Chapter 1671 Rather Rely On Yourself Than On A Man

Could it be that he worked so hard to prepare the durians for that little boy to enjoy?

When he looked up, his eyes were filled with jealousy and disappointment.

Should he learn to acquire a taste for durians too?

A moment later, Su Bei came back. She stood on her tiptoes, raised her head, and kissed him on the lips.

With the smell that he once hated and could not accept, she gave him a sweet kiss on the corner of his lips.

Lu Heting stuck out the tip of his tongue and swiped the spot over. His eyes softened.

Because Sister Wen Wen had continued to make alluding remarks to Su Bei, her popularity had been especially high recently.

Of course, there were more people who scolded her than those who liked her.

There were also many people who said that she was a sore loser.

However, Sister Wen Wen did not care.

This was the first time she was able to deal a blow to Su Bei through her career.

She worked even harder. During her live broadcasts and interviews, she often said, "It's better to rely on yourself than on men.

"Modern women don't want to get anything through marriage. It's all about what you bring to marriage!

"We can live better without men!

"Independence! Live your own life!"

These words caused a big controversy because many rational people looked at love and marriage objectively. There was actually no conflict between being themselves and being loved by a man.

Moreover, many people knew that in love and marriage, giving and receiving were a relatively equal balance.

A rational person wouldn't blindly refuse a man's efforts, but they wouldn't let themselves completely indulge in a man's efforts either. Everyone admitted that giving and giving went both ways.

However, Sister Wen Wen's words were very memorable. After all, her slogans were catchy and easy to spread.

Therefore, her quotes became very popular. Some people who didn't think things through, as well as those who had been hurt before, could easily accept her advice.

They accepted her advice, scolded Su Bei, and despised Su Bei for being idle in a wealthy family.

Although this would not bring direct harm to Su Bei, it would still bring great trouble to her and her career.

Even some of her irrational fans seemed to have been brainwashed. They exclaimed on Weibo: [Su Bei, please step out and take on a job! If you continue like this, your future will be very worrying!]

[That's right. You can't rely on men all the time. I hope you can see this clearly. Otherwise, it'll be too late for regrets.]

[You're still young. Don't pin all your hopes on Lu Heting. You still have to train yourself more. That way, even if something happens to your marriage, you'll still have the right to speak!]

[I hope you'll consider what we said. We're really doing this for your own good!]

[Are you not working because of Lu Heting's coercion? If so, we'll crowdfund your divorce!]

When Lu Heting saw these comments, he snapped the pen in his hand.

Su Bei's fans actually wanted them to get a divorce?

Lu Hang hurriedly came forward to clean up the mess and advised, "Mr. Lu, Young Madam said that this matter will be resolved soon. Please believe her and don't panic!"

Lu Heting: "!!!"

The fans were asking them to divorce, but she still told him not to panic!

What was wrong with the netizens this time?

Seeing that the air pressure in the room was getting lower and lower, Lu Hang hurriedly ran out and called Su Bei. His voice was weak. "Young Madam, save me!"

"Give the phone to Lu Heting!" Of course, Su Bei knew what was going on. The man must have seen the discussion on the internet.

Lu Hang jogged over and handed the phone to Lu Heting, stopping his bad temper in time. He touched his neck in surprise. Fortunately, he called in time. Otherwise, his poor neck might have been crushed.

"Hubby, what are you doing?"

Lu Heting's anger dissipated when he heard Su Bei's gentle voice. "I'm reading documents."

"Don't work too hard. Remember to eat something and drink some coffee later. I've already asked Lu Hang to prepare it for you."

"Alright," Lu Heting said gently.

Lu Hang thought, 'Only Young Madam can make Mr. Lu eat something and drink coffee. Who else can persuade Mr. Lu once he starts working?'

"Only by taking good care of your health can you be with me for a long time. In the future, when we go overseas to celebrate our silver and gold wedding anniversaries, you have to carry me."

"Okay." Lu Heting smiled.

It didn't matter what the outside world said. What mattered was her promise to be together forever.

Lu Hang wiped the sweat off his forehead. It was another day of being tortured by Mr. Lu. Not only was he tortured by Mr. Lu, but he was also tortured by the couple's PDA.

...

In Qiao Mei's office, she watched Su Bei say sweet nothings to Lu Heting over the phone.

It turned out that Su Bei was like this when she was with her loved one. She was usually capable and experienced, but when she spoke sweet nothings, she seemed to be really gentle.

As for Mr. Lu... Qiao Mei couldn't imagine the cold, abstinent, and unapproachable Mr. Lu to be someone who enjoyed listening to these things.

Tsk, tsk, tsk. Qiao Mei expressed that her outlook on life had really been greatly impacted.

Su Bei put down the phone, and Qiao Mei quickly said seriously, "That's why Sister Wen Wen has become even worse. I've already told the fans that you'll only take on a project when you see a suitable script and meet a suitable team. You won't take jobs that don't match your value and aesthetics. After all, you've already established your status, so most of the fans have expressed their understanding and support."

"What has Sister Wenwen been up to recently?" Su Bei asked.

"She's still doing live broadcasts," Qiao Mei said.

"Follow her for a while," Su Bei said. "Let me know if anything happens."

Qiao Mei nodded and said, "You think she's not clean?"

Su Bei didn't say anything, but Qiao Mei had already sensed something.

...

Sister Wen Wen's momentum was fierce, and Fu Yujia liked her very much.

The valuation of her company was also getting higher and higher.

At the company's annual meeting, Sister Wen Wen reported on her work and performance for the past half a year. She received unanimous praise from the shareholders and countless applause.

Fu Yujia also gave a few good comments.

"Sister Wen Wen is getting better and better."

"The overall profit from her live broadcasts has already exceeded 50% of the company's profits."

"The other streamers under Sister Wen Wen will soon catch up."

"Under such circumstances, her performance as a broadcaster has actually surpassed many of our company's small celebrities. In the current situation of the industry, Sister Wen Wen has long escaped the shackles of the entertainment industry and created a new profit model. She's really worthy of admiration."

Chapter 1672 Horrible!

Sister Wen Wen sat in her seat. Her expression was humble, but she still looked a little arrogant.

Wen Kaiwei knocked on the table and said indifferently, "So, on behalf of the Wen family, I'll increase our investment in Sister Wen Wen's live broadcast company. I hope to increase the close cooperation between Sister Wen Wen and Sheng Tang Entertainment."

When Sister Wen Wen heard his words, she was excited and quickly said, "Thank you, Mr. Wen. Thank you, Miss Fu!"

Wen Kaiwei's action was not surprising.

After all, Sister Wen Wen was still an artiste of Sheng Tang Entertainment. Even though she had opened a company and her career was flourishing, she was still from Sheng Tang Entertainment.

Her manager was still here. She couldn't leave just like that.

His investment in Sister Wen Wen was actually a form of support for Fu Yujia.

Everyone in Sheng Tang Entertainment had high hopes for Wen Kaiwei and Sister Wen Wen.

Especially Wen Kaiwei. With this series of operations, he gained a right to speak and a great reputation in the company.

...

In the live-streaming industry, Sister Wen Wen had become the biggest star.

Wherever she appeared, her performance was obviously higher than others.

Her own live broadcast company was soon listed on the market.

Not only was she an internet celebrity now, but she was also a boss.

In the entire Sheng Tang Entertainment, other than Fu Yujia and Wen Kaiwei, she had the highest status.

Naturally, the impact she had on Su Bei was still intensifying.

But how long could all of this last?

...

Qiao Mei quickly received news about Sister Wen Wen.

She called Su Bei. "My friend has been following Sister Wen Wen for a while and found out that she often meets a rich man in private at night. We can confirm that the two of them are in a relationship."

"Okay, then let's announce it to the public," Su Bei said calmly.

This would not be a scandal. They were just photos of a man and a woman in a normal relationship.

Therefore, it was not considered a scandal.

In fact, it might not even be worth mentioning.

Just like that, Qiao Mei released the photos of Sister Wenwen's private meeting with the rich man.

However, to Sister Wen Wen, who was determined to create a completely different persona from Su Bei and kept saying that women had to rely on themselves and not men, the photos were undoubtedly a slap in her face.

There were already many people who were dissatisfied with her extreme opposition to the identities and emotions of men and women. They were dissatisfied with her deliberate separation of men and women regardless of the fact that men and women could exist in harmony.

Now that they saw such photos, many people naturally started to complain. [Don't you rely on yourself for everything? Why do you still have to rely on men?]

[You say one thing, but in reality, what you're doing is another! Isn't this a show of double standards?]

[You always imply that others rely on men, but you're actually with a man every night. What did you say before, huh?]

The relationship between Sister Wen Wen and this rich man had always been very secretive. Even Fu Yujia did not know about it.

Now that Sister Wen Wen was exposed, she was still somewhat calm. She posted on Weibo: [Please don't pay too much attention to my private life. Everyone has the right to choose what goes on in their private life and the right to become a better person. I hope everyone won't be agitated and be used by someone with ulterior motives.]

She also knew that she was being targeted, so she was worried that she would be mocked by more people. Hence, she was very careful with her words on Weibo. She was very different from how she constantly shouted slogans previously.

Fu Yujia also called her. "Take care of your private life. Don't cause more trouble."

"I will, Miss Fu," Sister Wen Wen said, swallowing her anger.

But in fact, deep down, she was very envious of Su Bei's life.

Su Bei was able to become a wealthy lady that everyone envied, and she did not need to work hard anymore. This was her long-standing grudge against Su Bei.

Now, she had worked so hard to get close to this rich man and spent so much effort to keep him by her side. How could she bear to abandon him like this?

The only thing she could do now was to hide her schedule as well as protect her privacy.

As a result, she had no time to criticize Su Bei anymore.

She couldn't continue to shout slogans and flatter herself in case she caused strong dissatisfaction and retaliation from the outside world.

Qiao Mei reported the outcome to Su Bei. "Sister Wen Wen has completely calmed down."

“Okay, that’s good.” Su Bei’s original intention was not to defeat Sister Wen Wen with dirt. She just wanted to teach her a lesson.

The other party wanted to use such lousy tricks to defeat her. Well, Su Bei would use her own moves to retaliate and make Sister Wen Wen break.

Although Su Bei thought so, Sister Wen Wen’s competitors did not think so.

They saw photos of Sister Wen Wen dating a rich man on the internet and immediately continued to investigate.

Soon, they realized that the rich man who was dating Sister Wen Wen had a family of his own!

Besides, the rich man had a good relationship with his wife!

Maybe Sister Wen Wen was deliberately hooking up with a rich man!

Soon, #SisterWenWenIsA Mistress became a trending topic on Weibo. It entered everyone’s line of sight and became the focus of everyone’s attention.

Photos of the rich man and his family were also dug up and posted on the internet.

[I’m really disgusted. Previously, she still had the cheek to say that Su Bei only relied on men and wouldn’t be happy in her marriage. She said that Su Bei was not independent, but in the end, she found a rich man and became a mistress!]

[Su Bei is simply 100 million times better! Su Bei and Mr. Lu are at least officially married! Su Bei isn’t like her, destroying other people’s families!]

[Oh my God, how can such a person have the cheek to say in live broadcasts every day that a woman is beautiful when she’s working hard for her career? She kept saying that if a woman wants to live a wonderful life, she has to rely on herself completely. May I ask if this woman is relying on herself?]

[This lady might have relied on her ability to spread her legs!]

[She’s horrible! She deliberately defamed women and created extreme opposition between men and women. She incited fans’ emotions, but in the end, she’s messing with a rich man behind everyone’s backs!]

[How can a mistress like her be so shameless?]

[To be honest, she was still doing well as a model although there was a big gap between her and Su Bei. But now, she’s not even worthy of carrying Su Bei’s shoes.]

[In any case, I suggest banning such live-streamers! In order to sell things to earn money, they’ve gotten really shameless!]

Chapter 1673 Do Their Best And Leave It To Fate

When Qiao Mei saw the news, she couldn’t help but click her tongue in wonder. “So she’s a mistress! At that time, we were only focused on the photos and didn’t notice such an inside story!”

Su Bei did not expect this either. "Then she deserves it for receiving such comments and being scolded like this."

"I heard that the other party's main wife already knows about this. It seems that this matter won't be settled anytime soon." Qiao Mei was enjoying the show now.

Sheng Tang Entertainment immediately carried out emergency public relations.

!!

After all, Sister Wen Wen was now the company's biggest profiteer and their most profitable artiste. If Sister Wen Wen was dragged down, the entire company's performance would encounter a huge problem.

That night, Fu Yujia and Wen Kaiwei did not sleep. They watched over the public relations staff as they carried out their work.

However, the most difficult part was the truth.

The matter between Sister Wen Wen and the rich man was real. After the first batch of photos, someone quickly released more explosive photos.

Such a thing could not be washed away.

Sheng Tang Entertainment's public relations team was just doing their best and leaving it to fate.

The atmosphere in Sheng Tang Entertainment was a little tense.

Wen Kaiwei had just taken out a large sum of money to invest in Sister Wen Wen when such a big thing happened to her. The damage was really irreversible.

Moreover, the rich man's family had a huge reaction. They did not give Sheng Tang Entertainment any room to negotiate and were determined not to cooperate.

Fu Yujia was so angry that she threw the document in Sister Wen Wen's face. "Didn't I tell you to clean up your mess as soon as possible?"

Sister Wen Wen had fallen from a high-level executive to her current state overnight. She did not even dare to retaliate when she was beaten and scolded by Fu Yujia.

Wen Kaiwei said, "Forget it. Since the outside world has caused such a big commotion, Sister Wen Wen's work will be suspended. The public is forgetful. She'll apologize first, admit her mistake, and be honest. After some time, when everyone has forgotten, she'll appear again."

Fu Yujia said in disappointment, "That's the only way."

What she hated the most was being involved in such gossip. It made her unable to raise her head in the Lu family or publicize her career.

However, such things always happened in the company!

She did not know if it was a deliberate blow to her spirit as a woman who wanted to be a mistress.

Fu Yujia thought for a moment and said to Han Xu, “Who brings the most goods now? Who’s the most popular?”

“It’s a live broadcaster called Xiao Yi.”

“From today onward, we’ll hand Sister Wenwen’s activities to her. We’ll get her to go on a broadcast tonight!”

Han Xu nodded.

Sister Wen Wen bit her lip indignantly.

However, she could not make a comeback now. She could only endure this for now.

Fortunately, she did not fall out with the rich man. When the public forgot about this matter, she could still make a comeback!

Xiao Yi could only carry her shoes then!

That night, the entire Sheng Tang Entertainment and the live broadcast company were hyping up Xiao Yi’s live broadcast.

Seeing that the company had already given up on Sister Wen Wen and wasn’t giving her a chance, the public could not say anything else.

Not only did Sister Wen Wen apologize on Weibo, but she also pretended to be pitiful, hoping to arouse everyone’s sympathy.

Some of her extreme fans stood up to comfort her and even hinted that Su Bei must have done something unspeakable in this incident.

How could they still say such words when Su Bei was so popular? It really made people feel that Sister Wen Wen’s fans were digging her grave for her.

Soon, the enthusiastic netizens continued to follow the traces on Weibo and found the identity of the rich man.

These people quickly revealed that this rich man, President Zhang, was actually the president of the largest live-streaming platform in the country!

Buy Fish was the largest live-streaming platform in S Country.

Everyone who had the business qualifications and passed the review could sell goods on this platform. It was also the most popular buying platform in S Country.

The reason why this platform could be so big and have so much traffic and be listed in the United States was that the company had initially given all sellers and businesses a fair and equal environment.

It could be said that many businesses in S Country relied on Buy Fish to earn a lot of money. It was also the environment and platform provided by Buy Fish that gave everyone a chance to showcase their skills.

However, since there was an unspeakable relationship between President Zhang and Sister Wen Wen, everyone naturally began to suspect how Sister Wen Wen was able to become the number one host in the live broadcast industry and establish her own company. She became more and more stable step by step. Was it because of President Zhang's position? Did he provide her with all kinds of convenience and specially give her a better position and platform than others? Was it because he used his official position for personal gain and gave the company's resources to Sister Wen Wen?

If he really used his position to open a back door for his lover, would the huge company still be the fair and just platform market?

Did the convenience he gave Sister Wen Wen deprive others of their business opportunity?

Was this fair to other businesses that relied on live broadcasts to sell their goods?

Previously, everyone only paid attention to Sister Wen Wen's matter with the intention of watching a show. They treated this matter as if they were teaching a mistress a lesson.

Now, the emotional entanglement between President Zhang and Sister Wen Wen had become a conflict of interest that everyone was concerned about. It undoubtedly touched the vital interests of many people.

Therefore, the netizens posted ten consecutive questions:

[When did Sister Wenwen get together with President Zhang?]

[Did President Zhang provide convenience in Sister Wenwen's career?]

[Buy Fish isn't President Zhang's company alone. Did he hurt the rights of the other shareholders by doing this?]

[Did Buy Fish break its fair and just operating environment?]

[What else is there between Buy Fish and Sister Wen Wen?]

[What are the conflicts of interest between Buy Fish and Sheng Tang Entertainment?]

[Did Sheng Tang Entertainment accept the money that President Zhang embezzled from Buy Fish?]

[Can Sheng Tang Entertainment and President Zhang provide the data on their companies' revenue?]

[Can Buy Fish tolerate a person like President Zhang staying in the company?]

[How will the platform handle Sister Wen Wen's matter?]

These things no longer only involved Sister Wen Wen.

Those live-streamers who had worked so hard on Buy Fish were also constantly speaking out because of this series of matters that concerned their personal interests. They were hoping to protect their rights.

Chapter 1674 Method Of Revenge

Buy Fish was even more vigilant. If this matter was not handled carefully, the investors and shareholders would be disappointed. It would affect the foundation of the entire company too.

This matter involved Sheng Tang Entertainment, and many people asked to check the company's accounts.

Sister Wen Wen had single-handedly dragged Sheng Tang Entertainment and Buy Fish into the water. She could be said to be the biggest jinx of the year.

And the source of all this was that she had started talking about Su Bei on the live-stream platform.

Su Bei did not expect this matter to develop like this.

And it was getting worse.

She had only asked Qiao Mei to post a photo.

"Even God can't save Sister Wen Wen from what she did," Qiao Mei said. "She asked for it."

"I'm just too shocked. I didn't expect so many things to happen. She did all those things, but she still dissed me so confidently before. Where did she get the confidence?"

Qiao Mei smiled. "She thought that just by relying on Fu Yujia and that bootlicker, Mr. Wen, she could ensure an easy life for herself. In addition, there was a big shot behind her, so she was fearless. But how can this circle be as easy as she thinks?"

As soon as Qiao Mei finished speaking, Su Bei's phone rang.

She opened it and saw that Sheng Tang Entertainment had already issued a statement. [Although Wen Wen is an employee of our company, the series of things she did are all personal actions. They have nothing to do with our company, and she didn't receive any instructions from the company either. We solemnly announce that our contract with Wen Wen will be terminated, and the investment in Wen Wen's company will be taken away. Maintaining a healthy and fair business environment is the wish of every businessman, and it's also our responsibility.

[All of us are obligated to play our roles well. We'll receive more public supervision in the future. I hope everyone will pay more attention to the works of our artistes.]

Fu Yujia was quick enough to cut ties with Sister Wen Wen.

Initially, she and Wen Kaiwei had planned to protect Sister Wen Wen.

However, as the situation worsened, Sheng Tang Entertainment was asked by the relevant departments to reveal their accounts.

Buy Fish also stepped in to investigate President Zhang. The matter had already escalated to an uncontrollable situation.

If this continued, Sheng Tang Entertainment would also face a huge crisis.

The shareholders were already complaining.

Fu Yujia had no choice but to make this decision.

Sure enough, not long after Sheng Tang Entertainment released their statement, Buy Fish also released their statement.

The statement pointed out that President Zhang did not use his official position for personal gain, nor did he use the company's assets to give Sister Wen Wen any special treatment.

However, the company still reduced President Zhang's salary.

The outside world clearly did not believe Buy Fish's statement. [If Buy Fish really admitted it, who will sell things on their platform in the future? Who will believe that they're actually fair?]

[They're not good people anyway. People like Sister Wen Wen should have been banned long ago.]

[Don't you think that the person who does these things always comes from Sheng Tang Entertainment? Why wasn't Sheng Tang Entertainment like this when Su Bei was there?]

[I think it's because there are some people who aren't managing the company well! A good company is about to fall from grace!]

[Look at Nirvana Entertainment. They're a good example of excellent management. Many small-time artistes have found new success after joining them. They've found their place in the industry and are doing well now!]

[You're comparing Fu Yujia to Su Lu? Is there a need for comparison? Does everyone need to talk about President Su's ability?]

[That's true, that's true. Hahahahaha. I was rude.]

Fu Yujia had suffered such a huge loss. The entire Sheng Tang Entertainment was in an extremely dark mood.

After Sister Wen Wen left, her company was dissolved. Although Wen Kaiwei and Sheng Tang Entertainment withdrew some of the money they invested, most of it went down the drain.

Sheng Tang Entertainment was about to rise, but they were forcefully suppressed.

"Where's Wen Wen?" Fu Yujia asked.

Han Xu replied in a low voice, "President Zhang gave her a sum of money to go overseas and never come back."

Fu Yujia was so angry that she gripped her coffee cup tightly. Wen Wen had left, so she had to clean up the mess herself.

Wen Kaiwei stood not far away with a cigarette in his hand. "Jia Jia, you still have me. Things might still work out."

Fu Yujia looked up at him hopefully.

...

Sister Wen Wen's matter had come to an end, and no one on the internet was talking about Su Bei's marriage anymore. Lu Heting's emotions had completely calmed down.

Lu Hang admired Su Bei. "Young Madam, you did a good job in Sister Wen Wen's matter."

When he sent Su Bei out of the company, he spoke to her in a tone filled with admiration.

Su Bei was speechless.

'If I say that I didn't do anything, will anyone believe me?

'No one will!'

Many people thought that she was the one who did it, and they admired her methods. She did a clean and efficient job. She didn't even get involved and didn't even reveal her name before she completely KO-ed Sister Wen Wen!

Since no one would believe her, Su Bei did not argue.

After changing her clothes, she went to Nirvana Entertainment.

Sure enough, even Xiao Ling was seriously discussing with others. "Su Bei must have done this behind the scenes! I like Su Bei's method of taking revenge! It's all because of Sister Wen Wen. She kept insulting Su Bei, taking advantage of her popularity, and stepping on her. After that, she even criticized Su Bei's marriage. Who wouldn't be angry?! Su Bei's drastic measures were what I wanted to do myself!"

The receptionist at the front desk looked at her with admiration. "I thought the paparazzi were behind this. I didn't expect it to be Su Bei's doing! Sister Wen Wen kept saying that she didn't need to rely on a man, but Su Bei took action without any bloodshed. Where will she put her face now?"

"So, whether a person can do it or not doesn't depend on what they say. It depends on what they do!" Xiao Ling straightened her chest. "I announce that from now on, I'll be a loyal fan of Su Bei!"

Amused, Su Bei walked past them to her office.

Xu Zhiqin knocked on the door and asked, "Has everything been resolved?"

"Yeah."

"This is the arrangement for the TV show we're filming this time. Some of the live scenes have to be filmed overseas. You need to sign for the fees and itinerary here." Xu Zhiqin handed over a stack of things.

Seeing that there was no problem, Su Bei signed her name. "When are you leaving?"

Chapter 1675 Fatherly Love Is Nothing! What Is Fatherly Love?

"Tomorrow morning. I'll be back in about two weeks. After I come back, I'll reshoot some domestic scenes and we'll be able to wrap up filming. Everything is going smoothly for the production team," Xu Zhiqin said with a smile. "After I go overseas, I'll keep you informed of my schedule."

Su Bei smiled. "You don't have to report your schedule."

"Why?"

"Because I'll be going with you." Su Bei smiled. "But not for work."

It was to accompany Lu Heting.

She had already planned a trip with Lu Heting last time, but Lin Xiruo was sick at the last minute, so she could only cancel it.

She had nothing to do recently, so she planned to make up for it.

Coincidentally, Lin Xiruo had returned from the United States. She planned to take care of Da Bao and Gun Gun for a while, especially since she had to personally guide Gun Gun in painting.

In this way, Su Bei was given the best chance.

...

Knowing that he was going to travel with Su Bei, the corners of Lu Heting's lips curled up.

In the company, everyone could feel Mr. Lu's warm smile.

"So, Assistant Lu, what's the situation now?" The higher-ups were bold enough to talk to Lu Hang.

"It's nothing. Mr. Lu is going overseas for a few days to travel with Young Madam. The work has been arranged for everyone. Just do it step by step." Lu Hang didn't hide it from everyone. In any case, he had to inform the higher-ups sooner or later.

The senior executives were enlightened. "So he's going overseas for a trip."

"He's going with Young Madam."

Everyone was impressed by Su Bei. They had been in Lu Group for so many years. When had they ever felt Mr. Lu's warmth?

This was the only time.

They stole a glance at Mr. Lu's smiling face. He was like a young man from a village who had never seen the world. He was so happy just at the thought of going overseas.

Those who didn't know better would think that it was Mr. Lu's first time traveling abroad.

It was really unbearable to watch.

While everyone was still discussing, Lu Heting strode out of the office.

Everyone quickly pretended that nothing had happened and left.

"Lu Hang, the signed documents are on the desk. Handle them tomorrow."

"Okay, Mr. Lu." Lu Hang quickly reminded him, "Mr. Lu, you have a business banquet at eight tonight."

"Postpone it," Lu Heting said. "Follow me."

Lu Hang quickly followed. He didn't know what Mr. Lu was so busy with that he had to postpone such an important business banquet.

Was he going home to accompany the two little masters?

This made sense. After all, he would be gone for a few days. He would be with Young Madam every day during the trip, but he would have to neglect the little masters. It made sense for Mr. Lu to go home and do his best as a father.

Lu Hang got the car and asked Lu Heting, "Mr. Lu, where are we going?"

"The mall." Lu Heting tidied his sleeves.

"Okay." Lu Hang guessed that he was going to buy a gift for the little masters.

Fortunately, he had been studying boys' gifts recently. If Mr. Lu asked him later, he would definitely be able to give a good answer.

Lu Hang gave himself full marks in his heart.

A moment later, they arrived at the mall. Lu Hang followed Lu Heting into the mall.

In the end, Lu Heting did not enter the toy area as Lu Hang had expected. Instead, he entered the luggage area.

So, Mr. Lu made time to come to the mall and postponed the banquet just to buy suitcases?

Wasn't Mr. Lu just going on a trip? Was this really necessary?

Lu Heting chose carefully while Lu Hang gave a small suggestion.

Lu Hang was confused. He had followed Mr. Lu to many countries for business trips. Didn't Mr. Lu have enough luggage?

In order to travel, he had to buy a suitcase at the last minute. What was going on?

And he was buying it in person.

Lu Hang didn't quite understand.

Just as he was confused, Lu Heting took out his phone and pointed at one of the photos. "I want the same model."

Lu Hang took a casual glance, and his heart was struck.

He wanted the same model!

It turned out that he came here to buy a suitcase with great fanfare just to ask for the same model as Su Bei!

'Mr. Lu, you win!'

Fatherly love was nothing! What was fatherly love?

After buying the luggage, Lu Hang was already overwhelmed by the PDA even though Su Bei was absent. He then sent Lu Heting home.

He couldn't have been more wrong. He thought that Lu Heting and Su Bei would only be able to show off their affection if they were together.

He didn't expect to see PDA when Su Bei wasn't around.

Sigh!

When Su Bei got home from work, Lu Heting had already packed his luggage.

"So soon?" Su Bei teased. "Hey, is that a new suitcase?"

"Yes, I happened to see it. I thought it looked good, so I bought it."

"It's the same as mine!" Su Bei immediately took out her own gown. "Then I'll use this!"

Lu Heting was very satisfied.

He had never really gone on a trip with her before. When she was diagnosed with gastric cancer, a similar situation happened.

Hence, he would definitely not disappoint her this time.

The next morning, the plane went straight to the destination they had already chosen.

Su Bei did not deliberately hide her schedule. She and Lu Heting showed off their affection to everyone.

They wore the same sunglasses, the same white shoes, the same suitcase, and the same thin windbreaker but just with different lengths. They were quickly photographed, and the photos circulated among fans.

[I'm so envious. Our Bei Bei has really married her true love!]

[I believe in love again!]

[Mr. Lu really dotes on her!]

Someone said sourly: [Su Bei must have forced Mr. Lu to dress like this. Otherwise, I don't believe that Mr. Lu, who has always been in a suit, would dress like this willingly.]

Someone immediately retorted: [If Mr. Lu is willing to be forced, it means that he loves Su Bei. What kind of monster are you? Are you jealous?]

[That's right! Are you jealous that Mr. Lu isn't wearing the same clothes as you?]

Some people also realized that Lu Heting had driven the car with one hand while holding Su Bei's hand with the other. Their fingers were intertwined. He was a perfect partner!

Previously, there were still some people who used to complain about Su Bei worming her way into marrying a wealthy family. Now that they were struck by reality, they could no longer say anything.

In the first-class cabin of the plane...

Su Bei propped her chin on her hand and looked at the blue sky and white clouds outside. She was in a good mood. From time to time, she would turn around and say something to Lu Heting. Lu Heting kept a smile on his face. No matter what she said, he was focused and patient.

When she looked out of the window again, Lu Heting whispered to the flight attendant. He asked for two thin blankets and a bottle of mineral water.

A moment later, Su Bei was tired. After drinking the mineral water, she put down the seat and started to catch up on sleep.

They had rushed for the morning flight. She was also excited about the trip, so she woke up especially early in the morning.

Chapter 1676 If I'm A Character Out Of A Painting, So Are You

Lu Heting reached out and covered the woman with a thin blanket, his eyes gentle and eager.

Seeing this, the flight attendant covered her heart and screamed silently!

It was too much for her to handle!

...

On the beach of Osland.

Su Bei was wearing a long beach dress. Her bare feet stepped on the fine sand, and her clothes fluttered in the sea breeze.

The sun slowly set at the end of the distant coast, scattering golden light all over her body.

She took a photo and sent it to Da Bao and Gun Gun. Then, she replied to Gun Gun's series of messages before putting down her phone.

When she turned around, Lu Heting was already gone.

Only then did Su Bei realize that she had talked to the two munchkins for a long time.

Lu Heting must have felt neglected.

She could not help but laugh. Alright, she had to control the time she spent talking with Da Bao and Gun Gun for the next few days!

He was even jealous of his sons. Just how jealous was this man?

She was about to turn around and look for him when a blonde, blue-eyed foreigner walked toward Su Bei. His eyes were filled with enthusiasm and surprise. He walked up to Su Bei and did not hide his joy. "Miss, you're really too beautiful. Can I treat you to dinner? I can even show you the most beautiful beach in Osland!"

"Thank you for your kindness, but I'm here with my husband," Su Bei refused directly.

"Ah, I've been observing you for a while. You're alone. Don't reject me. I'm being sincere. Besides, I'm not a bad person. I won't hurt you." Su Bei's fluent English made him even more delighted, and it emboldened him.

Su Bei smiled and said, "I'm really sorry."

“A beautiful lady like you is definitely not compatible with ordinary men. As for me, I can let you enjoy the treatment of a princess.” The reason why this person was so confident was that he had blonde hair and eyes as blue as the sea.

He was handsome according to his country’s standards.

He was more than 1.8 meters tall, and his swimming suit did not hide his strong muscles.

He was confident that no one was more compatible with this young, beautiful, and dazzling miss than himself. Even her husband was surely inferior to him!

He stretched out his hand, stubbornly and confidently placing it in front of Su Bei.

“My husband is here.” Su Bei smiled and looked behind him.

The man didn’t care at all but followed Su Bei’s gaze to look behind him. He didn’t take Asian men seriously and felt that this lady’s husband must be nothing special.

He looked over indifferently but suddenly saw the face of an extremely deep and handsome Asian man. The man was exceptionally tall and had an imposing aura. He was walking over.

For some reason, looking at this man made him feel a little guilty. He did not dare to look directly into this man’s eyes.

His originally disapproving expression became solemn because of the Asian man’s approach. He subconsciously moved to the side.

Finally, when Lu Heting was about to reach the two of them, the foreign man could no longer withstand the huge pressure or his inferiority complex. He smiled awkwardly and turned to leave.

Su Bei could not help but purse her lips and chuckle.

Lu Heting approached Su Bei and looked at the back of the man who fled. “Did he come looking for you?”

“He was just asking for directions.” Su Bei smiled.

“Really?” Lu Heting narrowed his eyes but did not probe further.

Su Bei smiled and asked, “Where did you go?”

“I saw you chatting with Gun Gun, so I went to get you a coconut. Let’s go over and drink it.”

Su Bei patted her chest gently. Fortunately, he was not jealous over Da Bao and Gun Gun.

Su Bei went to a coconut tree and drank the cool coconut juice while stepping on the fine sand.

Lu Heting recorded this scene on his phone.

The woman looked unbelievably beautiful from this angle. He could easily get a beautiful photo that looked straight out of a blockbuster.

Su Bei finished her coconut juice and took out her phone. She pointed it at him and shouted, “I’m taking photos too.”

'If I'm a character out of a painting, so are you.'

...

When the evening breeze was slightly cold, she and Lu Heting returned to the shore and waited for the seafood to be served in a restaurant that had been reserved.

She and Lu Heting took off their sunglasses.

As they were overseas, not many people recognized them. They could enjoy their free time comfortably.

"Su Bei!"

Someone shouted Su Bei's name.

Su Bei looked in the direction of the voice and saw Lin Wenyu running toward her.

Yuan Haoyang, who was behind her, was following her with a doting expression.

"What a coincidence!" Lin Wenyu ran over to greet them. "So you and Mr. Lu are on vacation here."

"What a coincidence." Su Bei smiled. "So you're also here on vacation?"

Lin Wenyu blushed and said happily, "We're here for a pre-marital trip."

"Are you getting married soon?" Su Bei smiled in surprise.

"That's right, that's right." Lin Wenyu generously endured it. The blush on her face had yet to fade. "You must come to our wedding banquet."

"Of course."

Lin Wenyu looked especially excited and chattered non-stop.

Yuan Haoyang and Lu Heting were not familiar with each other, so they had nothing to say to each other.

However, the two men were not talkative to begin with. They did as their women pleased and did not feel awkward or bored.

Su Bei asked them to stay for dinner.

After the meal, Lin Wenyu left reluctantly. She still had to inspect which hotel was suitable, decide where to hold the wedding, choose their honeymoon location, and so on.

After hearing this, Lu Heting lowered his head in deep thought.

Su Bei could roughly guess what he was thinking. Until now, they still hadn't held their wedding. He felt guilty about it.

However, Su Bei really did not care about this. The family of four living happily together was more important than anything else.

She held his hand and said with a smile, "Go diving with me tomorrow. I heard that the deep sea here is especially beautiful!"

“Okay.” Lu Heting smiled indulgently.

...

Lin Wenyu and Yuan Haoyang liked the beach here very much, but it was still uncertain if they would hold their wedding here.

“I think this place is not bad either, but Paris and Italy are also great. Actually, a few cities in our country are also beautiful. Perhaps there are other better places.” Lin Wenyu counted with her fingers.

“Then let’s take a look around and go to all the places you want to go. We can slowly choose when we get home,” Yuan Haoyang said.

Lin Wenyu nodded, then shook her head. “Will that take up too much of your time? Aren’t you going to release a new album?”

Chapter 1677 Mean And Resentful

“The new album can be released anytime.” Yuan Haoyang looked down at her. “But I only have one wife and only one wedding.”

Lin Wenyu stuck out her tongue. “Alright, then don’t find me annoying. I have many places I want to go to.”

“Sure.” Yuan Haoyang smiled and added in his heart, ‘Forever.’

She pulled open the curtains and looked at the sea in front of her. “Shall we go diving later?”

!!

“Don’t you think you owe me something?” Yuan Haoyang walked to the window and hugged her from behind.

Lin Wenyu was puzzled. “What?”

Something appeared on Yuan Haoyang’s fingertip, and he waved it in front of her.

Lin Wenyu immediately blushed. “Why do you have this?!”

“Have you forgotten that this is what you left in my room last time?”

Lin Wenyu remembered that this was a gift from her mother last time. Her mother hoped that she wouldn’t forget to protect herself when she was in a relationship.

Back then, she and Yuan Haoyang almost used it. However, in the chaos, the two of them did not have the time to do so.

She didn’t know where the box went after that, so she didn’t take it to heart.

Unexpectedly, Yuan Haoyang kept it.

Yuan Haoyang grabbed her with both hands and propped her up in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling window.

The waves were surging, and she could hear them in her ears. She could only hear his hoarse voice. “Can I?”

She blushed for a moment. The next second, she stood on her tiptoes and responded to him with her actions.

...

Lin Wenyu and Yuan Haoyang did not stay here for long before going elsewhere.

Su Bei liked the beach here very much and stayed for a few more days.

It didn't matter where Lu Heting was. He was happy to be wherever Su Bei was.

While Su Bei and Lu Heting were staying by the seaside, Fu Yujia and Wen Kaiwei got off the plane and arrived at the beach.

Because of Sister Wen Wen's matter, Sheng Tang Entertainment's reputation plummeted. Their reputation was severely damaged, and many internal shareholders and senior executives were dissatisfied.

After all, this scandal involved not only a relationship but also the reputation of the company.

Fu Yujia was in a bad mood, so Wen Kaiwei suggested accompanying her to relax.

Coincidentally, they came to the same place as Lu Heting and Su Bei.

Fu Yujia saw them from afar and stopped in her tracks.

She could be considered to have grown up with Lu Heting. He had always been silent and cold. Even to her, he only greeted her at family banquets. The rest of the time, he did not engage in any personal relationship with her, let alone show his anger.

However, Fu Yujia had a deep love for Lu Heting since she was young. This feeling had been buried deeper and deeper. As time passed, her love had long grown into a towering tree.

Initially, she thought that she could forget about her feelings after he got married.

However, during those years overseas, she did not manage to do it at all. He was even more unforgettable.

That was why she had no choice but to return to the country. Even if she could only see him from afar and could only visit the Lu family, it was still good.

After coming back for so long, Fu Yujia had gone to the Lu family countless times. However, the number of times she saw Lu Heting could be counted on one hand.

He was still as polite and distant as before. There was no personal emotion.

She thought that he was like this to everyone, but on the distant beach, Su Bei was fiddling with something above his head. Not only did he not complain at all, but his eyes were also filled with indulgence. Once the corners of his lips curled up, he could not suppress it at all.

It was a side of Lu Heting that Fu Yujia had never seen before.

It was so unfamiliar that it hurt her eyes.

She held her breath. She felt that her mood had worsened after this trip.

Wen Kaiwei sensed her emotions and followed her gaze. He happened to see this scene.

He said calmly, "Do you want to go over and say hello?"

Fu Yujia was instinctively afraid. She wanted to see Lu Heting, but she was afraid that he would give her a hard time.

In particular, if he treated her and Su Bei differently, she did not know if she could tolerate it.

Her only hope was to deal with the elders of the Lu family first and establish her foundation.

"No need. Let's go dive at the side," Fu Yujia said, gently pinching her palm.

Wen Kaiwei did not say anything and followed her.

While diving, Fu Yujia was still in a bad mood. She almost suffocated several times.

"Forget it. Let's rest for a while." Wen Kaiwei got her some water and sat down with her.

In the distance, Lu Heting and Su Bei had already disappeared. It seemed that they had gone diving.

As far as Wen Kaiwei knew, Lu Heting had never been interested in these things. When he was in his teens, he lived like an old man.

Seeing him play with Su Bei now, he must have found his true love.

It was unfortunate that the two were obviously meant for each other. Even so, Fu Yujia still refused to let go and even tried to make a place for herself in the Lu family.

Wen Kaiwei did not know what to say.

He had no choice but to help her.

Hence, he was stupid as well.

Seeing that Fu Yujia was in a daze, he casually chatted with her. "It's said that part of Xu Zhiqin's TV show is being filmed here. I heard that Director He also came to visit that day."

Fu Yujia came back to her senses and said calmly, "He Xuyan is too arrogant. He'll regret it in the future."

"It can't be helped. His girlfriend is in Nirvana Entertainment. He must have chosen to have a close relationship with Nirvana Entertainment. Also, I heard that Nirvana Entertainment also interfered in Sister Wen Wen's matter," Wen Kaiwei said.

"Isn't it Su Bei's fault that Sister Wen Wen got into the mess she did?" Like many people, Fu Yujia felt that Su Bei was taking revenge on Sister Wen Wen.

"I've checked it myself. Some information was released by Nirvana Entertainment," Wen Kaiwei said with certainty.

His investigation skills were indeed not bad. Back then, Qiao Mei found some information about Sister Wen Wen and gave it to Nirvana Entertainment.

However, the exposé of Sister Wen Wen was indeed because of ordinary netizens. It was just that they refused to believe this no matter what.

Fu Yujia's hatred for Nirvana Entertainment was no less than her hatred for Su Bei.

One was stopping her career from developing, while the other had snatched away what she cared about the most...

The expression on her face was mean and resentful.

It made Wen Kaiwei's heart ache.

"Forget it, forget it. Let's not talk about this. Do you still want to dive? Why don't I go with you?" He stood up and said to Fu Yujia.

...

Su Bei had a lot of fun these days. With Lu Heting accompanying her, everything was fun.

Before she left, she planned to visit Xu Zhiqin.

However, when she heard that He Xuyan was also here to visit, she dismissed the idea.

"There are plenty of opportunities to meet Zhiqin, but Big Brother and Zhiqin haven't been overseas together. I won't disturb them."

Chapter 1678 Unbearable Yearning

Moreover, she heard that He Xuyan's new movie had received a real investment. The other party really liked the script and was willing to explore new movie technology together. He Xuyan would probably start filming this movie when he returned from overseas.

In the following days, the two of them would really be busy.

...

As Su Bei had expected, He Xuyan specially flew over to visit his girlfriend. In fact, he only stayed for three days before leaving.

Xu Zhiqin took the whole day off to go to the seaside to play and dive with him.

The filming schedule was tight, so Xu Zhiqin could not waste everyone's time for long.

The next day, He Xuyan had to return to the country.

"The filming schedule for the new movie has just been confirmed. I can't stay even if I want to." He Xuyan laughed self-deprecatingly.

"The filming schedule of the movie is specially coordinated with the entire team and all the artistes. You can't ignore other people's time." Xu Zhiqin understood this very well. "Besides, I'll be back soon."

He Xuyan reached out and held her hand. "Wait until my new movie is done filming."

"Okay." Xu Zhiqin smiled. She still remembered his agreement. When his new movie was done filming, she would go to his house to meet his parents and put their marriage on the agenda.

She was looking forward to that day.

When she sent He Xuyan away, she was very reluctant.

But when she thought of the future, she was filled with confidence.

She wrote down the time on her schedule. She could return to the country in a week.

A day apart felt like three years. Now, she truly understood how difficult it was to endure such longing.

This time, Xiao Ling came with Xu Zhiqin. Sometimes when Xu Zhiqin was busy filming, she didn't need Xiao Ling's help, so Xu Zhiqin let her go out for a walk.

It was rare for Xiao Ling to go overseas. She wanted to buy everything. Naturally, she was happy to shop everywhere.

There were a lot of things to buy. She had to bring some gifts back for her family, friends, and colleagues. She ended up buying a big bag of things.

When Xu Zhiqin finished work, she saw Xiao Ling's purchases and couldn't help but laugh. "Is your suitcase big enough?"

"That's right! I have to remember to buy an extra suitcase tomorrow. Otherwise, I really won't be able to fit all of it."

"What are these gift boxes for?" Xu Zhiqin asked.

"I forgot to mention that these things were given to you by your fans. There were a few Asian fans too. They spent a few days waiting and said that they liked the movie you filmed previously."

Xu Zhiqin remembered that she had met a few fans when she first came here.

There was a sense of pride in being liked.

"Xiao Ling, the next time you see a fan, you can just give them my autograph. Don't accept any gifts, especially if you think that the fan will give something expensive," Xu Zhiqin reminded her.

"Okay, okay. They insisted on giving them to me this time, so I had no choice but to accept them. I won't accept them in the future."

Xu Zhiqin thought that it was impossible to return them now, so she didn't say anything else. She said, "Let's open them first and keep what's suitable. They're a token of their appreciation, after all."

Xiao Ling responded and left.

Xu Zhiqin was too busy filming to pay much attention to this matter.

The overall filming went smoothly as expected.

After filming, she talked with Su Bei and booked tickets with the crew to rush back to S Country.

However, something happened at the airport.

Everyone else passed the security check and boarded the plane. Only Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling were left behind.

The police took them into a small dark room and detained them.

Although Xu Zhiqin's English was good, these people had no intention of communicating with them seriously. Their attitudes were very serious and even a little bad.

Xiao Ling was so scared that she cried.

"It's okay, Xiao Ling. The others have already boarded the plane. If something happens to us, they'll definitely contact President Su immediately. The company won't leave us be."

Xiao Ling cried and said, "But can we still go back? Will we be thrown into jail?"

"No, we didn't do anything wrong," Xu Zhiqin said firmly.

"But if we didn't do anything wrong, why did they arrest us?"

Xu Zhiqin tried to think of a reason. She thought for a moment and asked, "Xiao Ling, when you bought the gifts, did you buy anything you shouldn't have?"

"I went to the gift shop to buy them. Besides, many of them were recommended to me by the sales assistant. I saw that everyone else was buying them, so I bought them too. Is there a problem with what I bought?"

Xu Zhiqin didn't think so. It was normal for tourists to buy things in gift shops.

Then the only possibility was...

She immediately asked, "What about the gifts you received from my fans? Do you remember anything about them?"

"I don't really remember, but they're all food and necessities. There's nothing precious or inappropriate about them."

"If that's the case, there's no need to be afraid. We'll definitely be fine," Xu Zhiqin comforted her.

After all, Xiao Ling had never encountered such a thing. Although she was comforted by Xu Zhiqin, she was still very worried.

Back in the country.

Su Bei received the notification from the production team immediately.

"Detained by the customs police? Did the police say what was going on?"

"No, we don't know anything. We only know that something happened to Xu Zhiqin, so we called you immediately."

"I understand. I'll contact them," Su Bei said.

It was the director of the production team who called. He said worriedly, "President Su, we still have some scenes to shoot after coming back. Xu Zhiqin is the female lead, and her scenes are all the highlights. You have to think of a way to get her to come back as soon as possible. Otherwise, the losses will be too great."

"I understand." Su Bei put down the phone. Nirvana Entertainment had invested in the TV show this time, and they had already agreed to give the money after the production was completed. They had even given a deposit.

If something happened to Xu Zhiqin, it would affect the completion time of the TV show. If things went bad, the TV show might not be aired at all.

Indeed, it would have a huge impact on the financial flow and reputation of Nirvana Entertainment.

Su Bei couldn't sit back and do nothing. She immediately called Lu Heting. "I'm going to Osland."

"When?"

Su Bei briefly explained the matter. "It's not a big deal, but if I go over personally, it should be easier to resolve the matter."

Lu Heting said, "I'll get Lu Hang to settle your identity for you."

This was what Su Bei wanted. It was fine for Su Lu to travel around the country, but it was impossible for him to go overseas.

However, if Lu Heting made a move and allowed Su Lu to have a legal identity, it would be much more convenient for her to go abroad.

Chapter 1679 Understand Our Difficulties

Lu Heting assigned Lu Hang the task and reminded him, "Arrange for bodyguards to follow Su Bei at all times."

This time, he could not accompany Su Bei personally, so he was not completely at ease.

Su Bei packed up briefly and went to the airport.

When she arrived at the airport, she received a call from He Xuyan.

"Wait for me."

"Your new movie has already started filming. This trip might take up a lot of time..."

He Xuyan's voice was cold. "Do you think I can still film any quality scenes now?"

Su Bei remained silent and waited for He Xuyan to appear.

A moment later, he appeared while looking travel-worn.

His high spirits were swept away, replaced by a haze.

In less than a day after Xu Zhiqin's incident took place, he had already suffered indescribable torture.

"Brother, it'll be fine," Su Bei said. "The most likely possibility is that they were bringing back something they shouldn't have. This should be a mistake. I believe the people on their side won't be so unreasonable."

"But how could Zhiqing have brought something she shouldn't have by mistake?" He Xuyan did not believe it.

Xu Zhiqin used to be a manager and had accompanied artistes abroad many times.

She must know what to bring and what not to bring.

Su Bei shook her head. "After all, she went there as an actress this time. Xiao Ling was the one who arranged everything around her. Xiao Ling is young, so it's inevitable for her to make mistakes."

He Xuyan said nothing.

The two of them boarded the plane in silence, but each of them was thinking of a solution.

Soon, the two of them arrived at Osland.

Initially, the customs did not agree to let them see Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling.

However, Su Bei and He Xuyan's identities were different, after all. With the Lu and He families extending their influence, the four people quickly met.

Xu Zhiqin and He Xuyan caught up with one another, while Su Bei mainly wanted to understand the situation from Xiao Ling.

Afterward, the person in charge personally sent them out and said, "President Su, Director He, let's sit down and talk."

It seemed that the other party was reasonable.

Previously, they had completely refused to negotiate. Now, their attitude had changed.

He Xuyan didn't look too good. Su Bei pulled him back and said amiably, "Let's find a place to talk."

They were abroad now. Su Bei's goal was to save those two people.

He Xuyan also understood this, and the hostility on his face softened.

"President Su, this matter is very tricky."

"Mr. Andrew, we want to know why Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling were detained by customs."

Mr. Andrew said, "Because we found a first-class protected marine creature in Xu Zhiqin's luggage. Not only is this creature protected in our country, but it's also a symbol that can bless us with good weather in the hearts of the people here. It's respected as a god. This creature was found in Xu Zhiqin's luggage. It was already dead and vacuum-packed. When the customs and the police saw it, no one could accept it."

It was also because of this that everyone's attitude toward Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling was very unfriendly.

It was because they had not only violated the law of the country but also the highest belief in the locals' hearts!

Mr. Andrew glanced at Su Bei and said, "We've already investigated Xu Zhiqin's schedule. When she was in our country, she went diving by the sea. We have reason to believe that she entered the sea at that time and caught this precious creature. She then tried to take it away from our country. In our country, such behavior is usually punishable by more than five years of imprisonment. She'll even be reviled by everyone!"

Facing Su Bei and He Xuyan, the person in charge finally told the truth.

He Xuyan's face darkened. "Xu Zhiqin didn't catch any creatures. I was with her when we were diving that day. I saw all her actions with my own eyes."

"Director He, you're Xu Zhiqin's boyfriend. Even if you go to court, no one will believe your words," Mr. Andrew said. Thinking that their identities could not be underestimated, he said amiably, "We should give you face, but such a thing has happened in our country. We can't exonerate the person involved with just a word. Please understand our difficulties, Mr. Su and Director He."

At this point, Su Bei and He Xuyan could not force it.

Su Bei said, "I think there's a lot of missing information on this matter. Mr. Andrew, we'll also conduct our own investigation. But please treat Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling well during this period. We'll be grateful to you."

"Of course, President Su. We've already made arrangements so that they'll be moved to a comfortable temporary residence," he said politely.

However, no matter how polite he was, this matter concerned his principles. He could not open the back door. Otherwise, he would not be able to face the entire country.

Of course, Xu Zhiqin's reputation in Osland was completely ruined.

After the incident, there were already reporters who came to investigate in detail. When they found out that it was an actress from S Country who was rebellious and did such a thing to harm the interests of the entire Osland, they all criticized and questioned her. She made it on the hot searches of Osland.

After He Xuyan arrived, he used his connections to temporarily suppress these criticisms and the news.

At least on the surface, everything was calm.

However, the media outlets in S Country quickly received the news and reported what had happened to Xu Zhiqin in Osland.

All of a sudden, it became a question mark whether the TV show she was in could be completed.

After all, there had been a case of a foreign singer diving deep into the sea in Osland and attempting to bring away a national-level protected creature.

According to the information released by the media, the singer was also detained because of this matter.

The singer's management company tried their best to mediate, and they eventually bailed out the singer from jail.

However... that was 18 months after the accident took place.

Later on, the singer's album was suspended. When they returned to the country, they were already a nobody.

The fans were also discussing fervently. [I don't believe Zhiqin would do such a thing. She was a manager before, so it's impossible for her not to know the seriousness of this matter.]

[Could she have been framed by someone?]

[I didn't know there were so many things to take note of when going overseas. I have to be careful in the future. Otherwise, I won't be able to come back.]

[Anyway, if she doesn't come back, this TV show is really going to be ruined.]

[Nirvana Entertainment is in trouble this time. The first TV show that they invested in is in deep waters. President Su, you really have to be more careful. You can't bite off more than you can chew.]

Chapter 1680 Feeling Guilty

Fu Yujia, who was on vacation overseas, finally felt better when she saw the news.

She bought a plane ticket and was about to return to the country.

Wen Kaiwei planned to stay for a few more days.

"Are you really not going back?" Fu Yujia rushed back to watch the show.

Wen Kaiwei was relaxed and complacent. "If you want to watch a good show, you have to stay in the nearest place to watch it."

Fu Yujia did not insist. She took her suitcase and left Osland.

A sinister smile appeared on Wen Kaiwei's face. Xu Zhiqin was unlucky to have bumped into him.

It was her fault for filming here and stumbling upon him.

This time, Nirvana Entertainment could only pray for themselves.

...

Su Bei now understood the reason why Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling were detained. She relayed the news to them.

Xu Zhiqin was especially surprised. "They found that creature in my luggage?"

"Yeah. A dead state-protected animal that's worshipped as a deity in Osland was found in vacuum packaging in your luggage. Ring any bells?"

Xu Zhiqin shook her head. "No, not at all. I've never thought of bringing such a thing back to the country. If I wanted to eat seafood, I would only want to buy fresh seafood. I wouldn't preserve it in this way."

"I know. Big Brother was diving with you at that time. He knows best if you did it or not."

Xu Zhiqin smiled bitterly. "But the judge and examiner wouldn't believe him, right?"

After a moment of silence, Xu Zhiqin asked, "How's the situation with the TV show now? Has the party that paid a deposit asked for a refund?"

Su Bei nodded.

After all, they did not believe that Xu Zhiqin would be able to go out in a short period of time. It was a question of whether Nirvana Entertainment could hand over its work as scheduled.

No one could be blamed.

"I'm sorry." Xu Zhiqin lowered her head.

"It has nothing to do with you," Su Bei comforted her. "Don't worry, I'll definitely give you justice for this matter."

Su Bei went to see Xiao Ling again.

After hearing the whole story, Xiao Ling said in surprise, "That's a gift from the fans! At that time, the fans gave me a lot of things and stuffed them all into my hands. When I came back to my senses, they had all left. Later, I saw that this thing was quite fresh and was a local specialty. I thought it would definitely be good to bring it home and share it with everyone, so I kept it."

"Do you remember what those people looked like?"

Xiao Ling shook her head. "There were too many people, and it happened a long time ago. I couldn't even see their faces clearly."

She grabbed her fingers and asked, "President Su, I'm sorry. I didn't expect to cause you so much trouble. It's all my fault. Zhiqin told me long ago not to accept gifts from fans. I didn't do my job well and gave others a chance to make a move."

"Someone wanted to frame Zhiqin, so even if they didn't start with you, they would've found other ways. You don't have to blame yourself too much."

Xiao Ling looked at Su Bei. "Then when can we go out?"

"We're working hard to get you two out," Su Bei said.

The tricky thing was that this case had been made known to all. All the people in Osland who had come into contact with the case were especially unfriendly to Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling.

If Su Bei really took them away with special privileges, it would be a stain on their reputations. The higher-ups here would not be able to answer to their subordinates either.

He Xuyan busied himself with this matter for a long time.

At the moment, what Xiao Ling said was not evidence.

It was because she said that the fans had given it to her. When she received it, there was no surveillance equipment around. She did not remember what the fans looked like or how old they were. Everything was vague.

The problematic item was found in Xu Zhiqin's luggage. The fingerprints on it belonged to Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling. It could be said that the evidence was conclusive.

In the hotel room.

He Xuyan looked unhappy and was on the phone with someone.

Su Bei, on the other hand, was looking at the previous case of the singer who got into the same problem and how their company handled it.

Su Bei watched the news. "When the singer got into trouble, it was the singer who caught this creature when they were diving. Because they found it interesting, they brought it ashore. At that time, the tour guide and the swimming coach didn't see it, so they didn't pay much attention to it. After the singer got into trouble, many people who came to Osland were educated on this. However, this creature is rare, and it's similar to some seafood. It's difficult for ordinary people to distinguish it."

He Xuyan put down the phone. "If this is a coincidence, it's too much of a coincidence."

"Yes, I don't believe it's a coincidence either. But Zhiqin doesn't have any enemies..." Su Bei looked at He Xuyan, wanting to get more information from him.

He Xuyan said, "The only people who don't get along with Zhiqin are Yali, Pan Hongsen, and Wei Yuxin. I've just investigated. Yali and Pan Hongsen have been active in the country recently. In order to work and make a comeback, they're in a terrible fix. They didn't have time to frame Zhi Qin at all. As for Wei Yuxin, she's busy currying favor with the He family in America. She didn't have any chance to harm Zhi Qin."

"Then the other party must be attacking Nirvana Entertainment as well," Su Bei said. "The news on my side is that many celebrities and bosses have come to Osland to play as it's the best season now. Among them were Fu Yujia and Wen Kaiwei."

He Xuyan nodded. "I understand. I'll ask my friend to find out Fu Yujia and Wen Kaiwei's whereabouts."

These two people had been at odds with Nirvana Entertainment for a long time. Previously, they had a grudge against He Xuyan for rejecting their cooperation.

It was hard to say that they wouldn't lay a hand on Xu Zhiqin.

...

Only two days had passed since Su Bei and He Xuyan came.

However, He Xuyan couldn't wait any longer.

At the thought that Xu Zhiqin was suffering, he was unable to accept it. Never mind that she was staying in a comfortable residence and was not treated like a suspect.

He bought some food and went to visit Xu Zhiqin.

Seeing that she had obviously lost weight, displeasure flashed across He Xuyan's face as soon as he sat down.

"Eat some first." He pushed the food over.

Xu Zhiqin actually didn't have much of an appetite. Such a big thing had happened, and her heart was suffering.

Not only did she leave a criminal record now, but she also implicated Su Bei and the entire Nirvana Entertainment. She felt guilty.

However, looking at He Xuyan's heartbroken expression and urging gaze, she still took the food and stuffed it into her mouth bit by bit.

He Xuyan's heart ached when he saw this. He reached out his long fingers and wiped away the food residue from her lips. "Wait another two days. I've already made some progress. Soon, I can bring you back to the country."

"Okay!" Xu Zhiqin's eyes were filled with trust!

When He Xuyan walked out, he contacted the best lawyer and checked Fu Yujia's whereabouts. He learned that Fu Yujia had already returned to the country while Wen Kaiwei was still here.
