girl who graduated from a film academy caught my eye. When we were signing the contract, her parents came. Not only did I not manage to sign her, but I was also beaten up to this extent," the agent said as he pointed at the bandage on his head.

"Vice President Hu, what did Mr. Weijian say?"

Vice President Hu shook his head. "Mr. Weijian isn't answering his phone."

"But our company has never done those things! Let's just contact Mrs. Cao and ask her about it," someone suggested.

The problem was that Vice President Hu could not contact Mrs. Cao!

Not everyone was able to meet that rich madam. Moreover, she was now certain that it was someone from Nirvana Entertainment who deliberately destroyed her family and instigated her husband to get a divorce, so how could the employees here have a chance to reach out to her?

Everyone sat in their seats with defeated expressions. How was the matter going to be resolved?

An agent stood up and said, "It seems that Mr. Weijian won't interfere in this matter! Damn, I can't stay in this company anymore. I might as well leave!"

Everyone looked at him as if he was a fool. "Do you think any other company will want us if we leave now?"

The man lowered his head: "..."

If they could leave, many people would choose to.

But now, their names had long been labeled with a prostitution den. Some even said that they specialized in pimping. Which legitimate company would dare to hire them?

Some companies that were already in the pimping line wanted talents like them. The first thing they asked them was, "Can you get us a big client like Mr. Cao?"

These agents were so angry that they hung up before they could finish the call.

Vice President Hu stood up and said, "If it really doesn't work out, I'll go look for my mentor and ask for his opinion! I believe he'll definitely help me."

His mentor was a big shot in the media industry and had a wide circle of friends. He also had a good relationship with many reporters!

"Vice President Hu, we're counting on you!"

"Vice President Hu, it's all up to you now!"

Vice President Hu said, "Don't worry, I'll definitely handle this matter well."

"President Su is here!" someone called out.

Looking at Su Lu, who was late, everyone did not get enthusiastic. Instead, they were a little nonchalant. Something had happened to the company, yet she had only come now. She might as well wait for the company to close down before coming.

"President Su," everyone greeted her lazily.

"Why didn't anyone inform me when such a big thing happened to the company?" Su Bei asked.

If she hadn't met Lin Tong, she wouldn't have known that something had happened to the company. She had been busy filming for the past two days.

Chen Ce lowered his head in embarrassment. He had wanted to inform her, but Vice President Hu did not allow it. As a mere manager, he did not dare to disobey.

Someone immediately said, "President Su, you don't have to worry about this matter. Vice President Hu has already thought of a way to resolve it."

"What way?" Su Bei looked at Vice President Hu.

"Vice President Hu's former mentor is a media giant. He's very famous in the media industry. As long as he appears, these reporters will definitely show him some face. This matter will be easily resolved then," the director from before said arrogantly. He was on good terms with Vice President Hu, so he naturally believed that if Vice President Hu made a move, the problem would definitely be resolved.

Su Bei nodded. "So, you're planning to use reporters to suppress the scandal?"

"It's a good idea, President Su. As long as we suppress this matter, those forgetful people will quickly forget about it. In that case, we won't be affected too badly. At that time, we can just get back up and rise to the top. It's better than waiting for death like this, right? If this continues, we can only starve!" Gao Ban said.

Su Bei stared at him and said, "Director Gao, even if we use reporters to suppress the matter for the time being, when others mention Nirvana Entertainment, they'll still use those unpleasant words to describe us. Our artistes and agents won't be able to raise their heads when they go out!"

Seeing that Su Bei was raining on their parade, Gao Ban said unhappily, "We can't just ignore everything, right? Since you think this method isn't good, I wonder if you have any brilliant ideas that can lead us out of this predicament?"

Su Bei thought for a while and said, "I need a few days."

Gao Ban snorted. "How many days do you need? It'll be too late then!"

Vice President Hu also said, "President Su, the entire company can't wait for you! How about this? I'll get my mentor to help first, and you can go ahead with your plans. Is that alright?"

"Yes, that's a good idea." Su Bei agreed. After all, Nirvana Entertainment was now in her hands. She had to make sure that she could return it to Lu Weijian.

Lu Weijian was probably too busy with the Huo family's matters to care about anything else.

Gao Ban suddenly said, "But President Su, you're the leader of the company. It's not appropriate to let Vice President Hu do everything, right?"

Su Bei looked at Gao Ban and understood that these two people had doubts about her. This was a good opportunity for them to step on her and make it easier for them to climb up the ladder.

Su Bei smiled. "What do you mean, Director Gao?"

"President Su, Vice President Hu is already thinking of a way to resolve the matter. He'll probably settle it soon. If we want the company to develop well, the company needs to be run by someone capable. As for the position of president..." Gao Ban said meaningfully.

Su Bei glanced at the others. No one was convinced by Su Bei now, so it was not appropriate for them to say anything. Chen Ce wanted to say something, but he was just a low-ranking manager and was in no position to say anything. He could only look at Su Bei regretfully.

"Director Gao, if you have something to say, why don't you just say it? Let's take this opportunity to make things clear so that we won't have conflicts in the future," Su Bei said frankly.

Gao Ban said, "Then I'll get straight to the point. This matter is so serious that the entire company might be destroyed overnight. Our reputations will also be ruined. We're in the same boat. If Vice President Hu can really resolve this matter and save everyone from danger, then I don't think anyone will have any objections to Vice President Hu becoming the president of our company and supervising everyone's work, right?"

Everyone shook their heads, indicating that they had no objections.

He asked Su Bei, "President Su Lu, do you have any objections?"

“Of course. If Vice President Hu can solve the problem, I’m willing to listen to him,” Su Bei said, but she was already making considerations in her heart. Vice President Hu definitely did not have the ability to fix the problem.

Otherwise, he would have started to solve the problem long ago and wouldn’t have waited until now.
